Title 38
Chapter I:
Part 1	6007

Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 853.661 (Lemon Regulation 554; 19 F. R. 5883), are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 325 carloads.

Dated: September 14, 1954.

Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

[Regs. 118; T. D. 6099]

PART 39—INCOME TAX: TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1951

CHANGE OF ACCOUNTING PERIOD; SHORT TAXABLE YEAR ENDING AFTER JUNE 30, 1953

In order that taxpayers filing returns for short taxable years resulting from a change of accounting period may have the same length of time to file such returns as they have in the case of returns covering taxable years of twelve months, § 39.46–1 (b) (1) of Regulations 118 (26 CFR 39.46–1 (b) (1)) is amended by striking the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof two sentences reading as follows: "To make such a change, the taxpayer shall file a return for the short taxable year within the period which would be applicable if the taxpayer were filing a return for a taxable year of 12 months ending on the last day of the short taxable year. The return shall be accompanied by a statement that it is made under the authorization conferred by this section."

As amended, § 39.46–1 (b) (1) will read as follows:

§ 39.46–1 Change of accounting period. • • •

(b) Short taxable years ending after June 30, 1953—(1) General. A change of accounting period for income tax purposes requiring a return for a short taxable year ending after June 30, 1953, is authorized, except where inconsistent with section 41, requiring the use of the calendar year basis in certain specific cases, and except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and no application for such change need be filed. To make such a change, the taxpayer shall file a return for the short taxable year within the period which would be applicable if the taxpayer were filing a return for a taxable year of 12 months ending on the last day of the short taxable year. The return shall be accompanied by a statement that it is made under the authorization conferred by this section. Once a change of accounting period has been made, the taxpayer shall thereafter make his returns and compute his net income on the basis of the new accounting period.

• • • • • •

Because the amendment made by this Treasury decision merely extends the due dates for certain returns for short taxable years in connection with the change of an accounting period, it is found unnecessary to issue such Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of that act.

Subchapter B—Estate and Gift Taxes

[Regs. 105; T. D. 6101]

PART 81—REGULATIONS RELATING TO ESTATE TAX

EXAMINATION OF RETURN AND DETERMINATION OF TAX

In order to provide in Regulations 105 (26 CFR Part 81) that requests for a determination of the estate tax and discharge from personal liability shall be filed with the appropriate district director of internal revenue, § 81.71 is amended to read as follows:

§ 81.71 Examination of return and determination of tax. (a) As soon as practicable after returns are filed, they will be examined and the amount of the tax determined under such procedure as may be prescribed from time to time.

(b) The executor may make written application to the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the return is filed for a determination of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor. Within one year after receipt of such application, or if the application is made before the return is filed then within one year after the return is filed, the executor will be notified of the amount of the tax, and upon payment thereof he will be discharged from personal liability for any deficiency in the tax thereafter found to be due.

Because the purpose of this Treasury decision is merely to change the place of filing certain documents, it is found that it is unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of said act.

Subchapter D—Employment Taxes

[Regs. 107; T. D. 6100]

PART 403—EXCISE TAX ON EMPLOYERS UNDER THE FEDERAL UNEMPLOYMENT TAX ACT

STATUS OF SERVICES PERFORMED BY SEAMEN EMPLOYED ON CERTAIN VESSELS OPERATED BY GENERAL AGENTS OF SECRETARY OF COMMERCE

On July 14, 1954, a notice of proposed rule making with respect to amendments to conform Regulations 107 (26 CFR Part 403), relating to the excise tax on employers under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (subchapter C, chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code of 1939), to section 1607 (o) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, added by Public Law 196, 83d Congress, approved August 5, 1953, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 4329). No objection to the rules proposed having been received, the amendments set forth below are hereby adopted:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 3797 (a) and (b) of the Internal Revenue Code" as set forth preceding § 403.201, the following is inserted:

SECTION 2 OF PUBLIC LAW 196, 83D CONGRESS, APPROVED AUGUST 5, 1953

Section 1607 of the Internal Revenue Code is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(o) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (c) (6) of this section, service performed on or after July 1, 1953, by officers and members of the crew of a vessel which would otherwise be included as employment under subsection (c) of this section shall not be excluded by reason of the fact that it is performed on or in connection with an American vessel (1) owned by or bareboat chartered to the United States and (2) whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce. For the purposes of this subchapter, each such general agent shall be considered a legal entity in his capacity as such general agent, separate and distinct from his identity as a person employing individuals on his own account, and the officers and members of the crew of such an American vessel whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce shall be deemed to be performing services for such general agent rather than the United States. Each such general agent who in his capacity as such is an employer within the meaning of subsection (a) of this section shall be subject to all the requirements imposed upon an employer under this subchapter with respect to service which constitutes employment by reason of this subsection.

PAR 2. There is inserted immediately preceding § 403.203 the following:

SECTION 1607 (O) OF THE ACT

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (c) (6) of this section, service performed on or after July 1, 1953, by officers and members of the crew of a vessel which would otherwise be included as employment under subsection (c) of this section shall not be excluded by reason of the fact that it is performed on or in connection with an American vessel (1) owned by or bareboat chartered to the United States and (2) whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce. For the purposes of this subchapter, each such general agent shall be considered a legal entity in his capacity as such general agent, separate and distinct from his identity as a person employing individuals on his own account, and the officers and members of the crew of such an American vessel whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce shall be deemed to be performing services for such general agent rather than the United States. Each such general agent who in his capacity as such is an employer within the meaning of subsection (a) of this section shall be subject to all the requirements imposed upon an employer under this subchapter with respect to service which constitutes employment by reason of this subsection. (Sec. 2, P. L. 196, 83d Cong., approved Aug. 5, 1953, 67 Stat. 386.)

PAR. 3. Section 403.203, as amended by Treasury Decision 5905, approved May 27, 1952, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(e) Services performed on an American vessel whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce. (1) Section 1607 (o) of the act and this paragraph apply with respect only to services performed on or after July 1, 1953, by an officer or member of the crew of an American vessel (i) which is owned by or bareboat chartered to the United States and (ii) whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce. Whether services performed on or after July 1, 1953, by such an officer or member of a crew under the above conditions constitute employment is determined under section 1607 (c) and (o) of the act, but without regard to section 1607 (c) (6) of the act (see § 403.213, relating to services performed in the employ of the United States and instrumentalities thereof). If, without regard to section 1607 (c) (6), such services constitute employment within the meaning of the act, they are not excepted from employment by reason of the fact that they are performed on or in connection with an American vessel which is owned by or bareboat chartered to the United States and whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce, that is, such services are not excepted from employment by section 1607 (c) (6). (For provisions relating to services performed within the United States and services performed outside the United States which constitute employment, see paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.)

(2) The expression "officer or member of the crew" includes the master or officer in charge of the vessel, however designated, and every individual, subject to his authority, serving on board and contributing in any way to the operation and welfare of the vessel. Thus, the expression includes, for example, the master, mates, pilots, pursers, surgeons, stewards, engineers, firemen, cooks, clerks, carpenters, and deck hands.

(3) An employee of the United States who performs services as an officer or member of the crew of an American vessel which is owned by or bareboat chartered to the United States and whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce shall be deemed, under section 1607 (o) of the act, to be performing services for such general agent rather than for the United States. Any such general agent of the Secretary of Commerce is considered a legal entity in his capacity as such general agent, separate and distinct from his identity as a person employing individuals on his own account. Each such general agent who, in his capacity as a legal entity separate and distinct from his own identity as a person employing individuals on his own account, qualifies as an employer under section 1607 (a) of the act (see § 403.205) with respect to a particular calendar year is with respect to such year subject to the tax and to all of the requirements imposed upon an employer under the act, and this part with respect to services which constitute employment by reason of section 1607 (o) of the act and this paragraph.

PAR. 4. Section 403.205, relating to who are employers, is amended by adding at the end of the first paragraph thereof the following: "(For provisions relating to the circumstances under which an employee who performs services as an officer or member of the crew of an American vessel (1) which is owned by or bareboat chartered to the United States and (2) whose business is conducted by a general agent of the Secretary of Commerce shall be deemed to be performing services for such general agent rather than for the United States, see section 1607 (o) of the act, set forth preceding §§ 403.203 and 403.203 (e).)"

PAR. 5. Section 403.213, as amended by Treasury Decision 5566, approved June 23, 1947, is further amended by revising the first sentence thereof to read as follows: "Services performed in the employ of the United States Government, except as provided in section 1607 (m) and (o) of the act (see § 403.203 (d) and (e)), are excepted."

PART 408—EMPLOYEE TAX AND EMPLOYER TAX UNDER THE FEDERAL INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT; APPLICABLE ON AND AFTER JANUARY 1, 1951

SERVICES PERFORMED BY CERTAIN AGRICULTURAL WORKERS FROM MEXICO

On July 7, 1954, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 4110) a notice of proposed rule making with respect to amendments to conform Regulations 128 (26 CFR Part 408), relating to the employee tax and the employer tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (subchapter A, chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code of 1939), to certain provisions of title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as added by Public Law 78, 82d Congress, approved July 12, 1951, and as amended by Public Law 237, 83d Congress, approved August 8, 1953. No objection to the rules proposed having been received, the amendments set forth below are hereby adopted:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 3797 (a) and (b) of the Internal Revenue Code" as set forth preceding § 408.201, the following is inserted:

SECTION 505 (b) OF THE AGRICULTURAL ACT OF 1949, AS ADDED BY PUBLIC LAW 78, 82D CONGRESS, APPROVED JULY 12, 1951

Section 1426 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof a new subparagraph as follows:

(C) Service performed by foreign agricultural workers under contracts entered into in accordance with title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended.

PAR. 2 Section 408.203 (a), relating to employment after December 31, 1950, is amended as follows:

(A) By revising the first two sentences thereof to read as follows: "Whether services performed on or after January 1, 1951, constitute employment is determined under section 1426 (b) of the act, that is, section 1426 (b), as amended, effective January 1, 1951, by section 204 (a) of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1950, and as further amended, effective July 12, 1951, by section 505 (b) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as added by Public Law 78, 82d Congress, relating to services performed by certain agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico. This section of the regulations in this part, and §§ 408.204 and 408.205 (relating to who are employees and employers), § 408.206 (relating to excepted services in general), § 408.207 (relating to included and excluded services), and § 408.208 and §§ 408.209 to 408.225, inclusive (relating to certain classes of excepted services), apply with respect only to services performed on or after January 1, 1951."

(B) By inserting immediately after the second sentence thereof the following: "Section 408.208a, relating to excepted services performed by certain agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico, applies with respect only to services performed on or after July 12, 1951."

PAR. 3. Section 408.206, relating to excepted services in general, is amended as follows:

(A) By revising the first sentence of paragraph (a) thereof to read as follows: "Services performed on or after January 1, 1951, by an employee for an employer do not constitute employment for purposes of the tax if they are specifically excepted from employment under any of the numbered paragraphs of section 1426 (b) of the act, that is, section 1426 (b), as amended, effective January 1, 1951, by section 204 (a) of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1950, and as further amended, effective July 12, 1951, by section 505 (b) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as added by Public Law 78, 82d Congress, relating to services performed by certain agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico."

(B) By deleting the first sentence of paragraph (c) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "This section, § 408.207 (relating to included and excluded services), and § 408.208 and §§ 408.209 to 408.225, inclusive (relating to certain classes of excepted services), apply with respect only to services performed on or after January 1, 1951. Section 408.208a, relating to excepted services performed by certain agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico, applies with respect only to services performed on or after July 12, 1951."

PAR. 4. The caption "Section 1426 (b) (1) of the Act" as set forth immediately following § 408.207 is changed to read "Section 1426 (b) (1) (A) and (B) of the Act".

PAR. 5. Section 408.208 (a), relating to agricultural labor, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "For provisions relating to services which are excepted from employment by section 1426 (b) (1) (C) of the act, relating to services performed by foreign agricultural workers under contracts entered into in accordance with title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, see § 408.208a."

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately after § 408.208 the following:

SECTION 1426 (b) (1) (C) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, • • •; except that • • • such term shall not include—

(C) Service performed by foreign agricultural workers under contracts entered into in accordance with title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended. (Sec. 1426 (b) (1) (C), I. R. C., as added, effective July 12, 1951, by sec. 505 (b) of the Agricultural Act of 1949.)

TITLE V OF THE AGRICULTURAL ACT OF 1949, AS ADDED BY PUBLIC LAW 78, 82D CONGRESS, APPROVED JULY 12, 1951

SEC. 501. For the purpose of assisting in such production of agricultural commodities and products as the Secretary of Agriculture deems necessary, by supplying agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico (pursuant to arrangements between the United States and the Republic of Mexico), the Secretary of Labor is authorized—

(1) To recruit such workers (including any such workers who have resided in the United States for the preceding five years, or who are temporarily in the United States under legal entry);

• • • • • •

(5) To assist such workers and employers in negotiating contracts for agricultural employment (such workers being free to accept or decline agricultural employment with any eligible employer and to choose the type of agricultural employment they desire, and eligible employers being free to offer agricultural employment to any workers of their choice not under contract to other employers);

• • • • • •

SEC. 507. For the purposes of this title—

(1) The term "agricultural employment" includes services or activities included within the provisions of section 3 (f) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, or section 1426 (h) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, horticultural employment, cotton ginning, compressing and storing, crushing of oil seeds, and the packing, canning, freezing, drying, or other processing of perishable or seasonable agricultural products.

• • • • • •

SEC. 509. No workers will be made available under this title for employment after December 31, 1953. (65 Stat. 119, 7 U. S. C. 1461.)

PUBLIC LAW 237, 83D CONGRESS, APPROVED AUGUST 8, 1953

• • • section 509 of title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, is amended by striking out "December 31, 1953" and inserting in lieu thereof "December 31, 1955". (67 Stat. 500.)

SECTION 3 (f) OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT OF 1938, AS AMENDED

"Agriculture" includes farming in all its branches and among other things includes the cultivation and tillage of the soil, dairying, the production, cultivation, growing, and harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodities (including commodities defined as agricultural commodities in section 15 (g) of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended), the raising of livestock, bees, fur-bearing animals, or poultry, and any practices (including any forestry or lumbering operations) performed by a farmer or on a farm as an incident to or in conjunction with such farming operations, including preparation for market, delivery to storage or to market or to carriers for transportation to market. (Sec. 3 (f), Act of June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1060, 29 U. S. C. 203 (f).)

§ 408.208a Service performed by certain agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico. Services performed on or after July 12, 1951, by agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico, under contracts entered into in accordance with title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, are excepted from employment. Contracts entered into pursuant to the provisions of such title V may provide for the performance only of services which constitute "agricultural employment". For purposes of title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, the term "agricultural employment" includes services or activities included within the provisions of section 3 (f) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, or section 1426 (h) of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (see § 408.208 (d)), horticultural employment, cotton ginning, compressing and storing, crushing of oil seeds, and the packing, canning, freezing, drying, or other processing of perishable or seasonable agricultural products. Thus, the term "agricultural employment" includes certain services which do not constitute "agricultural labor" as that term is defined in section 1426 (h) of the act. Inasmuch as services performed by agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico under contracts entered into in accordance with title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, are categorically excepted from employment under section 1426 (b) (1) (C) of the act, the conditions prescribed in section 1426 (b) (1) (A) of the act for determining whether agricultural labor performed by an employee for an employer in a calendar quarter is excepted from employment have no application to any services which constitute agricultural labor and which are excepted from employment under this section. For provisions relating to agricultural labor which is excepted from employment under section 1426 (b) (1) (A) and (B) of the act, see § 408.208.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Immediately following § 1.667, a new centerhead and §§ 1.750 through 1.755 are added as follows:

APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF CONTRACTING OFFICERS UNDER CONSTRUCTION AND RELATED CONTRACTS

Sec.
1.750 Appeals authority.
1.751 Appeals organization.
1.752 Method of appeals.
1.753 Procedure of Appeals Board.
1.754 Report by Appeals Board.
1.755 Notification of decision.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1.750 to 1.755 issued under sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, as amended, sec. 2, 46 Stat. 1016; 38 U. S. C. 11a, 426. Interpret or apply 68 Stat. 81.

§ 1.750 Appeals authority—(a) Contract provisions. Provisions of Veterans' Administration construction contracts and contracts for architect-engineer services include a clause under which certain disputes arising under the contract and not disposed of by agreement shall be decided by the contracting officer subject to written appeal by the contractor, within 30 days, addressed to "the head of the department," the Administrator of Veterans Affairs, or "his duly authorized representative." This provision may be reflected, in detailed applications, in the specifications included in a particular contract.

(b) Finality of decisions. Public Law 356, 83d Cong. (68 Stat. 81), approved May 11, 1954 (sec. 1), permits judicial review of decisions of the head of a department or agency or his duly authorized representative or board in all such disputes: Provided however, That any such decision shall be final and conclusive unless the same is fradulent or capricious or arbitrary or so grossly erroneous as necessarily to imply bad faith, or is not supported by substantial evidence. The same act (sec. 2) prohibits inclusion in any Government contract of a provision making final the decision of any administrative official, representative, or board on a question of law. Any statement in a Veterans' Administration construction or related contract concerning the finality of administrative decisions under its provisions will be understood and interpreted as effective only to the extent consistent with Public Law 356, 83d Congress.

§ 1.751 Appeals organization—(a) Assistant Administrator for Construction. By definition, under the general provisions of Veterans' Administration construction contracts, the term "head of the department" means the head or any assistant head of the executive department or independent establishment involved, and the term "his duly authorized representative" means any person authorized to act for him other than the contracting officer. By delegation from the Administrator of Veterans Affairs, or "head of the department," the Assistant Administrator for Construction is his duly authorized representative for the hearing of appeals from decisions of Veterans' Administration contracting officers under construction and architect-engineer contracts and for rendering decisions thereon in accordance with contract provisions.

(b) Construction Contract Appeals Board. There has been established in the office of the Assistant Administrator for Construction a Construction Contract Appeals Board charged with responsibility for ascertaining and reporting to the Assistant Administrator the facts and circumstances attending appeals by contractors from decisions of Veterans' Administration contracting officers, submitted in accordance with provisions of construction and architect-engineer contracts, and for making recommendations thereon for his decision.

(1) The Construction Contract Appeals Board (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") is authorized by the Assistant Administrator for Construction to conduct such proceedings, to take such other actions and to adopt such rules and procedures as may be necessary and appropriate for accomplishment of its assigned functions and for efficient disposition of matters which may properly come before it.

(2) All Veterans' Administration contracting officers and other Veterans' Administration officials and employees having responsibility for or official knowledge of the award, administration, or supervision of construction or architect-engineer contracts, or of work performed thereunder, are required to furnish the Board such information, evidence, technical data, and similar assistance as the Board may properly require from time to time in the performance of its duties.

§ 1.752 Method of appeals—(a) Address. If the contractor takes issue with a written decision of the Veterans' Administration contracting officer upon a dispute concerning a question or questions of fact arising under a construction or architect-engineer contract, he may file a written appeal from the decision, as provided under terms of the contract and within the time specified therein. Appeals should be mailed or otherwise furnished to the contracting officer and addressed to the Assistant Administrator for Construction, Veterans' Administration Munitions Building, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Construction Contract Appeals Board.

(b) Information to be submitted by appellant. While no particular form is prescribed for the notice of appeal, the following items should be included therein to avoid time-consuming delays and possible necessity for cross-correspondence:

(1) Contract number and date, and name of the contracting officer.

(2) General statement as to the subject matter of the contract, e. g., for the construction of ---- at ----.

(3) Date and nature of the decision of the contracting officer from which appeal is taken.

(4) Relief sought by the appellant.

(5) Advise as to whether the appellant desires to rest his appeal upon the present record (which would include all of the applicable files and data of the contracting officer), whether the appellant intends to submit a written brief in support of his contentions, or whether, in addition to submitting a written brief, the appellant desires also to appear personally before the Board or be represented in support of his contentions. There may be included in the notice of appeal under subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, the appellant's reasoning and arguments in favor of the appeal, in lieu of a brief.

(c) Information to be submitted by contracting officer. Appeals received by the contracting officer will be forwarded promptly to the Construction Contract Appeals Board and the contracting officer will, in turn, within reasonable time thereafter, furnish to the Board the following information:

(1) Detailed statement of the reasons and findings of fact upon which was based the decision from which appeal is being filed.

(2) Copies of the contract documents, including applicable plans, specifications, change orders, supplemental agreements, and related material.

(3) Copies of all correspondence and other records having a bearing upon the matter in dispute, together with such other data as the contracting officer may consider pertinent or as the Board may specifically request during consideration of the appeal. Material from files of the contracting officer will be returned following decision upon the appeal.

(d) Preliminary action by Board. The Board will promptly acknowledge receipt of notice of appeal filed, in proper form as outlined in this section, by a contractor. Upon request by the appellant, the Board will furnish him with a statement of the contracting officer's findings of fact and reasons for the decision as indicated to the Board (paragraph (c) (1) of this section). The contracting officer's files and other internal administrative data before the Board will not be available for inspection by the appellant.

§ 1.753 Procedure of Appeals Board—(a) Consideration on basis of record. Should the appellant indicate that he rests his case upon the record and his notice of appeal, without the filing of a brief or a personal appearance before the Board, the Board will, upon receipt of the information to be furnished by the contracting officer, consider the facts before it, obtaining and including such further data and evidence as the Board may, in its judgment, consider necessary to a proper adjudication. As promptly as the matters involved in the case will admit, the Board will make its determinations and recommendations thereon.

(b) Consideration on record and written brief. Should the appellant indicate that he rests his case upon the record as supplemented by his written brief, without personal appearance before the Board, the Board will, upon receipt of the information to be furnished by the contracting officer and the brief to be furnished by the appellant, consider the facts before it, obtaining and including such further data and evidence as the Board may, in its judgment, consider necessary to a proper adjudication. As promptly as the matters involved in the case will admit, the Board will make its determinations and recommendations thereon.

(1) No particular form is prescribed for appellant's brief, if one is submitted.

(2) The brief should be in sufficient detail to set out clearly the issues and the appellant's position with respect thereto, and may include such supporting data and documentation as the appellant considers necessary to sustain his position.

(c) Personal appearance of appellant. An appellant may appear before the Board in person or be represented by counsel (including any duly authorized person), or both in person and by representation.

(1) Brief. If an appellant elects to appear personally or by representation before the Board, a brief or statement covering all items of his contentions and his intended presentation pertaining thereto must be filed with the Board not less than 10 calendar days in advance of his scheduled appearance. Further, in order that appropriate space and stenographic arrangements may be made, appellant must advise therewith (i) the estimated length of time which will be required for his presentation, and (ii) the number, names, addresses, and capacities of persons who will be present in his behalf.

(2) Meetings. Meetings of the Board for the purpose of such personal appearances will be held normally in the Munitions Building, Washington, D. C., after due notification to appellants by ordinary mail to the latest address of record. Every reasonable effort will be made to suit the convenience of appellants as to the time of meetings.

(3) Proceedings. Proceedings of the Board will be informal, in the sense that rules of evidence and like formalities ordinarily observed in judicial and quasi-judicial proceedings will not be strictly followed. The Board, however, reserves the right to exclude such testimony as, in its judgment, is improper, of no probative value, or not pertinent to the issues before it.

(4) Transcripts. Proceedings of the Board will be stenographically reported. Such stenographic reporting is usually done by reporters under contract with the Government, who are considered to be competent. The Government, however, assumes no responsibility for the completeness or accuracy of any transcript, whether by contract reporter or by Government personnel. The Government will not furnish appellants with copies of the transcript made by a contract reporter. Copies may be purchased by appellants directly from the reporter. In cases where the transcript is prepared by Government personnel, one copy may be furnished to the appellant without charge.

(5) Failure to appear. Should the appellant fail to appear, personally or by representation, at the time stated in the notice of meeting, the Board will proceed upon the record in the same manner as if no personal appearance had been requested.

(6) Findings. Upon completion of the proceeding, the Board will consider all of the facts before it, obtaining and including such further data, evidence, or testimony as the Board may, in its judgment, consider to be necessary for a proper adjudication of the issues. As promptly thereafter as the matters involved in the case will admit, the Board will make its determinations and recommendations thereon.

§ 1.754 Report by Appeals Board—(a) Opportunity for rebuttal. Unless its recommendations are in accordance with contentions of the appellant, the Board upon completion of its deliberations, and prior to submission of its report to the Assistant Administrator for his decision, will submit to the appellant, by registered mail, a draft of its proposed determinations and findings as to the facts appearing in the case, and its recommendations thereon. The appellant will be allowed a period of 30 calendar days from the date of mailing of the draft, or such further time as the Board in its discretion may allow, to submit such further pertinent written evidence, data, and arguments as he may desire in support of his contentions. No further personal appearance by the appellant before the Board will be allowed, unless, in the judgment of the Board, a further development of the facts through this means is necessary.

(b) Consideration of rebuttal. If further evidence, data, and arguments in writing are submitted by the appellant, within the rebuttal time allowed, they will receive consideration by the Board before rendition of its final report to the Assistant Administrator for his decision, and will accompany the report. Requests for reconsideration will not thereafter be entertained.

§ 1.755 Notification of decision. The formal decision of the Assistant Administrator for Construction upon an appeal will be communicated in writing to the appellant by ordinary mail.

This regulation is effective September 17, 1954.

[SEAL] J. C. PALMER,
Acting Deputy Administrator.

AEROVIAS VENEZOLANAS, S. A.

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of the application of Aerovias Venezolanas, S. A. under section 402 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, for a foreign air carrier permit authorizing service, (a) between the co-terminal points Maiquetia and Maracaibo, Venezuela, and the terminal point Miami, Fla., via the intermediate points the Netherlands West Indies and Jamaica, British West Indies, and (b) between the co-terminal points Maiquetia and Maracaibo, Venezuela, and the terminal point New Orleans, La., and the intermediate point Jamaica, British West Indies.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 402 and 1001 of said act, that a hearing in the above-entitled proceeding will be held on September 30, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in Room 5132, Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C., before Curtis C. Henderson, Hearing Examiner.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the applicant, particular attention will be directed to the following questions:

1. Whether the proposed air transportation will be in the public interest.

2. Whether the applicant is fit, willing, and able to perform the proposed air transportation and conform to the provisions of the act and the rules, regulations and requirements of the Board thereunder.

3. Whether authorization of the proposed air transportation will be consistent with the obligations assumed by the United States in any treaty, convention, or agreement that may be in force between the United States and the Republic of Venezuela.

For further details as to the service proposed and authorization requested, interested parties are referred to the application on file with the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Notice is further given that any person, other than a party of record, desiring to be heard in this proceeding must file with the Board on or before September 30, 1954, a statement setting forth the pertinent issues of fact or law which he desires to controvert.

Dated at Washington, D. C., September 14, 1954.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1480]

CITIZENS GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

Citizens Gas Company (Applicant), a Pennsylvania corporation and a public utility under the laws of that Commonwealth, filed on August 16, 1954, an application for an amendment of the order issued October 3, 1952. In the Matters of Warwick Gas Corporation, et al., Docket Nos. G-1476, et al., insofar as it relates to this proceeding. The order of October 3, 1952, modified and affirmed as modified the initial decision of the Presiding Examiner issued August 4, 1952. By such order the Commission affirmed the issuance of a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Applicant to construct and operate natural-gas transmission pipe-line facilities for the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce and required The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company (Manufacturers), pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, to supply up to 428 Mcf per day to Applicant.

Applicant requests that the Commission remove the limitation of 428 Mcf per day applicable to the volumes of natural gas which Manufacturers is obligated to sell and deliver to Applicant. In support of such request, Applicant avers that its peak day requirements already exceed 428 Mcf and that the requirements of its customers on a peak day for the next five years will increase from 591 Mcf to 1,345 Mcf.

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

On August 27, 1954, Manufacturers filed an answer and response to the application.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that due notice of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, be given as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, that the application filed herein on August 16, 1954, should be set down for public hearing as hereinafter ordered and provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Due notice be given, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, of this notice of application and order.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on October 12, 1954, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(C) Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Commission in accordance with its rules of practice and procedure, §§ 1.8 and 1.10 (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10), on or before October 1, 1954.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

UNITED FUEL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

United Fuel Gas Company (Applicant), a West Virginia corporation with its principal place of business in Charleston, West Virginia, filed on August 5, 1954, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of approximately 10.5 miles of 12¾ inch replacement pipeline and approximately 2.6 miles of 20-inch replacement pipeline, and for an order authorizing and approving abandonment of the line to be replaced if the replacement results in an abandonment of facilities or service within the meaning of section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act.

Applicant proposes to improve service between its Kenova Measuring Station and the Cities of Ashland, Kentucky, Ironton, Ohio and vicinity, and Huntington, West Virginia and vicinity by partial replacement of existing 14-inch line between Kenova and Ashland, and partial replacement of existing 14-inch line between Kenova and Huntington. The proposed facilities will have capacity to transport an estimated 29,800 Mcf to the Ashland-Ironton area, and 28,900 Mcf to the Huntington area on a peak day of the 1954–1955 winter season. Applicant proposes to reclassify as distribution property the 14-inch line to be replaced between Kenova and Ashland, and to abandon in place the facilities to be replaced between Kenova and Huntington.

The estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $689,200. Financing is proposed through funds to be provided by Applicant's parent, The Columbia Gas System, Inc.

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, that due notice of the application in the FEDERAL REGISTER, be given as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, that the application filed herein on August 5, 1954, should be set down for public hearing as hereinafter provided and ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Due notice of this application be given, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of this notice of application and order.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on September 30, 1954 at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

[Docket No. G–2572]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in El Paso, Texas, filed on August 24, 1954, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of facilities for the transportation and sale of natural gas as hereinafter described and as more fully described in the application on file with the Commission for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate approximately four miles of 2⅜-inch pipeline in Pinal County, Arizona, extending from a point on its 6⅝-inch San Manuel line to a point near the contiguous towns of Mammoth and New Mammoth, Arizona, together with metering and regulating equipment, for the delivery and sale of natural gas to Arizona Public Service Company for resale within and adjacent to the towns of Mammoth and New Mammoth.

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that due notice of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, be given as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, that the application filed herein on August 24, 1954, should be set down for public hearing as hereinafter provided and ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Due notice be given, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, of this notice of application and order.

(b) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural gas act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on September 27, 1954, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(C) Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Commission in accordance with its rules of practice and procedure, §§ 1.8 and 1.10 (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10), on or before September 24, 1954.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

Adopted: September 10, 1954.

Issued: September 13, 1954.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G–2574]

TRUNKLINE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

Trunkline Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal office at Houston, Texas, filed, on August 25, 1954, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing it to sell up to 2,000 Mcf per day of natural gas to Southeastern Illinois Gas Company (Southeastern) for gas service at Metropolis, Illinois. No additional facilities are to be constructed.

Applicant states that Southeastern has advised that the contract demand of 1,500 Mcf provided for in the order of the Commission in Docket No. G–882, dated May 4, 1950, and contained in the service agreement between Applicant and Southeastern, is inadequate to take care of the needs of its customers in Metropolis. This being due primarily to a recent increase in population in Metropolis caused by a new Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) plant which has been built at Paducah, Kentucky (which is just across the river from Metropolis, Illinois).

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by §1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate and in the public interest, and good cause exists, that due notice of this application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, be given as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is appropriate and in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, that the application filed herein on August 25, 1954, should be set down for public hearing as hereinafter provided and ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Due notice be given, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, of this notice of application and order.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on October 8, 1954, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings, pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(C) Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure, §§ 1.8 and 1.10 (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10), on or before September 30, 1954.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.37 (f)).

Adopted: September 10, 1954.

Issued: September 13, 1954.

[Docket No. G–2720]

COLORADO-WYOMING GAS CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING REVISED TARIFF SHEET AND PROVIDING FOR HEARING

On August 17, 1954, Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company (Colorado-Wyoming), tendered for filing, pursuant to section 4 of the Natural Gas Act Fourth Revised Sheet No. 4 (superseding Third Revised Sheet No. 4) of Colorado-Wyoming's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, proposed to take effect on September 11, 1954.

By said filing, Colorado-Wyoming proposes an annual increase in the rates and charges for gas sold for resale subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, of approximately $1,147,000 or 35 percent, based on the year ended June 30, 1954, as adjusted. The proposed increase is in addition to the rates in effect subject to refund under certain conditions in Docket No. G–2261.

The proposed increase is based in most part on the increased rates proposed by Colorado Interstate Gas Company, which rate filing was suspended until February 1, 1955, by order issued August 26, 1954, in Docket No. G–2576. Colorado-Wyoming purchases more than 99 percent of its total natural gas requirements from Colorado Interstate and the costs of such purchased gas comprise the major portion of Colorado-Wyoming's total costs of service.

Accordingly, Colorado-Wyoming's proposed increase may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential and may place an undue burden upon ultimate consumers of natural gas.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing, pursuant to section 4 of the Act, concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services of Colorado-Wyoming's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by Fourth Revised Sheet No. 4, and that said tariff sheet be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by further order of the Commission, concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services contained in Colorado-Wyoming's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by Fourth Revised Sheet No. 4.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Fourth Revised Sheet No. 4 be and the same is hereby suspended, and its use deferred until February 1, 1955, and until such further time as said tariff sheet may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Adopted: September 10, 1954.

Issued: September 13, 1954.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812–877]

ISRAEL ENTERPRISES, INC.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION REQUESTING ORDER EXEMPTING CERTAIN TRANSACTION BETWEEN AFFILIATES

SEPTEMBER 9, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Israel Enterprises, Inc. ("IEI"), a registered closed-end, nondiversified investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") requesting an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act a proposed transaction to be entered into with Fertilizers & Chemicals, Ltd. ("F & C"), a corporation organized under the laws of Israel and doing business at Haifa, Israel, under which IEI would lend to F & C the sum of 900,000 Israeli pounds (I£) under terms and subject to certain provisions hereinafter summarized.

IEI was incorporated under the laws of Delaware on August 5, 1953, for the purpose of making investments in Israeli enterprises. The initiative in organizing the company was taken by Palestine Economic Corporation ("PEC"), an American company which has been active for over 25 years in the economic development of Palestine and Israel. The authorized capital of IEI consists of 20,000 shares of common stock of $100 par value, and the company recently offered for sale to the public approximately 18,800 shares of such common stock at par value.

F & C is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Israel. It was organized in 1946 and has been engaged in active business since 1949. At the present time it is the largest fertilizer and chemical enterprise in that country. The Government of Israel has a substantial interest in F & C and is that company's largest creditor and stockholder.

The proposed loan is to be evidenced by promissory notes bearing interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum, and is to be repaid in 10 consecutive semiannual installments, commencing April 15, 1956, and concluding October 15, 1960. The loan will be secured by a "floating charge" on certain assets of F & C, and will be a first lien on the proceeds on export sales of F & C products. Interest on the loan is to be paid in dollars. IEI will obtain funds for the loan by redeeming $500,000 face-amount of Israel Independence Bonds now held by IEI, and an agreement has been reached with the Government of Israel to make such redemption at this time, for the purpose of this proposed transaction, at the rate of I£1.80 for each $1 par value of bonds. Under the terms of the loan the lender receives the option to convert, at par, the whole or any part of the loan at any time outstanding into ordinary shares of F & C.

In connection with the proposed transaction an export company is to be organized by F & C and PEC, and the export company will be appointed exclusive selling agent of F & C products in foreign markets. The capital of the export company is fixed at $20,000 (or its foreign exchange equivalent) of which PEC will be entitled to subscribe to one-half ($10,000 or equivalent), IEI to one-quarter ($5,000 or equivalent), and F & C to one-quarter ($5,000 or equivalent). The export company will receive a commission equal to 5 percent of the loan made by IEI to F & C and 5 percent of a $1,000,000 loan proposed to be made contemporaneously by PEC to F & C. If the export company is formed prior to consummation of the proposed transactions, IEI and PEC reserve the right to make their respective loans to the export company which in turn will make the equivalent loans to F & C.

PEC, the organizer and promoter of IEI, owns and controls, through subsidiaries, 6.1 percent of the total voting shares of F & C. Accordingly, under section 2 (a) (3) of the act F & C is an affiliated person of PEC. Section 17 (a) of the act, among other things, prohibits an affiliated person (F & C) of a promoter (PEC) of a registered investment company (IEI) from selling any security to such registered company or from borrowing money from such registered company, subject to certain exceptions not here material, unless the Commission, upon application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the act, grants an exemption from the provisions of section 17 (a). Under the terms of section 17 (b) an exemption shall be granted by the Commission if evidence establishes that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid or received, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the act, and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the general purposes of the act. Applicant has requested that the Commission issue an order exempting the transaction from the provisions of section 17 (a), pursuant to an order under section 17 (b) of the act.

Applicant has represented that the terms of the proposed transaction are reasonable and fair, and that in the judgment of the Applicant's management the loan will be in furtherance of its basic purpose to assist in the economic expansion of Israel's industry. The Application also represents that the loan is on a basis no less favorable than that offered to any other person, and does not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned. The Applicant has represented that the Government of Israel is substantially interested in the enterprises conducted by F & C and has urged the consummation of the proposed transaction and taken steps to facilitate it.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 23, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

Commodities involved: Alcohols and related articles, carloads.

From: Kings Mill, Tex.

To: Points in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.

Grounds for relief: Rail competition, circuity, and market competition.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: F. C. Kratzmeir, Agent, I. C. C. No. 4094, supp. 10.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission.

[Rev. S. O. 562, Taylor's I. C. C. Order 46]

BANGOR AND AROOSTOOK RAILROAD CO.

REROUTING OR DIVERSION OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad Company, because of numerous washouts, due to a hurricane, is unable to transport certain traffic routed over its line: It is ordered, That

(a) Rerouting traffic: The Bangor and Aroostook Railroad Company, being unable to transport certain traffic, because of numerous washouts, due to a hurricane, is hereby authorized to divert or reroute such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement regardless of routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroad desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carrier rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipment on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective at 12:01 p. m., September 13, 1954.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., September 23, 1954, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., September 13, 1954.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 3066

NATIONAL EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED WEEK, 1954

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the year 1954 marks the tenth anniversary of the observance of a week dedicated to publicizing the urgent need for employing the physically handicapped; and

WHEREAS recent legislation enacted by the Congress will tend to increase greatly the number of our citizens who will be rehabilitated and prepared for gainful occupation annually, thus requiring redoubled activity in the field of employment; and

WHEREAS observance of this week materially aids the President's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped in the accomplishment of its main objectives: to inform employers of the abilities of qualified handicapped workers, to encourage employers to hire such workers, and to increase community understanding of the value of rehabilitation and employment of the handicapped; and

WHEREAS the ever-increasing awareness among public and private employers of the desirability of hiring the handicapped should be maintained and stimulated further; and

WHEREAS the observance of National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week once each year, as authorized by a joint resolution of the Congress approved August 11, 1945 (59 Stat. 530), emphasizes the need for a year-round program:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do call upon the people of our Nation to observe the week beginning October 3, 1954, as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and to cooperate with the President's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped in carrying out the aforementioned resolution of Congress.

I also request the Governors of States, the mayors of municipalities, other public officials, leaders of industry and labor, and members of religious, civic, veterans', agricultural, women's, handicapped persons', and fraternal organizations, to participate actively in this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 13th day of September in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-ninth.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.

(d) "Longevity period" is three years, of the aggregate period, of continuous service in a Classification Act position: (1) At the maximum scheduled rate of the employee's grade; or (2) at a longevity rate of the employee's grade; or (3) at a rate in excess of such maximum scheduled rate in accordance with a provision of law; or (4) at any of the rates specified in subparagraphs (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph, in a grade higher than his current grade. Intervening military service interrupting continuous service at one of the above rates is creditable for longevity step increases. A change of grade or rate of basic compensation prescribed by any law of general application does not begin a new longevity period. Any period of creditable service in excess of one or two complete longevity periods (except as otherwise provided in § 25.54 (c)), shall be credited toward the completion of the employee's next longevity step period. A new longevity period begins when a longevity step increase is effected, or after a break in service in excess of four workweeks. The longevity period shall be extended for a sufficient amount of paid service to make up unpaid absences in excess of a total of six workweeks during such period.

* * * * *

§ 25.54 Miscellaneous provisions. (a) Any officer or employee receiving a rate of basic compensation in excess of the maximum scheduled rate for his grade in accordance with any provision of law, shall be granted longevity step increases only when they would have been granted under this subpart and section 703 (c) of the Classification Act of 1949, if his salary had been at the maximum scheduled rate of the grade at the time such saving clause first applied to his rate of basic compensation.

* * * * *

(c) Service immediately prior to the effective date of this subpart shall be counted toward one, two, or three longevity step increases as provided above. In the case of officers and employees in grades 11 to 15, inclusive, of the General Schedule who are receiving compensation at or above the maximum scheduled rates for their respective grades on the date immediately preceding the effective date of section 103 (a) of Public Law 763, approved September 1, 1954, not to exceed three (3) years of service performed immediately preceding such effective date shall be counted toward longevity step increases.

SUBPART A—GENERAL SECURITY SERVICING

WAIVER OF LIENS IN CONNECTION WITH CCC LOANS

Section 371.7 in Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (19 F. R. 3989), is hereby revised to add provisions for the handling of lien waivers in connection with Commodity Credit Corporation loans on cotton. As revised, § 371.7 reads as follows:

§ 371.7 Waivers of crop liens for borrowers receiving loans under the Commodity Credit Corporation Program—(a) Authority. County Supervisors are authorized to execute waivers of Farmers Home Administration liens on property (other than real estate) in favor of the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC), or its approved lending agencies, to enable borrowers indebted to the Farmers Home Administration to obtain CCC loans other than on wool; Provided, The funds from such loans are to be used for the purposes set forth in § 371.4 (b); the loan is in the full amount of the CCC loan value of the total quantity of the commodity described in the CCC loan forms; and the producers' notes contain requests for the disbursement of loan funds, as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section: And provided further, That when the amount of the commodity loan is less than the market value of the crop pledged:

(1) The borrower has paid or will pay from the CCC loan the amount due on debts owed the Farmers Home Administration for the crop year, including any delinquencies; or

(2) The borrower has not paid or will not be able to pay from the CCC loan the amount due on debts owed the Farmers Home Administration for the crop year, including any delinquencies, and the following requirements are complied with:

(i) Except in the case of cotton loans, the borrower must show his mailing address as the Farmers Home Administration County Office on the CCC loan documents so that any checks representing additional proceeds from the commodity will be received in the County Office. When such checks are received in the County Office, the County Supervisor will arrange with the borrower for the use of the income for one or more of the purposes set forth in § 371.4 (b).

(ii) In the case of cotton loans:

(a) In cases where cotton loans are to be obtained directly from the CCC or its approved lending agencies, borrowers must agree on Form FHA–936, "Borrower's Agreement," for the County Supervisor to receive and retain custody of "Producer's Loan Statement–A" which includes the "Producer's Redemption Request" and "Producer's Equity Transfer Agreement", and to receive and open any and all correspondence mailed to him by the CCC at the mailing address of the County Office; that he will not redeem the cotton, or sell, transfer or assign his equity therein, except with the written consent of, and under conditions established by, the Farmers Home Administration; and that if he does not redeem his cotton or transfer his equity therein, and the cotton is subsequently sold, purchased, or pooled by the Commodity Credit Corporation, he will apply on the account secured by the cotton all proceeds received from the CCC representing his share of the income from the sale of the cotton, or so much thereof as is necessary to pay such account.

(b) In cases where cotton loans are to be obtained from cotton cooperative associations, the cotton cooperative associations must agree, in accordance with State instructions issued for this purpose, to pay the proceeds of the loan and any future equity payments indicated on CCC Cotton Form G–2, or other similar Form used by the Association, in form of a check or draft payable jointly to the borrower and the Farmers Home Administration, and to mail all correspondence and checks pertaining to the pledged cotton to the borrower in care of the County Supervisor, including warehouse receipts if the association permits its members to redeem their cotton and such action is taken by the borrower; and the borrower must agree on Form FHA–936A, "Borrower's Agreement (Association Loans)," with the requirements specified herein, and for the County Supervisor to receive and open any and all correspondence mailed to him by the cotton cooperative association at the mailing address of the County Office.

(c) When the borrower expresses a desire to redeem the cotton, the County Supervisor will agree for this to be done, provided there is an agreement between the borrower, the County Supervisor, and the bank designated to receive the warehouse receipts, that such receipts will be delivered to the Farmers Home Administration. After such agreement has been reached, the County Supervisor will assist the borrower in the preparation of the "Producer's Redemption Request" on the "Producer's Loan Statement-A," exercising care to insert the name of the appropriate bank in the space provided for that purpose. After the warehouse receipts are received, the County Supervisor will agree for the cotton to be sold upon the condition that the sales check will be made payable to the borrower and the Farmers Home Administration. If the borrower expresses a desire to transfer his equity in the cotton, the County Supervisor will agree for this to be done, and will release to the transferee (purchaser) the "Producer's Loan Statement-A" upon receipt of a check made payable jointly to the borrower and the Farmers Home Administration, covering the borrower's equity in the cotton, provided the purchase price is equal to the current fair market value of the borrower's interest in the cotton, or the amount owed the Farmers Home Administration which was secured by the cotton. If the borrower does not exercise his redemption right or transfer his equity, the cotton will be sold, purchased, or "pooled" by the Commodity Credit Corporation. In either event, the borrower eventually will receive a check for his equity, if any, through the mail, at the County Office address. The County Supervisor will notify the borrower when such check is received.

(b) Routines for handling lien waivers. For borrowers to obtain Commodity Credit Corporation loans, County Supervisors will be required to execute waivers of Farmers Home Administration liens. Waiver forms on CCC Loan Forms AA and B, CCC Rice Form E, and CCC Cotton Forms A, FF, and G–2 will be furnished by the CCC or its approved lending agencies. If any other type of lien waiver form is being used locally for CCC loans, such form may be used to waive the lien of the Farmers Home Administration if approval by the State Director upon the advice of the representative of the Office of the Solicitor. The borrower will be required by the CCC to sign a producer's note to evidence the commodity loan. The producer's note should provide for the issuance of a check payable to the Farmers Home Administration for the total amount to be paid to it.

(c) The County Supervisors are authorized to redelegate to Assistant County Supervisors authority to execute waivers of Farmers Home Administration liens on property (other than real estate) in favor of the Commodity Credit Corporation, or its associate lending agenices, as provided in this section.

472.544 Limitation on sales.
472.545 Contractual rights.

AUTHORITY: §§ 472.536 to 472.545 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072; 15 U. S. C. 714c.

§ 472.536 Sales agents. Sales of wool owned by CCC are made by wool dealers, cooperative marketing associations, and pulleries (such persons are referred to in this subpart as "handlers") who have entered into agreements with CCC to store, handle, and sell wool to which CCC acquires title under its Wool Price Support Programs. Each handler is authorized to sell only the CCC-owned wool which is in his custody. Handlers are required to give all purchasers an equal opportunity to purchase wool owned by CCC. Options shall not be granted, and wool is not to be earmarked for any prospective purchaser. The sales operation is administered through the CSS Commodity Office located at Boston, Massachusetts. (The Commodity Stabilization Service is referred to herein as "CSS".) Names of the approved handlers authorized to sell wool for the account of CCC may be obtained from the Boston CSS Commodity Office, 408 Atlantic Avenue, Boston 10, Massachusetts. Handlers are not authorized to modify or waive the terms of sale as set forth in this subpart or any amendments or supplements thereto.

§ 472.537 Basis of sale. All sales are final and unconditional, and the wool is sold "as is, where is." Grease wool may be sold subject to a redetermination of shrinkage by core test, provided the purchaser agrees to take delivery of the wool irrespective of whether the shrinkage is increased or decreased and the sales confirmation so indicates. Although part lots may be sold, sales are not made subject to the right of the purchaser to select specific bags or bales of wool from a lot or to reject wool from the bags or bales. Wool (original bag or otherwise) is not sold subject to withdrawal of tags, black, burry, or other off wools.

§ 472.538 Sales price. The minimum prices at which CCC-owned wool may be sold are issued from time to time by the Boston CSS Commodity Office. The minimum selling price for any lot of wool is determined on the basis of the description and shrinkage of the wool as shown in the latest appraisal certificate covering the lot and the minimum selling price prescribed by CCC which is in effect on the date of sale. While this is the minimum price at which wool owned by CCC may be sold, handlers, as agents of CCC, are required to obtain the highest prices possible for wool under prevailing market conditions.

§ 472.539 Sales confirmation. All sales shall be confirmed in writing by an authorized representative of the purchaser. The purchaser's confirmation must show the date of sale and the price and clearly describe the wool by type, quantity, and lot number or other definite identification so that no doubt will arise as to which wool is covered by the sale.

§ 472.540 Point of delivery. Sales of wool for the account of CCC are made on an ex-warehouse basis. The purchaser shall take delivery at the warehouse where the wool is stored at the time of sale and will be billed at the applicable selling price less, in the case of wool stored outside the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut, a freight allowance determined by the handler in accordance with procedure prescribed by CCC.

§ 472.541 Weight—(a) General. CCC wool is sold on the basis of outweights at the warehouse where the wool is stored at the time of sale, except in cases where CCC specifically authorizes the use of a different weight. If, as a result of the purchaser's failure to issue delivery instructions, the outweights are not determined in time to permit remittance of sales proceeds to CCC within 30 days after the date of sale (see § 472.543), a pro forma payment will be required on the basis of inventory weights or estimated weights, with final billing to be made on the basis of actual outweights when such outweights are determined.

(b) Exceptions. CCC may authorize the sale of wool on the basis of weights taken on a date near the date of sale instead of on the basis of outweights. Wool sold subject to a redetermination of shrinkage by core test may be billed on the basis of weights taken at the time of coring for completion of the new appraisal certificate.

§ 472.542 Risk of loss and liability for storage charges. The risk of loss passes to the purchaser upon delivery of the wool, except that if the wool is not delivered within 30 days after date of sale, the risk of loss shall pass to the purchaser upon the expiration of such 30-day period. CCC will pay storage charges only through the storage month current at the time the risk of loss passes to the purchaser and will not be liable for storage charges which become due after the risk has passed.

§ 472.543 Settlement. The purchaser shall pay the sales price to the handler immediately upon delivery of the wool except that, under the circumstances described hereinafter in this section, he shall pay in accordance with a pro forma invoice. If the handler determines that delivery will not be taken in time to enable him to remit the sales proceeds to CCC within 30 days after the date of sale, he will render a pro forma invoice to the purchaser on the basis of weights specified in § 472.541, requiring payment on a specified date, in time to enable himself to remit the proceeds to CCC within 30 days after the date of sale. After making a payment in accordance with the pro forma invoice, the purchaser shall make final settlement upon delivery of the wool, except that if the handler determines that the wool will not be moved out of the warehouse in time for the purchaser to make final settlement within 3 months after the date of sale, the wool will be weighed at the expense of the purchaser, and he shall make final settlement within such 3-month period. Irrespective of whether a pro forma invoice has been rendered, the purchaser may take delivery and pay the sales price in time for the handler to remit the sales proceeds to CCC within 30 days after the date of sale; and in such case, the date of delivery—rather than the date specified in the pro forma invoice—shall be the date when payment by the purchaser is due.

§ 472.544 Limitation on sales. A handler may not purchase wool owned by CCC which is in his own custody and may not dispose of such wool to any person or firm in a manner that will result in any reward, financial benefit, profit, or payment to the handler, any affiliated organization, or any officer or employee of the handler or such affiliated organization, other than the fees and payments allowed the handler by CCC under his agreement with CCC, unless specifically authorized by CCC. Handlers may, however, purchase from other handlers wool owned by CCC.

§ 472.545 Contractual rights. Nothing in this subpart shall change or affect the contractual rights or obligations under the Wool Handler's Agreements or the Pulled Wool Agreements entered into by and between CCC and the handlers or under instructions issued by CCC in accordance with such agreements.

Issued this 15th day of September 1954.

PART 52—PROCESSED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, PROCESSED PRODUCTS THEREOF, AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCESSED FOOD PRODUCTS

SUBPART—U. S. STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF CANNED GRAPEFRUIT JUICE [1]

On July 3, 1954, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 4081) regarding a proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit Juice (§§ 52.1191 to 52.1202).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit Juice are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

The proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit Juice which were contained in the aforesaid notice are hereby adopted in the form in which such standards appeared in said notice and are hereby incorporated herein by this reference except for the following changes:

1. Footnote 1: Insert at the beginning of this footnote, the words "Compliance with".

2. Section 52.1191, line 8: Insert as a second word "non-liquid" following the article "a".

3. Section 52.1197, (a) (2), line 6: Correct the spelling of the second word to read "browning".

4. Section 52.1198, (c), line 5: Correct the spelling of the third word to read "classification".

5. Section 52.1199, (a) (1) (iii): Change this subdivision to read:

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 8 to 1 nor more than 14 to 1: Provided, That

(a) When the juice has a Brix of 9.5° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be not less than 7.5 to 1; or

(b) When the juice has a Brix of 10.5° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be not less than 7 to 1.

6. Section 52.1199, (c), line 4: Delete the word "unpalatable" and substitute "off-flavor".

The United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit Juice (which is the seventh issue) contained in this subpart shall become effective 30 days after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER and thereupon will supersede the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit

[1] Compliance with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or with applicable State laws and regulations.

Juice (§§ 52.1191 to 52.1202) which have been in effect since July 29, 1949.

AUTHORITY: §§ 52.1191 to 52.1203 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION, STYLES, AND GRADES

§ 52.1191 Product description. Canned grapefruit juice is the undiluted, unconcentrated, unfermented juice obtained from mature fresh fruit of the grapefruit tree (Citrus paradisi) which fruit has been properly washed; is packed with or without the addition of a non-liquid nutritive sweetening ingredient or sweetening ingredients; and is sufficiently processed by heat to assure preservation of the product in hermetically sealed containers.

§ 52.1192 Styles of canned grapefruit juice. (a) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(b) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient). Canned grapefruit juice of this style shall have been processed with the addition of sufficient nutritive sweetening ingredient or sweetening ingredients to produce a Brix measurement of not less than 11.5°.

§ 52.1193 Grades of canned grapefruit juice. (a) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of canned grapefruit juice that shows no coagulation; that possesses a very good color; that is practically free from defects; that possesses a very good flavor; and that scores not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(b) "U. S. Grade C" or "U. S. Standard" is the quality of canned grapefruit juice that may show slight coagulation; that possesses a good color; that is fairly free from defects; that possesses a good flavor; and that scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(c) "Substandard" is the quality of canned grapefruit juice that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard.

FILL OF CONTAINER

§ 52.1194 Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that the container be as full of grapefruit juice as practicable and that the product occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume capacity of the container.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 52.1195 Ascertaining the grade—(a) General. The grade of canned grapefruit juice is ascertained by considering the factor of quality which is not scored and the factors of quality which are scored as follows:

(1) Factor which is not scored. (i) Degree of coagulation.

(2) Factors which are scored. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Absence of defects	40
(iii) Flavor	40
Total score	100

§ 52.1196 Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

§ 52.1197 Color—(a) (A) classification. Canned grapefruit juice that possesses a very good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Very good color" means:

(1) In the case of canned grapefruit juice prepared from white-fleshed grapefruit that the color is bright and typical of juice freshly extracted from white-fleshed grapefruit and is free from browning due to scorching, oxidation, caramelization, or other causes; and

(2) In the case of canned grapefruit juice prepared from pink-fleshed grapefruit, that the color is bright and typical of juice freshly extracted from fairly deep-pink-fleshed grapefruit, is free from browning due to scorching, oxidation, caramelization, or other causes, and is so distinctive in color as to distinguish it clearly from canned grapefruit juice prepared from a mixture of white-fleshed grapefruit and pink-fleshed grapefruit or from light colored pink-fleshed grapefruit the juice of which is so light in color that it cannot be distinguished from such a mixture.

(b) (C) classification. If the canned grapefruit juice possesses a good color, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Canned grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good color" means:

(1) In the case of canned grapefruit juice prepared from white-fleshed grapefruit, that the color is fairly typical of juice extracted from white-fleshed grapefruit and may be dull or show evidence of slight browning, but is not off color; and

(2) In the case of canned grapefruit juice prepared from pink-fleshed grapefruit and mixtures of white-fleshed grapefruit and pink-fleshed grapefruit that the color is fairly typical of juice extracted from pink-fleshed grapefruit or mixtures of white-fleshed grapefruit and pink-fleshed grapefruit and may be dull or show evidence of slight browning but is not off color.

(c) (SStd) classification. Canned grapefruit juice that for any reason fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.1198 Absence of defects—(a) General. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from free and suspended pulp, recoverable oil, seeds and seed particles, and other defects.

(1) "Free and suspended pulp" means particles of membrane, core, skin, and other similar extraneous material in canned grapefruit juice.

(b) (A) classification. Canned grapefruit juice that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that the juice may contain not more than 10 percent free and suspended pulp; that there may be present not more than 0.015 percent by volume of recoverable oil; and that the juice does not contain seeds or seed particles or other defects that affect more than slightly the appearance of the product.

(c) (C) classification. If the canned grapefruit juice is fairly free from defects, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that the juice may contain not more than 15 percent free and suspended pulp; that there may be present not more than 0.020 percent by volume of recoverable oil; and that the juice does not contain seeds or seed particles or other defects that affect materially the appearance of the product.

(d) (SStd) classification. Canned grapefruit juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.1199 Flavor—(a) (A) classification. Canned grapefruit juice that possesses a very good flavor may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Very good flavor" means a fine, distinct canned grapefruit juice flavor which is free from off flavors of any kind and meets the following requirements for the respective style:

(1) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(i) Brix: Not less than 9.0°;
(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.85 gram nor more than 2.00 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and
(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 8 to 1 nor more than 14 to 1: Provided, That—
(a) When the juice has a Brix of 9.5° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may not be less than 7.5 to 1; or (b) When the juice has a Brix of 10.5° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may not be less than 7 to 1.

(2) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient).

(i) Brix: Not less than 11.5°;
(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.85 gram nor more than 2.00 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and
(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 9 to 1 nor more than 14 to 1: Provided, That when the Brix is 15° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be less than 9 to 1.

(b) (C) classification. If the canned grapefruit juice possesses a good flavor, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good flavor" means a good, normal canned grapefruit juice flavor which is free from off flavors of any kind and meets the following requirements for the respective style:

(1) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(i) Brix: Not less than 9.0°;
(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.75 gram per 100 ml. of juice; and
(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 7 to 1.

(2) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient).

(i) Brix: Not less than 11.5°;
(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.85 gram per 100 ml. of juice; and
(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 9 to 1: Provided, That when the Brix is 15° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be less than 9 to 1.

(c) (SStd) classification. Canned grapefruit juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, or is off-flavor for any reason, may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

EXPLANATIONS AND METHODS OF ANALYSES

§ 52.1200 Definitions of terms. (a) "Brix" means the degrees Brix of canned grapefruit juice when tested with a Brix hydrometer calibrated at 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.). If used in testing juice at a temperature other than 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.) the applicable temperature correction shall be made to the reading of the scale as prescribed in the "Official Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists." The degrees Brix of canned grapefruit juice may be determined by any other method which gives equivalent results.

(b) "Acid" means grams of acid (calculated as anhydrous citric acid) per 100 ml. of juice in canned grapefruit juice determined by titration with standard sodium hydroxide solution using phenolphthalein indicator.

§ 52.1201 Explanation of analyses. (a) "Free and suspended pulp" is determined by the following method:

(1) Graduated centrifuge tubes with a capacity of 50 ml. are filled with juice and placed in a suitable centrifuge. The speed is adjusted, according to diameter, as indicated in Table No. I, and the juice is centrifuged for exactly 10 minutes. As used in this subparagraph, "diameter" means the over-all distance between the bottoms of opposing centrifuge tubes in operating position. After centrifuging, the milliliter reading at the top of the layer of pulp in the tube is multiplied by 2 to give the percentage of pulp.

TABLE NO. I

Diameter (inches):	Approximate revolutions per minute
10	1,609
10½	1,570
11	1,534
11½	1,500
12	1,468
12½	1,438
13	1,410
13½	1,384
14	1,359
14½	1,336
15	1,313
15½	1,292
16	1,271
16½	1,252
17	1,234
17½	1,216
18	1,199
18½	1,182
19	1,167
19½	1,152
20	1,137

(b) "Recoverable oil" in canned grapefruit juice is determined by the following method:

(1) Equipment. Oil separatory trap similar to either of those illustrated in Figure 1 or Figure 2.[2]

Gas burner or hot plate.
Ringstand and clamps.
Rubber tubing.
3-liter narrow-neck flask.

(2) Procedure. (i) Exactly 2 liters of juice are placed in a 3-liter flask. Close the stopcock, place distilled water in the graduated tube, run cold water through the condenser from bottom to top, and bring the juice to a boil. Boiling is continued for one hour at the rate of approximately 50 drops per minute. By means of the stopcock, lower the oil into the graduated portion of the separatory trap, remove the trap from the flask, allow it to cool, and record the amount of oil recovered.

(ii) The number of milliliters of oil recovered divided by 20 equals the percent by volume of recoverable oil.

LOT CERTIFICATION TOLERANCES

§ 52.1202 Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (a) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned grapefruit juice the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if, (1) all containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification; and (2) with respect to those factors which are scored:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the containers fails to meet the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(ii) None of the containers falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(iii) None of the containers falls more than one grade below the grade indicated by the average of such total scores; and

(iv) The average score of all containers for any factor subject to a limiting rule is within the score range of that factor for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores of the containers comprising the sample.

PART 52—PROCESSED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, PROCESSED PRODUCTS THEREOF, AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCESSED FOOD PRODUCTS

SUBPART—U. S. STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF CANNED BLENDED GRAPEFRUIT JUICE AND ORANGE JUICE[1]

On July 3, 1954, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 4083) regarding a proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Blended

[1] Compliance with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or with applicable State laws and regulations.

Grapefruit Juice and Orange Juice (§§ 52.1281 to 52.1292).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Grades of Canned Blended Grapefruit Juice and Orange Juice are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

The proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Blended Grapefruit Juice and Orange Juice which were contained in the aforesaid notice are hereby adopted in the form in which such standards appeared in said notice and are hereby incorporated herein by this reference except for the following changes:

1. In the table of contents, in the second line following 52.1292, change the spelling of the first part-word to "ficially".

2. Footnote 1: Insert at the beginning of this footnote, the words "Compliance with".

3. Section 52.1281, line 12: Insert the word "non-liquid" immediately preceding the word "nutritive".

4. Section 52.1285, (a) (2), line 2: At the end of the line insert the words "is scored".

5. Section 52.1289, (a) (1) (iii): Change this subdivision to read:

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 9 to 1 nor more than 17 to 1: Provided, That when the juice has a Brix of 11.5° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be not less than 8 to 1.

6. Section 52.1289, (b) (1) (iii), line 2: Change the period after the word "Provided" to a comma.

7. Section 52.1289, (c), line 5: Delete the word "unpalatable" and substitute "off-flavor".

The United States Standards for Grades of Canned Blended Grapefruit Juice and Orange Juice (which is the fifth issue) contained in this subpart shall become effective 30 days after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and thereupon will supersede the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Blended Grapefruit Juice and Orange Juice (§§ 52.1281 to 52.1292) which have been in effect since July 29, 1949.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION, STYLES, AND GRADES

§ 52.1281 Product description. (a) Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice is the product prepared from a combination of undiluted, unconcentrated, unfermented juices obtained from the mature fresh fruit of the grapefruit tree (Citrus paradisi) and the sweet orange group (Citrus sinensis) and Mandarin group (Citrus reticulata), except tangerines, which fruit has been properly washed; is packed with or without the addition of a non-liquid nutritive sweetening ingredient or sweetening ingredients; and is sufficiently processed by heat to assure preservation of the product in hermetically-sealed containers.

(b) It is recommended that canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice be composed of not less than 50 percent orange juice; however, in oranges yielding light-colored juice it is further recommended that as much as 75 percent orange juice be used.

§ 52.1282 Styles of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice. (a) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(b) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient). Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice of this style shall have been processed with the addition of sufficient nutritive sweetening ingredient or sweetening ingredients to produce a Brix measurement of not less than 11.5°.

§ 52.1283 Grades of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice. (a) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that shows no coagulation; that possesses a very good color; that is practically free from defects; that possesses a very good flavor; and that scores not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(b) "U. S. Grade C" or "U. S. Standard" is the quality of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that may show slight coagulation; that possesses a good color; that is fairly free from defects; that possesses a good flavor; and that scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(c) "Substandard" is the quality of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard.

FILL OF CONTAINER

§ 52.1284 Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that the container be as full of blended grapefruit juice and orange juice as practicable and that the product occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume capacity of the container.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 52.1285 Ascertaining the grade—(a) General. The grade of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice is ascertained by considering the factor of quality which is not scored and the factors of quality which are scored as follows:

(1) Factor which is not scored. (i) Degree of coagulation.

(2) Factors which are scored. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Absence of defects	40
(iii) Flavor	40
Total score	100

§ 52.1286 Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

§ 52.1287 Color—(a) (A) classification. Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that possesses a very good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Very good color" means that the blended juice possesses a light yellow-orange color that is bright and typical of freshly extracted juice and is free from browning due to scorching, oxidation, caramelization, or other causes.

(b) (C) classification. If the canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice possesses a good color, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Canned blended juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good color" means that the blended juice possesses a fairly typical color that may range from light yellow to light amber, may be dull or show evidence of slight browning, but is not off color.

(c) (SStd) classification. Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that for any reason fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.1288 Absence of defects—(a) General. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from free and suspended pulp, recoverable oil, seeds and seed particles, and other defects.

(1) "Free and suspended pulp" means particles of membrane, core, skin, and other similar extraneous material in canned blended juice.

(b) (A) classification. Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that the juice may contain not more than 12 percent free and suspended pulp; that there may be present not more than 0.030 percent by volume of recoverable oil; and that the juice does not contain seeds or seed particles or other defects that affect more than slightly the appearance of the product.

(c) (C) classification. If the canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice is fairly free from defects, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned blended juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that the juice may contain not more than 18 percent free and suspended pulp; that there may be present not more than 0.050 percent by volume of recoverable oil; and that the juice does not contain seeds or seed particles or other defects that affect materially the appearance of the product.

(d) (SStd) classification. Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.1289 Flavor—(a) (A) classification. Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that possesses a very good flavor may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Very good flavor" means a fine, distinct canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice flavor which is free from off flavors of any kind and meets the following requirements for the respective style:

(1) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(i) Brix: Not less than 10.0 degrees;

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.60 gram nor more than 1.70 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 9 to 1 nor more than 17 to 1: Provided, That when the juice has a Brix of 11.5° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be not less than 8 to 1.

(2) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient).

(i) Brix: Not less than 11.5°;

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.60 gram nor more than 1.70 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 10 to 1: Provided, That when the Brix is 15° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be less than 10 to 1.

(b) (C) classification. If the canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice possesses a good flavor, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned blended juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good flavor" means a good, normal canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice flavor which is free from off flavors of any kind and meets the following requirements for the respective style:

(1) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(i) Brix: Not less than 9.5 degrees;

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.65 gram nor more than 1.80 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 7.5 to 1.

(2) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient).

(i) Brix: Not less than 11.5°;

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.65 gram nor more than 1.80 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 10 to 1: Provided, That when the Brix is 15° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be less than 10 to 1.

(c) (SStd) classification. Canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, or is off-flavor for any reason, may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

EXPLANATIONS AND METHODS OF ANALYSES

§ 52.1290 Definitions of terms. (a) "Brix" means the degrees Brix of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice when tested with a Brix hydrometer calibrated at 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.). If used in testing juice at a temperature other than 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.) the applicable temperature correction shall be made to the reading of the scale as prescribed in the "Official Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists." The degrees Brix of canned blended juice may be determined by any other method which gives equivalent results.

(b) "Acid" means grams of acid (calculated as anhydrous citric acid) per 100 ml. of juice in canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice determined by titration with standard sodium hydroxide solution using phenolphthalein indicator.

§ 52.1291 Explanation of analyses. (a) "Free and suspended pulp" is determined by the following method:

(1) Graduated centrifuge tubes with a capacity of 50 ml. are filled with juice and placed in a suitable centrifuge. The speed is adjusted, according to diameter, as indicated in Table No. I, and the juice is centrifuged for exactly 10 minutes. As used in this subparagraph, "diameter" means the over-all distance between the bottoms of opposing centrifuge tubes in operating position. After centrifuging, the milliliter reading at the top of the layer of pulp in the tube is multiplied by 2 to give the percentage of pulp.

TABLE No. I

Diameter (inches):	Approximate revolutions per minute
10	1,609
11	1,534

Diameter (inches)—Con.	Approximate revolutions per minute

(b) "Recoverable oil" in canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice is determined by the following method:

(1) Equipment. Oil separatory trap similar to either of those illustrated in Figure 1 or Figure 2.[2]

Gas Burner or hot plate.
Ringstand and clamps.
Rubber tubing.
3-liter narrow-neck flask.

(2) Procedure. (i) Exactly 2 liters of juice are placed in a 3-liter flask. Close the stopcock, place distilled water in the graduated tube, run cold water through the condenser from bottom to top, and bring the juice to a boil. Boiling is continued for one hour at the rate of approximately 50 drops per minute. By means of the stopcock, lower the oil into the graduated portion of the separatory trap, remove the trap from the flask, allow it to cool, and record the amount of oil recovered.

(ii) The number of milliliters of oil recovered divided by 20 equals the percent by volume of recoverable oil.

LOT CERTIFICATION TOLERANCES

§ 52.1292 Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (a) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned blended grapefruit juice and orange juice the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if, (1) all containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification; and (2) with respect to those factors which are scored:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the containers fails to meet the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(ii) None of the containers falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(iii) None of the containers falls more than one grade below the grade indicated by the average of such total scores; and

(iv) The average score of all containers for any factor subject to a limiting rule is within the score range of that factor for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores of the containers comprising the sample.

PART 52—PROCESSED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, PROCESSED PRODUCTS THEREOF, AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCESSED FOOD PRODUCTS

SUBPART—U. S. STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF CANNED ORANGE JUICE[1]

On July 3, 1954, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 4085) regarding a proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Orange Juice (§§ 52.1551 to 52.1562).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Grades of Canned Orange Juice are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

The proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Orange Juice which were contained in the aforesaid notice are hereby adopted in the form in which such standards appeared in said notice and are hereby incorporated herein by this reference except for the following changes:

1. Footnote 1: Insert at the beginning of this footnote, the words "Compliance with."

2. Section 52.1551, line 9: Insert the word "non-liquid" immediately preceding the word "nutritive."

3. Section 52.1559, (c), line 4: Delete the word "unpalatable" and substitute the word "off-flavor."

4. Section 52.1559, (a) (1), (ii), line 5: Change the figure "0.65" immediately preceding the word "gram" to "0.70."

5. Section 52.1559, (a) (2), (ii), line 5: Change the figure "0.65" immediately preceding the word "gram" to "0.70."

6. Section 52.1561, line 1: Change the spelling of the third word in the heading to "analyses."

The United States Standards for Grades of Canned Orange Juice (which is the sixth issue) contained in this subpart shall become effective 30 days after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and thereupon will supersede the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Orange Juice (§§ 52.1551 to 52.1562) which have been in effect since July 29, 1949.

Dated: September 14, 1954.

AUTHORITY: §§ 52.1551 to 52.1563 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION, STYLES, AND GRADES

§ 52.1551 Product description. Canned orange juice is the undiluted, unconcentrated, unfermented juice obtained from mature fresh fruit of the sweet orange group (Citrus sinensis) and Mandarin group (Citrus reticulata), except tangerines, which fruit has been properly washed; is packed with or without the addition of a non-liquid nutritive sweetening ingredient or sweetening ingredients; and is sufficiently processed by heat to assure preservation of the product in hermetically-sealed containers.

§ 52.1552 Styles of canned orange juice. (a) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(b) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient). Canned orange juice of this style shall have been processed with the addition of sufficient nutritive sweetening ingredient or sweetening ingredients to produce a Brix measurement of not less than 10.5°: Provided, That, if the acidity of the canned orange juice is 0.90 gram or more per 100 ml. of juice, the Brix shall be not less than 11.5°.

§ 52.1553 Grades of canned orange juice. (a) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of canned orange juice that shows no coagulation; that possesses a very good color; that is practically free from defects; that possesses a very good flavor; and that scores not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(b) "U. S. Grade C" or "U. S. Standard" is the quality of canned orange juice that may show slight coagulation; that possesses a good color; that is fairly free from defects; that possesses a good flavor; and that scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(c) "Substandard" is the quality of canned orange juice that falls to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard.

FILL OF CONTAINER

§ 52.1554 Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that the container be as full of orange juice as practicable and that the product occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume capacity of the container.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 52.1555 Ascertaining the grade—(a) General. The grade of canned orange juice is ascertained by considering the factor of quality which is not scored and the factors of quality which are scored as follows:

(1) Factor which is not scored. (i) Degree of coagulation.

(2) Factors which are scored. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Absence of defects	40
(iii) Flavor	40
Total score	100

§ 52.1556 Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

§ 52.1557 Color—(a) (A) classification. Canned orange juice that possesses a very good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Very good color" means that the orange juice possesses a bright yellow to yellow-orange color typical of freshly extracted juice and is free from browning due to scorching, oxidation, caramelization, or other causes.

(b) (C) classification. If the canned orange juice possesses a good color, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Canned orange juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good color" means that the orange juice may be slightly amber or very light in color but is typical of canned orange juice and may show evidence of slight browning, but is not off-color.

(c) (SStd) classification. Canned orange juice that for any reason fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.1558 Absence of defects—(a) General. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from recoverable oil; from particles of membrane, core, or skin; from seeds or seed particles; and from other defects.

(b) (A) classification. Canned orange juice that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that there may be present not more than 0.030 percent by volume of recoverable oil and that the juice does not contain particles of membrane, core, or skin, seeds or seed particles, or other defects that affect more than slightly the appearance of the product.

(c) (C) classification. If the canned orange juice is fairly free from defects, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned orange juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that there may be present not more than 0.050 percent by volume of recoverable oil and that the juice does not contain particles of membrane, core, or skin, seed or seed particles, or other defects that affect materially the appearance of the product.

(d) (SStd) classification. Canned orange juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.1559 Flavor—(a) (A) classification. Canned orange juice that possesses a very good flavor may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Very good flavor" means a fine, distinct canned orange juice flavor which is free from traces of scorching, caramelization, oxidation, or terpene; is free from off flavors of any kind; and meets the following requirements for the respective style:

(1) Style I, Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(i) Brix: Not less than 10.5°;

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.75 gram nor more than 1.45 grams per 100 ml. of juice: Provided, That when the canned orange juice has a color that scores 19 or 20 points, the acidity may be not less than 0.70 gram per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 9 to 1 nor more than 18 to 1.

(2) Style II, Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient).

(i) Brix: Not less than 10.5°: Provided, That, if the acidity is 0.90 gram or more per 100 ml. of juice, the Brix shall be not less than 11.5°.

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.75 gram nor more than 1.45 grams per 100 ml. of juice: Provided, That when the canned orange juice has a color that scores 19 or 20 points, the acidity may be not less than 0.70 gram per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 11 to 1 if the Brix is 12.5° or more; not less than 12 to 1 if the Brix is less than 12.5°; and not more than 18 to 1: Provided, That when the Brix is 15° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be less than 11 to 1.

(b) (C) classification. If the canned orange juice possesses a good flavor, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned orange juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good flavor" means a good, normal canned orange juice flavor which may have a slightly caramelized or slightly oxidized flavor but is free from off flavors of any kind and meets the following requirements for the respective style:

(1) Style I. Unsweetened (or natural juice).

(i) Brix: Not less than 10.0°;

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.55 gram nor more than 1.60 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 8.5 to 1.

(2) Style II. Sweetened (or with added sweetening ingredient).

(i) Brix: Not less than 10.5°: Provided, That if the acidity is 0.90 gram or more per 100 ml. of juice, the Brix shall be not less than 11.5°.

(ii) Acid: Not less than 0.65 gram nor more than 1.65 grams per 100 ml. of juice; and

(iii) Brix-acid ratio: Not less than 11 to 1 if the Brix is 12.5° or more; not less than 12 to 1 if the Brix is less than 12.5°: Provided, That when the Brix is 15° or more, the Brix-acid ratio may be less than 11 to 1.

(c) (SStd) Classification. Canned orange juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, or is off flavor for any reason, may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

EXPLANATIONS AND METHODS OF ANALYSES

§ 52.1560 Definitions of terms. (a) "Brix" means the degrees Brix of canned orange juice when tested with a Brix hydrometer calibrated at 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.). If used in testing juice at a temperature other than 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.) the applicable temperature correction shall be made to the reading of the scale as prescribed in the "Official Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists." The degrees Brix of canned orange juice may be determined by any other method which gives equivalent results.

(b) "Acid" means grams of acid (calculated as anhydrous citric acid) per 100 ml. of juice in canned orange juice determined by titration with standard sodium hydroxide solution using phenolphthalein indicator.

§ 52.1561 Explanation of analyses. (a) "Recoverable oil" in canned orange juice is determined by the following method:

(1) Equipment. Oil separatory trap similar to either of those illustrated in Figure 1 or Figure 2.[2]

Gas burner or hot plate.
Ringstand and clamps.
Rubber tubing.
3-liter narrow-neck flask.

(2) Procedure. (i) Exactly 2 liters of juice are placed in a 3-liter flask. Close the stopcock, place distilled water in the graduated tube, run cold water through the condenser from bottom to top, and bring the juice to a boil. Boiling is continued for one hour at the rate of approximately 50 drops per minute. By means of the stopcock, lower the oil into the graduated portion of the separatory trap, remove the trap from the flask, allow it to cool, and record the amount of oil recovered.

(ii) The number of milliliters of oil recovered divided by 20 equals the percent by volume of recoverable oil.

LOT CERTIFICATION TOLERANCES

§ 52.1562 Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (a) When certifying samples that have been offically drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned orange juice the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if, (1) all containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification; and (2) with respect to those factors which are scored:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the containers fails to meet the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(ii) None of the containers falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(iii) None of the containers falls more than one grade below the grade indicated by the average of such total scores; and

(iv) The average score of all containers for any factor subject to a limiting rule is within the score range of that factor for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores of the containers comprising the sample.

[1] Compliance with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or with applicable State laws and regulations.

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.322 Valencia Orange Regulation 22—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Order No. 22 (19 F. R. 1741), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective March 31, 1954, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on September 16, 1954 after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 19, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 26, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 450,450 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) Valencia oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "boxes," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in said order.

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.693 Orange Regulation 262—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committee established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of all oranges, except Temple oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than September 20, 1954. Shipments of all oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are currently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order and will so continue until September 20, 1954; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to September 19, 1954, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on September 14; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of all oranges, except Temple oranges; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 20, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., October 4, 1954, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2; or

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 288 oranges, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, the terms "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall each have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. No. 2," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida oranges (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title).

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.694 Grapefruit Regulation 208—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order and will so continue until September 20, 1954; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to September 19, 1954, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on September 14; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 20, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., October 4, 1954, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(ii) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 70 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(iii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(iv) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(v) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee," shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; "U. S. No. 2," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title).

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.662 Lemon Regulation 555—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 18 F. R. 6767), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on September 15, 1954, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 19, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 26, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 275 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is set forth below and made a part of this section by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3" shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Reg. No. SR-386B]

PART 41—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES FOR SCHEDULED AIR CARRIER OPERATIONS OUTSIDE THE CONTINENTAL LIMITS OF THE UNITED STATES

SPECIAL CIVIL AIR REGULATION; FLIGHT TIME LIMITATIONS FOR PILOTS NOT REGULARLY ASSIGNED TO ONE TYPE OF CREW

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 14th day of September 1954.

Special Civil Air Regulation SR-386A, which terminates September 19, 1954, provides authority whereby a pilot may serve in more than one type of flight crew without incurring any penalty in terms of maximum permissive flight duty. This authority has heretofore been provided for an experimental period with a view to the establishment of permanent rules for such crew assignments.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration has advised the Board that the regulation is a desirable one and not subject to abuse, and that it recommends that the authority granted by SR-386A be continued. Since a proposed major revision of Part 41 of the Civil Air Regulations is being prepared for publication, the Board considers that it is advisable to extend the authority granted by SR-386A for another year rather than to incorporate this authority in currently effective Part 41. During the development of the revision of Part 41 further consideration and discussion will be given concerning the permanent incorporation of such a provision.

This regulation will not allow evasion of the stricter limitations applicable to smaller crew combinations, but will allow assignment of a pilot in any given month to another type of crew combination without additional flight time limitation if he flies not more than 20 hours in the type of crew to which the more restrictive flight time limitations apply and if such assignment is not interrupted more than once during such month.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this regulation, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Since it imposes no additional burden on any person, this regulation may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates the following Special Civil Air Regulation, effective September 19, 1954:

1. Contrary provisions of § 41.57 of the Civil Air Regulations notwithstanding, the following rules shall apply to the monthly and quarterly flight time limitations of pilots assigned in combinations of two-pilot crews, two-pilot and additional flight crew member crews, or three-pilot and additional flight crew member crews.

2. A pilot who is assigned to duty aloft for more than 20 hours in two-pilot crews in a given month, or whose assignment in such crews is interrupted more than once in the month by assignment to a crew consisting of two or more pilots and an additional flight crew member, shall be governed by the provisions of § 41.54.

3. Except for a pilot coming within the provisions of paragraph 2, a pilot who is assigned to duty aloft for more than 20 hours in two-pilot and additional flight crew member crews in a given month, or whose assignment in such crews is interrupted more than once in the month by assignment to a crew consisting of three pilots and an additional flight crew member, shall be governed by the provisions of § 41.55.

4. A pilot to whom the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 are not applicable, assigned to duty aloft for a total of 20 hours or less within a given month in two-pilot crews with or without additional flight crew members, shall be governed by the provisions of § 41.56.

5. A pilot assigned to each of two-pilot, two-pilot and additional flight crew member, and three-pilot and additional flight crew member crews in a given month, who is not governed by the provisions of paragraphs 2, 3, or 4, shall be governed by the provisions of § 41.55.

This regulation shall supersede Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR-386A and shall terminate one year from its effective date, unless sooner superseded or rescinded by the Board.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 602, 604, 52 Stat. 1007, 1008, 1010; 49 U. S. C. 551, 552, 554)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] M. C. MULLIGAN,
Secretary.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53576]

PART 1—CUSTOMS DISTRICTS AND PORTS

FIELD ORGANIZATION

SEPTEMBER 10, 1954.

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of August 1, 1914, 38 Stat. 623 (19 U. S. C. 2), and delegated to the Secretary of the Treasury by the President by Executive Order No. 10289, of September 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 9499), the following changes in the field organization of the Bureau of Customs are hereby made, effective September 15, 1954.

1. The limits of the customs port of entry of Seattle, Washington, the headquarters port of Customs Collection District No. 30 (Washington), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include the following territory: Sections 1 to 6, inclusive, Township 22 N., R. 4 E., W. M.; Township 23 N., R. 4 E., W. M.; and Sections 32 and 33, Township 24 N., R. 4 E., W. M., King County, State of Washington.

2. The designation of South Bend, Washington, as a customs port of entry in Customs Collection District No. 30 (Washington), is hereby revoked, and a new customs port of entry to be known as "South Bend-Raymond, Washington" is hereby designated in said district, which shall include the territory within the corporate limits of South Bend and Raymond, Washington, and all points on the Willapa River lying between the corporate limits of such towns.

3. The limits of the customs port of entry of Port Huron, Michigan, in Customs Collection District No. 38 (Michigan), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include the territory embracing the municipality of Marysville, Michigan, and the Townships of Port Huron, Fort Gratiot, Kimball and St. Clair, in St. Clair County, State of Michigan.

Section 1.1 (c), Customs Regulations (19 CFR 1.1 (c)), is amended by inserting "(including territory described in T. D. 53576)" opposite "Seattle" in the column headed "Ports of entry" in District No. 30 (Washington); by substituting "South Bend-Raymond" for "South Bend" in the column headed "Ports of entry" in District No. 30 (Washington), and inserting "(T. D. 53576)" after such name; and by inserting "(including territory described in T. D. 53576)" opposite "Port Huron" in the column headed "Ports of entry" in District No. 38 (Michigan).

PART 54—CERTAIN IMPORTATIONS FREE OF DUTY DURING THE WAR

ENTRY OF EFFECTS OF PERSONS IN SERVICE OF UNITED STATES AND EVACUEES TO THE UNITED STATES AND GIFTS FROM MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES

In the interest of simplification in the clearance through customs of effects of persons in the service of the United States or of their families or of persons evacuated to the United States when the effects are exempt from duty or tax under Public Law 633, approved June 27, 1942, as amended (50 U. S. C. App. 801), it is deemed advisable to amend the regulations to provide for the use of a new customs Form 6061 entitled "Declaration and Entry for Personal and Household Effects Under Public Law 633, approved June 27, 1942, as amended—Carrier's Certificate and Release," to enter the shipments, whether arriving by freight, express, or mail, when entry is made in the name of the person entitled to the benefits of the statute, and to require owners' travel orders to be attached to or identified on such entries when the orders are used to satisfy collectors that effects are brought into the United States pursuant to government orders or instructions.

It is also desirable to provide for the use of properly executed declarations as entries in clearing shipments of gifts from members of the United States armed forces on duty abroad under Public Law 790, approved December 5, 1942, as amended (50 U. S. C. App. 846).

Accordingly, § 54.2 (c) is amended by deleting the second and third sentences and substituting the following therefor: "Collectors of customs shall accord free entry under the statute upon the production of satisfactory proof that the articles are entitled to the benefit thereof. Customs Form 6061 may be used as a declaration and entry for articles granted exemption from duty and tax under the Act when entry is made in the name of the person who is entitled to the benefits of the statute. Such declaration and entry shall be supported by the owner's travel orders unless other evidence is furnished the collector which satisfies him that the effects were brought into the United States pursuant to government orders or instructions. If a collector accepts the owner's travel orders as evidence that the effects were brought into the United States pursuant to government orders or instructions, but a copy of such travel orders is not available for permanent filing with the declaration and entry, the owner's travel orders shall be identified on the entry, which shall be handled like a free baggage declaration. The inward foreign manifest covering a shipment entered on customs Form 6061 shall be liquidated by noting thereon 'Free on c.F. 6061, P. L. 633.'"

(Secs. 484, 498, 46 Stat. 722, as amended, 728, as amended, sec. 1, 56 Stat. 461; 19 U. S. C. 1484, 1498, 50 U. S. C. App. 801)

Section 54.3 (d) is hereby amended to read:

(d) The entry requirements prescribed in the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the Customs Regulations are applicable to articles entitled to free entry under Public Law 790, approved December 5, 1942, as amended (50 U. S. C. App. 846). When any shipment is granted exemption from duty or tax under that act, the declaration of the donor and a duly designated officer of the armed forces required by paragraph (b) of this section may be treated as an entry therefor, to be supported by proper evidence of the right to make the entry. In such a case, except when affixed to the parcel in a manner which makes removal impracticable (see paragraph (c) of this section), the entry shall be handled like a free baggage declaration. The inward foreign manifest covering a shipment passed free under this procedure shall be liquidated by noting thereon "Free on declaration, P. L. 790."

(Sec. 498, 46 Stat. 728, as amended, sec. 1, 56 Stat. 1041, as amended; 19 U. S. C. 1498, 50 U. S. C. App. 846)

New customs Form 6061, prescribed for use herein, will be printed and available for distribution within approximately 90 days from the date of this decision. The form will be prepared in pads containing 100 copies and will not be salable. Collectors may obtain supplies thereof from the Section of Forms, Customs Information Exchange, 201 Varick Street, New York 14, New York.

[SEAL] RALPH KELLY,
Commissioner of Customs.

PART 39—INCOME TAX: TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1951

PROVIDING FOR FILING OF FORMS 975 AND 976 WITH DISTRICT DIRECTORS OF INTERNAL REVENUE

In order to provide in Regulations 118 (26 CFR Part 39) that Form 975, relating to notice of intention to claim a deficieny dividend credit under section 506 of the Internal Revenue Code, and Form 976, relating to claim for deficiency dividends credit, or credit for refund under such section, shall be filed with the appropriate district director of internal revenue, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

§ 39.506–3 Credit against unpaid deficiency. • • •

(d) Time and place of filing notification. Within 30 days after the date of the closing agreement, or the date upon which the decision of the Tax Court or judgment becomes final, as the case may be, the notification required by section 506 (c) (1) and this section shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., except that on and after November 1, 1954, such notification shall be filed with the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the corporation's income tax return is filed.

* * * * *

PAR. 2. Section 39.506–5 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 39.506–5 Claim for deficiency dividends credit or credit or refund. * * *

(d) Time and place of filing claim. Within 60 days after the date of the closing agreement, or the date upon which the decision of the Tax Court or judgment becomes final, as the case may be, the claim required by section 506 (d) and this section shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., except that on and after November 1, 1954, such claim shall be filed with the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the corporation's income tax return is filed.

PAR. 3. Section 39.506–7 (b) is amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after the word "Commissioner" in the second sentence "or the district director of internal revenue (see § 39.506–3 (d))".

(B) By striking from the third sentence the words "by the Commissioner".

(C) By inserting immediately after the word "Commissioner" in the fifth sentence "or, after August 26, 1953, the district director of internal revenue".

As amended, § 39.506–7 (b) will read as follows:

§ 39.506–7 Suspension of statute of limitations and stay of collection. * * *

(b) Stay of collection. The Internal Revenue Code provides that, except in case of jeopardy, the collection of the established deficiency and all interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided by law, is stayed for a period of 30 days subsequent to the final determination of the amount thereof. If within such 30-day period the corporation files with the Commissioner or the district director of internal revenue (see § 39.506–3 (d)) the prescribed notification of intention to seek the benefit of section 506, the collection of the established deficiency, to the extent of the amount of the credit specified by the corporation in such notification if not in excess of the amount allowable under section 506 (a), is, except in cases of jeopardy, stayed for a period of 60 days subsequent to the final determination of the amount thereof. The filing of a claim for a deficiency dividends credit under section 506 (d) effects a further stay of collection of that portion of the established deficiency covered by the claim if not in excess of the amount allowable under section 506 (a), until the date the claim is disallowed (in whole or in part). The Code further provides that where collection has been stayed as above indicated no distraint or proceeding in court shall be begun for the collection of the amount stayed during the period for which it is stayed. The Commissioner or, after August 26, 1953, the district director of internal revenue, notwithstanding the provisions of section 272 (b), may refrain from assessing the subchapter A deficiency (plus interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax) until the claim for the deficiency dividends credit is disposed of. After such claim is allowed or rejected, either in whole or in part, the entire amount of the deficiency (plus interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax) will be assessed, if not already assessed. The amount of the claim for the deficiency dividends credit to the extent allowed will be credited against the amount so assessed, and the remainder of the amount assessed will be collected in the usual manner.

Because this Treasury decision merely changes the designation of the official with whom certain documents must be filed it is found that it is unnecessary to issue such Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of that Act.

PART 176—DRAWBACK ON DISTILLED SPIRITS AND WINES

DECENTRALIZATION OF ASSESSMENT AND CLAIMS FUNCTIONS PERTAINING TO LIQUORS

Correction

In Federal Register Document 54–6199, appearing at page 5055 of the issue for August 11, 1954, the following changes should be made:

In amendatory paragraph (N), paragraphs (1), (2), and (5) should read as follows:

(1) By changing the comma following the phrase "Part 190 of this subchapter (Regulations 15)," in the first sentence of paragraph (a) to a period and striking the phrase "and an additional copy of such form shall be prepared in each case."

(2) By striking from the fifth sentence of paragraph (a), which begins, "The rectification tax", the reference "Part 190 of this subchapter (Regulations 15)."

(5) By striking from the second sentence of paragraph (c), which begins, "Such export", the reference "Regulations 15 (Part 190 of this chapter)."

PART 182—INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL

COMPLETELY DENATURED ALCOHOL FORMULAE NOS. 16, 17, 18, AND 19

The purposes of these amendments are as follows:

(1) To revoke Formulae Nos. 16 and 17 for completely denatured alcohol because of the discontinuance of manufacture of the denaturant ST–115; but to continue authorization for the preparation of denatured alcohol under those, as well as certain other, revoked formulae so far as is necessary to exhaust the existing supply of specified denaturants;

(2) To amend Formula No. 18 for completely denatured alcohol by decreasing the quantities of required denaturants so that the disagreeable residual odor of the product will be alleviated;

(3) To prescribe new Formula No. 19 for completely denatured alcohol using only denaturants which are also used for other commercial purposes;

(4) To revise the list, "Denaturants Authorized for Completely and Specially Denatured Alcohol".

Accordingly, the Appendix to Regulations 3, "Industrial Alcohol" (26 CFR Part 182; 7 F. R. 1858), as amended, is hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Completely Denatured Alcohol Formulae Nos. 16 and 17 are hereby revoked: Provided, That proprietors of denaturing plants may, after approval of the denaturants by authorized chemists, and without written application for the Commissioner's authorization, continue the use of existing supplies of CS–501, Dehydrol–O, or ST–115 in the preparation of Completey Denatured Alcohol Formulae Nos. 12, 14, and 15 (revoked by T. D. 5917), and Formulae Nos. 16 and 17, until such supplies of these discontinued denaturants are exhausted.

PAR. 2. Completely Denatured Alcohol Formula No. 18 is hereby amended to read as follows:

FORMULA NO. 18

To every 100 gallons of ethyl alcohol of not less than 160° proof add:
2.5 gallons of methyl isobutyl ketone.
0.125 gallon of Pyronate or a compound similar thereto.
0.5 gallon of acetaldol (hydroxy-butyraldehyde).
1.0 gallon of kerosene.

PAR. 3. The following formula is authorized for the manufacture of completely denatured alcohol:

FORMULA NO. 19

To every 100 gallons of ethyl alcohol of not less than 160° proof add:
4.0 gallons of methyl isobutyl ketone.
1.0 gallon of kerosene.

PAR. 4. The list, "Denaturants Authorized for Completely and Specially Denatured Alcohol," is amended (1) by deleting therefrom the following:

Acetaldol	C. D. 16; 18
Kerosene	C. D. 16; 17; 18
Methyl isobutyl ketone	C. D. 17; 18; S. D. 23–G; 23–H
Pyronate	C. D. 16; 18
ST–115	C. D. 16; 17

and (2) by inserting therein the following:

Acetaldol	C. D. 18
Kerosene	C. D. 18; 19
Methyl isobutyl ketone	C. D. 18; 19 S. D. 23–G; 23–H
Pyronate	C. D. 18

This Treasury decision shall be effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

This Treasury decision will facilitate the preparation of completely denatured alcohol for use in the manufacture of antifreeze for motor vehicles during the forthcoming winter season. Because it will merely (1) correct the obsolescence in formulae caused by the discontinuance of the manufacture of the denaturant ST–115, (2) permit the use, after approval by authorized chemists, of existing stocks of the denaturants Dehydrol-O, CS–501, and ST–115, and (3) effect improvements by eliminating or reducing the quantity of a denaturant affecting the commercial acceptance of a product for antifreeze purposes, it is hereby found that it is unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of said act.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

§ 11.1 Definitions of terms used in this part. As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The term "Attorney General" means the Attorney General of the United States.

(b) The term "act" means the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950.

(c) The term "section" refers to a section of the act.

(d) The term "regulations" refers to all regulations, forms, and instructions to forms prescribed by the Attorney General pursuant to the act.

(e) The term "registrant" means an individual or organization for whom a registration statement is filed.

(f) The term "executive officer" means the individual who directs the course of business of the organization or who outlines the duties and directs the work of subordinate employees and who is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the organization's affairs and for carrying into effect the purposes of his employment.

(g) The term "moneys received" shall include, but shall not be necessarily limited to, all moneys and other things of value received by the registrant from rents, sales, bazaars, benefits, socials, parties, entertainments, gifts, donations, contributions, subscriptions, subsidies, legacies, grants, or funds held in trust for the benefit of the registrant.

(h) The term "moneys expended" shall include, but shall not be necessarily limited to, all moneys and other things of value which a registrant expends by way of purchase, barter, gift, donation, subscription, transfer, conveyance, lease, subsidy, assignment, endowment, or release.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

§ 11.100 Administration of the act assigned to Internal Security Division. The administration of sections 7 to 10, inclusive, of the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950 is assigned to the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice. All communications with respect thereto should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 11.101 Computation of time. Sundays and holidays shall be counted in computing any period of time provided for in the act or in this part.

§ 11.102 Act and regulations in this part to be considered together. In determining any question concerning the application of the act to any person the regulations in this part shall be considered together with the provisions of the act. The regulations in this part shall not be construed to limit the act or to define its full scope or application.

REQUIREMENTS AS TO REGISTRATION

§ 11.200 Forms for registration of organizations. Each Communist-action organization and each Communist-front organization which is required to register with the Attorney General shall accomplish such registration on a form hereby designated as Form ISA–1. This form is available at the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C. Forms may be obtained on personal application or through the mail.

§ 11.201 Filing of registration statement. Registration statements shall be prepared and filed in duplicate with the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C. Filing may be made in person or by mail and shall be deemed to have taken place upon the receipt thereof.

§ 11.202 Annual reports. The annual report required by section 7 (c) of the act shall be submitted on a form hereby designated as Form ISA–3. This form is available on request at the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C., and may be obtained either in person or by mail.

§ 11.203 Accounting of moneys received and expended. The accounting of moneys received and expended as required to be reported by section 7 (d) (3) of the act shall be accomplished in the manner prescribed by Items 4 to 10 of Form ISA–1.

§ 11.204 Maintenance of books and records. (a) Each organization registered under the act shall make and keep current all bookkeeping and other financial records relating to registrant's activities, including cancelled checks, bank statements, and records of income and disbursements, showing names and addresses of all persons who have paid moneys to the registrant or who have received moneys from the registrant, the specific amounts so paid or received, the date on which each item was paid or received, and the purpose for which any item was expended.

(b) Each Communist-action organization in addition to keeping the books and records required by paragraph (a) of this section shall make and keep current such books and records as will disclose the names and addresses of the members of the registrant, the officers and employees of the registrant, and the names and addresses of persons, other than members, officers or employees, who actively participate in the activities of the registrant.

§ 11.205 Liability of officers. In the event an organization required to register pursuant to section 7 (a) or 7 (b) of the act has failed to submit its registration statement to the Attorney General for filing within the time specified by section 7 (c) of the act, it shall be the duty of the following designated officers of such organization, jointly with the executive officer and secretary of such organization, to execute and file the required registration statement within ten days after expiration of the 30-day periods specified in section 7 (c) of the act:

(a) The president, chairman, or other person who is chief officer of the organization.

(b) The vice-president, vice-chairman, or person performing similar function.

(c) The treasurer.

(d) Members of the governing board, council, or body.

§ 11.206 Form for registration of individuals. Each individual required to register pursuant to section 8 (a) or (b) of the act shall execute and file a form hereby designated as Form ISA-2. This form is available at the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C., and may be obtained in person or by mail.

§ 11.207 Information required on Form ISA-2. Form ISA-2 shall contain, among other things, the following information:

(a) Registrant's name, present residence address, present business address, and all previous residence addresses for the past five years.

(b) All other names ever used by registrant and when used.

(c) The name of the Communist-action organization of which registrant is a member or officer and all offices ever held by him in the organization.

(d) A description of registrant's duties or functions within the organization.

(e) The name of all other clubs, societies, committees, and other non-business organizations in the United States and elsewhere of which registrant has been a member, director, officer, or employee during the past ten years.

(f) Registrant's connections with any foreign government, foreign agency, foreign political party, or any official or representative thereof.

(g) Registrant's present nationality and all previous nationalities.

(h) Registrant's present citizenship status and how acquired.

(i) All past military service and present military status of registrant.

(j) An account of all registrant's trips abroad during the past five years including the names of the countries visited, length of stay, and purpose of visit.

(k) A description of any trip contemplated during the coming year.

REGISTERS

§ 11.300 Public inspection of registers. Registration statements filed by individuals pursuant to section 8 of the act and, subject to the provisions of section 9 (b) of the act, registration statements and annual reports filed by organizations under section 7 of the act shall be available for public inspection at the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C., from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. on each official business day.

LABELING

§ 11.400 Labeling of publications. Any publication transmitted or caused to be transmitted through the United States mails, or by any means or instrumentality of interstate or foreign commerce and required to be labeled pursuant to section 10 (1) of the act shall bear the statement required by that section conspicuously marked at the beginning in the English language and in the language or languages used in such publication. The envelope, wrapper, or other container in which such publication is mailed, circulated, or transmitted shall bear the same statement in the English language in the lower left hand portion thereof.

This order supersedes Order No. 4147 of the Attorney General dated October 17, 1950, as amended by Supplement 1 thereto dated November 15, 1950, and Order No. 3-53 dated January 29, 1953, prescribing regulations governing the administration of sections 7, 8, 9, and 10 of the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950.

WILLIAM P. ROGERS,
Acting Attorney General.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XIV—The Renegotiation Board

Subchapter B—Renegotiaton Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1451—SCOPE OF RENEGOTIATION BOARD REGULATIONS UNDER THE RENEGOTIATION ACT OF 1951, AND DEFINITIONS APPLICABLE THERETO

DEFINITIONS

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1451.11 "The 1951 act" and "the act" is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 1451.11 "The 1951 act" and "the act". The terms "the 1951 act" and "the act" mean the Renegotiation Act of 1951, as amended or supplemented.

2. Section 1451.12 "The 1948 act" is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 1451.12 "The 1948 act". The term "the 1948 act" means the Renegotiation Act of 1948, as amended or supplemented.

PART 1453—MANDATORY EXEMPTIONS FROM RENEGOTIATION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 1453.3 Exemption of common carriers and public utilities is amended as follows:

a. The statutory provision set forth in paragraph (a) is amended by deleting the semicolon at the end thereof and inserting the following: "and to such furnishing or sale in any case in which the Board finds that the regulatory aspects of rates for such furnishing or sale, or the type and nature of the contract for such furnishing or sale, are such as to indicate, in the opinion of the Board, that excessive profits are improbable;" [Quoted matter added by Pub. Law 764, 83d Cong., approved September 1, 1954, and applies only with respect to fiscal years ending on or after December 31, 1953.]

b. Paragraph (d) is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

(d) Common carriers by water. (1) With respect to fiscal years ending before December 31, 1953, a contract with a common carrier for transportation by water is exempt only if the sale or furnishing of such transportation is subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission under Part III of the Interstate Commerce Act or subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Maritime Board under the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933. Rates for passenger or cargo transportation to foreign ports are not fixed by these agencies under the statutes referred to in the last sentence of section 106 (a) (4) of the act, and thus contracts for such transportation are not within the exemption.

(2) With respect to fiscal years ending on or after December 31, 1953, a contract with a common carrier for transportation by water is exempt if it meets the conditions set forth in subparagraph 1 of this paragraph or if the Board finds, upon application of the contractor, that the regulatory aspects of rates for the sale or furnishing of such transportation, or the type and nature of the contract for such furnishing or sale, are such as to indicate, in the opinion of the Board, that excessive profits are improbable. Any application for such a finding shall be filed with the Board not later than the date when the contractor files the financial statement prescribed in section 105 (e) (1) of the act (see § 1470.3 (a) of this subchapter) for the fiscal year in which the contractor received or accrued the amounts with respect to which the exemption is claimed. In any financial statement so filed, receipts or accruals under any contract with respect to which the Board is requested to make such a finding shall be included initially in computing the aggregate renegotiable receipts or accruals of the contractor for the fiscal year to which such statement relates.

2. Section 1453.5 Contracts that do not have a direct and immediate connection with the national defense is amended as follows:

a. The statutory provision set forth in paragraph (a) is amended by inserting immediately after the second period therein the following: "In designating those classes and types of contracts which shall be exempt and in exempting any individual contract under this paragraph, the Board shall consider as not having a direct or immediate connection with national defense any contract for the furnishing of materials or services to be used by the United States, a Department or agency thereof, in the manufacture and sale of synthetic rubbers to a private person or to private persons which are to be used for nondefense purposes. If the use by such private person or persons shall be partly for defense and partly for nondefense purposes, the Board shall consider as not having a direct or immediate connection with national defense that portion of the contract which is determined not to have been used for national defense purposes. The method used in making such determination shall be subject to approval by the Board." [Quoted matter added by Pub. Law 764, 83d Cong., approved September 1, 1954.]

b. Paragraph (b) (19) is deleted in its entirety.

(c) A new paragraph (g) is added to read as follows:

(g) Synthetic rubber. Under section 106 (a) of the act, the Board is required and empowered to determine the extent to which materials or services furnished under a contract with a Department are used in the manufacture of synthetic rubber for sale thereof to a private person or to private persons for nondefense purposes. In the absence of specific information concerning the extent to which materials and services furnished under any such contract are to be so used, the Board will apply the industry percentages set forth from time to time in Renegotiation Staff Bulletin No. 21 and supplements thereto, which Bulletin and supplements are hereby made a part of these regulations.

PART 1455—PERMISSIVE EXEMPTIONS FROM RENEGOTIATION

PROFITS DETERMINABLE WHEN CONTRACT PRICE IS ESTABLISHED

Section 1455.3 Contracts under which profits can be determined at time contract price is established is amended by deleting in paragraph (b) (6) the words "$250,000, or, during a fiscal year which is a fractional part of 12 months, is not more than the same fractional part of $250,000" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "$250,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending before June 30, 1953, or $500,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending on or after June 30, 1953, or, during a fiscal year which is a fractional part of 12 months, is not more than the same fractional part of $250,000 or $500,000, as the case may be".

PART 1458—RECEIPTS OR ACCRUALS UNDER STATUTORY MINIMUM

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1458.1 Statutory provision is amended by deleting "$250,000" wherever it appears in paragraph (1) set forth therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "$250,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending before June 30, 1953, or $500,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending on or after June 30, 1953", and by inserting in the second sentence of paragraph (3) set forth therein, after "the $250,000 amount" the following: ", the $500,000 amount,".

2. Section 1458.2 Computation of aggregate receipts and accruals is amended by deleting "$250,000" in paragraph (a) (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "$250,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending before June 30, 1953, or $500,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending on or after June 30, 1953", and by inserting the words "prime contracts and" before the words "subcontracts for new durable productive equipment" in paragraph (b).

3. Section 1458.3 No reduction by refund below statutory minimum is amended by deleting "$250,000" in paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "$250,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending before June 30, 1953, or $500,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending on or after June 30, 1953."

4. Section 1458.4 Proration of statutory minimum is amended by deleting the words "the $250,000 amount" in paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the words "the $250,000 and $500,000 amounts".

5. Section 1458.5 Statutory minimum not an exemption is amended by deleting "$250,000" wherever it appears in paragraphs (a) and (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "$250,000, $500,000".

PART 1460—PRINCIPLES AND FACTORS IN DETERMINING EXCESSIVE PROFITS

MINIMUM REFUND

This part is amended by deleting the last sentence of § 1460.5 Minimum refund, and by deleting the first two sentences and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Except as hereinafter provided, and in the absence of unusual circumstances, no determination of excessive profits shall be made if such excessive profits before adjustment for State taxes measured by income amount to (a) less than $10,000 with respect to any fiscal year ended on or before December 31, 1951, or (b) less than $20,000 with respect to any fiscal year ending after December 31, 1951 and before June 30, 1953, or (c) less than $40,000 with respect to any fiscal year ending on or after June 30, 1953, or (d) less than $10,000 with respect to any fiscal year in the case of subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act. If a determination of excessive profits would be made at or in excess of the applicable minimum amount but for the limitation set forth in section 105 (f) (1) or (2) of the act and § 1458.3 (a) or (b) of this subchapter, the determination will be made in accordance with such limitation even though the amount of the determination is less than the minimum prescribed by this section."

PART 1474—AGREEMENT PROCEDURE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1474.1 Statutory provision is amended by deleting the period at the end of the statutory provision set forth therein and inserting the following: ", and shall also have the power to set aside and declare null and void any such agreement if, upon a request made to the Board within three years from the date of such agreement, the Board finds as a fact that the aggregate of the amounts received or accrued by the other party to such agreement during the fiscal year covered by such agreement was not more than the minimum amounts subject to renegotiation specified in section 105 (f) for such fiscal year".

[Quoted matter added by Pub. Law 764, 83d Cong., approved September 1, 1954.]

2. A new § 1474.7 is added to read as follows:

§ 1474.7 Nullification of agreement—(a) Filing of requests. Any request that an agreement to eliminate excessive profits be set aside and declared null and void pursuant to section 105 (d) of the act shall be filed by the contractor with the Board, and shall contain a full and complete statement of the facts upon which the contractor relies, including copies of supporting documents, if any. Upon request of the Board, the contractor shall file any additional information or documents which the Board may consider necessary or pertinent. If a request that an agreement be set aside is filed before the amount payable thereunder is fully paid, the contractor shall, at the time of filing such request with the Board, mail notice of such filing to the collecting agency designated in the agreement.

(b) The filing pursuant to this section of a request that an agreement be set aside shall suspend the obligation of the contractor to pay any sum due under the agreement until the Board that an the agreement until the Board shall have acted upon such request. A determination by the Board that an agreement shall be set aside and declared null and void pursuant to the provisions of section 105 (d) of the act shall be embodied in an order to that effect.

PART 1490—BROKERS AND MANUFACTURERS' AGENTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1490.3 Limited exemption of subcontracts for architectural, design or engineering services is amended by deleting "$250,000" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "$250,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending before June 30, 1953, or $500,000, in the case of a fiscal year ending on or after June 30, 1953".

2. Section 1490.6 Determination of renegotiable business under section 103 (g) (3) of the act is amended by deleting paragraph (f) in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(f) Receipts and accruals under subcontracts described in section 103 (g) (3) of the act, to the extent that such receipts or accruals are referable to prime contracts or subcontracts for new durable productive equipment, are subject to renegotiation to the same extent as the receipts or accruals under the prime contracts or subcontracts to which they are referable.

PART 1498—FORMS RELATING TO AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

This part is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1498.2 Variations in form of renegotiation agreement is amended by deleting "$250,000 [$25,000]" from the form of agreement provision set forth in paragraph (c).

2. Section 1498.8 Notice by Regional Board of cancellation of assignment is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

---------- (Date)

GENTLEMEN: By letter dated ---------- you were notified of the assignment to this Regional Board of the renegotiation case for your fiscal year ended ----------.

Based upon the information submitted by you, it appears that you have not realized excessive profits from contracts and subcontracts subject to the Renegotiation Act of 1951, as amended or supplemented, for the fiscal year in question. Accordingly, this Regional Board will not proceed further with this case unless there is a subsequent indication that you may have realized excessive profits for such fiscal year.

Very truly yours,
REGIONAL RENEGOTIATION BOARD.

(b) Class B "floor" case. If the contractor's aggregate renegotiable receipts or accruals have been determined to be below the applicable statutory minimum (see Part 1458 of this subchapter), the second paragraph of the form appearing in paragraph (a) of this section will be deleted and the following paragraph used in lieu thereof:

Based upon the information submitted by you, it appears that your aggregate receipts or accruals from contracts and subcontracts subject to the Renegotiation Act of 1951, as amended or supplemented, were less than $---------- for the fiscal year in question. Accordingly, this Regional Board will not proceed further with this case unless it subsequently appears that your renegotiable receipts or accruals for such fiscal year aggregated $------ or more.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 141—FREIGHT SCHEDULES

PART 145—PASSENGER SERVICE SCHEDULES

PART 148—POSTING TARIFFS AT STATIONS

PART 311—PASSENGER TARIFFS OF COMMON CARRIERS BY WATER

PART 312—FREIGHT TARIFFS AND SCHEDULES

POSTING OF TARIFFS AT STATIONS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 17th day of August A. D. 1954.

It appearing, that on January 18, 1954, notice to the public was given of proposed changes to be made in the regulations governing the posting of freight and passenger tariffs at stations; that written statements containing data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed posting rules have been received; that informal conferences have been held; and that full consideration has been given to all of the matters and things involved:

It is ordered, That the following regulations governing the posting of tariffs are hereby approved and prescribed for all carriers of passengers and property subject to section 6 (1) and section 306 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and for common carriers by motor vehicle subject to section 217 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act insofar as tariffs of such common carriers show joint motor-rail, motor-water, and/or motor-rail-water rates, fares or charges.

SUBPART A—FREIGHT TARIFFS OF COMMON CARRIERS BY RAIL, WATER, OR PIPE LINE, AND FREIGHT TARRIFFS OF COMMON CARRIERS BY MOTOR VEHICLE CONTAINING JOINT MOTOR-RAIL, MOTOR-WATER, AND/OR MOTOR-RAIL-WATER RATES

AUTHORITY: §§ 148.0 to 148.8 issued under sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interpret or apply sec. 6, 24 Stat. 380, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 6.

§ 148.0 Posting of tariffs defined. The term "post" as used in this part means the maintenance of a file of tariffs in the custody of an agent of the carrier in a complete, accessible, and usable form, and keeping such file of tariffs available to the public upon request during ordinary business hours. The term "tariff" as used in this part includes tariff supplements or amendments.

§ 148.1 Carriers required to post tariffs at stations. (a) Each railroad and each common carrier by water shall post at each station (loading port as to water carriers) at which freight is received for transportation and at which an agent is employed all tariffs (including those filed for it by tariff-publishing agents or by other carriers with its concurrence) which contain rates applying from that station or which contain terminal or other charges applicable at that station, together with all other tariffs needed to determine the application of such rates or charges, excepting tariffs which show only the marked capacities, lengths, dimension and cubical capacities of cars. There shall also be posted at each such station an index of the carrier's freight tariffs in form as provided in § 141.11 of this subchapter (Rule 11 of Tariff Circular No. 20).

(b) Each common carrier by motor vehicle shall post at each station or office at which freight is received for transportation and at which an agent is employed all tariffs containing joint motor-rail, motor-water, and/or motor-rail-water rates applying from or at such station or office.

§ 148.2 Relief from requirements. If any tariff so posted (other than a tariff index) has not been used for a substantial length of time the posting of that tariff, including reissues thereof, may be discontinued at that station until such time as a request is made to the carrier's agent to have it reposted. It shall then be reposted within 20 days and thereafter kept posted.

§ 148.3 Location of complete public files of tariffs. (a) Each common carrier by rail, water, and pipeline shall post at its principal office a complete set of all tariffs which it issues or to which it is a party, together with an index thereto, and each rail carrier with 5,000 miles or more of first main track (including branch lines but excluding yard, terminal, and industrial tracks) shall also post at not less than one additional point a complete set of all tariffs (see Note) which it issues or to which it is a party. In determining the number of miles of first main track operated, family lines may be considered as a unit and subsidiary carriers as a part of the controlling carrier.

NOTE: Switching and terminal railroads need maintain at their principal office a complete file of their local tariffs only.

A small carrier which has authorized its principal connecting carrier to file tariffs on its behalf may have its tariffs included in the complete public tariff file of such connecting carrier without such small carrier maintaining a separate complete public file.

(b) Each common carrier by motor vehicle shall post at its principal office a complete set of tariffs containing joint motor-rail, motor-water, and/or motor-rail-water rates or charges which it issues or to which it is a party.

§ 148.4 Selection of posting places. When posting places in addition to the principal office are required, railroads shall select posting places which, in their judgment, will best serve and promote the convenience of the public in using the traiffs. The places selected shall be cities directly served by the railroad. Each railroad shall advise the Commission by letter of the posting places selected and of any changes thereafter made. The Commission may, after reasonable investigation and without formal hearing, designate posting places in addition to or in substitution of those selected by the carrier.

§ 148.5 Time of posting. Each tariff must be posted at least 30 days before its effective date, excepting those as to which the Commission has authorized a shorter period of notice to the public. Each carrier shall require the agent at every station or office at which tariffs are posted to write or stamp on each tariff the date on which it was posted.

§ 148.6 Tarif files to be accessible to the public. Each file of tariffs shall be in charge of an agent of the carrier. Each carrier shall require and instruct such agent to afford inquirers an opportunity to examine any of such tariffs without asking the inquirer to assign any reason therefor, and, upon request, to lend assistance to seekers of information therefrom with all promptness possible and consistent with proper performance of other duties.

§ 143.7 Notice required to be posted. Each carrier shall also cause to be displayed continuously in a conspicuous public place at each station or office at which tariffs are required to be posted, a notice printed in large type reading as follows:

With only such exceptions as have been authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission, all tariffs which contain rates and charges applying from or at this station are on file in this office, together with an index of all of this company's freight tariffs. The tariffs and index may be inspected by any person upon application and without the assignment of any reason for such inspection. The agent on duty in this office will lend any assistance desired in securing information therefrom.

If request is made for a tariff naming rates from this station, the posting of which has been discontinued because of nonuse, the agent will arrange to have it reposted within 20 days and thereafter keep it posted.

In addition a complete file of all of this company's tariffs, with indexes thereof, is maintained and kept available for public inspection at:

(Here indicate the place or places where complete tariff files are maintained, including the street address and, where appropriate, the room number.)

§ 148.8 Check-up on files of tariffs. Each carrier shall place in effect a system of supervision that will insure the continued maintenance in proper and readily accessible form of tariff files required at each station and also at each office where complete files are maintained. Such stations and offices must be furnished at least once a year with a list of all of the tariffs which should be in their files. Upon receipt of the list the agent or employee in charge will immediately check the tariffs on hand against the list, and report any deficiencies. Evidence of improper maintenance of files at any station or office may incur the prescription of detailed instructions to the carrier by the Commission necessary to insure compliance with the regulations.

SUBPART B—PASSENGER TARIFFS OF COMMON CARRIERS BY RAIL OR WATER AND PASSENGER TARIFFS OF COMMON CARRIERS BY MOTOR VEHICLE CONTAINING JOINT MOTOR-RAIL, MOTOR-WATER, AND/OR MOTOR-RAIL-WATER FARES, ALSO PASSENGER TARIFFS OF SLEEPING CAR COMPANIES

AUTHORITY: §§ 148.100 to 148.108 issued under sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interpret or apply sec. 6, 24 Stat. 380, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 6.

§ 148.100 Posting of tariffs defined. The term "post" as used in this part means the maintenance of a file of tariffs in the custody of an agent of the carrier in a complete, accessible, and usable form, and keeping such file of tariffs available to the public upon request during ordinary business hours. The term "tariff" as used in this part includes tariff supplements or amendments.

§ 148.101 Carriers required to post tariffs at stations. (a) Each railroad, sleeping car company and each common carrier by water shall post at each station at which passengers are received for transportation and at which an agent is employed all tariffs (including those filed for it by tariff-publishing agents or by other carriers with its concurrence) which contain fares applying from that station or which contain terminal or other charges applicable at that station, together with all other tariffs needed to determine the application of such fares or charges. There shall also be posted at each such station an index of the carrier's passenger tariffs in form as provided in § 145.39 of this subchapter (Rule 39 of Tariff Circular No. 18–A).

(b) Each common carrier by motor vehicle shall post at each station or office at which passengers are received for transportation and at which an agent is employed all tariffs containing joint motor-rail, motor-water, and/or motor-rail-water fares applying from or at such station or office.

§ 148.102 Relief from requirements. If any tariff so posted (other than a tariff index) has not been used for a substantial length of time the posting of that tariff, including reissues thereof, may be discontinued until such time as a request is made to the carrier's agent to have it reposted. It shall then be reposted within 20 days and thereafter kept posted.

§ 148.103 Location of complete public file of tariffs. (a) Each railroad and sleeping car company and each common carrier by water shall post at its principal office a complete set of all tariffs which it issues or to which it is a party, together with an index thereto, and each rail carrier with 5,000 miles or more of first main track (including branch lines but excluding yard, terminal and industrial tracks) shall also post at not less than one additional point a complete set of tariffs which it issues or to which it is a party. In determining the number of miles of first main track operated, family lines may be considered as a unit and subsidiary carriers as a part of the controlling carrier. A small carrier which has authorized its principal connecting carrier to file tariffs on its behalf may have its tariffs included in the complete public tariff file of such connecting carrier without such small carrier maintaining a separate complete public file.

(b) Each common carrier by motor vehicle shall post at its principal office a complete set of tariffs containing joint motor-rail, motor-water, and/or motor-rail-water fares which it issues or to which it is a party.

§ 148.104 Selection of posting places. When posting places in addition to the principal office are required, railroads will select posting places which, in their judgment, will best serve and promote the convenience of the public in using the tariffs. The places selected shall be cities directly served by the railroad. Each railroad will advise the Commission by letter of the posting places selected and of any changes thereafter made. The Commission may, after reasonable investigation and without formal hearing, designate posting places in addition to or in substitution of those selected by the carrier.

§ 148.105 Time of posting. Each tariff must be posted at least 30 days before its effective date, excepting those as to which the Commission has authorized a shorter period of notice to the public. Each carrier shall require the agent at every station or office at which tariffs are posted to write or stamp on each tariff the date on which it was posted.

§ 148.106 Tarif files to be accessible to the public. Each file of tariffs shall be in charge of an agent of the carrier. Each carrier shall require and instruct such agent to afford inquirers an opportunity to examine any of such tariffs without asking the inquirer to assign any reason therefor, and, upon request, to lend assistance to seekers of information therefrom with all promptness possible and consistent with proper performance of other duties.

§ 148.107 Notice required to be posted. Each carrier shall also cause to be displayed continuously in a conspicuous public place at each station or office at which tariffs are required to be posted, a notice printed in large type reading as follows:

With only such exceptions as have been authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission all tariffs which contain fares and charges applying from or at this station are on file at this office, together with an index of all of this company's passenger tariffs. The tariffs and index may be inspected by any person upon application and without the assignment of any reason for such inspection. The agent on duty in this office will lend any assistance desired in securing information therefrom.

If request is made for a tariff naming fares from this station, the posting of which has been discontinued because of nonuse, the agent will arrange to have it reposted within 20 days and thereafter keep it posted.

In addition a complete file of all of this company's tariffs, with indexes thereof, is maintained and kept available for public inspection at:

(Here indicate the place or places where complete tariff files are maintained, including the street address and, where appropriate, the room number).

§ 148.108 Check-up on files of tariffs. Each carrier shall place in effect a system of supervision that will insure the continued maintenance in proper and readily accessible form of tariff files required at each station and also at each office where complete files are maintained. Such stations and offices must be furnished at least once a year with a list of all of the tariffs which should be in their files. Upon receipt of the list the agent or employee in charge will immediately check the tariffs on hand against the list and report any deficiencies. Evidence of improper maintenance of files at any station or office may incur the prescription of detailed instructions to the carrier by the Commission necessary to insure compliance with these regulations.

SUBPART C—FREIGHT TARIFFS OF COMMON CARRIERS BY WATER

AUTHORITY: §§ 148.200 to 148.205 issued under sec. 304, 54 Stat. 933; 49 U. S. C. 904. Interpret or apply sec. 306, 54 Stat. 935; 49 U. S. C. 906.

NOTE: This subpart is applicable to the posting of freight tariffs constructed in conformity with Subpart A of Part 312 of this chapter covering the transportation of property by common carriers by water which was not subject to the jurisdiction of the U. S. Maritime Commission or the Interstate Commerce Commission prior to January 1, 1941.

CROSS REFERENCE: For posting regulations applicable to freight tariffs constructed in conformity with Part 141 of this chapter see Subpart A of this part.

§ 148.200 Posting of tariffs defined. The term "post" as used in this part means the maintenance of a file of tariffs in the custody of an agent of the carrier in a complete, accessible, and usable form, and keeping such file of tariffs available to the public upon request during ordinary business hours. The term "tariff" as used in this part includes tariff supplements or amendments.

§ 148.201 Carriers required to post tariffs. Each common carrier by water shall post at each loading port at which freight is received for transportation and at which an agent is employed all tariffs (including those filed for it by tariff-publishing agents) which contain rates applying from that port or other charges applicable at that port, together with all other tariffs needed to determine the application of such rates or charges.

§ 148.202 Location of complete public file of tariffs. Each common carrier by water shall post at its principal office a complete set of tariffs which it issues, also tariffs containing joint water rates to which it is a party.

§ 148.203 Time of posting. Each tariff must be posted at least 30 days before its effective date, excepting those as to which the Commission has authorized a shorter period of notice. Each carrier shall require the agent at every port or office at which tariffs are posted to write or stamp on each tariff the date on which it was posted.

§ 148.204 Tariff files to be accessible to the public. Each file of tariffs shall be in charge of an agent of the carrier. Each carrier shall require and instruct such agent to afford inquirers an opportunity to examine any of such tariffs without asking the inquirer to assign any reason therefor, and, upon request, to lend assistance to seekers of information therefrom with all promptness possible and consistent with proper performance of other duties.

§ 148.205 Check-up on files of tariffs. Each carrier shall place in effect a system of supervision that will insure the continued maintenance in proper and readily accessible form of tariff files required at each port and also at its principal office where a complete file is maintained. Evidence of improper maintenance of files at any port or office may incur the prescription of detailed instructions to the carrier by the Commission necessary to insure compliance with these regulations.

SUBPART D—PASSENGER TARIFFS OF COMMON CARRIERS BY WATER

AUTHORITY: §§ 148.300 to 148.305 issued under sec. 304, 54 Stat. 933; 49 U. S. C. 904. Interpret or apply sec. 306, 54 Stat. 935; 49 U. S. C. 906.

NOTE: This subpart is applicable to the posting of passenger tariffs constructed in conformity with Part 311 of this chapter covering the transportation of passengers by common carriers by water which was not subject to the jurisdiction of the U. S. Maritime Commission or the Interstate Commerce Commission prior to January 1, 1941.

CROSS REFERENCE: For posting regulations applicable to passenger tariffs constructed in conformity with Part 145 of this chapter see Subpart B of this part.

§ 148.300 Posting of tariffs defined. The term "post" as used in this part means the maintenance of a file of tariffs in the custody of an agent of the carrier in a complete, accessible, and usable form, and keeping such file of tariffs available to the public upon request during ordinary business hours. The term "tariff" as used in this part includes tariff supplements or amendments.

§ 148.301 Carriers required to post tariffs. Each common carrier by water shall post at each port from which passengers are received for transportation and at which an agent is employed all tariffs (including those filed for it by tariff-publishing agents) which contain fares applying from that port or other charges applicable at that port, together with all other tariffs needed to determine the application of such fares or charges.

§ 148.302 Location of complete public file of tariffs. Each common carrier by water shall post at its principal office a complete set of tariffs which it issues, also tariffs containing joint water fares to which it is a party.

§ 148.303 Time of posting. Each tariff must be posted at least 30 days before its effective date, excepting those as to which the Commission has authorized a shorter period of notice. Each carrier shall require the agent at every port or office at which tariffs are posted to write or stamp on each tariff the date on which it was posted.

§ 148.304 Tarif files to be accessible to the public. Each file of tariffs shall be in charge of an agent of the carrier. Each carrier shall require and instruct such agent to afford inquirers an opportunity to examine any of such tariffs without asking the inquirer to assign any reason therefor, and, upon request, to lend assistance to seekers of information therefrom with all promptness possible and consistent with proper performance of other duties.

§ 148.305 Check-up on files of tariffs. Each carrier shall place in effect a system of supervision that will insure the continued maintainance in proper and readily accessible form of tariff files required at each port and also at its principal office where a complete file is maintained. Evidence of improper maintenance of files at any port or office may incur the prescription of detailed instructions to the carrier by the Commission necessary to insure compliance with the regulations in this part.

It is further ordered, That Part 141 of this title, Freight Schedules, be amended by deleting the text of § 141.111 Posting of tariffs, and by changing the cross reference thereunder to read:

CROSS REFERENCE: For regulations governing the posting of freight tariffs of common carriers by rail, water, and pipe line, including tariffs containing joint motor-rail, motor-water, and/or motor-rail-water rates, see Subpart A of Part 148 of this chapter.

It is further ordered, That Part 145 of this title, Passenger Service Schedules, be amended by deleting the text of § 145.107 Posting of tariffs containing joint rail-motor fares, and by inserting at that point the following cross reference:

CROSS REFERENCE: For regulations governing the posting of passenger tariffs of common carriers by rail or water, including tariffs containing joint motor-rail, motorwater, and/or motor-rail-water fares, also passenger tariffs of sleeping car companies see Subpart B of Part 148 of this chapter.

It is further ordered, That Part 311 of this title, Passenger Tariffs of Common Carriers by Water, be amended by deleting the text of § 311.6 Posting regulations, and by inserting at that point the following cross reference:

CROSS REFERENCE: For regulations governing the posting of passenger tariffs of common carriers by water see Subpart D of Part 148 of this chapter.

It is further ordered, That Part 312 of this title, Freight Tariffs and Schedules, be amended by deleting the text of § 312.6 Posting regulations, and by inserting at that point the following cross reference:

CROSS REFERENCE: For regulations governing the posting of freight tariffs of common carriers by water see Subpart C of Part 148 of this chapter.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective on the 15th day of December A. D. 1954.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy hereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 2.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 984]

HANDLING OF WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

CONTROL PERCENTAGES

Notice is hereby given that the Department is considering the issuance of the administrative rule set forth herein pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 105 and Order No. 84, as amended, regulating the handling of walnuts grown in California, Oregon, and Washington (19 F. R. 4214), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Prior to the final issuance of such administrative rule, consideration will be given to data, views, or arguments, pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., and which are received not later than the close of business on September 29, 1954.

The Walnut Control Board, the administrative agency for the agreement and order, at a duly called meeting in Los Angeles on August 20, 1954, pursuant to provisions of the agreement and order, submitted estimates and its recommendation as to control percentages for the 1954–55 marketing year. Since the Board actions on August 20, the Crop Reporting Board has issued its report as of September 1, increasing its forecast of walnut production in 1954 from 154,400,000 pounds to 161,000,000 pounds, which indicates an increase in merchantable unshelled walnut production from 109,150,000 pounds to 113,827,000 pounds.

The Board's estimates in regard to control percentages for merchantable unshelled walnuts, modified, where appropriate, in accordance with the crop report of September 1, are as follows:

(1) Merchantable unshelled walnut production during the 1954–55 marketing year 113,827,000 pounds;

(2) Handler carryover of merchantable walnuts on August 1, 1954, 10,656,000 pounds of which 10,630,000 pounds were certified for handling during the 1953–54 marketing year;

(3) Trade demand during the 1954–55 marketing year for merchantable unshelled walnuts 75,000,000 pounds.

According to the estimates, the merchantable free quantity of unshelled walnuts which may be sold in normal domestic outlets in 1954–55, resulting from the application of the Board's recommended merchantable free percentage of 70 to the merchantable production plus the uncertified handler carryover, when added to the certified handler carryover on August 1, 1954, will provide a sufficient quantity to satisfy estimated trade demand and leave adequate handler carryover stocks on August 1, 1955.

On the basis of the Board's estimates and other available information, its recommendation as to merchantable free, merchantable restricted, and merchantable allocation percentages for unshelled walnuts, of 70, 30, and 43 respectively are herein proposed for adoption.

The Board also submitted estimates expressed in pounds of sound kernel weight, relating to the control of surplus, for the 1954–55 marketing year. Its recommended percentages relating to surplus control were as follows: Marketable percentage 90, surplus percentage 10, and diversion percentage 11.1.

It is believed that the Board's estimates of August 20 in respect to surplus control, in which the Department's August walnut production forecast was adopted should be modified in accordance with the September crop report. The Board's estimate of 23,000,000 pounds as the trade demand for domestic shelled walnuts for the 1954–55 marketing year is believed to be too low, chiefly because production of shelled pecans, a competitor of shelled walnuts in some important outlets, is expected to be far below that of 1953–54. The 1954–55 trade demand for domestic walnuts is estimated in the following computation at 24,000,000 pounds. Also, the carryover stocks of shelled walnuts on August 1, 1955, are herein estimated at 3,000,000 pounds instead of 1,820,000 pounds used in the Board's computations of August 20.

Following is a summary of the supply and demand situation in respect to control of surplus, with the above indicated modifications of the Board's estimates, which is the basis for the marketable percentage of 92, surplus percentage of 8 and diversion percentage of 8.7, included in the herein proposed rule:

	Shelled pounds
(1) Sound kernel weight represented by the merchantable unshelled free percentage of 70 applied to merchantable supply subject to regulation	33,472,782
(2) Total shelled walnuts subject to regulation, including 1,020,000 pounds unsold carryin by handlers, Aug. 1, 1954	28,790,790
(3) Total supply subject to regulation (item 1 + item 2)	62,263,572
(4) Estimated trade demand for domestic shelled walnuts	24,000,000
(5) Trade demand for shelled walnuts adjusted for 3,136,000 pounds sold carryin of handlers on Aug. 1, 1954, and estimated carryout Aug. 1, 1955 of 3,000,000 pounds (item 4 adjusted)	23,864,000
(6) Total adjusted demand (item 1 + item 5)	57,336,782
	Percent
(7) Marketable percentage (item 6 : item 3)	92
(8) Surplus percentage (100—item 7)	8
(9) Diversion percentage (item 8 : item 7)	8.7

Therefore, the proposed administrative rule is as follows:

§ 984.206 Control, merchantable allocation, and diversion percentages, for walnuts during the marketing year beginning August 1, 1954. During the marketing year beginning August 1, 1954, the following percentages shall be in effect: Merchantable free percentage, 70; merchantable restricted percentage, 30; merchantable allocation percentage, 43; marketable percentage, 92; surplus percentage, 8; and diversion percentage, 8.7.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of September 1954.

HANDLING OF DRIED PRUNES PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS TO HANDLERS TO COMPENSATE THEM FOR NECESSARY SERVICES IN CONNECTION WITH SURPLUS TONNAGE PRUNES

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the provisions of § 993.61 (f) of Marketing Agreement No. 110, as further amended, and Order No. 93, as further amended (19 F. R. 1301), regulating the handling of dried prunes produced in California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), the Secretary of Agriculture is considering a rule approving an amended schedule of payments, as hereinafter set forth, to compensate handlers for necessary services rendered by them in connection with surplus tonnage prunes, the said schedule having been proposed by the Prune Administrative Committee and submitted to the Secretary for his approval.

Prior to final approval by the Secretary of such schedule of payments, consideration will be given to any written data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed in triplicate with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., and received not later than the close of business on the tenth day after the date of the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except that if said tenth day after publication should fall on a holiday, Saturday, or Sunday, such submission must be received by the Director not later than the close of business on the next following business day.

The principal factor tending to support the proposed rule, which would increase the rates of payments to handlers for the aforesaid necessary services approximately 20 percent over the rates established by the Prune Administrative Committee on December 9, 1949 and approved March 30, 1950 by the then Secretary of Agriculture as § 993.201 (15 F. R. 1888), is that of increased labor costs of handlers since the schedule of payments now in effect was established. The schedule of payments set forth in the proposed rule, if approved by the Secretary, would be applicable to payments to handlers for necessary services with respect to surplus tonnage dried prunes received and stored by a handler for the account of the Prune Administrative Committee on or after August 1, 1954.

It is proposed to change the numbering of existing § 993.201 to § 993.401 and to amend said section to read as follows:

§ 993.401 Schedule of payments to handlers for necessary services rendered by them in connection with surplus tonnage prunes. (a) Surplus tonnage prunes which producers and dehydrators tender to a handler shall be held by him in proper storage until the committee shall have relieved him of the obligation of such holding.

(b) For standard prunes of the surplus tonnage, the handler so holding such prunes, who performs the necessary services thereon for the committee, shall be reimbursed, except as provided in paragraphs (c) and (e) of this section, at the rate of $18.00 per ton for the following service costs:

(1) Acquisition costs, including, but not limited to, those for salaries, commissions or brokerage fees, transportation and handling between plants and receiving stations, and other costs, including container expense incidental to acquisition or storage;

(2) Direct labor costs, including, but not limited to, those for receiving, grading, preliminary sorting and storing, including that performed by the handler at receiving station, and loading for shipment; and

(3) Plant overhead costs, including but not limited to, superintendence and indirect labor, payroll taxes and compensation insurance, fuel, power and water, taxes and insurance on facilities, depreciation and rent, repairs and maintenance, and factory supplies and expense.

(c) A handler may, at any time, demand removal by the committee of surplus tonnage held by him. With respect to surplus tonnage prunes of any crop year, if the handler demands removal of standard prunes of such surplus tonnage prior to December 1 of the crop year, such handler automatically waives payment for any and all charges as set forth in this section. If such demand is made during December or January of the crop year, the handler making such demand shall receive payment for 50 percent of the total charges as set forth in this section. If a handler demands removal by the committee of such surplus during February of the crop year, he shall receive payment for 60 percent of such total charges; if during March of the crop year, 70 percent; if during April of the crop year, 80 percent; if during May of the crop year, 90 percent; and if during any month thereafter, 100 percent of such total charges.

(d) For substandard prunes of the surplus tonnage which a handler holds for the account of the committee, such handler shall receive payment for services performed, including, but not limited to, transportation from receiving points, in and out charges, and the placing of prunes in containers furnished by the committee, at the rate of $10.00 per ton for each ton so held, except that on any tonnage of such substandard prunes of which the handler demands removal by the committee prior to December 1 of the crop year, any and all payments due thereon shall automatically be waived by such handler.

(e) Each handler holding surplus tonnage for the account of the committee shall maintain proper insurance thereon, including fire and extended coverage, in valuations according to grade and size differentials as the committee shall establish and such handler shall be reimbursed for the actual cost of such insurance.

Issued this 15th day of September 1954.

1955 CROP OF EXTRA LONG STAPLE COTTON

NOTICE OF DETERMINATIONS TO BE MADE WITH RESPECT TO A NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA, NATIONAL, STATE, AND COUNTY ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS, AND FORMULATION OF REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO FARM ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS FOR THE 1955 CROP OF EXTRA LONG STAPLE COTTON

Pursuant to the authority contained in applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1301–1376), the Secretary of Agriculture is preparing to determine whether a national marketing quota is required to be proclaimed for the 1955 crop of extra long staple cotton, to provide for conversion of such quota into a national acreage allotment in accordance with section 344 (a) of the act, and to formulate regulations for apportioning the national acreage allotment to States and the State acreage allotments to counties, and for establishing farm acreage allotments. Pertinent parts of the provisions of the act which are applicable to these determinations and formulations are as follows:

SEC. 347. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the provisions of this part shall not apply to extra long staple cotton which is produced from pure strain varieties of the Barbadense species, or any hybrid thereof, or other similar types of extra long staple cotton designated by the Secretary having characteristics needed for various end uses for which American upland cotton is not suitable, and grown in irrigated cotton-growing regions of the United States designated by the Secretary or other areas designated by the Secretary as suitable for the production of such varieties or types.

(b) Whenever during any calendar year, not later than October 15, the Secretary determines that the total supply of cotton described in subsection (a) for the marketing year beginning in such calendar year will exceed the normal supply thereof for such marketing year by more than 8 per centum, the Secretary shall proclaim such fact and a national marketing quota shall be in effect for the crop of such cotton produced in the next calendar year. The Secretary shall also determine and specify in such proclamation the amount of the national marketing quota in terms of the quantity of cotton described in subsection (a) adequate to make available a normal supply of such cotton, taking into account (1) the estimated carry-over at the beginning of the marketing year which begins in the next calendar year, and (2) the estimated imports during such marketing year. The national marketing quota for cotton described in subsection (a) for any year shall not be less than the larger of 30,000 bales or a number of bales equal to 30 per centum of the estimated domestic consumption plus exports of such cotton for the marketing year beginning in the calendar year in which such quota is proclaimed.

(c) All provisions of this Act, except section 342, subsections (h), (k), and (l) of section 344, the parenthetical provisions relating to acreages regarded as having been planted to cotton, and the provisions relating to minimum small farm allotments, shall, insofar as applicable, apply to marketing quotas and acreage allotments authorized by this section • • •

SEC. 301 (b) (16) (C) "Total supply" of cotton for any marketing year shall be the carry-over at the beginning of such marketing year, plus the estimated production of cotton in the United States during the calendar year in which such marketing year begins and the estimated imports of cotton into the United States during such marketing year.

(3) (B) "Carry-over" of cotton for any marketing year shall be the quantity of cotton on hand in the United States at the beginning of such marketing year, not including any part of the crop which was produced in the United States during the calendar year then current.

(10) (C) The "normal supply" of cotton for any marketing year shall be the estimated domestic consumption of cotton for the marketing year for which such normal supply is being determined, plus the estimated exports of cotton for such marketing year, plus 30 per centum of the sum of such consumption and exports as an allowance for carry-over.

For purposes of the supply determinations required to be made under section 347 (b) of the act, (1) the term "extra long staple cotton" refers to all American Egyptian, Sea Island (in both the continental United States and Puerto Rico), and Sealand cotton, and to all similar type cotton imported from Egypt, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, and Peru and (2) the term "carry-over" does not include the stocks of extra long staple cotton acquired pursuant to, or under the authority of, the Strategic and Critical Materials Stockpiling Act.

In the event the Secretary determines that a national marketing quota for the 1955 crop of extra long staple cotton is required to be proclaimed pursuant to section 347 (b) of the act, such quota will be converted into a national acreage allotment in accordance with section 344 (a) of the act, which reads in pertinent part as follows:

> Whenever a national marketing quota is proclaimed • • • the Secretary shall determine and proclaim a national acreage allotment for the crop of cotton to be produced in the next calendar year. The national acreage allotment for cotton shall be that acreage, based upon the national average yield per acre of cotton for the 5 years immediately preceding the calendar year in which the national marketing quota is proclaimed, required to make available from such crop an amount of cotton equal to the national marketing quota.

If a national acreage allotment is proclaimed for the 1955 crop of extra long staple cotton, such allotment would be apportioned to the States as provided by section 344 (b) of the act and Public Law 28, 81st Congress (63 Stat. 17), on the basis of the acreage planted to extra long staple cotton during the five calendar years 1948, 1950, 1951, 1952, and 1953, with adjustments for abnormal weather conditions during such period.

It is expected that the regulations pertaining to the apportionment of the State acreage allotment among counties and the county acreage allotment among farms will be substantially the same as the regulations issued with respect to the 1954 crop of extra long staple cotton, including amendments (18 F. R. 7883, 8109; 19 F. R. 1137, 1561). Public Law 290, 83d Congress, approved January 30, 1954, amended the act to provide for making adjustments, beginning with the 1955 crop, in farm acreage allotments to correct inequities and to prevent hardship. This is one of the purposes provided by law for using State and county acreage reserves. Farm acreage allotments for the 1954 crop of extra long staple cotton were determined under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, by multiplying the adjusted cropland for the farm by a uniform county (or administrative area) cropland factor. Section 344 (f) of the act, as amended by Public Law 290 and by Public Law 690, 83d Congress, approved August 28, 1954, provides, beginning with the 1955 crop of cotton, for apportioning the county acreage allotment, less the county acreage reserve, among farms on which extra long staple cotton has been planted in any one of the three years immediately preceding the year for which such allotment is determined on the basis of the acreage planted to cotton on the farm during such three-year period, if the county committee recommends such action and the Secretary determines that such action will result in a more equitable distribution of the county acreage allotment among farms in the county. It is expected that all county committees will carefully consider the authorization in the law to apportion the county acreage allotment, less the county acreage reserve, among farms on the basis of cotton acreage history during the three preceding years rather than on the basis of cropland, as described above. Under Public Law 690, county committees will have wider latitude in establishing farm cotton acreage allotments on a history basis under section 344 (f) (6) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, in that they may in their discretion limit any farm acreage allotment established on the basis of cotton acreage history during the three preceding years to an acreage not in excess of 50 percent of the cropland on the farm.

It is expected that the Secretary's authority to approve or disapprove recommendations of county committees regarding apportionment of the county acreage allotment among farms on the basis of cotton acreage history will be redelegated to the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service, and that the Deputy Administrator will issue such instructions as may be necessary for carrying out this new provision of law. In this connection, it appears that it will be necessary for the Deputy Administrator to set a closing date for such recommendations to be filed in order that the many computations and determinations incident to the establishment of farm acreage allotments may be completed and allotment notices issued to farm operators prior to the referendum which is required by the Act to be held not later than December 15, 1954.

It is proposed to change the provisions which were contained in the 1954 regulations regarding the reconstitution of farms. Under one proposal being considered, where reconstitution of farms are made for 1955 after farm acreage allotments for 1955 are established prior to the referendum, the allotments for the reconstituted farms would be determined on the basis of the revised data, provided notice of the change in land in the farm is received in the county ASC office by a closing date which will be a date prior to the general date for preparing land for cotton production. In cases where the county ASC office is not advised of the change in land in the farm by the closing date, the same procedure would be followed in establishing the farm acreage allotments for the reconstituted farms, except that (1) in the case of subdivisions the allotments for the several tracts could not exceed the allotment previously established for the parent farm, and (2) in the case of a combination (a) the allotment for the reconstituted farm could not exceed the sum of the allotments for the several tracts comprising the reconstituted farm, and (b) the allotment for the reconstituted farm would be subject to the maximum farm allotment provision if it is applicable in the county. Under another proposal being considered, where reconstitutions of farms are made for 1955 after farm acreage allotments for 1955 are established prior to the referendum, the allotments for all reconstituted farms would be established as follows: (1) In the case of subdivisions the allotments for the several tracts could not exceed the allotment previously established for the parent farm, and (2) in the case of a combination (a) the allotment for the reconstituted farm could not exceed the sum of the allotments for the several tracts comprising the reconstituted farm, and (b) the allotment for the reconstituted farm would be subject to the maximum farm allotment provision if it is applicable in the county.

It is the Secretary's intention to delay the determinations provided for in section 347 of the act until the October 8, 1954, cotton report of the Crop Reporting Board of the Department is issued in order that the latest available data may be used. In the meantime, it is expected that the regulations discussed above will be issued subject to the condition that they shall become ineffective for purposes of the marketing quota program in the event a national marketing quota for the 1955 crop of extra long staple cotton is not proclaimed by October 15, 1954.

Prior to making any of the foregoing determinations with respect to the national marketing quota, the national acreage allotment, the apportionment of the national acreage allotment to States and the State acreage allotments to counties, and the formulation of regulations for the establishment of farm acreage allotments for the 1955 crop of extra long staple cotton, consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. within fifteen days following the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The date of the postmark will be considered as the date of any submission.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 16th day of September 1954.

SUGAR AND LIQUID SUGAR PRODUCED FROM SUGAR BEETS AND SUGARCANE GROWN IN CONTINENTAL U. S.

REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO MARKETING

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to authority vested in him by the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922 as amended by 65 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1100), is considering the revision of Sugar Regulations 815, 816 and 819 as hereinafter proposed as those regulations relate to mainland sugar (sugar and liquid sugar produced from sugar beets and sugarcane grown in the continental United States).

The purposes of the revision are: (1) To revise the requirements relating to the marketing of mainland sugar, and (2) to clarify and restate in one regulation (Sugar Regulation 815) all of the requirements relating to the marketing of such mainland sugar, including that which is exempt from the quota provisions of the act.

Proposed changes. This proposed revision combines and restates pertinent provisions of the existing Sugar Regulations 815, 816 and 819 into Sugar Regulation 815. Those provisions of Sugar Regulations 816 and 819 applicable to sugar or liquid sugar from offshore areas would continue in effect with respect thereto until revised.

Under the proposed revision a section is added to clarify the relationship of "marketing" to the prohibitions set forth in subsections (b) and (d) of section 209 of the Sugar Act. Another section is added to formally establish the necessary reporting requirements. The provisions for furnishing bonds to cover certain transactions are simplified to permit the use of either term-bonds under which several obligations may be authorized as occasion demands or separate bonds for individual marketings.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed regulation shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All submissions must be postmarked not later than 15 days from the date of the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Basis and purpose. The regulations in §§ 815.1 through 815.8 issued pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, govern the handling of sugar or liquid sugar produced from domestic sugar beets and mainland sugarcane under the prohibitions set forth in subsections (b) and (d) of section 209 of that act. They also provide the method for exempting sugar produced from such beets or sugarcane from quotas when marketed pursuant to-item (4) of section 212 of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended.

These regulations apply to processors and refiners with respect to all sugar and liquid sugar they produce or refine from domestic sugar beets and mainland sugarcane. They also apply to any person who acquires such sugar or liquid sugar for the distillation of alcohol or for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed.

The proposed Sugar Regulation 815 is as follows:

Sec.
815.1 Definitions.
815.2 When marketings occur.
815.3 Effect of marketings on quotas and allotments.
815.4 Restrictions on marketing without specific authorizations.
815.5 Requirement for bonds.
815.6 Provisions of bond.
815.7 Records and reports.
815.8 Delegation of authority.

AUTHORITY: §§ 815.1 to 815.9 issued under sec. 403, 61 Stat. 932; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1153. Interpret or apply secs. 205, 209, 212; 61 Stat. 926, 928, 929; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1116, 1119, 1122.

§ 815.1 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) The term "act" means the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922; 65 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C., Sup. 1100).

(b) The term "person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, estate, trust or other business enterprise or legal entity, and, wherever applicable, a State, political subdivision of a State, the Federal government, or any agency thereof.

(c) The term "mainland sugar" means sugar or liquid sugar, as defined in section 101 of the act, processed from sugar beets grown in the domestic beet sugar area, from sugarcane grown in the mainland cane sugar area.

(d) The term "processor" means any person who manufactures "mainland sugar" as defined in this part or any person for whose account mainland sugar is manufactured by another person.

(e) The term "refiner" means any person who acquires mainland raw or liquid sugar from a processor for refining or otherwise improving the quality of such mainland sugar. (The same person may be both a "processor" and a "refiner").

(f) The term "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(g) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of any officer or employee of the Department to whom the Secretary has delegated authority in this part to act in his stead.

(h) The term "quota" means any calendar year quota established in Part 811 of this chapter for the domestic beet sugar area or the mainland cane sugar area.

(i) The term "allotment" means the portion of a quota established for a processor in Part 814 of this chapter.

§ 815.2 When marketings occur. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section mainland sugar shall be deemed to be marketed whenever pursuant to a contract of sale one of the following actions first occurs:

(1) The processor physically delivers mainland sugar to a buyer.

(2) The processor physically delivers mainland sugar to a carrier for shipment to a buyer.

(3) The processor endorses and delivers to a buyer a negotiable warehouse receipt or an order bill of lading covering mainland sugar.

(4) A public warehouseman issues and delivers to a buyer at the processor's request a warehouse receipt (negotiable or non-negotiable) or a warehouse delivery advice covering mainland sugar.

(5) The processor transfers and delivers to a buyer a non-negotiable warehouse receipt covering mainland sugar, and the warehouseman acknowledges to such buyer that he is holding such sugar for the account of such buyer.

(6) The processor and the buyer prior to December 31 of any year certify to the Secretary on a form prescribed by him that a specified quantity of mainland sugar in possession of the processor at the close of business on December 31 will be physically delivered to the buyer on or before February 28 of the following year and physical delivery is made on or before February 28.

(b) Mainland sugar used by the processor or caused to be used in activities under his control for food or feed or for the production or manufacture of food or feed or other articles of commerce shall be deemed to be marketed at the time that such use occurs.

(c) Mainland sugar principally not of crystalline structure (such as beet molasses) sold to a processor who is a refiner, and used for the production of sugar principally of crystalline structure or liquid sugar as defined in section 101 of the act, shall be deemed to be marketed when the crystalline sugar or liquid sugar so produced is first subject to one of the actions described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

§ 815.3 Effect of marketings on quotas and allotments. Each marketing, as described in § 815.2, of mainland sugar shall be effective for the purpose of filling the applicable quota and allotment at the time it occurs except as follows:

(a) A marketing of mainland sugar under a bond accepted pursuant to § 815.5 for further processing, refining and storage shall be effective for the purpose of filling the applicable quota and allotment upon the release of the bond or at the time the Secretary determines that a breach of a condition of the bond has occurred.

(b) A marketing of mainland sugar under a bond accepted pursuant to § 815.5 for the distillation of alcohol, or for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed, shall be effective for the purpose of filling the applicable quota and allotment at the time the Secretary determines that a breach of a condition of the bond has occurred.

§ 815.4 Restrictions on marketing. The quantity of mainland sugar marketed by a processor and effective during any calendar year for the purpose of filling his allotment as provided in § 815.3 shall not exceed the quantity determined in Part 814 of this chapter to be the allotment of such processor for that year. In the absence of allotments, when the Secretary determines and gives public notice that prior authorizations are required to prevent the quota determined in Part 811 of this chapter from being exceeded, a processor shall not market mainland sugar until authorized by the Secretary in writing.

§ 815.5 Requirement for bonds. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 815.3 shall not apply to marketing of mainland sugar unless the processor first makes application to and receives the approval of the Secretary on a form prescribed by the Secretary, and unless the person to whom such sugar is delivered furnishes a bond satisfactory to the Secretary in the amount and subject to the conditions and provisions as provided in § 815.6.

§ 815.6 Provisions of bond—(a) Principal and surety. Only a refiner may be the principal on a bond for the purpose of further processing or refining and storage of mainland sugar. Any person having an interest in mainland sugar to be used for distillation of alcohol, for livestock feed, or for the production of livestock feed may be the principal on a bond for such purposes. The surety or sureties shall be among those listed by the Secretary of the Treasury as acceptable on Federal bonds.

(b) Amount. The amount of the bond shall not be less than the sum of the obligations with respect to all marketings of sugar covered at any one time thereunder. The amount of the obligation with respect to each marketing of sugar covered under a bond furnished under this part shall be the daily "spot" price (Cuban in bond equivalent) per pound of raw sugar for consumption in the continental United States determined by the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange on the last business day before the date of request to the Secretary for approval of the bond, multiplied by the weight in pounds of the sugar comprising each marketing. The amount of the bond with respect to liquid sugar shall be computed upon the basis of the same price per pound, ascertained as heretofore stated in this paragraph, multiplied by the pounds of the "total sugar content," as defined in the act, of the sugar comprising each marketing.

(c) Conditions. Any bond furnished pursuant to this part shall provide for payment to the United States of the amount of the obligation under the bond upon default in whole or in part in any of the following conditions:

(1) That mainland sugar marketed as provided in § 815.3 (a) for refining and storage shall thereafter be held by the refiner until release thereof within the applicable quota or allotment is authorized by the Secretary, or that mainland sugar marketed as provided in § 815.3 (b) for the distillation of alcohol or for livestock feed, or for the production of livestock feed shall be used for such purpose within six months after the date of such marketing or within such extension of time thereafter as the Secretary shall specify.

(2) That the United States shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred by the Department for the supervision and control of the sugar covered under the bond until release of the bond by the Secretary.

(d) Duration of bond. Any obligation under a bond furnished pursuant to this part shall provide that it will remain in full force and effect until the Secretary shall notify the principal and surety of the release thereof.

§ 815.7 Records and reports. (a) Each person subject to the provisions of this part shall keep and preserve, for a period of five years following the end of the calendar year in which the mainland sugar is marketed, an accurate record of all marketings of mainland sugar together with all documents which give evidence of the production, conversion, use, marketing, movement, storage and losses of such sugar or liquid sugar. Upon request by any authorized employee of the Department, such records shall be made freely available for examination by such employee during regular working hours of any business day.

(b) Each person subject to the provisions of this part shall make application for authorizations provided for in this part and shall report information as and when required by the Secretary on forms specified by him and approved by the Bureau of the Budget under the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 815.8 Delegation of authority. The Director or Deputy Director of the Sugar Division, or the Chief of the Quota and Allotment Branch thereof, Commodity Stabilization Service of the Department, is authorized to act for and on behalf of the Secretary in administering this part.

Rescission of prior regulations. The regulations in this part as herein revised shall supersede prior Sugar Regulation 815 (13 F. R. 1076, 14 F. R. 466) and Sugar Regulations 816 (14 F. R. 2163) and 819 (13 F. R. 2063, 14 F. R. 466) insofar as Sugar Regulations 816 and 819 apply to mainland sugar as herein defined.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of September 1954.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Wage and Hour Division

[29 CFR Parts 701, 711, 712, 713]

[Administrative Order No. 440]

SPECIAL INDUSTRY COMMITTEES NOS. 16–A, 16–B AND 16–C FOR PUERTO RICO

APPOINTMENTS TO INVESTIGATE CONDITIONS AND RECOMMEND MINIMUM WAGES FOR CERTAIN INDUSTRIES

1. Pursuant to authority under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 1060, as amended 29 U. S. C., and Sup. 201 et seq.) I, Wm. R. McComb, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, do hereby appoint and convene Special Industry Committees Nos. 16–A, 16–B and 16–C for Puerto Rico.

Special Industry Committee No. 16–A appointed to investigate conditions in and recommend minimum wages for the Electrical, Instrument, and Related Manufacturing Industries in Puerto Rico, is composed of the following representatives:

For the public: Candido Oliveras, Santurce, P. R., chairman; Martin P. Catherwood, Ithaca, N. Y.; Ramon Cancio, Santurce, P. R.

For the employees: James B. Carey, Washington, D. C.; Albert Epstein, Washington, D. C.; David Sternback, San Juan, P. R.

For the employers: Ira B. Stiefel, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Adrian P. Higgs, Roosevelt, P. R.; Gerald F. Weis, Dayton, Ohio.

Special Industry Committee No. 16–B, appointed to investigate conditions in and recommend minimum wages for the Metal, Machinery, Transportation Equipment, and Allied Industries in Puerto Rico, is composed of the following representatives:

For the public: Candido Oliveras, Santurce, P. R., chairman; Martin Catherwood, Ithaca, N. Y.; Ramon Cancio, Santurce, P. R.

For the employees: James B. Carey, Washington, D. C.; Albert Epstein, Washington, D. C.; David Sternback, San Juan, P. R.

For the employers: Ira B. Stiefel, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Adrian P. Higgs, Roosevelt, P. R.; Jose F. Abarca, San Juan, P. R.

Special Industry Committee No. 16–C, appointed to investigate conditions in and recommend minimum wages for the Plastic Products Industry in Puerto Rico, is composed of the following representatives:

For the public: Candido Oliveras, Santurce, P. R., chairman; Martin P. Catherwood, Ithaca, N. Y.; Ramon Cancio, Santurce, P. R.

For the employees: James B. Carey, Washington, D. C.; Albert Epstein, Washington, D. C.; Miguel Garriga, Santurce, P. R.

For the employers: Ira B. Stiefel, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Lester O. Hardman, Rio Piedras, P. R.; Samuel Seltzer, Rio Piedras, P. R.

2. Special Industry Committees Nos. 16–A, 16–B and 16–C are herein created in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder (Title 29, Chapter V, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 511). Special Industry Committee No. 16–A shall meet beginning on October 19, 1954 at 10:00 a. m. in Room 412, New York Department Store Building, Stop 16½, Ponce de Leon Avenue, Santurce, Puerto Rico, to investigate conditions in the Electrical, Instrument, and Related Manufacturing Industries in Puerto Rico. Immediately thereafter, Special Industry Committee No. 16–B shall meet to investigate conditions in the Metal, Machinery, Transportation Equipment, and Allied Industries in Puerto Rico, and immediately thereafter, Special Industry Committee No. 16–C shall investigate conditions in the Plastics Products Industry in Puerto Rico. Upon the completion of their investigations, each Industry Committee shall recommend to the Administrator a minimum wage rate or rates for employees in the Industry in Puerto Rico who, within the meaning of the said act, are "engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce" excepting employees exempt by virtue of the provisions of section 13 (a) and employees coming within the provisions of section 14. Minimum wage rates recommended by each Committee shall be the highest rates (not in excess of 75 cents per hour) which it determines will not substantially curtail employment in such industries and will not give any industry in Puerto Rico a competitive advantage over any industry in the United States outside of Puerto Rico.

3. For the purpose of the order these industries are defined as follows:

Electrical, instrument, and related manufacturing industries. The manufacture, assembly, or repair of machinery, apparatus, equipment and supplies for the generation, storage, transmission, transformation or utilization of electrical energy; and the manufacture, assembly, or repair of instruments, apparatus, and equipment for scientific, professional, industrial-measurement, photographic, musical or horological purposes: Provided, however, That the definition shall not include (i) industrial and commercial machinery powered by electric motors, (ii) measuring-and-dispensing pumps, or (iii) any activity included in the Clay and Clay Products Industry, the Jewel Cutting and Polishing Industry, or the Stone, Glass, and Related Products Industry, as defined in the wage orders for those industries in Puerto Rico.

Metal, machinery, transportation equipment, and allied industries. The mining or other extraction of metal ore and the further processing of such ore into metal; the manufacture (including repair) of any product or part made wholly or chiefly of metal; and the manufacture from any material of machinery, tools, transportation equipment, and ordnance: Provided, however, That the definition shall not include (1) the production of any basic material other than metal; (2) the further processing of any basic material other than metal except when done by an establishment producing from such materials a product of these industries or subassembly of such product; (3) the building and repairing (including painting) of ocean-going ships when performed in dry docks or shipyards; (4) any activity included within the Button, Buckle, and Jewelry Industry or the Shoe Manufacturing and Allied Industries as defined in the wage orders for those industries; (5) or any activity included within the Electrical, Instrument, and Related Manufacturing Industries as defined in the Administrative Order No. 440 appointing Special Industry Committees Nos. 16–A, 16–B, and 16–C for Puerto Rico. This definition supersedes the definition of the Decorations and Party Favors Industry with respect to the manufacture of articles other than those made from metallic chenille, foil, or tinsel.

Plastic products industry. The manufacture of molded or other fabricated plastic products. Provided, however, That the definition shall not include (1) the manufacture of primary plastic materials such as sheets, rods, tubes, granules, powders, or liquids, (2) the sawing, cutting, grinding, polishing, and other processing of synthetic jewels for industrial use, (3) the manufacture of buttons, buckles, and jewelry (including rosaries), and jewelry findings (including beads), (4) the manufacture from pliable plastics in sheet or film form of ornaments and decorations for Christmas and other holidays, party favors and souvenirs, and similar items primarily ornamental or decorative in character; (5) or any activity included in the Leather, Leather Goods, and Related Products Industry; the Paper, Paper Products, Printing, Publishing and Related Industries; the Shoe Manufacturing and Allied Industries; or the Textile and Textile Products Industry, as defined in the wage orders for these industries in Puerto Rico; or in the Needlework and Fabricated Textile Products Industry, the Men's and Boys' Clothing and Related Products Industry or the Corsets, Brassieres, and Allied Garments Industry, as defined in Administrative Order No. 433 appointing Special Industry Committee No. 15 for Puerto Rico. This definition supersedes the definition for the Decorations and Party Favors Industry with respect to the manufacture of plastic articles other than those made from pliable sheet or film.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of September 1954.

WM. R. McCOMB,
Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Parts 230, 240]

RULES UNDER SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 AND SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

Notice is hereby given that the Commission has under consideration proposed amendments to its rules and forms under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

On August 10, 1954, President Eisenhower signed Public Law 577, effective October 10, 1954. Public Law 577 reflects the first major changes in the Federal securities acts in over a decade. The most important change involves section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933. Other amendments to that statute and to the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 and the Investment Company Act of 1940 were enacted as necessary to accommodate the provisions of those acts to the amendment of section 5.

The amendment of section 5 and the related changes have to do principally with the mechanics of distribution of securities. The act, before the amendment takes effect, makes unlawful the offer or sale of a security to the public by mail or instrumentality of interstate commerce prior to the effectiveness of a registration statement in respect of the security. It has been contended for many years that the free flow of information concerning a new issue during the period between the filing and effectiveness of a registration statement has been limited because of the fear on the part of underwriters and dealers that communication with prospective customers might be construed to be illegal "offers" of a security. Despite administrative steps taken in the past by the Commission to encourage issuers and underwriters to disseminate the information contained in the registration statement during the waiting period, this objective was not fully achieved.

Public Law 577 will permit the making of written offers to sell and solicitations of offers to buy during the waiting period by means of a preliminary prospectus filed with the Commission prior to its use. In other respects it will expand the authority of the Commission to permit the use of written material in addition to the full prospectus in connection with the offering of securities for sale. The amendment, however, will continue to prohibit the sale of securities or the making of contracts to sell or contracts of sale prior to the effective date of the registration statement.

There are set forth below proposed amendments to the rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which are designed primarily to conform existing rules to the changes in those statutes made by the enactment of Public Law 577 and to permit a smooth administrative transition to the amended statutes. It is deemed necessary promptly to release the proposals indicated below in order that the Commission may have the benefit of the comments and views of interested persons in sufficient time to permit adoption of appropriate rules by October 10, 1954, the effective date of the amendments to the statutes.

The amendments noted below do not relate to the use of such summary prospectuses as may be permitted under section 10 (b), or expanded advertisements under section 2 (10) (b), of the amended statute. The nature and form of such advertisements, communications and summary prospectuses are presently under consideration by the Commission and it is expected that proposals for the adoption of appropriate rules may be published for comment within the near future.

The other principal amendments to the statutes effected by Public Law 577 are summarized below:

The Securities Act of 1933 requires that a dealer must deliver a prospectus in the initial distribution of a security, regardless of the duration of such distribution. It further requires the delivery of a prospectus by every dealer in trading transactions in the registered securities for 1 year after commencement of the offering. This latter provision is amended by Public Law 577 to reduce the 1-year period to 40 days after the effective date or 40 days after the commencement of the public offering, whichever expires last. For certain types of investment companies which continuously offer securities the Investment Company Act of 1940 is amended to provide for mandatory use of prospectuses in trading transactions over a longer period.

Prospectuses which are used more than 13 months after the effective date of the registration statement under the Securities Act now must contain information as of a date within 12 months of its use. To simplify these requirements and in many cases to require more recent information, the act is amended to provide that where a prospectus is used more than 9 months after the effective date, the information contained therein shall be as of a date within 16 months of such use.

The prohibition contained in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against extending credit to purchasers of a new issue by dealers for 6 months after the offering period is considered unnecessarily long. The amendment reduces the 6 months' period to 30 days.

The Trust Indenture Act of 1939 requires inclusion in a prospectus of a summary of certain specified indenture provisions. Since the Commission can deal with disclosure problems through its rule making power, and since the substantive provisions required to be included in indentures qualified under the act would not be changed, this requirement was eliminated as unnecessary.

Instead of, in effect, requiring investment companies, which engage in continuous offerings of their shares, to file new registration statements under the Securities Act each year, an amendment to the Investment Company Act of 1940 will permit such companies to increase the number of their registered shares by amending their registration statements.

The text of the proposed action follows:

I. Rule 120 would be revised to delete the obsolete reference to registration statements filed in San Francisco as follows:

§ 230.120 Inspection of registration statements. Except for material contracts or portions thereof accorded confidential treatment pursuant to § 230.485, all registration statements are available for public inspection, during business hours, at the principal office of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

II. Section 230.131 (Rule 131), which provides for the use of the so-called "red herring" prospectus would be rescinded. The rule would be replaced by Rule 433 (§ 230.433) providing for the use of a "Preliminary Prospectus" meeting the requirements of section 10. Pending further study, Rule 132 (§ 230.132) would not be rescinded at this time. However, the Commission would not require as a condition of acceleration of the effective date of a registration statement distribution of copies of the identifying statement provided for by Rules 132 and 414 (§§ 230.132 and 230.414) to each underwriter and dealer who may be invited to participate in the distribution of the security.

III. Section 230.153 (a): The clause immediately preceding subparagraph (1) of this rule would be amended as follows:

§ 230.153 Definition of "preceded by a prospectus", as used in section 5 (b) (2), in relation to certain transactions. (a) • • • Provided, That as to any transaction occurring prior to the expiration of forty days after the effective date of the registration statement or the expiration of forty days after the first date upon which the security was bona fide offered to the public by the issuer or by or through an underwriter after such effective date, whichever is later (exclusive of the time during which a stop order issued under section 8 is in effect as to such security):

• • • • •

IV. Section 230.162 (Rule 162) would be replaced by a new Rule 432 as follows:

§ 230.432 Application of amendments to rules governing contents of prospectuses. (a) The form and contents of any prospectus need conform only to the applicable rules in effect, and contain the information including financial statements specified therein, at the time the registration statement, or the latest amendment thereto pursuant to section 24 (e) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as amended, became effective, whichever is later, notwithstanding subsequent amendments to such rules, except as otherwise provided in any such amendment or in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) When a stop order entered under section 8 (d) ceases to be effective as to a registration statement, the form and contents of any prospectus used thereafter for securities covered by such statement shall conform to the applicable rules in effect at the date such stop order ceases to be effective.

V. Section 230.400 (Rule 400) would be amended by adding a second sentence as follows:

§ 230.400 Application of §§ 230.400 to 230.493. • • • For purposes of §§ 230.400 to 230.493, the term "registration statement" shall include any amendment filed pursuant to the provisions of section 24 (e) (1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

VI. Section 230.405 (Rule 405) would be amended by adding a new definition:

§ 230.405 Definitions of terms. • • •

(q–1) Prospectus. Unless otherwise specified or the context otherwise requires the term "prospectus" means a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 (a) of the act.

VII. Section 230.411: Paragraph (b) of this rule would be amended as follows:

§ 230.411 Incorporation of certain information by reference. • • •

(b) Any financial statement or part thereof filed with the Commission pursuant to any act administered by the Commission may be incorporated by reference to any registration statement if it substantially conforms to the requirements of the appropriate form and is not required to be included in the prospectus. However, a financial schedule incorporated by reference to an annual report filed with the Commission pursuant to any act administered by it need not be certified, if such schedule was not required to be certified in connection with the filing of the annual report, any requirement of any registration form to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Section 230.413 would be amended as follows:

§ 230.413 Registration of additional securities. Except as provided in section 24 (e) (1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, the registration of additional securities of the same class as other securities for which a registration statement is already in effect shall be effected through a separate registration statement relating to the additional securities.

IX. Section 230.414 would be amended by adding a second sentence as follows:

§ 230.414 Identifying statements. • • • Notwithstanding the foregoing, a registration statement filed pursuant to § 230.415 and a registration statement, or amendment pursuant to section 24 (e) (1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, relating to the registration of additional securities issued by a face amount certificate company or to additional redeemable securities issued by an open-end management company or unit investment trust may, but need not, include such exhibit.

X. Section 230.415:

1. Paragraph (a) of the rule would be amended as follows:

§ 230.415 Competitive bidding registration statements. (a) A registration statement covering securities to be offered at competitive bidding shall contain undertakings by the registrant (1) to file an amendment to the registration statement reflecting the results of the bidding, the terms of the reoffering and related matters to the extent required by the applicable form, not later than the first use, authorized by the registrant after the opening of the bids, of a prospectus relating to the securities offered at competitive bidding, unless no further public offering of such securities by the registrant and no reoffering thereof by the purchasers is proposed to be made, and (2) to use its best efforts to distribute prior to the opening of bids, to prospective bidders, underwriters and dealers a reasonable number of copies of a prospectus which at that time meets the requirements of section 10 (a) of the act, and relating to the securities offered at competitive bidding, as contained in the registration statement, together with any supplements thereto. Any order declaring the registration statement effective shall be deemed to declare an amendment thereto filed pursuant to the first such undertaking effective in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

• • • • •

2. Paragraph (c) of the rule would be amended to delete the first sentence of the rule, and to insert "(a)" after the words "section 10" wherever they appear in that paragraph.

XI. Section 230.423: The first sentence of this rule would be revised as follows:

§ 230.423 Date of prospectuses. Each prospectus used after the effective date of the registration statement shall be dated approximately as of such effective date. • • •

XII. Section 230.424:

1. Paragraph (b) of the rule would be amended as follows:

§ 230.424 Filing of prospectuses; number of copies. • • •

(b) Within 5 days after the effective date of a registration statement or the commencement of a public offering after the effective date of a registration statement, whichever occurs later, 25 copies of each form of prospectus used in connection with such offering shall be filed with the Commission in the exact form in which it was used: Provided, however, That this paragraph shall not apply in respect of a form of prospectus contained in a registration statement and relating solely to securities offered at competitive bidding which prospectus is intended for use prior to the opening of bids.

2. Paragraph (c) would be amended by inserting the clause "After the effective date of a registration statement" at the beginning of the first sentence of this paragraph.

3. The first sentence of paragraph (d) would be revised as follows: "Every prospectus consisting of a radio or television broadcast shall be reduced to writing."

4. Paragraph (e) would be amended as follows:

(e) Five copies of every form of prospectus sent or given to any person prior to the effective date which varies from the form of prospectus filed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be filed as part of the registration statement not later than the date such form or prospectus is first sent or given to any person.

XIII. Sec. 230.427 would be amended as follows:

§ 230.427 Contents of prospectuses used after 9 months. There may be omitted from any prospectus used more than 9 months after the effective date of the registration statement any information previously required to be contained in the prospectus insofar as later information covering the same subjects, including financial statements, as of a date not more than 16 months prior to the use of the prospectus is contained therein. Every such prospectus shall contain the latest available certified financial statements as of a date not more than 16 months prior to its use.

XIV. Section 230.428:

1. Paragraph (b) of this rule would be revised as follows:

§ 230.428 Invitations for competitive bids. • • • (b) the communication states that prior to the acceptance of any bid, the bidder will be furnished a copy of a prospectus which meets the requirements of section 10 (a) of the act at that time. • • •

2. This rule would be further revised by adding a third sentence as follows: "Five copies of such form of communication sent or given to any person shall be filed as part of the registration statement not later than the date such form of communication is first sent or given to any person."

XV. Section 230.431:

1. The first paragraph of this rule would be amended as follows:

§ 230.431 Prospectuses supplementing preliminary material supplied previously. For the purposes of section 5 (b), a prospectus may consist of a copy of the latest proposed form of prospectus meeting the requirements of § 230.433 and a document containing such additional information that both together contain all of the information required to be included in a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 (a) at that time.

2. The rule would also be amended by deleting "and" at the end of subparagraph (2), changing the period to a semicolon and adding the word "and" at the end of subparagraph (3), and adding a fourth subparagraph as follows:

(4) Five copies of the document have been filed as a part of the registration statement prior to its use.

XVI. Section 230.433: A new Rule 433 to replace Rule 131 would be adopted as follows:

§ 230.433 Prospectus for use prior to effective date. A form of prospectus filed as a part of the registration statement shall be deemed to meet the requirements of section 10 of the act for the purpose of section 5 (b) (1) thereof prior to the effective date of the registration statement, provided the following conditions are met:

(a) Such form of prospectus contains substantially the information required by the act and the rules and regulations thereunder to be included in a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 (a) of the act for the securities being registered, or contains substantially that information except for the omission of information with respect to the offering price, underwriting discounts or commissions, discounts or commissions to dealers, amount of proceeds, conversion rates, call prices, or other matters dependent upon the offering price, and

(b) The outside front cover page of such form of prospectus shall bear, in red ink, the caption "Preliminary Prospectus," the date of its issuance, and the following statement printed in type as large as that generally in the body thereof:

A registration statement relating to these securities has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, but has not yet become effective. Information contained herein is subject to completion or amendment. These securities may not be sold nor may offers to buy be accepted prior to the time the registration statement becomes effective.

(c) The preliminary prospectus may also bear any legend required by law of a State in which the prospectus is to be used indicating the limited purpose or use of prospectus prior to qualification or other compliance with State law.

XVII. Section 230.457: Paragraph (a) of this rule would be amended as follows:

§ 230.457 Computation of fee. (a) At the time of filing a registration statement, or any amendment thereto pursuant to the provisions of section 24 (e) (1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as amended, the registrant shall pay to the Commission a fee of one one-hundredth of 1 percent of the maximum aggregate price at which the securities are proposed to be offered, but in no case shall such fee be less than $25.

XVIII. Section 230.460: A new Rule 460 would be added as follows:

§ 230.460 Preparation and distribution of preliminary prospectus. (a) Pursuant to the statutory requirement that the Commission in ruling upon requests for acceleration of the effective date of a registration statement shall have due regard to the adequacy of the information respecting the issuer theretofore available to the public, the Commission will consider whether the persons making the offering have taken reasonable steps to make the information contained in the registration statement conveniently available to underwriters and dealers who may be invited to participate in the distribution of the security to be offered or sold.

(b) As a minimum, reasonable steps to make the information conveniently available would involve the distribution, to each underwriter and dealer who may be invited to participate in the distribution of the security, a reasonable time in advance of the anticipated effective date of the registration statement, of as many copies of the proposed form of preliminary prospectus permitted by § 230.433 as appears to be reasonable to secure adequate distribution of the preliminary prospectus.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, in the event that the form of preliminary prospectus, which has been distributed by the issuer or underwriter, is found to be inaccurate or inadequate in material respects, acceleration of the effective date of a registration statement will not be granted until the Commission has received satisfactory assurance that appropriate correcting material has been sent to all underwriters and dealers who received such preliminary prospectus or prospectuses in quantity sufficient for their information and the information of others to whom the inaccurate or inadequate material was sent.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraphs of this section, the granting of acceleration will not be conditioned upon the distribution of a preliminary prospectus in any State where such distribution would be illegal.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (d) of this section, in the case of a registration statement covering securities to be offered at competitive bidding, the granting of acceleration will not be conditioned upon the distribution of a preliminary prospectus provided the undertaking in paragraph (a) (2) of § 230.415 is included in the registration statement.

(f) In addition, in passing upon requests for acceleration, the Commission will consider whether there has been a bona fide effort to make the prospectus reasonably concise and readable, so as to facilitate an understanding of the information required or permitted to be contained in the prospectus.

XIX. Section 230.470 shall be expanded by changing the final period to a comma and adding a clause immediately at the end of the sentence, as follows:

§ 230.470 Formal requirements for amendments. • • • statement, except that amendments filed pursuant to Section 24 (e) (1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 shall conform to the form for registration in effect at the time of filing.

XX. Section 230.473: The first sentence of Rule 473 would be amended as follows:

§ 230.473 Delaying amendments. The effective date of a registration statement may be delayed by the filing, by telegram or letter, of an amendment stating a proposed effective date. • • •

XXI. Section 230.478: Subparagraph (1) of subparagraph (a) of Rule 478 would be amended as follows:

§ 230.478 Powers to amend or withdraw registration statement. • • •

(a) • • • (1) by filing of a delaying amendment as provided in § 230.473; • • •

XXII. Section 230.494:

1. The first sentence of subparagraph (a) of Rule 494 would be revised as follows:

§ 230.494 Newspaper prospectuses. (a) This section shall apply only to newspaper prospectuses relating to securities, as to which a registration statement has become effective, issued by a foreign national government with which the United States maintains diplomatic relations. • • •

2. A similar change would be made in those forms for the registration of securities which permit the use of a newspaper prospectus.

XXIII. Section 240.0–1: This rule would be amended by adding a subparagraph (d) as follows:

§ 240.0–1 Definitions. • • •

(d) Unless otherwise specified or the context otherwise requires, the term "prospectus" means a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933 as amended.

XXIV. Section 240.12b–2: Rule X-12B–2 would be amended by adding a definition of prospectus:

§ 240.12b–2 Definitions. • • •

(o–1) Prospectus. Unless otherwise specified or the context otherwise requires, the term "prospectus" means a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933 as amended.

XXV. Section 240.13a–4: Rule X-13A-4 would be revised as follows:

§ 240.13a–4 Incorporation of information contained in a prospectus. Any registrant which has filed with the Commission pursuant to § 230.424 of this chapter under the Securities Act of 1933 copies of a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 of that act after the effective date of the registration statement may incorporate in its annual report • • •

XXVI. Section 240.15d–4: Rule X-15D–4 would be revised as follows:

§ 240.15d–4 Incorporation of information contained in a prospectus. Any registrant which has filed with the Commission pursuant to § 230.424 of this chapter under the Securities Act of 1933 copies of a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 of that act after the effective date of the registration statement may incorporate into its annual report • • •

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the proposed amendments in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before September 27, 1954. Unless the person submitting any such comments or suggestions requests in writing that they be held confidential, they will be public records, available for public inspection.

By the Commission.

CAPITAL AIRLINES, INC. ET AL.; NORFOLK-ATLANTA NONSTOP INVESTIGATION

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of the investigation of the need for direct nonstop service between Norfolk and Atlanta.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 401, 1001, and 1002 of said act, and the Board's order adopted April 19, 1954, Serial No. E–8271, that a hearing in the above-entitled proceeding will be held on November 22, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in Room 2071, Temporary Building No. 5, Sixteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., before Curtis C. Henderson, Hearing Examiner.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the applications and investigation consolidated herein, particular attention will be directed to the following matters:

1. Whether the public convenience and necessity require direct nonstop air service between Norfolk and Atlanta.

2. Whether one or more of the following route revisions should be authorized in connection with providing direct nonstop service between Norfolk and Atlanta:

(a) Whether the certificate held by Capital Airlines, Inc., for Route 51 should be amended so as to authorize direct nonstop service between Norfolk and Atlanta, Docket No. 6707.

(b) Whether Delta-C&S Airlines, Inc., should be authorized to provide direct nonstop service between Norfolk and Atlanta, Docket No. 6682.

(c) Whether the certificates held by Eastern Air Lines, Inc., for routes Nos. 5 and 6 should be amended so as to authorize direct nonstop service between Norfolk and Atlanta, Docket No. 6739.

(d) Whether National Airlines, Inc., should be authorized to provide direct nonstop service between Norfolk and Atlanta, Docket No. 6683.

3. Whether the applicants are fit, willing, and able properly to perform the proposed air transportation and to conform to the provisions of the Act and the rules, regulations, and requirements of the Board thereunder.

For further details of the issues involved in this proceeding interested persons are referred to the applications mentioned above, the consolidation order (No. E–8584), the report of the prehearing conference, and other documents of record in this proceeding on file in the Docket Section of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Notice is further given that any person, other than a party of record, desiring to be heard in this proceeding must file with the Board on or before November 22, 1954, a statement setting forth the statements of fact or law which he desires to controvert.

Dated at Washington, D. C., September 15, 1954.

ARIZONA

DESIGNATION OF AREA FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, 12 U. S. C. 1148 a–2 (a), it is found that in the following named counties in the State of Arizona, a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

STATE OF ARIZONA

Maricopa County.
Pinal County.

After December 31, 1955, such loans will not be made in the above named counties except to borrowers who previously received such assistance.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of September 1954.

WYOMING

DESIGNATION OF AREA FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS AND ECONOMIC EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, 12 U. S. C. 1148 a–2 (a), it is found that in the following named counties in the State of Wyoming, a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

STATE OF WYOMING

Goshen County.
Laramie County.
Platte County.

Pursuant to the delegation of authority from the Administrator, Federal Civil Defense Administration, (18 F. R. 4609, 19 F. R. 2148) as further amended on July 30, 1954, and for the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, as amended by Public Law 115, 83d Congress, and section 301 of Public Law 480, 83d Congress, it is determined that the above-named counties are within the area affected by the major disaster occasioned by drought determined by the President on July 21, 1954, pursuant to Public Law 875, 81st Congress. It is also determined that an economic disaster exists in said counties that has caused a need for agricultural credit that cannot be met for a temporary period from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, the Farmers Home Administration under its regular loan programs, or other responsible sources.

After December 31, 1955, loans under section 2 (a) or (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, as amended, will not be made in the above named counties except to borrowers who previously received such assistance.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of September 1954.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 10914; FCC 54M-1106]

WESTERN BROADCASTING CO., INC. (KIFN)

STATEMENT OF PRE-HEARING CONFERENCE AND ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re application of Western Broadcasting Company, Inc. (KIFN), Phoenix, Arizona, Docket No. 10914, File No. BMP-6194; for modification of construction permit.

1. In accordance with notice duly given, a pre-hearing conference in the above-entitled matter was held pursuant to § 1.813 of the Commission's rules at 2:30 p. m., on Monday, August 30, 1954, in Washington, D. C.

2. Counsel for the applicant stated that this applicant had recently changed its engineering consultant; that it has not had time, since the Commission amended § 3.28 and related Standards, to obtain an opinion from its new engineering consultant as to whether it should proceed to hearing on its present proposal or, in view of the change in Commission's rule and standards, it should endeavor to amend its engineering proposal; that under these circumstances, a discussion at this time of evidence or stipulations relating to its present engineering proposal under the issues specified by the Commission would serve no useful purpose, and he therefore requested a continuance for one month of the hearing which is now scheduled for 10 o'clock a. m., September 14, 1954.

3. Counsel for the Broadcast Bureau of the Commission had no objection to a continuance, and there is no other party in this proceeding. Section 1.841 of the Commission's rules, as amended July 14, 1954, provides that a Conference shall be held under § 1.813 "at least 20 days in advance of the date for commencement of the hearing."

4. Accordingly, it is ordered, This 7th day of September 1954, that the Conference pursuant to § 1.813, which convened on Monday, August 30, 1954, is hereby continued to 10 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, September 21, 1954; and the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding is hereby continued to 10 o'clock a. m., Monday, October 18, 1954.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

ORDER ASSIGNING MATTER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the application of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Docket No. 11159, File No. P-C-3500; for a certificate under section 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, to acquire certain telephone plant and properties of Rudolph D. Bippert d/b as La Coste Telephone Company, La Coste, Texas; Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Docket No. 11160, File No. P-C-3501; for a certificate under section 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, to acquire certain telephone plant and properties of W. C. Ray d/b as Forreston Telephone Company, Forreston, Texas.

The Commission having under consideration applications filed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for certificates under section 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that the proposed acquisition by it of certain telephone plant and properties of Rudolph D. Bippert d/b as La Coste Telephone Company and W. C. Ray d/b as Forreston Telephone Company furnishing telephone service in and around La Coste, Texas and Forreston, Texas, respectively, will be of advantage to the persons to whom service is to be rendered and in the public interest;

It is ordered, This 10th day of September 1954, that pursuant to the provisions of section 221 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above applications are assigned for public hearing in a consolidated proceeding, together with the proceedings in Docket No. 11155 for the purpose of determining whether the proposed acquisitions will be of advantage to the persons to whom service is to be rendered and in the public interest;

It is further ordered, That the hearing upon said applications be held at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., beginning at 10:00 a. m. on the 4th day of October 1954, and that a copy of this order shall be served upon Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Rudolph D. Bippert d/b as La Coste Telephone Company, W. C. Ray d/b as Forreston Telephone Company, the Governor of Texas, and the Postmasters of La Coste and Forreston, Texas;

It is further ordered, That within five days after the receipt from the Commission of a copy of this order, the applicant herein shall cause a copy hereof to be published in a newspaper or newspapers having general circulation in La Coste, Forreston and Medina and Ellis Counties, Texas, and shall furnish proof of such publication at the hearing herein.

Released: September 13, 1954.

PHILADELPHIA COMPANY AND DUQUESNE LIGHT COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAN TO ELIMINATE CERTAIN GUARANTIES BY PHILADELPHIA CO., TO MONONGAHELA LIGHT AND POWER CO.

SEPTEMBER 14, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Philadelphia Company ("Philadelphia"), a registered holding company which is a direct subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company and an indirect subsidiary of Standard Power and Light Corporation, also registered holding companies, and Duquesne Light Company ("Duquesne"), an electric utility company which is a subsidiary of Philadelphia, have filed a joint application for approval of a plan under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") to eliminate certain guaranties by Philadelphia to Monongahela Light and Power Company ("Monongahela"), a Pennsylvania public utility company which is a non-affiliate of Philadelphia and Duquesne.

In essence, the plan provides for the cancellation and termination of Philadelphia's guaranties to Monongahela as hereinafter described, upon the payment by Philadelphia to Monongahela of a nominal cash consideration of $1.00.

Applicants state that:

1. By written agreement dated January 1, 1902 Monongahela, then an operating electric utility company, leased and assigned to Allegheny County Light Company ("Allegheny"), its successors and assigns, for a term of 900 years all properties and franchises of Monongahela (except books and papers relating to its corporate existence); and Philadelphia, then the owner of all the outstanding stock of Allegheny, guaranteed the faithful performance of the covenants therein agreed to be performed by Allegheny, including covenants (a) to pay $85,000 in net rentals (to be available for dividends on the $1,700,000 aggregate par value of Monongahela's outstanding common stock) and $300 per annum to maintain the corporate organization of Monongahela, (b) to pay interest on Monongahela's bonds, taxes, and insurance, and (c) to unite with Monongahela in the issue of new bonds for the purpose of taking up Monongahela's outstanding bonds at their maturity.

2. By deed dated May 11, 1927, Allegheny sold to Duquesne, its successors and assigns, all the properties and franchises vested in Allegheny, including its interest under said lease agreement with Monongahela, and Philadelphia renewed its guaranty to Monongahela in behalf of its subsidiary Duquesne, all of whose voting stock was then owned by Philadelphia.

3. By agreement dated May 31, 1949, between Monongahela and Duquesne made pursuant to an order of this Commission dated May 27, 1949 (Holding Company Act Release No. 9123), it was agreed that Duquesne would purchase all of the outstanding bonds of Monongahela, due on June 1, 1949, in the principal amount of $1,698,000 and secured by an indenture of Fidelity Trust Company of Pittsburgh, and that Monongahela and Duquesne would replace the matured bonds with new bonds of equal principal amount. Philadelphia guaranteed to Monongahela the faithful performance of the covenants of Duquesne as stipulated in said agreement. Duquesne has purchased all but $2,000 principal amount of the Monongahela bonds and has deposited with the trustee cash for the purchase of the remaining bonds as agreed, but has not united with Monongahela in the issue of new bonds to take up the presently outstanding bonds of Monongahela as aforesaid.

At the time of the 1949 agreement Philadelphia owned all of the outstanding common stock of Duquesne. Since that time, pursuant to an order of this Commission dated June 1, 1948, issued under Section 11 of the Act, requiring Philadelphia to dispose of its interest in certain properties and to take appropriate steps to liquidate and dissolve (Holding Company Act Release No. 8242), Philadelphia has reduced its holdings of Duquesne's outstanding common stock to approximately 13.02 percent thereof. Philadelphia states that the elimination of the guaranties to Monongahela is a necessary and appropriate step in effecting its dissolution, and that the continued existence of these guaranties, in its opinion, constitutes an undue complexity in the corporate structure of the Philadelphia holding company system within the meaning of section 11 (b) (2) of the act.

The applicants have exhibited their respective balance sheets as of June 30, 1954, and their income statements for the twelve months ended June 30, 1954. Philadelphia has also indicated the market value of its major portfolio securities at July 28, 1954. These financial data may be summarized as follows:

PHILADELPHIA

Total	311,784,881

Since 1949, when Duquesne deposited with the trustee funds for the purchase of the Monongahela bonds, thus terminating its interest liability with respect thereto, aggregate payments made by Duquesne to Monongahela under the lease agreement have ranged from $135,908.25 (in 1951) to $158,908.16 (in 1953).

The plan provides that Philadelphia will pay such fees and expenses as the Commission shall approve and allow in connection with the plan.

It is proposed to consummate the plan by means of an order entered by this Commission approving the plan, and a decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an enforcement proceeding instituted by the Commission pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, which requires, among other things, that a plan be fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby. The plan will not become operative until said decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction shall have become final and no longer subject to rehearing or review.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 30, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the Commission may grant said application and approve said plan.

By the Commission.

GEORGIA POWER CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF PREFERRED STOCK SUBJECT TO EXCHANGE OFFER AND PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF PROMISSORY NOTES, AND REDEMPTION OF OUTSTANDING PREFERRED STOCK; AND GRANTING EXCEPTION FROM COMPETITIVE BIDDING REQUIREMENTS

SEPTEMBER 14, 1954.

Georgia Power Company ("Georgia"), a public-utility subsidiary of The Southern Company, a registered holding company, has filed an application-declaration, and amendments thereto, pursuant to sections 6 (b) and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-42 and U-50 promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Georgia at the present time has outstanding 433,869 shares of $6 Preferred Stock ("old preferred stock"), without par value, which are subject to redemption, in whole or in part at any time upon 30 days' notice, at $110 per share, plus accrued dividends.

Georgia proposes to issue and sell 433,869 shares of $4.60 Preferred Stock ("new preferred stock") without par value. Georgia also proposes to amend its charter, which amendment will create the new preferred stock and will cancel the presently authorized shares of old preferred stock. The new preferred stock will be offered to the holders of Georgia's old preferred stock on an exchange basis of one share of new preferred stock and $5 in cash (plus a cash dividend adjustment) for each share of old preferred stock held. The exchange period will expire on October 4, 1954. The $5 cash payment represents the difference between $105, the proposed public offering price of the new preferred stock not required to effectuate the exchanges, and $110, the redemption price of the old preferred stock (in each case exclusive of accrued dividends). Georgia further proposes to redeem at the redemption price of $110 all shares of the old preferred stock not exchanged.

The proposed sale of new preferred stock is to be underwritten. Georgia states that considering the limited scope of the market, an issue of this size coupled with an exchange offer does not lend itself to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 and, for this and other stated reasons, Georgia requests that an exception from the provisions of Rule U-50 under the act be granted. After having advised the Commission of its intention so to do, Georgia has entered into an agreement with The First Boston Corporation, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane, Union Securities Corporation and Equitable Securities Corporation whereby they, as dealer managers, have agreed to form a group of securities dealers ("soliciting dealers" which may include the dealer managers) who will use their best efforts to obtain acceptances of the exchange offer. Under an underwriting agreement, the four firms mentioned above will act as representatives of the underwriters who are required to purchase from Georgia at $105 all of the shares of new preferred stock not required to effectuate the exchanges.

Georgia has agreed to pay the underwriters, as compensation for their commitments, 90¢ per share upon the entire 433,869 shares to be issued, plus 75¢ per share of new preferred purchased from the company, if the shares purchased are more than 10 percent but less than 20 percent of the amount of the entire issue or $1 for each share purchased if the shares purchased exceed 20 percent of such amount, and plus 80¢ per share of new preferred stock acquired by the underwriters for their accounts upon the exchange of old preferred stock purchased during the exchange period.

In accordance with the underwriting agreement, the underwriters will pay Georgia 50 percent of certain profits which may be realized by them on sales of the new preferred stock.

Georgia has also agreed to pay the soliciting dealers with respect to shares of old preferred stock exchanged by holders of record on September 15, 1954, pursuant to the exchange offer, 80¢ per share if less than 303,708 shares of old preferred stock are exchanged; 85¢ per share if 303,708 shares of such stock or more, but less than 347,095 shares, are exchanged; 90¢ per share if 347,095 shares of such stock or more, but less than 368,788 shares, are exchanged; and $1 per share if 368,788 shares of such stock or more are exchanged. In addition, Georgia will pay soliciting dealers 80¢ per share of old preferred stock owned by a soliciting dealer depositing it for exchange, if such soliciting dealer acquired it, for exchange, during the exchange period. Such fees to soliciting dealers will be paid only in instances where the name of the soliciting dealer appears on the letter of transmittal and the minimum and maximum aggregate fees payable with respect to any single exchanging holder will be $5 and $150, respectively, except in certain cases.

Georgia will also pay the dealer managers, as a manager's fee, an amount equal to 12% of the total amount of the fees paid to soliciting dealers, plus out-of-pocket expenses not exceeding $7,500.

Georgia also proposes to issue to banks unsecured promissory notes in an aggregate amount not exceeding $3,500,000. Such notes will bear an interest rate of 3¼% per annum and will be payable in sixteen equal semi-annual installments of which the first installment will be payable six months from the date of issue. The proceeds from the sale of such notes and from the sale to the underwriters of the shares of new preferred stock not required to effectuate the exchanges will be used to make the cash payments to the holders of the old preferred stock and to pay underwriters' fees and expenses and the other expenses of the proposed transactions.

The estimated expenses of the issuance and distribution of the new preferred stock, other than underwriting discounts and commissions, are as follows:

Federal original issue tax	$10,000
Filing fee, Securities and Exchange Commission	4,621
Charges of exchange and redemption agent	18,000
Charges of transfer agents and registrar	3,000
Cost of stock certificates	4,500
Printing and preparation of registration statement, financial statements, prospectus, letter to stockholders, etc	20,000
Services of Southern Services, Inc.	8,000
Fee of counsel, Winthrop, Stimson, Putnam & Roberts (including preliminary services in connection with exception from Rule U-50)	25,000
Fees and expenses of accountants	3,750
Miscellaneous, including telephone and telegraph charges nad traveling expenses	3,129
Total	100,000

The fee of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, counsel for the underwriters, is estimated not to exceed $10,000.

The issue and sale of the new preferred stock have been expressly authorized by the Public Service Commission of Georgia, in which State Georgia is organized and doing business.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application-declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that compliance with the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 is not appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers as a condition to the exemption of the issuance and sale of the new preferred stock from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the act; that the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied; that no adverse findings are necessary; and that the expenses, as estimated, are not unreasonable; and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors that said application-declaration, as amended, should be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That Georgia's application for an exception from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 with respect to the issuance and sale of its new preferred stock be, and the same hereby is, granted.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective upon its issuance.

By the Commission.

NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCK PURSUANT TO RIGHTS OFFERING

SEPTEMBER 14, 1954.

New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, having filed with this Commission a declaration, pursuant to sections 7 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") and Rules U-42 and U-50 promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

NEES proposes to issue and sell 910,883 additional shares of its common stock of $1 per value. The shares are to be offered to the common stockholders of NEES for subscription during a period of not less than fourteen nor more than seventeen days on the basis of one share for each 10 shares held on the record date, which will be the effective date of the registration statement filed with this Commission in connection with such issue and sale. NEES expects to set the subscription price for the shares offered to its shareholders as hereinafter described. The rights to subscribe are to be evidenced by subscription warrants. No fractional shares are to be issued. However, in lieu of rights for fractional shares, a stockholder will be entitled to subscribe for one additional share in excess of the whole number to which he would otherwise be entitled. Accordingly, if said proposed 910,883 shares are insufficient to satisfy this right, NEES proposes to issue such additional shares in excess of this number as may be necessary.

NEES proposes, if considered necessary or desirable, to stabilize the price of its common stock for the purpose of facilitating the offering and distribution of the additional shares of common stock by the purchase of not in excess of 45,544 shares of its common stock.

The above described offering is to be underwritten and the company proposes to select the underwriters through competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50. At least 24 hours prior to the time for the submission and opening of bids, NEES expects to set the price for the unsubscribed shares (which price will be the same as the subscription price) and NEES expects that such price will not be more than the last reported sale price on the New York Stock Exchange prior to the fixing thereof and not less than such last reported sale price less 15 percent. The underwriters will be required to purchase, at the subscription price, any unsubscribed shares and the stock, if any, acquired by the company through stabilizing operations and will agree to pay NEES 50 percent of certain profits which may be realized by them on sales of the common stock purchased by them under the underwriting agreement. It is stated in the declaration that NEES will reimburse the underwriters for the payment of any dealer of 25¢ per share where his name appears on the warrant exercised by the original holder thereof, such reimbursement, with certain exceptions, being limited to $250 in the case of any single stockholder.

The net proceeds to be derived from the proposed sale of the additional shares of common stock will be added to the general funds of NEES and applied in furtherance of the construction programs of its subsidiaries either through loans or the purchase of additional shares of their common stocks, any balance to be used for general corporate purposes.

Fees and expenses of the issuance and sale, other than underwriting compensation and reimbursement for payments of compensation to soliciting dealers, are estimated as follows:

Securities and Exchange Commission filing fee	$1,668
Federal original issue stamp tax	3,000
Services performed at cost by New England Power Service Co., an affiliated service company	21,000
Printing costs	32,000
Services of independent public accountants	4,000
Services of transfer agents and registrar	12,000
Services of subscription agents, including $9,000 estimated expenses	67,500
Services ($20,000) and expenses ($4,000) of the First Boston Corp., financial adviser	24,000
Miscellaneous	8,832
Total	174,000

The fee and expenses of Messrs. Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, counsel for the underwriters, are estimated at $8,500 and $500, respectively, which will be paid by the underwriters.

It is represented that no State commission, or any other Federal commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions. Declarant has waived the 30-day waiting period and requests that said order become effective upon issuance.

Said declaration having been filed on August 11, 1954, and the last amendment thereto having been filed on September 9, 1954, and notice of the filing of said declaration having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and the Commission not having requested a hearing with respect to said declaration, as amended, within the time specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to the proposed transactions that all applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are required thereunder, that, with the exception of the fee and expenses of The First Boston Corporation and counsel for the underwriters, as to which the record is not complete, the expenses, as estimated, are not unreasonable; and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration, as amended, to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rules U-24 and U-50 and to a reservation of jurisdiction over the fee and expenses of The First Boston Corporation and counsel for the underwriters:

It is ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder, that said declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the provisions of Rules U-24 and U-50.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, reserved with respect to the fee and expenses of The First Boston Corporation and counsel for the underwriters.

By the Commission.

MISSISSIPPI POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF PREFERRED STOCK SUBJECT TO EXCHANGE OFFER

SEPTEMBER 14, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission by Mississippi Power & Light Company ("Mississippi"), a public-utility subsidiary of Middle South Utilities, Inc., a registered holding company. The declarant has designated sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-23, U-42 and U-50 promulgated thereunder, as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

Mississippi has outstanding 44,476 shares of $6 Preferred Stock, without par value, and 60,000 shares of 4.36 percent Preferred Stock, with par value of $100 per share. Approximately 60 percent of the holders of $6 Preferred Stock of the company reside in the State of Mississippi. The company proposes to refinance its $6 Preferred Stock by issuing 44,476 shares of New Preferred Stock, $100 par value, to be created by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation, the rights, privileges and other distinguishing characteristics of which will be identical, except as to dividend rate and redemption prices, with those of its 4.36 percent Preferred Stock. The holders of the $6 Preferred Stock will be offered during a 14 day period the privilege of exchanging one share of $6 Preferred Stock for one share of New Preferred Stock plus cash in an amount which, together with the initial public offering price of the New Preferred Stock (not more than $105 per share) will have an aggregate value equal to the redemption price of the $6 Preferred Stock ($110 per share). A cash adjustment for accrued dividends on the $6 Preferred Stock and the New Preferred Stock will also be made. Unexchanged shares of New Preferred Stock will be sold to underwriters and the shares of $6 Preferred Stock not so exchanged will be called for redemption at their redemption price of $110 per share plus accrued dividends. The exchange offer will be conditioned upon the purchase of unexchanged shares of New Preferred Stock by the underwriters. The dividend rate and the initial public offering price of the New Preferred Stock (which will be not more than $105 per share) are to be fixed by Mississippi and will be supplied by amendment.

Mississippi will publicly invite proposals, pursuant to Rule U-50, which will specify the aggregate amount of compensation to be paid the underwriters for their agreement to purchase the unexchanged stock and for their undertaking to form and manage a group of securities dealers to solicit exchanges. Said group will include all securities dealers having offices in the State of Mississippi who are members in good standing of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and who may desire to participate in such solicitation. The soliciting dealer group also may include such other dealers who are members of said Association as may be selected by the underwriters. Such soliciting dealers (and any underwriters) will be paid compensation by the representative of the underwriters upon receipt from the company of funds therefor, on the basis of $1.00 per share in respect of each share of $6 Preferred Stock deposited for exchange with a letter of transmittal naming the soliciting dealer as having solicited such exchange: Provided, however, That the maximum payment to be made in respect of a deposit of shares of $6 Preferred Stock by any one stockholder shall be $150 and the minimum payment shall be $5.00. No compensation will be paid with respect to any exchange for a soliciting dealer's own account. Mississippi will pay or reimburse the representative for the aggregate compensation payable to soliciting dealers, plus an over-riding fee equal to 10% of such aggregate compensation payable to soliciting dealers.

In the event that any underwriter disposes of any unexchanged stock prior to the expiration of 60 days following the expiration of the exchange offer at a price which, after deducting any selling concession and federal and state stock transfer taxes, is in excess of the "initial public offering price," such underwriter shall share the aggregate amount of such excess equally with the company.

Mississippi proposes, concurrently with the issuance of the New Preferred Stock, to amend its Certificate of Incorporation so as to eliminate authorization of the $6 Preferred Stock.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than October 4, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

ALLEGHANY CORP.

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

On July 7, 1954 this Commission issued its Notice of and Order for hearing in these proceedings (Investment Company Act Release No. 1990) ordering that hearings herein be held July 27, 1954. On July 19, 1954 Alleghany Corporation filed a Motion to Postpone said hearings until a date to be subsequently determined, and pursuant to stipulation between Alleghany and the Commission said hearings were postponed until September 15, 1954.

Alleghany having renewed its Motion to Postpone, on September 13, 1954, it was further stipulated between Alleghany and the Commission that the hearings in these proceedings be further postponed until October 19, 1954: Provided, however, That if the Interstate Commerce Commission, before such date, revokes, modifies or suspends its order dated June 5, 1945, entered in Finance Docket 14692, in such manner as to relieve Alleghany from compliance with certain provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act specified in said order, said hearings might be reconvened on 5 days' notice to Alleghany: And provided further, That in the event that the Interstate Commerce Commission should so revoke, modify or suspend its order of June 5, 1945, then until the conclusion of the hearings herein Alleghany will not, without first obtaining the approval of this Commission, engage in any act or consummate any transactions which, if Alleghany was registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, would by the terms of that Act either be prohibited or require an order of this Commission exempting or approving such transactions before their consummation.

The Commission being of the opinion, on the basis of the stipulation of September 13, 1954, above recited, that the Motion to Postpone the hearings in these proceedings may appropriately be granted in the public interest and the interest of investors:

It is hereby ordered, That the Motion to Postpone the hearings ordered to be held on September 15, 1954, in these proceedings be, and the same hereby is, granted and said hearings be and the same are hereby postponed until October 19, 1954, or until such earlier date as may be ordered by the Commission pursuant to the terms of the stipulation entered into by Alleghany under date of September 13, 1954.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas), Department of Agriculture

PART 728—WHEAT

SUBPART—1955–1956 MARKETING YEAR

COMMERCIAL WHEAT PRODUCING AREA

Section 335 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, was further amended by Public Law 690, 83d Congress, approved August 28, 1954, to add a new subsection (e) which reads as follows:

(e) If, for any marketing year, the acreage allotment for wheat for any State is twenty-five thousand acres or less, the Secretary, in order to promote efficient administration of this Act and the Agricultural Act of 1949, may designate such State as outside the commercial wheat-producing area for such marketing year. No farm marketing quota or acreage allotment with respect to wheat under this title shall be applicable in such marketing year to any farm in any State so designated; and no acreage allotment in any other State shall be increased by reason of such designation. Notice of any such designation shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The purpose of this amendment is to designate the States outside the commercial wheat-producing area for the 1955–1956 marketing year.

Since farmers in many areas are now preparing to seed wheat for the 1955 crop, it is imperative that the designation of the States outside such commercial wheat-producing area be announced as soon as possible in order that producers in such States may complete their plans for wheat production in 1955. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the public notice, procedure, and 30-day effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and the amendments herein shall become effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

The regulations pertaining to farm acreage allotments for the 1955 crop (19 F. R. 3249) are amended by adding a new section as follows:

§ 728.527 Commercial wheat-producing area. The acreage allotments established under the provisions of §§ 728.510 to 728.526 shall be applicable only to farms in the commercial wheat-producing area for the 1955–1956 marketing year. The State acreage allotment for each of the States, Alabama, Arizona, Connecticut, Florida, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Nevada, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont, as issued under § 728.505, was 25,000 acres or less. In order to promote efficient administration of the act, each of the States mentioned in this section is designated as outside the commercial wheat-producing area for the 1955–1956 marketing year. Accordingly, the commercial wheat-producing area for the 1955–1956 marketing year shall consist of all States in the continental United States except the States herein above-mentioned.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interprets or applies sec. 335, 52 Stat. 54, as amended by sec. 309, 68 Stat. 897; 7 U. S. C. 1335)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of September 1954. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

mestic Allotment Act, as amended, Public Law 690, 83d Congress, and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1955, the 1955 National Agricultural Conservation Program, approved July 1, 1954 (19 F. R. 4138), as amended August 3, 1954 (19 F. R. 4953), is further amended as follows:

1. Section 1101.643 is deleted and the following substituted therefor:

§ 1101.643 Excess acreage of basic agricultural commodities. (a) Any person who knowingly harvests any basic agricultural commodity or causes any basic agricultural commodity to be harvested on any farm in which he has an interest, in excess of the 1955 acreage allotment for the farm for such basic agricultural commodity under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, shall not be eligible for any payment of cost-shares whatsoever on that farm or on any other farm under 1955 programs authorized by sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended. A basic agricultural commodity shall not be deemed to have been knowingly harvested on any farm in excess of the farm acreage allotment for such basic agricultural commodity if it is determined under applicable price support regulations that the acreage allotment for the commodity has not been knowingly exceeded.

(b) Any person who makes application for payment of cost-shares with respect to any farm shall file with such application a statement that he has not knowingly harvested any basic agricultural commodity or caused any basic agricultural commodity to be harvested on any farm in which he has an interest, in excess of the 1955 acreage allotment established for the farm for such basic agricultural commodity under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

2. Section 1101.688 is deleted and the following substituted therefor:

§ 1101.688 Practice D–4: Establishment of a vegetative cover to protect cropland throughout the 1955 crop year. This practice is applicable only to cropland which is being shifted for the entire 1955 crop year from crop production to green manure or cover crops. Eligible seedings may consist of single seedings or successive seedings of grasses, legumes, small grains, or other crops which will provide adequate soil protection for the required period. Where annuals alone are used, at least two successive seedings must be made, except in areas where it is determined by the State committee that lack of moisture makes it impracticable to obtain additional green manure or cover crops in 1955 on the same land. Pasturing consistent with good management may be permitted. No crop may be harvested for seed in 1955. No crop may be harvested for hay in 1955, except in areas where the State committee determines that a serious shortage of forage exists due to the drought. No annual crop seeded in the fall of 1955 may be harvested for hay or seed in 1956 if such seeding is one of the two required seedings of such annual crops. One of the two required seedings of annuals may be a winter cover crop seeded in the fall of 1954 or a volunteer seeding which provides adequate soil protection, but no Federal cost-sharing may be allowed for the volunteer seeding.

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter III—Foreign Claims Settlement Commission of the United States

PART 300—RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINATION OF CLAIMS; HEARINGS

Pursuant to the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended (64 Stat. 12; 22 U. S. C. secs. 1621 ff.), Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1954, effective July 1, 1954 (19 F. R. 3985) and section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. sec. 1003), the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission of the United States, having given an opportunity to interested persons to submit their views and other relevant information with respect to certain proposed amendments to its rules of practice and procedure (Part 300 of Title 22, Code of Federal Regulations), as the same appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 5234) and no such views or other relevant information having been received, hereby adopts, publishes and declares, effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the following amendments to such rules:

1. Paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of § 300.5 thereof are amended to read as follows:

(c) Where such proposed decision denies the claim in whole or in part, claimant may within fifteen days of service thereof file objections to such denial, assigning the errors relied upon, with accompanying brief in support thereof, and may request a hearing on the claim, specifying whether for the taking of evidence or only for the hearing of oral argument, upon the errors assigned.

(d) Within twenty days after receipt of notice of any proposed decision issued as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the foreign government concerned may file a brief as amicus curiae with respect to the claim, with the Commission in Washington, or through the diplomatic representative of the United States in the country concerned.

(e) Upon the expiration of twenty days after such service or receipt of notice, if no objection under paragraph (c) of this section nor brief as amicus curiae under paragraph (d) of this section has in the meantime been filed, such proposed decision shall by further order of the Commission become its final determination and decision upon the claim; and

2. Paragraph (a) of § 300.6 thereof is amended to read as follows:

(a) Hearings, whether upon the Commission's own motion or upon request of claimant, shall be held upon ten days' notice of the time and place thereof and of the questions to which limited, to the claimant and to the foreign government concerned, or sooner upon consent by the claimant and notice thereof to the foreign government concerned.

(Sec. 3, 64 Stat. 13; 22 U. S. C. 1622)

Existing provisions of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, require the Commission to complete its determination of claims against Yugoslavia by December 31, 1954. To facilitate the accomplishment of this end, the Commission is of the opinion that some of the claims determination procedures provided by its applicable rules of practice and procedure should be accelerated. The foregoing amendments are designed to achieve such acceleration; and the Commission finds that such purpose will be accomplished without unduly restricting adequate consideration of all claims still to be determined.

AUTHORITY: §§ 201.1 to 201.16 issued under sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1246, as amended; 12 U. S. C. and Sup. 1703.

§ 201.1 Definitions. As used in the regulations in this part, the term:

(a) "Act" means the National Housing Act, as amended.

(b) "Administration" means the Federal Housing Administration.

(c) "Commissioner" means the Federal Housing Commissioner or his duly authorized representative.

(d) "Contract of Insurance" includes all of the provisions of the regulations in this part and of the applicable provisions of the Act.

(e) "Insured" means a financial institution holding a Contract of Insurance under Title I of the act.

(f) "Loan" means an advance of funds or credit or the purchase of an obligation evidenced by a note.

(g) "Note" includes a note, bond, mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness.

(h) "Payment" includes a deposit to an account or fund which represents the full or partial repayment of a loan.

(i) "Borrower" means one who applies for and receives a loan in reliance upon the provisions of the act and whose interest in the property to be improved is (1) a fee title, or (2) a life estate, or (3) an equitable interest under an instrument of trust or contract, or (4) a lease having a fixed term, expiring not less than six calendar months after the maturity of the loan.

(j) "Class 1 (a) loan" means a loan, other than a loan defined in paragraph (k) of this section as a "Class 1 (b) loan," which is for the purpose of financing the repair, alteration, or improvement of an existing structure or of the real property in connection therewith, exclusive of the building of new structures.

(k) "Class 1 (b) loan" means a loan which is made for the purpose of financing the alteration, repair, improvement, or conversion of an existing structure used or to be used as an apartment house or a dwelling for two or more families.

(l) "Class 2 (a) loan" means a loan which is for the purpose of financing the construction of a new structure which is to be used exclusively for other than residential or agricultural purposes.

(m) "Class 2 (b) loan" means a loan which is for the purpose of financing the construction of a new structure for use in whole or in part for agricultural purposes, exclusive of residential purposes.

(n) "Class 1 loan" includes both "Class 1 (a)" and "Class 1 (b)" loans as defined in paragraphs (j) and (k) of this section.

(o) "Class 2 loan" includes both "Class 2 (a)" and "Class 2 (b)" loans as defined in paragraphs (l) and (m) of this section.

(p) "Existing structure" means a residential structure completed and occupied at least six months prior to the application for the Title I loan or a structure for other than residential purposes which was a completed building with a distinctive functional use prior to the application for the Title I loan.

§ 201.2 Eligible notes—(a) Validity. The note shall bear the genuine signature of the borrower as maker, shall be valid and enforceable against the borrower or borrowers as defined in § 201.1 (i), and shall be complete and regular on its face. The signatures of all parties to the note must be genuine. If the note is executed for and on behalf of a corporation or in a representative capacity, the note must create a binding obligation of the principal.

(b) Acceleration clause. The note shall contain a provision for acceleration of maturity, either automatic or at the option of the holder, in the event of default in the payment of any installment upon the due date thereof.

(c) Payments. The note shall be payable in equal monthly, semimonthly, or weekly installments. The first installment or the final installment may be more or less than the other installments provided that it is not less than one-half or more than one and one-half times the amount of a regular installment. A note may not provide for a first payment less than 6 days nor more than two calendar months from the date of the note. However, if 51 percent or more of the income of the borrower is derived directly from the sale of agricultural crops, commodities, or livestock produced by him, a note may be made payable in installments corresponding to income periods shown on the Credit Application. In such cases, the first payment must be made within 12 months of the date of the note and at least one payment shall be made in each 12 months thereafter, provided that no two payments shall be more than 12 months apart, and the proportion of total principal to be paid in later years shall not exceed the proportion of total principal payable in earlier years. In lieu of an installment note payable in equal periodic installments a loan may be evidenced by a series of notes provided each is of an equal amount as provided in this section and that each note indicates on its face that it is one of a series signed by the same borrower.

(d) Maturity—(1) Minimum. The note shall not have a final maturity of less than 6 calendar months from the date of the note.

(2) Maximum. The maximum permissible maturity of a note evidencing:

(i) A Class 1 (a) or a Class 2 (a) loan is 3 years and 32 days from the date of the note.

(ii) A Class 1 (b) loan is 7 years and 32 days from the date of the note.

(iii) A Class 2 (b) loan is 7 years and 32 days from the date of the note, except that if a Class 2 (b) loan is secured by a first mortgage, first deed of trust, or other security instrument constituting a first lien upon the improved property, the loan may have a final maturity not in excess of 15 years and 32 days from the date of the note.

(iv) A combination of any of the above classes of loans shall be no greater than the maximum maturity governing that component part of the loan having the shortest maturity if made alone.

(e) Late charges. The note may provide for a late charge, not to exceed 5 cents for each $1.00 of each installment more than 15 days in arrears. No late charge on a past due installment may be accrued in excess of $5.00. In lieu of late charges, notes may provide for interest on past due installments at a rate not in excess of the contract rate in the jurisdiction in which the note is drawn. The borrower must be billed for the penalties collected as such, and evidence of such billing must be in the file if claim is made under the Contract of Insurance.

§ 201.3 Maximum amount of loans—(a) Class 1 (a) loan. A Class 1 (a) loan shall not involve a principal amount, exclusive of financing charges in excess of $2,500.

(b) Class 1 (b) loans. A Class 1 (b) loan shall not involve a principal amount, exclusive of financing charges, in excess of $2,500 per dwelling unit in the improved structure and shall not exceed $10,000.

(c) Class 2 loan. A Class 2 loan shall not involve a principal amount, exclusive of financing charges, in excess of $3,000.

(d) Outstanding aggregate loan balance. No loan shall be made which will result in an outstanding aggregate loan balance with respect to the same property or structure exceeding the dollar amount limitation prescribed in this section for the type of loan involved. If more than one type or class of loan is involved, the total outstanding aggregate loan balance as to one structure or property shall not exceed the dollar amount limitation prescribed in this section for the type or class of loan having the larger permissible maximum amount.

§ 201.4 Financing charges—(a) Maximum charge. The maximum permissible financing charges, exclusive of fees and charges as provided by paragraph (b) of this section, which may be paid or collected for interest, discount, and fees of all kinds in connection with the transaction, shall be computed as follows:

(1) Class 1 loans having a principal amount not in excess of $2,500 shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $5.00 discount per $100 original face amount of a 1-year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note.

(2) Class 1 loans having a principal amount in excess of $2,500 shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $4.00 discount per $100 original face amount of a one year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note.

(3) Class 2 loans shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $5.00 discount per $100 original face amount of a 1-year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note, except that Class 2 (b) loans having a maturity in excess of 7 years and 32 days shall not have a financing charge in excess of an amount equivalent to $3.50 discount per $100 original face amount of a 1-year note, to be paid in equal monthly installments calculated from the date of the note. Such charges correctly based on tables of calculations issued by the Federal Housing Commissioner are deemed to comply with this section.

An increase in the ratio of the charge to the average amount outstanding on the debt over the maximum provided in this section, which increase results from the first payment falling due less than 30 days after the date of the note as provided in § 201.2 (c), shall not be deemed to be in conflict with this section.

(b) Permissible additional charges. If the insured takes security in the nature of a real estate mortgage, deed of trust, conditional sales contract, chattel mortgage, mechanic's lien, or other security device for the purpose of securing the payment of eligible loans, the insured may collect from the borrower, in addition to the maximum permissible financing charge as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, the following expenses actually incurred by the insured in connection with the transaction: Recording or filing fees, documentary stamp taxes, title examination charges and hazard insurance premiums, provided that such costs or expenses are not paid from the proceeds of the loan or included in the face amount of the note. Such costs or expenses shall not be included by the insured as a portion of a claim under the Contract of Insurance and if such costs or expenses are assessed against the borrower, proper evidence thereof shall be in the file.

(c) Dealer reserve accounts and guarantees. Reserve accounts to assure against losses on loans reported to the Commissioner for insurance are prohibited. A dealer or other person may be required to endorse or guarantee payment of notes so long as no reserve account is involved, but any such guarantee must cover the full amount due on the note.

(d) Repayment rebate. If a note is paid in full prior to maturity, the insured shall make a rebate at a rate not less than 6 percent per annum of the amounts so paid in advance of their due dates, if the maximum permissible financing charge in connection with the transaction is in an amount equivalent to $5.00 discount as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. If a lesser charge has been taken, the rebate shall be at not less than a proportional rate.

§ 201.5 Credits and collections—(a) Credit application. Prior to making a loan the insured shall obtain a dated Credit Application executed by the borrower on a form approved by the Commissioner. A separate Credit Application is required for each loan made or note purchased.

(b) Credit investigation. The Credit Application, supplemented by such other information as the insured deems necessary, must, in the judgment of the insured, clearly show the borrower to be solvent, with reasonable ability to pay the obligation and in other respects a reasonable credit risk. If, after the loan is made, an insured who acted in good faith discovers any material misstatements or misuse of the proceeds of the loan by the borrower, dealer, or others, the eligibility of the note for insurance will not be affected. However, the insured shall promptly report such discovery to the Commissioner.

(c) Outstanding FHA and direct Federal obligations. The proceeds of a loan shall not be disbursed if the insured has knowledge that the borrower is past due more than 15 days as to either principal or interest with respect to an obligation owing to, or insured by, any department or agency of the Federal Government, provided that nothing contained herein shall prevent the making of a loan otherwise eligible, even though the borrower is in default under such an obligation by reason of his military service and the approval of the Commissioner is obtained.

(d) Past due Title I notes at time of purchase. A note shall not be purchased when any installment thereon is past due more than 15 days at the date of purchase except purchases of notes under the provisions of § 201.12.

(e) Prior approval by Commissioner. Any loan which increases the principal amount outstanding as to all Class 1 or Class 2 loans to any individual borrower to an amount in excess of $5,000, exclusive of financing charges, will be accepted for insurance only upon prior approval of the Commissioner.

(f) Security. The taking of security to secure the payment of a loan is left to the discretion of the insured unless specifically required by the Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section or of § 201.2 (d) (2) (iii). An insured may permit the substitution or subordination of security provided it can be shown when claim is made that at the time of such action the original security value was not impaired or reduced as a result of such action. Upon presentation of the facts the prior approval of the Commissioner may be obtained by the insured to any proposed substitution or subordination of security.

(g) Collections. The insured is required to service loans in accordance with acceptable practices of prudent lending institutions. In the event of default, the insured should have adequate facilities for contacting the borrower and otherwise exercise diligence in collecting the amount due. The insured is responsible to the Commissioner for proper collection efforts even though actual collection may be performed by an agent.

(h) When owner must sign note. When a borrower is a lessee of property to be improved, which is used or to be used for other than residential or agricultural purposes, the owner of the property shall join in the execution of the note unless the prior credit approval of the Commissioner is obtained.

§ 201.6 Eligible expenditures—(a) Property location. The property to be improved shall be located within the United States, its Territories, or possessions.

(b) Use of proceeds. The proceeds of a loan shall be used only to finance alterations, repairs, and improvements upon real property or in connection with existing structures which substantially protect or improve the basic livability or utility of the property, and which are commenced in reliance upon the credit facilities afforded by Title I of the act.

(c) Reliance on Credit Application. An insured acting in good faith may, in the absence of information to the contrary, rely upon all statements of fact made by the borrower, which are called for by the borrower's Credit Application, in determining the eligibility of the loan.

(d) Technical services and direct costs. The proceeds of a loan may be used to pay the cost of architectural and engineering services, and fees paid for obtaining building permits that are directly connected with the eligible alterations, repairs, or improvements financed in accordance with the regulations in this part.

(e) Supplementing an uninsured obligation. The proceeds of a loan shall not be used to supplement another obligation of the borrower not reported for insurance, the payment of which is to be secured by a prior lien created in connection with the proposed alterations, repairs, or improvements.

§ 201.7 Eligible improvements—(a) Ineligible items. There is hereby established a "List of Ineligible Items" which includes items, products, alterations, repairs, or improvements, or classes thereof, which the Commissioner has determined not to be eligible for financing with the proceeds of loans reported for insurance under the regulations in this part.

(1) List of ineligible items. No part of the proceeds of a loan made on or after June 10, 1954, shall be used to finance any of the following items:

Barbecue pits.
Bathhouses.
Burglar alarms.
Burglar protection bars.
Door opening and closing devices.
Dumbwaiters.
Fire alarms or fire detecting devices.
Fire extinguishers.
Flower boxes.
Grading and landscaping.
Greenhouses.

Hangars (airplane).
Kennels.
Lawn sprinkling systems.
Outdoor fireplaces or hearths.
Penthouses.
Photo murals.
Radiator covers or enclosures.
Stands.
Steam cleaning of exterior surfaces.
Swimming pools.
Television antennae.
Tennis courts.
Tree surgery.
Valance or cornice boards.
Venetian blinds.

(2) Additional list of ineligible items. No part of the proceeds of a loan made on or after July 6, 1954, shall be used to finance any of the following items:

Patios, unless permanently attached and affixed to an existing structure and covered by a roof.

(b) Other ineligible items. The omission of any item from the "List of Ineligible Items" shall not be construed as rendering such omitted item eligible for financing. All items otherwise ineligible for Title I financing shall remain ineligible for such financing notwithstanding any provision of this section. If an insured has any doubt as to the eligibility of any item, product, alteration, repair or improvement, or class thereof, it should request a specific ruling from the Commissioner before making any loan for the purpose of financing such item, product, alteration, repair or improvement.

(c) Commitments. If an insured has made a legally binding commitment to make a loan for the purpose of financing any item or improvement which was eligible for financing under Title I at the time such commitment was given, such loan will be eligible to be reported for insurance if:

(1) The improvements financed are completed and the proceeds of the loan disbursed within 30 days after the determination by the Commissioner that the item, product, alteration, repair or improvement is no longer to be eligible for Title I financing, and

(2) The insured attaches to the report of any such loan to the Commissioner a certification in the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies that it had made a legally binding commitment to make the loan in this case prior to ---------, 195--.

§ 201.8 Dealer investigation, approval and control—(a) Procedure before disbursement. Before disbursing the proceeds of a loan, the insured shall:

(1) Dealer investigation and approval. Have approved the dealer after such investigation as the insured considers necessary to establish that the dealer is reliable, financially responsible and qualified to perform satisfactorily the work to be financed and to extend proper service to the customer. This approval shall be evidenced by an application signed and dated by the dealer and signed and dated by the insured on forms approved by the Commissioner. The dealer application, the approval by the insured, together with supporting information and a record of the insured's experience with the loans originated by such dealer shall be in the insured's file. For the purpose of this section the term "dealer" means the one who executed the dealer's completion certificate.

(2) Completion certificates. Obtain a completion certificate signed by the borrower and a completion certificate signed by the dealer on forms approved by the Commissioner. An insured shall not disburse the proceeds of a loan, if, as an inducement for the consummation of the transaction, the borrower has been given or promised a cash payment or rebate or it has been represented to the borrower that he will receive a cash bonus or commissions on future sales. In the absence of information to the contrary, the insured may rely upon the dealer's statement in his completion certificate as to such bonus selling. If there are two or more eligible borrowers involved in a transaction, only one signature is required on the borrower's certificate.

(3) Authorization to pay loan proceeds. Obtain written authorization from the borrower, if the insured is the payee of the note and the proceeds are to be disbursed to one other than the borrower.

(4) Description of improvements. Obtain a copy of the contract or sales agreement, signed by the borrower and the dealer, describing the type and extent of improvements to be made and the material to be used. Such contract or sales agreement shall be of a type regularly used by the dealer in his business. The signature appearing on the copy of the contract or sales agreement may be a carbon imprint of the signatures appearing on the original.

(5) Advance notice to applicant. Mail to the borrower or personally deliver to the borrower written notice of approval of the application for credit on a form approved by the Commissioner. Such notice shall be directed to the borrower prior to the disbursement of the loan and in no event less than six calendar days prior to such disbursement. A record of such notice showing the date of mailing or delivery to the borrower shall be in the loan file.

(b) Precautionary measures. If the insured has not approved the dealer, as provided in paragraph (a) (1) of this section or has reason to withdraw such approval, the proceeds of a loan shall not be disbursed until:

(1) The insured has verified all statements contained on the borrower's credit application.

(2) The borrower has signed the borrower's completion certificate in the presence of the insured.

(3) The insured has inspected the work performed in every instance when the amount involved is $500 or more, and in at least one out of every three transactions when the amounts involved are less than $500.

(4) The insured has signed a statement to the effect that the above requirements were complied with prior to releasing the proceeds of any such loans. Such statement must accompany each loan report.

(c) Exceptions. The provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall not apply to loans made directly to the borrower or borrowers where the proceeds are delivered directly to such borrower or borrowers without the intervention or participation of the dealer or other intermediary in any manner in such disbursement.

(d) Ineligible persons. No loan shall be made where the insured has knowledge that any person participating in the transaction as dealer, salesman, broker, borrower, or in any other capacity has been barred from participation in the Title I program pursuant to § 200.13 of this chapter.

§ 201.9 Refinancing—(a) General requirements. New obligations to liquidate loans previously reported for insurance pursuant to Title I of the act and made on and after October 1, 1954, which may or may not include an additional amount advanced will be covered by insurance, if they meet the requirements of all applicable regulations in this part and the special provisions of this section. Loans made prior to October 1, 1954, may be refinanced under the regulations in effect at the time such loans were made but no additional advance shall be made and such refinancing shall not involve a consolidation with a loan or loans made after October 1, 1954.

(b) Maximum maturity. (1) A Class 1 (a) loan or a Class 2 (a) loan may be refinanced for an additional period not in excess of 3 years and 32 days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed 5 years from the date of the original note.

(2) A Class 1 (b) loan may be refinanced for an additional period not in excess of 7 years and 32 days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed 10 years from the date of the original note.

(3) A Class 2 (b) loan may be refinanced for an additional period not in excess of 7 years and 32 days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed 10 years from the date of the original note, except that if a Class 2 (b) loan is secured by a first mortgage, first deed of trust, or other security instrument, constituting a first lien upon the improved property, the new note may have a final maturity not in excess of 15 years and 32 days from the date of the refinancing, but not to exceed 25 years from the date of the original note.

(4) When a Class 1 loan or a Class 2 loan is made or refinanced and consolidated with another Class 1 loan or Class 2 loan, the new note evidencing the consolidated obligation shall not be for a longer term than that which the component loan having the shortest permissible maturity could have if made or refinanced alone.

(c) Rebate. The full unearned charge on the original note shall be refunded to the borrower. If no additional advance is made a handling charge not in excess of $2.00 may be assessed the borrower.

(d) Special cases. The Commissioner may upon presentation of the facts approve the refinancing or refinancing and consolidation of any loan or loans upon such terms and conditions as he may determine within the limits provided by the act.

(e) Deferred payments. An agreement to defer payments on a note previously reported for insurance under the regulations in this part without rewriting the note is not considered refinancing. Such agreement will not affect the insurance coverage on the loan provided that:

(1) Such agreement is evidenced in writing;

(2) Payments shall not be deferred for more than 5 months from the due date of the last fully paid installment;

(3) Such agreement shall not extend the final maturity of the obligation beyond the maturity date of the obligation as provided by its original terms;

(4) The insured may assess the borrower for the cost of such deferment if such charge is not in excess of an equivalent amount of late charges as provided in § 201.2 (e).

§ 201.10 Report of loans. Loans shall be reported on the prescribed form to the Federal Housing Administration at Washington, D. C., within 31 days from the date of the note or date upon which it was purchased. Any loan refinanced as provided in § 201.9 shall likewise be reported on the prescribed form within 31 days from date of refinancing. In any case, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, accept a late report.

§ 201.11 Claims—(a) Claim application. Claim for reimbursement for loss on an eligible loan shall be made on a form provided by the Commissioner, and executed by a duly qualified officer of the insured. The claim shall be accompanied by the insured's complete credit and collection file pertaining to the transaction.

(b) Claim after default. Claim may be made after default provided demand has been made upon the debtor for the full unpaid balance of the note.

(c) Maximum claim period. For the purpose of determining when a claim must be filed under the provisions of this section, any payments received on an account, including payments on a judgment predicated thereon, shall be applied to the earliest unpaid installment, and in the case of:

(1) Yearly installment notes, whenever an installment is 12 months in default, claim must be made within 31 days thereafter;

(2) All other installment notes, whenever an installment is 9 months in default, claim shall be made within 31 days thereafter, but interest is to be allowed only for 6 months and 31 days;

(3) Military service cases, if at any time during default a person primarily or secondarily liable for the repayment of any loan is a "person in military service," as such term is defined in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, the period during which he is in military service shall be excluded in computing the time within which claim must be made for reimbursement under the provisions of this section.

(d) Extension of maximum claim period. Upon presentation to the Commissioner of the facts of a particular case within the allowable claim period prescribed in this section, he may, in his discretion, extend the time within which claim must be made, provided that in computing the claim no interest will be allowed for the period of such extension.

(e) Claim amount. An insured will be reimbursed for its loss on loans made in accordance with the regulations in this part up to the amount of its reserve as established by § 201.12 as follows:

(1) 90 percent of the net unpaid amount of the loan actually made or the actual purchase price of the note, whichever is the lesser;

(2) 90 percent of the uncollected earned interest to date of default and 90 percent of interest from the date of default to the date of the application for reimbursement of loss sustained figured at 4 percent per annum on the outstanding principal balance, but in no event shall the total interest allowed exceed the maximum permissible financing charge on the principal amount outstanding to the date of application for reimbursement.

(3) Uncollected court costs, including fees paid for issuing, serving, and filing summons;

(4) Attorney's fees actually paid not exceeding:

(i) 25 percent of the amount collected by the attorney on the defaulted note provided the insured does not waive its claim against the borrower for such fees;

(ii) $25.00 or 15 percent of the balance due on the note, whichever is the lesser, if a judgment is secured by suit, or $10.00 or 15 percent of the balance due on the note, whichever is the lesser, if a judgment is secured by confession after default; and

(iii) $50.00 plus 5 percent of the balance due on the note as an additional fee where the action is contested and judgment is obtained.

(f) Assignment of documents. The note and any security held or judgment taken must be assigned in its entirety and if any claim has been filed in bankruptcy, insolvency, or probate proceedings, such claim shall likewise be assigned to the United States of America.

(g) Form of assignment. The following form of assignment properly dated shall be used in assigning a note, judgment, real estate mortgage, deed of trust, conditional sales contract, chattel mortgage, mechanic's lien, or any other security device in event of claim:

All right, title, and interest of the undersigned is hereby assigned (without warranty, except that the note qualifies for insurance) to the United States of America.

(Financial Institution)
By ---
Title ---
Date ---

Provided, That if this form is not valid or generally acceptable in the jurisdiction involved, a form which is valid and generally acceptable shall be used.

(h) Election of action. Where a real estate mortgage, deed of trust, conditional sales contract, chattel mortgage, mechanic's lien, or any other security device has been used to secure the payment of a loan made under the provisions of Title I of the act, the insured may not, except with the approval of the Commissioner, both proceed against such security and also make claim under its contract of insurance, but shall elect which method it desires to pursue.

§ 201.12 Insurance Reserve—(a) Legal limit. Subject to the limitation on the Commissioner's authority to insure as stipulated in section 2 of Title I of the act, the Commissioner, pursuant to the provisions of § 201.11, will reimburse any insured for losses sustained by it in accordance with the general insurance reserve provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) General insurance reserve. There shall be maintained for each insured a general insurance reserve which shall equal 10 percent of the aggregate amount advanced on all eligible loans originated by such insured pursuant to the provisions of the regulations in this part on and after March 1, 1950, and prior to July 1, 1955, less the amount of all claims approved for payment by the Commissioner in connection with such loans and less the amount of the adjustment or adjustments, if any, made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Adjustment of general reserve. The amount of the general insurance reserve to the credit of each insured shall be adjusted on July 1 of each year by deducting therefrom an amount equivalent to one-fifth of the amount of such insurance reserve on the records of the Commissioner as of the date of such adjustment: Provided, That no such adjustment shall reduce the insurance reserve of any insured to an amount less than $5,000: And provided further, That no such adjustment shall be made in the insurance reserve of any financial institution until the first day of July next following the expiration of a period of 30 months after the issuance of a contract of insurance to such institution by the Commissioner, and no such adjustment shall be made in the insurance reserve of any financial institution after the termination of the contract of insurance issued to such institution by the Commissioner, or after the termination of the Commissioner's authority to insure against losses pursuant to the National Housing Act.

(d) Transfer of loans reported for insurance. The insured shall not assign or otherwise transfer any loan reported for insurance to a transferee not holding a contract of insurance under Title I of the National Housing Act: Provided, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the pledging of such loans as collateral security under a trust agreement, or otherwise, in connection with a bona fide loan transaction.

(e) Transfer of insurance reserve. Insurance reserve of more than $5,000 shall not be transferred to or from the reserve account of any insured during any fiscal year (July 1 through June 30) without the prior approval of the Commissioner. Except in cases involving the transfer of loans sold with recourse or under a guaranty, guarantee or re-purchase agreement, the reports required by § 201.10 shall be submitted, indicating the intent of the parties with respect to the transfer of the insurance reserve; and, unless the approval of the Commissioner is obtained, the insurance reserve shall be transferred as follows:

(1) In cases involving the transfer of notes purchased without recourse, guaranty, guarantee, or repurchase agreement, provided no installment payment is past due more than one calendar month at the time of purchase, reserve shall be transferred to the reserve of the purchasing institution, on the basis of 10 percent of the actual purchase price or net unpaid original advance, whichever is the lesser.

(2) In cases involving the transfer of notes purchased without recourse, guaranty, guarantee, or repurchase agreement, where one or more installment payments are past due more than one calendar month at the time of purchase, the loans and reserves shall be transferred on an earmarked basis. In the case of earmarked transfers all reserves accrued by reason of the loans transferred shall be transferred, but such reserves shall be available only for payment of claims on the loans transferred, and claims on such loans can be paid only up to the amount of such earmarked reserves.

(3) In cases involving the transfer of notes sold with recourse or under a guaranty, guarantee, or repurchase agreement, no insurance reserve will be transferred and no reports will be required.

(f) FHA recovery shall not affect reserve. Amounts which may be salvaged by the Commissioner with respect to a loan in connection with which an insured has been reimbursed under its contract of insurance shall not be added to the insurance reserve remaining to the credit of such insured.

§ 201.13 Insurance charge—(a) Rate. The insured shall pay to the Commissioner an insurance charge equal to sixty-five one-hundredths (0.65) of 1 percent per annum of the net proceeds of any eligible loan reported and acknowledged for insurance: Provided, That in the case of a Class 1 (b) loan in excess of $2500, exclusive of financing charges, and in the case of a Class 2 (b) loan having a maturity in excess of 7 years, such insurance charge shall be forty-five one-hundredths (0.45) of 1 percent per annum. In computing the insurance charge, no charge shall be made for the fractional period of a month of 15 days or less, and a charge for a full month shall be made for the fractional period of a month of more than 15 days.

(b) When payable. Such insurance charge for the entire term of the loan shall be paid within 25 days after the date the Commissioner acknowledges receipt to the insured institution of the report of loan: Provided, That on loans having a maturity in excess of 3 years and 32 days, such charge may be paid in installments, the first of which shall be equal to the charge for 3 years and be paid within said 25 days, and the second and succeeding installments, each equal to the charge for 1 year, shall be paid on the first and each succeeding anniversary of the first day of the month following the date of the note.

(c) Notes transferred. Any adjustments of the insurance charge already paid on any obligation transferred between insureds shall be made by the insureds, except that any unpaid installments of the insurance charge shall be paid by the purchasing insured.

(d) Refund or abatement. There shall be no refund or abatement of any portion or installment of the insurance charge except:

(1) The charge on a refinanced note may be credited with the unearned portion of the charge on the original note;

(2) Insurance charges falling due after claim is filed or the note is prepaid in full;

(3) The charge paid on a loan or portion thereof found to be ineligible.

(e) When not chargeable to borrower. The insurance charge paid by the insured shall not be charged to the borrower if such charge would cause the total payments made by the borrower to exceed the maximum permissible amount which may be charged to the borrower for interest, discount, and all other charges in connection with the transaction.

§ 201.14 Administrative reports and examination. The Commissioner, or his authorized representative, may at any time call upon an insured for such reports as he may deem to be necessary in connection with the regulations in this part, or may inspect the books or accounts of the insured as they pertain to the loans reported for insurance.

§ 201.15 Amendments. The regulations in this part may be amended by the Commissioner at any time, but such amendment shall not adversely affect the insurance privileges of an insured with respect to any loan previously made.

§ 201.16 Effective date. The regulations in this part are effective as to all loans made on and after October 1, 1954, except that § 201.11 (c) (2) and § 201.11 (e) (4) shall be effective as to all claims paid on and after October 1, 1954, and § 201.12 (c) shall be effective as to all adjustments made after October 1, 1954.

Issued at Washington, D. C., September 17, 1954.

NORMAN P. MASON,
Federal Housing Commissioner.

Subchapter B—Trade Practice Conference Rules

[File No. 21-170]

PART 27—SOUTHERN MIXED FEED MANUFACTURERS

RECISSION OF PART

Whereas, the Commission on July 29, 1931, promulgated trade practice rules for Southern Mixed Feed Manufacturers which were codified in the Code of Federal Regulations (16 CFR Part 27); and

Whereas, it appears that the rules for this industry are general in form and in some respects obsolete, and that the group for which the rules were promulgated is no longer active as an organized segment of the nation-wide mixed feed manufacturing industry; and

Whereas, under the circumstances proceedings for revision of the rules for this industry do not appear to be essential to the public interest:

It is ordered, That the said rules be and the same are hereby rescinded.

Issued: September 16, 1954.

Sections 571.2 (c) (1) and 571.3 (a) (3) (iii) are rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

§ 571.2 Qualifications for enlistment.

(c) Educational requirements for women—(1) Nonprior service. Women with prior military service (including those whose only service has been in the WAAC) must possess a certificate of graduation from high school or must present substantiating data that they have successfully completed the high school level General Educational Development (GED) test. Recruiting personnel will not administer this test but will advise applicants to communicate with the appropriate State Department of Education for information concerning the GED test.

* * * * *

§ 571.3 Periods and grades—(a) Periods of enlistment. * * *

(3) * * *

(iii) Individuals discharged as a result of resignation from an enlistment for an unspecified period, prior to completion of at least six years of such enlistment, will not be reenlisted at a later date in the grade held at time of discharge. Reenlistment grade and date of rank for such persons will be determined under pertinent special regulations. An individual who has completed at least six years in an unspecified period enlistment, and who is separated by reason of unconditional resignation, is eligible to reenlist in the Regular Army within 3 months from date of separation in the permanent and temporary grade held at time of separation, provided otherwise qualified.

PART 154—WAIVERS OF NAVIGATION AND VESSEL INSPECTION LAWS AND REGULATIONS [1]

EIGHT-HOUR DAY ON GREAT LAKES' TUGS

The purpose of this order is to cancel, effective December 1, 1954, the general waiver designated 46 CFR 154.19, as well as 33 CFR 19.19, regarding eight-hour day for working hours of officers and crews on tugs navigating the Great Lakes or tributary waters. It has been determined upon investigation that this general waiver of section 2 of the act of March 4, 1915, as amended (46 U. S. C. 673), is no longer necessary in the interests of national defense. It is hereby found that compliance with the notice of proposed rule making and public rule making procedure thereon provided in the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by an order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated January 23, 1951, identified as CGFR 51-1 and pub-

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Docket No. 3666; Order 15]

PARTS 71-78—EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

SPECIFICATION CONTAINERS PRESCRIBED

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of June 1954.

It appearing, that pursuant to the Transportation of Explosives Act of March 4, 1921 (41 Stat. 1444), sections 831-835 of Title 18 of the United States Code approved June 25, 1948, and Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, the Commission has heretofore formulated and published certain regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles.

It further appearing, that due to reorganization of certain bureaus of the Commission, it is deemed necessary to amend the aforesaid regulations.

It is ordered, That the aforesaid regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles be, and they are hereby, amended as follows:

Amend § 73.22 (a) (1) (15 F. R. 8276, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.22, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.22 Specification containers prescribed. (a) • • •

(1) Because of the present emergency and until further order of the Commission, containers approved for emergency or experimental shipments may be authorized in the discretion of, and upon special permit to be issued by the Director or Acting Director, Bureau of Safety and Service, Washington, D. C.

• • • • •

It is further ordered, That the foregoing amendments to the aforesaid regulations shall have full force and effect on June 1, 1954, and that such regulations as herein amended shall thereafter be observed until further order of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That compliance with the aforesaid regulations as herein amended is hereby authorized on and after the date of service of this order.

And it is further ordered, That copies of this order be served upon all parties of record herein, and that notice shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of Federal Register.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Food and Drug Administration

[21 CFR Part 19]

CHEESES; PROCESSED CHEESES; CHEESE FOODS; CHEESE SPREADS; AND RELATED FOODS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

NOTICE OF PROPOSALS TO AMEND DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

In the matter of amending the definitions and standards of identity for cheeses, processed cheeses, cheese foods, cheese spreads, and related foods as hereinafter specified:

Notice is hereby given that petitions have been filed by United Cheese Company, Inc., Chicago, Illinois, and by Swift and Company, Chicago, Illinois, setting forth proposals to amend specified sections of the definitions and standards of identity for cheeses, processed cheeses, cheese foods, cheese spreads, and related foods. Pursuant to the authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046, 21 U. S. C. 341, as amended by 68 Stat. 54), the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare invites all interested persons to present their views in writing regarding the proposals published herein and to submit such comments in quintuplicate prior to the thirtieth day following the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Written comments should be addressed to the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, Washington 25, D. C.

The proposal submitted by United Cheese Company, Inc., is as follows:

Sorbic acid shall be permitted as an optional ingredient, in an amount not to exceed 0.2 percent of the food by weight, in each of the following foods:

§ 19.500 Cheddar cheese, cheese.
§ 19.502 Cheddar cheese for manufacturing.
§ 19.505 Washed curd cheese, soaked curd cheese.
§ 19.507 Washed curd cheese for manufacturing.
§ 19.510 Colby cheese.
§ 19.512 Colby cheese for manufacturing.
§ 19.535 Granular cheese, stirred curd cheese.
§ 19.537 Granular cheese for manufacturing.
§ 19.540 Swiss cheese, emmentaler cheese.
§ 19.542 Swiss cheese for manufacturing.
§ 19.548 Gruyere cheese.
§ 19.545 Brick cheese.
§ 19.547 Brick cheese for manufacturing.
§ 19.550 Muenster cheese, munster cheese.
§ 19.580 Monterey cheese.
§ 19.585 High-moisture jack cheese.
§ 19.590 Provolone cheese, pasta filata cheese.
§ 19.591 Caciocavallo siciliano cheese.
§ 19.615 Asiago fresh cheese, asiago soft cheese.
§ 19.655 Semisoft cheeses.
§ 19.660 Semisoft part-skim cheeses.
§ 19.750 Pasteurized process cheese.
§ 19.751 Pasteurized blended cheese.
§ 19.755 Pasteurized process cheese with fruits, vegetables, or meats.
§ 19.760 Pasteurized process pimento cheese.
§ 19.763 Pasteurized blended cheese with fruits, vegetables, or meats.
§ 19.765 Pasteurized process cheese food.
§ 19.770 Pasteurized process cheese food with fruits, vegetables, or meats.
§ 19.775 Pasteurized process cheese spread.

When sorbic acid is present in the food, the label shall bear the statement, "Sorbic acid added to retard spoilage" or "Sorbic acid added as a preservative." Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement above specified, showing the presence of the optional ingredient sorbic acid, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written printed, or graphic matter.

The proposal submitted by Swift and Company is as follows:

1. Amend § 19.750 Pasteurized process cheese • • • as follows:

a. The last sentence of paragraph (a) (1) is amended to read as follows: "One or more of the optional ingredients designated in paragraph (d) (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), and (7) of this section may be used."

b. Paragraph (d) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subparagraph:

(7) Sodium propionate, calcium propionate, or a combination of sodium propionate and calcium propionate, in a quantity not in excess of 0.3 percent by weight of the pasteurized process cheese.

2. In § 19.765 Pasteurized process cheese food • • • paragraph (c) is amended by adding thereto the following subparagraph:

(7) Sodium propionate, calcium propionate, or a combination of sodium propionate and calcium propionate, in a quantity not in excess of 0.3 percent by weight of the pasteurized process cheese food.

3. In § 19.785 Cold-pack cheese, club cheese, comminuted cheese • • • paragraph (c) is amended by adding thereto the following subparagraph:

(6) Sodium propionate, calcium propionate, or a combination of sodium propionate and calcium propionate, in a quantity not in excess of 0.3 percent by weight of the finished cold-pack cheese.

4. In § 19.787 Cold-pack cheese food • • • paragraph (e) is amended by adding the following subparagraph:

(7) Sodium propionate, calcium propionate, or a combination of sodium propionate and calcium propionate, in a quantity not in excess of 0.3 percent by weight of the finished cold-pack cheese food.

The foregoing proposals would change the standards cited in the following respects:

They would permit the addition of sodium propionate, calcium propionate, or a combination of sodium propionate and calcium propionate, in a quantity not in excess of 0.3 percent by weight of the finished food in:

§ 19.750 Pasteurized process cheese.
§ 19.751 Pasteurized blended cheese.
§ 19.755 Pasteurized process cheese with fruits, vegetables, or meats.
§ 19.760 Pasteurized process pimento cheese.
§ 19.763 Pasteurized blended cheese with fruits, vegetables, or meats.
§ 19.765 Pasteurized process cheese food.
§ 19.770 Pasteurized process cheese food with fruits, vegetables, or meats.
§ 19.785 Cold-pack cheese, club cheese, comminuted cheese.
§ 19.787 Cold-pack cheese food.
§ 19.788 Cold-pack cheese food with fruits, vegetables, or meats.

Dated: September 15, 1954.

[P. & S. Docket No. 308]

MARKET AGENCIES AT SIOUX CITY STOCK YARDS, SIOUX CITY, IOWA

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF RATE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), an order was issued on June 26, 1953 (12 A. D. 768), authorizing the respondents to modify temporarily their schedule of rates and charges in certain respects and to assess the modified schedule to and including June 30, 1955, unless changed by further order before the latter date.

By petition filed on September 9, 1954, respondents have requested authority to modify the current schedule of rates and charges in certain respects and to continue assessing the current schedule as so modified to and including June 30, 1956. The modifications requested are as follows:

SECTION A

	Present rate per head	Proposed rate per head
Cattle:
Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	$1.40	$1.50
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 5 head in each consignment	1.15	1.20
Next 10 head in each consignment	1.10	1.15
• • •	•	•

SECTION C

Sheep:
Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	$0.50	$0.60
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 10 head in each 225 head in each consignment	.38	.40
Next 20 head in each 225 head in each consignment	.31	.33
Next 30 head in each 225 head in each consignment	.25	.27
Next 40 head in each 225 head in each consignment	.16	.18
Next 125 head in each 225 head in each consignment	.10	.12

The proposed rates and charges, if authorized, will produce additional revenue for the respondent market agencies and increase the cost of marketing livestock. It appears, therefore, that this public notice of the filing of the petition and its contents should be given in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

All interested persons who desire to be heard in the matter shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of September, 1954.

BEURRE D'ANJOU, BEURRE BOSC, WINTER NELIS, DOYENNE DU COMICE, BEURRE EASTER, AND BEURRE CLAIRGEAU PEARS GROWN IN OREGON, WASHINGTON, AND CALIFORNIA

EXPENSES AND THE FIXING OF RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1954-55 FISCAL PERIOD

Consideration is being given to the following proposals which were submitted by the Control Committee, established under the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 39, as amended (7 CFR Part 939), regulating the handling of Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in Oregon, Washington and California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), as the agency to administer the terms and provisions thereof:

(a) That the Secretary of Agriculture find that expenses not to exceed $23,165.00 are likely to be incurred by said committee during the fiscal period beginning July 1, 1954, and ending June 30, 1955, both dates inclusive, for its maintenance and functioning under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order; and

(b) That the Secretary of Agriculture fix, as the pro rata share of such expenses which each handler shall pay in accordance with the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order during the aforesaid fiscal period, the rate of assessment at seven mills ($0.007) per standard western pear box of pears or its equivalent of pears in other containers or in bulk, shipped by such handler during said fiscal period.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the aforesaid proposals may do so by mailing the same to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, Room 2077, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the 10th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order.

RULES AND REGULATIONS UNDER FLAMMABLE FABRICS ACT

REASONABLE AND REPRESENTATIVE TESTS OF CERTAIN TEXTILE FABRICS

Notice is hereby given all interested parties that the Federal Trade Commission will on the 7th day of October 1954, at its offices in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, give consideration to an amendment of Rule 7 (a) (2) of the regulations under the Flammable Fabrics Act.

Interested parties may participate by submitting in writing to the Commission on or before such date, their views, arguments or other pertinent data.

Such action is taken pursuant to the authority given the Federal Trade Commission under section 5 (c) of the Flammable Fabrics Act (Pub. Law 88, 83d Cong., Ch. 164, 1st Sess., 67 Stat. 111) "to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for purposes of administration and enforcement of this Act."

The matters to be considered are an amendment of § 302.7 (a) (2) (i) (Rule 7 (a) (2) (i)) which would hereafter read:

(i) When, on the initial test of any plain surface textile fabric weighing less than two ounces per square yard, such fabric exhibits a burning time of between 3½ and 6 seconds, both inclusive, such test may suffice for any fabric of the same fiber composition, construction and finish type. This class of fabric shall be tested at intervals of not more than three months thereafter while in production.

and the addition of a new subdivision (iv) to § 302.7 (a) (2) (Rule 7 (a) (2)) to read:

(iv) When, on the initial test of any plain surface textile fabric weighing less than two ounces per square yard, such fabric ignites but the flame is extinguished before the stop card is burned, such test may suffice for any fabric of the same fiber composition, construction and finish type. This class of fabric shall be tested at least once at intervals of not more than one year thereafter while in production.

Issued: September 17, 1954.

Office of the Secretary

JACOB RABINOW

GRANT OF LICENSE UNDER FOREIGN PATENT

Under the authority of Executive Order 9865, as amended by Executive Order 10096, and pursuant to delegation of authority from the Chairman, Government Patents Board, contained in § 302.5 (a) of Administrative Order Number 7 of June 24, 1954 (19 F. R. 3938), I determine and proclaim it to be inconsistent with the public interest to issue, on a non-exclusive basis, a license under United Kingdom Patent No. 649553. After careful consideration, I have found that the grant of an exclusive royalty-free license to one Jacob Rabinow, under the said United Kingdom Patent No. 649553, would be consistent with the public interest. This determination is made after careful consideration upon the basis of the offer of several reciprocal commitments by Rabinow, including an offer to grant licenses to the United States Government under a substantial number of existing patents and future patents to be obtained on improvements, and a finding that grant of an exclusive license to Rabinow may support defense production.

I therefore have designated and authorized John Cawley Green, an official of the Department of Commerce, to execute an exclusive royalty-free license to said Rabinow under terms and conditions deemed appropriate in pursuance of this determination.

Bureau of Land Management

OIL AND GAS LEASE OFFER

OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF OFF TEXAS

SEPTEMBER 17, 1954.

Pursuant to section 8 of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462) and the regulations issued thereunder (43 CFR Part 201), sealed bids addressed to the Director, Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C., will be received on or before November 9, 1954, at 11 a. m., e. s. t., for the lease of oil and gas in certain areas of the outer Continental Shelf, Gulf of Mexico, adjacent to the State of Texas. Bids will be opened in the Office of the Director. Bids received by mail or delivered in person after the above specified time will not be considered.

All bids must be submitted in accordance with applicable regulations, particularly 43 CFR 201.20, 201.21, and 201.22. Bidders are warned against violation of section 1860, Title 18, U. S. Code, prohibiting unlawful combination or intimidation of bidders. Bidders must submit with each bid one-fifth of the amount bid in cash or by cashier's check, bank draft, certified check, or money order payable to the order of the Bureau of Land Management. The leases will provide for a royalty rate of one-sixth, and a rental or minimum royalty of $3 per acre or fraction thereof.

Bids will be considered on the basis of the highest cash bonus offered for a tract but no total bid amounting to less than $15 per acre will be considered. Oil payment, overriding royalty logarithmic or sliding scale bids will not be considered. No bid for less than a full tract, as listed below, will be considered. The tract numbers shown are assigned only for the purposes of this sale and are not the same as block numbers designated on the official leasing map. A separate bid, in a separate sealed envelope, must be submitted for each tract. The envelope should be endorsed "Sealed bid for oil and gas lease, Texas (insert number of tract), not to be opened until 11 a. m., e. s. t., November 9, 1954." The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. The tracts offered for bid are as follows:

NOTICE FOR FILING OBJECTIONS TO ORDER WITHDRAWING PUBLIC LANDS AS MATERIAL SITE AND FOR TIMBER ACCESS ROAD [1]

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of the above entitled order, persons having cause to object to the terms thereof may present their objections to the Secretary of the Interior. Such objections should be in writing, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and should be filed in duplicate in the Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C. In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where the proponents of the order can explain its purpose, intent, and extent. Should any objection be filed, whether or not a hearing is held, notice of the determination by the Secretary as to whether the order should be rescinded, modified or let stand will be given to all interested parties of record and the general public.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-2583]

SOUTHERN PRODUCTION CO., INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

SEPTEMBER 15, 1954.

Take notice that Southern Production Company, Inc. (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal office in Fort Worth, Texas, filed, on August 27, 1954 (under protest), an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's order issued August 6, 1954 (No. 174-A), authorizing Applicant to sell natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in its application.

The application recites that Applicant produces gas from the (1) Logansport Field and Joaquin Field, De Soto Parish, Louisiana, and Shelby County, Texas, (2) Duck Lake Field and Lake Sand Field in Iberia, St. Martin and St. Mary Parishes, Louisiana, (3) Carthage Field, Pamola County, Texas, (4) Akron Field in Washington, and Yuma Counties, Colorado, (5) Gibson Field in Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana, (6) Baxterville Field in Marion, and Lamar Counties, Mississippi, (7) Soso Field in Jones County, Mississippi, (8) Otstot Field in Kay County, Oklahoma, (9) Barnhart Field in Reagan County; Kelly-Snyder Field (Sacroc Unit) in Scurry County; North Lansing Field in Harrison County; Panhandle Field in Hutchinson County; Rudman Field in Bee County; Waskom Field in Harrison County; and Willow Springs Field in Gregg County; all in Texas.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 6th day of October 1954. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Order No. E-8632]

PAN AMERICAN WORLD AIRWAYS, INC. ET AL.

IATA CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE FOR PASSENGERS AND CARGO; MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 16th day of September 1954.

In the matter of certain resolutions adopted at the Traffic Conference Meetings of the International Air Transport Association (I. A. T. A.) at Honolulu between Pan American World Airways, Inc. various air carriers, foreign carriers, and other carriers relating to conditions of carriage and related traffic regulations. Agreement C. A. B. No. 7648 R-18, 81, 82 and 107; Agreement C. A. B. No. 2698 R-23 et al. (Order No. E-3230).

Order No. E-8543, issued August 5, 1954, among other matters, made a tentative finding that approval of Article 18 (5) of the Conditions of Carriage—Passengers and Baggage and continued approval of Article 4 (d) of Conditions of Contract—Passenger Ticket would be adverse to the public interest in that the limitations of liability for loss or damage to baggage was unreasonably low and that the minimum should be raised at least to the levels set forth in the Warsaw Convention. It now appears that there is in effect a resolution, Baggage Excess Value Charge (120/312, 240/312, 330/312, and JT 123(2)/312)[1] by which the carriers in effect agree to impose the same limitations as the Conditions of Carriage—Passengers and Baggage and Conditions of Contract—Passenger Ticket. Continued approval of Resolution 312, insofar as it applies to air transportation as defined in the act, would similarly appear to be adverse to the public interest and in violation of the act.

It further appears that Paragraph E-3 of the Appendix to Order No. E-8543 contains a typographical error in that it refers to Article 19 (4) and (5) of Conditions of Carriage—Passengers and Baggage, rather than Article 18 (4) and (5), the correct reference.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That:

1. Order No. E-8543 be amended:

(a) By changing "19 (4) and (5)" in Paragraph E of the Appendix to "18 (4) and (5)."

(b) By adding Paragraph H to the Appendix to read as follows:

H. Baggage Excess Value Charge (120/312, 240/312, 330/312, JT 123 (2)/312 as previously approved by Orders Nos. E-2452, E-2453, E-2454 and E-2455). Insofar as the provisions of this resolution apply in air transportation, continued approval thereof appears to be adverse to the public interest and in violation of the Act for the reasons stated with respect to Article 18 (5) of Conditions of Carriage — Passengers and Baggage.

(c) By changing "and F-3" in numbered Paragraph 2 of the tentative conclusions to "F-3 and H."

2. Copies of this order be served on all air carrier parties to this agreement.

3. This order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 811-417]

AMERICAN ANNUITY SAVINGS ASSOCIATION

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER DECLARING THAT COMPANY HAS CEASED TO BE INVESTMENT COMPANY

SEPTEMBER 14, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that American Annuity Savings Association ("American Annuity"), East Lansing, Michigan, a Michigan corporation and a registered face-amount certificate company, has filed an application pursuant to section 8 (f) of the act for an order declaring that American Annuity has ceased to be an investment company under the act.

American Annuity had outstanding $1,600,000 of face-amount certificates in or about May, 1954, but the company had not sold any such securities since 1943. In order to accomplish, in effect, a change of its business to that of a life insurance company, American Annuity adopted a program providing for a successor, American Annuity Life Insurance Company ("New Company"), a Michigan corporation which has since been authorized to do a life insurance business in Michigan, and which the Commission, by its order dated June 2, 1954 (Investment Company Act Release No. 1984), has exempted from the provisions of section 7 (a) of the act, subject to certain conditions.

The application states that, pursuant to the program for effecting the transition to the business of a life insurance company, the following transactions have been consummated: (1) American Annuity has transferred all its assets to New Company in exchange for the capital stock of New Company; (2) in connection with such transfer of assets, New Company has assumed all the liabilities of American Annuity including the liabilities and obligations on the face-amount certificates, and New Company has been substituted for American Annuity as a party to the agreement providing for deposit of assets with American State Savings Bank, Lansing, Michigan, in accordance with sections 28 (a) and (b) of the act; (3) the capital stock of New Company has been distributed pro-rata to the stockholders of American Annuity in exchange for the capital stock of American Annuity; and (4) the capital stock of American Annuity has been cancelled and American Annuity has been dissolved. The application also states that the foregoing program, including the transfer of assets of American Annuity and its dissolution, was approved at special meetings of the stockholders of American Annuity held on November 25, 1953 and June 12, 1954, and that American Annuity has ceased to do business of any kind.

Section 8 (f) of the act provides, in part, that whenever the Commission on application finds that a registered investment company has ceased to be an investment company, it shall so declare by order and upon the taking effect of such order the registration of such company shall cease to be in effect.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 29, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

ONEIDA LTD.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION FROM PROVISIONS OF ACT

SEPTEMBER 15, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Oneida Ltd. ("Oneida") has filed with this Commission an application under section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") for exemption from the provisions of the act.

All interested persons are referred to the application on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the basis for the request for exemption, which is summarized below.

Oneida, a New York corporation engaged in the manufacture and sale of silver plate, sterling and stainless steel tableware, and certain defense products, contemplates the acquisition of all of the common stock (326 shares of $100 par value each) of The Sherrill-Kenwood Power & Light Company ("Sherrill-Kenwood"), a New York corporation organized in June 1953 to acquire the property and assets of The Kenwood Electric Light Company ("Kenwood"), a proprietorship engaged in furnishing electric service in the City of Sherrill and in parts of the City of Oneida and the Town of Vernon, contiguous communities in the State of New York in the area surrounding Oneida's manufacturing plant. Upon consummation of the contemplated transactions Sherrill-Kenwood will be an electric utility company as defined in section 2 (a) (3) of the act, and Oneida will be a holding company as defined in section 2 (a) (7) of the act.

It is stated that Oneida purchases large quantities of electric energy from Niagara Mohawk Power Company for use in its manufacturing plants and that the reason for the proposed acquisition of the common stock of Sherrill-Kenwood by Oneida is to insure the continuance of an arrangement under which Oneida, in order to procure its electric energy requirements more economically, purchases electric energy in excess of its own requirements and sells the surplus to Kenwood for resale to residential customers in the area surrounding the plant of Oneida.

The application states that the net income to Oneida from charges to Kenwood when added to the net income of Kenwood, which would eventually be available to Oneida as dividends from Sherrill-Kenwood, amounts to less than 0.75 percent of Oneida's net income in any of the past five calendar years.

The New York Public Service Commission has authorized the acquisition by Sherrill-Kenwood of the property and assets of Kenwood and the issuance by Sherrill-Kenwood to, and the acquisition by Oneida of, not to exceed 326 shares of $100 par value common stock.

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than September 30, 1954, file in writing a request that a hearing be held in respect of the above matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission orders a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the Commission may grant the application, as filed or as amended, or the Commission may take such other action, including the granting of an exemption under section 3 (a) (1) of the act, in respect of the application as is deemed appropriate.

By the Commission.

ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

STANDARD GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND PHILADELPHIA CO.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER DENYING MOTIONS OF CERTAIN FEE APPLICANTS AND POSTPONING HEARING

SEPTEMBER 15, 1954.

In the matter of Standard Gas and Electric Company, File No. 54-72; Standard Gas and Electric Company and Philadelphia Company, File Nos. 54-191, 54-199; Philadelphia Company and Standard Gas and Electric Company, File No. 54-173.

The law firms of Guggenheimer & Untermyer of New York, New York, Guggenheimer, Untermyer, Goodrich & Amram of Washington, D. C., and Connolly, Cooch & Bove of Wilmington, Delaware (hereinafter referred to, collectively, as "Guggenheimer & Untermyer"), having heretofore filed a joint application for an allowance of fees and expenses in connection with services rendered in the above-entitled proceedings filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") by Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard Gas") and its subsidiary, Philadelphia Company ("Philadelphia"), both registered holding companies, to enable Standard Gas and Philadelphia to effectuate compliance with section 11 (b) of the act;

Standard Gas having filed on May 5, 1954, a motion requesting that the Commission require separate statements and evaluations of services by Guggenheimer & Untermyer as a supplement to the aforesaid joint application and Guggenheimer & Untermyer on May 27, 1954, having filed their answer to the aforesaid motion by Standard Gas and a cross-motion requesting that the Commission require the filing by Standard Gas of a detailed responsive pleading and for other relief;

By order dated September 3, 1954 (Holding Company Act Release No. 12643) the Commission having granted, in part, the cross-motion filed by Guggenheimer & Untermyer and having ordered that oral argument be held in connection with the aforesaid motion and cross-motion;

Pursuant to due notice the Commission having heard oral argument of counsel on behalf of Standard Gas and counsel for Guggenheimer & Untermyer;

The Commission by order dated May 14, 1954 (Holding Company Act Release No. 12496) having directed, among other things, that a hearing be held on the aforesaid application of Guggenheimer & Untermyer and having by subsequent order postponed the hearing to October 13, 1954, and having been requested to further postpone said hearing to November 15, 1954;

The Commission having considered the aforesaid motion by Standard Gas, the answer thereto, the cross-motion by Guggenheimer & Untermyer, and the briefs and oral arguments in support thereof and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors that the following action be taken in connection with the aforesaid motions:

Notice is hereby given and it is ordered:

1. That the aforesaid motion of Standard Gas filed on May 5, 1954, and the cross-motion filed by Guggenheimer & Untermyer on May 27, 1954, be, and the same hereby are, denied in all respects except insofar as the Commission has heretofore granted, in part, the said cross-motion of Guggenheimer & Untermyer by its aforesaid order dated September 3, 1954.

2. That the hearing in respect of the application for allowances of fees and expenses filed by Guggenheimer & Untermyer heretofore scheduled for October 13, 1954, be, and the same hereby is, postponed to November 15, 1954, at 10 a. m. at the office of the Commission, 425 Second Street, Washington, D. C. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 193 will advise as to the room in which the hearing will be held.

3. That the hearing officer heretofore designated to preside at the hearing scheduled to be held on October 13, 1954, shall preside at such postponed hearing.

4. That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve a copy of this notice and order by registered mail on Standard Power and Light Corporation, Standard Gas and Electric Company, Philadelphia Company, Guggenheimer & Untermyer, Guggenheimer, Untermyer, Goodrich & Amram, and Connolly, Cooch & Bove; and that notice of the entry of this notice and order shall be given to all other persons by general release of the Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list of releases under the act and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 19 NUMBER 184

Washington, Wednesday, September 22, 1954

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10562

AMENDING THE SELECTIVE SERVICE REGULATIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Title I of the Universal Military Training and Service Act (62 Stat. 604), as amended, I hereby prescribe the following amendments of the Selective Service Regulations prescribed by Executive Order No. 10292 of September 25, 1951, and constituting a portion of Chapter XVI of Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations:

1. Subparagraphs (3) and (4) of paragraph (b) of § 1622.25 of Part 1622, Classification Rules and Principles, are amended to read as follows:

(3) (i) The registrant has been accepted after July 1, 1951, for admission by a graduate school to a class commencing before January 1, 1955, and which is the first such class commencing after the date of his acceptance, for a full-time course of instruction as a candidate for a graduate degree and, if such class has commenced, has entered upon such course before January 1, 1955, and (ii) the registrant in his last full-time undergraduate academic year at a college, university, or similar institution of learning achieved a scholastic standing on that year's work which ranked him for that year within the upper one-half of the full-time male students in his class or has attained a score of 75 or more on the qualification test prescribed by the Director of Selective Service pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, and (iii) the graduate school at which the registrant is in attendance has certified that he currently is meeting degree requirements and is expected to attain his degree.

(4) (i) The registrant has been accepted after July 1, 1951, for admission by a professional school of medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, osteopathy, optometry, pharmacy, chiropractic, or chiropody to the first class commencing after the date he completed the requirements for admission and, if such class has commenced, has entered such school, and (ii) the registrant in his last full-time academic year at a college, university, or similar institution of learning prior to his entrance into such professional school achieved a scholastic standing on that year's work which ranked him for that year within the upper one-half of the full-time male students in his class or has attained a score of 70 or more on the qualification test referred to in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, and (iii) the school at which the registrant is in attendance has certified that he is satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction leading to his graduation.

2. Paragraph (b) of § 1622.25 of Part 1622 is further amended by redesignating subparagraphs (5), (6), (7), and (8) as subparagraphs (6), (7), (8), and (9), respectively, and by adding a new subparagraph (5) reading as follows:

(5) (i) The registrant has been accepted for admission by a graduate school to a class commencing on or after January 1, 1955, and which is the first such class commencing after the date he has completed the requirements for admission, for a full-time course of instruction as a candidate for a graduate degree and, if such class has commenced, has entered upon such course, and (ii) the registrant in his last full-time undergraduate academic year at a college, university, or similar institution of learning achieved a scholastic standing on that year's work which ranked him for that year within the upper one-fourth of the full-time male students in his class or has attained a score of 80 or more on the qualification test referred to in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, and (iii) the graduate school at which the registrant is in attendance has certified that he currently is meeting degree requirements and is expected to attain his degree.

Subchapter A—General Regulations and Policies

PART 501—STATEMENT OF POLICY REGARDING DISPOSAL OF COMMODITIES UNDER SECTION 416 OF THE AGRICULTURAL ACT OF 1949, AS AMENDED, (THIRD REVISION)

The regulations (18 F. R. 4871) for the disposal of commodities under section 416 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, Public Law 439, 81st Congress, as amended by the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, Public Law 480, 83d Congress, are hereby revised and reissued to read as follows:

Sec.
501.101 General purpose and scope.
501.102 Administration.
501.103 Domestic donations.
501.104 Foreign donations.
501.105 General conditions.
501.106 Disqualification clause.
501.107 Saving clause.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.101 to 501.107 issued under sec. 416, 63 Stat. 1058 as amended, sec. 302, Pub. Law 480, 83d Cong., 7 U. S. C. 1431.

§ 501.101 General purpose and scope. (a) This part announces the policies with respect to disposals under section 416, as amended, of commodities acquired through price support operations by the Commodity Credit Corporation (hereinafter referred to as CCC), and sets forth general requirements indicating how agencies can qualify and obtain commodities which may be made available for disposition.

(b) Section 416 reads as follows:

In order to prevent the waste of commodities acquired through price-support operations by the Commodity Credit Corporation before they can be disposed of in normal domestic channels without impairment of the price-support program or sold abroad at competitive world prices, the CCC is authorized, on such terms and under such regulations as the Secretary may deem in the public interest: (1) Upon application, to make such commodities available to any Federal agency for use in making payment for commodities not produced in the United States; (2) to barter or exchange such commodities for strategic or other materials as authorized by law; (3) in the case of food commodities to donate such commodities to the Bureau of Indian Affairs and to such State, Federal, or private agency or agencies as may be designated by the proper State or Federal authority and approved by the Secretary, for use in the United States in nonprofit school-lunch programs, in the assistance of needy persons, and in charitable institutions, including hospitals, to the extent that needy persons are served; and (4) to donate any such food commodities in excess of anticipated disposition under (1), (2), and (3) above to nonprofit voluntary agencies registered with the Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid of the Foreign Operations Administration or other appropriate department or agency of the Federal Government and intergovernmental organizations for use in the assistance of needy persons outside the United States. In the case of (3) and (4) above the Secretary shall obtain such assurance as he deems necessary that the recipients thereof will not diminish their normal expenditures for food by reason of such donation. In order to facilitate the appropriate disposal of such commodities, the Secretary may from time to time estimate and announce the quantity of such commodities which he anticipates will become available for distribution under (3) and (4) above. The Commodity Credit Corporation may pay, with respect to commodities disposed of under this Section, reprocessing, packaging, transportation, handling, and other charges accruing up to the time of their delivery to a Federal agency or to the designated State or private agency, in the case of commodities made available for use within the United States, or their delivery free alongside ship or free on board export carrier at point of export, in the case of commodities made available for use outside the United States. For the purpose of this section the terms "State" and "United States" include the District of Columbia and any Territory or Possession of the United States.

§ 501.102 Administration. (a) The Commodity Stabilization Service (hereinafter referred to as CSS) of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will be responsible for dispositions of commodities under (1) and (2) of section 416, and the Agricultural Marketing Service (hereinafter referred to as AMS) of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will be responsible for dispositions of food commodities under (3) and (4) of section 416.

(b) Federal agencies interested in obtaining commodities for use in making payment for commodities not produced in the United States under (1) of section 416 should make written request to the Deputy Administrator for Price Support, CSS, USDA, Washington, D. C.

(c) Persons or agencies interested in bartering or exchanging strategic or other materials for commodities under (2) of section 416 should communicate with the Food and Materials Requirements Division, Stockpile and Barter Branch, CSS, USDA, Washington, D. C.

(d) Donations of food commodities under (3) and (4) of section 416 will be made by the Food Distribution Division, AMS, in accordance with the following sections.

§ 501.103 Domestic donations. (a) Available food commodities will be donated to the Bureau of Indian Affairs and to State, Federal, or private agencies for use in the United States in nonprofit school lunch programs, in the assistance of needy persons and in charitable institutions, including hospitals, to the extent that needy persons are served.

(b) A State, Federal, or private agency may become eligible as the distributing agency of Federally donated commodities upon designation by proper State or Federal authority and approval by the Food Distribution Division, AMS. In those States where State agencies are not permitted by law to designate private agencies as distributing agencies, private agencies may apply directly to the appropriate Area Office for approval. State and Federal agencies which are now approved by the Food Distribution Division, AMS, for the receipt of Federally donated commodities will not be required to obtain further designation or approval.

(c) Interested agencies desiring information concerning the program may make written request to the following Area Offices:

Northeast Area: Food Distribution Division, AMS, USDA, 139 Centre Street, Room 802, New York 13, N. Y.: Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and West Virginia.

Southeast Area: Food Distribution Division, AMS, USDA, 50 Seventh Street NE., Room 252, Atlanta, Ga.: Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Kentucky, Alabama, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

Southwest Area: Food Distribution Division, AMS, USDA, 1114 Commerce Street, Room 1812, Dallas 2, Tex.: Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.

Midwest Area: Food Distribution Division, AMS, USDA, 226 West Jackson Blvd., Room 1412, Chicago 6, Ill.: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin.

Western Area: Food Distribution Division, AMS, USDA, Room 404 Appraisers Bldg., 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco 11, Calif.: Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming, Utah, Alaska, and Hawaii.

(d) As commodities become available, the Area Offices of the Food Distribution Division, AMS, will notify the approved distributing agencies regarding the commodities and terms and conditions of donation and distribution.

§ 501.104 Foreign donations. (a) Available food commodities will be donated to nonprofit voluntary agencies registered with the Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid of the Foreign Operations Administration or other appropriate department or agency of the Federal Government and to intergovernmental organizations, for use in the assistance of needy persons outside the United States.

(b) An intergovernmental organization is an agency sponsored and supported by the United Nations Organization, or two or more nations, one of which is the United States of America.

(c) Interested agencies and organizations desiring information concerning the program may make written request to the Food Distribution Division, AMS, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

(d) As commodities are determined to be available, the Food Distribution Division, AMS, will issue to interested agencies and organizations announcements of availability regarding the commodities and terms and conditions of donation and distribution.

§ 501.105 General conditions. (a) The quantities of commodities to be made available for donation under (3) and (4) of section 416 will be determined with regard to other statutory and program obligations of the CCC, and will be such as can be affectively distributed in furtherance of the objectives of section 416 without interference with domestic or foreign trade. Proration, if necessary, of available commodities among eligible agencies and intergovernmental organizations will be made so as to avoid duplicate donations in particular countries, and to effect distribution on as broad and equitable a basis as is possible compatible with efficient operations.

(b) Dispositions under (1), (2), and (3) of section 416 will have priority over donations for use in the assistance of needy persons outside the United States.

(c) Agencies and intergovernmental organizations receiving food commodities under (3) and (4) of section 416 will be required to agree to such terms and conditions as AMS specifies in announcements of availability and formal agreements governing their disposition. As a minimum, such terms and conditions will include the following:

(1) Agencies and intergovernmental organizations will not diminish their normal expenditures for food because of the receipt of donated commodities and will distribute the donated foods in a manner which will assure that the recipients thereof will not diminish their normal expenditures for food by reason of such donation.

(2) Agencies and intergovernmental organizations will provide or cause to be provided proper facilities for the handling, storage and disposal of donated commodities.

(3) Agencies and intergovernmental organizations will be responsible for noncommercial distribution of food commodities free of cost only to eligible recipients. In the case of donations for use outside the United States, distribution will be made only in nations agreed upon in the respective contracts of donation and only in friendly nations as defined in the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, and will be supervised by United States citizens representing the agency and residing in the country of distribution at the time the program is in operation.

(4) Agencies and intergovernmental organizations will maintain adequate records of distribution and submit reports as directed, and such records will be open for inspection by USDA at any reasonable time.

(d) The description of commodity or product thereof available for donation will be set forth in the notification or announcement of availability furnished eligible agencies or intergovernmental organizations. Commodities donated will be delivered at the points agreed upon in the contract of donation. Unless otherwise agreed upon in the contract of donation, all reprocessing, packaging, handling, transportation and other charges accruing prior to delivery will be for the account of the CCC and all charges accruing subsequent to delivery will be for the account of the agency or intergovernmental organization.

(e) The recipients named under subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph will be eligible to receive foods under (3) of section 416; recipients named under (2) will be eligible under (4) of section 416:

(1) Nonprofit school lunch programs. School lunch programs, which are operated without profit by public or nonprofit private schools of high school grade or under for the purpose of serving lunches to children attending such schools, are eligible.

(2) Needy persons. Needy persons are those who by virtue of their personal economic status are in need of food assistance, and may include the following:

(i) Public assistance recipients. Persons who are the recipients of, or have been declared eligible to receive financial or other assistance provided for the needy by any governmental agency, and persons receiving assistance or benefits under programs of old-age assistance, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind, aid to the permanently and totally disabled, or similar programs provided for in the Social Security Act or similar acts of foreign governments.

(ii) Private assistance recipients. Persons who are the recipients of, or have been declared eligible to receive, financial or other assistance provided for the needy by private charitable agencies and institutions.

(iii) Other needy persons. Unemployed, part-time employed or other persons, including Indians, whose incomes are so low as to result in their having need for additional assistance in obtaining food.

In the case of donations of food commodities for use within the United States, needy persons must be certified as such by a state or local public welfare agency (including the Bureau of Indian Affairs). In the case of donations of food commodities for use outside the United States, needy persons will be determined by a qualified agency of the foreign nation or by the nonprofit voluntary agency or intergovernmental organization making distribution.

(3) Charitable Institutions and Hospitals. Nonpenal, public or private charitable institutions, including hospitals, are eligible to the extent of the needy persons served who are unable to pay the full charge for services provided to them.

(f) The terms "State" and "United States" include the District of Columbia and any Territory or Possession of the United States.

§ 501.106 Disqualification clause. Any agency or intergovernmental organization receiving food commodities under (3) and (4) of section 416, may be disqualified from future participation if it fails to comply with the provisions of this part or of any notices, instructions, announcements, or contracts issued pursuant to this part. This shall not preclude USDA from taking other action through other available means when considered necessary. Fraud in the acquisition, handling, or disposition of food commodities under section 416 will be subject to prosecution under applicable Federal statutes.

§ 501.107 Saving clause. Any or all of the provisions of this part may be waived, withdrawn or amended at any time.

Effective date. This part shall become effective immediately upon issuance.

Approved: September 17, 1954.

[SEAL] J. EARL COKE,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 909—ALMONDS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

BUDGET OF EXPENSES OF ALMOND CONTROL BOARD AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR CROP YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 1954

Notice of proposed rule making with respect to the expenses of the Almond Control Board for the crop year beginning July 1, 1954, and the rate of assessment in that connection, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 26, 1954 (19 F. R. 5445). This action was taken pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 119 and Order No. 9 regulating the handling of almonds grown in California (7 CFR, 1953 Rev., Part 909), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). In said notice, opportunity was afforded interested persons to submit to the Department written data, views, or arguments for consideration prior to issuance of the final administrative rule. No such documents were received during the time specified in the notice.

After consideration of all relevant matters it is hereby found and determined that the budget of expenses of the Almond Control Board and rate of assessment should be as follows:

§ 909.304 Budget of expenses of the Almond Control Board and rate of assessment for the crop year beginning July 1, 1954—(a) Budget of expenses. For the crop year beginning July 1, 1954, expenses in the amount of $35,699.77 are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the Almond Control Board for its maintenance and functioning and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of the agreement and order, determine to be appropriate.

(b) Rate of assessment. The rate of assessment for the crop year beginning July 1, 1954, shall be, in lieu of the rate of assessment specified in § 909.121 (a) of said agreement and order, ten-hundredths (0.10) of a cent for each pound of edible almond kernels received by each handler for his own account, except as to receipts from other handlers on which assessments have been paid.

It is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this section effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, instead of waiting 30 days after such publication, for the reasons that: (1) The action will apply to all almonds which handlers receive during the current crop year which began on July 1, 1954, and no useful purpose would be served by delaying such effective date; (2) the making of such action effective promptly upon publication will serve a useful purpose in that all parties affected will receive definite official notice as early as practicable with respect to the matter and making of assessment collections will be facilitated; (3) prior notice of such action was given all interested parties in the notice of proposed rule making which was published on August 26, 1954, which rule is now being adopted; and (4) no advance or special preparation for operations hereunder will be needed.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of September 1954 to become effective upon publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

PART 76—HOG CHOLERA, SWINE PLAGUE, AND OTHER COMMUNICABLE SWINE DISEASES

SUBPART B–VESICULAR EXANTHEMA

CHANGES IN AREAS QUARANTINED

Pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 and 3 of the act of March 3, 1905, as amended (21 U. S. C. 123, 125), sections 1 and 2 of the act of February 2, 1903, as amended (21 U. S. C. 111–113, 120), and section 7 of the act of May 29, 1884, as amended (21 U. S. C. 117), § 76.27, as amended, Subpart B, Part 76, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations (19 F. R. 5207, 5604), which contains a notice of the areas in which swine are affected with vesicular exanthema, a contagious, infectious, and communicable disease, and which quarantines such areas because of said disease, is hereby further amended in the following respects:

1. Subdivisions (viii) and (ix) of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (d), relating to Bristol County in Massachusetts, are amended to read:

(viii) That part of the Town of Seekonk lying north of County Street, south of Chestnut Street, west of Hammond Street, and east of Arcade Avenue and Mill Road; that part of the Town of Seekonk lying north of Ledge Road and Jacobs Street, south of Woodward Avenue, east of Runnins River, and west of Prospect Street; and that part of the Town of Seekonk lying south of County Street, north of Anthony Street, west of Bradley and Asylum Streets, and east of Olney Street; and

(ix) That part of the Town of Westport lying south of U. S. Route No. 6, north of State Route No. 117, east of Bread and Cheese Brook, and west of Forge Road; and that part of the Town of Westport lying south of Old Bedford Road, north of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, and east of Davis Road.

2. Subdivision (iii) of subparagraph (5) of paragraph (d), relating to Middlesex County in Massachusetts, is amended to read:

(iii) That part of the Town of Dracut lying north of Wheeler Road, and south and east of State Route No. 113.

3. Subdivision (xxiii) of subparagraph (5) of paragraph (d), relating to Middlesex County in Massachusetts, is deleted.

4. Subparagraph (1) of paragraph (e), relating to New Jersey, is amended to read:

Counties.

(1) Bergen, Camden, and Hunterdon

5. A new subparagraph (9) is added to paragraph (e), relating to Gloucester County in New Jersey, to read:

(9) All of Gloucester County except that part of Deptford Township lying south and east of Little Timber Creek, west of the Westville-Almonesson Road, and north of a line perpendicular to the Westville-Almonesson Road, said line beginning at a point on the Westville-Almonesson Road 300 feet north of the New Jersey Turnpike right-of-way, running in a westerly direction and ending at Little Timber Creek, owned by Joseph Riddle, R. D. 1, Westville, New Jersey.

6. New subdivisions (ix), (x), and (xi) are added to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (g), relating to Providence County in Rhode Island, to read:

(ix) That part of the Town of Manville lying north and east of Little Pond County Road, and south and west of Diamond Hill Road;

(x) That part of the City of North Providence lying south of Arro Street, north of Mineral Spring Avenue, west of View Avenue, and east of Easter Street; and that part of the City of North Providence lying south of Young Street, north of Goes Street, west of Crest Avenue, and east of Palm Street; and

(xi) That part of the Town of Smithfield lying south of Whipple Road, north of Twin River Road, and east of Douglas Pike.

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective upon issuance.

The amendment excludes certain areas in Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Rhode Island, from the areas in which vesicular exanthema has been found to exist and in which a quarantine has been established. Hereafter, the restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of swine, and carcasses, parts and offal of swine, from or through quarantined areas, contained in 9 CFR, 1953 Supp., Part 76, Subpart B, as amended, will not apply to such areas. However, the restrictions pertaining to such movement from non-quarantined areas, contained in said Subpart B, as amended, will apply thereto.

The amendment relieves certain restrictions presently imposed, and must be made effective immediately to be of maxium benefit to persons subject to the restrictions which are relieved. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and the amendment may be made effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended, secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, secs. 1, 3, 33 Stat. 1264, as amended, 1265, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 111–113, 117, 120, 123, 125)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of September 1954.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Central Training Institute, Inc., Oklahoma City, Okla., Docket 6167, August 24, 1954.]

In the Matter of Central Training Institute, Inc., a Corporation, and S. R. Holton, Individually

This proceeding was heard by William L. Pack, hearing examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission, respondents' answer, and a stipulation of facts entered into by counsel supporting the complaint and counsel for respondents, which rendered unnecessary the holding of any hearings for the reception of evidence and, filing of proposed findings and conclusions and oral argument having been waived, said examiner made his initial decision comprising certain findings as to the facts,[1] conclusions drawn therefrom,[1] and order.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said hearing examiner, as provided for in Rule XXII of the Commission's rules of practice, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII became the decision of the Commission on August 24, 1954.

Said order is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Central Training Institute, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, and respondent S. R. Holton, individually, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of a course of study and instruction intended for preparing students thereof for examination for civil service positions under the United States Government, or any similar course of study, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or by implication:

1. That respondents or their school have any connection with the United States Civil Service Commission or any other agency of the United States Government.

2. That respondents' sales agents are representatives or employees of the United States Civil Service Commission or any other government agency or have any connection therewith.

3. That the completion of respondents' course of study assures students of positions in the United States Civil Service or makes them eligible for appointment to such positions.

4. That respondents can assure or guarantee positions in the United States Civil Service; or that students may obtain positions immediately after completing said course.

5. That it is necessary for persons seeking civil service positions to take respondents' course of study in order to qualify for or obtain such positions; or that it is difficult to obtain such positions without taking said course.

6. That any Civil Service position which requires appointees to have veterans status or special physical, mental, educational or experiential qualifications, is generally available.

7. That respondents have information regarding the grades awarded to applicants who have passed Civil Service examinations.

8. That vacancies exist in any United States Civil Service position contrary to the fact; or that the number of positions available or vacant in said service or any branch thereof is greater than is actually the fact.

9. That the starting salary for any United States Civil Service position is greater than it is in fact.

10. That respondents' sales agents are vocational advisers or qualified to determine the aptitude or qualification of any person for any Civil Service position.

11. That respondents maintain a Department of Public Relations or any other organizational division unless such is the fact.

12. That all appointments to United States Civil Service positions are permanent; or otherwise misrepresenting in any manner the conditions and limitations of employment in said Civil Service.

13. That the time for enrollment as a student for said course of study is limited.

14. That prospective purchasers of respondents' course of instruction are especially selected.

By "Decision of the Commission and Order to File Report of Compliance," Docket 6167, August 24, 1954, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 24, 1954.

By the Commission.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 918]

[Docket No. AO-219 A-4]

HANDLING OF MILK IN MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Memphis, Tennessee, on June 30, 1954, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued June 22, 1954 (19 F. R. 3914), upon proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on September 1, 1954, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision. Said decision containing notice of opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 4, 1954 (19 F. R. 5643). No exceptions were filed.

The material issues of record related to:

1. Provision of an additional limitation on the maximum amount of Class I milk which may be distributed in the marketing area before a plant becomes subject to regulation.

2. Extension of regulation to supply plants not subject to the routine inspection of a marketing area health authority.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions of the material issues are based upon the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. The fluid milk plant definition of the order should be amended to provide that any plant from which as much as 1,000 pounds or more per day of Class I milk is disposed of during the month on routes to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area shall be considered a fluid milk plant and subject to full regulation under the order.

The present provisions of the Memphis order permit a plant to dispose of less than 5 percent of its Class I sales in the marketing area as Class I milk without becoming fully subject to regulation. Sale of unpriced milk (milk not paid for in accordance with its utilization) in substantial volumes in the marketing area tends to jeopardize the stability of the market and of the pricing system. An unregulated handler who is able to purchase milk on other than a utilization basis may enjoy a competitive advantage over handlers who buy milk on a utilization basis. Regulated handlers under the Memphis order must pay full class prices for all producer milk they receive.

The present order provision allowing a plant to sell 5 percent of its Class I sales in the marketing area without incurring regulation, was adopted to avoid any unnecessary extension of regulation to plants doing business primarily outside the marketing area. It was concluded on the basis of a previous hearing (19 F. R. 2848) that 5 percent of the Class I sales of any plant in the general area of Memphis would not be likely to represent an unstabilizing force of sufficient proportions to justify full regulation of such plant.

Evidence in the present hearing record discloses that a plant doing a large volume of business in Little Rock, Arkansas, has recently been increasing its sales in the Memphis marketing area. Because of the large total volume of business conducted at such plant it has been able to acquire a few sizable outlets for milk in the Memphis marketing area without incurring regulation. While these sales do not represent an important share of the overall business of the Memphis market, they were largely served by one or two handlers and their loss to these handlers has created a substantial disturbance so far as that portion of the market is concerned.

The handlers affected testified that loss of the sale of Class I milk forced them to curtail immediately their purchase of milk from producers under the order and that milk so displaced had to be marketed by a cooperative association for Class II use. The loss of substantial volumes in one or two plants, it was contended, resulted in a decrease in operating efficiency for such plants and impaired their ability to compete in the market for the sale of Class I milk.

It is concluded that additional protection is required to insure market stability in the Memphis market and that to accomplish this, no plant should be allowed to sell an average of more than 1,000 pounds of Class I milk per day in the marketing area without becoming subject to regulation. Under the amendment proposed herein a plant could sell up to 5 percent of its Class I milk to outlets located in the marketing area without becoming subject to full regulation only so long as the total of such sales did not equal the 1,000-pound-per-day limit.

2. The order language should be revised so as to bring under regulation any plant which furnishes Grade A milk or skim milk to a regulated distributing plant during the months of January through August regardless of the type of health approval held by such plant.

The record discloses that under the provisions of the order presently in effect, it is possible for a supply plant not under the routine inspection of a marketing area health authority to furnish milk to a regulated distributing plant and not come under the classification and the pricing provisions of the order. Such milk is classified as "other source" milk and allocated first to any Class II utilization in the distributing plant. Thus, if a distributing plant so chose it could operate so as to depend primarily on other source milk.

When the Memphis order was originally issued, the Memphis and Jackson health authorities issued permits to all producers who furnished milk regularly to the market. At that time, permits were issued on a temporary basis to plants which supplied milk during so-called emergency periods. The record indicates that during the last two years, the Memphis Board of Health has changed its policy, and has issued permits on a reciprocal basis to handlers outside the marketing area to sell milk in Memphis. This policy may render the present provision of the order based on producer inspection, ineffective in controlling all regular milk supplies for the Memphis city portion of the market.

Effective June 1, 1954, the order was amended to extend the marketing area to additional areas where other health authorities have jurisdiction. These areas are now served by plants qualified under the order. However, not all of these authorities inspect and issue permits to all plants and producers supplying the outlets under their jurisdiction. The proposed amendment is necessary therefore to insure that the plants serving these sections of the market regularly will be fully subject to the order.

The only supply plants not routinely inspected by a marketing area health authority which are now supplying the Memphis marketing area furnish only seasonal reserve milk. Record evidence does not indicate that the plants which provide milk seasonally to supplement local supplies during periods of low production need to be subject to the pricing provisions of the order to insure market stability. Special health department permits are normally issued during low production periods when supplies from outside the marketing area are needed to supplement producer milk. It has not been necessary up to this time to make any provision in the definition of a supply plant to regulate such plants. For these reasons an exception covering the months of September through December is included in the recommended amendment, so that during these periods only supply plants under routine inspection will be regulated. If plants not under routine inspection should begin serving the market in additional months they would be regulated pursuant to the proposed amendment.

It is concluded that the proposed amendment is necessary to recognize changes in circumstances under which health department approvals may be obtained to avoid possible circumvention of the pricing provisions of the order.

The proposed extension of regulation to supply plants not under the routine inspection of a marketing area health authority raises the question whether plants subject to other Federal orders might be brought under the regulation of the Memphis order. It would not be appropriate to extend regulation under the Memphis order to such plants. The order should be amended therefore to provide that in case a plant not under the routine inspection of a marketing area health authority and not regularly associated with the Memphis marketing area is qualified as a fully regulated plant under another order, it should be exempt from the classification and pricing provisions of the Memphis order.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk, in the marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order of the Secretary directing the conduct of a Referendum; determination of a representative period; and designation of referendum agent. Pursuant to section 8c (19) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 608c (19)), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among the producers (as defined in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended regulating the handling of milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, milk marketing area) who, during the month of July 1954, which month is hereby determined to be the representative period for such referendum, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in the aforesaid order, to determine whether such producers favor the issuance of the order as hereby proposed to be amended.

C. I. Dunn is hereby designated agent of the Secretary to conduct such referendum in accordance with the procedure for the conduct of referenda to determine producer approval of milk marketing orders as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 10, 1950 (15 F. R. 5177), such referendum to be completed on or before the 10th day from the date this decision is filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture.

Marketing agreement and order, as amended. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, Marketing Area," and "Order Amending the Order as Amended Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and proposed to be hereby further amended.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of September 1954.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, Marketing Area

§ 918.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, as follows:

1. Delete § 918.7 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 918.7 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means (a) any milk processing or bottling plant from which a volume of Class I milk equal to an average of 1,000 pounds or more per day, or not less than 5.0 percent of the Class I milk of such plant is disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets (except other fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area, (b) any plant which during the months of January through August ships Grade A milk, skim milk, or cream to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, or (c) any plant which during the months of September through December receives milk from farmers holding dairy farm permits for the production of Grade A milk issued by a health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area, and from which milk, skim milk, or cream is moved during the month to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

2. Delete § 918.61 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 918.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. A plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall be considered a nonfluid milk plant except that the operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require, in lieu of the reports required pursuant to § 918.30, and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 918.7 (a) which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless the Secretary determines that a greater volume of Class I milk is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order.

(b) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 918.7 (b) or (c) which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant was qualified as a fluid milk plant pursuant to § 918.7 (c) during each of the preceding months of September through December.

[F. R. Doc. 54-7432; Filed, Sept. 21, 1954; 8:50 a. m.]

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on March 11, 1954 by the American Broadcasting Corporation, Lexington, Kentucky, and now made part of this docket, requesting an amendment of § 3.610 (a) (1) and Appendix 1 of the rules governing television broadcast stations so as to include a portion of Kentucky in Zone 1 and an amendment of the table of assignments contained in § 3.606 so as to add the assignment of Channel 4 to Richmond, Kentucky. The portion of Kentucky proposed to be included in Zone 1 is that "north of North Latitude 37° 30' 00" from the eastern border of Kentuck to West Longitude 84° 00' 00" and north of a straight line directed thence toward North Latitude 38° 00' 00", West Longitude 86° 00' 00" to that point at which the line intersects the Kentucky border."

3. An opposition to the petition was filed on March 22, 1954 by Mid-America Broadcasting Corp., Louisville, Kentucky. On March 22, 1954 WSM, Inc., Nashville, Tennessee filed a Motion For Extension of Time requesting additional time for filing an opposition to the petition. In this Motion, WSM, Inc. stated that such an opposition would be timely but since the "ten-day" provision of § 1.730 of the Commission's rules and regulations could be interpreted as applicable to rule making proceedings the request for additional time was made. American Broadcasting Corp. filed an opposition to the WSM motion in which it urged that since there was no specific rule relating to petitions for rule making the "ten-day" provision of § 1.730 was applicable and urged the Commission to deny the motion in view of its late filing. On April 26, 1954 WSM filed its opposition to the subject petition and on April 29, 1954 American Broadcasting Corp. filed a Motion To Dismiss Opposition To Petition urging the Commission to dismiss the WSM opposition on the grounds that it was not timely filed. Oppositions to the proposed rule making were also filed by WHAS, Inc., Louisville, Kentucky and the Crosley Broadcasting Corporation, Cincinnati, Ohio. Motions to dismiss these oppositions were filed by American Broadcasting Corporation. We are of the view that § 1.730 is not applicable to petitions requesting the institution of rule making proceedings; nor has it been Commission policy to make these requirements applicable to such proceedings. Accordingly, the motions of American Broadcasting Corp. to dismiss the foregoing oppositions are denied.

4. In support of its requested amendment to move the Zone 1 line so as to include a portion of the State of Kentucky in Zone 1, petitioner urges that this would conform to the criteria used in the Sixth Report and Order in first creating the zone lines and in the Memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 54-163) which resulted in a move of the Zone 1 line to include all of the State of West Virginia in Zone 1. In support of the requested assignment of Channel 4 in Richmond, Kentucky petitioner urges that it would provide a first VHF service to a large area and population; that it would represent a more efficient use of available spectrum space; and that it would permit Station WLAP-TV to provide an improved television service to a greater number of people. We have carefully considered the oppositions of WSM, Inc., Mid-America Broadcasting Corp., WHAS, Inc. and Crosley Broadcasting Corp. We are of the view that the invitation of rule making proceedings is warranted in this case, in order that interested parties may have the opportunity to submit their comments. The oppositions to the amendment of the Rules as proposed by petitioner, are now made part of this docket.

5. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendments is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the amendments proposed by petitioner should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein may file with the Commission on or before October 15, 1954, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

7. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: September 15, 1954.

Released: September 16, 1954.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it a petition filed April 9, 1954 by Delta Television, Inc., permittee of Station KFAZ on Channel 43 at Monroe, Louisiana, and now made part of this docket, requesting an amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments rules governing television broadcast stations as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Monroe, La	84, 43+	84, 13

The following change with respect to the offset carrier requirements only would be required as a result of the assignment of Channel 13 to Monroe:

City	Channel No.
Biloxi, Miss	13	13+

3. In support of its requested amendment, petitioner urges that the assignment of Channel 13 to Monroe would conform with the Commission's rules and standards; that it would enable KFAZ to compete more effectively with television station KNOE-TV operating on Channel 8 in that city; and that it would conform with the Commission's policy in the utilization of VHF assignments. Further, petitioner requests that the Commission issue a Show Cause Order to it for the modification of the outstanding authorization of Station KFAZ in Monroe, Louisiana, to specify operation on Channel 13 in lieu of Channel 43.

4. We are of the view that rule making proceedings should be instituted with respect to the request for the assignment of Channel 13 in lieu of Channel 43 in Monroe, Louisiana. We believe, however, that there is no merit in the request for the issuance of a Show Cause Order to petitioner for the modification of the authorization of KFAZ. In a Memorandum Opinion and Order issued February 11, 1953, FCC 53-1173, the Commission pointed out that the Show Cause procedure has been employed only in exceptional circumstances and only pursuant to sections 316 (a) and 303 (f) of the Communications Act involving considerations of paramount public interest. It was further pointed out that the Show Cause procedure was not to be utilized at the request of licensees and permittees to make possible the avoidance of normal procedures. Petitioner relies on the action of the Commission in Docket 10817 wherein a Show Cause Order was issued to WITH-TV, Inc., for the modification of construction permit to specify Channel 72 in lieu of Channel 60 (See Report and Order issued February 5, 1954, FCC 54-161). But the action of the Commission in that proceeding is not a precedent for the relief sought by petitioner herein. In the proceedings in Docket 10817 the Commission had determined that the assignment of Channel 60 was inefficient in view of the limited availability of desirable transmitter sites for the operation of that channel. Further, it had been determined that since Baltimore had been assigned its fair share of the available channels, additional assignments should not be made to that community. Accordingly, in order to effect a more efficient utilization of the available frequencies it was necessary to delete the channel assigned for the operation of Station WITH-TV, Inc. To effect that result, a Show Cause Order was issued to the permittee of that station but that order was not issued at its instance or request: It was issued in order that a more efficient assignment could be effected for the community. We are, therefore, of the view that petitioner's request for a Show Cause Order should be denied. Accordingly, the petition of Delta Television, Inc., in so far is it requests the issuance of a Show Cause Order is denied.

5. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the amendment proposed by petitioner should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein may file with the Commission on or before October 15, 1954, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

7. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, rules governing Television Broadcast Stations; Docket No. 11168.

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on March 29, 1954 and a supplement to this petition filed on April 20, 1954 by Commonwealth Broadcasting Corporation, permittee of Station WTOV-TV on Channel 27, Norfolk, Virginia, and now made part of this docket,[1] requesting an amendment of the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Rules Governing Television Broadcast Stations so as to assign Channel 13 to Princess Anne, Virginia by means of one of the following alternative proposals:

City	Channel No.

On April 28, 1954 the Peninsular Broadcasting Corporation, permittee of Station WVEC-TV, Hampton, Va. filed an opposition to the petition of Commonwealth; and on May 6, 1954 Commonwealth Broadcast Corporation filed A Reply thereto.

3. In support of its requested amendment petitioner urges that it conforms to the Commission's rules and standards; that it represents a more efficient utilization of available frequencies; and that it conforms to the Commission's policy of using VHF in large cities wherever possible. We have carefully considered the opposition of Peninsular Broadcasting Corp. We are of the view that the institution of rule making proceedings in this case is warranted, in order that interested parties may have the opportunity to submit comments. The opposition to the adoption of the amendment of the rules as proposed by petitioner, is now made part of this docket.

4. We are of the view that rule making proceedings should be instituted with respect to the request for the assignment of Channel 13 to Princess Anne by means of one of the alternative proposals set forth above. We believe, however, that there is no merit in the request for the issuance of a Show Cause Order to petitioner for the modification of the authorization of Station WTOV-TV. In a Memorandum Opinion and Order issued February 11, 1953, FCC 53-1173, the Commission pointed out that the Show Cause procedure has been employed only in exceptional circumstances and only pursuant to sections 316 (a) and 303 (f) of the Communications Act involving considerations of paramount public interest. It was further pointed out that the Show Cause procedure was not to be utilized at the request of licensees and permittees to make possible the avoidance of normal procedures. Petitioner relies on the action of the Commission in Docket 10817 wherein a Show Cause Order was issued to WITH-TV, Inc. for the modification of construction permit to specify Channel 72 in lieu of Channel 60 (See Report and Order issued February 5, 1954, FCC 54-161). But the action of the Commission in that proceeding is not a precedent for the relief sought by petitioner herein. In the proceedings in Docket 10817 the Commission had determined that the assignment of Channel 60 was inefficient in view of the limited availability of desirable transmitter sites for the operation of that channel. Further, it had been determined that since Baltimore had been assigned its fair share of the available channels, additional assignments should not be made to that community. Accordingly, in order to effect a more efficient utilization of the available frequencies it was necessary to delete the channel assigned for the operation of Station WITH-TV, Inc. To effect that result, a Show Cause Order was issued to the permittee of that station but that order was not issued at its instance or request: It was issued in order that a more efficient assignment could be effected for the community. We are, therefore, of the view that petitioner's request for a Show Cause Order should be denied. Accordingly, the petition of Commonwealth Broadcasting Corporation in so far as it requests the issuance of a Show Cause Order is denied.

5. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendments is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the amendment proposed by petitioner should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein may file with the Commission on or before October 15, 1954, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that submitted before taking action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

AUXILIARY BROADCAST STATIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of Part 4 of the Commission's rules and regulations governing television auxiliary broadcast stations; Docket No. 11164.

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a petition for the institution of rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on August 5, 1954 by North Dakota Broadcasting Company, Inc., permittee of television Station KCJB-TV, Minot, North Dakota, and Station KXJB-TV, Valley City, North Dakota, requesting amendment of Sections 4.631 and 4.632 of the Commission's rules governing television auxiliary broadcast stations.

3. Section 4.631 (c) presently reads as follows:

(c) Television inter-city relay stations provide a means on an interim basis whereby television broadcast licensees may provide their own inter-city television transmission services in connection with the operation of their television broadcast stations. The provision for this service is a purely temporary measure designed to assist the television industry until such time as adequate common carrier facilities are available, and broadcasters who venture into the business of relaying television programs by means of television inter-city relay stations should plan to amortize their investments at the earliest possible date.

Section 4.632 (b) presently reads as follows:

(b) An application for construction permit for a new television inter-city relay station or for renewal of license of an existing station shall be accompanied by a verified statement containing the following:

(1) A full statement as to why the applicant requires the facilities including reasons why common carrier facilities cannot be utilized; and,

(2) A showing that the applicant has, at the earliest time reasonably practicable, requested the appropriate common carrier or common carriers serving the general area involved to furnish the inter-city television transmission service required by the applicant, including in such showing a copy of the request or requests and of the reply or replies from such common carriers.

4. Under the above rules, the operation of private television inter-city relay systems by television broadcasters is permitted only on an interim basis pending the availability of adequate common carrier facilities, and a showing is required with each application for a television inter-city relay station that common carrier facilities are not available and that the applicant has requested the appropriate common carrier to provide such facilities. In practically all of the cases that have thus far arisen, the common carriers, following receipt of a firm order for the service, have offered to provide the requested service under their existing tariffs as soon as the necessary facilities could be installed. Thus, the Commission's present rules and policy, preclude the grant of authority for a private relay system or, at best, permit only a temporary use of such facilities if constructed by the broadcaster.

5. Petitioner's requested amendment is designed to give the Commission discretion to grant applications for private television inter-city relay stations notwithstanding the fact that common carrier facilities may be available. The petitioner urges that the present rules do not permit the Commission to exercise discretion in acting upon applications for television inter-city relay stations proposed to be operated by television broadcast stations in those cases where it can be demonstrated that the cost of using common carrier facilities is prohibitive to the broadcaster; and that the restrictive nature of the Commission's present rules and policy may thereby deprive large areas of the country from receiving live television network programs, and may indirectly result in some areas having no television service whatever since network programs are an important consideration in the successful operation of any television station. Petitioner further urges that there are sufficient frequencies allocated for television auxiliary stations, i. e., TV pickup and TV STL stations, which may be used for the proposed inter-city relay systems in areas where such systems are essential, without depriving television broadcasters of necessary TV pickup or STL service. Petitioner contends that to require a TV station to utilize common carrier service on common carrier channels is wasteful since such channels could otherwise be employed for handling several hundred telephone circuits. Petitioner concludes that if live television network programming is to become available to all sections of the country, the Commission must amend its rules to permit it to authorize the operation of private inter-city relay facilities by television broadcasters, whether or not common carrier facilities are or can be made available.

6. Specifically, petitioner urges that § 4.632 (b) be deleted and that § 4.631 (c) be amended to read as follows:

(c) (1) Television inter-city relay stations provide a means on an interim basis whereby television broadcast licensees may provide their own inter-city television transmission services in connection with the operation of their television broadcast stations. Provided, however, that the Commission may grant authority to television broadcast licensees to operate inter-city television transmission facilities where, in the opinion of the Commission, the cost of common carrier facilities compared to the cost of constructing and operating private inter-city relay facilities justifies such action.

(2) This proviso is designed to permit the Commission, in its discretion, to authorize private inter-city relay transmission facilities, to stimulate the development of live television network service in the less densely populated areas of the country.

7. The instant petition serves to focus attention on a problem that has been under study by the Commission since the lifting of the "freeze" on new television station construction in 1952. The Commission is satisfied that the rules and policies, insofar as they contemplate that the nationwide television program network should be provided by common carriers are sound and serve the public interest. The Commission is of the view that the existing common carrier network, including main routes and branch lines emanating therefrom, should continue its orderly growth in order to meet the requirements of the broadcasting industry for network transmission facilities. It has become increasingly evident, however, that a problem is presented by the application of the Commission's rules and policies with respect to television stations located in relatively small communities which are at a distance from program service points, on existing common carrier routes. Because of the distance of these communities from such program service points, the monthly common carrier mileage charges for the television transmission facilities which are required to connect the stations to the established networks may not be commensurate with the economic prospects of those stations for profitable operation. This situation may deter and hinder the development of a nationwide television service. Furthermore, the construction of facilities for interconnection by the common carriers in such instances represents a substantial investment, and in some instances the greater portion of such investment may be unrecoverable upon the financial failure of such television stations.

8. In view of the foregoing, the Commission believes that it would be appropriate at this time to review its existing rules and policies regarding the licensing of private inter-city relay stations. To this end, the Commission invites comments and proposals from interested parties regarding the matters dealt with herein, including the specific proposal of petitioner.

9. Authority for the issuance of the proposed amendments is contained in sections 303 (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (r) and 4 (i) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

10. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the amendment as proposed by petitioner should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, or who wishes to propose other methods of reaching the same objective, may file with the Commission on or before November 8, 1954, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

11. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: September 15, 1954.

Released: September 16, 1954.

DESIGNATION OF ADDITIONAL AREAS FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS AND ECONOMIC EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Cong., 12 U. S. C. 1148 a-2 (a), it is found that in the following named additional counties in the State of Colorado, a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

STATE OF COLORADO

Washington County.
Yuma County.

Pursuant to the delegation of authority from the Administrator, Federal Civil Defense Administration (18 F. R. 4609, 19 F. R. 2148) as further amended on July 30, 1954 and for the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Cong., as amended by Public Law 115, 83d Cong., and section 301 of Public Law 480, 83d Cong., it is determined that the above named additional counties are within the area affected by the major disaster occasioned by drought determined by the President on July 1, 1953, pursuant to Public Law 875, 81st Cong. It is also determined that an economic disaster exists in said counties that has caused a need for agricultural credit that cannot be met for a temporary period from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, the farmers Home Administration under its regular loan programs, or other responsible sources.

After December 31, 1955, loans under section 3 (a) or 2 (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Cong., as amended, will not be made in the above named counties except to borrowers who previously received such assistance.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of September 1954.

Pursuant to section 4 of the Trade Agreements Act approved June 12, 1934, as amended (48 Stat. (pt. 1) 945, ch. 474; 65 Stat. 73, ch. 141), and pursuant to paragraph 4 of Executive Order 10082 of October 5, 1949 (3 CFR, 1949 Supp.; p. 126), notice is hereby given by the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements that, in connection with the forthcoming review and renegotiation of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade with a view to strengthening that agreement, it is intended that consideration will be given to enhancing the firmness of the tariff concessions. In particular, consideration would be given the modification of the application of the provisions of Article XXVIII of the General Agreement, by extension of the date after which such provisions may be invoked, or otherwise.

Article XXVIII, which is one of the most important provisions of the General Agreement in relation to the firmness of the concessions on individual products, provides that these concessions, originally negotiated in the case of the United States at Geneva in 1947, at Annecy in 1949, or at Torquay in 1950 to 1951, may be modified or withdrawn on or after a specified date, following consultation and negotiation with other contracting parties, without the necessity of terminating the entire agreement. The article envisages that the balance between the concessions granted by the various contracting parties shall be maintained, preferably through the negotiation of new concessions in compensation for any modifications or withdrawals made, but through retaliatory modifications by other parties if agreement cannot be reached on new concessions. The date on and after which the provisions of Article XXVIII may now be invoked is July 1, 1955, except for concessions in Schedule III (Brazil) and concessions initially negotiated by other contracting parties with Brazil as to which such provisions may now be invoked. No modification of Article XXVIII would affect the right of any contracting party to withdraw or modify individual concessions pursuant to Article XIX (commonly called "the escape clause") of the General Agreement.

Pursuant to section 4 of the Trade Agreements Act, as amended, and paragraph 5 of Executive Order 10082, information and views as to any aspect of the proposals announced in this notice may be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information in accordance with the announcement of this date issued by that Committee.[1] Information and views submitted, orally or in writing, to the Chairman of the United States Delegation for the review and renegotiation of the General Agreement, in connection with the hearings held under his direction from September 13 through September 17, 1954, will be made available to the Committee for Reciprocity Information.

By direction of the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements this 21st day of September, 1954.

CARL D. CORSE,
Chairman, Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements.

COMMITTEE FOR RECIPROCITY INFORMATION

POSSIBLE MODIFICATION OF THE FIRMNESS OF CONCESSIONS IN THE GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

SUBMISSION OF INFORMATION TO THE COMMITTEE FOR RECIPROCITY INFORMATION

Closing date for application to be heard October 6, 1954.

Closing date for submission of briefs: Before oral appearance.

Public hearings open October 18, 1954.

The Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements has issued on this day a notice of intention to consider possible modification of the firmness of the tariff concessions in the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.[2]

The Committee for Reciprocity Information hereby gives notice that all applications for oral presentation of views in regard to the foregoing proposals shall be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information not later than 12:00 noon October 6, 1954, accompanied by a written brief or by a preliminary outline indicating the subject as specifically as possible on which the individual wishes to be heard. A written brief must, in all cases, be submitted before the individual makes his oral appearance. Communications shall be addressed to "The Committee for Reciprocity Information, Tariff Commission Building, Washington 25, D. C." Fifteen copies of written statements, either typed, printed or duplicated shall be submitted, of which one copy shall be sworn to.

Written statements submitted to the Committee, except information and business data proferred in confidence, shall be open to inspection by interested persons. Information and business data proferred in confidence shall be submitted in separate pages clearly marked "For official use only of Committee for Reciprocity Information."

Public hearings will be held before the Committee for Reciprocity Information, at which oral statements will be heard. The first hearing will be at 10:00 a. m., on October 18, 1954, in the auditorium of the National Archives Building, 8th and Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C. Witnesses who make application to be heard will be advised regarding the time of their individual appearances. Appearances at hearings before the Committee may be made only by or on behalf of these persons who have, prior to that appearance, filed written briefs and who have within the time prescribed made written application for oral presentation of views. Statements made at the public hearings shall be under oath.

Copies of the notice issued today by the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements may be obtained from the Committee for Reciprocity Information, Tariff Commission Building, Washington 25, D. C., and may be inspected in the Field Offices of the Department of Commerce.

By direction of the Committee for Reciprocity Information this 21st day of September 1954.

EDWARD YARDLEY,
Secretary, Committee for Reciprocity Information.

VAN CURLER BROADCASTING CORP.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re application of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation, Schenectady, New York (WTRI), Docket No. 11156, File No. BMPCT-2201; for modification of construction permit to change principal community to Albany, New York and to maintain main studio outside Albany.

By order of the Commission adopted September 1, 1954, the above-entitled proceeding was designated for hearing to commence at 10:00 a. m., on September 20, 1954.

On September 14, 1954, there was filed with this Commission by Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation a Petition to Vacate Hearing Order reciting, among other things, that protestant Hudson Valley Broadcasting Co., had informed the petitioner that it was about to file a letter with the Commission, dated September 13, 1954, signed by the secretary of the protestant stating that said protestant would not appear at the hearing. The said Petition to Vacate Hearing Order further stated that both counsel for the protestant and for the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau of this Commission had consented to the immediate consideration and grant of such Petition to Vacate Hearing Order.

On September 13, 1954, counsel for the protestant further orally advised the undersigned Hearing Examiner that the protestant would not appear at the hearing and its Board of Directors would request this Commission to dismiss the aforesaid proceeding.

Accordingly, for the reasons above recited and other good cause shown: It is ordered, This 15th day of September 1954, that hearing in the above-entitled matter be postponed until further order of the undersigned Hearing Examiner or of the Federal Communications Commission.

[Project No. 120]

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON CO.

NOTICE OF LAND WITHDRAWAL, CALIFORNIA

SEPTEMBER 16, 1954.

Conformable to the provisions of section 24 of the act of June 10, 1920, as amended, notice is hereby given that the lands hereinafter described, insofar as title thereto remains in the United States, are included in Project No. 120 for which application for amendment of license was filed September 30, 1953 by the Southern California Edison Company of Los Angeles, California. Under said section 24 these lands are, from said date of filing, reserved from all forms of disposal under the laws of the United States, until otherwise directed by this Commission or by Congress.

The Department of the Army in the course of constructing the Pine Flat Dam and Reservoir as authorized by the Flood Control Act approved December 22, 1944, required the relocation of portions of the project transmission line, telephone line and access road in order to clear said reservoir. Changes in the rights-of-way for these structures and other changes in the project area about the water main and water tank serving a portion of the camp area involve public lands, Sierra and Sequoia National Forest lands, and lands acquired by the Department of the Army.

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

All portions of the following subdivisions lying within a strip of land 200 feet in width embracing the relocated portions of the transmission line location as shown on amendatory map sheets designated "Exhibit K" and entitled "Detail Map of Vincent Transmission & Telephone Lines, Project 120" (FPC 120-228 & 229).

All portions of the following described subdivisions lying within the project area embracing an access road as delimited upon a map designated "Exhibit K" and entitled "Detail Map of Vincent Transmission & Telephone Lines, Project 120", (FPC 120-229)

T. 12S., R. 25E.,
Sec. 19, SE4 NW4, NW4 SE4, S2 SE4;

All portions of the following described subdivisions lying within the project area as extended to embrace the water main and water tank locations as delimited upon a map sheet designated "Exhibit K" and entitled "Detail Map of Big Creek Power House No. 3, Project 120", (FPC 120-230):

T. 9S., R. 24E.,
Sec. 18, NW4 SE; E2 SW4.

The area reserved by the filing of this application is approximately 49.60 acres of which 30.62 acres have been heretofore reserved for power purposes and 13.27 acres are lands acquired by the Department of the Army.

Copies of the project maps (FPC 120-222 to 230 inclusive) have been transmitted to the Bureau of Land Management, Geological Survey, Forest Service and the Department of the Army. Map sheets FPC 120- 222, 228, 229 and 230, superseding Map Sheets FPC 120- 122, 123, 124 and 69 respectively.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File Nos. 31-208, 31-505]

INTERNATIONAL PAPER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER DECLARING SUBSIDIARY NOT TO BE ELECTRIC UTILITY COMPANY

SEPTEMBER 16, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that International Paper Company ("Paper") has filed an application dated September 13, 1954, under section 2 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), for an order declaring its subsidiary, Canadian International Paper Company ("Canadian"), not to be an electric utility company as defined in that section of the act.

All interested persons are referred to the application (designated Amendment No. 5) on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the facts upon which the application is based, which are summarized as follows:

Paper is the successor to (a) International Paper and Power Company ("Power") (formerly the direct parent of International Hydro-Electric System ("IHES"), a registered holding company, and the indirect parent of, among other companies, New England Power Association ("NEES"), also a registered holding company, and Gatineau Power Company ("Gatineau"), a foreign public utility company) and to (b) a predecessor company also known as International Paper Company ("Old Paper") (a New York subsidiary of Power). At the time Paper became the successor of Power and Old Paper (September 1941) Power and Old Paper had been declared by the Commission not to be holding companies as defined in section 2 (a) (7) of the act (See International Paper and Power Company, 4 S. E. C. 873 (1939)), and Old Paper had also been declared by the Commission not to be an electric utility company (See International Paper Company, Holding Company Act Release No. 2948 (August 18, 1941)). In connection with the foregoing proceedings, Power and Old Paper filed a commitment (paragraph 11, Amendment No. 2, File No. 31-208), dated January 31, 1939, to the effect that, during the effectiveness of the order therein requested declaring Power and Old Paper not to be holding companies, they would give the Commission written notice within thirty days after the making of any material changes in any substantial lease or contract, or of the terms and conditions of any new lease or contract between applicants and their subsidiaries, on the one hand, and IHES or The Olcott Falls Company (then a public utility subsidiary of Old Paper) and their respective subsidiaries, on the other hand.

There are presently pending certain applications filed by Paper for an order making applicable to it the foregoing orders in respect of its predecessors, Power and Old Paper; or, in the alternative, for orders under sections 2 (a) (7) and 2 (a) (3) of the act declaring Paper not to be a holding company and not to be an electric utility company, as defined therein.

Paper is a New York corporation organized in 1941. It has thirty-eight active direct and indirect subsidiaries and affiliates which with Paper are all engaged in some phase of manufacturing and selling pulp, paper, and paper products, or in owning and holding property and facilities for future development and use in connection with the system's manufacturing operations. It also has nine inactive subsidiaries. Its principal subsidiary is Canadian one of the largest pulp, paper, and paper products manufacturers in the business.

Canadian is a corporation organized under the laws of the Province of Quebec, Canada, operates entirely in Canada, and has no subsidiary which operates in the United States. It has no securities outstanding in the hands of the public. It purchases the major portion of its electric power requirements from Gatineau (which is no longer an affiliate of the Paper system) and the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, also a non-affiliate; but, in connection with certain of its manufacturing plants, it owns and operates certain facilities for the generation of electric energy for use in its manufacturing operations, and it sells electric energy to certain affiliated and non-affiliated manufacturing companies, and to tenants, employees, and in a minor measure to others, residents of communities adjacent to certain of its plants. During the eight-year period 1946-1953, Canadian's gross revenues ranged from $87,829,910 in 1946 upwards to $174,646,438 in 1953. During the same period its revenues from the sale of electric energy ranged from $148,453 in 1946 upwards to $253,789 in 1953, of which the portion from sales to tenants, employees, and other householders ranged from $31,000 in 1946 to $58,945 in 1953 (approximately 95 percent being from tenants and employees).

Paper requests permission, upon the entry of an order declaring Canadian not to be an electric utility company, to withdraw the pending applications pertaining to it under sections 2 (a) (7) and 2 (a) (3). Paper also requests that it be relieved of any further duty or obligation under the aforesaid commitment of its predecessors in respect of giving the Commission notice. In this connection, the application states that neither Paper nor any of its subsidiaries owns any securities of IHES, and that Paper owns only 29 shares of preferred stock and 43 shares of common stock of Gatineau, and 1,440 shares of common stock of NEES.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 29, 1954, request in writing that a hearing be held in respect of the above matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission orders a hearing in respect of such matter. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the Commission may grant the relief requested including the entry of an order declaring Canadian not to be an electric utility company, or the Commission may take such other action as it deems appropriate.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

NORTHWEST URANIUM CORP.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 16, 1954.

In the matter of the notification of Northwest Uranium Corporation, having filed with the Commission on May 12, 1953, a notification on Form 1-D for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation D promulgated thereunder; and

The Commission on August 16, 1954, having issued an order, pursuant to Rule 509 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, temporarily suspending the conditional exemption under Regulation D and affording to any person having an interest therein an opportunity to request a hearing pursuant to Rule 509 (b), and a written request for a hearing having been received by the Commission; and

The Commission deeming it necessary and appropriate to determine whether to vacate the temporary suspension order or to enter an order permanently suspending the exemption:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule 509 of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, that a public hearing be held on October 5, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the New York offices of the Commission, 42 Broadway, New York 4, New York, for the purpose of taking evidence to determine:

(1) Whether the matters set forth in section II of the order dated August 16, 1954, are true; and

(2) whether the temporary order of August 16, 1954, against Northwest Uranium Corporation should be vacated or made permanent.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift, or any officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing and any officer or officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to exercise all of the powers granted to the Commission under sections 19 (b), 21 and 22 (c) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and to hearing officers under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That this order and notice shall be served upon Northwest Uranium Corporation, its stock transfer agent, Registrar and Transfer Company, 15 Exchange Place, Jersey City 2, New Jersey, and upon Royal Securities Corporation, 52 Broadway, New York, New York, personally or by registered mail or by confirmed telegraphic notice, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

[Investigation 39]

HARDWOOD PLYWOOD

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION INSTITUTED

Investigation instituted. Upon application of the Hardwood Plywood Institute, Chicago, Illinois, received September 3, 1954, the United States Tariff Commission on the 16th day of September 1954, under the authority of section 7 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, and section 332 of the Tariff Act of 1930, instituted an investigation to determine whether hardwood plywood, except Spanish cedar plywood, provided for in paragraph 405 of the Tariff Act of 1930, is, as a result in whole or in part of the duty or other customs treatment reflecting concessions granted thereon under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, being imported into the United States in such increased quantities, either actual or relative, as to cause or threaten serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive products.

Inspection of application. The application filed in this case is available for public inspection at the office of the Secretary, United States Tariff Commission, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C., and in the New York office of the Tariff Commission, located in Room 437 of the Custom House, where it may be read and copied by persons interested.

I certify that the above investigation was instituted by the United States Tariff Commission on the 16th day of September 1954.

Issued September 17, 1954.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[Notice No. 26]

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 17, 1954.

Protests, consisting of an original and two copies, to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and a copy of such protest served on the applicant. Each protest must clearly state the name and street number, city and state address of each protestant on behalf of whom the protest is filed (49 CFR 1.240 and 49 CFR 1.241). Failure to seasonably file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding unless an oral hearing is held. In addition to other requirements of Rule 40 of the general rules of practice of the Commission (49 CFR 1.40), protests shall include a request for a public hearing, if one is desired, and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests containing general allegations may be rejected. Requests for an oral hearing must be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence cannot be submitted in the form of affidavits. Any interested person, not a protestant, desiring to receive notice of the time and place of any hearing, prehearing conference, taking of depositions, or other proceedings shall notify the Commission by letter or telegram within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Except when circumstances require immediate action, an application for approval, under section 210a (b) of the act, of the temporary operation of motor carrier properties sought to be acquired in an application under section 5 (2) will not be disposed of sooner than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If a protest is received prior to action being taken, it will be considered.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 10822; FCC 54-1185]

[Rules Amdt. 3-20]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

MULTIPLE OWNERSHIP OF TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

1. The Commission has before it for consideration its notice of proposed rule making (FCC 53-1720) issued in this proceeding on December 24, 1953.

2. Section 3.636 of the Commission rules relating to multiple ownership of television broadcast stations presently provides, in pertinent part, that "No license for a television broadcast station shall be granted to any party (including all parties under common control) if • • • such party, or any stockholder, officer or director of such party, directly or indirectly owns, operates, controls, or has any interest in, or is an officer or director of any other television broadcast station if the grant of such license would result in a concentration of control of television broadcasting in a manner incontrary to the public interest, convenience, or necessity for any party or any of provides that the Commission "• • • will in any event consider that there would be such a concentration of control contrary to the public interest, convenience, or necessity for any party or any of its stockholders, officers, or directors to have a direct or indirect interest in, or be stockholders, officers, or directors of, more than five television broadcast stations."[1] Thus, the multiple ownership rules presently place a five-station maximum on the ownership of television stations, without distinction as to whether such stations are VHF or UHF.

3. In its notice of proposed rule making of December 24, 1953, the Commission concluded that the institution of rule-making proceedings looking towards amendment of the rules to permit ownership of additional television stations over and above the present maximum of five in order to encourage the rapid and effective development of the UHF band was warranted. The Commission stated, further, that of the proposals seeking such relief then before it, an increase in the maximum permissible ownership to seven stations, no more than five of which may be in the VHF band, was best designed to achieve the objective of aiding the UHF consistent with preventing undue concentration of control of television facilities. The Commission, therefore, has proposed to amend § 3.636 by increasing the maximum permissible ownership of

[1] The Commission has provided that "control" as used in this section is not limited to majority stock ownership, but includes actual working control in whatever manner exercised. The Commission has also provided that in applying the provisions of the rule to corporations, only those stockholders need be considered who are officers or directors or who directly or indirectly own 1 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock.

6. With respect to the effect of the proposed amendment on the UHF, the above parties maintain that permitting the ownership of two additional UHF stations will provide a much-needed impetus to the UHF. These parties state their belief that adoption of the proposed amendment would encourage entry into the UHF by the networks and other multiple owners "with a know-how, financial and other resources and desire to foster the UHF" and that the promotion that such multiple owners would afford their own UHF stations would markedly increase listener and advertiser acceptance of UHF and would "stir manufacturers of transmitting and receiving equipment (several of whom are multiple owners) to greater development and production of such equipment." It is argued that the benefit to the UHF from the adoption of the proposed amendment would not be limited to those cities where network owned UHF stations would be established but, rather, that the industry as a whole would benefit from "the increased confidence in the capabilities of UHF which will result from these operations." It is urged that the efforts of the networks and other multiple owners in developing program sources for their own UHF stations would result in more and better programs for all UHF stations, and it is contended that even a handful of successful UHF stations in major competitive markets would tend to dispel the doubts surrounding UHF in the minds of the public, advertisers, broadcasters and manufacturers. If such doubts are eliminated, it is contended "the vicious circle of not enough stations—not enough listeners—not enough all-channel receivers—not enough programs—not enough stations, etc. would be broken."

7. It is further asserted by these parties that the networks and other multiple owners will acquire a first-hand knowledge of the day-by-day problems in the operation of UHF stations and that the knowledge so acquired will aid all UHF stations; that participation of experienced broadcasters in the operation of UHF stations will accelerate technical improvements in the UHF, and that the program know-how of multiple owners and the additional resources available to them to staff their stations with competent technical personnel would reflect beneficially on the UHF generally. It is submitted that the confidence fostered by the entry of the multiple owners into the UHF would encourage other UHF operators and thus would increase the total number of UHF stations on the air. This, in turn, would result in an increase in the number of sets converted to receive UHF and in the purchase of sets capable of receiving UHF transmissions.[3]

[3] The Ultra High Frequency Television Association filed a comment generally supporting the proposed amendment. It is explained that the UHF Association submitted a questionnaire to 115 UHF stations to ascertain their views on the proposal. Substantial responses were received from 31 stations as of January 25, 1954. The UHF Association urges that on the whole the proposed amendment would be advantageous to the UHF. The results of the survey indicate as follows:

18 stations generally favor the proposed amendment.
7 stations favor the present limit of five but propose that it be mandatory that this number include a definite proportion of UHF stations.
6 stations favor more than a seven-station maximum, or favor seven stations with proportions of VHF and UHF varying from the five and two ratio proposed by the Commission.
17 stations believed the proposal would not encourage monopoly; seven believed it would encourage monopoly.
20 stations believed the proposal would aid the development of UHF.

8. With respect to the effect of the proposed amendment on the concentration of control of television facilities, the parties note that the present limit of five television stations was adopted in 1945 when the commercial television band was comprised of only 13 channels (subsequently reduced to 12) and when the number of available assignments was fewer than 400 in the 140 metropolitan districts to which channels were then assigned. It is argued that with the utilization of 70 UHF channels increasing the total number of permissible assignments to more than 2,000 in almost 1,300 communities, the proposed amendment would result in a far less concentration of control of television facilities than that permissible at the time of the adoption of the old rule. Raising the maximum as proposed, it is submitted, would conform the Commission's television multiple ownership policy with its AM and FM multiple ownership rules, which permit ownership of seven AM and FM stations.

9. It is also explained that the proposed amendment would not alter that portion of the rule which proscribes the granting of more than one television station to any person if such grant would result in a concentration of control of television broadcasting in a manner inconsistent with the public interest. Pursuant to this provision the Commission would remain free to deal with any problems arising from too great a concentration in a limited area or with other special factors in light of the particular circumstances of the individual cases under consideration.[4] It is argued that the danger of monopoly in concentration of control of television facilities arising from the threatened failure, or partial failure, of the UHF is far greater than any which would arise through the ownership of seven individual stations by a single organization. The five-station limitation, it is argued, serves merely to exclude some of the best qualified and most experienced applicants from UHF operation. It is submitted that increased utilization of the UHF permissible under the proposed amendment would encourage the maximum competition between the television broadcast services rather than abet monopoly.

10. Comments opposing the proposed amendment have been filed by Senator Edwin C. Johnson, the Federal Broadcasting System, Lewis M. Tanner, and Georgia-Carolina Broadcasting Company.

11. In opposition to the proposed amendment it is argued that raising the maximum on television stations as proposed would constitute a reversal of the Commission's policy expressed in its recent multiple ownership prcceeding in which the Commission retained a five-station limit on television authorizations. It is asserted that the Commission has insufficient data at this time relating to the UHF to support its assumption that ownership of additional UHF stations will aid the development of UHF. The survey on which the Commission has based its proposal, it is asserted, was incomplete and, in any event, is now outdated. It is urged that the Commission should suspend the proceeding "until it acquires additional experience and data with regard to manufacturing and distribution of receivers, transmitter equipment and after it has explored fully all problems that directly affect the operation of a UHF station." It is submitted that the public interest would best be served by "the greatest diversity of ownership and management of the channels of communication" and that the entry into the UHF field by the networks and other multiple owners in certain communities will not benefit UHF on an overall basis. It is asserted that the proposal represents "a short-sighted policy of raising the limit on multiple ownership in order to solve an almost entirely unrelated problem of the 'rapid and effective development of the UHF band' ", a problem which it will not solve. It is argued that raising the limit will permit an undue concentration of control in the hands of a few powerful operators, and it is urged that if the Commission desires to aid the UHF, it should do so by insisting that at least two of the five VHF stations now owned by multiple owners be changed to UHF.

CONCLUSIONS

12. The Commission's present rules which make no distinction between VHF and UHF stations place a limit of five on the number of stations that may be owned by the same person. In this respect the rules do not differ from the regulations in effect prior to the Commission's recent multiple ownership decision. However, in its Report and Order the Commission expressly advised that several petitions had been filed requesting that a distinction be drawn between VHF and UHF stations for multiple ownership purposes and urging that either no limitation be placed on the ownership of UHF stations or that the limitation on television holdings be raised to seven or eight with no more than five stations in the VHF band. The Commission stated in its Report that it was then engaged in a study of the television stations to seven, no more than five of which may be in the VHF band.

4. Comments supporting the proposed amendment have been filed by National Broadcasting Company, Inc., American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, Inc., Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc., Allen B. DuMont Laboratories, Inc., Storer Broadcasting Company, Telecasting, Inc., the Ultra High Frequency Television Association, and Ozark Television Corporation.[2]

5. The arguments advanced in support of the proposed amendment are twofold: First, the parties urge that permitting the ownership of additional UHF television stations will encourage the rapid and effective development of the UHF service. Second, they contend that the ownership of seven television stations, no more than five of which may be in the VHF band, would not constitute an undue concentration of control of television facilities in contravention of the Commission's policy of diversification.

[2] Ozark Television Corporation, St. Louis, Missouri, has filed a comment generally supporting the proposed amendment. However, it is urged that in lieu of the "five and two" rule which the Commission proposed that a "five and two and one-half" rule be adopted. Under this proposal the ownership of 5 minority UHF interests would be permitted in addition to the interests permitted under the present rule.

[4] Allen B. Du Mont Laboratories, Inc., in its comment supporting the adoption of the proposed amendment urges that the proposal should be adopted only upon the concurrent adoption of a policy which will prohibit the acquisition of any multiple television authorization, or the continued holding of any multiple authorization, "under conditions or in the case of probable activities which would permit any substantial degree of monopoly of communication by any media or which would fail affirmatively to benefit the public interest.

position of the post-freeze television stations and that it was "deferring consideration of the multiple ownership facet of the UHF question to the overall UHF study." The Commission, therefore, did not reach a final determination on this particular matter in that proceeding but reserved it for determination in this separate proceeding.

13. The problem that is presented in these proceedings is whether the more rapid and effective development of the UHF band warrants permitting the ownership of additional UHF stations. We believe that it does. We are aware of the serious problems which presently confront the development of the UHF. The problem is particularly acute in the larger pre-freeze markets where high VHF-only set saturation obtains. It is in these areas particularly where the prestige, capital, and know-how of the networks and other multiple owners would be most effective in aiding UHF. We are persuaded that the entry of these multiple owners into such key markets will furnish a substantial impetus to UHF.

14. Our decision to permit the ownership of television stations over and above the five-station limitation presently in the rules in no way is a departure from the recent multiple ownership Report and Order in Docket No. 8967. In that Report and Order the Commission reaffirmed its view that the operation of broadcast stations by a large group of diversified licensees will better serve the public interest than the operation of broadcast stations by a small and limited group of licensees. Thus, the Commission has provided that a grant of even one additional broadcast station will not be made where it "would result in a concentration of control of * * * broadcasting in a manner inconsistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity." Clearly if the only relevant consideration were implementation of the policy of diversification, an absolute limitation of one broadcast station to any one person or persons under common control would best serve the public interest. But, of course, that is not the case. The multiple ownership of broadcast stations does play an important role in our nationwide broadcast system. The ownership of broadcast stations in major markets by the networks, for example, is an important element of network broadcasting. Our nationwide system of broadcasting as we know it today requires that some multiple ownership of broadcast stations be permitted. We have always recognized these needs and have by rule permitted multiple ownership of broadcast stations in the light of such (other and competing) considerations. Here too it is our view that the greater good which will flow from the proposed rule offsets the disadvantage resulting from permitting individual licensees to own a larger number of stations.

15. In its comment supporting the proposed amendment, Allen B. DuMont Laboratories, Inc. urges that the Commission adopt a policy which will prohibit the acquisition of any multiple television authorization "under conditions or in the case of probable activities which would permit any substantial degree of monopoly of communication by any media or which would fail affirmatively to benefit the public interest." We believe, however, that the present rule adequately covers this situation. The rule provides that "no license for a television broadcast station shall be granted to any party * * * if the grant of such license would result in a concentration of control of television broadcasting in a manner inconsistent with public interest, convenience, or necessity." We can see no basis, also, for adoption of the "five and two and one-half" rule suggested by Ozark Television Corporation. As set forth in our previous Report and Order, we do not believe it advisable to differentiate as to degrees of ownership in broadcast facilities for purposes of these rules.

16. Authority for the adoption of the amendment herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (r), 311, 313, and 314 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

17. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That, effective October 22, 1954, § 3.636 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended as set out below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 303, 311, 313, 314, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended, 1087, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303, 311, 313, 314)

Adopted: September 17, 1954.

Released: September 17, 1954.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,[1]

[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS, Secretary.

Section 3.636 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Such party, or any stockholder, officer or director of such party, directly or indirectly owns, operates, controls, or has any interest in, or is an officer or director of any other television broadcast station if the grant of such license would result in a concentration of control of television broadcasting in a manner inconsistent with public interest, convenience, or necessity. In determining whether there is such a concentration of control, consideration will be given to the facts of each case with particular reference to such factors as the size, extent and location of area served, the number of people served, and the extent of other competitive service to the areas in question. The Commission, however, will in any event consider that there would be such a concentration of control contrary to the public interest, convenience or necessity for any party or any of its stockholders, officers or directors to have a direct or indirect interest in, or be stockholders, officers, or directors of, more than seven television broadcast stations, no more than five of which may be in the VHF band."[2]

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53583]

PART 71—IMPORTATION OF ARTICLES IN CONNECTION WITH THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL INSTRUMENT CONGRESS AND EXPOSITION AT PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, UNDER PUBLIC LAW NO. 481, 83D CONGRESS[1]

SEPTEMBER 17, 1954.

The following regulations under Public Law No. 481, 83d Congress, approved July 10, 1954, relate to the entry of articles in connection with the First International Instrument Congress and Exposition to be held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 13 to September 25, 1954.

Sec.
71.1 Invoices; marking; bond.
71.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure.
71.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act of June 25, 1938.
71.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses.
71.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment.

AUTHORITY: §§ 71.1 to 71.5 issued under Pub Law 481, 83d Cong.

§ 71.1 Invoices; marking; bond. (a) Articles intended for exhibition under the provisions of Public Law No. 481, 83d Congress, and valued over $250 are subject to the usual certified invoice requirements if of a class for which such invoices are required under the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder. The certified invoices shall be on foreign service Form 138 (Invoice of Merchandise) and shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C., 1481).

(b) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under the regulations in this part, except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) The Instrument Society of America shall give to the collector of customs at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a bond in an amount to be determined by the collector and containing such conditions for compliance with Public Law No. 481, 83d Congress, and the regulations in this part, as shall be approved by the Bureau of Customs.

§ 71.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure. (a) All entries under the regulations in this part shall be made at the port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the name of the Instrument Society of America, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under the regulations in this part, an entry under the general tariff law in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the Instrument Society of America to make such entry may be accepted by the collector.

(b) Articles to be entered under the regulations in this part which arrive at ports other than Philadelphia shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner prescribed by the general customs regulations.

(c) Upon the arrival at the port of Philadelphia of articles to be entered under the regulations in this part, they shall be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

ENTRY FOR EXHIBITION

Entry No. ----

Entry at the port of Philadelphia of articles consigned or transferred to the Instrument Society of America, under ----------, I. T. No. ----, ex S. S. ----, from ----------, on the ---------- day of ----, 19--, for exhibition purposes under Public Law No. 481 of the 83d Congress, approved July 10, 1954.

INSTRUMENT SOCIETY OF AMERICA,
By ----------

(d) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. The articles shall be tentatively appraised prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits entered under the regulations in this part shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with § 71.5 (a).

(e) If for any reason articles imported for entry under the regulations in this part are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within one year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided for, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such period, they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(f) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any customs law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the exposition in the manner prescribed in § 10.49 (c) of this chapter, except that in each case an entry under § 71.2 (c) shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in § 71.1 (c) shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the exposition in the manner prescribed in § 8.33 of this chapter.

§ 71.3 Compliance with provisions of Plant Quarantine Act and Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The entry of plant material subject to restriction under the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 151–164a, 167), shall not be permitted except under permits issued therefor by the Plant Quarantine Branch of the Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture, and in accordance with the plant quarantine regulations. The entry of food products shall conform to the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended (21 U. S. C. 301 et seq.), and regulations issued thereunder.

§ 71.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses. (a) The collector of customs at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, shall detail an officer to act as his representative at the exposition and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary properly to protect the revenue.

(b) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the exposition or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the Instrument Society of America to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Collecting the Revenue from Customs."

§ 71.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment. (a) Any article entered under the regulations of this part may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, for destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time prior to the opening of the exposition or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided for in section 501 of the

[1] * * * any article which is imported from a foreign country for the purpose of exhibition at the First International Instrument Congress and Exposition, to be held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from September 13 to September 25, 1954, inclusive, by the Instrument Society of America, a corporation, or for use in constructing, installing, or maintaining foreign exhibits at such exposition, upon which there is a tariff or customs duty, shall be admitted without payment of such tariff or customs duty or any fees or charges, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

SEC. 2. It shall be lawful at any time during or within three months after the close of such exposition to sell within the area of the exposition any articles provided for herein, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. All such articles, when withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, shall be subject to the duties, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of their withdrawal; and on such articles which shall have suffered diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure, the duties, if payable, shall be assessed according to the appraised value at the time of withdrawal from entry hereunder for consumption or entry under the general tariff law.

SEC. 3. Imported articles provided for herein shall not be subject to any marking requirements of the general tariff laws, except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall not be released from customs custody until properly marked, but no additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not sufficiently marked when imported into the United States.

SEC. 4. At any time within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the United States or destroyed under customs supervision, whereupon any duties on such article shall be remitted.

SEC. 5. Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond and imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be accorded the privilege of transfer to and entry for exhibition at such exposition, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

SEC. 6. The Instrument Society of America, a corporation, shall be deemed, for customs purposes only, to be the sole consignee of all merchandise imported under the provisions of this Act. The actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision, custody of, and accounting for, articles imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be reimbursed by the Instrument Society of America, a corporation, to the United States, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Receipts from such reimbursements shall be deposited as refunds to the appropriation from which paid, in the manner provided for in section 524 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1524). Public Law 481, 83d Congress.

Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal from entry under the provisions of Public Law No. 481 of the 83d Congress.

(b) At any time prior to the opening of the exposition, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered under this part may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided for in § 15.4 of this chapter.

(c) Any article entered under the regulations in this part which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, or exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

[SEAL] RALPH KELLY,
Commissioner of Customs.

Approved: September 17, 1954.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR Parts 171, 182]

LIQUOR AND INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1001, et seq.), approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted, in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 3105, 3124, 3176 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 358, 364, 375, 467; 26 U. S. C. 3105, 3124, 3176, 3791).

[SEAL] T. COLEMAN ANDREWS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The purpose of these amendments is to make the provisions of Regulations 123 "Rules of Practice in Permit Proceedings" (26 CFR Part 200), which are issued concurrently with these amendments, applicable to permit proceedings instead of the procedures now set forth in the "Miscellaneous Regulations Relating to Liquor" (26 CFR Part 171 Subpart A) and Regulations 3 (26 CFR Part 182).

PARAGRAPH 1. "Miscellaneous Regulations Relating to Liquor" (26 CFR Part 171) are amended as follows:

(A) Section 171.1 (b) is revoked.

(B) Subpart A of Part 171 is revoked.

PAR. 2. Regulations 3 (26 CFR Part 182) are amended as follows:

(A) Sections 182.220a, 182.220b, 182.221 through 182.225, 182.228 (a), 182.236 (b), 182.237, 182.239, 182.240a, 182.240b, 182.241 through 182.244, 182.246 through 182.258, 182.263, 182.264, 182.455a, 182.875 (f), and 182.859 are revoked.

(B) Section 182.220, as amended by Treasury Decision 5551, effective March 10, 1947, and the headnote thereto, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 182.220 Contemplated disapproval of application. If, upon examination of an application for a basic permit, the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that the applicant is not entitled to such permit, he shall issue a citation for the contemplated disapproval of the application in accordance with the procedure set forth in Part 200 of this chapter, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

(C) The introductory text of § 182.226, as amended by Treasury Decision 5788, effective July 1, 1950, and the headnote thereof, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 182.226 Application for, and revocation of, permits. All basic permits covering operations included in this part are subject to the provision of this part and, with respect to administrative proceedings for disapproval of application for, and for revocation of, basic permits, to the provisions of Part 200 of this chapter. The basic permits covered by this part are as follows:

* * * * *

(D) Section 182.238, as amended by Treasury Decision 5551, effective March 10, 1947, and the headnote thereto, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 182.238 Authority to revoke. The authority and power of revoking basic permits issued pursuant to the provisions of this part is conferred upon the Commissioner and upon the hearing examiners as set forth in Part 200 of this chapter.

(E) Section 182.240 is amended to read as follows:

§ 182.240 Grounds for citation. If at any time there shall be filed with the Assistant Regional Commissioner a complaint under oath setting forth facts showing, or if the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe, that any person who has an alcohol permit is not in good faith conforming to the provisions of law applicable to such permit or has violated the terms of such permit, or has made any false statement in the application therefor, or has willfully failed to disclose any information required by regulation to be furnished, or has violated any law of the United States, or any State or any Territory or possession of the United States or of the District of Columbia relating to intoxicating liquor, he shall issue a citation for the revocation of such permit.

(F) Section 182.265 and the headnote thereof, is amended to read as follows:

§ 182.265 Changes in control and management. Where a permittee discontinues the services of a manager or employs a new or additional manager, such change shall be reported to the Assistant Regional Commissioner within 10 days thereafter. In the event of the Assistant Regional Commissioner's disapproval of the new or additional manager, the permittee shall, within 10 days after notice of such disapproval, discontinue the services of such new or additional manager.

(G) Section 182.266 is amended to read as follows:

§ 182.266 Changes in officers and directors. Where there is a change in the officers or directors of a corporation, the permittee shall, within 10 days thereafter, notify the Assistant Regional Commissioner of such change and furnish extracts, in triplicate, of the minutes of the meeting showing such change.

(H) Sections 182.554, 182.656, 182.690, 182.747, and 182.832 are amended by deleting from each of said sections the last sentence thereof reading: "Failure on the part of permittees to observe the foregoing requirements concerning withdrawals will be regarded as sufficient grounds for citation for revocation of their basic permits."

(I) Section 182.282a as added by Treasury Decision 5801, effective September 1, 1950, is amended by striking from the first sentence the phrase "as provided in §§ 182.220 to 182.224" and inserting, in lieu thereof, the phrase "as provided in Part 200 of this chapter".

(J) Section 182.292 as last amended by Treasury Decision 5801, effective September 1, 1950, is further amended by striking from the first sentence the phrase "as provided in §§ 182.220 to 182.224" and inserting, in lieu thereof, the phrase "as provided in Part 200 of this chapter".

(K) There is added, immediately following § 182.227 a new section as follows:

§ 182.227a Public information as to application proceedings. The Assistant Regional Commissioner shall cause to be maintained currently in his office for public inspection, until the expiration of one year following final action on the application, the following information with respect to each application for basic permit filed:

(a) The name, including trade name or names, if any, and the address of the applicant; the kind of permit applied for and the location of the business; whether the applicant is an individual, a partnership or a corporation; if a partnership, the name and address of each partner; if a corporation, the name and address of each of the principal officers and of each stockholder owning 10 percent or more of the corporation stock.

(b) The time and place set for any hearings on the application.

(c) The final action taken on the application. In the event a hearing is held upon an application for a basic permit, the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall make available for inspection at his office, upon request therefor: The transcript of the hearing, a copy of the examiner's recommended decision, a copy of the Assistant Regional Commissioner's decision and, in the event of an appeal to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, the decision on appeal with the reasons given in support thereof.

(L) Section 182.262 as last amended by Treasury Decision 6074, effective July 2, 1954, is further amended by redesignating paragraphs (a) and (b) thereof as paragraphs (b) and (c), and adding a new paragraph (a) reading as follows:

(a) Defined. A change in proprietorship shall be deemed to occur in the case of:

(1) The sale or transfer of the business or any part thereof; or

(2) The transfer or passage of the property of the permittee to a successor legal representative, receiver, trustee or other fiduciary, by operation of law, whether through death, insolvency, bankruptcy, or court order; or

(3) The withdrawal of one or more members of a partnership or the taking in of a new partner, whether active or silent, or, except as provided in section 263a, the death, bankruptcy or adjudicated insolvency of one or more of the copartners; or

(4) The sale, transfer, pledge, or other disposition of any capital stock of a corporation or association which results in a transfer of the control and management of such corporation; or

(5) The reorganization of a corporation where a new charter or certificate of incorporation is obtained.

(M) There is added, immediately following § 182.234, a new section as follows:

§ 182.234a Authority to disapprove renewal applications. The authority and power of disapproving applications for the renewal of basic permits pursuant to the provision of this part is conferred upon the Commissioner and upon the hearing examiners, as set forth in Part 200 of this chapter.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted, in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 3105, 3124, 3176 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 358, 364, 375, 467; 26 U. S. C. 3105, 3124, 3176, 3791).

T. COLEMAN ANDREWS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Preamble. 1. These regulations, "Regulations 123—Rules of Practice in Permit Proceedings" (26 CFR Part 200), shall, except as stated in paragraph 2, on and after the effective date, supersede all of Subpart A—"Procedure" of Part 171 "Miscellaneous Regulations Relating to Liquor" (26 CFR Part 171); and §§ 182.220a, 182.220b, 182.221–182.225, 182.239, 182.240a, 182.240b, 182.241–182.244 and 182.246–182.258 of Regulations 3, "Industrial Alcohol" (26 CFR Part 182).

2. The regulations in this part shall not affect or limit any act done or any liability incurred under any regulations superseded hereby, or any suit, action, or proceeding had or commenced in any civil, administrative, or criminal cause and proceeding prior to the effective date of this part, nor shall this part release, acquit, affect, or limit any offense committed in violation of previously existing regulations, or any penalty, liability or forfeiture incurred prior to such date.

3. The regulations in this part shall except as provided in paragraph 2, be effective the 31st day following the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SUBPART A—SCOPE AND CONSTRUCTION OF REGULATIONS

§ 200.1 Scope of part. The rules in this part govern the procedure and practice in connection with the disapproval of applications for basic permits, and for the suspension, revocation and annulment of such permits under sections 3 and 4 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U. S. C. 201 et seq.) and disapproval, suspension, and revocation of basic permits under the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.). The rules in this part shall also govern, insofar as applicable, any adversary proceeding involving adjudication required by statute to be determined on the record, after opportunity for hearing, under laws administered by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service.

§ 200.2 Liberal construction. The rules in this part shall be liberally construed to secure just, expeditious, and efficient determination of the issues presented. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure of the District Courts of the United States, where applicable, shall be a guide in any situation not provided for or controlled by this part, but shall be liberally construed, or relaxed when necessary.

SUBPART B—DEFINITIONS

§ 200.5 Meaning of terms. As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this subpart.

§ 200.6 Applicant. "Applicant" shall mean any person who has filed an initial application for a permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act or Internal Revenue Code.

§ 200.7 Application. "Application" shall mean any application for a permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act or Internal Revenue Code. The term "initial application" shall mean an application for an original permit for operations not covered by an existing permit. The term "renewal application" shall mean an application timely filed for the renewal of an existing permit.

§ 200.8 Assistant Regional Commissioner. "Assistant Regional Commissioner" shall mean the Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, who is responsible to, and functions under the direction and supervision of the Regional Commissioner.

§ 200.9 Citation. "Citation" shall include any notice contemplating the disapproval of an application (whether initial or renewal) or any order to show cause why a permit should not be suspended, revoked or annulled.

§ 200.10 Commissioner. "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and shall include anyone authorized to act in his place and stead.

§ 200.11 Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. "Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division" shall mean the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C., and shall include anyone authorized to act in his place and stead.

§ 200.12 Examiner. "Examiner" shall mean the examiner appointed pursuant to section 11 of the Administrative Procedure Act, designated to preside over any administrative proceeding under this part.

§ 200.13 Initial decision. "Initial decision" shall mean the decision (order) of the Assistant Regional Commissioner in any proceeding on an initial application for a permit, and the decision of the examiner in any proceeding on the suspension, revocation or annulment of a permit or on the disapproval of a renewal application.

§ 200.14 Other terms. Any other term defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U. S. C. 201), the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.) or the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1001) where used in the regulations in this part shall have the meaning assigned to it therein.

§ 200.15 Permit. "Permit" shall mean a formal document issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act or the Internal Revenue Code, authorizing the person named therein to engage in the activities described. The term "FAA permit" shall apply to a permit issued under section 3 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, and the term "alcohol permit" shall apply to a permit issued under section 3114 of the Internal Revenue Code.

§ 200.16 Permittee. "Permittee" shall mean any person holding a basic permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act or the Internal Revenue Code, as aforesaid.

§ 200.17 Person. "Person" shall mean an individual, partnership, joint stock company, business trust, association, corporation or other form of business enterprise including receivers, trustees, or liquidating agents.

§ 200.18 Recommended decision. "Recommended decision" shall mean the advisory decision of the examiner in any proceeding on an initial application for a permit.

§ 200.19 Regional Commissioner. "Regional Commissioner" shall mean the Regional Commissioner of Internal Revenue in each of the internal revenue regions, and shall include anyone authorized to act in his place and stead.

§ 200.20 Respondent. "Respondent" shall mean any person holding a permit against which an order has been issued to show cause why such permit should not be suspended, revoked or annulled, or against the renewal of which a notice of contemplated disapproval has been issued.

SUBPART C—GENERAL

§ 200.25 Communications and pleadings. All communications to the Government regarding the procedures set forth in this part and all pleadings, such as answers, motions, requests, or other papers or documents required or permitted to be filed under this part, relating to a proceeding pending before an examiner, shall be addressed to the examiner at his post of duty or to the examiner in care of the Assistant Regional Commissioner of the region in which the business of the applicant or respondent is operated or proposed to be operated to be forwarded to the examiner. Communications concerning proceedings not pending before an examiner should be addressed to the Assistant Regional Commissioner or Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, as the case may be. All pleadings should be filed in quadruplicate.

§ 200.26 Service of orders and citations. All orders, notices, citations, motions and other formal documents, except subpoenas, required to be served under the regulations in this part may be served by mailing a signed duplicate original copy thereof to the permittee or applicant by registered mail, with request for return receipt card, at the address stated in his permit or application or at his last known address, or by delivery of such original copy to the permittee or applicant personally, or in the case of a corporation, partnership, or other unincorporated association, by delivering the same to an officer, or manager or general agent thereof, or to its attorney of record. Such personal service may be made by any employee of the Internal Revenue Service or by any employee of the Treasury Department designated by the Secretary. A certificate of mailing and the return receipt card, or certificate of service signed by the person making such service, shall be proof of service and shall be filed as a part of the record.

TIME

§ 200.27 Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, the day of the act, event or default after which the designated period of time is to run, is not to be included. The last day of the period to be computed is to be included, unless it be a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. Pleadings, requests, or other papers or documents required or permitted to be filed under these rules must be received for filing at the appropriate office within the time limits, if any, for such filing.

§ 200.28 Continuances and extensions. For good cause shown, the Commissioner, Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Assistant Regional Commissioner, or the examiner, as the case may be, may grant continuances and as to all matters pending before him extend any time limit prescribed by these rules in this part (except where the time limit is statutory).

REPRESENTATION AT HEARINGS

§ 200.29 Personal representation. Any individual or member of a partnership may after adequate identification, appear for himself, or such partnership, and a corporation or association may be represented by a bona fide officer of such corporation or association, upon showing of adequate authorization.

§ 200.30 Attorneys. A respondent or applicant may be represented by an attorney: Provided, That such attorney is duly enrolled to practice before the Treasury Department under the provisions of 31 CFR Part 10 (Treasury Department Circular No. 230),[1] and files in the proceeding a duly executed power of attorney to represent the applicant or respondent. See Conference and Practice Requirements, Internal Revenue Service, §§ 601.4 and 601.72 of this chapter.

§ 200.31 Authority of Commissioner. The Commissioner shall have all the authority granted by this part to examiners, Assistant Regional Commissioners, and the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, and may exercise any of the functions prescribed in this part.

SUBPART D—COMPLIANCE AND SETTLEMENT

§ 200.35 Opportunity for compliance. Except in proceedings involving willfulness or those in which the public interest requires otherwise, and the Assistant Regional Commissioner so alleges in his citation, stating his reasons therefor, no permit shall be suspended, revoked or annulled, or application for renewal disapproved, unless, prior to the institution of proceedings, facts or conduct warranting such action shall have been called to the attention of the permittee, or applicant for renewal, by the Assistant Regional Commissioner, in writing, and the permittee shall have been accorded an opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance with all lawful requirements, as set forth in section 9 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act. If the permittee fails to meet the requirements of the law and regulations within such reasonable time as may be specified by the Assistant Regional Commissioner, proceedings for suspension, revocation or annulment of the permit, or disapproval of the renewal application, shall be initiated.

INFORMAL SETTLEMENT

§ 200.36 General. In all proceedings in which a permittee is cited to show cause why his permit should not be suspended, revoked or anulled, or his application for renewal disapproved, he shall be afforded opportunity for the submission and consideration of facts, arguments, offers of settlement, or proposals of adjustment, where time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest permit, in accordance with section 5 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act. Such submittals should be made to the Assistant Regional Commissioner. Where necessary, the date of the hearing may be postponed, pending consideration of such proposals, when they are made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay. If proposals of settlement are submitted, and they are considered unsatisfactory, the Assistant Regional Commissioner may reject the proposals and may inform the permittee of any conditions on which the alleged violations may be settled. If the proposals of settlement are considered satisfactory to the Assistant Regional Commissioner, he shall notify the permittee thereof and shall move the dismissal of the proceedings, unless such proposals of settlement include a monetary offer in compromise, in which event he shall advise the hearing examiner that the offer has been made and is under consideration and the hearing examiner may, in his discretion, continue the proceeding pending final action on such monetary offer in compromise or he may proceed with the hearing and his consideration of the matter pending final action, but in no event shall he render his decision until final action on such offer in compromise.

§ 200.37 Notice of contemplated action. Where the Assistant Regional Commissioner believes that the matter may be settled informally, i. e., without formal administrative proceedings, he shall, in accordance with section 5 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act, prior to the issuance of a citation, inform the permittee of the contemplated issuance of an order to show cause why his permit should not be suspended, revoked or annulled, or his application for renewal thereof be disapproved, and that he is being given an opportunity for the submission and consideration of facts, arguments, offers of settlement, or proposals of adjustment. The notice should inform the permittee of the charges on which the citation would be based, if issued, and afford him a period of 10 days from the date of the notice, or such longer period as the Assistant Regional Commissioner deems necessary, in which to submit proposals of settlement to the Assistant Regional Commissioner. Where informal settlement is not reached promptly because of the inaction of the permittee, or proposals are made for the purpose of delay, citation shall issue in accordance with §§ 200.55 and 200.56, and the hearing shall be held in accordance with the rules in this part.

§ 200.38 Limitation on informal settlement. Where the evidence is conclusive and the nature of the violation is such as to preclude any settlement short of suspension, revocation or annulment, or disapproval of renewal application, or the violation is of a continuing character that necessitates immediate action to protect the public interest, or where the Assistant Regional Commissioner believes that any informal settlement of the alleged violation will not insure future compliance with the laws and regulations, or in any similar case where the circumstances are such as to clearly preclude informal settlement, and the Assistant Regional Commissioner so finds and states his reasons therefor as provided in § 200.35, he may restrict settlement to that provided in § 200.70.

SUBPART E—GROUNDS FOR CITATION

§ 200.45 FAA permits. Whenever the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that any person has willfully violated any of the conditions of his FAA permit, or has not in fact or in good faith engaged in the operations authorized by such permit for a period of more than two years, or that such permit was procured through fraud, misrepresentation or concealment of material facts, he shall issue a citation for the suspension, revocation or annulment of such permit, as the case may be.

§ 200.46 Alcohol permits. If at any time there shall be filed with the Assistant Regional Commissioner a complaint under oath setting forth facts showing, or if the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe, that any person who has an alcohol permit is not in good faith conforming to the provisions of law applicable to such permit or has violated the terms of such permit, or has made any false statement in the application therefor, or has willfully failed to disclose any information required by regulation to be furnished, or has violated any law of the United States, or any State or any Territory or possession of the United States or of the District of Columbia relating to intoxicating liquor, he shall issue a citation for the revocation of such permit.

§ 200.47 Applications. If, upon examination of any application (including a renewal application) for a permit, the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that the applicant is not entitled to such permit he shall issue a citation for the contemplated disapproval of the application.

§ 200.48 Expiration of permit. In any case where a permittee has, in accordance with the law and regulations, made timely and sufficient application for a renewal of its permit, such permit shall not expire until such application shall have been finally determined.

SUBPART F—HEARING PROCEDURE

CITATIONS

§ 200.55 Content. Citations for the suspension, revocation or annulment of a permit shall be issued by the Assistant Regional Commissioner and shall set forth (a) the sections of law and regulations relied upon for authority and jurisdiction of the hearing, (b) in separate paragraphs, the matters of fact and law constituting the violations specified, dates, places, sections of law and regulations violated, and (c) the time (in alcohol permit proceedings not more than 30 and not less than 15 days from date of service of citation) and place and nature of the hearing. Citations for the disapproval of an application for an initial or renewal permit shall set forth (1) the sections of law and regulations relied upon for authority and jurisdiction, (2) in separate paragraphs, the matters of fact and law relied upon for the contemplated disapproval of the application, and (3) that the application will be disapproved unless within 15 days a hearing thereon is requested.

§ 200.56 Form. Citations shall be issued on the following forms:

(a) Form 1430, "Order To Show Cause Why Permit Should Not Be Revoked," shall be used where citations are issued against alcohol permittees on complaint, under oath, of persons other than the Assistant Regional Commissioner, and there shall be attached thereto a copy of the complaint.

(b) Form 1430–A, "Order To Show Cause," shall be used where citations are issued at the instance of the Assistant Regional Commissioner for the suspension, revocation, or annulment of FAA permits and the revocation of alcohol permits.

(c) Form 1430–C, "Notice of Contemplated Disapproval of Application For Basic Permit," shall be used to issue notice of contemplated disapproval of applications for permits, whether initial or renewal.

§ 200.57 Execution and disposition. Forms 1430, 1430–A and 1430–C shall be executed in quintuplicate. A signed duplicate original shall be served on the permittee, one copy shall be retained for the examiner designated to conduct the hearing, the original copy, containing the certificate of service, shall be placed in the official record of the proceeding, and the remaining copies shall be retained for the Assistant Regional Commissioner's office.

§ 200.58 Designated place of hearing. The designated place of hearing, (a) in the case of alcohol permits, shall be within the same Federal judicial district and within fifty miles of the place wherein the acts constituting the violations are alleged to have occurred unless the parties agree on a different place; and (b) in the case of FAA permits, shall be such as meets the convenience or necessity of the parties.

REQUEST FOR HEARING

§ 200.59 Upon application. If the applicant for an initial or renewal permit desires a hearing, he shall file a request therefor, in writing, with the Assistant Regional Commissioner within fifteen days after receipt of notice of the contemplated disapproval, in whole or in part, of his application.

§ 200.60 Suspension, revocation or annulment. No request for a hearing is necessary on citations for suspension, revocation or annulment, since the order to show cause sets forth on its face the date the respondent is to appear to show cause why his permit should not be suspended, revoked or annulled.

§ 200.61 Notice of hearing. In case a request for a hearing is filed by the applicant within the required time, the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall refer the matter to the examiner and the examiner shall set a time and place for a hearing and shall serve notice thereof upon the applicant at least ten days in advance of the hearing date.

NON-REQUEST FOR HEARING

§ 200.62 Initial application. In the case of an initial application, if the applicant does not request a hearing within the time specified in § 200.59, or within such further time as the Assistant Regional Commissioner may in his discretion allow, the Assistant Regional Commissioner will by order, stating the findings upon which it is based, disapprove the application, and will serve signed duplicate original of such order on the applicant.

§ 200.63 Renewal application. In the case of a renewal application, if the applicant does not request a hearing within the time specified in § 200.59, the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall immediately refer the matter to the examiner who shall set it down for hearing as if such hearing had been requested.

ANSWERS

§ 200.64 When required. After service of a citation upon the respondent, ordering him to appear and show cause why his permit shall not be suspended, revoked or annulled, if he desires to contest the proceedings he shall, within 15 days from service of the order to show cause, file with the examiner and serve on the Assistant Regional Commissioner an answer, in writing, to the allegations set forth therein. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts that constitute his grounds of defense. Evidence to be introduced upon such hearing may be limited to the issues contained in the order to show cause and answers filed thereto: Provided, however, That where justice demands, the examiner shall waive any of the requirements of this section. Answers need not be filed in application proceedings.

§ 200.65 Answer admitting facts. If the respondent desires to waive the hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the order to show cause, and does not contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that the respondent admits all material allegations of fact charged in the citation to be true. The examiner shall thereupon base his findings on the citation and such answer: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall affect the respondent's right to submit proposed findings and conclusions of fact or law and his right of appeal.

FAILURE TO APPEAR

§ 200.66 Initial applications. Where the applicant on an initial application for a permit has requested a hearing and does not appear at the appointed time and place, and evidence has not been offered to refute or explain the grounds upon which disapproval of the application is contemplated, this shall be construed as a waiver of the hearing, a default will be entered and the examiner shall recommend disapproval of said application.

§ 200.67 Renewal applications. Where the applicant on an application for a renewal permit has requested a hearing, or hearing has been set as provided in § 200.63, and no evidence is offered as stated, counsel for the Government will proceed ex parte as set forth in § 200.68.

§ 200.68 Suspension, revocation or annulment. If on the date set for the hearing respondent does not appear and no evidence has been offered, counsel for the Government will proceed ex parte and offer for the record sufficient evidence to make a prima facie case. At such hearing, documents, statements and affidavits may be submitted in lieu of testimony of witnesses.

WAIVER OF HEARING

§ 200.69 Application proceedings. At any time after the service of the notice of contemplated disapproval of an application for an initial or renewal permit and prior to final action thereon, the applicant, if he so desires, may file a written notice withdrawing the application with the Assistant Regional Commissioner who shall thereupon move the examiner to dismiss the proceedings as moot.

§ 200.70 Suspension, revocation or annulment proceedings. After the service of a citation for the suspension, revocation or annulment of a basic permit, the permittee may, if he so desires, waive the taking of evidence, but such waiver shall be accepted only if he stipulates that the examiner may enter an appropriate decision sustaining the charges and suspending, revoking or annulling the permit.

SURRENDER OF PERMIT

§ 200.71 Before citation. If a respondent surrenders his permit before citation, the Assistant Regional Commissioner may accept the surrender. But if the evidence, in the opinion of the Assistant Regional Commissioner, warrants citation for suspension, revocation or annulment, he shall refuse to accept such surrender and shall issue the citation notifying the permittee at the same time that he may file a formal waiver as provided in § 200.70. Should such waiver not be filed after notice, the examiner will proceed with the hearing on the citation.

§ 200.72 After citation. If a respondent surrenders his permit after citation and prior to the decision of the examiner, the Assistant Regional Commissioner may accept the surrender of the permit and move the examiner to dismiss the proceeding as moot. If, however, in the opinion of the Assistant Regional Commissioner the evidence is such as to warrant suspension, revocation or annulment, as the case may be, he shall refuse to accept the surrender of the permit and shall notify the respondent that he may file a formal waiver as provided in § 200.70. Should such formal waiver not be filed after notice, the examiner will proceed with the hearing on the citation.

MOTIONS

§ 200.73 General. All motions shall be made and addressed to the officer before whom the proceeding is pending. Such officer may dispose of any motion without oral argument, but he may, if he so desires, set it down for hearing and request argument. He may dispose of such motion prior to the hearing on the merits or he may postpone the disposition until the hearing on the merits. No appeal may be taken from any ruling on a motion until the whole record is certified for review.

§ 200.74 Prior to hearing. All motions which should be made prior to the hearing, such as motions directed to the sufficiency of the pleadings or of preliminary orders, shall be filed in writing with the Assistant Regional Commissioner issuing the citation or the examiner if the matter has been referred to him, and shall briefly state the order or relief applied for and the grounds for such motion, and shall be filed within 15 days after service of the citation.

§ 200.75 At hearing. Motions at the hearing may be made in writing to the examiner, or stated orally on the record.

HEARING

§ 200.76 General. Unless the hearing is waived by the applicant or permittee, or postponed, or transferred to another place, by a written agreement signed by the applicant or permittee, or his attorney, and the attorney for the Government and approved and filed with the examiner, or unless the hearing is postponed, or transferred (subject to statutory limitations) by order of the examiner for good cause shown by either party, it shall be held at the time and place stated in the citation, by the examiner named in the citation, or any other duly designated and appointed examiner assigned to hold such hearing.

§ 200.77 Initial applications. The examiner who presides at the hearing on initial applications shall recommend a decision to the Assistant Regional Commissioner who shall make the initial decision as provided in § 200.107. The applicant may be directed by the Assistant Regional Commissioner to produce such records as may be deemed necessary for examination. All hearings on initial applications shall be open to the public subject to such restrictions and limitations as may be consistent with orderly procedure.

§ 200.78 Suspension, revocation, annulment or renewal. The examiner who presides at the hearing in proceedings on applications for renewal permits and in proceedings for the suspension, revocation and annulment of permits shall make the initial decision.

BURDEN OF PROOF

§ 200.79 Initial applications. In hearings on the contemplated disapproval of initial applications there may be incorporated in the record sufficient testimony, reports, affidavits and other documents to be considered only for the limited purpose of establishing probable cause for the issuance of the notice of contemplated disapproval by showing that the Assistant Regional Commissioner had reason to believe that the applicant is not entitled to a permit. The burden of proof shall be upon the applicant to produce evidence to show he is entitled to a permit. The Assistant Regional Commissioner may, instead of following the aforementioned procedure, assume the burden of going forward.

§ 200.80 Suspension, revocation, annulment or renewal. In hearings on the contemplated disapproval of renewal applications, or on the suspension, revocation or annulment of permits, the burden of proof is on the Government.

GENERAL

§ 200.81 Stipulations at hearing. The examiner shall at the beginning of the hearing, require that the parties attempt to arrive at such stipulations as will eliminate the necessity of taking evidence with respect to allegations of fact concerning which there is no substantial dispute.

§ 200.82 Evidence. Any evidence which would be admissible under the General Statutes of the United States, or under the rules of evidence governing proceedings in matters not involving trial by jury in the Courts of the United States, shall be admissible and controlling as far as possible: Provided, That the examiner may relax such rules in any hearing when in his judgment such relaxation would not impair the rights of either party and would more speedily conclude the hearing, or would better serve the ends of justice. Except as provided in § 200.80, the proponent of an order shall have the burden of proof. Every party shall have the right to present his case or defense by oral or documentary evidence, depositions, duly authenticated copies of records and documents, to submit rebuttal evidence, and to conduct such reasonable cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. The examiner shall have the right in his discretion to limit the number of witnesses whose testimony may be merely cumulative and shall, as a matter of policy, not only exclude irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence but shall also limit the cross-examination of witnesses to reasonable bounds so as not to unnecessarily prolong the hearing and unduly burden the record. Material and relevant evidence shall not be excluded because it is not the best evidence, unless its authenticity is challenged, in which case reasonable time shall be given to establish its authenticity. Compilations, charts, summaries of data and photostatic copies of documents may be admitted in evidence if the proceedings will thereby be expedited, and if the material upon which they are based is available for examination by the parties. Objections to the evidence shall be in short form, stating the grounds relied upon. The transcript shall not include argument or debate on objections, except as ordered by the examiner, but shall include the rulings thereon.

§ 200.83 Closing of hearing; arguments, briefs and proposed findings. Before closing a hearing, the examiner shall inquire of each party whether he has any further evidence to offer, which inquiry and the response thereto shall be shown in the record. The examiner may hear arguments of counsel and may limit the time of such arguments at his discretion, and may, in his discretion, allow briefs to be filed on behalf of either party but shall closely limit the time within which the briefs for both parties shall be filed, so as to avoid unreasonable delay. The examiner shall also ascertain whether the parties desire to submit proposed findings and conclusions, together with supporting reasons, and if so a period of not more than 15 days (unless extended by the examiner)—after the close of the hearing or receipt of a copy of the record, if one is requested—will be allowed for such purpose.

§ 200.84 Reopening of the hearing. The Commissioner, the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, the Assistant Regional Commissioner or the examiner, as the case may be, may, as to all matters pending before him, in his discretion reopen the hearing (a) in case of default where applicant failed to request a hearing or to appear after one was set, upon petition setting forth reasonable grounds for such failure, and (b) in case any party desires leave to adduce additional evidence upon petition summarizing such evidence, establishing its materiality and stating reasonable grounds why such party with due diligence was unable to produce such evidence at the hearing.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

§ 200.85 Stenographic record. A stenographic record shall be made of the testimony and proceedings, including stipulations and admissions of fact (but not arguments of counsel unless otherwise ordered by the examiner) in all proceedings. A transcript of the evidence and proceedings at the hearing shall be made in all cases.

§ 200.86 Oath of reporter. The reporter making the stenographic record shall subscribe an oath before the examiner, to be filed in the record of the case, that he will truly and correctly report the oral testimony and proceedings at such hearing and accurately transcribe the same to the best of his ability.

SUBPART G—HEARING EXAMINERS

§ 200.95 Responsibilities of examiners. Examiners shall be under the administrative control of the Commissioner. They shall be responsible for the conduct of hearings and shall render their decisions as soon as is reasonably possible after the hearing is closed. Examiners shall also be responsible for the preparation, certification and forwarding of reports of hearings, and the administrative work relating thereto, and, by arrangement with Assistant Regional Commissioners and representatives of the Chief Counsel, shall have access to facilities and temporary use of personnel at such times and places as are needed in the prompt dispatch of official business.

§ 200.96 Disqualification. An examiner shall, at any time, withdraw from any proceeding if he deems himself disqualified; and upon the filing in good faith by the applicant or respondent, or by the attorney for the Government, of a timely and sufficient affidavit of facts showing personal bias or otherwise warranting the disqualification of any examiner, the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, shall upon appeal as provided in § 200.115, if the examiner fails to disqualify himself, determine the matter as a part of the record and decision in the proceeding. If he decides the examiner should have declared himself disqualified, he will, remand the record for hearing de novo before another examiner. If the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division should decide against the disqualification of the examiner, the proceeding will be reviewed on its merits.

§ 200.97 Powers. Examiners shall have authority to (a) administer oaths and affirmations; (b) issue subpoenas authorized by law; (c) rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence; (d) take or cause depositions to be taken whenever the ends of justice would be served thereby; (e) regulate the course of the hearing; (f) hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues by consent of the parties; (g) dispose of procedural requests or similar matters; (h) render recommended decisions in proceedings on initial applications for permits, and initial decisions in renewal aplications for permits and in suspension, revocation, or annulment proceedings against permits; (i) call, examine and cross-examine witnesses, including hostile or adverse witnesses when he deems such action to be necessary to a just disposition of the cause, and introduce into the record documentary or other evidence; and (j) take any other action authorized by rule of the Internal Revenue Service consistent with the Administrative Procedure Act.

§ 200.98 Separation of functions. Examiners shall perform no duties inconsistent with their duties and responsibilities as such. Examiners may be assigned duties not inconsistent with the performance of their functions as examiners. Save to the extent required for the disposition of ex parte matters as required by law, no examiner shall consult any person or party as to any fact in issue unless upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. The functions of the examiner shall be entirely separated from the general investigative functions of the agency. No officer, employee, or agent engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions in any proceeding shall, in that or a factually related proceeding, participate or advise in the examiner's or Commissioner's decision, or in the agency review on appeal, except as a witness or counsel in the proceedings. The examiner may not informally obtain advice or opinions from the parties or their counsel, or from any officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service, as to the facts or the weight or interpretation to be given to the evidence. He may, however, informally obtain advice on matters of law from officers or employees who were not engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions in that or a factually related proceeding. This limitation does not apply to the Commissioner, and the examiner may, at any time, consult with and obtain instructions from him on questions of law and policy.

§ 200.99 Conduct of hearing. The examiner is charged with the duty of conducting a fair and impartial hearing and of maintaining order in form and manner consistent with dignity. In the event that counsel or any person or witness in any proceeding shall refuse to obey the orders of the examiner, or be guilty of disorderly or contemptuous language or conduct in connection with any hearing, the examiner may, for good cause stated in the record, suspend the hearing, and, in the case of an attorney, recommend that the Commissioner report the matter to the Director of Practice for disciplinary action. The refusal of a witness to answer any question which has been ruled to be proper shall be considered by the examiner in determining the weight to be given all the testimony of that witness.

§ 200.100 Unavailability of examiner. In the event that the examiner designated to conduct a hearing becomes unavailable before the filing of his findings and decision or recommended decision, the Commissioner may assign the case to another examiner for the continuance of the proceeding, in accordance with the regulations in this part in the same manner as if he had been designated examiner at the commencement of the proceeding.

SUBPART H—DECISIONS

§ 200.105 Examiner's finding and decision or recommended decision. Within a reasonable time after the conclusion of the hearing, and as expeditiously as possible, the examiner shall render his decision or recommended decision, as the case may be. All decisions shall become a part of the record and, if proposed findings and conclusions have been filed, shall show the examiner's ruling upon each of such proposed findings and conclusions. Decisions shall consist of (a) a brief statement of the issues of fact involved in the proceeding; (b) the examiner's findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons or basis therefor with record references, upon all the material issues of fact, law or discretion presented on the record (including, when appropriate, comment as to the credibility and demeanor of the witnesses) and (c) the examiner's determination or recommended determination on the record. Where the examiner determines that the imposition of a period of suspension of the permit is appropriate, his decision shall state the length of such period of suspension, to commence at such time as the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall specify.

§ 200.106 Certification and transmittal of record and decision. After reaching his decision, the examiner shall certify to the complete record of the proceeding before him and (a), in proceedings on initial application, shall immediately forward the complete certified record together with four copies of his recommended decision to the Assistant Regional Commissioner for initial decision, or (b), in proceedings on renewal applications and revocation, suspension or annulment proceedings, shall immediately forward the complete certified record, together with two copies of his decision, to the Assistant Regional Commissioner, serve one copy of his decision on the respondent or his counsel and transmit a copy of his decision to the attorney for the Government.

ACTION BY ASSISTANT REGIONAL COMMISSIONER

§ 200.107 Initial application proceedings. If, upon receipt of the record and the recommended decision of the examiner, the Assistant Regional Commissioner decides that the permit should be issued, he shall thereupon approve the application briefly stating, for the record, his reasons therefor, but if he contemplates the disapproval of the application he shall serve a copy of the examiner's recommended decision on the applicant, informing the applicant of his contemplated action and affording the applicant not more than 10 days in which to submit proposed findings and conclusions or exceptions to the recommended decision with reasons in support thereof. If the Assistant Regional Commissioner, after consideration of the record of the hearing and of any proposed findings, conclusions or exceptions filed with him by the applicant, approves the findings, conclusions and recommended decision of the examiner, he shall by order approve or disapprove of the application in accordance therewith. If, after such consideration, he disapproves of the findings, conclusions and recommended decision of the examiner, in whole or in part, he shall by order make such findings and conclusions as in his opinion are warranted by the law and facts in the record. Any decision of the Assistant Regional Commissioner ordering the disapproval of an initial application for a permit shall state the findings and conclusions upon which it is based, including his ruling upon each proposed finding, conclusion and exception to the examiner's recommended decision, together with a statement of his findings and conclusions, and reasons or basis therefor, upon all material issues of fact, law or discretion presented on the record. A signed duplicate original of the decision shall be served upon the applicant and the original copy containing certificate of service shall be placed in the official record of the proceeding.

§ 200.108 Suspension, revocation, annulment or renewal application proceedings. Upon receipt of the complete certified record of the hearing the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall enter an order suspending, revoking or annulling the permit (on Form 1430–B) disapproving the application or dismissing the proceedings in accordance with the examiner's findings and decision, unless he disagrees with such findings and decision and files a petition with the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, for review thereof, as provided in § 200.115. If the Assistant Regional Commissioner files such petition, he shall withhold issuance of the order, pending the decision of the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, upon receipt of which he shall issue the order in accordance therewith. A signed duplicate original of the order of the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall be served upon the respondent and the original copy containing certificate of service shall be placed in the official record of the proceeding. In all proceedings in which a suspension is imposed, the Assistant Regional Commissioner's order shall state the time when the suspension period set forth in the examiner's decision shall commence and terminate.

§ 200.109 Notice to Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. When the Assistant Regional Commissioner makes an order suspending, revoking or annulling a permit or disapproving a renewal application, he will furnish a copy of the order and of the decision on which it is based to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. Should such order be subsequently set aside on review by the courts, the Assistant Regional Commissioner will so advise the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division.

§ 200.110 Proceedings involving violations not within region of issuance of permit. In the event that a citation covers violations which occurred at a place not within the region of issuance of the permit involved, the Assistant Regional Commissioner of such region may (and, in the case of alcohol permits, shall) set the matter for hearing before the hearing examiner assigned to the region in which the violation occurred and, as to such violations, the matter will be deemed to have arisen in the latter region. Prior to the issuance of citation, in such cases, the Assistant Regional Commissioner of the region of issuance of the permit shall advise the Assistant Regional Commissioner of the region where the violation occurred of the proposed reference of the matter and shall ascertain from the hearing examiner assigned to such region when the case may be set for hearing. In all such cases the examiner shall forward the complete and duly certified transcript of the entire record of such proceeding and a copy of his decision to the Assistant Regional Commissioner of the region in which the basic permit was issued who shall take appropriate action in accordance with § 200.108.

SUBPART I—REVIEW

§ 200.115 Appeal on petition to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. An appeal is not required prior to application to the Federal Courts for review. An appeal may be taken by the applicant or respondent to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, from an examiner's decision suspending, revoking or annulling a permit or disapproving a renewal application, and from an order disapproving an initial application for a permit. Similarly, an appeal may be taken by the Assistant Regional Commissioner from an examiner's decision. Such appeal shall be taken by filing a petition for review on appeal with the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, within 15 days of the service of the order or examiner's decision. The petition must set forth facts tending to show (a) action of an arbitrary nature, (b) action without reasonable warrant in fact, or (c) action contrary to law and regulations. A copy of the petition shall be filed with the Assistant Regional Commissioner or served on the respondent, as the case may be. In the event of such appeal, the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall immediately forward the complete original record, by registered mail, to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, for his consideration and review.

§ 200.116 Review by Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, on appeal on petition for review, shall afford a reasonable opportunity for the submission of proposed findings, conclusions or exceptions with reasons in support thereof and an opportunity for oral argument. He may alter or modify any finding of the examiner (or of the Assistant Regional Commissioner in initial application proceedings) and may affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the examiner (or of the Assistant Regional Commissioner in initial application proceedings), or he may remand the case for further hearing, but he shall not consider evidence which is not a part of the record. Appeals and petitions for review shall not be decided by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, in any proceeding in which he has engaged in investigation or prosecution, and in such event he shall so state his disqualification in writing and refer the record to the Commissioner for appropriate action. The Commissioner may designate an Assistant Commissioner or one of his principal aides to consider any proceeding instead of the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. The original copy of the decision on review shall be placed in the official record of the proceeding, a signed duplicate original shall be served upon the applicant or respondent and a copy shall be transmitted to the Assistant Regional Commissioner. When, on appeal, the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, affirms the decision of the Assistant Regional Commissioner or the examiner, as the case may be, disapproving an application or suspending, revoking or annulling a permit, such action shall not supersede the decision of the Assistant Regional Commissioner or the examiner and such decision shall be final.

§ 200.117 Permit privileges, exceptions. Pending final determination of any timely appeal in revocation, suspension, annulment or renewal application proceedings to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, the permit involved shall continue in force and effect except that, in the case of alcohol permits, any time after a citation has been issued withdrawals of alcohol or specially denatured alcohol by such permittee may, in the discretion of the Assistant Regional Commissioner or Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, be restricted to the quantity which, together with the quantity then on hand, is necessary to carry on legitimate operations under such permit. The Assistant Regional Commissioner may, in restricting the permittee to his legitimate needs, refuse to issue any purchase or withdrawal permit.

§ 200.118 Court review; alcohol permits. If an applicant or respondent desires to have a decision of the examiner, or a final order of the Assistant Regional Commissioner or of the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, reviewed on appeal by the Federal court, as provided by law, the Assistant Regional Commissioner or the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, upon notification that such an appeal has been taken, in connection with alcohol permits, shall have prepared in triplicate a complete transcript of the record of the proceeding. The Assistant Regional Commissioner or the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, as the case may be, will certify to the correctness of such transcript of the record, forward one copy to the attorney who will represent the Government in the review of the case, and file the original record of the proceedings with the original certificate in the district court.

§ 200.119 Court review; FAA permits. If an applicant or respondent desires to have a decision of the examiner or a final order of the Assistant Regional Commissioner, or the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, reviewed on appeal by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, as provided by law, the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, upon notification of the filing of the petition for review, shall have prepared, in triplicate, a complete transcript of the record of the proceeding. The Assistant Regional Commissioner or Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, as the case may be, will certify to the correctness of the record and file the original certificate with the original record in the Circuit Court of Appeals.

SUBPART J—MISCELLANEOUS

§ 200.125 Depositions. The examiner may take or order the taking of depositions by either party to the proceeding at such time and place as he may designate before a person having the power to administer oaths, upon application therefor and notice to the parties to the action. The testimony shall be reduced to writing by the person taking the deposition, or under his direction, and the deposition shall be subscribed by the deponent unless subscribing thereof is waived in writing by the parties. Any person may be subpoenaed to appear and depose and to produce documentary evidence in the same manner as witnesses at hearings.

§ 200.126 Subpoenas. Upon written application by a party to a proceeding, the attendance and testimony of any person, or the production of documentary evidence in proceedings instituted under this part may be required by personal subpoena (Form 1644) or by subpoena duces tecum (Form 1645). Applications should be addressed to, and subpoenas should be issued by, the examiner before whom the proceedings are pending, but may be issued by the Assistant Regional Commissioner or by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division if the examiner is unavailable. Both the application and the subpoena shall set forth the title of the proceedings, the name and address of the person whose attendance is required, the date and place of his attendance and, if documents are to be produced, a description thereof; and the application must have reasonable scope and specify as exactly as possible the documents required, if any, and show their general relevance. Subpoenas shall be served in person. When issued on behalf of the United States, service shall be made by an officer, employee, or agent of the Treasury Department; when issued on behalf of a permittee or applicant, service shall be made by any person who is not a party to the proceeding and is not less than 18 years of age.

§ 200.127 Witnesses and fees. Witnesses summoned before the examiner may be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witnesses appear and the person taking the deposition shall be paid by the party at whose instance the deposition is taken.

RECORD

§ 200.128 What constitutes record. The transcript of testimony, pleadings and exhibits, all papers and requests filed in the proceeding, together with all findings, decisions and orders, shall constitute the exclusive record. Where the decision rests on official notice of material fact not appearing in the record, the examiner shall so state in his findings and any party shall, on timely request, be afforded an opportunity to show facts to the contrary.

§ 200.129 Availability. A copy of the record shall be available for inspection by the parties to the proceedings during business hours at the office of the examiner or the Assistant Regional Commissioner or, pending administrative review, at the office of the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. Copies of the record desired by the respondent or applicant will be charged for at the lowest prevailing rates charged by public reporters in the region where the hearing is held, and in the case of photostats or copies of other documents in accordance with the provisions of Com-Mim. A. T. No. 719, dated January 3, 1952. Remittance shall be by certified check, cashier's or treasurer's check drawn on a National or State Bank or trust company, or postal, bank, express or telegraph money order, made payable to the "Treasurer of the United States".

BASIC PERMIT REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE FEDERAL ALCOHOL ADMINISTRATION ACT

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted, in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C. within a period of 30 days from date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 3176 of the Internal Revenue Code and sections 201 et seq., of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (53 Stat. 3176, 49 Stat. 977; 26 U. S. C. 3176, 27 U. S. C. 201).

[SEAL] T. COLEMAN ANDREWS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Preamble. 1. These regulations, "Regulations No. 1, Basic Permit Requirements Under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (27 CFR Part 1) shall, except as stated in paragraph 2, on and after the effective date, supersede "Regulations No. 1, Issuance, Revocation, Suspension and Annulment of Basic Permits," 1935 edition as amended (27 CFR Part 1).

2. These regulations shall not affect or limit any act done or any liability incurred under any regulations superseded hereby, or any suit, action, or proceeding had or commenced in any civil, administrative, or criminal cause and proceeding prior to the effective date of these regulations, nor shall these regulations release, acquit, affect, or limit any offense committed in violation of previously existing regulations, or any penalty, liability or forfeiture incurred prior to such date.

3. These regulations shall, except as provided in paragraph 2, be effective on the 31st day following the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SUBPART A—SCOPE OF REGULATIONS

§ 1.1 Issuance, amendment, denial, suspension, revocation and duration of basic permits. These regulations, "Regulations No. 1—Basic Permit Requirements Under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (27 CFR Part 1), issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, (49 Stat. 977 et seq. 27 U. S. C. 201 et seq.) contain the requirements relative to the issuance, amendment, denial, revocation, suspension, automatic termination, and annulment of basic permits and the duration of permits, except that the provisions of Regulations 123, "Rules of Practice in Permit Proceedings" (26 CFR Part 200), are hereby made applicable to administrative proceedings with respect to the application for, and to the suspension, revocation, or annulment of, basic permits under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

§ 1.2 Territorial extent. The provisions of this part are applicable to the several States of the United States, the District of Columbia and the territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

SUBPART B—DEFINITIONS

§ 1.5 Meaning of terms. As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meaning ascribed in this subpart.

§ 1.6 Act. "Act" shall mean the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

§ 1.7 Applicant. "Applicant" shall mean any person who has filed with the Assistant Regional Commissioner an application for a basic permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

§ 1.8 Assistant Regional Commissioner. "Assistant Regional Commissioner" shall mean the Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, who is responsible to, and functions under, the direction and supervision of the Regional Commissioner.

§ 1.9 Basic permit. "Basic permit" shall mean a formal document issued under the Act in the form prescribed by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division authorizing the person named therein to engage in the activities specified at the location stated.

§ 1.10 Commissioner. "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and shall include anyone authorized to act in his place and stead.

§ 1.11 Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. "Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division" shall mean the Director of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division of the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C., and shall include anyone authorized to act in his place and stead.

§ 1.12 Other term. Any other term defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and used in this part shall have the same meaning assigned to it by such act.

§ 1.13 Permittee. "Permittee" shall mean any person holding a basic permit issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

§ 1.14 Person. "Person" shall mean any individual, partnership, joint-stock company, business trust, association, corporation, or other form of business enterprise, including a receiver, trustee, or liquidating agent.

§ 1.15 Regional Commissioner. "Regional Commissioner" shall mean the Regional Commissioner of Internal Revenue in each of the internal revenue regions, and shall include anyone authorized to act in his place and stead.

§ 1.16 Resale at wholesale. "Resale at wholesale" shall mean a sale to any trade buyer.

§ 1.17 Trade buyer. "Trade buyer" shall mean any person who is a wholesaler or retailer.

SUBPART C—BASIC PERMITS

WHEN REQUIRED

§ 1.20 Importers. No person, except pursuant to a basic permit issued under the act, shall:

(a) Engage in the business of importing into the United States distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages; or, (b) while so engaged, sell, offer or deliver for sale, contract to sell, or ship, in interstate or foreign commerce, directly or indirectly or through an affiliate, distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages so imported.

§ 1.21 Domestic producers, rectifiers, blenders, and warehousemen. No person, except pursuant to a basic permit issued under the Act, shall:

(a) Engage in the business of distilling distilled spirits, producing wine, rectifying or blending distilled spirits or wine, or bottling, or warehousing and bottling, distilled spirits; or (b) while so engaged, sell, offer or deliver for sale, contract to sell, or ship, in interstate or foreign commerce, directly or indirectly or through an affiliate, distilled spirits or wine so distilled, produced, rectified, blended, or bottled, or warehoused and bottled.

§ 1.22 Wholesalers. No person, except pursuant to a basic permit issued under the act, shall:

(a) Engage in the business of purchasing for resale at wholesale distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages; or, (b) While so engaged, receive, sell, offer or deliver for sale, contract to sell, or ship in interstate or foreign commerce, directly or indirectly or through an affiliate, distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages so purchased.

§ 1.23 State agencies. This subpart shall not apply to any agency of a State or political subdivision thereof or to any officer or employee of any such agency, and no such agency or officer or employee thereof shall be required to obtain a basic permit under this subpart.

PERSONS ENTITLED TO BASIC PERMITS

§ 1.24 Qualifications of applicants. The application of any person shall be granted and the permit issued by the Assistant Regional Commissioner if the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Assistant Regional Commissioner that:

(a) Such person (or in case of a corporation, any of its officers, directors, or principal stockholders) has not, within 5 years prior to the date of application, been convicted of a felony under Federal or State law, and has not, within 3 years prior to date of application, been convicted of a misdemeanor under any Federal law relating to liquor, including the taxation thereof; and

(b) Such person, by reason of his business experience, financial standing or trade connections, is likely to commence operations as a distiller, warehouseman and bottler, rectifier, wine producer, wine blender, importer, or wholesaler, as the case may be, within a reasonable period and to maintain such operations in conformity with Federal law; and

(c) The operations proposed to be conducted by such person are not in violation of the law of the State in which they are to be conducted.

APPLICATIONS FOR PERMITS

§ 1.25 General. Applications for basic permits to engage in any of the operations set forth in §§ 1.20 to 1.22 shall be made on the appropriate form prescribed by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, in triplicate, verified as required by § 1.56, and shall be accompanied by such affidavits, documents, and other supporting data, in triplicate, as the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division or the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall require. All data, written statements, affidavits, documents, or other evidence submitted in support of the application, or upon hearing thereon, shall be deemed to be a part of the application. All applications shall be filed by mailing or delivering the same to the office of the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 1.26 Incomplete or incorrectly executed applications. Incomplete or incorrectly executed applications will not be acted upon, but the applicant shall be entitled to file a new application without prejudice, or to complete the application already filed.

§ 1.27 Change in ownership, management, or control of the applicant. In the event of any change in the ownership, management, or control of the applicant (in case of a corporation, any change in the officers, directors, or persons holding more than 10 percent of the corporate stock), after the date of filing of any application for a basic permit and prior to final action on such application, the applicant shall notify the Assistant Regional Commissioner immediately of such change.

§ 1.28 Forms upon which to apply for basic permits. The appropriate forms upon which to apply for basic permits are identified as follows:

Form 1630—Application for Importer's Basic Permit.
Form 1632—Application for Wholesaler's Basic Permit.
Form 1634—Application for Wine Producer's and Blender's Basic Permit.
Form 1637—Application for Rectifier's Basic Permit.
Form 1639—Application for Distiller's Basic Permit.
Form 1641—Application for Warehousing and Bottling Basic Permit.

Copies thereof may be secured from the Assistant Regional Commissioner's office upon request.

§ 1.29 Individual plant or premises. An application for basic permit must be filed, and permit issued, to cover each individual plant or premises where any of the businesses specified in section 3 of the act is engaged in, such application to be filed with and permit issued by the Assistant Regional Commissioner for the region wherein such plant or premises is located.

§ 1.30 Power of attorney; Form 1534. If the application and other documents in support of such application are signed by an attorney in fact for an individual, partnership, association, or corporation, or by one of the members of a copartnership or association, or, in the case of a corporation by an officer or other person not authorized by the corporation's by-laws or by its board of directors to sign such applications and supporting documents, the applications must be supported by a duly authenticated copy of the power of attorney conferring authority upon the person signing the documents to execute the same. Such powers of attorney will be executed on Form 1534, in triplicate, and submitted to the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 1.31 Denial of permit applications. If, upon examination of any application for a basic permit, the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that the applicant is not entitled to such permit he shall institute proceedings for the denial of the application in accordance with the procedure set forth in 26 CFR Part 200, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

SUBPART D—AUTHORIZATION

§ 1.35 Authority to issue, amend, deny, suspend, revoke, or annul basic permits. The authority and power of issuing, amending, or denying basic permits, or amendments thereof, is conferred upon the Commissioner and (except as to agency initiated curtailment) upon the Assistant Regional Commissioner. The authority and power of suspending, revoking or annulling basic permits is conferred upon the Commissioner, and upon the hearing examiners as set forth in 26 CFR Part 200. Any Assistant Commissioner of Internal Revenue, when designated to do so by the Commissioner, and the Director, upon consideration of appeals on petitions for review, may order the Assistant Regional Commissioner to issue, deny, suspend, revoke, and annul basic permits.

SUBPART E—AMENDMENT AND DURATION OF BASIC PERMITS

§ 1.40 Change of name. In the event of any change in the name (trade or corporate name) of a permittee, or, in the event a permittee desires to engage in operations under an additional trade name, such permittee must file application (Form 1643), with the Assistant Regional Commissioner, for an amended basic permit, which application must be approved, and amended permit issued, before operations may be commenced under the new name.

§ 1.41 Change of address. In the event of a change in address, the permittee must file application (Form 1643), with the Assistant Regional Commissioner, for an amended basic permit.

§ 1.42 Change in ownership, management, or control of business. In the event of any change in the ownership, management, or control of any business operated pursuant to a basic permit (if the permittee is a corporation, if any change occurs in the officers, directors, or persons owning or controlling more than 10 percent of the voting stock of said corporation) the permittee shall immediately notify the Assistant Regional Commissioner of such change, giving the names and addresses of all new persons participating in the ownership, management, or control of such business, or in the case of a corporation, the names and addresses of such new officers, directors, or persons owning or controlling more than 10 percent of the voting stock. Notice to the Assistant Regional Commissioner of any such change shall be accompanied or supplemented by such data in reference to the personal or business history of such persons as the Assistant Regional Commissioner may require.

§ 1.43 Duration of permits. A basic permit shall continue in effect until suspended, revoked, annulled, voluntarily surrendered, or automatically terminated, as provided in the act and in this part.

§ 1.44 Automatic termination of permits. No basic permit shall be leased, sold, or otherwise voluntarily transferred, and, in the event of such lease, sale, or other voluntary transfer, the said basic permit shall automatically terminate thereupon. If any basic permit is transferred by operation of law or if actual or legal control of the permittee is acquired, directly or indirectly, whether by stock ownership or in any other manner, by any person, then such permit shall be automatically terminated at the expiration of 30 days thereafter: Provided, That if within such 30-day period application for a new basic permit is made by the transferee or permittee, respectively, then the outstanding basic permit shall continue in effect until such time as the application is finally acted upon.

SUBPART F—REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, OR ANNULMENT OF BASIC PERMITS

§ 1.50 Revocation or suspension. Whenever the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that any permittee has willfully violated any of the conditions of his basic permit or has not engaged in the operations authorized by the permit for a period of more than two years, he shall institute proceedings for the revocation or suspension of such permit, in accordance with the procedure set forth in 26 CFR Part 200, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

§ 1.51 Annulment. Whenever the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that any basic permit was procured through fraud, or misrepresentation or concealment of material fact, he shall, institute proceedings for the annulment of such permit in accordance with the procedure set forth in 26 CFR Part 200, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

§ 1.52 Disposition of stocks of alcoholic beverages upon revocation, annulment, or automatic termination of basic permit. In the event of the revocation or annulment of a basic permit, pursuant to 26 CFR Part 200, or in the event such permit is automatically terminated by operation of law (27 U. S. C. 204 (g)) and § 1.44, the Assistant Regional Commissioner may authorize the orderly disposition of stocks of distilled spirits, wines or malt beverages then held by the permittee or former permittee upon such conditions as may be considered proper.

SUBPART G—MISCELLANEOUS

§ 1.55 Recalling permits for correction. Whenever it shall be discovered that any basic permit has been issued authorizing acts, or combinations of acts, which may not properly, under the law and regulations, as now or hereafter in force, be authorized, or that any material mistake has occured in the issuance thereof, the holder of such permit shall forthwith surrender the same for correction or amendment upon demand of the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 1.56 Oaths and affirmations. Any document required by regulations or instructions of the Commissioner to be verified, shall be so verified upon oath or affirmation taken before a person authorized by the laws of the United States or by State or local law to administer oaths or affirmations in the State, Territory, or District wherein such document is to be executed.

§ 1.57 Procedure. The procedures prescribed by the rules of practice in Permit Proceedings (26 CFR Part 200) are applicable to administrative proceedings for the issuance, amendment, denial, revocation, suspension, and annulment of basic permits, the issuance of subpoenas and the taking of depositions under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

§ 1.58 Filing of permits. Every person receiving a basic permit under the provisions of this part must file the same, at the place of business covered by the basic permit, so that it may be examined by Government officers.

§ 1.59 Public information as to applications acted upon. The Assistant Regional Commissioner shall cause to be maintained currently in his office for public inspection, until the expiration of one year following final action on the application, the following information with respect to each application for basic permit filed:

(a) The name, including trade name or names, if any, and the address of the applicant; the kind of permit applied for and the location of the business; whether the applicant is an individual, a partnership or a corporation; if a partnership, the name and address of each partner; if a corporation, the name and address of each of the principal officers and of each stockholder owning 10 percent or more of the corporate stock.

(b) The time and place set for any hearing on the application.

(c) The final action taken on the application. In the event a hearing is held upon an application for a basic permit, the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall make available for inspection at his office, upon request therefor: The transcript of the hearing, a copy of the examiner's recommended decision, a copy of the Assistant Regional Commissioner's decision and, in the event of an appeal to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, the decision on appeal with the reasons given in support thereof.

No. 185——3

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 230]

BROKERS TRANSACTIONS

DEFINITION OF CERTAIN TERMS

On May 3, 1954, the Commission announced in Release No. 3501 a proposed amendment of § 230.154 (Rule 154) which defines certain terms used in section 4 (2) of the Securities Act of 1933. Section 4 (2) exempts from the registration and prospectus requirements of the act: "Brokers' transactions, executed upon customers' orders on any exchange or in the open or counter market, but not the solicitation of such orders."

The proposed amendment was intended to remove doubts of underwriters, dealers and brokers which had arisen as a result of the Commission's decision in the Ira Haupt & Company case (23 SEC 589 (1946)) as to the scope fo the exemption. It was designed to make clear that the availability of an exemption under section 4 (2) does not turn solely upon the question whether the selling stockholder is a controlling person but involves also a determination whether such controlling person to the actual or constructive knowledge of the broker is effecting a distribution of his holdings.

The Commission received numerous written comments and suggestions. After appropriate notice a public hearing was held on July 6, 1954, at which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to present their views orally. The Commission has carefully considered the views, suggestions and comments submitted to the Commission in writing and at the hearing. The substance of certain of these suggestions has been incorporated in the proposed revision of Rule 154, as set forth below.

The proposed amendment defines the term "broker's transactions" as used in section 4 (2) to include transactions of sale executed by a broker for the account of any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the issuer where the broker performs no more than the usual and customary broker's function, receives no more than the usual and customary commission, neither he nor his principal solicits offers to buy and he is not aware of circumstances indicating that his principal is an underwriter or engaged in a distribution of securities. For the purposes of this rule, the term "distribution" is defined as not applying to transactions which involve amounts not substantial in relation to the outstanding securities of the same class and the aggregate volume of trading in the security.

To provide a ready guide for routine cases involving trading as distinguished from distributing transactions, the term "distribution" is further defined as not including the sale or series of sales of securities which, together with all other sales of securities of the same class by or on behalf of the same person within any period of 6 months will not exceed approximately 1 percent of the outstanding shares or units of the security in the case of a security which is not traded on a securities exchange and, with respect to a security which is admitted to trading on a securities exchange, the lesser of either 1 percent of the outstanding securities of the class or the aggregate reported volume of trading during any one week within the preceding 4 trading weeks. It should be emphasized that cases which do not fall within the scope of the specific formula so provided may nevertheless be "broker's transactions" for which the exemption under section 4 (2) would be available. In such cases brokers and their counsel may rely upon the general definition of "distribution."

The text of the rule, as proposed to be amended, is as follows:

§ 230.154 Definition of certain terms used in section 4 (2). (a) The term "broker's transactions" in section 4 (2) of the act shall be deemed to include transactions by a broker acting as agent for the account of any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the issuer of the securities which are the subject of the transactions where:

(1) The broker performs no more than the usual and customary broker's function;

(2) The broker does no more than execute an order or orders to sell as a broker and receives no more than the usual or customary broker's commission, and the broker's principal makes no payment in connection with the execution of such transactions to any other person;

(3) Neither the broker, nor to his knowledge his principal, solicits offers to buy in anticipation of or in connection with such transactions; and

(4) The broker is not aware of circumstances indicating that his principal is an underwriter in respect of the securities or that the transactions are part of a distribution of securities on behalf of his principal.

(b) The term "solicitation of such orders" in section 4 (2) of the act shall be deemed to include the solicitation of an order to buy a security, but shall not be deemed to include the solicitation of an order to sell a security.

(c) Where within the previous 60 days a dealer has made a written bid for a security or a written solicitation of an offer to sell such security, the term "solicitation" in section 4 (2) shall not be deemed to include an inquiry regarding the dealer's bid or solicitation.

(d) For the purpose of paragraph (a) of this section the term "distribution" shall not apply to transactions involving an amount not substantial in relation to the number of shares or units of the security outstanding and the aggregate volume of trading in such security. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the term "distribution" shall not be deemed to include a sale or series of sales of securities which, together with all other sales of securities of the same class by or on behalf of the same person within any period of six months, will not exceed the following: (1) If the security is traded only otherwise than on a securities exchange, approximately one percent of the shares or units of such security outstanding at the time of receipt by the broker of the order to execute such transactions or (2) if the security is admitted to trading on a securities exchange the lesser of approximately (i) one percent of the shares or units of such security outstanding at the time of receipt by the broker of the order to execute such transactions or (ii) the aggregate reported volume of trading during any one week within the four trading weeks preceding the receipt of such order.

All interested persons are invited to submit views and comments on the above-mentioned proposal in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. on or before September 27, 1954. Views or comments received will be available for public inspection unless in any case a person requests that his comments shall not be made public.

By the Commission.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

RELIEF FROM EXCESS PROFITS TAX BECAUSE OF AN INADEQUATE EXCESS PROFITS CREDIT

ALLOWANCE DURING FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 1954

Subchapter E of Chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code imposes an excess profits tax on corporations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939. Under the provisions of this subchapter excess profits are measured by comparing the earnings for the current taxable year with a statutory excess profits credit.

Section 722 of Subchapter E reflects the recognition by Congress of the desirability and necessity of granting relief in meritorious cases to corporations which bear an excessive burden because of an inadequate excess profits credit. This section provides for the recomputation of excess profits tax on the basis of a reconstructed excess profits credit.

As required by section 722 (g) the following list, containing the cases arranged alphabetically by internal revenue districts, shows the name and address of each corporation to which relief has been allowed, business, taxable years involved, excess profits credit before allowance of relief, increase in excess profits credit claimed, increase in excess profits credit allowed, decrease in excess profits tax, and increase in income tax. Allowances pursuant to decisions entered by The Tax Court of the United States have been made in fifty-two docketed cases. These are included in the list with appropriate notations. There are included as a supplemental to this list five cases in which relief was allowed by the Commissioner and thirteen docketed cases in which relief was allowed by The Tax Court of the United States during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1953. These cases were not included in the list of allowances made during the fiscal year 1953 previously published.

In order to determine the relief granted and the relevant data required to be published, intermediate computations of the excess profits tax and the income tax showing the amounts of taxes which would have been due without the benefits of section 722 were made. Comparison of the pertinent items and figures appearing in the application for relief and the tax computations after allowance of relief with those appearing in the intermediate tax computations developed the required data.

Explanations of certain of the items, as displayed in their respective column headings of the list, and the data evolved follows:

Business in Which Engaged, Column 2. The Business in which taxpayer is engaged is that reported in the income tax return of the corporation for the taxable year or years involved, therefore, it does not necessarily correspond with the business during the base period. In those instances where the return for the year involved failed to disclose the nature of the business, information from other sources was utilized. Moreover, since the nature of business shown usually represents a general description of the predominent business activity, it does not necessarily represent or reflect the business activity with respect to which an inadequate excess profits credit was established.

Excess Profits Credit Before Allowance of Relief, Column 4. The excess profits credit before allowance of relief is the credit originally claimed by the taxpayer, as corrected, whether based on income or capital.

Increase in the Amount of Excess Profits Credit Claimed by Taxpayer, Column 5. The increase in the amount of excess profits credit claimed by taxpayer is the excess of the credit based on the constructive income claimed by the taxpayer over the credit before allowance of relief shown in column 4.

Increase in the Amount of Excess Profits Credit Allowed, Column 6. This increase in the amount of excess profits credit allowed is the excess of the recomputed credit based on constructive income finally allowed over the credit before allowance of relief shown in column 4.

Gross Reduction in the Excess Profits Tax, Column 7.

Gross Increase in the Income Tax, Column 8. The gross reduction in the excess profits tax and the gross increase in the income tax resulting from the operation of section 722 are the difference between the gross taxes which would have been due without the benefits of section 722 and the gross taxes due after relief has been granted. The gross excess profits tax is the tax due prior to the deferment under section 710 (a) (5), the foreign tax credit under section 729, the credit for debt retirement under section 785, the ten per cent credit under section 784, and the adjustment under section 734. The gross income tax is the tax prior to the foreign tax credit under section 131.

The changes in the income and excess profits taxes shown reflect the effect of the increase attributable to section 722 in the unused excess profits credit carried forward from prior taxable years as well as the effect of the increase in unused excess profits credit carried back from subsequent years to the extent that claims with respect to unused credit carry-overs and carry-backs determined under section 722 were allowed within the same fiscal year.

While the decrease in excess profits tax is directly related to the increase in excess profits credit allowed, a number of factors serve to invalidate a comparison of the relationship to these two items applicable to a corporation for different taxable years or to different corporations for the same taxable year. Among the most important factors affecting this comparison are (1) increase in excess profits tax rates, (2) changes in rate structure from a graduated to a flat rate system, (3) effect of unused excess profits credits of prior and subsequent years attributable to section 722, (4) variations of provisions applicable to fiscal years, (5) limitation of excess profits tax to the amount of which 80 per cent of net income exceeds the income tax, applicable to certain taxable years, and (6) relation of excess profits before the application of section 722 to the increase in excess profits credit allowed.

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940, a portion of the amount by which the excess profits tax is reduced by reason of the application of section 722 is offset by an increase in income tax. This offset arises from the provisions which permit the deduction of the income subject to excess profits tax (or excess profits tax in certain taxable years) in arriving at income subject to income tax.

Lists containing the cases in which relief has been allowed for prior fiscal years have been published in the various issues of the FEDERAL REGISTER as follows:

Fiscal Years Ended	Volume	Number	Date

NEVADA

MODIFICATION OF GRAZING DISTRICT

SEPTEMBER 17, 1954.

Under and pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269; 43 U. S. C. 315, et seq.), as amended, known as the Taylor Grazing Act, and in accordance with Departmental Order No. 2583 of August 16, 1950, section 2.22 (15 F. R. 5645), it is ordered as follows:

The following-described lands are eliminated from Nevada Grazing District No. 6, as heretofore established (Misc. No. 57324):

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

T. 19 N., R. 49 E.,
Sec. 19, NE¼SE¼, SE¼NE¼.

The areas described aggregate 80 acres.

EARL G. HARRINGTON,
Acting Associate Director.

OREGON

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WITHDRAWAL AND RESERVATION OF LANDS

An application, serial number Washington 01318 and Oregon 03393, for the withdrawal from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, of the lands described below was filed on May 18 and May 28, respectively, 1954, by The Department of the Army.

The purposes of the proposed withdrawal: McNary Lock and Dam Project.

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause to object to the proposed withdrawal may present their objections in writing to the Area Administrator, Area I, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior at 1001 N. E. Lloyd Boulevard, Portland 8, Oregon. In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where proponents of the order can explain its purpose.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, either in the form of a public land order or in the form of a notice of determination if the application is rejected. In either case, a separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

OREGON

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 5 N., R. 29 E.,

T. 4 N., R. 22 E.,
Secs. 25, 26, 33, 34, 35 and 36, All.

The above area contains approximately 3,330 acres of vacant public land.

H. F. MCPHAIL,
Acting Commissioner.

[Misc. 65644]

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management will be noted accordingly.

The lands are level, sandy in character, with some gravel outcroppings, and are located along the Columbia River. Most of the land is suitable for cultivation if adequate supplies of irrigation water can be obtained.

No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the land has already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the described land until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said land shall become subject to application, petition, location and selection, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, the requirements of applicable laws, and the 91-day preference-right filing period for veterans and others entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended.

Veterans' preference-right applications under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284) as amended, may be filed on or before 10:00 a. m., of the 35th day after the date of this order, and those covering the same land shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time. Applications filed under the act after that time and during the succeeding 91 days shall be considered in the order of filing. Applications by non-veterans under the public land laws, filed on or before 10:00 a. m., of the 126th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time, where the applications are for the same lands; otherwise, priority of filing shall govern.

Inquiries regarding the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Portland, Oregon.

EARL G. HARRINGTON,
Acting Associate Director,
Bureau of Land Management.

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY IN CONNECTION WITH LANDS AND RESOURCES

Order No. 2583 as amended (15 F. R. 5643, 6997; 16 F. R. 6805; 17 F. R. 7513, 10486; 18 F. R. 161, 3446, 5715; 19 F. R. 1021, 1937), is further amended as follows:

1. Section 1.6 is amended to read:

SEC. 1.6 Oaths. The Director may authorize any employee of the Bureau of Land Management who has been designated to make investigations of matters under the jurisdiction of the Bureau to administer any oath, affirmation, affidavit, or deposition provided for under the act of October 14, 1940 (5 U. S. C. 498), whenever necessary in the performance of such employee's official duties.

2. Section 2.4 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.4 Contributions and refunds. (a) Acceptance of contributions toward the administration, protection, and improvement of lands within or without grazing districts, or refund of any unexpended balance of such contributions, pursuant to section 9 of the Taylor Grazing Act (43 U. S. C. 315h).

(b) Acceptance of contributions for the purpose of surveying Federally controlled or intermingled lands, when authorized by law.

3. Section 2.36 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.36 Mineral leases of submerged lands of outer Continental Shelf. (a) The making of determinations respecting the compliance or noncompliance of mineral leases issued by a State with the requirements of section 6 of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462; 43 U. S. C. 1331 et seq.): Provided, That such determinations shall be submitted to the Solicitor for concurrence.

(b) Mineral leases pursuant to the act of August 7, 1953 (67 Stat. 462; 43 U. S. C. 1331 et seq.) and the regulations under 43 CFR Part 201.

4. The centerhead preceding section 2.51 is amended to read: "Nonmineral Matters; General".

5. Section 2.63 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.63 Exchanges; quitclaim deeds. (a) (1) Exchanges of lands, and, in national forests, of timber for lands, under 43 CFR Parts 146 to 152, inclusive.

(2) Exchanges of reclamation lands under the act of March 4, 1915 (43 U. S. C. sec. 447), and under section 44 of the act of May 25, 1926 (43 U. S. C. 423c).

(3) Exchanges of revested Oregon and California Railroad and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands, in Oregon, under 43 CFR, Part 115.

(4) Exchanges under Title III of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act approved July 22, 1937 (7 U. S. C. 1011), and the related provisions of Title IV thereof, so far as the exchanges involve public lands subject thereto, after the exchanges have been approved by an authorized officer of the Department of Agriculture.

(5) The authority delegated by this paragraph shall not include the approval of any exchange where the value of the selected lands or timber exceeds $250,000.

(b) Quitclaim deeds authorized by section 6 of the act of April 28, 1930 (46 Stat. 257).

6. Section 2.66 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.66 Material other than forest products. The sale or free use of materials other than forest products under 43 CFR Part 259.

7. Paragraph (a) of section 2.72 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.72 Rights-of-way. (a) Right-of-way permits and easements over public and acquired lands, including revested Oregon and California Railroad and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands in Oregon, and over reservations other than Indian reservations, when authorized by law. However, only the Secretary of the Interior may issue an order, pursuant to 43 CFR 244.9 (m), requiring the discontinuance, without liability or expense to the United States, of the use of a right-of-way for the purpose granted.

8. A new paragraph (d), and reading as follows, is added to section 2.72:

(d) Consent to the appropriation of Federal agencies under the principles of the instructions of January 13, 1916 (44 L. D. 513, 43 CFR 205.13–205.15) of rights-of-way over unreserved, or withdrawn, or reserved public-domain lands. See 43 CFR Part 244, footnote 1.

9. Section 2.75 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.75 Specified tracts of land. Disposal of specified tracts of land described or identified in a statute, pursuant to the conditions specified therein.

10. The centerhead preceding section 2.91 is amended to read: "Nonmineral Matters; Range Management."

11. Section 2.91 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.91 Grazing district administration. All matters pertaining to the administration of grazing districts, pursuant to the act of June 28, 1934, as amended and supplemented (43 U. S. C. 315 et seq., 16 U. S. C. 715i), 43 CFR Parts 161, 163 and 165, and the act of March 29, 1928 (45 Stat. 380).

12. Section 2.93, as amended, is further amended to read:

SEC. 2.93 Appropriation of water. Applications under State laws to appropriate water on other lands under the administration of the Bureau of Land Management where required in connection with projects for the development, control, or utilization of water; and procurement of easements or rights-of-way upon or over private lands, and also upon or over Federally owned lands not under the administration of the Bureau of Land Management and upon or over State, county, and municipally owned lands, where improvements are installed.

13. The centerhead preceding section 2.121 is amended to read: "Nonmineral Matters; Forest Management".

14. Section 2.121 is amended to read:

SEC. 2.121 Disposition of forest products. (a) The disposition or free use of forest products when authorized by law on lands under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Land Management, including the revested Oregon and California Railroad and the reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands, in Oregon. This delegation of authority shall not include the approval of any sale of timber in excess of 40,000,000 feet, board measure.

(b) Sales of timber on lands under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Reclamation, in accordance with Order No. 2533, as amended.

15. A new section, 2.125 and reading as follows, is added:

SEC. 2.125 Revested Oregon and California Railroad and Reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road Grant Lands. All actions with respect to revested Oregon and California Railroad and Reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road Grant Lands not covered in other sections of this order, except the appointment of O & C Advisory Board Members and the appointment of Coos Bay Wagon Road Appraisal Committee Members.

DOUGLAS MCKAY,
Secretary of the Interior.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3289]

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO.

ORDER REGARDING ISSUANCE AND SALE AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS BY REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANY

SEPTEMBER 17, 1954.

Northern States Power Company, a Minnesota Corporation ("Northern States"), a registered holding company and a public-utility company, having filed with this Commission a declaration pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder regarding certain proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

Northern States proposes to issue and sell at competitive bidding $20,000,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds to be designated "First Mortgage Bonds, Series due October 1, 1984" (herein sometimes referred to as the "New Bonds"). The coupon rate of the New Bonds (which shall be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent), and the price (exclusive of accrued interest) to be paid to Northern States (which price shall be expressed as a percentage of the principal amount of the Bonds and shall be not less than 100 percent and not more than 102¾ percent of the principal amount thereof) will be determined by the bidders. The New Bonds will be issued under the provisions of the Company's existing Indenture, dated February 1, 1937, as supplemented and as to be supplemented by a Supplemental Trust Indenture to be dated as of October 1, 1954.

The proceeds from the sale of the New Bonds will be added to the general funds of the Company. It is estimated that general funds of the Company and its subsidiaries, when augmented by such proceeds and funds available from reserves and earnings, will be sufficient to provide the cash required for expenditures of the Company and its subsidiaries under their construction program for the balance of 1954 and the early months of 1955.

The declaration further states that no State commission, other than the Public Service Commission of North Dakota, which Commission has authorized the proposed transaction, and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the transaction proposed by Northern States.

Northern States requests that this Commission's Order become effective upon issuance.

Northern States estimates the fees and expenses applicable to the proposed bond issuance and sale as follows:

Registration fee under the Securities Act of 1933	$2,070
Federal documentary stamps	22,000
State qualification fees and expenses	1,000
Printing, engraving and stationery	20,000
Accounting services, Haskins & Sells	3,000
Legal fees of company counsel, Flynn & Clerkin	10,000
Authentication of bonds by trustee	20,000
Fees of abstract and title companies	500
Mortgage recording fees	2,000
Mortgage registration tax	23,000
Postage	500
Miscellaneous, including traveling, telephone tolls, stationery and other out-of-pocket expenses	5,930
Total	110,000

A fee of $5,000 and out-of-pocket expenses will be paid by the successful bidder to Gardner, Carton, Douglas, Roemer & Chilgren, counsel to the underwriters.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the declaration and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that the fees and expenses if they do not exceed the estimates are not unreasonable, and that the declaration should be permitted to become effective, forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that said declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective, forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rules U-24 and U-50.

By the Commission.

[Rev. S. O. 562, Taylor's corrected I. C. C. Order 46]

RAILROADS OPERATING IN MAINE

REROUTING OR DIVERSION OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, railroads operating in the State of Maine, because of numerous washouts, due to a hurricane, are unable to transport certain traffic routed over their lines: It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic: Railroads operating in the State of Maine, being unable to transport certain traffic, because of numerous washouts, due to a hurricane, are hereby authorized to divert or reroute such traffic over any available route to expedite movement, regardless of routing shown on the waybills. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroads desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carriers rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipment on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective at 12:01 p. m., September 13, 1954.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., September 23, 1954, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., September 17, 1954.

C. 161, 162), the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch hereby revises administrative instructions now appearing as 7 CFR Supp., 301.13–4b, effective February 18, 1953, as amended effective March 16, 1954 (19 F. R. 1405), approving ethylene dibromide fumigation as a condition for certification of certain fruits and vegetables for movement from Hawaii, to read as follows:

§ 301.13–4b Administrative instructions approving ethylene dibromide fumigation as a condition for certification of certain fruits and vegetables for movement from Hawaii—(a) Approved fumigation. The Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch hereby approves ethylene dibromide fumigation, applied in accordance with the provisions of this section, as a treatment for bitter melons, Cavendish bananas, cucumbers, papayas, pineapples, other than smooth cayenne, string beans, and Zucchini squash. Such fruits and vegetables treated and handled as provided in this section may be certified for movement from the Territory of Hawaii.

(b) Fumigation in open containers. The fruits and vegetables designated in paragraph (a) of this section may be fumigated in open containers in an approved atmospheric fumigation chamber for a period of two hours at a minimum temperature of 70° F. with a dosage of one-half pound of ethylene dibromide per 1,000 cubic feet of space, including the load.

(c) Pineapples in corrugated collars. Pineapples (other than smooth cayenne) in corrugated paper collars, packed in unlined, well-aerated crates may be fumigated in an approved atmospheric fumigation chamber for a period of three hours at a minimum temperature of 70° F. with a dosage of three-quarters pound of ethylene dibromide per 1,000 cubic feet of space, including the load.

(d) Prepacked papayas. (1) Papayas prepacked for shipment using only materials approved in advance by the inspector may be fumigated in an atmospheric fumigation chamber approved for this purpose for a period of two hours at a minimum temperature of 70° F. with a dosage of 1½ pounds of ethylene dibromide per 1,000 cubic feet of space, including the load.

(2) The fruit may be individually wrapped in tissue paper, or packed in shredded paper or wood excelsior, in unlined corrugated cartons and sealed along the central flap with Kraft paper tape. No additional covering or lining for the cartons is authorized.

(e) Approved equipment, procedure, and load limit. (1) Fumigation chambers and equipment used in the treatments specified in this section must be approved for that purpose by the Plant Quarantine Branch. Such a chamber must be equipped with a gas-tight glass window to permit a view inside the chamber while fumigation is in progress. The ethylene dibromide must be applied in the liquid state and heated over an electric hot-plate or other suitable means until vaporization is completed. The exposure time shall be calculated from the time vaporization is completed.

(2) Loading of the fumigation chamber shall be limited to ¾ of the height of the chamber but in no instance shall the containers be stacked higher than five feet. In each individual stack, containers may be placed one directly atop another and such space shall be provided around each stack for proper circulation of the fumigant as the inspector deems necessary. Adequate circulation shall be provided throughout

(h) Department not responsible for damage. While the treatments approved in this section are judged from experimental tests to be safe for use with the designated fruits and vegetables, the Department of Agriculture and its inspector assume no responsibility for any loss or damage resulting from any treatment prescribed or supervised.

(i) Tolerance. Tests show that there is no detectable difference between untreated papaya, pineapple, cucumber, Zucchini squash, and bitter melon, and these commodities fumigated as approved in this section, after a minimum storage of 5 to 6 days at 55° F. Fumigated string beans and Cavendish bananas show slight though questionable effects, but are considered commercially acceptable.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 162; 7 CFR and 1953 Supp. 301.13–4 (b). Interprets or applies sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161.)

The purpose of these revised instructions is to authorize the treatment of prepacked papayas for movement from Hawaii and to specify certain load-limit restrictions for all methods of treatment provided by the administrative instructions. The packing of papayas prior to treatment according to the above schedule eliminates the need for supervision of the packing after treatment, thereby affording the shipper greater latitude in scheduling the packing activity for more economical and effective shipping operations. This revision in part relieves restrictions by authorizing an alternative method of treatment for papayas as a condition of certification for movement from Hawaii and to this extent should be made effective as soon as possible in order to be of maximum benefit to affected shippers. The restrictions on the load-limit for all methods of treatment provided by the administrative instructions should be made effective as soon as possible in order to assure mortality of eggs and larvae of the oriental fruit fly, the Mediterranean fruit fly, and the melon fly. Therefore under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendments are impracticable and contrary to the public interest and good cause is found for making the new restrictions imposed by the amendments effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Insofar as the amendments relieve restrictions they may also be made effective less than 30 days after such publication.

This revision shall be effective September 24, 1954, and shall supersede § 301.13–4b, effective February 18, 1953, as amended effective March 16, 1954.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of September 1954.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—HAWAIIAN FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

AMENDMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS PRESCRIBING METHODS OF VAPOR-HEAT TREATMENT OF CERTAIN FRUITS AND VEGETABLES FROM HAWAII

Pursuant to the authority conferred on him by § 301.13–4 (b) of the regulations supplemental to Hawaiian Fruits and Vegetables Quarantine No. 13 (7 CFR and 1953 Supp. 301.13–4 (b)) under sections 8 and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161, 162), the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch hereby amends administrative instructions now appearing as 7 CFR Supp. 301.13–4c (19 F. R. 2005), effective April 8, 1954, prescribing the method of vapor-heat treatment of certain fruits and vegetables from Hawaii, to authorize a vapor-heat "quick run-up" method of treatment of papayas, by deleting the introductory portion of such instructions and by amending paragraphs (a) (1) through (a) (3), and paragraph (e) to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 301.13–4c Administrative instructions prescribing methods of vapor-heat treatment of certain fruits and vegetables from Hawaii—(a) Approved vapor-heat methods of treatment. (1) Approved vapor-heat treatment, in accordance with the following procedure, is hereby designated as an administratively approved procedure that meets the requirements for the certification, in accordance with § 301.13–4 (b), of papayas, bell peppers, eggplants, pineapples (other than smooth Cayenne), Italian squash, and tomatoes for movement from Hawaii:

(i) In the approved vapor-heat treatment the fruits and vegetables are heated by saturated vapor at 110° F. which in condensing on the fruits and vegetables gives up its latent heat. This latent heat is essential in assuring mortality of eggs and larvae of the oriental fruit fly, the Mediterranean fruit fly and the melon fly, and in raising the temperature of the fruits and vegetables evenly and quickly so as to prevent damage to the treated products. In applying the treatment the saturated vapor is accompanied by a fine water mist and air admixture.

(ii) The fruits and vegetables are cooled immediately after treatment and no wax or paraffin, either dry or in solution, may be used until after the treatment has been completed. Vapor-heat treatments are approved only if the vapor conditions within the heat treating room, the manner of stacking the boxes containing the fruits and vegetables in the room, and all other conditions affecting the efficacy of the treatment are satisfactory to the supervising inspector, to assure mortality of eggs and larvae of the oriental fruit fly, the Mediterranean fruit fly, and the melon fly.

(iii) In applying this treatment, in accordance with these principles, the temperature of the fruits and vegetables shall be raised to 110° F., at the approximate center of the fruits and vegetables, within a period designated by the inspector, and shall be held at that level during the following 8¾ hours.

(2) Approved vapor-heat treatment, in accordance with the following procedure, is hereby designated as an alternate administratively approved procedure that meets the requirements for the certification, in accordance with § 301.13–4 (b), of papayas for movement from Hawaii:

(i) In the approved vapor-heat "quick run-up" treatment the papayas are heated by saturated vapor until the temperature at the approximate center of the fruit reaches a minimum of 117° F. The cooling and other conditions prescribed in paragraph (a) (1) (ii) of this section apply.

(ii) The conditioning of the papayas preparatory to the treatment, as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, shall be completed within a period designated by the inspector.

(3) The treatments provided for in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph must be conducted in a heat-treating room approved by the Plant Quarantine Branch and must be conducted under the supervision of an inspector of that Branch, who at all times shall have access to the fruits and vegetables while they are undergoing treatment.

• • • • •

(e) Conditioning. (1) The treatments set forth in paragraph (a) of this section are in addition to any other procedure or practice that may be found by the shipper to be desirable to condition or otherwise handle fruits or vegetables that may be offered for treatment.

(2) Eggplants require conditioning before they will tolerate the approved vapor-heat treatment. Even when conditioned, darkening of their seeds usually occurs. In tests of eggplant tolerance to vapor-heat treatment, 6 to 8 hours conditioning at 110° F. and approximately 40 percent relative humidity before the prescribed 8¾-hour holding period has been found effective. This conditioning procedure or any other that the shipper has developed and found satisfactory may be used for eggplants at the shipper's risk.

(3) Papayas require conditioning before they will tolerate the approved vapor-heat "quick run-up" treatment and even then some injury may result. Any conditioning that the shipper has developed and found satisfactory may be used with the "quick run-up" treatment for papayas at the shipper's risk.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 162. Interprets or applies sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

The purpose of this amendment is to provide an alternate method of vapor-heat treatment of papayas that meets the requirement for their certification for movement from Hawaii. Papayas can be treated in from two to three hours by following the newly authorized procedure as compared to the presently approved treatment for 8¾ hours at 110° F. This will afford shippers an opportunity for a more economical and better intergrated treating and shipping operation. The instructions therefore relieve a restriction previously imposed. In order to be of maximum benefit to papaya shippers the newly authorized procedure should be made available as soon as possible. Therefore, pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and public procedure on the foregoing administrative instructions are unnecessary, impracticable, and contrary to the public interest, and since these instructions relieve restrictions they may properly be made effective under said section 4 less than thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

This amendment shall be effective September 24, 1954,

Done at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of September 1954.

Chief, Plant Quarantine Branch.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas), Department of Agriculture

[Amdt. 3]

PART 728—WHEAT

SUBPART—WHEAT MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1954 CROP

WHEAT ACREAGE

The amendment herein is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Act of 1954 and is for the purpose of affording wheat producers who have not harvested their 1954 wheat crop the opportunity to adjust their planted acreages to their 1954 farm wheat acreage allotments. Producers in many areas are now preparing to harvest their 1954 crop wheat and it is imperative that this amendment be issued as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the public notice, procedure, and 30-day effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the amendment herein shall become effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Paragraph (r) (1) of § 728.451 is amended to read as follows:

§ 728.451 Definitions. * * *

(r) (1) "Wheat acreage" means (i) any acreage seeded to wheat, excluding any acreage (a) seeded to a wheat mixture in wheat mixture counties approved by the Director, or (b) which does not reach maturity because it is, while still green, turned under, pastured off, or cut for hay or silage, and (ii) any acreage of volunteer (self-seeded) wheat which reaches maturity: Provided, That any acreage under subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph in excess of the 1954 farm acreage allotment for the farm established under this part shall not be regarded as wheat acreage if not harvested as grain and not left standing in the field on a date prior to harvest as determined by the county committee with the approval of the State Committee.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interprets or applies sec. 311, 68 Stat. 897; 7 U. S. C. 1374)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of September 1954.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

C. 1301, 1358, 1359, 1361-1368, 1372, 1373, 1374, 1376, 1388.

GENERAL

§ 729.610 Basis and purpose. The regulations contained in §§ 729.610 to 729.630 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the establishment of farm allotments and normal yields in connection with farm marketing quotas for the peanut crop produced in the calendar year 1955. The purpose of the regulations in §§ 729.610 to 729.630 is to provide the procedure for allocating the 1955 State peanut acreage allotments among farms, for establishing allotments for farms on which peanuts were not picked or threshed in 1952, 1953, or 1954, but on which peanuts are to be picked or threshed in 1955, and for determining farm normal yields per acre for peanuts. Prior to preparing the regulations in §§ 729.610 to 729.630, public notice (19 F. R. 5062) was given in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). The data, views, and recommendations which were submitted in accordance with such notice have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 729.611 Definitions. As used in §§ 729.610 to 729.630 and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) "Committees": (1) "Community committee" means the persons elected within a community as the community committee, pursuant to the regulations governing the selection and functions of Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation county and community committees.

(2) "County Committee" means the persons elected within a county as the county committee, pursuant to the regulations governing the selection and functions of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county and community committees.

(3) "State committee" means the persons designated in a State by the Secretary as the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State committee.

(b) "County Office Manager" means the person employed by the county committee to execute the policies of the county committee and be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the county ASC office, or the person acting in such capacity.

(c) "Cropland" means farm land which in 1954 was tilled or was in regular crop-rotation, excluding (1) bearing orchards and vineyards (except the acreage of cropland therein), (2) plowable, noncrop, open pasture, and (3) any land which constitutes or will constitute, if tillage is continued, a wind erosion hazard to the community.

(d) "Deputy Administrator" means the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment or the Acting Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) "Director" means the Director, or the Acting Director of the Oils and Peanut Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(f) "Excess acreage" means the acreage by which the farm peanut acreage exceeds the farm allotment but there will be no excess acreage if the farm peanut acreage is one acre or less.

(g) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm land which the county committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other lands; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops. A farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(h) "Farm allotment" means the acreage allotment established for a farm pursuant to §§ 729.619 or 729.622.

(i) "Farm peanut acreage" means the acreage on the farm planted to peanuts in 1955 as determined in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, less any such acreage with respect to which it is established by the operator or otherwise to the satisfaction of the county office manager that the entire production therefrom has not and will not be picked or threshed either before or after marketing from the farm: Provided, however, That:

(1) The farm peanut acreage shall be considered equal to the farm allotment on a farm for which such allotment equals or exceeds one acre, if the acreage in excess of the farm allotment from which peanuts are picked or threshed is not greater than one-tenth acre or three percent of the farm allotment, whichever is larger;

(2) The farm peanut acreage shall be considered equal to one acre on a farm for which the farm allotment is equal to or less than one acre and the acreage from which peanuts are picked or threshed does not exceed 1.1 acres; but the provisions of this subparagraph and of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply unless a quantity of peanuts equal to the county office manager's estimate of the production from the acreage in excess of the larger of the farm allotment, or one acre, is disposed of on the farm in a manner approved by the county committee so that the peanuts cannot thereafter be used or marketed as peanuts: Provided, further, That the maximum acreage limit prescribed in this subparagraph or subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be applicable if the State committee concurs in the findings and recommendations of the county committee that the unusual circumstances from which the excess resulted are such that the maximum limitation should not apply.

(j) "New farm" means a farm on which peanuts will be picked or threshed in 1955, but on which no peanuts were picked or threshed in 1952, 1953, or 1954.

(k) "Old farm" means any farm on which peanuts were picked or threshed in 1952, 1953, or 1954, including also any farm for which 1954 farm allotments were established or which were eligible for 1954 old farm allotments, if peanuts were planted for harvest on any such farm in any year 1952, 1953, or 1954 and the county committee determines that no peanuts were picked or threshed from the farm in any such year because of abnormal conditions affecting acreage.

(l) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(m) "Peanuts" means all peanuts produced, excluding any peanuts not picked or threshed either before or after marketing from the farm.

(n) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, firm, joint-stock company, estate or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity, and whenever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(o) "Secretary" means the Secretary, or the Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(p) "State Administrative Officer" means the person employed by the State committee to execute the policies of the State committee and be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the State ASC office, or the person acting in such capacity.

(q) "Tillable acreage available" means the acreage of cropland on the farm which the county committee determines is available for the production of peanuts in 1955, taking into consideration land uses and other crops grown on the farm and customary rotation practices: Provided, That the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts for a farm shall not exceed the cropland on the farm minus the total of the 1955 acreage allotments established for other crops for the farm. If the 1955 acreage allotments for one or more crops are not established for the farm prior to the determination of the tillable acreage available, and it has been announced that acreage allotments for such crops will be in effect in 1955, the farm acreage allotments established for such crops for the last year allotments were in effect shall be used.

(r) "Tillable acreage factor" means the factor determined for the county (or for each community in a county, if the county committee determines that there is a wide variation between communities in the percentage of the tillable acreage available that is customarily devoted to peanuts) by dividing the tillable acreage available for all old farms in the county (or community) into the sum of the 1954 farm peanut allotments for all old farms in the county (or community). The sum of the 1954 farm peanut allotments shall be determined pursuant to instructions issued by the Assistant Administrator.

§ 729.612 Rule of fractions. Farm allotments shall be rounded to the nearest one-tenth acre. Fractions of fifty-one thousandths of an acre or more shall be rounded upward, and fractions of fifty thousandths of an acre or less shall be dropped. For example, 8.051 would be 8.1 and 8.050 would be 8.0.

§ 729.613 Instructions and forms. The Director shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary, and shall cause to be prepared such instructions as are necessary, for carrying out the regulations in §§ 729.610 to 729.630. The forms and instructions shall be approved by, and the instructions shall be issued by, the Deputy Administrator.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 729.614 Determination of farm data. The county committee shall obtain the following information and data for each old farm.

(a) The name and address of the operator.

(b) The total acreage of all land in the farm.

(c) The acreage of cropland in the farm.

(d) The tillable acreage available for the farm.

(e) The farm peanut acreage for each year 1952, 1953, and 1954.

(f) The 1954 peanut acreage allotment for the farm.

(g) Such other information and data as may be necessary in establishing farm allotments in accordance with §§ 729.610 to 729.630.

The information and data provided for in this section shall be obtained from acreage measurements and other records in the office of the county committee; if not available from these sources, these data and information may be obtained from reports made by operators or other interested persons or may be appraised or determined by the county committee on the basis of production and marketing records or other available information.

§ 729.615 Apportionment of State peanut allotment to farms. Adjusted acreages for all old farms in the State shall be determined in accordance with § 729.617. Preliminary acreage allotments for old farms shall be calculated by multiplying the adjusted acreage for each old farm by a factor obtained by dividing the total of the adjusted acreages for all old farms in the State into the 1955 State peanut acreage allotment (minus the acreage reserve for late allotments and corrections pursuant to § 729.618 and the acreage reserve for adjustment pursuant to § 729.617 (b) (5) if allotment adjustments are to be made after adjusted acreages have been determined). Farm allotments shall be determined pursuant to § 729.619.

§ 729.616 Basis of farm allotment. A farm allotment shall be determined for each old farm on the basis of the following factors as hereinafter applied: The 1954 peanut acreage allotment for the farm, the 1952, 1953, and 1954 farm peanut acreages; abnormal conditions affecting farm peanut acreage; tillable acreage available; labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts on the farm; crop-rotation practices; and soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts: Provided, however, That in establishing farm allotments pursuant to §§ 729.610 to 729.630, the following acreages shall not be taken into consideration: the peanut acreage determined as harvested in excess of the farm allotments established for each of the years 1952, 1953, and 1954; the peanut acreage harvested on the farm in 1952 as a result of allotments made under §§ 729.326 and 729.328 of the marketing regulations for the 1952 crop of peanuts; the acreage allotment made to the farm under §§ 729.326 and 729.328 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1952 crop of peanuts; the peanut acreage harvested on the farm in 1953 as a result of allotments made under §§ 729.427 and 729.429 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1953 crop of peanuts; the acreage allotment made to the farm under §§ 729.427 and 729.429 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1953 crop of peanuts; the peanut acreage harvested on the farm in 1954 as a result of allotment made under § 729.525 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1954 crop of peanuts; and the acreage allotment made to the farm under § 729.525 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1954 crop of peanuts and: Provided further, That an allotment shall not be determined for any farm on which one acre or less of peanuts was harvested in each of the years 1952, 1953, and 1954, unless the county committee determines from available information that more than one acre of peanuts will be harvested on the farm in 1955.

§ 729.617 Determination of adjusted acreage. The county committee shall determine an adjusted acreage for each old farm in the county (excluding farms on which one acre or less of peanuts was harvested in each year 1952, 1953, and 1954 unless the county committee determines from available information that more than one acre of peanuts will be harvested on any such farm in 1955) as follows:

(a) If peanuts were produced on a farm in 1954 for the first time since 1950, but no 1954 peanut acreage allotment was established for the farm, the county committee shall, on the basis of tillable acreage available; labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts; crop-rotation practices; and soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts, determine an adjusted acreage for the farm which is fair and equitable in comparison with the adjusted acreages for other farms in the community which are similar with respect to such factors.

(b) For each old farm, excluding farms described in paragraph (a) of this section, the county committee shall adjust 1954 farm peanut acreages and establish adjusted acreages as provided herein:

(1) The county committee shall examine the 1954 farm peanut acreage and if abnormal conditions affected such acreage, the 1954 farm peanut acreage shall be increased to compensate for any reduction in the acreage resulting from such abnormal conditions; however, the acreage as so increased shall not exceed the 1954 farm allotment established for the farm.

(2) If a farm allotment was not established for 1954 for a farm on which peanuts were produced in any one or more of the years 1951, 1952, or 1953, the county committee shall determine an acreage for the farm which shall be considered the 1954 farm allotment for purposes of establishing an adjusted acreage for the farm. Such acreage shall be established in accordance with the regulations contained in §§ 729.510 to 729.530 of the marketing quota regulations for the 1954 crop of peanuts.

(3) The county committee shall compare the 1954 farm peanut acreage for each farm with the 1954 farm allotment for each farm. In the 1954 farm peanut acreage for a farm was less than 75 percent of the 1954 farm allotment, a total of the farm peanut acreages for 1952, 1953, and 1954, shall be determined. The total acreage so determined shall be divided by 3, except that if the farm did not receive a farm allotment in 1952, the total shall be divided by 2, or if the farm did not receive a farm allotment in 1952 and 1953, the total shall be divided by 1. If the average of the farm peanut acreages for the farm, determined in accordance with this subparagraph is less than the 1954 farm allotment for the purpose of determining the adjusted acreage for the farm, the average of the farm peanut acreages shall be considered as the 1954 farm allotment.

(4) The county committee shall examine the 1954 farm allotment for each farm after adjustments, if any, have been made under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph and may adjust such allotments downward if it determines that such adjustment is necessary to obtain an adjusted acreage for the farm which is comparable with the adjusted acreages established for other old farms in the community which are similar as to the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts. If a downward adjustment is made, the adjusted acreage for the farm shall be not less than the smaller of (i) the result obtained by multiplying the tillable acreage available for the farm by the tillable acreage factor or (ii) the 1952–54 average peanut acreage for the farm.

(5) An acreage not in excess of 5 percent of the peanut acreage allotted to all old farms in the State in 1954 shall be made available to county committees by the State committee for making upward adjustments. The State committee shall determine if upward adjustments are to be made prior to or subsequent to determining adjusted acreages. If upward adjustments are to be made prior to determining adjusted acreages the county committee shall examine the 1954 farm allotment for each farm after adjustments, if any, have been made under subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph and may adjust such allotment upward if it determines that such adjustment is necessary to obtain an adjusted acreage for the farm which is comparable with the adjusted acreage established for other similar old farms in the community. Upward adjustments shall be made on the basis of the farm peanut acreage for 1952, 1953, and 1954; tillable acreage available; labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts. If upward adjustments are to be made prior to determining adjusted acreage, the county committee may use the sum of the downward adjustments made in accordance with subparagraph (4) of this paragraph in addition to the acreage available under this subparagraph for making upward adjustments. If an upward adjustment is made, the adjusted acreage for the farm shall not exceed the larger of (i) the result obtained by multiplying the tillable acreage available for the farm by the tillable acreage factor or (ii) the largest farm peanut acreage for the farm for the years 1952, 1953, or 1954: Provided, however, That such limitation shall not be applicable if the State and county committees find that the adjusted acreage as determined under the limitation is relatively smaller in relation to the farm peanut acreages for 1952, 1953, and 1954, the tillable acreage available, and the labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts on the farm, than the adjusted acreages for other old farms in the community which are similar with respect to such factors.

(6) The adjusted acreage for each old farm in the county shall be the 1954 farm allotment plus or minus any upward or downward adjustment made pursuant to subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph.

(c) The adjusted acreage determined for the farm in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section shall not exceed the tillable acreage available for the farm.

§ 729.618 County reserves for late allotment and corrections. The county committee shall estimate the acreage that will be needed in the county (a) to establish late 1955 allotments for old farms on which one acre or less of peanuts was picked or threshed in each year 1952, 1953, and 1954, but on which more than one acre of peanuts will be picked and threshed in 1955 and (b) for the correction of errors in farm allotments resulting from inaccurate or incomplete data used in establishing 1955 farm allotments. The reserve for late allotments and corrections recommended by the county committee shall be subject to adjustment by the State committee and shall be held as a State reserve.

§ 729.619 Allotments for old farms. (a) If adjustments are to be made prior to determining preliminary allotments, as provided in § 729.617 (b) (5), the preliminary allotments determined pursuant to § 729.615 shall be the 1955 farm allotments.

(b) If the State committee determines, as provided in §729.617 (b) (5), that upward adjustments shall be made subsequent to the determination of preliminary allotments, the county committee shall examine the 1955 preliminary farm allotment for each farm and may adjust such preliminary allotment upward if it determines that such adjustment is necessary to obtain a 1955 farm allotment for the farm which is comparable with the 1955 allotments established for other similar old farms in the community. Upward adjustments shall be made on the basis of the farm peanut acreage for 1952, 1953, and 1954 tillable acreage available; labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts; crop-rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts. If an upward adjustment is made, the farm allotment shall not exceed the larger of (1) the result obtained by multiplying the tillable acreage available for the farm by the tillable acreage factor or (2) the largest farm peanut acreage for the farm for the years 1952, 1953, and 1954: Provided, however, That such limitation shall not be applicable if the State and county committees find that the allotment as determined under such limitations is relatively smaller in relation to the farm peanut acreage for 1952, 1953, and 1954, and the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts on the farm, than the allotment for other old farms in the community which are similar with respect to such factors. The 1955 farm allotment shall be the preliminary allotment for the farm determined in accordance with § 729.615 plus any additional acreage allotted to the farm as an upward adjustment from the acreage made available to the county committee by the State committee pursuant to § 729.617 (b) (5).

§ 729.620 Allotments for farms divided or combined—(a) Divisions. If land operated as a single farm in 1954 will be operated in 1955 as two or more farms, the 1955 allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the divided farms in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland available for the production of peanuts for each such divided farm bears to the cropland available for the production of peanuts for the entire tract; except that the peanut acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall, if the farm to be divided for 1955 consists of two or more tracts which were separate and distinct farms before being combined for 1952, 1953, or 1954, be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion that each contributed to the farm allotment for the year for which combined: Provided, That with the recommendation of the county committee and the approval of the State committee, the allotment determined for a divided farm pursuant to the preceding provisions of this paragraph may be increased or decreased by not more than the larger of one acre or ten percent of the 1955 farm allotment determined for the entire tract, with corresponding increases or decreases made in the allotment apportioned to the other divided farm or farms: Provided further, That if a farm is to be divided for 1955 in settling an estate, the allotment may be apportioned among the divided farms in accordance with this paragraph or on such basis as the State committee determines will result in equitable allotments.

(b) Combinations. If two or more tracts which were operated as separate farms in 1954 are combined and operated as a single farm for 1955, the 1955 allotment shall be the sum of the 1955 allotments determined, or which otherwise would have been determined, for each of the tracts composing the combination.

§ 729.621 Normal yields for old farms. The normal yields for an old farm for the 1955 crop of peanuts shall be the average yield per acre of peanuts for the farm, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions, during the five calendar years immediately preceding the year in which the normal yield is determined. If for any such year the data are not available or there is no actual yield, then the normal yield for the farm shall be appraised by the county committee on the basis of the data which are available.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 729.622 Allotments for new farms. (a) The farm allotment for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee, subject to the approval of the State committee, determines is fair and reasonable for the farm, taking into consideration the peanut-growing experience of the producers on the farm, the tillable acreage available, labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts on the farm, crop-rotation practices, and soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts. The farm allotment for a new farm shall not exceed the result obtained by multiplying the tillable acreage available for the farm by the tillable acreage factor: Provided, however, That such limitation shall not be applicable if the State and county committees find that the allotment determined for the farm under the limitation is relatively smaller in relation to the tillable acreage available, labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts on the farm, and crop-rotation practices, than the allotments established for other farms in the community which are similar with respect to such factors.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, an allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless each of the following conditions has been met:

(1) An application for a new farm allotment is filed by the farm operator and farm owner with the county committee prior to the closing date established by the State committee. In no event is the closing date to be earlier than January 15, 1955, or later than February 15, 1955.

(2) A producer on the farm shall have had experience in growing peanuts either as a share cropper, tenant, or as a farm operator or farm owner during at least two of the past five years: Provided, however, That a producer who was in the armed services after September 16, 1940, shall be deemed to have met the requirements hereof if he has had experience in growing peanuts during one year either within the five years immediately prior to his entry into the armed services or within the five years immediately following his discharge from the armed services and if he files an application for an allotment within five years from date of discharge.

(3) The farm operator is largely dependent on the farm for his livelihood.

(4) The farm is the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator or farm owner for which a farm allotment is established in 1955.

(c) One-half of one percent of the national peanut acreage allotment shall be available for establishing allotments for new farms; except that, if the total of the acreages required to establish fair and reasonable allotments and reserves for old farms in any State is less than the State allotment, the balance of such State allotment shall, upon approval by the Director, be available for establishing allotments for new farms in the State. If the total of the acreage allotments for new farms as determined by the county and State committees pursuant to this section exceeds the acreage reserved for new farm allotments, such acreage shall be made available to the States for establishing new farm allotments as follows:

(1) For any State for which the total of the new farm allotments determined by the county and State committees does not exceed one-half of one percent of the State's share of the 1955 national peanut acreage allotment, as determined by the Director, no adjustment will be made in the new farm allotments determined by the county and State committees;

(2) For any State for which the total of the new farm allotments determined by the county and State committees exceeds one-half of one percent of the State's share of the national acreage allotment, as determined by the Director, there shall be made available for new farm allotments in each such State an acreage equal to one-half of one percent of the State's share of the national acreage allotment;

(3) The acreage remaining after making the apportionments under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall be apportioned pro rata among the States receiving acreage under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph on the basis of the total acreage determined for new farm allotments by the county and State committees that is in excess of the acreage made available under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. The farm allotments determined by the county and State committees for new farms which receive acreage under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall be adjusted downward so that the total of the acreage allotments for such farms shall not exceed the acreage made available to the State for establishing allotments for such farms; and

(4) If the total of the acreage required to establish fair and reasonable allotments and reserves for all old farms in the State and for all new farms in the State that meet the eligibility requirements set forth in paragraph (b) of this section is less than the State acreage allotment plus the acreage allocated to new farms in the State under this section, the balance of such acreage shall, upon approval of the Director, be available for establishing allotments, on the basis of the factors specified in

§ 729.622 (a), for farms on which no peanuts were picked or threshed in 1952, 1953, or 1954, if each of the following conditions has been met:

(i) An application for an allotment is filed by the farm operator and farm owner with the county committee prior to the closing date established by the State committee which shall not be later than March 1, 1955.

(ii) The applicant is largely dependent on the farm for his livelihood.

(iii) The farm is the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator or farm owner for which a farm allotment is established for 1955.

(5) No more than one per centum of the national acreage allotment shall be apportioned among new farms.

§ 729.623 Normal yields for new farms. The normal yield for a new farm for the 1955 crop of peanuts shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is normal for the farm, as compared with other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 729.624 Reduction of acreage allotment for violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year. (a) If peanuts were marketed or were permitted to be marketed in any marketing year as having been produced on the acreage allotment for any farm which in fact were produced on a different farm, the acreage allotments established for both such farms for 1955 shall be reduced, as hereinafter provided, except that such reduction for any farm shall not be made if the county committee determines that no person connected with such farm caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketings.

(b) The operator of the farm shall furnish complete and accurate proof of the disposition of all peanuts produced on the farm at such time and in such manner as will insure payment of the penalty due and in the event of refusal or failure for any reason to furnish such proof, the allotment for the farm shall be reduced, except that if the operator establishes to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that failure to furnish proof of disposition was unintentional on his part and that he could not reasonably have been expected to furnish accurate proof of disposition, reduction of the allotment will not be required if the failure to furnish proof of disposition is corrected and payment of all additional penalty due is made.

(c) Any reduction shall be made with respect to the 1955 farm allotment, provided it can be made 30 days prior to the beginning of the normal planting season for the county in which the farm is located, as determined by the State committee. If the reduction cannot be made effective with respect to the 1955 crop, such reduction shall be made with respect to the farm allotment next established for the farm. This section shall not apply if the farm allotment for any prior year was reduced on account of the same violation.

(d) The amount of reduction in the 1955 farm allotment shall be that percentage which the amount of peanuts involved in the violation is of the respective farm marketing quota for the farm for the marketing year in which the violation occurred. Where the amount of such peanuts involved in the violation equals or exceeds the amount of the farm marketing quota, the amount of reduction shall be 100 percent. The amount of peanuts determined by the county committee to have been falsely identified or for which satisfactory proof of disposition has not been furnished shall be considered the amount of peanuts involved in the violation. If the actual production of peanuts on the farm is not known, the county committee shall estimate such actual production, taking into consideration the condition of the peanut crop during the growing and harvesting seasons, if known, and the actual yield per acre of peanuts on other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts are similar: Provided, That the estimate of such actual production of peanuts on the farm shall not exceed the harvested acreage of peanuts on the farm multiplied by the average actual yield per acre on farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts are similar. The actual yield per acre of peanuts on the farm, as so estimated by the county committee, multiplied by the farm allotment shall be considered the farm marketing quota for the purposes of this section. In determining the amount of peanuts for which satisfactory proof of disposition of peanuts on the farm is not known, the amount of peanuts involved in the violation shall be deemed to be the actual production of peanuts on the farm, estimated as above, less the amount of peanuts for which satisfactory proof of disposition has been shown.

(e) If the farm involved in the violation is combined with another farm prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied to that portion of the allotment for which a reduction is required under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(f) If the farm involved in the violation has been divided prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied to the allotments for the divided farms as required under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

§ 729.625 Release and reapportionment—(a) Release of acreage allotments. Any part of the acreage allotted for 1955 to an individual farm in any county under the provisions of §§ 729.619 and 729.622 on which peanuts will not be produced and which the owner or operator of the farm voluntarily surrenders in writing to the county committe by the closing date established by the State committee, which shall not be later than July 1, 1955, shall be deducted from the allotment to such farm in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator. If any part of the farm allotment is permanently released (i. e., for 1955 and all subsequent years), such release shall be in writing and signed by both the owner and the operator of the farm. If the entire 1955 farm allotment is permanently released, the farm shall not thereafter be eligible for a 1955 farm allotment as either an old farm or as a new farm, and the farm peanut acreages and farm allotments for 1955 and prior years shall not be considered in establishing an allotment for the farm for 1956 or any subsequent year.

(b) Reapportionment of released acreage allotment. The farm allotments released under paragraph (a) of this section shall be reapportioned by the county committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, to other farms in the same county receiving allotments in amounts determined by the county committee to be fair and reasonable on the basis of tillable acreage available; labor and equipment available for the production of peanuts; crop-rotation practices; and soil and other physical factors affecting the production of peanuts. Such reapportionment shall be made on the basis of applications filed on Form MQ–30–Peanuts (1955) by the farm owners or operators with the county committee not later than a closing date established by the State committee, which shall be not later than July 15, 1955.

(c) Maximum acreage allotment. No allotment shall be increased by reason of the provisions in paragraph (b) of this section to an acreage in excess of the tillable acreage available for the farm.

(d) Credit for acreage allotment released for 1955 only. The release for 1955 only, of any part of the acreage allotted for 1955 to individual farms, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, shall not operate to reduce the allotment for any subsequent year for the farm from which such acreage was released unless the farm becomes ineligible for an old farm allotment in 1956 because peanuts were not picked or threshed on the farm in 1953, 1954, or 1955. Any reapportionment of allotment under this section shall not operate to increase the allotment for any year subsequent to 1955 for the farm to which the acreage is reapportioned.

§ 729.626 Reallocation of allotments released from farms removed from agricultural production. (a) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which is removed from agricultural production in 1950 or any subsequent year for any purpose because of acquisition by any Federal, State, or other agency having a right of eminent domain shall be placed in a State pool and shall be available for use in providing equitable allotments for farms owned or purchased by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farms by such agencies. Upon application to the county committee within five years from the date of such acquisition of the farm, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any other farm owned or purchased by him equal to an allotment which would have been determined for the farm so acquired: Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 50 percent of the acreage of cropland on the farm.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable if (1) there is any marketing quota penalty due with respect to the marketing of peanuts from the farm by the owner of the farm at the time of its acquisition by the Federal, State, or other agency; (2) any peanuts produced on such farm have not been accounted for as required by the Secretary; or (3) the allotment next to be established for the farm acquired by the Federal, State, or other agency would have been reduced because of false or improper identification of peanuts produced on or marketed from such farm.

§ 729.627 Additional acreage allotment for farms producing types of peanuts in short supply. (a) The additional acreage allotment apportioned to any State producing peanuts of a type or types determined to be in short supply for 1955, less a reserve for the correction of errors, shall be apportioned among farms on which peanuts of such type or types were produced in any of the three years 1952, 1953, 1954, on the basis of the average picked and threshed acreage of peanuts of such type or types (excluding excess acreage) on each such farm during such period. The reserve for the correction of errors shall be determined by the State committee on the basis of experience in past allotment programs and its knowledge as to the reliability of data used in apportioning the additional acreage to farms, and shall not exceed three-fourths of one percent of the additional acreage apportioned to the State.

(b) The increase in acreage allotment under this section shall not be considered in establishing future State, county, or farm acreage allotments.

§ 729.628 Approval of determinations and notice of farm allotment. The State committee shall review farm allotments and normal yields and the State committee may revise or cause to be revised any determination made in connection therewith pursuant to §§ 729.610 to 729.630. Farm allotments shall be approved by the State committee and official notice of the farm allotment on Form MQ–24 shall not be issued for a farm until such allotment has been so approved. A Form MQ–24—Peanuts (1955), Notice of Farm Acreage Allotment and Marketing Quota for Peanuts, shall be prepared and mailed to the operator of each farm for which a farm allotment is established. Forms MQ–24 that are prepared for farms for which the farm allotments are reduced in accordance with § 729.624 shall be mailed to operators by registered mail.

§ 729.629 Application for review. Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm allotment or marketing quota established for his farm, may, within fifteen days after mailing of the official notice, file application with the county committee which issued such notice to have such allotment or quota reviewed. Farm allotments and marketing quotas shall be reviewed by a review committee in accordance with the marketing quota review regulations issued by the Secretary (Part 711 of this chapter), a copy of which is available at the office of the county committee.

§ 729.630 Redelegation of authority. Any authority delegated to the State committee by the regulations in §§ 729.610 to 729.630 may be redelegated by the State committee.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of September 1954. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

One cow or one horse or five sheep or five goats constitute one animal unit. The rental charge will not in any case be fixed at less than $1.00 per annum. The rental may be adjusted to reflect changes in approved rates at the end of each three-year period to apply to the rental charges for the next three-year period.

(b) No refund or rentals properly paid in accordance with these regulations and the terms of the lease will be made because of a failure to use the grazing privileges granted by the lease, except that during periods of range depletion due to severe drought or other natural causes or in case of a general epidemic of disease during the life of the lease the Secretary of the Interior will in his discretion remit, refund, reduce in whole or in part, or postpone the payment of rentals for such period of depletion or general epidemic.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 106]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

Where the general classification (LFR, VAR, ADF, ILS, GCA, or VOR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The very high frequency omnirange procedures prescribed in § 609.9 (a) are amended to read in part:

VOR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, and courses are magnetic. Distances are in statute miles unless otherwise indicated. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation.
If a VOR instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure authorized by the Administrator for Civil Aeronautics for such airport. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 3—VETERANS CLAIMS

DISABILITY COMPENSATION AND PENSION

New §§ 3.1521 and 3.1522 are added as follows:

§ 3.1521 Instructions relating to the increase in monthly rates of disability compensation and pension. (a) Under the first proviso of section 1, Public Law 695, 83d Congress, no increases will be made in statutory awards under subparagraphs (k) and (q), Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12); in the statutory awards under sections 202 (3) for the loss of use of a creative organ or one or more feet or hands and 202 (7) for arrested tuberculosis, of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as restored by Public No. 141, 73d Congress, and amended; in the additional compensation payable under Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended by Section 4, Public Law 339, 81st Congress;, or in subsistence allowances. Under section 1, Public Law 698, 83d Congress, no increase will be made under sections 4756 or 4757 of the Revised Statutes as amended (38 U. S. C. 229, 230) (naval allowance); the act of April 27, 1916 (39 Stat. 53) as amended (38 U. S. C. 391 and the following) (Medal of Honor pension); or the act of February 28, 1929 (45 Stat. 1409) (pension awarded Major Walter Reed and those associated with him in the discovery of the cause and means of transmission of Yellow Fever).

(b) Section 1, Public Law 695, increases all the basic rates of disability compensation and the statutory awards by 5 percent subject to an adjustment upward or downward to the nearest dollar, except as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. Under the provisions of Public Law 876, 80th Congress, the rates of compensation for service-connected disability based upon service in the Regular Establishment during time of peace are 80 percent of the rates of compensation for disability incurred in time of war. The rates of disability compensation except as provided above under Part II, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), are therefore subject to the increase provided by Section 1, Public Law 695, further adjusted upward or downward to the nearest dollar. By virtue of the enactment of Public Law 28, 82d Congress, all of the compensations rates applicable to World War II veterans are also applicable to those veterans who served on or after June 27, 1950. Section 1, Public Law 698, increases pension by 5 percent except as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, not, however, adjusted upward or downward to the nearest dollar. Therefore, this section comprehends Spanish American War service, peacetime service, World War I service, World War II service and service within the purview of Public Law 28, 82d Congress, and involves both disability compensation and disability pension.

(c) Section 2, Public Law 698, 83d Congress and section 3, Public Law 695, 83d Congress, provide that "This Act shall take effect on the first day of the second calendar month following the date of its enactment." The effective dates of awards will be in accordance with the provisions of controlling Veterans' Administration Regulations, provided that in no event will benefits under the cited acts be awarded for any period prior to October 1, 1954. The increases provided shall be effective October 1, 1954 in claims pending or in an appellate status on August 28, 1954. In new claims filed on or after August 28, 1954, and prior to October 1, 1954, the increased rate will be effective October 1, 1954. (Instruction 1, section 1 and 3, Public Law 695, 83d Congress; sections 1 and 2, Public Law 698, 83d Congress.)

§ 3.1522 Instructions relating to the increase in the monthly rates of compensation under the General Law enacted July 14, 1862, and in the monthly rates of pension for veterans of the Spanish American War, Civil War, and Indian Wars—(a) Basis of entitlement under Public Law 695, 83d Congress. The provisions of Public Law 695, 83d Congress, provide for the increase of compensation and the effective date thereof of veterans who are receiving compensation under the General Law. The General Law rates enumerated in § 3.1062 (a) and (b) are increased by 5 percent and further adjusted upward or downward to the nearest dollar, provided the veteran served during war-time. No adjustment is in order where such rates are based on peacetime service. (However, in the latter cases, if the Part II, Veterans Regulations 1 (a) rates, as increased by Public Law 695, 83d Congress are now greater, compensation will be awarded under Public Law 553, 76th Congress, without requiring any election from the veteran.)

(b) Effective date. Section 2, Public Law 698, 83d Congress and section 3, Public Law 695, 83d Congress, provided that "This Act shall take effect on the first day of the second calendar month following the date of its enactment." The effective dates of awards will be in accordance with the provisions of controlling Veterans' Administration regulations, provided that in no event will benefits under the cited Acts be awarded for any period prior to October 1, 1954. In new claims filed on or after August 28, 1954, and prior to October 1, 1954, the increased rates will be effective October 1, 1954. (Instruction 2, sections 1 and 3, Public Law 695, 83d Congress; sections 1 and 2, Public Law 698, 83d Congress.)

(Sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, as amended, sec. 2, 46 Stat. 1016, sec. 7, 48 Stat. 9; 38 U. S. C. 11a, 426, 707)

PART 3—VETERANS CLAIMS

BENEFITS BASED UPON SERVICE IN WAAC

A new § 3.1523 is added as follows:

§ 3.1523 Benefits under the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration based upon service in the WAAC under certain conditions. (a) Public Law 650, 83d Congress, approved August 24, 1954, provides:

That any person who served for at least ninety days in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps who prior to the establishment of the Women's Army Corps was honorably discharged for disability incurred in line of duty rendering her physically unfit to perform further service in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps or in the Women's Army Corps, established under Public Law 110, Seventy-eighth Congress, shall be deemed to have been in the active military service during such period of service for the purposes of laws administered by the Veterans' Administration. No monetary benefits shall accrue by reason of this Act for any period prior to the date of enactment and compensation or pension shall not be payable by virtue of this Act concurrently with United States employees' compensation based on the same service. Any person eligible for compensation or pension by reason of this Act who is also eligible for compensation benefits provided by the United States Employees' Compensation Act of 1917, as amended, shall elect which benefit she shall receive.

(b) It will be observed that the above quoted law confers benefits only upon those former members of the WAAC who (1) served for at least 90 days in such Corps and (2) who, prior to October 1, 1943, were honorably discharged for disability incurred in line of duty, (3) which rendered her unfit to perform further service in the WAAC or WAC. Any honorable discharge for disability will be accepted as proof of the existence of the third condition. The Veterans' Administration will generally follow the determinations of the service department relative to determination of line of duty but, as provided in § 3.66, may make a different determination when required by the Veterans' Administration's controlling laws and regulations. When the three conditions precedent are met, the individual is deemed to have been in the active military service during the period of service in the WAAC for purposes of the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration and is entitled to benefits on a parity with a former member of the Armed Forces.

(c) No payments may be made for any period prior to August 24, 1954, nor prior to receipt of claim for compensation or pension. Payments of such benefits shall not be made concurrently with United States employees' compensation based on the same service. Moreover, an election of benefits is required where the person is eligible for compensation or pension by reason of Public Law 650, 83d Congress, and is also eligible for compensation benefits under the Employees' Compensation Act. Benefits from the Bureau of Employees' Compensation were conferred by section 11 of Public Law 554, 77th Congress, and such section was saved from repeal by section 5, Public Law 110, 78th Congress.

(d) Entitlement under Public Law 650, 83d Congress, will be determined only upon receipt of a claim filed with the Veterans' Administration after August 24, 1954. Such claims will be carefully examined to determine whether, in answer to the specific question contained in the application, the claimant has stated that a claim for benefits has also been filed with the Bureau of Employees' Compensation. (Instruction 1, Public Law 650, 83d Congress.)

(Sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, as amended, sec. 2, 46 Stat. 1016, sec. 7, 48 Stat. 9; 38 U. S. C. 11a, 426, 707)

This regulation is effective September 24, 1954.

Acting Deputy Administrator.

PART 4—DEPENDENTS AND BENEFICIARIES CLAIMS

INCREASE IN MONTHLY RATES OF DEATH COMPENSATION AND PENSION TO DEPENDENTS OF DECEASED VETERANS

A new § 4.461 is added as follows:

§ 4.461 Increase in monthly rates of death compensation and pension to dependents of deceased veterans—(a) Laws. (1) The pertinent provisions of Public Law 695, 83d Congress, approved August 28, 1954, are as follows:

SEC. 2. The monthly rate of death compensation authorized under paragraph IV, part I, Veterans Regulation Numbered 1 (a), as amended, for a widow but no child is hereby increased from $75 to $87, and the rate of such compensation for a dependent mother or father is increased from $60 to $75, or if both are dependent, from $35 to $40 each.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect on the first day of the second calendar month following the date of its enactment.

(2) The pertinent provisions of Public Law 698, 83d Congress, approved August 28, 1954, are as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) all monthly rates of pension for disability, age, or death payable to veterans or their dependents under any public law administered by the Veterans' Administration are hereby increased by 5 per centum, subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Subsection (a) shall not apply to pension payable under sections 4756 or 4757 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (38 U. S. C. 229, 230), the Act of April 27, 1916 (39 Stat. 53), as amended (38 U. S. C. 391 and the following), or the Act of February 28, 1929 (45 Stat. 1409).

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect on the first day of the second calendar month following the date of its enactment.

(b) Current awards. In awards of death compensation or pension approved on or after August 28, 1954, the increased rates will be applied in awards for periods on and after October 1, 1954. (Instruction 1, sections 2 and 3, Public Law 695, 83d Congress; Public Law 698, 83d Congress).

(Sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, as amended, sec. 2, 46 Stat. 1016, sec. 7, 48 Stat. 9; 38 U. S. C. 11a, 426, 707)

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

SUBPART E—VETERANS' READJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1952

EDUCATION AND TRAINING ALLOWANCES

1. In § 21.2052, a new paragraph (d) (4) is added as follows:

§ 21.2052 Rates of education and training allowances. • • •

(d) Institutional on-farm training. • • •

(4) Where it becomes necessary to extend the actual termination date of the course because of authorized periods of interruption within the course and there has been no extension in the total number of months of training to be provided, the dates on which the periodic reductions become effective will be adjusted to accord with the months of authorized training status.

• • • • • •

2. In § 21.2056, a new paragraph (b) (13) is added as follows:

§ 21.2056 Effective date of change or discontinuance of education or training allowance. • • •

(b) • • •

(13) (i) In the case of institutional on-farm training, as of the last day of the month preceding the month in which a veteran for any reason fails to receive the minimum 3 hours required each month of organized group instruction or the minimum of 2 visits each month by the instructor for the purpose of individual instruction. For any such period for which the education and training allowance is discontinued, the veteran's training status will be interrupted. Reentrance into training and the resumption of education and training allowance are in order as of the first day of the month following the month or months for which interruption was effected, if the school regards the veteran's conduct and progress satisfactory in accordance with its prescribed standards and practices, and other requirements of the law are satisfied.

(ii) Where the veteran's training is interrupted because of failure to meet the minimum monthly instructional requirements, the termination date of the Veteran's resumed course may be extended at the discretion of the school for a period of time equivalent to the period(s) of such interruption(s).

(Sec. 261, 66 Stat. 663)

This regulation is effective September 24, 1954.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR Part 406]

WITHHOLDING ON PAYMENTS UNDER SECTION 105 (d) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1954

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 1429 and 3791 (53 Stat. 178, 467; 26 U. S. C. 1429, 3791) and section 1627 (57 Stat. 138; 26 U. S. C. 1627) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 and section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (P. L. 591, 83d Congress, approved August 16, 1954; 26 U. S. C. 7805).

[SEAL] T. COLEMAN ANDREWS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to amend Regulations 120 (26 CFR, Part 406), relating to collection of income tax at source on wages paid on and after January 1, 1954, to provide rules for withholding on payments which are subject to section 105 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 406.207 is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

§ 406.207 Wages. • • •

(i) Compensation for injuries or sickness; amounts received under accident and health plans. (1) Withholding is not required upon amounts which are excludable from the gross income of the employee by reason of section 105 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the records maintained by the employer in accordance with the provisions of § 406.607 (a)—

(i) Separately show the amounts of such payments and distinguish such amounts from all other payments, and

(ii) Establish the facts necessary to show that the employee is entitled to the exclusion provided by section 105 (d), either by means of a written statement from the employee as to the injury, illness, or hospitalization, or by any other information which the employer believes to be accurate and which he is willing to accept for purposes of payments under the wage continuation plan.

(2) For the purpose of § 406.501, relating to the requirement of receipts for employees, amounts excludable from gross income under the provisions of section 105 (d) shall be included in the total wages required to be shown on Form W-2. The amount of any such wages on which the employer, in reliance on section 105 (d), does not withhold must be properly identified. The amount so identified shall be shown in the lower right-hand box on Form W-2 in such manner that it may be read on each copy of the form.

(3) If, under an accident or health insurance plan, payments for a period of absence from work on account of injury or sickness are made to an employee by a person who is not the employer for whom services are performed but who is regarded as an employer under the provisions of § 406.205 (c), and such payments are attributable to contributions by the employer which were not includible in the gross income of the employee, the rules provided in the preceding subparagraphs shall apply. However, Form W-2 shall not be required under the preceding subparagraph in any such case in which, by reason of section 105 (d), no amount was withheld on any of the payments. For example, if under the insurance plan the weekly rate of payment does not exceed $100 and no payment is made for absence on account of illness, unless there is one day hospitalization, so that all of the payments under the insurance plan are excludable under section 105 (d), no withholding need be made and no Form W-2 need be filed.

(4) See § 406.607 for general requirements relating to the keeping of records by employers.

PAR. 2. Section 406.607 (a) is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

§ 406.607 Records—(a) Records of employers. • • •

(4) For additional record-keeping requirements in the case of payments under section 105 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, see § 406.207 (i).

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[49 CFR Part 312]

[Ex Parte No. 193]

FREIGHT TARIFFS AND SCHEDULES

CANCELLATION OF CERTAIN TARIFF CIRCULARS TRANSFERRED FROM FORMER U. S. MARITIME COMMISSION

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of September A. D. 1954.

It appearing, that Tariff Circulars Nos. 1 and 2, containing regulations governing the publication, posting and filing of rates, fares, and charges by carriers by water in interstate commerce, were transferred to this Commission as regulations governing the construction, filing and posting of certain tariffs containing rates, fares and charges for transportation which formerly was subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Maritime Commission, such transfer being made in accordance with section 321 (b) of the Interstate Commerce Act insofar as such regulations are pertinent under part III of said act;

It further appearing, that all presently operating water carriers formerly subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Maritime Commission are now constructing their tariffs in conformity with tariff circulars of this Commission, and the continuance in force and effect of Tariff Circulars Nos. 1 and 2 serves no useful purpose;

And it further appearing, that, on May 7, 1954, the Commission entered its order in the above-entitled proceeding requiring interested common carriers by water to show cause on or before August 4, 1954, why said tariff circulars should not be canceled; and no objection to such cancellations having been received:

It is ordered, That Tariff Circulars Nos. 1 and 2, which were transferred to the Interstate Commerce Commission from the former United States Maritime Commission, be, and they are hereby, canceled.

It is further ordered, That notice of this order be given the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission, and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 2.

[SEAL] GEORGE W. LAIRD,
Secretary.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Customs

[472.53]

HATS AND BEADED BAG PLATES

TARIFF CLASSIFICATION

SEPTEMBER 20, 1954.

Hats, in part of hat braid, trimmed with a cellulose bow loosely basted thereto, and bag plates, beaded, in part of net embroidered with a design so placed that the embroidery cannot be seen when the plates are incorporated in finished bags.

The Bureau, by its letter to the collector of customs, New York, New York, dated September 20, 1954, ruled that hats in part of hat braid, trimmed with a cellulose bow loosely basted thereto, and beaded bag plates, in part of net embroidered with a design so placed that the embroidery cannot be seen when the plates are incorporated in finished bags, are not properly classifiable as ornamented articles under paragraph 1529 (a), Tariff Act of 1930, as modified.

Accordingly, inasmuch as such hats are in part of braid suitable for making hats, and are not ornamented, they are classifiable under subsection 15 of paragraph 1529 (a), with duty at the rate of 90 percent ad valorem. Beaded bag plates, in part of net embroidered with a design so placed that the embroidery cannot be seen when the plates are incorporated in finished bags, are classifiable under subsection 18 of paragraph 1529 (a), as articles in part of net, dutiable at the rate of 90 percent ad valorem.

As this ruling will result in the assessment of duty at a rate higher than that heretofore assessed under an established and uniform practice, it shall be applied only to such or similar merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption after 90 days from the date of the publication of an abstract of this decision in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

[SEAL] D. B. STRUBINGER,
Acting Commissioner of Customs.

1⅝ PERCENT TREASURY NOTES OF SERIES B-1957

OFFERING OF NOTES

I. Offering of notes. 1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for notes of the United States, designated 1⅝ Percent Treasury Notes of Series B-1957. The amount of the offering is $4,000,000,000, or thereabouts. The books will be open only on September 23 for the receipt of subscriptions.

II. Description of notes. 1. The notes will be dated October 4, 1954, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1⅝ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on May 15 and November 15, 1955, and thereafter on May 15 and November 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature May 15, 1957, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the notes shall be subject to all taxes now or hereafter imposed under the Internal Revenue Code, or laws amendatory or supplementary thereto. The notes shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

5. The notes will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States notes.

III. Subscription and allotment. 1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington. Commercial banks, which for this purpose are defined as banks accepting demand deposits, may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than commercial banks will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from commercial banks for their own account will be received without deposit, but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding one-half of the combined capital, surplus and undivided profits, of the subscribing bank, as of June 30, 1954. Subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the amount of notes applied for, not subject to withdrawal until after allotment. Following allotment, any portion of the 10 percent payment in excess of 10 percent of the amount of notes allotted may be released upon the request of the subscribers.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject or reduce any subscription, and to allot less than the amount of notes applied for; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. Payment. 1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for notes allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before October 4, 1954, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 10 percent of the amount of notes allotted shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for notes allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its District.

V. General provisions. 1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for notes allotted, to make delivery of notes on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive notes.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

Secretary of the Treasury.

ARKANSAS TELEVISION CO. AND ARKANSAS TELECASTERS, INC.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re applications of Arkansas Television Company, Little Rock, Arkansas, Docket No. 10610, File No. BPCT-1057; Arkansas Telecasters, Inc., North Little Rock, Arkansas, Docket No. 10611, File No. BPCT-1740; for construction permits for new television stations on Channel 11.

The Commission, having under consideration a motion filed September 16, 1954, by Arkansas Telecasters, Inc., North Little Rock, Arkansas, for continuance to 10 o'clock a. m. Monday, October 11, 1954, of the hearing in the above-entitled matter now scheduled for 10 o'clock a. m., Monday, October 4, 1954; and

It appearing that one of the principal witnesses for petitioner desires to be present during the interrogation of the so-called "West Memphis" witnesses and that he would be unable to do so if the hearing resumes on October 4, 1954, as presently scheduled because he is a State officer in an Insurance Association and, as such, must attend a meeting during that week of the American Life Insurance Companies; that, in any event, none of the other parties to this proceeding, including counsel for the Broadcast Bureau, have any objection to a grant of movant's request; and no party or person or the public interest would be adversely affected by a grant of the requested continuance:

Therefore, it is ordered, This 17th day of September 1954, that the Motion of Arkansas Telecasters, Inc., for continuance is granted; and the hearing in the above-entitled matter now scheduled for Monday, October 4, 1954, is continued to 10 o'clock, Monday, October 11, 1954, in Washington, D. C.

By order issued September 3, 1954, the Commission fixed September 20, 1954, as the date for hearing concerning the just and reasonable and otherwise lawful rates and charges by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle) for sales under the Natural Gas Act for the period from February 20, 1952, through April 30, 1954.

Panhandle, on September 10, 1954, filed a motion for prehearing conferences, pursuant to § 1.18 (c) of the Commission's rules, to commence not earlier than October 5, 1954, and for the continuance of the hearing until at least one week following the conclusion of the prehearing conferences.

By letter dated September 15, 1954, Panhandle notified the Commission that it had no objection to having its motion for prehearing conferences treated as a motion for informal conferences. Arrangement for such conferences must be determined on a day-to-day basis with the Presiding Examiner when the hearing convenes.

In support of its motion for continuance of the hearing, Panhandle stated that because of the many pressing matters directly involving it, which have been and are presently pending before the Commission, it will not be possible for Panhandle to be ready for hearing on September 20, 1954.

The Commission finds: Good cause exists and it is appropriate under the circumstances to postpone the hearing in this matter until October 12, 1954.

The Commission orders: The hearing in this proceeding be and the same is hereby postponed until October 12, 1954.

Adopted: September 17, 1954.

Issued: September 20, 1954.

[Docket Nos. G–2481, G–2482]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP. AND TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

In the matters of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–2481; Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation, Docket No. G–2482.

On July 6, 1954, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern) filed an application in Docket No. G–2481 pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for authority to sell and deliver to certain of its present firm gas customers, for a period of one year beginning November 1, 1954, additional firm gas under its DCO Rate Schedules, and, for the period November 1, 1954, through March 31, 1955, gas available under its WPS Rate Schedule.

On July 7, 1954, Texas Eastern and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transcontinental) filed a joint application, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing Texas Eastern to sell natural gas to Elizabethtown Consolidated Gas Company for the period November 1, 1954, through March 31, 1955, under Texas Eastern's WPS Rate Schedule. Pursuant to the application Transcontinental would receive delivery of the gas from Texas Eastern and redeliver it to Elizabethtown Consolidated.

Both applications contain the request for hearing under the shortened procedure provided for noncontested proceedings by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.32 (b)). However, in Docket No. G–2481 leave to intervene has been granted jointly to National Coal Association, United Mine Workers of America, Fuels Research Council, Inc., Anthracite Institute, as well as to two customer companies of Texas Eastern.

Furthermore, both dockets raise a common issue in that the rate proposed to be charged by Texas Eastern under its WPS Rate Schedule has not been shown to be justified and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate and in the public interest that the above-entitled proceedings be consolidated for purposes of hearing and decision.

(2) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and in aid of the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, to enter upon a hearing pursuant to authority contained in sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act concerning authorization of the service proposed in the applications in Docket Nos. G–2481 and G–2482.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceedings involved in Docket Nos. G–2481 and G–2482 are consolidated for purposes of hearing and decision.

(B) The requests that the proceedings be disposed of under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure are denied.

(C) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on October 12, 1954 at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented in the proceedings consolidated in Paragraph (A) hereof.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Adopted: September 17, 1954.

Issued: September 20, 1954.

[Docket No. G–2542]

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

Cities Service Gas Company (Cities Service), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, filed, on August 12 and August 17, 1954, an application and supplement thereto pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain facilities for the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce.

Cities Service proposes to construct the following facilities in order to maintain firm service during the 1954–1955 heating season in the Kansas City, Kansas and Missouri areas:

(a) Three 1,350 horsepower compressor units at its Welda Station;

(b) One mile of 16" gas pipeline, one mile of 6" gas pipeline, and four miles of 4" gas pipeline in the Colony, South Welda and North Welda storage fields; and

(c) Approximately fifty-five (55) injection and withdrawal wells in the Colony, South Welda and North Welda storage fields.

The estimated cost of the facilities to be constructed is $1,426,690 which will be defrayed from treasury cash.

On September 1, 1954, the Commission granted Cities Service temporary authorization for the proposed construction pending determination on the application.

Cities Service requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, that due notice of the application including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, be given as hereinafter provided.

(2) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, that the application filed herein on August 12 as supplemented on August 17, 1954, should be set down for public hearing as hereinafter provided and ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Due notice of this application be given, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of this notice of application and order.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on October 7, 1954, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(C) Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Commission in accordance with its rules of practice and procedure, §§ 1.8 and 1.10 (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before October 4, 1954.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

Adopted: September 17, 1954.

Issued: September 20, 1954.

[Docket No. G–2569, G–2570]

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO. AND SIGNAL OIL AND GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

Take notice that Cities Service Gas Company (Cities Service) a Delaware corporation with offices in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, filed, on August 24, 1954, an application interdependent with that of Signal Oil and Gas Company in Docket No. G–2570 for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing construction and operation of certain natural-gas facilities as hereinafter described.

Cities Service proposes to construct and operate a 16-inch pipeline, approximately 15.5 miles in length, for the purpose of transporting natural gas purchased from Signal Oil and Gas Company at the latter's gas processing plant in Carter County, Oklahoma, to its existing pipeline facilities in Garvin County, Oklahoma. Average initial contract volumes are 30,000 Mcf a day at an initial price of 12 cents per Mcf and Cities Service proposes to use the gas so obtained to serve increased firm demands of existing customers. Cost of the proposed facilities is estimated at $541,050, and is to be financed from cash on hand.

Take notice that Signal Oil and Gas Company (Signal), a Delaware corporation and independent producer having its principal place of business in Los Angeles, California, filed, on August 24, 1954, as amended the same day, an application interdependent with that of Cities Service Gas Company in Docket No. G–2569 for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the proposed acts or operations hereinafter described.

Signal commenced operation of its Fox gasoline plant located in Carter County, Oklahoma, during the early part of August 1954, purchasing casinghead gas from producers in Wheeler, Milroy, South Graham, South Scholem Alechen, Fox and North Fox fields in Stephens and Carter Counties, Oklahoma, under 75 gas purchase contracts with more than 150 producers. Such casinghead gas is purchased at the well-head, processed at the gasoline plant, and the producers are paid on the basis of the value of the products extracted plus 50 percent of the net proceeds from the sale of residue gas not returned to the producers. Signal proposes to sell such residue to Cities Service at the outlet side of the Fox plant under the conditions heretofore stated. Signal does not state that it is acting in a representative capacity on behalf of any of the producers from which it purchases gas.

Both Cities Service and Signal have been granted temporary authorization to perform the acts or operations for which each has herein requested authorization.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 12th day of October 1954. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

Both Applicants have requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. On September 14, 1954, Oklahoma Natural Gas Company filed petitions for leave to intervene in the above-entitled proceedings and on September 15, 1954, the Corporation Commission of the State of Oklahoma filed a notice of intervention in said proceedings.

The Commission finds:

(1) Good cause exists for consolidation of the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–2569 and G–2570 on the ground that the applications therein are interdependent.

(2) It is proper and consistent with the public interest that notice of application and order fixing date of hearing be published simultaneously.

(3) Good cause has not been shown for granting the requests that the applications herein be heard under the shortened procedure as provided by the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and said requests should be denied as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceedings in Docket Nos. G–2569 and G–2570 be and they are hereby consolidated for purposes of hearing and disposition.

(B) The requests that the applications herein be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure be and the same are hereby denied.

(C) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on October 28, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by said applications.

Adopted: September 17, 1954.

Issued: September 20, 1954.

CENTRAL OHIO LIGHT & POWER CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAN OF MERGER OF PUBLIC UTILITY SUBSIDIARIES OF REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANY; AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 20, 1954.

In the matter of Central Ohio Light & Power Company, Ohio Power Company and American Gas and Electric Company.

Notice is hereby given that American Gas and Electric Company ("American"), a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidiary companies, Ohio Power Company ("Ohio Power") and Central Ohio Light & Power Company ("Central Ohio"), have filed an application with this Commission for approval of a Plan of Merger of Central Ohio with and into Ohio Power as the surviving company. Applicants aver that the proposed merger of Central Ohio with and into Ohio Power is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and that section 11 (e) is therefore applicable to the proposed transaction.

All interested persons are referred to said application and Plan which are on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

I. Central Ohio has outstanding 162,030 shares of common stock, par value $10 per share, of which American holds 160,567 shares or approximately 99.1 percent. The balance of 1,463 shares is held by 126 persons.

II. A. The Plan as submitted provides in substance as follows:

1. Central Ohio will be merged with and into Ohio Power under an Agreement of Merger to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio. Central Ohio's separate corporate existence will thereupon be terminated and Ohio Power will continue in existence as the surviving constituent corporation.

2. On the effective date of the merger holders of certificates for common stock of Central Ohio, other than American, will be entitled upon surrender of the certificates for such shares on or before December 31, 1959, to receive the sum of $50.00 per share in cash, without interest thereon, and will cease to have any other rights with respect to such shares. On and after January 1, 1960, any sums theretofore payable to holders of unsurrendered certificates in respect thereof shall become and be the property of Ohio Power free of any rights or claims thereon whatsoever.

3. The shares of common stock of Central Ohio owned by American shall be extinguished on the effective date of the merger and the certificates for such shares shall be cancelled.

4. The outstanding common and preferred stocks and first mortgage bonds, serial notes, notes payable to banks and other undischarged liabilities of Ohio Power on the effective date of the Agreement of Merger shall remain unchanged.

5. Ohio Power will assume all of the debts, liabilities and duties of Central Ohio, including its $4,998,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, Series B, 2⅞ Percent, due 1977 and $2,900,000 principal amount of short term notes payable to banks, and, in connection therewith, Ohio Power will execute an appropriate instrument assuming Central Ohio's indenture, dated as of February 1, 1944, as supplemented.

6. All of the property of Central Ohio will be vested in Ohio Power.

7. It is proposed, following approval of the Plan by the Commission, to submit the Agreement of Merger to a vote of stockholders of Ohio Power and Central Ohio. American, as the holder of the requisite number of shares required for approval of the Agreement of Merger, proposes to vote such shares in favor thereof.

B. The Plan and the consummation thereof are subject to, among others the following conditions:

1. The Commission shall find the Plan necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 of the act and fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby and shall make an order approving the Plan which order, if Ohio Power shall request, shall contain appropriate recitals under the provisions of the Internal Revenue laws of the United States.

2. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall have determined that no gain or loss to Ohio Power or Central Ohio will be recognized under the provisions of the Internal Revenue laws in connection with the merger of Central Ohio with and into Ohio Power and the transaction relative thereto, and that the transfers of properties and the issuances and transfers of securities under the Plan will not be subject to any documentary stamp or other tax under the Internal Revenue laws of the United States.

3. The Commission shall apply to a court of competent jurisdiction, in accordance with the provisions of section 11 (e) and section 18 (f) of the act, to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the Plan, and such court shall enter an order approving the Plan as fair and equitable and as appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 of the act and to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the Plan and to make them binding upon all security holders of Ohio Power and Central Ohio.

C. Ohio Power will pay the expenses incurred by Ohio Power and Central Ohio in connection with the Plan, subject to approval of the Commission, and will pay such additional fees and expenses for services rendered as the Commission shall finally determine and allow.

III. The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act, before approving any plan submitted thereunder, to find, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that the Plan, as submitted or as modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 of the act, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby; and

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that notice be given and a hearing be held in respect of said Plan, and that said Plan shall not become effective except pursuant to further order of the Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on said application for approval of said Plan, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder, be held on October 7, 1954, at 2:00 p. m., e. s. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in such room as may be designated on that date by the hearing room clerk in Room 193.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard in connection with this proceeding, or otherwise wishing to participate herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before October 5, 1954, his request and application therefor as provided in Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Edward C. Johnson, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing. The officer so designated to preside is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division of Corporate Regulation of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application and the Plan, and that, upon the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice, however, to the presentation of additional matters and questions upon further examination:

1. Whether the Plan as submitted, or as it may hereafter be modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act;

2. Whether the provisions of the Plan are fair and equitable to all persons affected, particularly the payment of $50 in cash to the public holders of the common stock of Central Ohio in full satisfaction of all their rights and interests in that company;

3. Whether the accounting entries to be made to record the proposed transactions on the books of Ohio Power and American Gas are appropriate and in conformity with sound accounting principles;

4. Whether the fees and expenses and other remuneration which may be claimed or paid in connection with the Plan and the transactions incident thereto are for necessary services and are reasonable in amount; and

5. Generally, whether the proposed transactions are in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder, and, if not, what modifications or amendments thereof should be required and what terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the applicable statutory standards;

It is further ordered, That particular attention be directed at said hearing to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing copies of this notice and order by registered mail to Ohio Power, Central Ohio, American, The Hanover Bank, The National City Bank of Cleveland, the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and The Federal Power Commission, that notice to all other persons shall be given by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and that a general release of this Commission in respect of this notice and order be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

It is further ordered, That, at least 15 days prior to the date of such hearing, Central Ohio give notice of this hearing and of the transactions proposed by the Plan to all of its stockholders of record as of a date not earlier than 30 days prior to such hearing (in so far as the identity of such holders is known and their addresses available to the company) by mailing a copy of this notice and order to each such holder; and that, upon request therefor, the company shall promptly furnish a copy of the Plan to any such stockholder.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF AGGREGATE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF INSTALLMENT NOTES TO BANKS TO REFUND OUTSTANDING COLLATERAL TRUST NOTES

SEPTEMBER 20, 1954.

American Natural Gas Company ("American Natural"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), particularly sections 7 and 12 thereof and Rules U-42 (b) (2) and U-50 (a) (2) promulgated thereunder, with respect to proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

American Natural proposes to refund its Collateral Trust Notes, at present outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $12,500,000, having various rates of interest of from 3 percent to 4 percent with a weighted average annual interest rate of 3.93 percent, by issuing and selling at par to three commercial banking institutions an aggregate of $12,000,000 principal amount of installment notes, and by using other corporate funds to the extent required.

American Natural proposes, on or before October 6, 1954, to obtain commitments to lend to it on November 5, 1954, against execution and delivery by American Natural of its installment notes, the following amounts from the following institutions:

The National City Bank of New York	$4,000,000
The Hanover Bank (New York)	4,000,000
Mellon National Bank & Trust Co. (Pittsburgh)	4,000,000
Total	12,000,000

As a commitment charge, American Natural will pay to the banks a total of $5,000 (an amount equal to ½ of 1 percent per annum on the total amount of the proposed loan for the period October 6, 1954, to November 5, 1954).

On or before October 6, 1954, American Natural proposes to give notice to the holders of its Collateral Trust Notes that it will prepay said notes on November 5, 1954, these notes being prepayable at any time on thirty days' written notice. On November 5, 1954, the prepayment premium applicable to these outstanding notes will aggregate $159,750. Of this amount, $2,500 is applicable to notes held by the three lending banks, these banks having agreed to waive the prepayment premium applicable to the notes held by them.

American Natural proposes to execute and deliver on November 5, 1954, to the above-named banks its installment notes and receive the loans. The new notes are to be dated November 5, 1954, will bear interest at the rate of 3¼ percent per annum, and will provide for the payment of the principal thereof at the rate of $500,000 annually on the first five anniversary dates and at the rate of $750,000 on the sixth and seventh anniversary dates, with a balance of $8,000,000 payable eight years after the date of the notes. Any installment is prepayable in advance of maturity, in whole or in part, without premium or penalty except in case of prepayment from the proceeds of borrowings from other banks, in which event there will be payable a premium of ¼ of 1 percent per annum for the unexpired term of the prepaid amount. The notes will be unsecured but will contain a negative pledge clause under which American Natural, should it secure any indebtedness by the pledge of any securities of any of its subsidiaries, will be obligated to secure these installment notes equally and ratably with such other indebtedness.

The fees and expenses to be paid by American Natural in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated as follows:

Premium payable on retirement of collateral trust notes	$157,250
Payment to banks for lending commitment	5,000
Sidley, Austin, Burgess & Smith, legal fee	1,000
Miscellaneous telephone, telegraph, duplicating, traveling and other expenses and contingencies	1,000
Total	164,250

Due notice having been given of the filing of the declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that the fees and expenses, if they do not exceed the estimates, are not unreasonable, and that the declaration should be permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

LOUISIANA POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING PROPOSED ISSUANCE AND SALE OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING

SEPTEMBER 20, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Louisiana Power & Light Company ("Louisiana"), a public-utility subsidiary of Middle South Utilities, Inc., a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission a declaration designating sections 6 (a), 7, and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-42 (b) (2) and U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

Louisiana proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $18,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds __ Percent Series, due 1984. The bonds, which are to be dated as of October 1, 1954, are to be secured by the company's Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated April 1, 1944, as heretofore supplemented and as to be further supplemented by a Fourth Supplemental Indenture, to be dated October 1, 1954. The interest rate applicable to the new bonds (which is to be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent) and the price to be paid Louisiana (which is to be not less than 100 percent nor more than 102.75 percent of principal amount) are to be fixed at competitive bidding.

The declaration states that the net proceeds from the sale of the bonds will be used to redeem and retire Louisiana's First Mortgage Bonds, 4 Percent Series, due 1983 presently outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $12,000,000; to pay for the cost of constructing new facilities; and to provide Louisiana with funds for other corporate purposes. The filing further states that the estimated cost of construction to be built by Louisiana during the calendar years 1954 and 1955 will approximate $30,600,000, of which $8,200,000 had been expended by July 31, 1954.

The filing states that the proposed transactions are subject to no state regulatory body or agency and that no Federal commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction in the matter.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than October 8, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, and the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after October 8, 1954, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective, as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions, as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

TEMPLETON GROWTH FUND OF CANADA, LTD.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER PERMITTING REGISTRATION AND SALE OF SECURITIES IN THE U. S.

Notice is hereby given that Templeton Growth Fund of Canada, Ltd. ("Applicant"), an investment company proposed to be chartered under The Companies Act of 1934, of Canada, has filed an application under section 7 (d) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "act") and Rule N-7D-1 thereunder seeking an order of the Commission permitting Applicant to register as an investment company under the act and to make a public offering of its securities in the United States.

Section 7 (d) of the act prohibits a foreign investment company from selling its securities to the public through the mails or any means or instrumentalities of interstate commerce unless the Commission issues a conditional or unconditional order permitting such company to register under the act and to make a public offering of its securities in the United States. To issue such an order the Commission must find that, by reason of special circumstances or arrangements, it is both legally and practically feasible effectively to enforce the provisions of the act against such company and that the issuance of such order is otherwise consistent with the public interest and the protection of investors.

Rule N-7D-1 is declarative of the special circumstances and arrangements to be entered into by a management investment company organized under the laws of Canada, so that an order under section 7 (d) may be entered as a course, and without the necessity for hearing, if such order is otherwise appropriate. Applicant's charter, by-laws, undertakings and agreements, contained in its application, are designed to meet the requirements and conditions outlined in Rule N-7D-1.

Applicant was organized in September 1954 for the purpose of carrying on business as an investment company, concentrating its investments in securities of issuers substantially engaged in Canadian enterprises. Its authorized capital stock consists of Common Shares and Deferred Shares which have the same rights except that Deferred Shares have no redemption rights. Applicant does not intend to issue its Deferred Shares. Applicant states that its initial capital of $1,000,000 will be provided by the issuance and private sale of its common shares to Templeton, Dobbrow & Vance, Inc., investment advisers, and certain of its clients, who will purchase for investment; thereafter Applicant intends to make an initial public offering of its Common Shares. Six months after Applicant shall have received an aggregate of $1,200,000 from the sale of its Common Shares such shares will become redeemable, pursuant to Applicant's Letters Patent, and Applicant proposes then to operate as a non-diversified open-end management company.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than October 4, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

PART 421—GRAINS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

SUBPART—1954 CORN PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM

CORN ACREAGE

This amendment to 1954 C. C. C. Corn Bulletin A, as amended (19 F. R. 783, 1812), is for the purpose of affording corn producers who have not harvested their 1954 corn crop the opportunity to adjust their planted acreage to their 1954 acreage allotments.

Section 421.478 (e) of the 1954 C. C. C. Corn Bulletin A is amended to read as follows:

§ 421.478 Definitions. • • •

(e) Corn Acreage. "Corn Acreage" means the number of acres of land on which field corn, including sweet corn produced for feed or silage, is planted alone or interplanted with other crops. In the event that any field corn, as described in the first sentence of this paragraph, is totally destroyed by any cause beyond the control of the producer and corn cannot be replanted on the same acreage, an additional corn acreage may, with the prior approval of the county committee, be substituted for such acreage. In such event, the acreage on which the corn was destroyed shall not be deemed to be corn acreage. Acreage planted to field corn, as described in the first sentence of this paragraph, in excess of the farm acreage allotment will not be deemed to be corn acreage if such corn (1) is not left standing in the field on a date established by the county committee with the approval of the State Committee and (2) is not used as feed, silage or fodder or sold (including involuntary sales), bartered, exchanged, or donated.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas), Department of Agriculture

PART 728—WHEAT

SUBPART—1955–1956 MARKETING YEAR

REALLOCATION OF ALLOTMENTS

Section 334 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, was further amended by Public Law 690, 83d Congress, approved August 28, 1954, to add a new subsection (f) which reads as follows:

(f) Any part of any 1955 farm wheat acreage allotment on which wheat will not be planted and which is voluntarily surrendered to the county committee shall be deducted from the allotment to such farm and may be reapportioned by the county committee to other farms in the same county receiving allotments in amounts determined by the county committee to be fair and reasonable on the basis of past acreage of wheat, tillable acres, crop rotation practices, type of soil, and topography. If all of the allotted acreage voluntarily surrendered is not needed in the county, the county committee may surrender the excess acreage to the State committee to be used for the same purposes as the State acreage reserve under subsection (c) of this section. Any allotment transferred under this provision shall be regarded for the purposes of subsection (c) of this section as having been planted on the farm from which transferred rather than on the farm to which transferred, except that this shall not operate to make the farm from which the allotment was transferred eligible for an allotment as having wheat planted thereon during the three-year base period: Provided, That notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any part of any 1955 farm acreage allotment may be permanently released in writing to the county committee by the owner and operator of the farm and reapportioned as provided herein. Acreage surrendered, reapportioned under this subsection, and planted shall be credited to the State and county in determining future acreage allotments.

The purpose of this amendment is to provide for the release and reapportionment of unused 1955 farm wheat acreage allotments which are voluntarily released to the county committee.

Since farmers in many areas are now preparing to seed wheat for the 1955 crop, it is imperative that they be notified of this amendment and of any revised farm acreage allotments resulting therefrom as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the public notice, procedure, and 30-day effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and the amendment herein shall become effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

The regulations pertaining to farm acreage allotments for the 1955 crop (19 F. R. 3249) are amended by changing § 728.518 to read as follows:

§ 728.518 Reallocation of allotments—

(a) Released from farms removed from agricultural production. The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any farm which is removed from agricultural production by acquisition in 1950 or thereafter by a United States agency for national defense purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be available to the State committee for use in providing equitable allotments for farms owned or acquired by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farms by the United States. Upon application to the county committee, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any other farm owned or acquired by him equal to an allotment which shall be comparable to the allotments established for other farms in the same area which are similar except for the past acreage of wheat.

(b) Released voluntarily to county committee. Any part of any 1955 farm wheat acreage allotment on which wheat will not be planted in 1955 and which is voluntarily released to the county committee by the closing date established by the State committee for the entire State, or for areas in the State if there is a substantial difference in planting dates for different areas in the State, which shall be the date on which the planting of wheat normally becomes general on farms in the State or area, shall be deducted from the wheat acreage allotment for such farm and may be reapportioned by the county committee not later than the date established by the State committee, which shall be the latest date on which wheat can normally be planted on farms in the State or area with reasonable expectations of producing an average crop, to other farms receiving allotments in the same county in amounts determined to be fair and reasonable on the basis of the wheat acreage for the years 1952 and 1953, tillable acres, crop rotation practices, type of soil, and topography, but without regard to the limitations imposed under § 728.516. If all the allotted acreage voluntarily released is not needed in the county, the county committee may surrender the excess acreage to the State committee to be used for new farm allotments as provided under § 728.522, but without regard to the limitation imposed under § 728.521 with respect to the wheat acreage indicated by cropland, soil type, and topography. Any wheat acreage allotment released for 1955 only shall, in determining future wheat acreage allotments, be regarded as having been planted on the farm releasing such allotments if wheat was seeded on such farm for harvest as grain in at least one of the three years immediately preceding the year for which the allotment is determined. Any part of the farm acreage allotment may be permanently released in writing to the county committee by the owner and operator of the farm and reapportioned as provided in this paragraph, in which case the farm from which the allotment is released shall be considered as having no wheat on such released acreage for any of the 1952, 1953, and 1954 crops. In determining future farm wheat acreage allotments, the acreage planted for harvest as grain in 1955 of reapportioned acreage allotment under this paragraph shall not be considered. For purposes of determining future State and county acreage allotments, reapportioned acreage will be credited to the State and to the county in which such acreage was planted.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 23]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.323 Valencia Orange Regulation 23—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Order No. 22 (19 F. R. 1741), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective March 31, 1954, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on September 23, 1954 after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 29, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 3, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 427,350 boxes;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) Valencia oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "boxes," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in said order.

[Lemon Reg. 556]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.663 Lemon Regulation 556—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 18 F. R. 6767), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on September 22, 1954 such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 26, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 3, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 275 carloads;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached to Lemon Regulation 555 (19 F. R. 6031) and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 957—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR COUNTY, OREGON

APPROVAL OF EXPENSES AND FIXING RATE OF ASSESSMENT

Notice of rule making regarding proposed expenses and rate of assessment, to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 57, as amended (7 CFR Part 957), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in certain designated counties in Idaho and Malheur County, Oregon, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER August 28, 1954 (19 F. R. 5522). This regulatory program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, which proposals were adopted and submitted for approval by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committeee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and amended order, it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 957.207 Expenses and rate of assessment. (a) The expenses necessary to be incurred by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 57, as amended, to enable such committee to perform its functions pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement and order during the fiscal year ending May 31, 1955, will amount to $23,522.00.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who first ships potatoes shall be fifty cents per carload or fraction thereof, or per truckload of 5,000 pounds or more, of potatoes, handled by him as the first handler thereof during said fiscal year.

(c) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 57, as amended (§§ 957.1 to 957.133).

PART 959—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN THE COUNTIES OF CROOK, DESCHUTES, JEFFERSON, KLAMATH, AND LAKE IN OREGON, AND MODOC AND SISKIYOU IN CALIFORNIA

APPROVAL OF EXPENSES AND FIXING RATE OF ASSESSMENT

Notice of proposed rule making regarding proposed expenses and rate of assessment, to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 114 and Order No. 59, as amended (7 CFR Part 959), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the Counties of Crook, Deschutes, Jefferson, Klamath, and Lake in Oregon, and Modoc and Siskiyou in California, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER August 28, 1954 (19 F. R. 5522). This regulatory program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). After consideration of all revelant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, which proposals were adopted and submitted for approval by the Oregon-California Potato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and amended order, it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 959.207 Expenses and rate of assessment. (a) The expenses necessary to be incurred by the Oregon-California Potato Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 114 and Order No. 59, as amended, to enable such committee to perform its functions pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement and amended order during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955, will amount to $19,237.50.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who first ships potatoes shall be three-eighths of one cent ($0.00375) per hundredweight handled by him as the first handler thereof during said fiscal year.

(c) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 114 and Order No. 59, as amended (§§ 959.1 to 959.132).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER

The following amendments to Chapter I of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

PART 1—GENERAL

Paragraph (b) of § 1.1 Definitions is amended by adding subparagraph (14) to read as follows:

(14) The term "discharge", as used in section 256 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, means the signing off the articles of a crewman or the termination in any manner of his service and presence on board the vessel or aircraft on which he arrived in the United States.

PART 2—SERVICE RECORDS; FEES

The tenth item in § 2.5 Fees for service, documents, papers, and records not specified in the Immigration and Nationality Act is amended to read as follows:

For filing application for discretionary relief under section 212 (d) (3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, except in emergency cases or where the granting of the application is in the interest of the United States Government	25.00

PART 221—DISPOSITION OF ENTRY DOCUMENTS OF ALIENS ENTERING OR DEPARTING OTHER THAN AS NONIMMIGRANT CREWMEN

Paragraph (b) of § 221.3 Form I–94 is amended by adding subparagraph (10) which, when taken with the introductory material, will read as follows:

(b) When not prepared by immigration officer. Immigration officers shall not prepare a set of Forms I–94 for the following-described classes of aliens:

* * * * *

(10) An alien for whom a set of Forms I–94 is required to be prepared by the persons responsible for the delivery of a passenger manifest and as a part thereof as provided in §§ 231.21 (f) and 231.41 (a) (2) of this chapter.

PART 263—REGISTRATION OF ALIENS IN THE UNITED STATES: PROVISIONS GOVERNING SPECIAL GROUPS

Part 263 is amended by adding a new section, designated § 263.4, to read as follows:

§ 263.4 Certain alien crewmen. An alien crewman who has not previously been registered under the Immigration and Nationality Act who has remained in the United States for more than 29 days and who has not been made the subject of deportation proceedings shall be fingerprinted on Form AR–4. The alien crewman's Form I–95A shall be endorsed to show that he has been fingerprinted, and such form shall constitute the evidence of registration required to be carried with him and in his personal possession by section 264 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

PART 264—REGISTRATION OF ALIENS IN THE UNITED STATES: FORMS AND PROCEDURE

Paragraph (c) of § 264.1 Alien-registration receipt card is amended by adding subparagraph (5) which, when taken with the introductory material, will read as follows:

(c) Forms constituting alien-registration receipt cards under the Immigration and Nationality Act. In addition to any form specifically stated elsewhere in this chapter to be an alien-registration receipt card issued pursuant to section 264 (d) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the forms listed in this paragraph shall, under the conditions specified, also constitute alien-registration receipt cards.

* * * * *

(5) Form I–95A. An alien crewman registered on Form AR–4 as provided in § 263.4 shall be given Form I–95A endorsed to show such registration and that form shall then be the alien crewman's registration receipt card.

PART 343a—NATURALIZATION AND CITIZENSHIP PAPERS LOST, MUTILATED, OR DESTROYED; NEW CERTIFICATE IN CHANGED NAME; CERTIFIED COPY OF REPATRIATION PROCEEDINGS

The second sentence of § 343a.12 Submission of application; fees and documents is amended to read as follows: "Applications under § 343a.11 (a) and (b) shall be accompanied by a fee of $5 (unless the applicant is exempted from the payment of a fee by section 344 (b) (7) of the Immigration and Nationality Act)."

PART 481—ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS OF NONIMMIGRANT TO THAT OF A PERSON ADMITTED FOR PERMANENT RESIDENCE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REFUGE RELIEF ACT OF 1953

The second sentence of § 481.13 Medical examination is amended by changing "§ 235.13 (c)" to "236.13 (c)."

(Sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173)

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) as to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date is unnecessary in this instance because the rules prescribed by the order, other than those that relate to interpretative rules or to matters of agency procedure, clarify existing regulations.

Dated: September 16, 1954.

HERBERT BROWNELL, Jr.,
Attorney General.

Recommended: August 17, 1954.

J. M. SWING,
Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs. Amdt. 40–10]

PART 40—SCHEDULED INTERSTATE AIR CARRIER CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES

QUALIFICATION OF FLIGHT CREW MEMBERS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of September 1954.

At the present time § 40.261 (d) of Part 40 of the Civil Air Regulations requires that where a flight engineer is required a flight crew member in addition to the flight engineer shall be sufficiently qualified that, in the event of illness or other incapacity of the flight engineer, emergency coverage can be provided for the flight engineer's duties. The subsection specifically states that a pilot need not hold a flight engineer certificate so to function at such time.

In connection with the proceedings resulting from a petition of the Air Transport Association for the amendment of certain provisions of Part 40 with respect to the necessity for and training of flight engineers, it came to the Board's attention that some individuals interpreted the last sentence of § 40.261 (d) as allowing a pilot to serve in the capacity of flight engineer only at a time when the aircraft is in an emergency situation. The intent of the sentence was to make clear that a pilot as such will be considered sufficiently qualified without holding a flight engineer certificate to provide emergency coverage at a time when, due to illness or other incapacity, the flight engineer cannot carry out his duties. In order that there may be no misunderstanding on this point the Board is promulgating this amendment.

Since this amendment is interpretive in nature and imposes no burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 40 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 40, as amended), effective immediately, by amending the last sentence of § 40.261 (d) to read as follows: "A pilot need not hold a flight engineer certificate to function in the capacity of a flight engineer for such emergency coverage."

(Sec. 205; 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 604, 605; 42 Stat. 1007, 1010, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 554, 555)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

In connection with the introduction, or manufacture for introduction, into commerce, etc., of any fur product; or in connection with the manufacture for sale, sale, etc., of any fur product made in whole or in part of fur shipped and received in commerce; as "commerce", "fur", and "fur products" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act: (A) Misbranding, false advertising, or false invoicing of fur products by: (1) Failing to affix labels to fur products, failing to show in advertisements of fur products, or failing to furnish invoices to purchasers of fur products, showing: (a) The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur contained in the fur products as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as permitted under the rules and regulations; (b) that the fur product contains or is composed of used fur, when such is a fact; (c) that the fur product is secondhand, when such is a fact; (d) that the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed, or otherwise artifically colored fur, when such is a fact; (e) that the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, or waste fur, when such is a fact; (f) the name of the country or origin of any imported furs used in a fur product; (2) abbreviating parts of the information required under the Fur Products Labeling Act and the rules and regulations thereunder; (3) using terms descriptive of the breed, species, strain, or coloring of an animal which connote a false geographical origin of the animal; (4) using the term "Hudson Seal", or any other coined name, as being descriptive of the fur of an animal which is in fact fictitious or non-existent; (5) using the term "assembled" to describe fur products or fur mats or plates made of the pieces set out in Rule 20 (a) of the regulations under the Fur Products Labeling Act without disclosing the named pieces; (6) using on labels attached to fur products, in advertisements of fur products, and on invoices of fur products, the name of another animal in addition to the name of the animal actually producing the fur contained in the fur product; (B) Misbranding respondents' fur products by: (1) Falsely or deceptively labeling or otherwise identifying said fur product, or using labels affixed to such products which contain any form of misrepresentation or deception with respect to such fur products; (2) setting out on labels attached to fur products the required information in type smaller than pica or 12 point; mingling non-required information with required information; or using handwriting in describing any of the required information; (3) failing to set out the applicable parts of the required information on labels in the sequence provided in Rule 30 of the regulations under the Fur Products Labeling Act; (4) failing to set forth on required labels attached to fur products the name or other identification issued and registered by the Commission of one or more persons who manufactured such fur products for introduction into commerce, introduced it in commerce, sold it in commerce, advertised or offered it for sale in commerce, or transported or distributed it in commerce; (C) falsely advertising fur products by representing, directly or by implication: (1) That the price of any such product is a wholesale price or is so low as to attract other retailers as customers unless such is the fact; (2) that the customary or regular price of any such product is any amount in excess of the price at which such product has been offered for sale in good faith or has been sold by respondents in the recent regular course of business; (3) that the regular price of any such product is a reduced price; (4) that a price enables purchasers to make any saving in excess of the difference between said price and the price at which comparable products sold at the time specified or, if no time is specified, in excess of the difference between said price and the current price at which comparable products are sold; (5) that any such product is of a higher grade, quality, or value than is the fact; (6) that any said products were acquired at "close out sales" or other distress sales or were acquired under other special conditions conducive to low or bargain prices unless such is the fact; (7) that the designer of any such product, the source from which it was obtained, or the person for whom it was originally intended is other than the fact; (8) that any such product was originally intended to sell or be priced at a higher price unless products of like grade and quality were customarily so priced and sold; and, II, in connection with the offer for sale, sale, and distribution of fur products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act: (1) Making any of the representations listed in "C", "(1)" through "(8)", of the instant order; (2) representing, directly or by implication: (a) That respondents manufacture or design any of said products, unless such is the fact; (b) that the number of said products available for sale is other than the fact; (c) that the price of any said product is lower than competitors' products of comparable quality, unless such is the fact; (d) that respondents have engaged in the fur business for a longer period of time than is the fact; (e) that merchandise certificates have any value in excess of the amount of reduction from the regular price of a fur product allowed a purchaser presenting said certificate for credit; (f) that the total value, individual value, or number of the awards to be made by respondents in any manner is other than the fact; (3) increasing the price of any of said products for the purpose of nullifying any part of the value of respondents' merchandise certificates presented for credit on the purchase of said product; and (4) refusing to honor at face value or placing any limitation on the honoring of any merchandise certificate or other award issued by respondents unless the basis for refusal or limitation is clearly and conspicuously set forth in the certificate or award and in the advertising referring to said certificates or awards; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended, sec. 8, 65 Stat. 179; 15 U. S. C. 45, 69f) [Cease and desist order, Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Oregon (Portland, Oreg.), et al., Docket 6159, August 26, 1954.]

In the Matter of Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Oregon, a Corporation; Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Washington, a Corporation; and Ed Hamilton and Elizabeth Hamilton, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporations

This proceeding was heard by Abner E. Lipscomb, hearing examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission, which charged respondents with acts and practices in violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Fur Products Labeling Act, and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder; respondents' answer, subsequently withdrawn, as hereinbelow noted; and upon an agreement of counsel and stipulation for consent order submitted pursuant thereto to said examiner.

By the terms of said stipulation, respondents admitted all the jurisdictional allegations set forth in the complaint and stipulated that the record in the instant matter might be taken as if the Commission had made findings of jurisdictional facts in accordance with such allegations; requested that their said answer be withdrawn and expressly waived the filing of an answer to the complaint and further procedure before said examiner and the Commission; and agreed that the order contained in said stipulation should have the same force and effect as if made after a full hearing, presentation of evidence, and findings and conclusions thereon, and specifically waived all right, power, or privilege to contest the validity of said order.

Said stipulation recited that said complaint might be used in construing the terms of said order, and that such order might be altered, modified, or set aside, in the manner provided by statute for orders of the Commission, and that said stipulation for consent order, together with the complaint, should constitute the entire record of the proceeding, and that the order contained therein might be entered upon the record, in disposition of the proceeding, without further notice.

Thereafter said examiner, having concluded, in view of the provisions of said stipulation for consent order that respondents' request that their answer to the complaint be withdrawn, should be granted, and that such action, together with the issuance of the order contained in said stipulation, would resolve all the issues arising by reason of the complaint in the proceeding and respondents' answer thereto, and would safeguard the public interest to the same extent as could be accomplished by full hearing, and all other adjudicative procedure waived in said stipulation, made his initial decision, setting forth the aforesaid matters, and, in consonance with the terms of said agreement, accepted the stipulation for consent order submitted, granted respondents' request that their answer to the complaint be withdrawn, and issued order to cease and desist in accordance therewith.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said hearing examiner, as provided for in Rule XXII of the Commission's rules of practice, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII became the decision of the Commission on August 26, 1954.

Said order is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Oregon, a corporation, and its officers, respondent Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Washington, a corporation, and its officers, and respondents Ed Hamilton and Elizabeth Hamilton, individually and as officers of said corporations, and their respective representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction, or manufacture for introduction, into commerce, or the sale, advertising or offering for sale in commerce, or the transportation or distribution in commerce of any fur product; or in connection with the manufacture for sale, sale, advertising, offering for sale, transportation or distribution of any fur product which is made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce; as "commerce," "fur," and "fur product" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(A) Misbranding, false advertising, or false invoicing of fur products by:

(1) Failing to affix labels to fur products, failing to show in advertisements of fur products, or failing to furnish invoices to purchasers of fur products, showing:

(a) The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur contained in the fur products as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as permitted under the rules and regulations;

(b) That the fur product contains or is composed of used fur, when such is a fact;

(c) That the fur product is second-hand, when such is a fact;

(d) That the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is a fact;

(e) That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies or waste fur, when such is a fact;

(f) The name of the country of origin of any imported furs used in a fur product;

(2) Abbreviating parts of the information required under the Fur Products Labeling Act and the rules and regulations thereunder;

(3) Using terms descriptive of the breed, species, strain, or coloring of an animal which connote a false geographical origin of the animal;

(4) Using the term "Hudson Seal," or any other coined name, as being descriptive of the fur of an animal which is in fact fictitious or non-existent;

(5) Using the term "assembled" to describe fur products or fur mats or plates made of the pieces set out in Rule 20 (a) of the regulations under the Fur Products Labeling Act without disclosing the named pieces;

(6) Using on labels attached to fur products, in advertisements of fur products, and on invoices of fur products, the name of another animal in addition to the name of the animal actually producing the fur contained in the fur product.

(B) Misbranding their fur products by:

(1) Falsely or deceptively labeling or otherwise identifying said fur product, or using labels affixed to such products which contain any form of misrepresentation or deception with respect to such fur products;

(2) Setting out on labels attached to fur products the required information in type smaller than pica or 12 point; mingling non-required information with required information; or using handwriting in describing any of the required information;

(3) Failing to set out the applicable parts of the required information on labels in the sequence provided in Rule 30 of the regulations under the Fur Products Labeling Act;

(4) Failing to set forth on required labels attached to fur products the name or other identification issued and registered by the Commission of one or more persons who manufactured such fur products for introduction into commerce, introduced it in commerce, sold it in commerce, advertised or offered it for sale in commerce, or transported or distributed it in commerce.

(C) Falsely advertising fur products by representing, directly or by implication:

(1) That the price of any such product is a wholesale price or is so low as to attract other retailers as customers unless such is the fact;

(2) That the customary or regular price of any such product is any amount in excess of the price at which such product has been offered for sale in good faith or has been sold by respondents in the recent regular course of business;

(3) That the regular price of any such product is a reduced price;

(4) That a price enables purchasers to make any saving in excess of the difference between said price and the price at which comparable products sold at the time specified or, if no time is specified, in excess of the difference between said price and the current price at which comparable products are sold;

(5) That any such product is of a higher grade, quality or value than is the fact;

(6) That any said products were acquired at "close out sales" or other distress sales or were acquired under other special conditions conducive to low or bargain prices unless such is the fact;

(7) That the designer of any such product, the source from which it was obtained, or the person for whom it was originally intended is other than the fact;

(8) That any such product was originally intended to sell or be priced at a higher price unless products of like grade and quality were customarily so priced and sold.

It is further ordered, That respondent Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Oregon, a corporation, and its officers, respondent Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Washington, a corporation, and its officers, respondents Ed Hamilton and Elizabeth Hamilton, individually and as officers of said corporations, and their respective representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of fur products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Making any of the representations listed in sub-paragraphs C (1) through (8) of this order;

(2) Representing, directly or by implication:

(a) That they manufacture or design any of said products, unless such is the fact;

(b) That the number of said products available for sale is other than the fact;

(c) That the price of any said product is lower than competitors' products of comparable quality, unless such is the fact;

(d) That they have engaged in the fur business for a longer period of time than is the fact;

(e) That merchandise certificates have any value in excess of the amount of reduction from the regular price of a fur product allowed a purchaser presenting said certificate for credit;

(f) That the total value, individual value, or number of the awards to be made by respondents in any manner is other than the fact;

(3) Increasing the price of any of said products for the purpose of nullifying any part of the value of their merchandise certificates presented for credit on the purchase of said product;

(4) Refusing to honor at face value or placing any limitation on the honoring of any merchandise certificate or other award issued by them unless the basis for refusal or limitation is clearly and conspicuously set forth in the certificate or award and in the advertising referring to said certificates or awards.

It is further ordered, That the answer to the complaint herein filed by respondents on February 25, 1954, be, and the same hereby is, withdrawn from the record.

By "Decision of the Commission and Order to File Report of Compliance", Docket 6159, August 26, 1954, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Oregon, a corporation; Ed Hamilton Furs, Inc., of Washington, a corporation; and Ed Hamilton and Elizabeth Hamilton, individually and as officers of said corporations, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: August 26, 1954.

By the Commission.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53592]

PART 10—ARTICLES CONDITIONALLY FREE, SUBJECT TO A REDUCED RATE, ETC.

PART 16—LIQUIDATION OF DUTIES

CLEARANCE OF ARTICLES UNDER THE $200 OR $300 EXEMPTION

Sections 10.17 (k), 10.19, 10.20, and 16.12 (c) of the Customs Regulations, relating to the declaration and clearance through customs under the $200 or $300 exemption of articles which do not accompany a returning resident or are shipped in bond and to liquidation of entries, amended.

To facilitate and expedite the clearance through customs by returning residents of the United States of articles acquired by them on the trip abroad for which they claim the $200 or $300 exemption but which do not accompany them or are forwarded in bond to another port for customs clearance and in order to conserve customs manpower, the Customs Regulations are amended as follows:

1. Section 10.17 (k) is amended to read:

(k) Unaccompanied articles. It is not necessary that articles accompany a resident at the time of his return to the United States to be within the $200 or $300 exemption. See § 10.20 (b). However, customs officers shall apply the exemptions only to articles before them for examination, and the application of an exemption to unaccompanied articles shall be finally determined only after they have been imported and the importer has performed the acts required of him for their customs clearance. If any allowance of the $200 or $300 exemption is to be claimed in respect of any articles not cleared at the time of a resident's return, whether such articles have already arrived, will arrive later, or are being shipped in bond to another port, they must be declared in writing to a customs officer. Such declaration of articles accompanying the resident shall be made at the time of the resident's return to the United States. A declaration for articles not accompanying the resident on his return should be made by him in writing at the time and place of his return, but if satisfactory reasons are given to the collector for failure to so declare such articles, a written declaration may be accepted, either at the port of clearance of the article or at the port of the resident's return, for such articles within one year after the return. An application to make such supplemental declaration shall be accompanied by any invoices, receipts, and any other available pertinent data to aid the collector in determining whether the articles were acquired abroad by the claimant as an incident of a journey made by him and are for his personal or household use. The supplemental declaration shall be made on customs Form 6059 or 6063, as the case may be, appropriately modified.

(Sec. 201 (par. 1798), 46 Stat. 683, as amended, sec. 498, 46 Stat. 728, as amended; 19 U. S. C. 1201 (par. 1798), 1498)

2. Section 10.19 is amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended by deleting the third sentence and substituting therefor: "The declaration may be submitted to a United States customs officer stationed in a foreign country for that purpose if one is available and all the articles presented to him for inspection and clearance are within allowable exemptions."

b. Paragraph (b) is amended by inserting "and none is forwarded in bond" after the words "his arrival" where they appear the second time.

c. Paragraph (j) is amended to read as follows:

(j) Examination in foreign territory. (1) When the baggage of a returning resident who is required to execute a written declaration (paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section) is examined and passed by a customs officer stationed in foreign territory, the declaration shall be executed in triplicate. The original and a certified duplicate of the baggage declaration shall be returned to the declarant for surrender to the customs officer on the train or ferry on which the declarant returns to the United States, or to the customs officer at the port of return, in order that such customs officer may determine what exemption, if any, has already been granted. If the certified duplicate is not required for the subsequent clearance of an unaccompanied shipment or one forwarded in bond, the certification thereon shall be effectively obliterated and the copy returned to the declarant.

(2) When a declarant, whose baggage has been examined and passed in foreign territory in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, subsequently acquires additional articles before he returns to the United States, the customs officer to whom the original declaration is surrendered as provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may permit the amendment of that declaration to include articles not previously declared. In such a case, a suitable notation shall be made by the customs officer on the original declaration to indicate the articles added thereto. If the certified duplicate is required for clearance of unaccompanied goods or a shipment in bond, before it is returned to the declarant it shall be completed by the customs officer, who shall note or have noted thereon the additional articles declared, the total exemption granted by him and by the officer in foreign territory, and his certificate that the additional articles are covered by a declaration on file at the port of arrival. If the aggregate declared purchase prices or values exceed the allowable exemptions, the values determined for United States customs purposes of all articles for which exemptions are granted at the port of a resident's return shall be noted on the declaration filed at such port and also on the certified duplicate. The customs officer who gives final clearance to the passenger shall not furnish to the declarant any certified copy of the passenger's declaration in addition to the duplicate certified by the customs officer in foreign territory.

(Sec. 498, 46 Stat. 728, as amended; 19 U. S. C. 1498)

3. Section 10.20 is amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (b) (2) is amended by changing the period at the end of the first sentence to a comma and adding the following: "unless the local collector with the approval of the Bureau of Customs authorizes acceptance of declarations in original only in such cases."

b. Paragraph (b) (3) is amended to read:

(3) The certified copy may be used as an entry form at the port of clearance for articles included in a baggage declaration which did not accompany a declarant at the time of his return or were shipped in bond to another port, including articles subject to duty, but not including any shipment containing articles other than personal or household effects[29] when the aggregate value of the articles in the shipment not classifiable as personal or household effects exceeds $250. If practicable, the declarant shall forward the certified copy to the foreign shipper for attachment to the unaccompanied shipment[29a] with instructions that the shipper shall stamp or endorse the parcel to show that a certified copy of a baggage declaration is enclosed.

c. The first sentence of paragraph (b) (4) is amended to read:

(4) If it is expected that declared articles not cleared when the declarant arrives will be included in more than one shipment, including any shipment in bond or of checked baggage not in bond, no copy of the declaration shall be certified by the customs officer but if an extra copy has been prepared by the declarant it shall be returned to him, not certified, for reference purposes. * * *

d. The footnote reference at the end of the second sentence in paragraph (b) (4) is changed to "29a".

e. Paragraph (b) (5) is amended to read:

(5) When a shipment arrives with customs Form 3349 enclosed therein or attached to the shipping papers, and in other cases where allowance under the $200 or $300 exemption is claimed, the collector at the port where the shipment is held for clearance shall verify the claimant's right to an exemption. For this purpose, if the exemption is claimed elsewhere than at the port of the claimant's return, the collector may require (i) the submission of the certified duplicate copy of the claimant's baggage declaration or (ii) in the absence of a certified copy, the submission of a declaration of the claimant on customs Form 6059–B. Upon receipt of a properly executed declaration on customs Form 6059–B at the clearance port, such form may be used in the same manner as a certified duplicate declaration. In any case in which a collector, without obtaining a declaration on customs Form 6059–B from the claimant, verifies a claim made for allowance under the $200 or $300 exemption by filling in the top portion of customs Form 6059–A and forwarding it to the port where the claimant returned to the United States, upon the return of the properly completed customs Form 6059–A to the clearance port, such form shall also be treated in all respects as a certified duplicate declaration and disposed of in the same manner. See § 10.17 (k) as to supplemental declarations for undeclared articles.

f. A new subparagraph (5–1) is added to paragraph (b) to read:

(5–1) The provisions of subparagraphs (2) and (4) of this paragraph relating to the issuance of a certified duplicate declaration and cards on customs Form 3349, respectively, shall be applicable when a supplemental declaration is made by a resident under § 10.17 (k) at the port of his return if he made only an oral declaration at the time of his return.

g. Paragraph (b) (6) is amended by inserting the words "at the port of clearance" after the word "collector".

h. Paragraph (c) is amended to read:

(c) Replacements. When any article declared by a returning resident is not found, or is so broken or destroyed as to constitute a nonimportation (§ 10.17 (l)), and a replacement for such article may be claimed to be free under the $200 or $300 exemption, there shall be issued to the importer for subsequent use in clearing the replacement article an extract of any certified duplicate baggage declaration or Form 6059–A previously issued for the article or, in the absence of either of the foregoing, customs Form 3349 showing both the port of issuance and the port where the resident returned may be issued.

(Sec. 498, 46 Stat. 728, as amended; 19 U. S. C. 1498)

i. Footnote 29 to § 10.20 is redesignated "29a" and a new footnote 29 is inserted to read as follows:

[29] The term "personal or household effects" as used here and in § 10.21 (c) includes only articles for personal and household use.

(Sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 19 U. S. C. 1624.)

4. Section 16.12 (b) is amended to read:

(b) The liquidation of free orlginal or certified duplicate baggage entries on customs Form 5123, 6059, 6059–A, 6059–B, or 6063 shall not be listed on any notice.

(Sec. 505, 46 Stat. 732; 19 U. S. C. 1505.)

PART 15—RELIEF FROM DUTIES ON MERCHANDISE LOST, STOLEN, DESTROYED, INJURED, ABANDONED, OR SHORT-SHIPPED

SHORTAGES OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE

In order to simplify the procedures prescribed for obtaining an allowance in duties in the liquidation of entries for lost or missing merchandise included in the entries, and to give collectors of customs authority to determine what type of proof of shortage is sufficient in the circumstances of the individual cases, § 15.8 of the Customs Regulations is hereby amended to read as follows:

15.8 Shortages; lost packages; deficiencies in contents of packages. (a) Allowance shall be made in the assessment of duties for lost or missing merchandise included in the entry whenever it is established to the satisfaction of the collector of customs before the liquidation of the entry becomes final that the merchandise claimed to be lost or missing was not imported. The foregoing shall not apply in the case of merchandise arriving under an I. T. entry.[10]

(b) Allowance for deficiency in any package reported to the collector by the appraiser or other customs officer shall be made in the liquidation of the entry; but no customs officer except an appraiser or other customs officer making an examination contemplated by section 499, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, shall report a supposed deficiency to the collector unless it is established to the satisfaction of the reporting officer that the merchandise was not imported.

TITLE 35—PANAMA CANAL

Chapter I—Canal Zone Regulations

Appendix—Canal Zone Orders

[Canal Zone Order 34]

ESTABLISHING UNITED STATES NAVAL RESERVATION, RODMAN, CANAL ZONE, AND REDUCING WEST BANK NAVAL RESERVATION, CANAL ZONE

By virtue of the authority vested in the President of the United States by section 5 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code, as amended by section 1 of act September 26, 1954, 64 Stat. 1038, and delegated to me by Executive Order No. 9746 of July 1, 1946, as amended by Executive Order No. 10101 of January 31, 1950, and after consultation with the Secretary of the Navy, it is ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. Setting apart of reservation; boundary. The area of land in the Canal Zone hereinafter described as United States Naval Reservation, Rodman, Canal Zone, is hereby set apart and assigned to the uses and purposes of a naval reservation, and to be under the control and jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy, subject to the provisions of section 2 of this order.

Beginning at monument "A", which is a 2-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located northwesterly from the intersection of Thatcher Highway and Bruja Road and 75.0 feet northeasterly and at right angles from the centerline of the 18 foot wide concrete pavement of Thatcher Highway, the geodetic position of which, referred to the Canal Zone triangulation system, is in latitude 8° 57' N. plus 1,879.0 feet and longitude 79° 35' W. plus 3,399.5 feet from Greenwich.

Thence from said initial point by metes and bounds:

Westerly, along a line parallel to and 75.0 feet northerly from the centerline of the generally 18 foot wide concrete pavement of Thatcher Highway, to monument N. A. D.–1, which is a 1½-inch iron pipe, the geodetic position of which is in latitude 8° 57' N. plus 2,645.5 feet and longitude 79° 37' W. plus 2,894.2 feet;

S. 80° 56' 00'' W., 691.1 feet, through monument No. 1–A, which is an iron rod in concrete, to monument N. A. D.–2, which is an iron rod in concrete, the distances being 301.9 feet and 389.2 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

N. 82° 02' 10'' W., 855.8 feet, through monument No. 2–A, which is an iron rod in concrete, to monument N. A. D.–3, which is an iron rod in concrete, the distances being 365.7 feet and 490.1 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

N. 49° 36' 20'' W., 351.3 feet, through monument No. 3–A, which is an iron rod in concrete, to monument No. 3–B, which is an iron rod in concrete, the distances being 126.3 feet and 225.0 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

S. 45° 00' 00'' W., 1,307.5 feet, to monument "B", which is a 2-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located 200.0 feet northerly and at right angles from the centerline of the 21 foot wide concrete pavement of Thatcher Highway, the geodetic position of which is in latitude 8° 57' N. plus 1,958.1 feet and longitude 79° 37' W. plus 5,616.2 feet;

Southwesterly, along a line parallel to and 200.0 feet northwesterly from the generally 18-foot wide concrete pavement of Thatcher Highway, to monument "C", which is a 2-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located northeasterly from the intersection of Thatcher Highway and military K–6 Road and is 200.0 feet northerly and at right angles from the 21 foot wide pavement of Thatcher Highway and 50.0 feet easterly and at right angles from the centerline of the 21 foot wide macadam pavement of the above mentioned K–6 Road, the geodetic position of which is in latitude 8° 57' N. plus 921.3 feet and longitude 79° 38' W. plus 920.3 feet;

Northerly and northeasterly, along a line parallel to and 50.0 feet easterly from the centerline of the macadam and gravel pavements of the military K–6 Road, and 50.0' southeasterly from the centerline of the gravel pavement of the military K–9 Road, to monument "D", which is a 2-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located on the southerly boundary of Army License No. 732, which is in latitude 8° 59' N. plus 0.0 feet and longitude 79° 37' W. plus 2,679.8 feet;

Due East, 285.8 feet, along the southerly boundary of Army License No. 732, to monument "E", which is a 2-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located 50.0 feet southwesterly and at right angles from the centerline of the gravel pavement of the military K–9 Road;

Southeasterly, along a line parallel to and 50.0 feet southwesterly from the centerline of the gravel pavement of the military K–9 Road, to an unmarked point called "F", located in the centerline of the South Branch of the Rio Cocoli, which is in latitude 8° 58' N. plus 4,975 feet, more or less, and longitude 79° 36' W. plus 5,775 feet, more or less.

Southwesterly, along the centerline of the South Branch of the Rio Cocoli, to an unmarked point called "G", which is in latitude 8° 58' N. plus 3,199.7 feet and longitude 79° 37' W. plus 258 feet, more or less;

Due East, 374 feet, more or less, to monument NB–13, which is an iron rod in concrete in latitude 8° 58' N. plus 3,199.7 feet and longitude 79° 36' W. plus 5,897.4 feet;

Due East, 2,097.2 feet, through monuments NB–12, NB–11, NB–10 and NB–9, which are iron rods in concrete, to monument NB–8, which is an 8-inch square concrete post, the distances being 445.0 feet, 395.1 feet, 231.4 feet, 481.5 feet and 544.2 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

Due North, 730.1 feet, to monument NB–7, which is an 8-inch square concrete post;

Due East, 1,410.1 feet, through monuments NB–6, NB–5, NB–4 and NB–3, which are iron rods in concrete, to monument NB–2, which is an 8-inch square concrete post, the distances being 291.1 feet, 290.4 feet, 600.5 feet, 138.6 feet and 89.5 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

Due South, 1,035.6 feet, through monument NB–1, which is an iron rod in concrete, to monument A–9, which is an 8-inch square concrete post, the distances being 585.5 feet and 450.1 feet, successively, from beginning of the course;

Due East, 4,255.4 feet, through monuments A–10, A–11, A–12, A–13, A–14, A–15, A–16, A–17 and A–18, which are iron rods in concrete, to A–19, which is a 2-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located 75.0 feet westerly and at right angles from the centerline of the 30 foot wide concrete pavement of Bruja Road, the distances being 208.5 feet, 245.2 feet, 716.7 feet, 587.1 feet, 1,055.3 feet, 590.0 feet, 421.1 feet, 204.0 feet, 166.3 feet and 61.2 feet, successively, from beginning of the course. The geodetic position of monument A–19 is in latitude 8° 58' N. plus 2,894.3 feet and longitude 79° 35' W. plus 4,147.5 feet;

Southerly, along a line parallel to and 75.0 feet westerly from the centerline of the 30 foot wide concrete pavement of Bruja Road, to monument "H", which is a 2-inch iron pipe set in concrete, located northwesterly from the intersection of Thatcher Highway and Bruja Road, the geodetic position of which is in latitude 8° 57' N. plus 1,910.1 feet and longitude 79° 35' W. plus 3,329.0 feet;

S. 66° 11' 00'' W., 77.0 feet, to monument "A", the point of beginning.

The directions of the lines refer to the true meridian.

The above described tract contains an area of 2601 acres, more or less, and is as shown on Canal Zone Government drawing No. M–6117–5, entitled "Map Showing Boundary of United States Naval Reservation, Rodman, C. Z.", scale 1:10,000, dated February 23, 1954, on file in the Office of the Governor of the Canal Zone, Balboa Heights, C. Z.

General. The surveys over the boundary were made in June 1941, February 1943, December 1953 and January and February 1954, and are recorded in Field Books numbered M–126, M–274, M–360 and M–484, and the geodetic positions of all points, referred to the Panama-Colon datum of the Canal Zone triangulation system, are on file in the office of the Surveys Branch, Engineering and Construction Bureau, the Panama Canal Company.

SEC. 2. Conditions and limitations. The reservation established by section 1 of this order shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) The area comprising this reservation shall continue to be subject to the civil jurisdiction of the Government of the Canal Zone in conformity with the provisions of the Canal Zone Code as amended and supplemented.

(b) Personnel and equipment of the Canal Zone Government and of the Panama Canal Company shall be permitted free access to this reservation to carry out necessary operations of such agencies in, or in the vicinity of this reservation, in connection with the public health and sanitation, drainage, surveys, aids to navigation, power transmission and distribution, telephone service, water and sewerage facilities, et cetera; to inspect, maintain, repair, modify, or replace facilities or installations of such agencies within or adjacent to this reservation; and to install any additional services or utilities that are necessary to be installed through or upon, or in the vicinity of this reservation.

(c) No additional permanent structures or facilities shall be constructed or installed within a distance of 100.0 feet northerly from the centerline of the concrete pavement of Thatcher Highway (in its present location) between monument "A" and monument NAD–1.

SEC. 3. The area and the boundaries of West Bank Naval Reservation, Canal Zone, established by Executive Order No. 5849 of March 19, 1932, and enlarged by order of the Secretary of the Army, Canal Zone Order No. 12 of March 9, 1948, are hereby reduced and revised by removing from said reservation all land lying westerly from a line which is parallel to and 75.0 feet easterly from the centerline of the 30-foot wide concrete pavement of Bruja Road (in its present location) and northerly from Thatcher Highway.

SEC. 4. The Department of the Navy shall not be required to remove any existing structure or facility presently located in the area 75.0 feet to either side of the centerline of the 30-foot wide concrete pavement of Bruja Road and which is contiguous to portions of the boundaries of United States Naval Reservation, Rodman, and of West Bank Naval Reservation.

ROBERT T. STEVENS,
Secretary of the Army.

[Docket No. AO-195-A7]

HANDLING OF MILK IN KNOXVILLE, TENN., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Old Chancery Courtroom, Knox County Court House, Knoxville, Tennessee beginning at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., September 29, 1954, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modification thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Knoxville, Tennessee marketing area (7 CFR Part 988). The proposed amendment has not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Knoxville, Tennessee milk marketing area were proposed by the Knoxville Milk Producers Association as follows:

1. Amend § 988.51 (a) to increase the Class I differential 45 cents per hundredweight from the effective date of this amendment through March 1955.

2. Amend provision in § 988.51 (a) so as to make the supply-demand provisions more responsive to current conditions and provide for increases as well as decreases in the Class I price differential.

3. Amend § 988.51 (b) by adding that during the months of September through February the Class II price shall not be less than the basic formula price.

4. Amend § 988.10 as follows:

§ 988.10 Producer. "Producer" means any person who sends Grade A milk to any fully regulated plant.

5. Delete § 988.9 and substitute therefor:

§ 988.9 Pool plant. (a) "Pool plant" means any plant from which a volume of Class I milk equal to not less than 10 percent of the receipts of milk from producers and other pool plants is disposed of to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area, or

(b) Any plant which ships a volume of milk equal to 50 percent of its receipts of milk from producers to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

6. Add a new section as follows:

Approved plant. "Approved plant" means a plant from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area, or shipped to a pool plant.

7. Amend § 988.11 (a) by deleting the words "fluid milk" and substituting the word "approved."

8. Amend § 988.41 (b) to provide for the prorating of allowable shrinkage according to plant utilization.

9. Amend § 988.70 and provide additional sections as necessary to provide that handlers shall make payment to the producers settlement fund with respect to other source milk allocated to Class I or distributed as Class I milk in the marketing area at the rate of the difference between the Class I price and the Class II price.

10. Consider the need for transportation differential with respect to prices under the order.

11. Make conforming changes as necessary throughout the order.

Proposed by the Dairy Division Agricultural Marketing Service:

12. Amend § 988.43 so as to eliminate the mutual certification provisions.

13. Clarify the other source milk definition by specifying that Class II products not utilized in the plant during the month are not included.

14. Make such changes as may be required to make the entire marketing agreement and order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Proposed by the Knoxville Milk Distributors:

15. Amend § 988.51 to provide that the price for all milk received at a fluid milk plant and transferred as milk to a nonfluid milk plant for condensing or cheese utilization shall be the price computed in said section less 20 cents and less a transportation allowance appropriate to the distance between the City Hall in Knoxville and the nonfluid milk plant; and to provide further that the price per hundredweight of all milk used to produce butter and the skim milk of which is dumped or disposed of for livestock feed shall be computed as follows: Multiply by 4.0 the arithmetic average of the daily wholesale price per pound of 90-score butter in the Chicago market as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, add 15 percent thereof and deduct 35 cents.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procurred from the Market Administrator, Flatiron Building, Room 205, Knoxville, Tennessee, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1371, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: September 23, 1954.

1955 SUGAR QUOTAS FOR PUERTO RICO

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED ALLOTMENT

Pursuant to the authority contained in the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922, as amended by 65 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1100), in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure (7 CFR 801.1 et seq.), and on the basis of information before me, I do hereby find that the allotment of (1) the 1955 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for consumption in the continental United States, (2) the direct-consumption portion thereof, and (3) the 1955 sugar quota for local consumption in Puerto Rico is necessary to prevent disorderly marketing and importation of such sugar and to afford all interested persons an equitable opportunity to market such sugar in the continental United States and Puerto Rico, respectively, and hereby give notice that a public hearing will be held at Santurce, Puerto Rico, in the Conference Room, Caribbean Area Office, ASC, Segarra Building on October 19, 1954, at 10:00 a. m. The quotas and portions thereof to be allotted are referred to herein as "mainland quota," "direct-consumption portion" and "local quota," respectively.

The purpose of such hearing is to receive evidence to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to make fair, efficient, and equitable allotments of the above-mentioned quotas among persons (1) who produce and market Puerto Rican sugar to be brought into the continental United States for consumption therein, (2) who produce or refine and market direct-consumption sugar to be brought into the continental United States for consumption therein and (3) who produce and market sugar for local consumption in Puerto Rico. The hearing will relate first to the allotment of the 1955 mainland and local quotas. Immediately upon completion of this part of the hearing, evidence will be received in regard to the allotment of the direct-consumption portion of the 1955 mainland quota.

The findings made above are in the nature of preliminary findings based on the best information now available. It will be appropriate to present evidence at the hearings on the basis of which the Secretary of Agriculture may affirm, modify, or revoke such preliminary findings and make or withhold allotment of any such quota or portion thereof in accordance therewith.

In addition, the subjects and issues of this hearing also include (1) the manner in which the statutory factors of "processings from proportionate shares," "past marketings," and "ability to market," as provided in section 205 (a) of the said act, should be measured; (2) the relative weightings which should be given to these factors; (3) participation in the allotments by producers of sugarcane who receive sugar in settlement therefor; (4) the transfer or exchange of allotments; and (5) the manner in which sugar is to be charged to allotments.

Issued this 22d day of September 1954.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

MINIMUM WAGE RATES IN VARIOUS INDUSTRIES IN PUERTO RICO

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS BEFORE SPECIAL INDUSTRY COMMITTEES NOS. 16-A, 16-B AND 16-C

In conformity with sections 5 and 8 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 1060, as amended, 29 U. S. C., and Sup. 201 et seq.), and in accordance with § 511.11 of the regulations issued pursuant thereto (Title 29 Chapter V, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 511), notice is hereby given to all interested persons that three consecutive public hearings will be held beginning on October 19, 1954 at 10:00 a. m., in Room 412, New York Department Store Building, Stop 16½, Ponce de Leon Avenue, Santurce, Puerto Rico for the purpose of receiving evidence to be considered by Special Industry Committees Nos. 16-A, 16-B and 16-C for Puerto Rico in recommending minimum wage rates for employees in the industries in Puerto Rico hereinafter enumerated.

Special Industry Committees Nos. 16-A, 16-B, and 16-C for Puerto Rico were created by Administrative Order No. 440, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 18, 1954. Each Committee is charged, in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, with the duty of investigating conditions in a specific industry in Puerto Rico as defined in said administrative order and as hereinafter enumerated:

1. Special Industry Committee No. 16-A—Electrical, Instrument, and Related Manufacturing Industries in Puerto Rico.

2. Special Industry Committee No. 16-B—Metal, Machinery, Transportation Equipment and Allied Industries in Puerto Rico.

3. Special Industry Committee No. 16-C—Plastic Products Industry in Puerto Rico.

Each Committee is further charged with the duty of recommending to the Administrator the highest minimum wage rates (not in excess of 75 cents per hour) for all employees in Puerto Rico in the industry assigned to it above who, within the meaning of said act, are "engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce", excepting employees exempted by the provisions of section 13 (a) and employees coming within the provisions of section 14, which, having due regard for economic and competitive conditions, will not substantially curtail employment in such industry and will not give any industry in Puerto Rico a competitive advantage over any industry in the United States outside of Puerto Rico. Before any minimum wage rate recommended by a Committee is made effective, a public hearing thereon will be held pursuant to section 8 of the act, at a time and place to be announced by the Administrator, and at which all interested persons will have an opportunity to be heard.

Any person who, in the opinion of a Committee or its duly authorized subcommittee, has a substantial interest in the proceeding, or represents a person with a substantial interest in the proceeding, and is prepared to present material pertinent to the question under consideration may appear on his own behalf or on behalf of such other person. Persons wishing to appear are requested to file with James G. Johnson, Territorial Director of the Wage and Hour Division, Post Office Box 9061, Santurce 29, Puerto Rico, not later than October 8, 1954, a notice of intention to appear. A copy of such notice must also be filed by such persons with the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington 25, D. C., on or before the same date. The Notice of intention to appear should contain the following information:

1. The name and address of the person appearing.

2. The Industry in which he has a personal or representative interest.

3. If he is appearing in a representative capacity, the name and address of the person or persons whom, or the organization which, he is representing.

4. The approximate length of time which his presentation will consume.

All testimony will be taken under oath and subject to reasonable cross examination by any interested person present. Testimony so received may be offered as evidence at the public hearings to be held on such minimum wage recommendations as Special Industry Committees Nos. 16–A, 16–B and 16–C for Puerto Rico may make.

Written statements of persons who cannot appear personally will be considered by the Committees provided that such statements are sworn and that at least 12 copies thereof are received not later than October 18, 1954 at the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor, Room 412, New York Department Store Building, Stop 16½, Ponce de Leon Avenue, Santurce 29, Puerto Rico. Any person appearing at the hearing who offers written material must submit at least 12 copies thereof.

Signed at San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 20th day of September 1954.

CANDIDO OLIVERAS,
Chairman, Special Industry Committees Nos. 16–A, 16–B, and 16–C, for Puerto Rico.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

DECENTRALIZATION OF POST OFFICE OPERATIONS, EMBRACING STATES OF VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA, MARYLAND, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA AND COUNTIES OF SUSSEX AND KENT, DELAWARE, AND ESTABLISHMENT OF REGIONAL HEADQUARTERS AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

The following is the text of order of the Postmaster General No. 55725, dated September 8, 1954:

Pursuant to the authority of section 1 (b) of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, the following changes will become effective on September 15, 1954:

1. On the effective date there will be established a regional headquarters at Washington, D. C., under a Regional Operations Manager. Geographically this region will embrace the States of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, the District of Columbia, and the counties of Sussex and Kent of the State of Delaware. The Regional Operations Manager will be responsible to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Post Office Operations, for the direction of post office operations in this region. The Regional Operations Manager will also be subject to all policies affecting regional operations prescribed by the Department in Washington. There will also be a Regional Controller in the regional office who, for the time being, will be responsible to the Controller. The Regional Personnel Manager will be administratively responsible to the Regional Operations Manager so far as Bureau of Operations activities are concerned, and functionally to the Assistant Postmaster General, Personnel. Functions, such as those listed below, which were formerly discharged by various headquarters bureaus and offices in Washington, will now be discharged by the regional staff.

A. Personnel functions, including such items as recruitment, selection and placement of personnel; training activities; labor relations, safety and health programs; classification of positions; awards and efficiency rating systems; review and disposition of disciplinary actions; and liaison with the Civil Service Commisson in the region.

B. Service functions, including recommendations to the Department for the establishment or discontinuance of post offices, classified stations and branches; approval of requests for allowances of funds; maintenance of high standards of service in all post offices; and effective control of costs.

C. Industrial engineering functions, including administration of cost reduction programs; improvement in work methods; endorsement of requests for capital expenditures; maintenance of work standards; layout of facilities; provision of work simplification methods and training; and development of systems and procedures, other than accounting and fiscal procedures.

D. Controller functions including the direction of accounting, budget and cost analysis activities.

E. Public information functions, including encouragement of public cooperation and participation in improving postal methods; and maintaining good relations with federal, state, and municipal officials.

2. Bureaus and offices other than the following are unaffected by this order:

A. Bureau of Operations.

B. Bureau of Personnel.

C. Bureau of Controller.

All other bureaus and offices, however, are expected to coordinate and cooperate with this new regional organization. Decentralization of other departmental functions and the placing of activities already decentralized into the regional organization will be carried forward as soon as possible. Orders effectuating these changes will be issued from time to time.

3. The region will be divided into six districts. All postmasters in each district will report directly to their district manager.

4. Previous orders or instructions concerning the routing of communications from postmasters to the above-mentioned bureaus in Washington are hereby superseded. All communications, with respect to the functions set forth in this order will be directed to the appropriate district manager, with the exceptions of monthly and quarterly accounts, which will continue to be routed as at present.

5. District headquarters cities, and the jurisdiction of each district, are as follows:

DISTRICT NO. 1—WASHINGTON, D. C.

Maryland counties: Charles, Montgomery, Prince Georges, Saint Marys.

Virginia counties: Albermarle, Alleghany, Arlington, Augusta, Bath, Clark, Culpeper, Fairfax, Fauquier, Frederick, Greene, Highland, Loudoun, Madison, Orange, Page, Prince William, Rappahannock, Rockingham, Rockbridge, Shenandoah, Stafford, Warren.

Office of the Secretary

MAINE

DESIGNATION OF AREAS FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS AND ECONOMIC EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. a–2 (a)), it is found that in the entire State of Maine a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

Pursuant to the delegation of authority from the Administrator, Federal Civil Defense Administration (18 F. R. 4609; 19 F. R. 2148) as further amended on July 30, 1954, and for the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, as amended by Public Law 115, 83d Congress, and section 301 of Public Law 480, 83d Congress, it is determined that the entire State of Maine is within the area affected by the major disasters, occasioned by two recent hurricanes, determined by the President on September 13, 1954, pursuant to Public Law 875, 81st Congress. It is also determined that an economic disaster exists in the entire State of Maine that has caused a need for agricultural credit that cannot be met for a temporary period from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, the Farmers Home Administration under its regular loan programs, or other responsible sources.

After December 31, 1955, loans under section 2 (a) or 2 (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, as amended, will not be made in the State of Maine except to borrowers who previously received such assistance.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of September 1954.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Office of the Secretary

[Dept. Order 134 (Amended)]

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF COMMERCE FOR ADMINISTRATION

AUTHORITY, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The material appearing at 18 F. R. 3735 and 19 F. R. 4205 is hereby revoked and the following substituted therefor:

SECTION 1. Purpose. The purpose of this order is to define the authorities, responsibilities, and duties of the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration.

SEC. 2. Administrative designation. Pursuant to authority vested in the Secretary of Commerce, the position of Assistant Secretary of Commerce, established by section 304 of Public Law 471, 83d Congress, 2d Session, approved July 2, 1954, is hereby designated as the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration.

SEC. 3. Delegation of authority. .01 Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Commerce by Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1950, the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration is hereby delegated all authority vested by law in the Secretary of Commerce to take final action on all matters of administration and management within the Department of Commerce except such authority as must by law be exercised by the Secretary in his own right.

.02 The Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration may, at his discretion, delegate any authority conferred upon him by this order, provided redelegation is permitted by law, to any officer of the Department of Commerce, and may further provide for redelegation by such officer, if permitted by law.

SEC. 4. Organization of Office of Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration. The Office of the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration shall consist of the Office of Budget and Management, the Office of Administrative Operations, the Office of Personnel Management, the Office of Publications, and the Security Control Office. The Appeals Board for the Department of Commerce shall, for administrative purposes, be deemed to be a part of the Office of Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration.

SEC. 5. Duties and responsibilities of the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration. .01 The Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration is the principal deputy and adviser to the Secretary of Commerce on all matters of administration and management and is the chief administrative and management officer of the Department.

.02 The Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration shall:

1. Prescribe the Department's policies, regulations, and programs with respect to all administrative and management activities and shall direct their execution;

2. Perform all other functions and exercise all other powers, authorities, and discretions vested in the Secretary with respect to administrative and management matters as delegated to the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration by this or any other order;

3. Provide for the direction and supervision of all staff service offices in the Office of the Secretary except the Office of the General Counsel and the Office of Public Information, and except that with respect to the Security Control Office the Security Control Officer shall report to the Secretary through the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration;

4. In collaboration with other secretarial officers and officers of the primary organization units of the Department, define the basic objectives, programs, functions, relationships, and plans of organization of the Department;

5. Develop and carry out defense mobilization programs for government continuity and civil defense, including the execution of agreements and letters of understanding required to carry out such programs; and

6. Carry out such other duties and responsibilities as the Secretary of Commerce may assign.

.03 More specifically, but not by way of limitation, the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration shall:

1. Prescribe the policies and programs and provide departmental leadership for the following major administrative activities of the Department:

(1) Fiscal management.

(2) Budget planning and administration.

(3) Management research and planning.

(4) Organization planning.

(5) Personnel administration.

(6) Administrative operations and services.

a. Property and supply operations.

b. Records administration.

(7) Publications programs.

(8) Security programs.

2. Be responsible for and direct the evaluation of all the Department's programs and activities in terms of efficiency of management and economy of operations with a view to improving management and effecting economies in operations;

3. Be responsible for and direct all activities of the Department relating to interdepartmental coordination of administrative and management matters;

4. Serve as the representative of and upon designation as the alternate to the Secretary of Commerce on all committees, boards, commissions, services, and organizations constituted with authority or responsibilities in the field of administration and management; and

5. Develop and provide for the execution of (1) plans to insure continuity of essential functions of the Department in event of attack upon the United States, and (2) civil defense plans and programs covering facilities and self-protection, and civil defense assistance.

SEC. 6. Effect on other orders. This order supersedes Department Order No. 134 (Amended) of May 29, 1953, and Amendment 1 thereto of May 27, 1954, and amends Department Order No. 83 (Amended) of August 6, 1951. Any other orders or parts of orders the provisions of which are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this order are hereby amended or superseded accordingly.

Effective date: August 18, 1954.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-1171, G-1603, G-1615, G-2516]

BROOKLYN UNION GAS CO.

FINDINGS AND ORDER DECLARING EXEMPTION AND RESCINDING IN PART ORDERS GRANTING REHEARING AND APPROVING ORAL ARGUMENT

The Brooklyn Union Gas Company (Applicant) filed application on August 2, 1954, for exemption from the provisions of the Natural Gas Act pursuant to section 1 (c) thereof.

Upon the basis of the application filed, the exhibits appended thereto, and the files of the Commission, it appears that:

(1) Applicant is a New York corporation engaged in the transportation and distribution of natural gas in the State of New York;

(2) Applicant purchases out-of-state natural gas from Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation and all of such natural gas is received by Applicant within the State of New York;

(3) All the gas so received by Applicant is ultimately consumed within the State of New York and all of Applicant's facilities are located within the State of New York;

(4) The Public Service Commission of the State of New York has filed with the Federal Power Commission a certification that it has and is exercising regulatory jurisdiction over the rates, service, and facilities of Applicant;

(5) The Commission has heretofore, by orders issued on October 31, 1949, April 4, 1951, and September 28, 1951, respectively, issued Applicant certificates of public convenience and necessity in Docket Nos. G-1171, G-1603, and G-1615; and by orders issued December 13, 1949, June 1, 1951, and November 28, 1951, has granted rehearing and oral argument, inter alia, with respect to the certificate orders issued in such proceedings. No date for such argument has been fixed.

The Commission finds:

(1) Brooklyn Union Gas Company is exempt from the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the orders, rules, and regulations of this Commission issued pursuant thereto.

(2) In view of the fact that Brooklyn Union Gas Company is exempt from the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, good cause exists to rescind the orders issued December 13, 1949, June 1, 1951, and November 28, 1951, insofar as such orders apply to Brooklyn Union Gas Company.

The Commission, therefore, orders: The orders issued December 13, 1949, June 1, 1951, and November 28, 1951, insofar as they granted rehearing and provided for oral argument with respect to the issues in Docket Nos. G-1171, G-1603, and G-1615, be and the same hereby are rescinded.

Adopted: September 17, 1954.

Issued: September 21, 1954.

[Docket Nos. G-1167, G-1604, G-2507]

CONSOLIDATED EDISON CO. OF NEW YORK, INC.

FINDINGS AND ORDER DECLARING EXEMPTION AND RESCINDING IN PART ORDERS GRANTING REHEARING AND APPROVING ORAL ARGUMENT

Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (Applicant), filed an application on July 28, 1954, for exemption from the provisions of the Natural Gas Act pursuant to section 1 (c) thereof, and for an order dismissing and concluding the proceedings in Docket Nos. G-1167 and G-1604.

Upon the basis of the application filed, the exhibits appended thereto, and the files of the Commission, it appears that:

(1) Applicant is a New York corporation engaged in the transportation of natural gas and the distribution of mixed gas of which natural gas forms a component in the State of New York;

(2) Applicant purchases out-of-state natural gas from Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation, taking delivery of such gas within the State of New York;

(3) All of the natural gas so received by Applicant is ultimately distributed and consumed within the State of New York as mixed gas and all of Applicant's facilities are located within the State of New York;

(4) The Public Service Commission of the State of New York has certified to the Federal Power Commission that it has and is exercising regulatory jurisdiction over the rates, service, and facilities of Applicant; and

(5) The Commission has heretofore, by order issued October 31, 1949 and April 4, 1951, respectively, issued Applicant certificates of public convenience and necessity in Docket Nos. G-1167 and G-1604; and by orders issued December 13, 1949 and June 1, 1951, inter alia, has granted Applicant rehearing and oral argument with respect to the certificate orders issued in such proceedings. No date for such argument has been fixed.

The Commission finds:

(1) Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc., is exempt from the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and the orders, rules, and regulations of this Commission issued pursuant thereto.

(2) In view of the fact that Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc., is now exempt from the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, good cause exists to rescind the orders issued December 13, 1949, and June 1, 1951, insofar as such orders apply to Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc.

The Commission, therefore, orders: The orders issued December 13, 1949, and June 1, 1951, insofar as they granted rehearing and provided for oral argument with respect to the issues in Docket Nos. G-1167 and G-1604, be and the same hereby are rescinded.

Adopted: September 17, 1954.

Issued: September 21, 1954.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-1660]

RELIANCE MANUFACTURING CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

SEPTEMBER 21, 1954.

Reliance Manufacturing Company, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to withdraw its Common Stock, $5 Par Value, from listing and registration on the Midwest Stock Exchange.

The reasons alleged in the application for withdrawing this security from listing and registration are as follows:

(1) The stock is inactive on the Midwest Stock Exchange, where none has been reported to have traded since 1950.

(2) The stock will continue to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

(3) Withdrawal from the Midwest Stock Exchange will eliminate an amount of expense.

(4) In view of the inactivity of this stock on its floor, the Midwest Stock Exchange has waived the requirements of its rule calling for a vote of stockholders upon a proposed delisting.

Upon receipt of a request, prior to October 8, 1954, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms or conditions. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application, and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

By the Commission.

ORDER APPROVING AND RELEASING JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN FEES AND EXPENSES

SEPTEMBER 21, 1954.

The above-entitled proceedings involve plans filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") to enable the system of the Northern New England Company, a registered holding company, to effectuate compliance with section 11 (b) of the act. Orders have been entered by the Commission reserving jurisdiction with respect to the fees and expenses paid or to be paid by the companies concerned with these plans for services rendered in connection therewith and related proceedings.

Applications for allowances or approval of amounts already paid to various participants were filed with the Commission. On July 29, 1954, we issued an order releasing jurisdiction with respect to fees and expenses of applicants therein named and an order for hearing concerning other requests for allowances. The Commission having considered the record with respect to applications as filed by certain claimants, and as amended in certain instances; it appearing that New England Public Service Company has agreed, upon receipt of an order of the Commission, to make the payments hereinafter specified; and the Commission being of the opinion that the allowances hereinafter itemized in Table I are reasonable and are for necessary services, and that an order should be entered approving and directing the payment thereof:

It is ordered, That the applications for allowances for services and reimbursement of expenses, in the following amounts and to the persons named, be, and hereby are, approved, and New England Public Service Company is directed to pay such amounts to the extent any portion thereof has not heretofore been paid:

[D. P. A. Request 24—DPAV-31]

MIL-FIN, INC., ET AL.

WITHDRAWAL OF REQUEST TO OPERATE AS A SMALL BUSINESS ENTERPRISE PRODUCTION POOL AND REQUEST TO CERTAIN COMPANIES TO PARTICIPATE IN THE OPERATIONS OF SUCH POOL

Pursuant to section 708 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, the request to Mil-Fin, Inc., published in 17 F. R. 3617, on April 23, 1952, to operate as a small business enterprise production pool and the requests to the companies therein listed to participate in the operations of such pool, are hereby withdrawn.

The immunity from prosecution under the Federal antitrust laws and the Federal Trade Commission Act heretofore granted to Mil-Fin, Inc. and to the participating companies is likewise withdrawn, except as to those acts performed or omitted by reason of the request which occurred prior to this withdrawal.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[No. 31620]

MONTANA INTRASTATE FREIGHT RATES AND CHARGES

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION AND HEARING

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of September A. D. 1954.

It appearing, that in Ex Parte No. 175, Increased Freight Rates and Charges, 1951, 284 I. C. C. 589, the Commission authorized carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce Act parties thereto to make certain increases in their freight rates and charges for interstate application throughout the United States, and that increases under such authorization has been made;

It further appearing, that a petition dated August 6, 1954, has been filed by the Northern Pacific Railway Company and other common carriers by railroad, named in the petition, operating to, from, and between points in the State of Montana. Petitioners aver that, as a result of actions by the District Court of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Montana in and for the County of Cascade and the Supreme Court of the State of Montana, they have been denied increases in their intrastate freight rates and charges corresponding to those authorized by this Commission and made by petitioners for application on interstate and foreign traffic in the proceeding cited above, and that such refusal, being alleged in the manner and to the extent as more fully set forth in said petition, results in undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, and prejudice, as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate commerce, on the other hand, and in undue, unreasonable and unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce, in violation of section 13 of the Interstate Commerce Act.

And it further appearing, that there have been brought in issue by the said petition rates and charges made or imposed by the authority of the State of Montana;

It is ordered, That in response to the said petition, an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, and that a hearing be held therein for the purpose of receiving evidence from the respondents hereinafter designated and any other persons interested, to determine whether the rates and charges of the common carriers by railroad, or any of them, operating in the State of Montana, for the intrastate transportation of property, made or imposed by authority of the State of Montana, cause or will cause, by reason of the failure of such rates and charges to include increases corresponding to those permitted by this Commission for interstate traffic in the proceeding cited above, any undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice, as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate or foreign commerce, on the other hand, and any undue, unreasonable or unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce; and to determine what rates and charges, if any, or what maximum or minimum, or maximum and minimum rates and charges shall be prescribed to remove the unlawful advantage, preference, prejudice, or discrimination, if any, that may be found to exist;

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad operating within the State of Montana, which are subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of the said respondents, and that the State of Montana be notified of the proceeding by sending copies of this order and of said petition by registered mail to the Governor of the said State and to the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana at Helena, Mont.;

It is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., for public inspection, and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.;

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby assigned for hearing October 25, 1954, at 9:30 o'clock, a. m., U. S. Standard Time, at the rooms of the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana, Helena, Mont., before Examiner Burton Fuller.

By the Commission, Division 1.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 39]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF CIVIL AIRWAYS

ALTERATIONS

The civil airway alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Subcommittee, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety to the flying public. Compliance with the notice procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to public interest and therefore is not required. Part 600 is amended as follows:

1. Section 600.223 Red civil airway No. 23 (United States-Canadian Border to New York, N. Y.) is amended by changing last portion beginning at Elmira, N. Y., to read: "Elmira, N. Y., radio range station; New York (LaGuardia), N. Y., radio range station to the intersection of the east course of the New York (LaGuardia), N. Y., radio range and the northeast course of the Mitchel AFB, N. Y., radio range."

2. Section 600.263 is amended to read:

§ 600.263 Red civil airway No. 63 (Battle Creek, Mich., to the United States-Canadian Border). From the intersection of the southwest course of the Grand Rapids, Mich., radio range and the west course of the Battle Creek, Mich., radio range via the Battle Creek, Mich., radio range station to the Jackson, Mich., nondirectional radio beacon. That airspace over United States territory from the intersection of the northwest course of the Detroit, Mich., radio range and the west course of the Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, radio range to the Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, radio range station.

3. Section 600.663 is amended to read:

§ 600.663 Blue civil airway No. 63 (Concord, N. H., to Berlin, N. H.). From the Concord, N. H., radio range station via the Laconia, N. H., nondirectional radio beacon; North Conway, N. H., nondirectional radio beacon to the Berlin, N. H., nondirectional radio beacon.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, AND REPORTING POINTS

ALTERATIONS

The control area, control zone and reporting point alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, in order to promote safety of the flying public. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to public interest and therefore is not required. Part 601 is amended as follows:

1. Section 601.663 is amended to read:

§ 601.663 Blue civil airway No. 63 control areas (Concord, N. H., to Berlin, N. H.). All of Blue civil airway No. 63.

2. Section 601.1258 is amended to read:

§ 601.1258 Control area extension (Lafayette, Ind.). That airspace within 5 miles either side of a line bearing 247° True extending from Purdue University Airport, West Lafayette, Ind., to Blue civil airway No. 34.

3. Section 601.1341 Control area extension (Danville, Ill.) is revoked.

4. Section 601.1341 is added to read:

§ 601.1341 Control area extension (Dover, Del.). That airspace southeast of Dover bounded on the north by Red civil airway No. 77, on the east by Blue civil airway No. 49, on the southeast by VOR civil airway No. 1 and on the west by VOR civil airway No. 29 excluding the portion which overlaps Danger Area D–12 and Caution Area C–53; that airspace southwest of Dover within a 25 mile radius of the Dover omnirange station bounded on the northwest by VOR civil airway No. 16 and on the southeast by Red civil airway No. 77.

5. Section 601.1355 is added to read:

§ 601.1355 Control area extension (Berlin, N. H.). Within 5 miles either side of a line bearing 334° True extending from the Berlin Airport to a point 10 miles northwest.

6. Section 601.2031 is amended to read:

§ 601.2031 Houston, Tex., control zone. Within a 10 mile radius of Houston Municipal Airport, within a 5 mile radius of Ellington Air Force Base, and within 2 miles either side of a direct line extending from the Houston Municipal Airport to the Monument nondirectional radio beacon.

7. Section 601.2227 is amended to read:

§ 601.2227 Dover, Del., control zone. Within a 6 mile radius of the Dover Air Force Base and within 2 miles either side of the southeast course of the Dover AFB radio range extending from the radio range station to a point 10 miles southeast, excluding the portion which overlaps Danger Area D–12.

8. Section 601.4012 Green civil airway No. 2 (Seattle, Wash., to Boston, Mass.) is amended by deleting the following reporting point: "the intersection of the north course of the Salem, Mich., VHF radio range and the east course of the Lansing, Mich., radio range;"

9. Section 601.4281 is amended to read:

§ 601.4281 Red civil airway No. 81 (Lansing, Mich., to Detroit, Mich.). No reporting point designation.

10. Section 601.4663 is amended to read:

§ 601.4663 Blue civil airway No. 63 (Concord, N. H., to Berlin, N. H.). No reporting point designation.

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

Where the general classification (LFR, VAR, ADF, ILS, OCA, or VOR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The low frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.6 are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, and courses are magnetic. Distances are in statute miles unless otherwise indicated. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation.

If an LFR instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure authorized by the Administrator for Civil Aeronautics for such airport. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

Procedure turn (—) side of final approach course (outbound and inbound); altitudes; limiting distances	Minimum altitude over facility on final approach course (ft.) 	(a) All single items of Schedule B commodities valued at less than $25,
	(b) All totals of Schedule B commodities, single items of which are valued at less than $25, including shipments to postmasters or other agents for distribution at destination.

Export controls applicable to each commodity under these classifications are those which apply to the commodity when exported commercially under its individual Schedule B number.

Export controls applicable to each commodity under these classifications are those which apply to the commodity when exported under its individual Schedule B number.

This amendment shall become effective as of August 26, 1954, except that with respect to commodities to which the letters "B", "C", "E", or "F" have been added in the column headed "Commodity Lists", it shall become effective as to such requirements as of September 28, 1954, and except with respect to commodities to which the letter "A" has been added in the column headed "Commodity Lists", it shall become effective as to such requirements as of October 11, 1954.

Shipments of any commodities removed from general license to Country Group R or Country Group O destinations or whose GLV dollar value limit has been reduced by this amendment, which were on dock, on lighter, laden aboard an exporting carrier, or in transit to a port of exit pursuant to actual orders for export prior to 12:01 a. m., September 7, 1954, may be exported under the previous general license provisions up to and including September 28, 1954. Any such shipment not laden aboard the exporting carrier on or before September 28, 1954, requires a validated license for export.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter XI—Agricultural Conservation Program Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 1105—AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION; HAWAII

SUBPART—1955

The United States Department of Agriculture offers every farmer in the Territory of Hawaii an opportunity to conserve and improve the productivity of his land through participation in the 1955 Agricultural Conservation Program.

Under this program part of the costs of the conservation practices is borne by the Government and this represents the Nation's interest in what happens to its basic land and water resources.

Costs will be shared on performance of recommended practices at approved rates to the extent of available funds. Developed under the provisions of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, the program is designed to meet local conservation needs.

Approved practices will be deemed to have been carried out during the program year if started after the beginning of the program year and the State Office determines that they are substantially completed by the end of the program year. However, no practice will be eligible for Federal cost-sharing until it has been completed in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions.

The information contained in this subpart outlines the general provisions of the 1955 Agricultural Conservation Program for Hawaii and the general specifications and rates of Federal cost-sharing for practices.

CONSERVATION PRACTICES AND MAXIMUM RATES OF COST-SHARING

Sec.
1105.433 Practice 1: Constructing continuous terraces and/or diversion ditches to control the flow of runoff water and check soil erosion on sloping farmland.
1105.434 Practice 2: Constructing interception ditches and/or outlet channels for disposing of, diverting, or collecting water to control erosion or for impounding livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grazing land management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover, and for irrigation.
1105.435 Practice 3: Establishing a protective sod lining in waterways to dispose of excess water without causing erosion.
1105.436 Practice 4: Building erosion control dams or stone or vegetative barriers to prevent or heal the gullying of farmland and reduce runoff of water.
1105.437 Practice 5: Constructing permanent riprap or revetment of stone to control erosion of streambanks, gullies, dam faces, or watercourses.
1105.438 Practice 6: Initial planting of orchards on the contour to help prevent erosion.
1105.439 Practice 7: Initial establishment in the cropping system of leguminous crops for use as stubble mulch, cover, or green manure for protection of soil from erosion.
1105.440 Practice 8: Initial establishment in the cropping system of adapted nonlegumes for stubble mulch, cover filter strip, or green manure for protection of soil from erosion.
1105.441 Practice 9: Initial establishment of permanent pasture or initial improvement of an established permanent grass or grass-legume cover for soil or watershed protection by seeding, sodding, or sprigging adapted perennial grasses and/or legumes.
1105.442 Practice 10: Initial treatment of cropland or pasture for correction of soil acidity and addition of needed calcium to permit best use of legumes and/or grasses for soil improvement and protection.
1105.443 Practice 11: Controlling competitive shrubs to permit growth of adequate vegetative cover for soil protection on range or pasture lands by poisoning.
1105.444 Practice 12: Initial application of organic mulch material to any cropland or eroded pasture areas for soil protection and moisture conservation.
1105.445 Practice 13: Installation of pipelines for livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover.
1105.446 Practice 14: Construction of permanent artificial watersheds and/or storage tanks for accumulating water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover.
1105.447 Practice 15: Construction of permanent fences to obtain better distribution and control of livestock grazing on range or pasture land and to promote proper management for protection of established forage resources, or to protect farm woodland from grazing.
1105.448 Practice 16: Construction of dams, pits, or ponds for livestock water, including the enlargement of inadequate structures.
1105.449 Practice 17: Constructing or enlarging dams, pits, and ponds to impound surface water for irrigation.
1105.450 Practice 18: Reorganizing farm irrigation systems to conserve water and prevent erosion.
1105.451 Practice 19: Construction or enlargement of permanent open drainage systems to dispose of excess water on farmlands under cultivation or on pasturelands.
1105.452 Practice 20: Planting, interplanting, or replanting forest trees or shrubs on farmland in windbreaks and farm woodlots or woodlands for erosion control, watershed protection, or forestry purposes.
1105.453 Practice 21: Installation of facilities for sprinkler irrigation of permanent pasture on sloping land for developing forage resources to encourage rotation grazing and better range management for protection of all grazing land in the farm against overgrazing and erosion.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1105.400 to 1105.453 issued under sec. 4, 49 Stat. 164; 16 U. S. C. 590d. Interpret or apply secs. 7-17, 49 Stat. 1148, as amended, 68 Stat. 304, 904; 16 U. S. C. 590g-590q.

GENERAL PROGRAM PRINCIPLES

§ 1105.400 General program principles. The 1955 Agricultural Conservation Program for Hawaii has been developed and is to be carried out on the basis of the following general principles:

(a) The program is confined to the conservation practices on which Federal cost-sharing is most needed in order to achieve the maximum conservation benefit in the Territory.

(b) The program is designed to encourage those conservation practices which provide the most enduring conservation benefits practicably attainable in 1955 on the lands where they are to be applied.

(c) Costs will be shared with a farmer or rancher only on satisfactorily performed conservation practices for which Federal cost-sharing was requested by the farmer or rancher before the conservation work was begun.

(d) Costs should be shared only on practices which it is believed farmers and ranchers would not carry out to the needed extent without program assistance. Generally, practices that have become a part of regular farming operations in a particular county should not be eligible for cost-sharing. Individual farmers or ranchers should be encouraged to utilize cost-sharing for only those practices which have not become a part of regular farming operations on their farms or ranches.

(e) The rates of cost-sharing in the program are the minimum considered necessary to result in substantially increased performance of needed practices within the limits prescribed.

(f) The purpose of the program is to help achieve additional conservation on the land rather than to bring more land into agricultural production. Such of the available funds that cannot be wisely utilized for this purpose will be returned to the public treasury.

(g) If the Federal Government shares the cost of the initial application of conservation practices which farmers and ranchers otherwise would not perform but which are essential to the national interest, the farmers and ranchers should assume responsibility for the upkeep and maintenance of those practices.

DEFINITIONS

§ 1105.401 Definitions. For the purposes of the 1955 program:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture or the officer or employee of the Department to whom authority has been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to act in his stead.

(b) "Administrator, ACPS," means the Administrator of the Agricultural Conservation Program Service.

(c) "State" means the Territory of Hawaii.

(d) "State Office" means the Hawaii Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office in Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii.

(e) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise, or other legal entity (and, wherever applicable, the Territory of Hawaii or a political subdivision or agency thereof) that, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, participates in the operation of a farm or ranch.

(f) "Farm" or "ranch" means all adjacent or nearby farm or range land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also (1) any other adjacent or nearby farm or range land which the State Office, in accordance with instructions issued by the Administrator, ACPS, determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit in producing range livestock or with respect to the rotation of crops, and with workstock, machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other land; and (2) any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm or ranch, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops. Notwithstanding any limitation in this paragraph concerning the type or use of land, a farm may include or may consist entirely of woodland which is being operated for the production and sale of forest products. A farm or ranch shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated or, if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm or ranch is located.

(g) "Cropland" means farmland which in 1954 was tilled or was in regular crop rotation, excluding (1) bearing orchards and vineyards (except the acreage of cropland therein), (2) plowable noncrop open pasture, and (3) any land which constitutes, or will constitute if tillage is continued, a wind-erosion hazard to the community.

(h) "Orchardland" means the acreage in planted fruit trees, nut trees, coffee trees, papaya trees, banana plants, or vineyards.

(i) "Pastureland" means farmland, other than rangeland, on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and on which the spacing of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

(j) "Rangeland" means land which produces, or can produce, forage suitable for grazing by range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation and is not suitable for any other agricultural use.

(k) "Merchantable timber" means any processed or unprocessed timber which is sold for cash by the producer.

(l) "Forest Service" means Division of Forestry, Territorial Board of Agriculture and Forestry.

ALLOCATION OF FUNDS

§ 1105.402 Allocation of funds. The amount of funds available for conservation practices under this program is $183,000. This amount does not include the amount set aside for administrative expenses and the amount required for size-of-cost-share adjustments in § 1105.416.

APPROVAL OF CONSERVATION PRACTICES

§ 1105.403 Method and extent of approval. The State Office will determine the extent to which program funds will be made available to share the cost of each approved practice on each farm or ranch, taking into consideration the available funds, the conservation problems of the individual farm or ranch and other farms and ranches, and the conservation work for which requested Federal cost-sharing is considered as most needed in 1955. The notice of approval shall show for each approved practice the number of units of the practice for which the Federal Government will share in the cost and the amount of the Federal cost-share for the performance of that number of units of the practice.

§ 1105.404 Selection of practices. (a) The practices included in the program are only those practices for which cost-sharing is essential to permit accomplishment of needed conservation work which would not otherwise be carried out in the desired volume.

(b) Each farm or ranch operator shall be given an opportunity to request that the Federal Government share in the cost of those practices on which he considers he needs such assistance in order to permit their performance in adequate volume on his farm or ranch. The State Office, taking into consideration the farmer's or rancher's request and any conservation plan developed by the farmer or rancher with the assistance of any State or Federal agency, shall direct the available funds for cost-sharing to those farms and ranches and to those practices where cost-sharing is considered most essential to the accomplishment of the basic conservation objective of the Department—the use of each acre of agricultural land within its capabilities and the treatment of each acre in accordance with its needs for protection and improvement.

§ 1105.405 Pooling agreements. Farmers or ranchers in any local area may agree in writing, with approval of the State Office, to perform designated amounts of practices which the State Office determines are necessary to conserve or improve the agricultural resources of the community. For purposes of cost-sharing, practices carried out under such an approved written agreement will be regarded as having been carried out on the farms or ranches of the persons who performed the practices.

§ 1105.406 Prior request for cost-sharing. Costs will be shared only for those practices, or components of practices, for which cost-sharing is requested by the farm or ranch operator before performance thereof is started. For practices for which (a) approval was given under the 1954 Agricultural Conservation Program, (b) performance was started but not completed during the 1954 program year, and (c) the State Office believes the extension of the approval to the 1955 program is justified under the 1955 program regulations and provisions, the filing of the request for cost-sharing under the 1954 program may be regarded as meeting the requirement of the 1955 program that a request for cost-sharing be filed before performance of the practice is started.

§ 1105.407 Program year and technical aid. (a) Costs will be shared at the rates specified and within the limitations set forth in this subpart for carrying out during the period from January 1, 1955, to December 31, 1955, inclusive, the conservation practices included in this subpart which are approved for a farm or ranch, except that farmers or ranchers who, before December 31, 1954, (1) complete all practices for which they will make claim for cost-shares under the 1954 program, or (2) have carried out practices to the maximum extent of their allowance under the 1954 program, may enroll and perform practices under the 1955 program any time after September 30, 1954. No costs will be shared under the 1955 program for any part of a practice carried out for cost-sharing under the 1954 program.

(b) The Soil Conservation Service is responsible for the technical phases of the practices contained in §§ 1105.433, 1105.434, 1105.436, 1105.437, 1105.446, 1105.448 to 1105.451, and 1105.453. This responsibility shall include (1) a finding that the practice is needed and practicable on the farm, (2) necessary site selection, other preliminary work, and layout work of the practice, (3) necessary supervision of the installation, and (4) certification of performance. For the practice contained in § 1105.435, the Soil Conservation Service is responsible (1) for determining that the practice is needed and practicable on the farm, and (2) for necessary site selection, other preliminary work, and layout work of the practice. For the practices contained in §§ 1105.438 and 1105.445, the Soil Conservation Service is responsible for determining that the practice is needed and practicable on the farm. In addition, upon agreement of the State Office and the State Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, responsibility for all or part of the unassigned technical phases of these or other practices may be assigned to the Soil Conservation Service. The State Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service may utilize assistance from private, State, or Federal agencies in carrying out these assigned responsibilities.

(c) The Forest Service (Forestry Division, Territorial Board of Agriculture and Forestry) is responsible for the technical phases of the practice contained in § 1105.452. This responsibility shall include (1) providing necessary specialized technical assistance, (2) development of specifications for forestry practices, and (3) working through the State office, determining compliance in meeting these specifications.

§ 1105.408 Practice specifications and approval. (a) Minimum specifications which practices must meet to be eligible for Federal cost-sharing are set forth in this subpart. Additional specifications may be secured from the State Office or the Soil Conservation Service Territorial Office in Honolulu.

(b) For those practices in this subpart which authorize Federal cost-sharing for minimum required applications of liming materials and commercial fertilizers, the minimum required application on which cost-sharing is authorized shall in each case be determined on the basis of current soil tests: Provided, however, That if the State Office determines that available facilities are inadequate to provide the necessary tests, the minimum required applications of these materials shall be those recommended for the area by the Agricultural Extension Service. Liming materials contained in commercial fertilizers, phosphate rock, or basic slag will not qualify for Federal cost-sharing.

(c) Costs for the practices contained in §§ 1105.435 and 1105.439 to 1105.441 may be shared even though a good stand is not established, if the State Office determines, in accordance with approved standards, that the practices were carried out in a manner which would normally result in the establishment of a good stand, and that failure to establish a good stand was due to weather or other conditions beyond the control of the farm or ranch operator. The State Office may require as a condition of cost-sharing in such cases that the area be reseeded, or that other needed protective measures be carried out.

§ 1105.409 Completion of practices. Federal cost-sharing for the practices contained in this subpart is conditioned upon the performance of the practices in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions. Except as provided in §§ 1105.410 and 1105.411, practices must be completed during the program year in order to be eligible for cost-sharing.

§ 1105.410 Practices substantially completed during program year. Approved practices may be deemed, for purposes of payment of cost-shares, to have been carried out during the 1955 program year, if the State Office determines that they are substantially completed by the end of the program year. However, no cost-shares for such practices shall be paid until they have been completed in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions.

§ 1105.411 Practices requiring more than one program year for completion. (a) Cost sharing may be approved under the 1955 program for a component of a practice completed during the program year in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions, provided:

(1) The farmer or rancher agrees in writing to complete all remaining components of the practice in accordance with all applicable specifications and program provisions within the time prescribed by the State Office, if cost-sharing is offered to him therefor under a subsequent program; and

(2) The State Office determines that under the circumstances prevailing on the farm in 1955, completion of that component is a reasonable attainment in 1955 toward the ultimate completion of all components of the practice.

(b) Any advance cost-share so paid shall be refunded if the remaining components of the practice are not completed in accordance with all specifications and program provisions within the time prescribed by the State Office, provided the farmer or rancher is offered cost-sharing under a subsequent program for completing such components. The extension of the period for completion of the remaining components of the practice will not constitute a commitment to approve cost-sharing therefor under a subsequent program. Approval of cost-sharing for other practices under subsequent programs may be denied until the remaining components are completed.

§ 1105.412 Initial establishment, improvement, or installation of practices. (a) Federal cost-sharing may not be authorized under the 1955 program for the performance of the practices contained in §§ 1105.435, 1105.438 to 1105.444, or 1105.452 on land on which cost-sharing for the performance of the same practice, or a practice to accomplish the same conservation purpose, was allowed under the 1954 program, except as provided in §§ 1105.408 (c) and 1105.414. Federal cost-sharing may not be authorized under the 1955 program for the performance of any improvement measure under the practice contained in § 1105.452 on land on which cost-sharing for performance of the same improvement measure was allowed under the 1954 program.

(b) Federal cost-sharing may not be authorized under the 1955 program for any mechanical or construction type practice to be installed at a particular location or to serve a particular area if cost-sharing for the performance of the same practice, or a practice to serve the same conservation purpose, at that location or serving that area was allowed under any previous program, except as provided in § 1105.414.

(c) It is contemplated that this policy will be continued for subsequent programs.

§ 1105.413 Repair, upkeep, and maintenance of practices. Federal cost-sharing is not authorized for repairs or for upkeep or maintenance of any practice.

§ 1105.414 Replacement, enlargement, or restoration of practices. Federal cost-sharing may be approved for replacement, enlargement, or restoration of practices for which cost-sharing was allowed under a previous program but which are not now adequately meeting the conservation problem, if all of the following conditions exist:

(a) Replacement, enlargement, or restoration of the practice is needed to meet the conservation problem.

(b) The failure of the original practice was not due to the lack of proper maintenance by the current operator.

(c) The practice has not served for the length of time for which it normally could be expected to effectively meet the conservation problem. This does not apply to the practices listed in § 1105.412 (a) for which cost-sharing was allowed prior to the 1954 program.

(d) The State Office believes that the replacement, enlargement, or restoration of the practice merits consideration under the program to an equal extent with similar practices for which cost-sharing for initial establishment is requested.

FEDERAL COST-SHARES

§ 1105.415 Division of Federal cost-shares. (a) Federal cost-shares. The Federal cost-share attributable to the use of conservation materials or services shall be credited to the person to whom the materials or services are furnished. Other Federal cost-shares shall be credited to the person who carried out the practices by which such other Federal cost-shares are earned. If more than one person contributed to the carrying out of such practices, the Federal cost-share shall be divided among such persons in the proportion that the State Office determines they contributed to the carrying out of the practices. In making this determination the State Office shall take into consideration the value of the labor, equipment, or material contributed by each person toward the carrying out of each practice on a particular acreage, and shall assume that each contributed equally unless it is established to the satisfaction of the State Office that their respective contributions thereto were not in equal proportion. The furnishing of land or the right to use water will not be considered as a contribution to the carrying out of any practice.

(b) Death, incompetency, or disappearance. In case of death, incompetency, or disappearance of any person, any Federal share of the cost due him shall be paid to his successor, determined in accordance with the provisions of the regulations in ACP–122, as amended (Part 1108 of this chapter).

§ 1105.416 Increase in small Federal cost-shares. The Federal cost-share computed for any person with respect to any farm or ranch shall be increased as follows: Provided, however, That in the event legislation is enacted which repeals or amends the authority for making such increases, the Secretary may in such manner and at such time as is consistent with such legislation, discontinue such increases:

(a) Any Federal cost-share amounting to $0.71 or less shall be increased to $1.

(b) Any Federal cost-share amounting to more than $0.71 but less than $1, shall be increased by 40 percent.

(c) Any Federal cost-share amounting to $1 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

Amount of cost-share computed:	Increase in cost-share
$1 to $1.99	$0.40
$2 to $2.99	.80
$3 to $3.99	1.20
$4 to $4.99	1.60

$186 to $199.99	(1)
$200 and over	(2)

[1] Increase to $200.
[2] No increase.

§ 1105.417 Federal cost-shares limited to $1,500. (a) The total of all Federal cost-shares under the 1955 program to any person with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine places in the United States (including Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands) shall not exceed the sum of $1,500.

(b) All or any part of any Federal cost-share which otherwise would be due any person under the 1955 program may be withheld, or required to be refunded, if he has adopted, or participated in adopting, any scheme or device, including the dissolution, reorganization, revival, formation, or use of any corporation, partnership, estate, trust, or any other means, designed to evade, or which has the effect of evading, the provisions of this section.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO FEDERAL COST-SHARING

§ 1105.418 Maintenance of practices. The sharing of costs, by the Federal Government, for the performance of approved conservation practices on any farm or ranch under the 1955 program will be subject to the condition that the person with whom the costs are shared will maintain such practices in accordance with good farming practices as long as the land on which they are carried out is under his control.

§ 1105.419 Practices defeating purposes of programs. If the State Office finds that any person has adopted or participated in any practice which tends to defeat the purposes of the 1955 or any previous program, including, but not limited to, failure to maintain, in accordance with good farming practices, practices carried out under a previous program, it may withhold, or require to be refunded, all or any part of the Federal cost-share which otherwise would be due him under the 1955 program.

§ 1105.420 Depriving others of Federal cost-share. If the State Office finds that any person has employed any scheme or device (including coercion, fraud, or misrepresentation), the effect of which would be or has been to deprive any other person of the Federal cost-share due that person under the program, it may withhold, in whole or in part, from the person participating in or employing such a scheme or device, or require him to refund in whole or in part, the Federal cost-share which otherwise would be due him under the 1955 program.

§ 1105.421 Filing of false claims. If the State Office finds that any person has knowingly filed claim for payment of the Federal cost-share under the program for practices not carried out, or for practices carried out in such a manner that they do not meet the required specifications therefor, such person shall not be eligible for any Federal cost-sharing under the program and shall refund all amounts that may have been paid to him under the program. The withholding or refunding of Federal cost-shares will be in addition to and not in substitution of any other penalty or liability which might otherwise be imposed.

§ 1105.422 Federal cost-shares not subject to claims. Any Federal cost-share, or portion thereof, due any person shall be determined and allowed without regard to questions of title under State law; without deduction of claims for advances (except as provided in § 1105.423, and except for indebtedness to the United States subject to setoff under orders issued by the Secretary (Part 1109 of this chapter)); and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

§ 1105.423 Assignments. Any person who may be entitled to any Federal cost-share under the 1955 program may assign his right thereto, in whole or in part, as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1955. No assignment will be recognized unless it is made in writing on Form ACP–69 and in accordance with the instructions in ACP–70.

§ 1105.424 Practices carried out with State or Federal aid. The Federal share of the cost for any practice shall not be reduced because it is carried out with materials or services furnished through the program or by any agency of a State to another agency of the same State, or with technical advisory services furnished by a State or Federal agency. In other cases of State or Federal aid, the total Federal cost-share computed on the basis of the total number of units of the practice performed shall be reduced by the value of the aid, as determined by the State Office, in computing the amount of the Federal cost-share to be paid for performance of the practice. Materials or services furnished or used by a State or Federal agency for the performance of practices on its land shall not be regarded as State or Federal aid for the purposes of this section.

§ 1105.425 Excess acreage of basic agricultural commodities. (a) Any person who knowingly harvests any basic agricultural commodity or causes any basic agricultural commodity to be harvested on any farm in which he has an interest, in excess of the 1955 acreage allotment for the farm for such basic agricultural commodity under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, shall not be eligible for any payment of cost-shares whatsoever on that farm or on any other farm under 1955 programs authorized by sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended. A basic agricultural commodity shall not be deemed to have been knowingly harvested on any farm in excess of the farm acreage allotment for such basic agricultural commodity if it is determined under applicable price support regulations that the acreage allotment for the commodity has not been knowingly exceeded.

(b) Any person who makes application for payment of cost-shares with respect to any farm shall file with such application a statement that he has not knowingly harvested any basic agricultural commodity or caused any basic agricultural commodity to be harvested on any farm in which he has an interest, in excess of the 1955 acreage allotment established for the farm for such basic agricultural commodity under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 1105.426 Compliance with regulatory measures. Persons who carry out conservation practices for cost-sharing under the 1955 program shall be responsible for obtaining the authorities, rights, easements, or other approvals necessary to the performance and maintenance of the practices in keeping with applicable laws and regulations. The person with whom the cost of the practice is shared shall be responsible to the Federal Government for any losses it may sustain because he infringes on the rights of others or fails to comply with applicable laws and regulations.

APPLICATION FOR PAYMENT OF FEDERAL COST-SHARES

§ 1105.427 Persons eligible to file application. Any person who, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper on a farm or ranch, bore a part of the cost of an approved conservation practice is eligible to file an application for payment of the Federal cost-share due him.

§ 1105.428 Time and manner of filing application and required information. (a) Payment of Federal cost-shares will be made only upon application submitted on the prescribed form to the State Office. Payment may be withheld from any person who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any farm or ranch which such person is operating or renting to another. Any application for payment may be rejected if any form or information required of the applicant is not submitted to the State Office before May 1, 1956. At least 2 weeks' notice to the public shall be given of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms or required information, and any time limit fixed shall afford a full and fair opportunity to those eligible to file the form or information within the period prescribed. Such notice shall be given by mailing notice to each farm inspector and making copies available to the press.

(b) If an application for a farm or ranch is filed within the time prescribed, any producer on the farm or ranch who did not sign the application may subsequently apply for his share of the cost-share, provided he does so on or before December 31, 1956.

APPEALS

§ 1105.429 Appeals. Any person may, within 15 days after notice thereof is forwarded to or made available to him, request the State Office in writing to reconsider its recommendation or determination in any matter affecting the right to or the amount of his Federal cost-shares with respect to the farm or ranch. The State Office shall notify him of its decision in writing within 15 days after receipt of written request for consideration. If the producer is dissatisfied with the decision of the State Office, he may, within 15 days after the decision is forwarded to or made available to him, request the Administrator, ACPS, to review the decision of the State Office. The decision of the Administrator, ACPS, shall be final. Written notice of any decision rendered under this section by the State Office shall also be issued to each other landlord, tenant, or sharecropper on the farm or ranch who may be adversely affected by the decision.

AUTHORITY, AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS, AND APPLICABILITY

§ 1105.430 Authority. The program contained in this subpart is approved pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7–17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended (49 Stat. 1148; 16 U. S. C. 590g–590q), and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1955.

§ 1105.431 Availability of funds. (a) The provisions of the 1955 program are necessarily subject to such legislation as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the paying of the Federal cost-shares provided in this subpart is contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purpose; and the amounts of such Federal cost-shares will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation.

(b) The funds provided for the 1955 program will not be available for paying Federal cost-shares for which applications are filed in the State Office after December 31, 1956.

§ 1105.432 Applicability. (a) The provisions of the 1955 program contained in this subpart are not applicable to (1) any department or bureau of the United States Government or any corporation wholly owned by the United States; (2) grazing lands owned by the United States which were acquired or reserved for conservation purposes, or which are to be retained permanently under Government ownership, including, but not limited to, grazing lands administered by the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, or by the Bureau of Land Management (including lands administered under the Taylor Grazing Act) or the Fish and Wildlife Service of the United States Department of the Interior; (3) nonprivate persons for performance on any land owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it; and (4) farmlands the use of which the State Office determines will probably change within 2 years to nonagricultural use.

(b) The program is applicable to (1) privately owned lands; (2) lands owned by the Territory of Hawaii or a political subdivision or agency thereof; (3) lands owned by corporations which are partly owned by the United States, such as production credit associations; (4) lands temporarily owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it, which were not acquired or reserved for conservation purposes, including lands administered by the Farmers Home Administration, the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, the United States Department of Defense, or by any other Government agency designated by the Administrator; and (5) any cropland farmed by private persons which is owned by the United States or a corporation wholly owned by it.

CONSERVATION PRACTICES AND MAXIMUM RATES OF COST-SHARING

§ 1105.433 Practice 1: Constructing continuous terraces and/or diversion ditches to control the flow of runoff water and check soil erosion on sloping farmland. Cost-sharing will be allowed, provided the structures are properly laid out, and constructed in accordance with specifications contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. If the land terraced is planted to clean-tilled crops, the crop rows should follow contour lines and the land surface must be protected during the rainfall season by cover crops, heavy crop residues, or organic mulches. Diversion ditches should be used on slopes between 16 percent and 20 percent and bench-type terraces on land of 20 percent or more slope. No cost-sharing will be allowed for reconstructing old terraces.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $2 per 100 linear feet of terrace constructed in clear soil.

(b) $4 per 100 linear feet of terrace constructed in very rocky soil or exposed rocky substratum.

(c) $8 per 100 linear feet for bench terraces.

(d) $0.10 per cubic yard of earth moved in diversion ditch construction.

§ 1105.434 Practice 2: Constructing interception ditches and/or outlet channels for disposing of, diverting, or collecting water to control erosion or for impounding livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grazing land management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover, and for irrigation. This practice does not apply to infield surface water interception on farmlands. (See § 1105.433 (practice 1) for infield interception of runoff waters.) Channels having an erosive grade must be protected against erosion damage by adequate sod or other lining. Outlets must be protected to discharge water without gullying. The amount of material moved in channel construction shall be that which is determined by direct measurement of ridge or berm material above normal ground level or that determined by prior and subsequent sectional surveys. Cost-sharing will be allowed only once and that for the year of construction. Specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $0.10 per cubic yard of material moved.

§ 1105.435 Practice 3: Establishing a protective sod lining in waterways to dispose of excess water without causing erosion. This practice is to prevent erosion in permanent waterways and is applicable only to waterways built or reshaped in the program year for use in removing excess water from farmland that is contoured, terraced, and/or trash-mulched. Satisfactory sod lining (dense enough to prevent soil cutting) must be established before cost-sharing may be allowed for this practice. Maximum width of waterway for which cost-sharing will be approved is 50 feet. Detailed specifications on species, seeding rates, sprig spacings, soil preparation, and irrigation are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Bermuda, Giant Bermuda, Kikuyu, or any other locally adapted species approved by the State Office may be used.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $0.75 per 1,000 square feet of surface established by shaping and seeding, sodding, or sprigging, plus 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of the minimum required application of approved liming materials and commercial fertilizers, including nitrogen, for the establishment of the cover.

§ 1105.436 Practice 4: Building erosion control dams or stone or vegetative barriers to prevent or heal the gullying of farmland and reduce runoff of water. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of pipe and/or flume material and receipts or records showing payment for labor will be required by inspectors as evidence of accomplishment under (d) and (f) of this section. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $0.14 per cubic yard of earth moved in the construction of the dams, wings, and walls.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the average cost of pipe and/or flume material delivered to the farm.

(e) $1.50 per cubic yard of rock used, for rock or rock-and-brush dams.

(f) 50 percent of the cost of constructing stone barriers for diverting and spreading surface runoff.

(g) $0.25 per 100 linear feet for planting single line vegetative barriers to impede the flow of surface runoff.

(h) $1.50 per 1,000 square feet for planting suitable permanent massed vegetative barriers.

§ 1105.437 Practice 5: Constructing permanent riprap or revetment of stone to control erosion of streambanks, gullies, dam faces, or watercourses. Dams for purposes other than for impounding water for irrigation or for livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management are not eligible. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $0.50 per square yard of exposed riprap surface.

§ 1105.438 Practice 6: Initial planting of orchards on the contour to help prevent erosion. This practice is to conserve water and reduce erosion from irrigation or storm water, with orchard rows running on nonerosive grades across the main slope. Cost-sharing will be allowed for planting orchards on the contour on land having more than 2 percent slope. The land must be protected during the rainfall season by cover crops, stubble mulch, or mulch and terraces or diversion ditches.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $5 per acre.

§ 1105.439 Practice 7: Initial establishment in the cropping system of leguminous crops for use as stubble mulch, cover, or green manure for protection of soil from erosion. In order to qualify, a good stand and a good growth of the leguminous crops must be grown and left on the land as cover or turned under for green manure during the program year. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of seed, or records of collecting, will be required by inspectors as evidence of seed used. In case of mixed seeding with acceptable nonlegumes (see § 1105.440 (practice 8)), the ratio of one-third of the required poundage of legume seed for unmixed plantings to two-thirds of the required poundage of nonlegume seed for unmixed plantings shall provide the basis for determining eligibility and cost-share. Federal cost-sharing will be limited to the acreage in excess of the normal acreage of such plantings, which shall not be less than the average of all such plantings for the past 3 years. Any of the following crops or any other locally adapted crops approved by the State Office may be used.

	Minimum seeding rate (pounds per acre)
(a) Pigeon peas	30
(b) Velvetbeans	50
(c) Field beans	30
(d) Purple vetch	50
(e) Clover:
Large like Kaimi	10
Small like Alsike	5
(f) Kudzu	8
(g) Crotalaria juncea	10
(h) Crotalaria spectabilis	10
(i) Cowpeas	30

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost of seed at the farm, but not in excess of $5 per acre of area planted.

§ 1105.440 Practice 8: Initial establishment in the cropping system of adapted nonlegumes for stubble mulch, cover filter strip, or green manure for protection of soil from erosion. Para grass (Panicum purpurascens), molasses grass, Rhodes grass, feather fingergrass, acceptable small grains, and other nonlegumes determined by the State Office as suitable for this purpose, are eligible for cost-sharing. In order to qualify, a good stand and a good growth must be secured during the program year and be left on the land if for cover or turned under before year-end if for green manure. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. Acreage harvested for seed or hay is not eligible for Federal cost-sharing. Federal cost-sharing (except for seedings for filter strips) will be limited to the acreage in excess of the normal acreage of such plantings, which shall not be less than the average of all such plantings for the past 3 years. Receipts or invoices showing purchases of seed, or records of collecting, will be required by inspectors as evidence of seed used. In case of mixed seeding with acceptable legumes, see § 1105.439 (practice 7) for ratio specifications.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost of seed at the farm, but not in excess of $5 per acre actually planted.

§ 1105.441 Practice 9: Initial establishment of permanent pasture or initial improvement of an established permanent grass or grass-legume cover for soil or watershed protection by seeding, sodding, or sprigging adapted perennial grasses and/or legumes. All equipment used to prepare land for seeding shall operate across the slope as near to the contour as practicable. In areas where long slopes are to be broken out of native vegetation, the land preparation shall be done in contour strips and established to improved pasture before the intermediate strips shall be broken out. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office. The seed must be well distributed over the area sown to insure a good stand at maturity. Any locally adapted crops approved by the State Office may be used but must be seeded at not less than the minimum seeding rates per acre prescribed by the State Office. In order to meet minimum requirements, slips or stools of grasses may be planted in continuous rows. Grass and legume charts are available in the State Office. Costs will be shared only if a satisfactory stand of the seeded grass or legume-grass mixture is established within 6 months after clearing unless natural circumstances recognized by the State Office as being beyond control of the farmer affect growth results adversely. No area seeded shall be grazed until grass and legume-grass mixtures are well established. If clearing is done, the land must have undergone no clearing operation within the past 25 years while under control of the present operator or within 10 years in the case of a recent change in ownership or tenancy, except where the State Office determines otherwise. Land cleared must be established in perennial grasses or a legume-grass mixture as soon as practicable and within the program year. No cost will be shared where mechanical equipment is used on slopes above 35 percent nor will cost be shared for clearing a stand of merchantable timber (including timber for fence posts and charcoal for sale). No cost will be shared for land clearing if the land cleared would be suitable for cultivation of crops. Records of labor, equipment, and material used in the clearing operation and receipts or invoices showing purchase of seed or records of costs of collecting will be required as evidence of cost.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) Seeding after land preparation, 50 percent of the cost of seed, not to exceed $5 per acre, plus 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of the minimum required application of approved liming materials and commercial fertilizers, including nitrogen, for the establishment of the cover.

(b) Clearing operations not to exceed the lesser of $15 per acre or $1,000 per farm.

§ 1105.442 Practice 10: Initial treatment of cropland or pasture for correction of soil acidity and addition of needed calcium to permit best use of legumes and/or grasses for soil improvement and protection. This practice is applicable to land which is devoted in 1955 to grasses or legumes or which will be devoted to grasses or legumes in the planned rotation for the farm. Treatment of land which is in pasture and which is to remain in pasture will be eligible for cost-sharing only if recent soil analysis and Agricultural Extension Service recommendations justify the use of lime and all measures needed to assure an improved vegetative cover which will provide adequate and extended soil protection are carried out. Any acreage on which cost-sharing is given under this practice under the 1955 program will not qualify for cost-sharing for liming in subsequent years. Liming material must contain at least 80 percent calcium carbonate equivalent and be fine enough to pass through a 20-mesh screen (unless the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Hawaii recommends otherwise) and must be evenly applied to the land. Receipts or invoices showing the purchase of lime, properly dated and signed by the vendor, will be required as evidence by the farm inspector at the time of inspection.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the average cost of the minimum required application of liming material delivered to the farm.

§ 1105.443 Practice 11: Controlling competitive shrubs to permit growth of adequate vegetative cover for soil protection on range or pasture lands by poisoning. Sharing costs for poisoning will be repeated for each application but not in excess of two per year made according to accepted practices. Receipts or invoices showing purchase and analysis of poisons used will be required by inspectors as evidence. Competitive shrubs eligible under this practice are as listed below and described in Extension Bulletin 62, University of Hawaii, available at the State Office:

Guava (Psidium guajava).
Opiuma (Pithecellobium dulce).
Emex (Emex spinosa).
Melastoma (Melastoma malabathricum).
Firebush (Myrica faya).
Pepper tree (Schinus molle).
Cactus (Opuntia magacantha).
Java-plum (Eugenia cumini).
Christmas berry (Schinus terebinthifolia).
Cat's claw (Caesalpinia sepiaria).
Aalii (Dedonaea eriocarpa).
Joee (Stachytarpheta cayennensis).
Lantana (Lantana camara).
Waiawi (Usidium cattelelanum var. lucidum).
Pamakani (Eupatorium adenophorum).
Puakeawe (Styphelia tamelameiae).
Sacramento burr, Triumfetta semitriloba).
Staghorn fern (Gleichenia linearis).

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the average cost of State Office approved chemicals, but not in excess of $2 per acre per application.

§ 1105.444 Practice 12: Initial application of organic mulch material to any cropland or eroded pasture areas for soil protection and moisture conservation. Organic material must be of a fibrous nature and shredded, chopped, or crushed. Material such as sugarcane bagasse, cane leaf trash, pineapple trash, tree fern stumps, coarse grasses, coffee husks, sawdust, and wood shavings, as well as macadamia nut husks and shells, will be eligible. The mulch must be thick enough to completely cover the surface of soil areas treated. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials and cost of transportation will be required by inspectors as evidence of compliance.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost of material at the farm, but not in excess of $50 per acre treated with materials secured from outside the farm.

(b) $2.50 per acre with material produced on the farm.

§ 1105.445 Practice 13: Installation of pipelines for livestock water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover. Installations in corrals, feed lots, and holding pens are not eligible. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of pipe used will be required to determine cost.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the average cost of pipe at the farm, except that the cost-share for pipe in excess of 2 inches in diameter may not exceed the cost which may be shared for 2-inch pipe.

§ 1105.446 Practice 14: Construction of permanent artificial watersheds and/or storage tanks for accumulating water to obtain proper distribution of livestock and encourage rotation grazing and better grassland management as a means of protecting established vegetative cover. No cost will be shared if part of the water impounded or supplied is used for irrigation or domestic purposes. Construction for purposes of starting new grazing operations is not eligible. The practice is not applicable alone for corrals, feed lots, and holding pens. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials used will be required to determine cost. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the cost material used, other than concrete and rubble masonry.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

§ 1105.447 Practice 15: Construction of permanent fences to obtain better distribution and control of livestock grazing on range or pasture land and to promote proper management for protection of established forage resources, or to protect farm woodland from grazing. No cost may be shared for the maintenance or repair of existing fences or for construction of boundary fences including road fences. Required fencing of forest reserve land is not eligible. Any fencing necessary to the working of cattle (including pens, corrals, and feed lots) is inelgible. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials will be required to determine cost.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of posts, wire, poles, lumber, staples, or other similar fencing materials used.

(b) $0.10 per linear foot of rock wall, minimum dimensions of which shall be: height, 4 feet; base width, 36 inches; top width, 24 inches.

§ 1105.448 Practice 16: Construction of dams, pits, or ponds for livestock water, including the enlargement of inadequate structures. The development must contribute to a better distribution of grazing or better pasture management. Initial construction projects not eligible. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of material used in construction will be required by inspectors as evidence of cost. Earth fills should be constructed in accordance with supplemental specifications for "Small Earth Storage Dams" provided on request by SCS or ASC offices.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $0.14 per cubic yard of material moved.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the cost of fencing materials, pipe, and seeding or sodding the dam and filter strips.

§ 1105.449 Practice 17: Constructing or enlarging dams, pits, and ponds to impound surface water for irrigation. No cost-sharing will be allowed for material moved in cleaning or maintaining a reservoir, or for dams, pits, or ponds, the primary purpose of which is to provide water for irrigating land which was not under irrigation prior to the 1955 crop year. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials used will be required by inspectors as evidence of cost. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $0.14 per cubic yard of earth material moved.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the average cost of pipe and outlet gates.

(e) 50 percent of the average cost of seeding or sodding dams or filter strips.

(f) 50 percent of the average cost of materials, other than concrete and rubble masonry, used in permanent structures, including soil sealing.

§ 1105.450 Practice 18: Reorganizing farm irrigation systems to conserve water and prevent erosion. The reorganization (a change for the better in style or method of conveying water to and in the fields) must be carried out in accordance with a reorganization plan approved by the responsible technician. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of materials or equipment and records of labor employed will be required by inspectors as evidence of installation costs. No cost-sharing will be allowed for repairs or replacements of existing structures. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $0.10 per cubic yard of earth material moved in the construction or enlargement of permanent ditches, dikes, or laterals. No cost-sharing will be given for cleaning a ditch.

(b) Lining ditches or reservoirs:

(1) 50 percent of the average cost of approved material used, other than concrete and rubble masonry.

(2) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(3) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(c) Constructing or installing permanent structures such as siphons, flumes, drop boxes or chutes, weirs, diversion gates, and permanently located pipe. No cost-sharing will be given for repairs or replacements of existing structures.

(1) 50 percent of the average cost of material used in permanent structures, other than concrete and rubble masonry but excluding forms.

(2) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(3) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the average cost of pipe and fittings used for sprinkler irrigation. No cost-sharing will be allowed for repairs or replacements of existing structures. Total cost-share for portable pipe and fittings under this item shall not exceed $100 per acre of reorganized irrigation.

§ 1105.451 Practice 19: Construction or enlargement of permanent open drainage systems to dispose of excess water on farmlands under cultivation or on pasturelands. No cost will be shared for material moved in cleaning or maintaining a ditch, or for structures installed for crossings, or other structures primarily for the convenience of the farm operator. Receipts or invoices showing purchase of seed or materials and records of labor employed and soil moved will be required by inspectors as evidence of construction work costs. Detailed specifications are contained in Soil Conservation Service Technical Standards on file in the State Office.

Maximum Federal cost-share. (a) $0.10 per cubic yard of material moved.

(b) $12 per cubic yard of concrete used.

(c) $7 per cubic yard of rubble masonry used.

(d) 50 percent of the average cost of seed or planting materials for establishing suitable cover for protection against erosion on ditch banks and right-of-way, plus 50 percent of the average cost at the farm of the minimum required application of approved liming materials and commercial fertilizers, including nitrogen, for the establishment of the cover.

(e) 50 percent of the cost of materials and labor in dynamiting holes in pahoehoe type lava rock.

§ 1105.452 Practice 20: Planting, interplanting, or replanting forest trees or shrubs on farmland in windbreaks and farm woodlots or woodlands for erosion control, watershed protection, or forestry purposes. Plantings must be protected from fire and grazing. Fencing for protection of newly planted trees in farm woodlands under this practice against grazing is eligible for cost-sharing only if construction specifications in § 1105.447 (practice 15) are employed. Recommended species of trees are those listed in table 11 of Board of Agriculture and Forestry Biennial Report, June 30, 1952.

Maximum Federal cost-share. $4 per 100 trees.

§ 1105.453 Practice 21: Installation of facilities for sprinkler irrigation of permanent pasture on sloping land for developing forage resources to encourage rotation grazing and better range management for protection of all grazing land in the farm against overgrazing and erosion. Installation of sprinkler irrigation facilities must be solely for irrigation of permanent pasture or area being established in permanent pasture on sloping land. The installation must be in accordance with a written plan approved by the responsible technician.

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the cost at the farm of all necessary pipes and fittings, but not in excess of $100 per acre irrigated by the installation.

WHEAT ACREAGE

The following amendment to 1954 C. C. C. Wheat Bulletin A, Revised, as amended (18 F. R. 7813, 19 F. R. 1501), is issued for the purpose of affording wheat producers who have not harvested their 1954 wheat crop an opportunity to adjust their planted acreage to their 1954 wheat acreage allotments.

Section 421.428 (c) (1) of the 1954 C. C. C. Wheat Bulletin A, Revised, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 421.428 Definitions. • • •

(c) Wheat acreage. (1) Wheat acreage means (i) any acreage seeded to wheat, excluding any acreage (a) seeded to a wheat mixture in wheat mixture counties approved by the Director of the Grain Division, CSS, or (b) which does not reach maturity because it is, while still green, turned under, pastured off, or cut for silage, and (ii) any acreage of volunteer (self-seeded) wheat which reaches maturity: Provided, That acreage under subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph in excess of the 1954 farm acreage allotment for the farm shall not be regarded as wheat acreage if it is (1) not left standing in the field on a date prior to harvest, such date to be determined by the county committee with the approval of the State committee, and (2) not harvested as wheat.

AUTHORITY: §§ 446.601 to 446.619 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 101, 401, 63 Stat. 1051, 1054; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1441, 1421.

§ 446.601 Administration. (a) The program will be administered by the Oils and Peanut Division, CSS, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, CCC. In the field the program will be carried out by Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State committees and by Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county committees (hereinafter called State and county committees) and the Dallas CSS Commodity office, (hereinafter called the commodity office). State and county committees and the commodity office do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments or supplements thereto. All documents in connection with farm storage loans will be completed and approved in the county office which keeps the farm program records. The county office will retain copies of all such documents.

(b) Cooperatives operating under a Cooperative Loan Agreement, CCC Peanut Form 27 (1954) with CCC (hereinafter referred to as an Agreement with CCC), may receive, arrange for storage, and handle eligible peanuts for and on behalf of eligible producers, using such peanuts as collateral for a loan made available by CCC.

§ 446.602 Availability—(a) Areas. The program will be available in the following areas:

(1) The Southeastern area consisting of the States of Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Florida, and that part of South Carolina south and west of the Santee-Congaree-Broad Rivers.

(2) The Southwestern area consisting of the States of Arizona, Arkansas, California, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.

(3) The Virginia-Carolina area consisting of the States of Missouri, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and that part of South Carolina north and east of the Santee-Congaree-Board Rivers.

(b) Time. Loans will be made through January 31, 1955, and will mature on May 31, 1955 or such earlier date as may be specified by CCC. All farm storage loan documents must be dated and delivered to the county office on or before January 31, 1955. Warehouse receipts for peanuts delivered to a cooperative operating under an agreement with CCC must show that the peanuts were received not later than January 31, 1955, and that the receipt was issued within 24 hours after the peanuts were received in the warehouse.

§ 446.603 Methods of price support. CCC will support the price of eligible 1954 crop quota peanuts through nonrecourse farm storage loans to eligible producers and non-recourse warehouse storage loans to cooperatives operating under an agreement with CCC.

§ 446.604 Definitions. As used in this subpart and in instructions and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) Cooperative. A group of producers organized in accordance with the provisions of the Capper-Volstead Act, for the purpose of handling peanuts for and on behalf of its producer members, which is approved as a cooperative within the State(s) in which it functions, and which is approved by CCC; Provided, That,

(1) The major portion of the peanuts handled by the cooperative are delivered to the cooperative by producer members;

(2) The members and any non-members for whom the cooperative handles peanuts have a right to share prorata in the profits made from handling peanuts;

(3) The cooperative has the legal right to pledge or mortgage the peanuts which it receives from producers, and the producers have no right to redeem or obtain possession of their peanuts after delivery to the cooperative;

(4) The manager of the cooperative must not be engaged in the business of buying, selling, storing, or dealing in peanuts, other than in his capacity as manager of the cooperative or as a producer; and

(5) The cooperative shall maintain such accounts and records as CCC may prescribe.

(b) County office. The office of the county committee where records for the farm are kept.

(c) Excess moisture (for purposes of determining net weight). The percentage of moisture in excess of 7 percent in the Southeastern and Southwestern areas and in excess of 8 percent in the Virginia-Carolina area.

(d) Farm. A farm as defined in the marketing quota regulations which generally refers to all adjacent or nearby farmland which is operated as one farming unit.

(e) Farm allotment. The farm peanut acreage allotment for the 1954 crop of peanuts established pursuant to the marketing quota regulations.

(f) Farmers' stock peanuts. Picked or threshed peanuts produced in the continental United States during the calendar year 1954, which have not been shelled, crushed, cleaned (except for removal of foreign material), or otherwise changed from the state in which picked or threshed peanuts are customarily marketed by producers.

(g) Farm peanut acreage. The 1954 farm peanut acreage determined in accordance with the marketing quota regulations which generally refers to the total acreage of peanuts on the farm which is picked or threshed.

(h) Grade. The percentages of sound mature kernels, damaged kernels, other kernels, foreign material, moisture, loose-shelled kernels, and also the percentage of extra large kernels in the case of Virginia type peanuts.

(i) Lot. That quantity of peanuts for which one inspection memorandum is issued.

(j) Marketing quota regulations. The Marketing Quota Regulations for 1954 Crop of peanuts issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, including any amendments or supplements thereto (18 F. R. 6372 and 19 F. R. 2505).

(k) Net weight. That weight obtained by multiplying the gross weight by a percentage equal to 100 percent minus the sum of the percentages of foreign material and excess moisture.

(l) Operator. The person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(m) Producer. A person who, as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, is entitled to share in the peanuts produced on the farm or in the proceeds thereof.

(n) Quota peanuts. Farmers stock peanuts which are within the amount of the farm marketing quota determined pursuant to the marketing quota regulations.

(o) Type. The generally known types of peanuts (i. e., Runner, Spanish, Valencia, and Virginia), as defined in Marketing Quota Regulations for Peanuts of the 1953 Crop, 1023 (Peanuts 53)-1, (18 F. R. 1881) (7 CFR Part 729) except that any peanuts which would otherwise be considered Virginia type but which contain less than 25% "Fancy" size (peanuts riding a $^{34}/_{64}$ x 3 inch slotted screen) will be considered Runner type peanuts.

(p) Within quota card. MQ–76 Peanuts (1954) or MQ–76–VC Peanuts (1954), 1954 Peanut Within Quota Marketing Card. MQ–76 will be issued for farms in the Southeastern area and in the Southwestern area. MQ–76–VC will be used for farms in the Virginia-Carolina area. In accordance with the Marketing Quota Regulations for the 1954 Crop, 1026 (Peanuts 54)–1, these cards will be issued for farms for which it is determined that the farm peanut acreage is not in excess of the larger of the farm allotment or one acre. A within quota card authorizes the marketing of all peanuts produced on the farm without payment at the time of marketing of the penalty prescribed in the Marketing Quota Regulations for 1954 Crop, 1026 (Peanuts 54)–1.

§ 446.605 Support prices. The national average support price is $244.80 per ton. The support prices and loan rates by types, and the premiums and discounts with respect thereto, are contained is § 446.606.

§ 446.606 Price support schedule. The following Price Support Schedule applies to net weight farmers stock peanuts. The prices are for peanuts in bulk in the Southeastern area and in bags in the Southwestern and Virginia-Carolina areas. The term "Southeastern Spanish" refers to Spanish-type peanuts produced east of the Mississippi River and the term "Southwestern Spanish" refers to Spanish-type peanuts produced west of the Mississippi River.

(a) Base grade prices. The base grade support prices for the various types and grades of peanuts shall be as follows:

	Per ton
Virginia type, 65 percent sound mature kernels	$236.00
Runner type, 65 percent sound mature kernels	220.00
Southeastern Spanish, 70 percent sound mature kernels	241.00
Southwestern Spanish, 70 percent sound mature kernels	237.00

(b) Premiums and discounts—(1) Sound mature kernels. For each one percent sound mature kernel content above or below the base grade, the premium or discount, whichever is applicable, shall be as follows:

	Per ton
Virginia type	$3.70
Runner type	3.40
Southeastern Spanish type	3.50
Southwestern Spanish type	3.40

The term "sound mature kernel" means kernels which are free from damage as defined in the U. S. Standards for farmers stock (i) white Spanish peanuts in the case of Spanish and Valencia peanuts and (ii) Runner and Virginia peanuts, respectively, in the case of Runner and Virginia peanuts; and which will not pass through a screen having:

(a) $^{14}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch perforations in the case of Spanish peanuts.

(b) $^{15}/_{64}$ x 1 inch perforations in the case of Virginia peanuts, and (c) $^{15}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch perforations in the case of Runner and Valencia peanuts.

(2) Damaged kernels. The discount for damage in excess of one percent shall be as follows per ton by types:

Peanuts containing damaged kernels of—	Virginia	Runner	Spanish
			Southeastern	Southwestern
2 percent	$3.70	$3.40	$3.50	$3.40
3 percent	7.40	6.80	7.00	6.80
4 percent	12.95	11.90	12.25	11.90
5 percent	20.35	18.70	19.25	18.70
6 percent	27.75	25.50	26.25	25.50
7 percent	38.85	35.70	36.75	35.70

Peanuts containing damaged kernels of 8 percent and over shall not be eligible for price support.

(3) Foreign material. The discount for each full 1 percent foreign material in excess of 4 percent and not over 10 percent shall be $1.00 per ton. Peanuts with more than 10 percent foreign material shall not be eligible for price support.

(4) Loose-shelled kernels. Discount for loose shelled kernels in farmers stock peanuts shall be at the rate of 50 cents per ton for each full 1 percent of loose shelled kernels above 5 percent.

(5) Extra large kernels. For Virginia type peanuts the premium for each full 1 percent extra large kernels in excess of 15 percent shall be $1.25 per ton. "Extra large kernels" means any shelled Virginia peanuts which are whole and which are free from noticeably discolored or damaged peanuts as defined in the U. S. Standards for Shelled Virginia Peanuts (effective November 1, 1939) and which will not pass through a screen having 21.5/64 x 1 inch perforations.

(c) Other—(1) Virginia type peanuts. Any lot or load of peanuts which would otherwise be considered Virginia type but which contains less than 25 percent "Fancy" size (peanuts riding a $^{34}/_{64}$ x 3 inch slotted screen) shall be considered Runner type peanuts.

(2) Valencia type peanuts. The support price for Valencia type peanuts containing less than 25 percent discoloration and damage caused by cracked or broken shells shall be the same as the support price for Virginia type peanuts of the same grade, except that no premium is applicable for extra large Valencia kernels. For other Valencia type peanuts the support price shall be the same as the support price for Spanish peanuts of the same grade and in the same area.

§ 446.607 Eligible peanuts. Peanuts eligible for price support must meet the following requirements:

(a) Such peanuts must be 1954 crop farmers stock quota peanuts which contain 10 percent or less foreign material, 7 percent or less damaged kernels and, in the case of a farm storage loan, not more than 10 percent moisture when placed under loan, and in the case of a loan to a cooperative, a percentage of moisture not in excess of that specified by the cooperative at the time the peanuts are received in the warehouse.

(b) (1) Such peanuts must be produced by an eligible producer on a farm (i) on which the 1954 farm peanut acreage does not exceed the larger of the 1954 allotment for such farm or one acre, or (ii) for which a within quota marketing card is issued to the producer or operator upon the execution of Form MQ–92—Peanuts (1954) "Agreement by Operator of Overplanted Farm, 1954 Peanut Program", in which he agrees (a) that the farm peanut acreage will not exceed the larger of the farm allotment or one acre, and (b) if such undertaking is breached to pay liquidated damages to CCC, determined in accordance with the terms of such agreement, and to pay any marketing penalties determined to be due the Secretary of Agriculture.

(2) The liquidated damages payable to CCC under such agreement may be waived to such extent as the Executive Vice-President of CCC or his designated representative may determine appropriate in any case where he determines (i) that the breach of such agreement was unintentional and occurred despite a bona fide effort by the operator and other producers on the farm to comply with the agreement and (ii) that the amount by which the farm peanut acreage exceeded the acreage specified in the agreement was so small, in relation to the acreage so specified, that it did not materially impair CCC's price support operations.

(3) Copies of Form MQ–92—Peanuts (1954) may be obtained from the county committee. The county committee may decline to execute Form MQ–92—Peanuts (1954) in any case where it finds reasonable grounds to believe that such agreement will be used as a device to evade the requirements of this program or the collection of marketing penalty.

(c) Such peanuts must be identified by a within quota marketing card in accordance with the marketing quota regulations;

(d) Such peanuts must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, including landlord's liens, or if liens or encumbrances exist on the peanuts, acceptable waivers must be obtained: Provided, however, That peanuts under a loan to a cooperative may be subject to liens for warehouse charges specified in CCC Peanut Form 28 (1954).

(e) If the peanuts are delivered in bags, no part of the bag shall be made of sisal fibers, and the weight of the empty bag shall not exceed ten ounces per square yard.

§ 446.608 Eligible producer. (a) A producer will be eligible for price support with respect to all eligible peanuts in which the beneficial interest is in him and has always been in him or in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the peanuts were harvested.

§ 446.609 Type and grade. Inspectors authorized or licensed by the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine the type and grade of all peanuts which are to be:

(a) Mortgaged as security for a farm storage loan, such type and grade to be determined on the basis of a sample taken by the county committee before the loan is made; but the settlement value of the mortgaged peanuts delivered in satisfaction of the loan will be computed on the basis of the grade determined at the time such peanuts are delivered.

(b) Stored in a warehouse under contract CCC Peanut Form 28 (1954), such type and grade to be determined at the time the peanuts are delivered to the warehouse.

(c) Delivered to CCC from a warehouse under contract CCC Peanut Form 28 (1954) such type and grade to be determined at the time the peanuts are loaded out of the warehouse.

§ 446.610 Approved lending agencies. An approved lending agency shall be a bank or other financial organization with which CCC has entered into a lending agency agreement on CCC Form 322 in the case of producer farm storage loans and on CCC Peanut Form 50 in the case of loans to peanut cooperatives.

§ 446.611 Service charges and fees. (a) On the quantity of peanuts placed under a farm storage loan the producer shall pay an initial service charge in the amount of 30¢ per ton, except that the minimum charge shall be $3.00. An additional service charge at the rate of 30¢ per ton shall be paid on any additional quantity delivered to and accepted by CCC. No refund of service charges will be made. State committees, may at their option, require a deposit on farm storage loans, such deposit to be applied against the service charge when the loan is granted.

(b) The producer or cooperative will pay the inspection fee applicable to the quantity of peanuts placed under a farm storage loan or loan to a cooperative. CCC will pay the inspection fee for loan collateral peanuts delivered to CCC.

(c) An amount to cover warehouse storage charges through May 31, 1955, will be deducted from the proceeds of any loan to a cooperative. The cooperative will pay the warehouse receiving, storage and handling charges on peanuts redeemed.

(d) The service charges and fees specified in this section will be computed on gross weights.

§ 446.612 Interest rate. Farm storage loans and loans to cooperatives shall bear interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum from the date of disbursement of the loan, except that where there is a default in satisfaction of a loan on farm stored peanuts the deficiency (including accrued interest and costs incurred by the holder of the note) shall bear interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date of default.

§ 446.613 Personal liability of the borrower. The making of any fraudulent representation in obtaining price support or the conversion or unlawful disposition of any portion of the peanuts by the borrower may render such borrower subject to criminal prosecution under Federal law and liable for the amount received (plus interest) and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 446.614 Payments and collections; amounts not exceeding $3. To avoid administrative costs of making small payments and handling small accounts, amounts of $3 or less due a producer will be paid only upon request; and a deficiency of $3 or less, including interest, may be disregarded by a producer unless demand for payment is made by CCC.

§ 446.615 Set-offs. (a) If a producer who obtains a loan is indebted to CCC on any accrued obligation, or if any installment or installments on any loan made available by CCC on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment are past due, or are payable or prepayable under the provisions of the note evidencing such loan out of the proceeds of the price support loan, such producer must designate CCC or the lending agency holding such note as the payee of the proceeds of the price support loan to the extent of such indebtedness or installments, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of loan service charges and amounts due prior lienholders. If the producer is indebted to any other agency of the United States and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, he must designate such agency as the payee of the proceeds as provided in this section. Indebtedness owing to CCC or to a lending agency as provided in this section shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lienholders.

(b) Cooperatives shall deduct from their advance payments to producers and remit in accordance with procedure approved by CSS, the amount of indebtedness as shown on the marketing cards presented at the time the peanuts are received.

(c) Compliance with the provisions of this section shall not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved either by administrative appeal or by legal action.

§ 446.616 Purchase of notes. (a) The county committee, acting on behalf of CCC, will purchase from approved lending agencies notes evidencing approved farm storage loans which are secured by chattel mortgages. The purchase price will be the principal sums remaining due on such notes plus interest computed according to the lending agency agreement. Lending agencies shall submit notes and reports to the county office where the loan documents were approved.

(b) Lending agencies making loans to cooperatives may assign all or part of such loans to CCC and obtain payment from CCC for the amounts assigned by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC payable through a designated Federal Reserve Bank or Branch Bank. Lending agencies may act as agent for CCC in servicing the loan or portion thereof assigned to CCC.

§ 446.617 Foreclosure. If the loan is not satisfied upon maturity by payment or by delivery of the peanuts from farm storage, the holder of the note may remove the peanuts and sell them either by separate contract or after pooling them with other lots of peanuts similarly held. If the peanuts are pooled, the borrower has no right of redemption after the date the pool is established, but shall share ratably in any overplus remaining upon liquidation of the pool. CCC shall have the right to treat the pooled peanuts as a reserve supply to be marketed under such sales policies as CCC determines will promote orderly marketing, protect the interests of producers and consumers, and not unduly impair the market for the current crop of peanuts, even though part or all of such pooled peanuts are disposed of under such policies at prices less than the current domestic price. Any sum due the borrower as a result of the sale of the peanuts or of the receipt of insurance proceeds paid thereon, or any ratable share resulting from the liquidation of a pool, shall be payable only to the borrower without right of assignment.

§ 446.618 Farm storage loan provisions. Loans will be available to eligible producers on eligible peanuts in approved farm storage. Producers who want to obtain such loans will apply at the county office which will arrange for inspection of the storage facilities and for inspection, sampling and grading of the peanuts. After it is determined that the producer, the peanuts, and the storage facilities meet the requirements therefor, the county office will determine the amount of the loan and prepare and approve the loan documents. After the loan documents are approved, the producer may obtain the loan from any approved lending agency or from CCC. The producer may deliver the peanuts to CCC upon maturity of the loan, or may redeem the peanuts at any time prior to such delivery by repaying the amount of the loan plus interest and charges.

(a) Approved farm storage. Approved farm storage shall consist of storage structures located on or off the farm (excluding public warehouses), which are determined by the county office to be so located and of such substantial and permanent construction as to afford safe storage of peanuts. Such structure shall be dry and well-ventilated.

(b) Method of determining quantity—(1) Peanuts placed under loan. The net weight of the peanuts to be placed under a farm storage loan will be calculated from an estimated gross weight determined as provided in this section. A 5 percent minimum reduction in such estimated gross weight is required in an effort to avoid underdelivery at maturity in the event the loan is not repaid.

(i) Peanuts stored in bulk. The gross weight of bulk peanuts placed under a farm storage loan may be determined either by weight or by measurement. When the quantity is determined by measurement, the gross weight shall be computed on the number of pounds per cubic foot for the type of peanuts indicated below (such number of pounds has been reduced by approximately 5 percent from the estimated actual weight):

Type:	Weight per cu. ft. (pounds)
Runner	17.0
Spanish	19.0
Valencia	17.0
Virginia	12.0

If the gross weight of bulk peanuts is determined by actual weight instead of by measurement, deduct from such weight an amount specified by the State committee, which amount shall be not less than 5 percent of such gross weight.

(ii) Peanuts stored in bags. The approximate gross weight of bagged peanuts to be placed under loan shall be determined by weighing all of the bags or by weighing a sufficient number of bags to estimate the gross weight of all the bags, and then by deducting therefrom an amount specified by the State committee, which amount shall be not less than 5 percent of such gross weight.

(2) Peanuts delivered to CCC at maturity. The net weight of peanuts delivered to CCC upon maturity of the loan shall be calculated from the gross weight determined by actual weight at the time of delivery.

(c) Forms. Loan forms shall consist of Commodity Loan Form A, Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement, secured by Commodity Loan Form AA, Commodity Chattel Mortgage, and such other forms and documents as may be required by CCC. Commodity Loan Forms A and AA must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Loan documents executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee, will be acceptable only where legally valid.

(d) Disbursement. Disbursement of farm storage loans will be made by approved lending agencies or by sight drafts drawn on CCC and issued by the county office. Disbursement, regardless of where made, shall not be made after February 15, 1955, unless authorized by the Executive Vice President, CCC. Payment in cash, credit to the producer's account, or the drawing of a check or draft shall constitute disbursement. The date of such draft, check, credit, or cash payment shall be considered as the date of disbursement of the funds. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement unless the peanuts are in existence and in good condition. If the peanuts are not in existence or not in good condition at the time of disbursement, the proceeds shall be promptly refunded by the producer. In the event the amount disbursed exceeds the amount authorized, the producer shall be personally liable for repayment of the amount of such excess.

(e) Insurance. CCC will not require the borrower to insure the peanuts placed under a farm-storage loan. However, if a borrower does insure such peanuts and an insurance indemnity is paid thereon, the insurance proceeds must paid to CCC to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the borrower's equity in the peanuts involved in the loss.

(f) Safeguarding the peanuts. The producer who obtains a farm storage loan is obligated to maintain the storage structure in good repair and to keep the peanuts in good condition until the loan is liquidated.

(g) Loss or damage to the peanuts under farm storage loan. (1) The producer is responsible for any loss in grade and for any loss in weight, except that CCC will assume uninsured physical loss or damage occurring after disbursement of the loan funds without fault, negligence or conversion on the part of the producer or of any other person having control of a storage structure not located on the farm, provided such loss or damage (i) resulted solely from an external cause other than insect infestation, vermin or rodents and the producer gave the county committee immediate notice confirmed in writing of such loss or damage, or (ii) resulted from insect, vermin or rodent damage occurring after the producer has given the county office notice in writing of the presence of insects, vermin or rodents and the county office has by inspection verified the presence of insects, vermin or rodents. Losses under the provisions of this subsection will be assumed by CCC to the extent of the settlement value of the quantity destroyed or in an amount equivalent to the extent of the damage, as determined by CCC, provided there has been no fraudulent misrepresentation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan.

(2) No physical loss or damage occurring prior to disbursement of the loan funds will be assumed by CCC.

(h) Redemption of the peanuts under farm storage loan. A producer may, at any time prior to the date on which the peanuts are delivered to or removed by CCC pursuant to paragraph (i) of this section, redeem the peanuts remaining under farm storage loan by paying to the holder of the note and supplemental loan agreement the principal amount thereof, plus charges and accrued interest. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon presentation of evidence of payment, the county office shall arrange for the release of the chattel mortgage. Partial release of the peanuts prior to maturity may be arranged with the county office after making payment to the holder of the note for the quantity of peanuts to be released, plus charges and accrued interest; however, if the quantity of peanuts contained in the bin or crib and covered by the chattel mortgage is greater than the quantity with respect to which the amount of the loan was computed, all or part of such excess may be removed without payment on the loan, but only upon prior approval of the county office.

(i) Settlement of farm storage loans. (1) The producer is required to pay off the loan on or before maturity or to deliver the peanuts in accordance with instructions issued by the county office. If the producer fails to deliver mortgaged peanuts as instructed, he will be responsible for all costs of removal incurred by the holder of the note.

(2) If the peanuts are, or are in danger of, going out of condition, the producer shall notify the county office which shall determine whether the peanuts must be delivered before the maturity date of the loan. If CCC is unable to take delivery within a reasonable length of time, the producer may request and obtain through the county office an inspeetion and grade determination to be made at the expense of CCC. When delivery is completed, settlement shall be made on the basis of such grade or the grade determined at the time of delivery, whichever is higher.

(3) In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the peanuts may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan, upon prior approval by the county office. Peanuts also may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan for other reasons upon authorization by the Executive Vice President, CCC.

(4) Settlement for peanuts delivered to CCC will be made, subject to the provisions of the Producers Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement, at the applicable support price for the type, grade (except as provided above for peanuts going out of condition), and quantity, plus an allowance of four-tenths of a cent ($0.004) per net weight pound delivered, for shrinkage during the storage period of the peanuts delivered and accepted by the county committee: Provided, however, That the settlement value for peanuts delivered to CCC which do not meet the eligibility requirements with respect to moisture, damage or foreign material shall be determined at the support price for the grade placed under loan, less the difference, if any, at the time of delivery, between the market price for the grade placed under loan and the market price of the peanuts delivered, as determined by CCC. Delivery of peanuts in bulk will be accepted only from the structure(s) in which the peanuts under loan are stored. In the case of peanuts stored in bags, only the identical bags under loan may be delivered.

§ 446.619 Loans to cooperatives. A cooperative which desires to receive, arrange for storage and handle peanuts for and on behalf of producers who have the right to share in its profits from the handling of such peanuts, may obtain a loan on all eligible peanuts handled on behalf of eligible producers, stored in approved warehouses, and represented by warehouse receipts in a form prescribed by CCC. Such loan will be made pursuant to the terms of the Cooperative Loan Agreement, CCC Peanut Form 27 (1954) between the cooperative and CCC, and shall be evidenced by a blanket note in form prescribed by CCC. The cooperative may receive eligible peanuts from eligible producers who are not members of the cooperative and use such peanuts as loan collateral. Approved storage for peanuts under loan to a cooperative will be warehouses approved pursuant to instructions issued by CCC and operated under contract with the cooperative or with CCC. The names and locations of such warehouses may be obtained from the cooperative or the county office. The cooperative may obtain the loan from an approved leading agency or from CCC. Each producer from whom the cooperative receives peanuts must present his within quota card at the time he delivers the peanuts for storage. For each lot of peanuts received, the cooperative shall make an advance payment to the producer in the amount of the loan value of such peanuts less deductions approved by CCC. At any time on or before maturity, the cooperative may redeem peanuts by repaying the loan with respect to such peanuts, plus interest and charges, or the cooperative may request that peanuts be released on a trust receipt pursuant to the terms of the Cooperative Loan Agreement. The cooperative shall distribute to the producers from whom it receives peanuts all proceeds from the handling of such peanuts under loan, less operating expenses, unless other disposition of such proceeds is approved by CCC.

Issued this 22d day of September 1954.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53593]

PART 8—LIABILITY FOR DUTIES; ENTRY OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON CERTIFIED OR COMMERCIAL INVOICES OF CERTAIN COAL-TAR PRODUCTS

On March 13, 1954, notice was given in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 1423) that, pursuant to paragraph 28 (f), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1001, paragraph 28 (f)), the Bureau of Customs was considering amending § 8.13 (h) of the Customs Regulations and Treasury Decision 39744 (44 T. D. 41), with reference to the information required to be furnished on invoices covering importations of any coal-tar color, dye, stain, color acid, color base, color lake, leuco compound, indoxyl, or indoxyl compound.

In response to this notice, numerous representations were received that the proposed regulations were unreasonable in certain respects. These representations, in substance, objected to the mandatory requirement for the scientific name or the common name of the intermediate or intermediates used in the final stages of production of the finished product because such specific information would disclose, in certain cases, trade secrets and manufacturing processes. Accordingly, the matter was given further consideration which included the requiring of more complete information on the chemical classification than was proposed and the requiring of color cards. It is believed that, under current conditions, the additional required information will form an adequate substitute for the scientific name of the intermediates.

In order to facilitate the comparison of certain imported coal-tar products with similar domestic products to determine their competitive status under the provisions of paragraph 28 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, customs invoices for such products shall contain, in addition to all other information required by law or regulation, the data described in Schedule A.

SCHEDULE A

COAL-TAR COLORS, DYES, STAINS, COLOR ACIDS, COLOR BASES, COLOR LAKES, LEUCO AND INDOXYL COMPOUNDS

1. Invoice name of product _____
2. Trade name of product _____
3. Name of manufacturer _____
4. Name(s) under which sold in country of production _____
5. Name(s) of comparable American made product with name of U. S. manufacturer (if none or unknown, so state)
6. Percentage of active ingredient _____
7. Schultz number (if none, so state) _____
8. Colour index number (if none, so state) _
9. U. S. standard number (if none, so state)

If no number is inserted in Items 7, 8, or 9, the following additional information must be submitted:

10. Foreign prototype number (if none or unknown, so state) _____
11. Method of application (state whether acid, basic, direct, direct and developed, mordant, mordant acid, neutral, oil, oil and spirit, printing, spirit soluble, vat (soluble), vat (insoluble), or other (describe); and state nature of pre-treatment or after-treatment, if any) _____
12. Material to which applied (name the material or materials for which the color or dye is primarily designed).
    A. Fibrous Materials:
    (1) Natural: Cotton; Silk; Wool; Hemp; Flax (Linen); Jute; Ramie; Straw and Grass; Sisal; Other Animal or Vegetable Fibers.
    (2) Synthetic (including regenerated and modified cellulose): Acetate (Celanese, Acele, Koda); Rayon-Cuprammonium (Bemberg, Matesa); Viscose (Avisco, Delray); Polyamide (Nylon, Perlon); Acrylic (Dynel, Acrilan, Orlon); Vinylidene Chloride (Saran, Velon); Polyethylene (Wynene, Reevon); Polyester (Dacron, Terylene); Protein (Azlon, Lanital, Aralac); Glass; Other
    B. Non-Fibrous Materials:
    Plastics; Leather; Paper; Cellophane; Photographic sensitizers, desensitizers, light filters and tinting film; Foodstuffs; Biological materials; Solutions, Analytical; Oils, fats, and waxes; Soap; Gasoline; Paints, lacquers, stains, and inks; Smoke (signals); Aluminum; Earthenware; Other.
13. Chemical Classification: Acridine; Aminoketone; Anthraquinone; Azine; Azo, mono-; Azo, dis-; Azo, tris-; Azo, tetrakis-; Azo, poly-; Azo, metal complex; Azo, pigment; Azoic; Color acid; Color base; Color lake; Cyanine; Esters of leuco indigoid; Esters of leuco thioindigoid; Esters of leuco anthraquinone; Fluorescent; Hydroxyketone; Indamine; Indigoid; Indoaniline; Indophenol; Indoxyl; Indoxyl Compound; Ketol; Ketonimine; Lactone; Leuco Compound; Methane, diphenylnaphthyl-; Methane, triphenyl-; Methine, aza-; Methine, poly-; Nitro; Nitroso; Oxazine; Phthalocyanine; Quinoline; Quinonoid; Sulfur or sulfide; Thiazine; Thiazole; Thioindigoid; Xanthene; Other.
    A. Describe the class or classes and subclass to which the product belongs.
    Example (1):
    Monoazo.
    Gamma-acid coupling.
    Example (2):
    Xanthen—Basic.
    Oxy-carboxy rhodamines.
    B. Give any other information which you consider may be helpful in classifying the product.
    Example (1):
    Insoluble azo dye on the fiber. Mixtures of stabilized diazo amino compounds and coupling components for preparation of the dye on the fiber
    Example (2):
    Anthraquinone—Dispersion type
    Amino-oxy-anthraquinones.
14. If the product consists of a mixture of two or more active ingredients, the information required by the preceding numbered paragraphs shall be given for each active ingredient in the mixture, together with the proportion of each active ingredient in the mixture.
15. There shall be attached to the above specifications a color pattern or card showing typical small specimens of the material to which the color or dye has been applied with an indication of the strength and the method of application.

The information shall be furnished on separate sheets of paper, presenting it in the order and approximate position set forth in Schedule A. The information required by this regulation shall be given for shipments of any product covered by this regulation. However, for second and successive shipments to the same port of identical merchandise of the same name and strength, this data need not be supplied, a reference to the date of first shipment being sufficient. One copy of all the data specified in Schedule A, except the color card, shall be attached to each copy of the invoice. In addition to the number of copies otherwise required, one copy of the invoice with the attached data and the color card shall be furnished with the entry for the use of the customs laboratory.

T. D.'s 39566 and 39744 are hereby superseded. Section 8.13 of the Customs Regulations is hereby amended by substituting the number of this Treasury decision for the numbers of the three decisions now appearing opposite "Dyes, colors, stains, color acids, color bases, color lakes, leuco-compounds, indoxyl, and indoxyl compounds" in paragraph (h) and by amending the citation of authority to read: "(Secs. 1 (pars. 28 (f), 602), 481, 484, 46 Stat. 595, as amended, 631, 719, 722, as amended; 19 U. S. C. 1001 (pars. 28 (f), 602), 1481, 1484)".

In order to provide sufficient time to comply with these requirements, this amendment shall not become effective until 90 days after publication in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

(Sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 19 U. S. C. 1624.)

[SEAL] RALPH KELLY,
Commissioner of Customs.

Approved: September 20, 1954.

PART 14—APPRAISEMENT

COAL TAR PRODUCTS

It has become necessary to establish a central reference file of samples of coal-tar products produced by domestic manufacturers, together with accompanying technical data, to enable customs officers to compare each imported coal-tar product with any comparable domestic product in order to ascertain its competitive tariff status. Heretofore, samples submitted informally by certain domestic manufacturers were not accompanied by adequate technical data for classification purposes and this has resulted in delay and difficulty in comparing them with imported products.

In order to facilitate the comparison of imported and domestic coal-tar products with respect to the competitive provisions of paragraph 28 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, § 14.5 of the Customs Regulations is hereby amended by adding thereto new paragraphs (n) and (o) as follows:

§ 14.5 Coal-tar products. • • •

(n) The Chief Chemist, Customs Laboratory, 201 Varick Street, New York, is hereby authorized to receive from domestic manufacturers samples of those coal-tar products they produce and offer and which are more specifically described as a coal-tar color, dye, stain, color acid, color base, color lake, leuco-compound, or indoxyl or indoxyl compound. Each sample so received shall be accompanied by specifications setting forth all the information called for by Schedule A below. It is essential that the specifications accompanying the sample be set forth in the order and manner specified because the information will be used for comparison with similar data required on importations of foreign coal-tar products. The samples and specifications shall be examined and appropriately filed by the chief chemist. Samples and specifications shall be removed from, replaced, or added to the file as may be necessary. Information in respect of the specifications shall be treated as confidential, except for the purpose for which they are submitted (see § 26.4 (a) of this chapter).

SCHEDULE A

COAL-TAR COLORS, DYES, STAINS, COLOR ACIDS, COLOR, BASES, COLOR LAKES, LEUCO AND INDOXYL COMPOUNDS

1. Invoice name of product _____
2. Trade name of product _____
3. Name of manufacturer _____
4. List other U. S. manufacturers and names under which sold, if known _____
5. List foreign manufacturers and names under which sold, if known _____
6. Percentage of active ingredient _____
7. Schultz number (if none, so state) ____
8. Colour index number (if none, so state) _
9. U. S. standard number (if none, so state)
10. Foreign prototype number (if none or unknown, so state) _____
11. Method of application (state whether acid, basic, direct, direct and developed, mordant, mordant acid, neutral, oil, oil and spirit, printing, spirit soluble, vat (soluble), vat (insoluble), or other (describe); and state nature of pre-treatment or after-treatment, if any) _____
12. Material to which applied (name the material or materials for which the color or dye is primarily designed).
    A. Fibrous Materials:
    (1) Natural: Cotton; Silk; Wool; Hemp; Flax (Linen); Jute; Ramie; Straw and Grass; Sisal; Other Animal or Vegetable Fibers.
    (2) Synthetic (including regenerated and modified cellulose): Acetate (Celanese, Acele, Koda); Rayon-Cuprammonium (Bemberg, Matesa); Viscose (Avisco, Delray); Polyamide (Nylon, Perlon); Acrylic (Dynel, Acrilan, Orlon); Vinylidene Chloride (Saran, Velon); Polyethylene (Wynene, Reevon); Polyester (Dacron, Terylene); Protein (Azlon, Lanital, Aralac); Glass; Other.
    B. Non-Fibrous Materials:
    Plastics; Leather; Paper; Cellophane; Photographic sensitizers, desensitizers, light filters and tinting film; Foodstuffs; Biological materials; Solutions, analytical; Oils, fats, and waxes; Soap; Gasoline; Paints, lacquers, stains, and inks; Smoke (signals); Aluminum; Earthenware; Other.
13. Chemical Classification: Acridine; Aminoketone; Anthraquinone; Azine; Azo, mono-; Azo, dis-; Azo, tris-; Azo, tetrakis-; Azo, poly-; Azo, metal complex; Azo, pigment; Azoic; Color acid; Color base; Color lake; Cyanine; Esters of leuco indigoid; Esters of leuco thioindigoid; Esters of leuco anthraquinone; Fluorescent; Hydroxyketone; Indamine; Indigoid; Indoaniline; Indophenol; Indoxyl; Indoxyl Compound; Ketol; Ketonimine; Lactone; Leuco Compound; Methane, diphenylnaphthyl-; Methane, triphenyl-; Methine, aza-; Methine, poly-; Nitro; Nitroso; Oxazine; Phthalocyanine; Quinoline; Quinonoid; Sulfur or sulfide; Thiazine; Thiazole; Thioindigoid; Xanthene; Other
    A. Describe the class or classes and subclass to which the product belongs.
    Example (1):
    Monoazo.
    Gamma-acid coupling.
    Example (2):
    Xanthen—Basic.
    Oxy-carboxy rhodamines.
    B. Give any other information which you consider may be helpful in classifying the product.
    Example (1):
    Insoluble azo dye on the fiber. Mixtures of stabilized diazo amino compounds and coupling components for preparation of the dye on the fiber.
    Example (2):
    Anthraquinone—Disperson type.
    Amino-oxy-anthraquinones.
14. If the product consists of a mixture of two or more active ingredients, the information required by the preceding numbered paragraphs shall be given for each active ingredient in the mixture, together with the proportion of each active ingredient in the mixture.
15. There shall be attached to the above specifications a color pattern or card showing typical small specimens of the material to which the color or dye has been applied with an indication of the strength and the method of application.

(o) Whenever a sample taken from an imported coal-tar product referred to in § 8.13 (h) of this chapter, is received in the customs laboratory for test to determine its comparability with any domestic coal-tar product, the file of domestic samples and specifications referred to in paragraph (n) of this section shall be searched. If after searching the file and making any necessary tests, no comparable domestic product is found, the chief chemist shall prepare and submit his laboratory report accordingly.

To allow sufficient time to put in effect the procedure prescribed in paragraph (o), it shall not become effective until 9 days after publication of this document in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

PART 19—CUSTOMS WAREHOUSES AND CONTROL OF MERCHANDISE THEREIN

INSPECTION STAMPS FOR CIGARS MANUFACTURED IN CUSTOMS BONDED MANUFACTURING WAREHOUSES

As the cost of printing the small-sized (4" x 1½") customs inspection stamp required to be affixed to boxes containing cigars manufactured in bonded warehouses has increased, it is necessary to increase the sales price of such stamp from $1.25 to $1.35 per thousand. Accordingly, the second sentence of § 19.16 (e), Customs Regulations, is amended to read as follows:

§ 19.16 Cigar manufacturing warehouses. * * *

(e) * * *. "These stamps shall be sold to manufacturers by collectors of customs at the following prices: $1.35 per thousand for the small stamp, 4" x 1½" in size, and $1.50 per thousand for the large stamp, 8" x 1½" in size."

(Sec. 311, 46 Stat. 691, as amended; 19 U. S. C. 1311)

This amendment shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] RALPH KELLY,
Commissioner of Customs.

Approved: September 22, 1954.

TITLE 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS

Chapter I—Bureau of Employees' Compensation, Department of Labor

EXTENSION OF LONGSHOREMEN'S AND HARBOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT TO PERSONS EMPLOYED IN CERTAIN OPERATIONS ON OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF

In order to implement the extension of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1424, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 901 et seq.) to cases of disability or death of employees in certain operations conducted on the outer Continental Shelf as provided by section 4 (c) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462, 43 U. S. C. Supp 1, 1331 et seq.) it is necessary to supplement the regulations issued under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act.

Accordingly, by virtue of the authority vested in me as the Director, Bureau of Employees' Compensation, Department of Labor by General Order No. 46 (15 F. R. 3290) and Reorganization Plan No. 19 of 1950 (15 F. R. 3178, 39 Stat. 742) and pursuant to section 39 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1442; 33 U. S. C. 939) as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462; 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1331) and in accordance with the Notice of Proposed Rule Making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated August 5, 1954 (19 F. R. 4906), it is hereby ordered:

Part 01 of Subchapter A of this chapter is hereby amended by adding a new Subpart H as follows:

SUBPART H—OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF LANDS ACT

Sec.
01.71 Processing of claims.
01.72 Review of decisions.
01.73 Forms.

AUTHORITY: §§ 01.71 to 01.73 issued under sec. 39, 44 Stat. 1442, 67 Stat. 462; 33 U. S. C. 939, 43 U. S. C. 1331.

§ 01.71 Processing of claims. The processing of claims of employees for compensation benefits arising under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as amended (44 Stat. 1442, 33 U. S. C. 901, et seq.), as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462, 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1331 et seq.), is governed by § 01.11 of Subpart B of this subchapter.

§ 01.72 Review of decisions. Except as herein modified, review of compensation cases arising under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, is governed by § 01.12 of Subpart B of this subchapter. Application for judicial review of a decision in a compensation case arising under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, is required to be instituted in the judicial district in which any defendant resides or may be found or in the judicial district of the adjacent State nearest the place where the injury or injury causing death occurred.

§ 01.73 Forms. The same forms prescribed for use in connection with the administration of the Longshoremen's Act are used in the administration of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, except that they are modified by a stamped or typed legend to indicate that they relate to the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act.

A new Subchapter H is added to this chapter as follows:

Subchapter H—Extension of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act to Person Employed in Certain Operations Conducted on the Outer Continental Shelf

PART 81—GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Sec.
81.1 General administrative provisions; definitions; interpretation of statute.
81.2 Establishment of compensation districts.

AUTHORITY: §§ 81.1 and 81.2 issued under sec. 39, 44 Stat. 1442, as amended, 67 Stat. 462-470; 33 U. S. C. 939, 43 U. S. C. 1331-1343. Statutory provisions interpreted or applied are cited to text.

§ 81.1 General administrative provisions; definitions; interpretation of statute—(a) General. Section 4 (c) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 463; 43 U. S. C. 1333) extends the provisions of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1424, as amended; 33 U. S. C. 901, et seq.), the latter hereinafter in this subchapter referred to as "the Longshoremen's Act", to cases of disability or death of employees resulting from certain operations conducted on the outer Continental Shelf. The regulations in Subchapter C of this chapter governing the administration of the Longshoremen's Act, insofar as they are applicable and are not inconsistent with any of the provisions of this subchapter, shall govern the administration of the Longshoremen's Act as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act. Every person subject to, claiming benefits under, or acting under the Longshoremen's Act as thus extended shall conform to the procedure prescribed in the Longshoremen's Act, in the regulations in Subchapter C and in this subchapter. The term "Bureau" as used in this subchapter means the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, Department of Labor. The Bureau of Employees' Compensation was transferred from the Federal Security Agency to the Department of Labor by Reorganization Plan No. 19 of 1950 (15 F. R. 3178, 39 Stat. 742) effective May 24, 1950. The Bureau of Employees' Compensation, when formerly in the Federal Security Agency, had been established to perform the functions theretofore performed by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission, which was abolished and its functions transferred to the Federal Security Agency by Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1946 (11 F.R. 7873, 60 Stat. 1096) effective July 16, 1946.

(b) Coverage. The Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act applies in respect to the disability or death of an employee resulting from any injury occurring as a result of operations conducted on the outer Continental Shelf for the purpose of exploring for, developing, removing or transporting by pipeline the natural resources of the subsoil and seabed of the outer Continental Shelf.

(c) Definitions and interpretation of statute. Except as expressly modified in this subchapter, terms used in the regulations promulgated in this subchapter shall be construed and applied as defined in section 2 of the Longshoremen's Act (44 Stat. 1424, 33 U. S. C. 902).

(1) The term "outer Continental Shelf" means all submerged lands lying seaward and outside of the area of "lands beneath navigable waters" (as hereinafter defined) and of which the sub-soil and seabed appertain to the United States and are subject to its jurisdiction and control, and includes artificial islands and fixed structures thereon. "Lands beneath navigable waters" means (i) all lands within the boundaries of each of the respective States which are covered by nontidal waters that were navigable under the laws of the United States at the time such State became a member of the Union, or acquired sovereignty over such lands and waters thereafter, up to the ordinary high water mark as heretofore or hereafter modified by accretion, erosion, and reliction; (ii) all lands permanently or periodically covered by tidal waters up to but not above the line of mean high tide and seaward to a line three geographical miles distant from the coast line of each such State and to the boundary line of each such State where in any case such boundary as it existed at the time such State became a member of the Union, or as approved by Congress (prior to May 22, 1953), extends seaward (or into the Gulf of Mexico) beyond three geographical miles; and (iii) all filled in, made, or reclaimed lands which formerly were lands beneath navigable waters as hereinbefore defined. The term "boundaries" includes the seaward boundaries of a State or its boundaries in the Gulf of Mexico or any of the Great Lakes as they existed at the time such State became a member of the Union; or as to any State admitted subsequent to the formation of the Union which has not already done so its seaward boundary extended to a line three geographical miles distant from its coast line or to the international boundaries of the United States in the Great Lakes or any other body of water traversed by such boundaries. In no event shall the term "boundaries" or the term "lands beneath navigable waters" be interpreted as extending from the coast line more than three geographical miles into the Atlantic Ocean or the Pacific Ocean, or more than three marine leagues (a marine league equals 3 nautical miles) into the Gulf of Mexico. The term "coast line" means the line of ordinary low water along that portion of the coast which is in direct contact with the open sea and the line marking the seaward limit of inland waters.

(2) The term "employee" does not include a master or member of a crew of any vessel, or an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof or of any state or foreign government, or of any political subdivision thereof.

(3) The term "employer" means an employer any of whose employees are employed in operations described in paragraph (b) of this section.

(4) The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes the outer Continental Shelf and artificial islands and fixed structures thereon.

(5) The term "State" means any State of the Union.

§ 81.2 Establishment of compensation districts. (a) Pursuant to the provisions of section 39 (b) of the Longshoremen's Act, the Bureau hereby establishes the following compensation districts and extends for the purposes of this subchapter the following existing compensation districts and their areas established under § 31.2 of Subchapter C of this chapter:

District No. 1. In addition to the States named, includes the parts of the outer Continental Shelf adjacent to any of those States, with headquarters at Boston, Massachusetts.

District No. 2. In addition to the area described, includes the parts of the outer Continental Shelf adjacent to the States of New York and New Jersey, with headquarters at New York, New York.

District No. 5. In addition to the area described, includes the parts of the outer Continental Shelf adjacent to the States of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, with headquarters at Norfolk, Virginia.

District No. 6. In addition to the States named, includes the parts of the outer Continental Shelf adjacent to said States, with headquarters at Jacksonville, Florida.

District No. 7. In addition to the area described, includes the parts of the outer Continental Shelf adjacent to the States of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, with headquarters at New Orleans, Louisiana.

District No. 8. In addition to the area described, includes the part of the outer Continental Shelf adjacent to the State of Texas, with headquarters at Galveston, Texas.

District No. 13. In addition to the area described, includes the part of the outer Continental Shelf adjacent to the State of California, with headquarters at San Francisco, California.

District No. 14. In addition to the area described, includes the part of the outer Continental Shelf north of the northernmost California boundary and adjacent to the United States, with headquarters at Seattle, Washington.

PART 82—AUTHORIZATION OF INSURANCE CARRIERS

Sec.
82.1 Insurance carriers covering outer Continental Shelf operations.
82.2 Applicants currently authorized to write insurance under other Federal workmen's compensation laws.
82.3 Outer Continental Shelf endorsement.
82.4 Report by carrier of issuance of policy or endorsement; form.
82.5 Report; by whom sent.
82.6 Agreement to be bound by card report.
82.7 Report by employer operating temporarily in another compensation district.
82.8 Name of one employer only shall be reported on one card.

AUTHORITY: §§ 82.1 to 82.8 issued under sec. 39, 44 Stat. 1442, as amended, 67 Stat. 462-470; 33 U. S. C. 939, 43 U. S. C. 1331-1343.

§ 82.1 Insurance carriers covering outer Continental Shelf. Except as modified by the provisions of this subchapter, the provisions of the regulations in Part 32, Subchapter C of this chapter, shall govern insurance carriers under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act to injury or death cases arising out of certain operations on the outer Continental Shelf (67 Stat. 462, 43 U. S. C. 1331).

§ 82.2 Applicants currently authorized to write insurance under other Federal Workmen's Compensation laws. Any applicant currently authorized by the Bureau to write insurance under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1424, 33 U. S. C. 901 et seq.), or under the District of Columbia Workmen's Compensation law (45 Stat. 600, 19 D. C. Code 11, 12), or under the Defense Bases Act (55 Stat. 622, 42 U. S. C. 1651), need not support its application with the evidence required by the regulations in Part 32, Subchapter C of this chapter, except the form of policy and endorsement which it proposes to use, unless specifically requested by the Bureau, but instead its application may refer to the fact that it has been so authorized.

§ 82.3 Outer Continental Shelf endorsement. (a) The following form of endorsement applicable to the standard workmen's compensation and employer's liability policy shall be used with the form of policy approved by the Bureau for use by an authorized carrier:

For Attachment to Policy No. ----------

The obligations of paragraph one (a) of the Policy include the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, being Public Law No. 803 of the 69th Congress, approved March 4, 1927, as extended to death or disability of employees arising out of certain operations on the outer Continental Shelf by the Provisions of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, being Public Law 212 of the 83d Congress, approved August 7, 1953, and all the laws amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto which may be or become effective while this policy is in force.

The Company will carry out the provisions of section 35 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act. Insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer and/or discharge therein shall not relieve the Company from payment of compensation and other benefits lawfully due for disability or death sustained by an employee during the life of the policy.

The Company agrees to abide by all the provisions of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act and all the lawful rules, regulations, orders and decisions of the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, Department of Labor, and of the deputy commissioner having jurisdiction, unless and until set aside, modified or reversed by a court having jurisdiction over the parties and the cause of action.

This endorsement shall not be cancelled prior to the date specified in this policy for its expiration until at least thirty days have elapsed after a notice of cancellation has been sent to the Bureau, to the Deputy Commissioner, and to the within named employer.

All terms, conditions, requirements, and obligations expressed in this policy or in any other endorsement attached thereto which are not inconsistent with or inapplicable to the provisions of this endorsement are hereby made a part of this endorsement as fully and completely as if wholly written herein.

References to the law of any State in Conditions B and D of this policy are hereby declared to include for the purpose of this endorsement only, the provisions of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as amended, and of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act.

(b) The following paragraphs may at the option of the insurer be included in the form of endorsement which is provided in paragraph (a) of this section. No other provision, alteration of any prescribed provision, or alteration of any optional provision shall be made or used in any such endorsement except after submission to the Bureau and receipt of its written approval thereof:

If the within employer is a contractor the subject of whose contract includes operations covered by this policy and he shall sub-contract all or any part of such contract to one or more subcontractors, the remuneration of all the direct employees of such subcontractors shall be included in the return of remuneration under the provisions of this policy upon which premium is computed. Such remuneration so reported shall be considered the remuneration of employees of the within named employer and shall in all instances be governed by the same terms, conditions, requirements, and obligations of the policy as the remuneration of the direct employees of the within named employer. The requirements of this paragraph shall not apply as respects any such subcontractor who has secured compensation for his direct employees as required by the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, but the within named employer shall not claim the benefit of this exemption unless and until he shall satisfy the Company by certificate or otherwise that any such subcontractor has legally secured the payment of compensation to his own direct employees and then only respecting any subcontractor who has furnished such proof.

If the premium as determined in accordance with the provisions of the policy is less than $300, there shall be added thereto an expense constant of $10, unless such addition shall increase the premium to an amount in excess of $300, in which event only such part of the expense constant shall be added as will bring the amount of the premium up to $300. Inclusion of the expense constant or any part thereof in the estimated advance premium is subject to final adjustment upon audit, all in accordance with the provisions hereof. The minimum premium of the policy includes the expense constant.

(c) In applying the regulations in Part 32, Subchapter C of this chapter insofar as they are incorporated in this subchapter all references to the Longshoremen's endorsement shall be construed as having reference to the Outer Continental Shelf endorsement prescribed in this section.

§ 82.4 Report by carrier of issuance of policy or endorsement; form. (a) A carrier which has executed the agreement provided for in § 82.6 shall report to the deputy commissioner assigned to a compensation district each policy and endorsement issued by it to an employer who carries on operations in such compensation district. The report shall be made upon a printed card to be provided by such carrier. Such card shall be 50 percent rag, light green, light weight, 3 by 5 inches. The printing thereon shall be as follows:

Employer _____
Address _____
Policy No. _____
Dates of beginning and expiration _____

Report is made of the issue of approved form of policy and endorsement under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as amended and as extended to the Outer Continental Shelf by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act.

(Name of insurance carrier)
By _____
Cancellation _____
(Effective date)

(Date notice received by deputy)

This card shall be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, U. S. Department of Labor, for the compensation district indicated by the employer's address.

(b) Each such carrier will print its name at the place indicated. The note at the bottom designating the place to which the card shall be sent should be in small type, about 6 point, and if desired this note may be printed on the reverse side of the card. The spaces below the line for the employer's name and the line for his address should each be sufficient to permit two additional lines of typewriting. The word "Employer" should be about ¾ inch from the top of the card. The line for cancellation date will be filled in only by the office of the deputy commissioner.

§ 82.5 Report; by whom sent. The report of issuance of a policy and endorsement provided for in § 82.4 shall be sent by the home office of the carrier to the deputy commissioner at his headquarters, except that any carrier may authorize its agency or agencies in any compensation district to make such reports to the deputy commissioner, provided the carrier shall notify the deputy commissioner in such district of the agent or agencies so duly authorized. The deputy commissioner in turn shall supply to his suboffices, if any, current lists showing the policies so reported, giving the names and addresses of the employers, with the names of their respective carriers, the policy numbers and the dates of beginning and expiration of the policies. Similar current lists of cancellation shall also be furnished to sub-offices.

§ 82.6 Agreements to be bound by card reports. (a) Except as provided in this section, each employer shall present to the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which he has operations, the policy covering his operations in such district, which he has procured in compliance with section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1439; 33 U. S. C. 932) as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462; 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1331). Any carrier desiring to do so may make such presentation of such policy unnecessary in any particular case by transmitting to the Bureau an agreement signed by its president and secretary (or other authorized officers in cases of foreign or mutual companies or State funds), in the following form, and making reports accordingly, of the issuance of a policy in such particular case.

The (insert name of insurance carrier) hereby agrees, in consideration of the acceptance by the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, Department of Labor and its deputy commissioners of reports of issue of approved form of policy and endorsement under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act as amended and as extended to the outer Continental Shelf by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462; 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1331) in the form prescribed by the Bureau in section 82.4 of its regulations, that it will be liable and hereby accepts the full liability expressed in the approved form of endorsement, under said laws in all cases in which it has heretofore and may hereafter use the prescribed form of report to deputy commissioners and transmit the same to the proper deputy commissioner; the sending of such report of issue of policy to the deputy commissioner shall be accepted by the Bureau and its deputy commissioners as conclusive evidence (1) of the issuance of a policy to the employer, named in such report, in approved form and having attached an approved form of endorsement under applicable regulations of the Bureau and (2) of the effectiveness of such policy during the period as stated in such report; and it further agrees that such liability shall not be terminated prior to the expiration of the policy, except in case of cancellation, and then at the time and in the manner which is prescribed in the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, in the regulations of said Bureau, and in the endorsement referred to.

(b) An insurance carrier desiring to withdraw from such agreement may do so upon giving thirty days notice to the Bureau by registered mail.

§ 82.7 Report by employer operating temporarily in another compensation district. Where an employer having operations in one compensation district (or jurisdictional area of such district) contemplates engaging in work subject to the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462; 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1331) in another compensation district, a carrier which has executed the agreement provided for by § 82.6 and desires to report coverage as to work performed in such other district, may submit to the deputy commissioner of such latter district a report on the card form prescribed by § 82.4, containing the address of the employer in the first mentioned district with the additional notation, "No present address in _____ compensation district. Certificate requested when address given."

§ 82.8 Name of one employer only shall be reported on one card. A separate report of the issuance of a policy and endorsement, provided for by § 82.4, shall be made for each employer covered by a policy. If a policy is issued insuring more than one employer, a separate card report for each employer so covered shall be sent to the deputy commissioner concerned, with the name of only one employer on each such report. Unless a card report is received by the deputy commissioner for a compensation district, the deputy commissioner shall regard an employer as an uninsured employer in the particular compensation district (except in cases where such employer is a duly authorized self-insurer, or the employer himself has presented a policy for inspection by the deputy commissioner).

PART 83—AUTHORIZATION OF SELF-INSURERS

Sec.
83.1 Authorization of self-insurers.
83.2 Reports required of self-insurers; examination of accounts of self-insurer.

AUTHORITY: §§ 83.1 and 83.2 issued under sec. 39, 44 Stat. 1442, as amended, 67 Stat. 462–470; 33 U. S. C. 939, 43 U. S. C. 1331–1343. Statutory provisions interpreted or applied are cited to text.

§ 83.1 Authorization of self-insurers. The provisions of the regulations in Part 33, Subchapter C of this chapter, shall govern the authorization of the self-insurance privilege under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1424; 33 U. S. C. 901), as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 462; 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1331). An application shall contain (a) a statement of the amount of the employer's payroll of employees engaged in operations within the purview of section 4 (b) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 463; 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1333) for the preceding twelve months; (b) a statement by classifications of the average number of employees engaged in employments within the purview of said section 4 (b) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act for the preceding twelve months; (c) a statement of the number of injuries to such employees resulting in disability of more than seven days, duration, or in death, during each of three years next preceding the date of the application; (d) an itemized statement of the assets and liabilities of the employer, and current profit and loss statement; (e) a description of the safety organization maintained by the employer for the prevention of injuries at his places of work; (f) a description of the facilities maintained or the arrangements made for the medical and hospital care of injured employees; (g) a statement describing any excess loss insurance or stop-loss insurance arrangement made by the employer, giving the name of the carrier, with full details of any such excess loss coverage; and (h) a statement describing the plan adopted by the employer to set aside a reserve fund for the payment of workmen's compensation benefits (and loss adjustment expenses) under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act. Such application shall be signed by the applicant over his typewritten name and if the applicant is not an individual, by the principal officer of the applicant duly authorized to make such application, over his typewritten name and official designation, and shall be sworn to by him. If the applicant is a corporation, the corporate seal shall be affixed. The application shall be filed with the Bureau. The Bureau in its discretion may require the applicant to submit such further information or such evidence as the Bureau may deem necessary to have in order to enable it to give adequate consideration to such application. The regulations in this part shall be binding upon each applicant hereunder and the applicant's consent to be bound by all requirements of the said regulations shall be deemed to be included in and a part of the application, as fully as though specifically stated in writing therein.

§ 83.2 Reports required of self-insurers; examination of accounts of self-insurer. (a) At such times as the Bureau may require or prescribe, each self-insurer shall submit such of the following reports as may be requested:

(1) A sworn itemized statement of the self-insurer's assets and liabilities (or a balance sheet), and current profit and loss statement.

(2) A sworn statement showing by classifications the payroll of employees of the self-insurer who are engaged in employments within the purview of operations described in section 4 (b) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (67 Stat. 463; 43 U. S. C. Supp. 1, 1333).

(3) A sworn statement of payments of compensation in current cases during any specified quarter, showing the nature of injury in each case.

(4) A sworn statement covering the six months' period preceding the date of such report, listing by compensation districts all death and injury cases which have occurred during such period, together with a report of the status of all outstanding claims, showing the particulars of each case.

(b) Whenever it deems it to be necessary, the Bureau may inspect or examine the books of account, records, and other papers of a self-insurer for the purpose of verifying any financial statement submitted to the Bureau by such self-insurer or verifying any information furnished to the Bureau in any report required by this section, or any other section of the regulations in this subchapter, and such self-insurer shall permit the Bureau by its duly authorized representative to make such an inspection or examination as the Bureau shall require. In lieu of this requirement the Bureau may in its discretion accept an adequate report of a certified public accountant.

PART 84—ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF COMPLIANCE

Sec.
84.1 Issue of certificates of compliance.
84.2 Same; employer operating temporarily in another compensation district.
84.3 Return of certificates of compliance.

AUTHORITY: §§ 84.1 to 84.3 issued under sec. 39, 44 Stat. 1442, as amended, 67 Stat. 462–470; 33 U. S. C. 939, 43 U. S. C. 1331–1343.

§ 84.1 Issue of certificates of compliance. (a) Every employer who has secured the payment of compensation by obtaining a policy of insurance as provided by section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1439; 33 U. S. C. 939) and by Part 82 of the regulations in this subchapter will receive from the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which he has operations (or for the jurisdictional area of such compensation district), and to whom such insurance has been reported, a certificate that such employer has secured the payment of such compensation. Only one such certificate will be issued to an employer in a compensation district, and it will be valid only during the period for which such employer has secured such payment. An employer so desiring may have photostatic copies (or other facsimile copies) of such a certificate made for use in different places within the compensation district of jurisdictional area thereof. A certificate of compliance will be issued by the deputy commissioner to any employer having operations in his district (1) upon receipt by the deputy commissioner and acceptance by him of a card report of the issuance of a policy to the employer concerned, as provided by § 82.4 of this subchapter, by an authorized insurance carrier which has filed an agreement to be bound by such card report in conformity with § 82.6 of this subchapter or (2) upon presentation to the deputy commissioner by the employer concerned (and not by an insurance carrier, insurance agent, or broker) of the applicable policy of insurance, and endorsement thereon, issued to the employer in conformity with Part 82 of this subchapter by an authorized insurance carrier which has not filed the agreement provided for by § 82.6 of this subchapter.

(b) Every employer who has been granted the privilege of self-insurance as provided by section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act and by Part 83 of this subchapter will receive from the deputy commissioner a certificate that he has complied with the said law with respect to the securing of the payment of compensation. Only one such certificate will be issued to an employer by a deputy commissioner in a compensation district and it will be valid only during the period stated in such certificate. An employer so desiring may have made photostatic copies (or other facsimile copies) of such certificate for use in different places within the compensation district or jurisdictional area thereof.

(c) Two forms of such certificates of compliance have been provided by the Bureau, one form for use where the employer has obtained insurance generally under the regulations in this subchapter and one for use where the employer has been authorized as a self-insurer.

§ 84.2 Same; employer operating temporarily in another compensation district. A deputy commissioner receiving a card report of the issue of a policy of insurance, with the notation authorized by § 82.7 of this subchapter will file such card report until he receives from the insured employer named therein a request for a certificate of compliance, giving the address of the employer within the compensation district of such deputy commissioner. Upon receipt of such a request the deputy commissioner will send the proper certificate of compliance to such employer at such address.

§ 84.3 Return of certificates of compliance. Upon the termination by expiration, cancellation or otherwise, of a policy of insurance issued under the provisions of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as amended, as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, and the regulations under this subchapter, or the revocation or termination of the privilege of self-insurance granted by the Bureau, all certificates of compliance issued on the basis of such insurance or self-insurance shall be void and shall be returned by the employer to the deputy commissioner issuing them with a statement of the reason for such return. An employer, currently holding a certificate of compliance under an insurance policy which has expired, pending the renewal of such insurance, need not return such certificate of compliance if such expired insurance is promptly replaced. An employer who has secured renewal under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act as extended by the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act or whose self-insurance thereunder is reauthorized without a break in the continuity thereof need not return to the Bureau an expired certificate of compliance.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of September 1954.

WILLIAM MCCAULEY,
Director,
Bureau of Employees' Compensation.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW TITLE

EDITORIAL NOTE: The enactment of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 makes it desirable to establish a new title in the Code of Federal Regulations to be designated "Title 26—Internal Revenue, 1954." The new title will contain those administrative rules and regulations, general and permanent in nature, which are effective as to all matters to which the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is applicable. The new title does not supersede the present "Title 26—Internal Revenue" as to those facts or circumstances to which the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 are applicable.

The new Title 26 should be cited as "26 CFR". Thus, the approved abbreviated citation of § 1.213 in Title 26 (relating to medical, dental, etc., expenses), would be "26 CFR 1.213." If reference is made to regulations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, that date should be shown in the reference. Thus, in referring to Part 29 of the former Title 26 (Treasury Regulations 111, relating to income taxes for taxable years beginning after 1941 and before 1952), the reference should be to "26 CFR (1939) Part 29".

The present plans of the Internal Revenue Service generally call for issuance of new regulations (such as regulations relating to income taxes, estate tax, gift taxes, wine, etc.), each of which will be designated as a particular part of the new title. It may be necessary in some cases, however, to issue portions of the regulations as Treasury decisions as soon as these portions are developed prior to issuing the complete regulations on that subject in one document. For example, according to present plans for issuing new regulations relating to income tax, approximately 60 separate Treasury decisions will be involved. These separate Treasury decisions will be brought together at a later date and named the Income Tax Regulations (1954 ed.), and will appear as Part 1 of the new Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The name and appropriate CFR citation will be used as the official designation. The Internal Revenue Service does not expect to assign a separate Internal Revenue Service number (such as Regulations 111 or Regulations 118) to regulations which will be issued under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

The pattern and range of part numbers for the new Title 26 are shown by the following table:

TABLE OF CONTENTS—NEW CFR TITLE 26, 1954

Title 26—Internal Revenue, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income Tax (Parts 1–19)

Subchapter B—Estate and Gift Taxes (Parts 20–29)

Subchapter C—Employment Taxes (Parts 30–39)

Subchapter D—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes (Parts 40–169)

Subchapter E—Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Excise Taxes (Parts 170–299)

Subchapter F—Procedure and Administration (Parts 300–499)

Subchapter G—Regulations under Tax Conventions (Parts 500–599)

NOTE: For notice of proposed rule making concerning "Income tax: Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953; depreciation", see F. R. Doc. 54-7600, infra. When adopted this rule will be carried in the Code of Federal Regulations under "Title 26—Internal Revenue, 1954" within Part 1.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XIV—The Renegotiation Board

Subchapter B—Renegotiation Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1459—COSTS ALLOCABLE TO AND ALLOWABLE AGAINST RENEGOTIABLE BUSINESS

INVOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION OF INVENTORY

This part is amended by deleting subparagraph (8) Replacement of inventory involuntarily liquidated of § 1459.1 (b) in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 1459.1 Statutory provisions and general regulations—• • •

(b) Profit, cost allocation and allowance; general—• • •

(8) Replacement of inventory involuntarily liquidated. Under section 22 (d) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code, a taxpayer using the last in, first out inventory method may, for any year in which it involuntarily liquidated any part of its base stock inventory, elect to adjust retroactively its net income for tax purposes for such year by reference to the costs of replacing in a subsequent year the inventory so involuntarily liquidated. The excess of such replacement costs over base stock costs is neither an exclusion nor a deduction under the Internal Revenue Code, but merely a retroactive adjustment of net income. For purposes of renegotiation, there will be allowed as a cost and allocated between renegotiable and non-renegotiable business according to the principles set forth in this paragraph the base stock costs and the excess of replacement costs, or of the estimated replacement value in the fiscal year in which the involuntary liquidation occurred, over the base stock costs. Similarly, the cost of renegotiable business will be reduced, to the extent allocable thereto, by any excess of base stock costs over replacement costs, or over the estimated replacement value in the fiscal year in which the involuntary liquidation occurred. Such cost allowance or reduction will be made whether or not the use of the base stock inventory constitutes involuntary liquidation under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and even though such inventory is not actually replaced until a subsequent year.

AUTHORITY: §§ 21.1 to 21.31 issued under sec. 3, 39 Stat. 535; 16 U.S.C. 3. Interpret or apply 20 Stat. 258; sec. 3, 26 Stat. 843; sec. 1, 41 Stat. 918; 16 U.S.C. 361, 363, 369.

§ 21.1 Definitions. When used in the regulations in this part:

(a) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior or his duly authorized representative.

(b) The term "Director" means the Director of the National Park Service and the Regional Director, Region Three.

(c) The term "Superintendent" means the Superintendent of Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas.

(d) The term "concessioner" means any individual, trustee, partnership, corporation, or other business entity operating a bathhouse receiving water from Hot Springs National Park under lease or contract authorization by the Secretary.

(e) The term "physician" means a physician or surgeon, or any person publicly professing to cure or heal.

(f) The term "registered physician" means a physician registered at the office of the Superintendent as authorized to prescribe the waters of Hot Springs National Park.

(g) The term "technician" means any person certified and licensed by the Superintendent to perform special duties pertaining to services rendered in the bathhouses.

(h) The term "employee" means any employee of a bathhouse concessioner whose duties include any part of the operation of a bathhouse or rendering bathing or special services to the public, and includes technicians.

§ 21.2 Use and waste of water. The use of the hot mineral waters of Hot Springs National Park for other than bathing or other therapeutic purposes, or the wasting thereof, is prohibited.

§ 21.3 Transfers of stock or interest in bathhouses. All proposed transfers of stock in bathhouses receiving hot water from Hot Springs National Park must receive approval, in writing of the Director, before the transfer is consummated. Transfers of stock or interest in bathhouses will not be valid unless approved in this manner.

§ 21.4 Federal Registration Board, officers. (a) An advisory and examining board, designated as "The Hot Springs National Park Federal Registration Board," shall be appointed by the Secretary. The board shall consist of six members, four of whom shall be members of the Garland County Hot Springs Medical Society, one the Commanding Officer of the Army and Navy General Hospital, and one the Superintendent of Hot Springs National Park. The Superintendent shall act as secretary of the board. The functions of the board shall be to advise the Superintendent concerning the use of the waters of Hot Springs National Park and to examine and approve, in proper cases, applicants for registration.

(b) There shall be a president elected by the board, who shall serve one year and until his successor is elected and qualified. Such election shall be at the annual meeting, which shall be the first meeting of the board after the personnel thereof for the ensuing year has been determined by the Secretary of the Interior. Should a vacancy occur in the office of the president by death, resignation, or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled by the board at its first regular meeting next succeeding the date the vacancy occurs, or at a special meeting of the board called for that purpose.

§ 21.5 Quorum. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, with full authority to transact any and all business that may come before the board.

§ 21.6 Meetings. (a) Regular bimonthly meetings shall be established by the board and special meetings may be held as the president of the board deems necessary, prior notice thereof having been duly announced: Provided, however, That the president may waive regular meetings when no appropriate business exists for consideration by the board.

(b) All routine business shall be filed with the secretary of the board at least 24 hours before the designated meeting time. Matters for consideration not filed as indicated above for the meeting will be held for consideration at the next regular or special meeting.

(c) The order for the transaction of business before the board shall be as follows:

(1) Reading and approval of the minutes of the preceding meeting.

(2) Consideration of unfinished business.

(3) Consideration of new business.

(4) Consideration of applicants for registration.

(5) Miscellaneous business.

§ 21.7 Minutes. Minutes of all business transacted by the board shall be reduced to writing and be copied in a record provided for the purpose, and at the next regular or special meeting, the minutes of the previous meeting shall be read and approved, with such corrections, if any, as the board may consider proper to make.

§ 21.8 Examinations. Examinations of applicants for registration shall be held quarterly on a date to be fixed by the board. Any registered physician hereafter dropped from the list of registered physicians will not be restored until after he successfully passes the regular examination prescribed by the board for original registration, nor shall any such physician be eligible for examination for a period of five years from the date on which his name was dropped from the registered list: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, authorize the examination of such physician at any time after one year from said date.

§ 21.9 Fees. Applicants for examination, preliminary to registration, will be required to pay the sum of $10 to the Superintendent as an examination fee prior to admittance to examination. Persons having complied with the requirements for registration will be required to pay the sum of $15 to the Superintendent as a registration fee prior to their names being placed on the list of registered physicians. The fees prescribed by this section are payable in advance in the form of postal money order or certified or cashier's check in net amount of the fee, drawn to the order of the Treasurer of the United States, or in legal tender, and are not subject to refund, either in whole or in part.

§ 21.10 Registration of physicians. Physicians desiring to prescribe the waters of the hot springs, either internally or through the medium of baths, must first be registered at the office of the Superintendent, and shall use only such uniform form of bathing directions as meets with the approval of the Superintendent. Registration will be accorded only to such physicians as are found to have proper professional qualifications and character. No physician who shall be convicted of any offense involving moral turpitude against the laws of the United States or any State, or who shall violate any regulation of the Arkansas State Board of Health, or who shall engage in unprofessional, disreputable, or dishonest conduct, or who is addicted to the drug or other habit which disqualifies him for the performance of his professional duties, shall be or remain registered.

§ 21.11 Removal from register. If a charge is made to the Superintendent in writing, under oath, supported by the affidavits of two or more reputable witnesses, that a registered physician has violated any of the laws or regulations pertaining to the government of the bathhouses receiving hot water from said Park, such registered physician shall be immediately notified by the Superintendent of the fact that affidavits have been made against him and, in the presence of the Superintendent, be accorded an opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses on the subject thereof; and if in the judgment of the Superintendent the facts warrant such action, he will cite such registered physician to appear before him on a day to be named within not exceeding 5 days from the date of notice to show cause why his name should not be stricken from the register of physicians authorized to prescribe the waters of said springs; and pending the investigation and final action upon the charges, the right of such registered physician to prescribe the hot waters may be suspended by the Secretary of the Interior. The registered physician, against whom such complaint is made, shall have the right to cross-examine said affiants and any witnesses who may appear before the Superintendent, or to file written interrogatories pertinent to the issue, addressed to such complainants or witnesses, to be answered by them under oath, and may submit within 5 days thereafter counter-affidavits in answer to the charges made in the affidavits of the witnesses. The complainants or witnesses may file rebuttal affidavits within 5 days after service upon them of said counter-affidavits. The hearing of said charges shall be had on the record as so made, and the recommendation of the Superintendent in the premises forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior through the Federal Registration Board, which board, after reviewing the record and the recommendation of the Superintendent, shall thereafter promptly submit its findings as a board of review, together with such supplemental recommendations as to it may appear proper, to the Secretary of the Interior.

§ 21.12 Removal from register; appeal. An appeal from the recommendation of the Superintendent upon said record may be taken to the Secretary of the Interior within 5 days from the date of service by the Superintendent of a copy of his recommendation on the accused. If upon consideration of the complaint the charge is not sustained by the Secretary, the accused will be advised at once and the charges dismissed. If, however, such charge is sustained, the name of the registered physician shall be stricken from the registered list.

§ 21.13 Applicants. The following rules shall govern applicants for registration:

(a) To be entitled to registration, applicants must be citizens of the United States of America and be graduates of a reputable medical school or of a reputable school of osteopathy, and must have complied with the laws of the State of Arkansas relating to the admission of physicians to the practice of medicine and surgery, or either, within said State.

(b) Applicants will be required to furnish, in writing, such evidence as the board may desire, touching their personal history and moral character and standing during the 5 years next preceding the date of their applications, such evidence to be placed in the hands of the secretary of the board not later than 10 days prior to the regular date for examination of applicants. Applicants will also be required to submit to such examination as the board may consider proper, concerning their knowledge of medicine and surgery and their qualifications to prescribe the hot waters.

(c) Physicians who have successfully passed the examination of the National Board of Medical Examiners shall not be required to submit to an examination by the Federal Registration Board: Provided, That the board shall be assured through examination of the candidate or through evidence acceptable to the board that the candidate has a suitable knowledge and ability in the use of hydrotherapy: And further provided, That his moral and ethical qualifications are satisfactory upon investigation by the board.

(d) An applicant who twice fails in his examination before the Federal Registration Board shall not be permitted to again take the examination prescribed by the board until after the lapse of one year from the date of his last failure.

§ 21.14 Conduct of registered physicians. (a) No registered physician shall be permitted to associate himself in practice looking to the prescribing of the waters of the Hot Springs with a nonregistered physician, under penalty of having his name removed from the registered list. Before any assistant is employed by a registered physician, his name must be submitted to the Superintendent, together with such other information as may be called for by the Superintendent. Registered physicians must also notify the Superintendent of any contemplated absence from Hot Springs and give the name of the person in charge of his office during such absence. Registered physicians will be held strictly accountable for the actions of their assistants, and any violation of the regulations in this part by the registered physician or his assistant or assistants will be deemed sufficient cause for the removal of the name of such registered physician from the registered list. The name of any registered physician who shall give bath directions for the patient of a nonregistered physician shall be removed from the registered list, but this shall not apply to the prescribing of the waters of the Hot Springs for the patient of another practitioner who, while legally licensed by the State of Arkansas to treat ailments of the human system, is not eligible for registration under § 21.12 (a): Provided, That in all such cases the registered physician so prescribing shall deal directly with the patient and shall receive no fee, commission, or other compensation, either directly or indirectly, from such other practitioner under penalty of having his name removed from the registered list: And provided further, That the name of such other practitioner treating such patient shall be given on the bath directions.

(b) No registered physician, upon removal of his offices from one location to another, may publish in any newspaper, or other periodical, notice to that effect for a longer period than 3 days. Notices of return from an absence may not be published for a longer period than 3 days or for any absence of less than 10 consecutive days. Such notices shall be simple in form and free of advertising elements, such as office hours, telephone numbers, specialties, and prices for consultation.

(c) Registered physicians, occupying offices formerly occupied by physicians who have died, retired, or have been placed on the nonactive list of registered physicians, are required to have the names of such nonactive physicians removed without delay from signs, windows, and directories in the building in which such physicians formerly practiced, and upon noncompliance with this provision within 10 days may be suspended by the Secretary of the Interior until the delinquencies have been remedied.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to physicians stationed at the Army and Navy General Hospital not doing outside practice.

(e) Any registered physician desiring to change his residence from Hot Springs or to retire from active practice longer than one year, and during such absence retain his registration, shall file application, in writing, with the Superintendent to be placed upon the nonresident list. If such registered physician whose name has been placed upon the nonresident list should desire to return to active practice at Hot Springs and have his name again placed upon the list of registered physicians, he may so apply in writing, stating his residence and occupation during the time he has been on the nonresident list, and shall give three references who can vouch for his conduct. The Federal Registration Board shall require an endorsement by the Garland County Hot Springs Medical Society of any registered physician whose name has been placed upon the nonresident list requesting his name to be restored to the active list of registered physicians and upon restoration such registered physician shall be governed by all the rules applying to registered physicians.

(f) The board, by action at a regular meeting, shall have the power to remove the names of registered physicians from the registered list who have ceased to practice medicine in Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas, and have departed without informing the board or the Superintendent of their intentions to be placed upon the inactive list or to have their names removed from the registered list.

(g) The provisions of this section are subject to amendment at any regular meeting of the board on the giving of 30 days' notice in writing of the proposed amendment, subject, however, to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

§ 21.15 Examining Board for Technicians. (a) An Examining Board for Technicians shall be appointed by the Superintendent, subject to the approval of the Director, to consist of the following members:

(1) One registered physician, to be nominated by the Federal Registration Board.

(2) One registered physiotherapist-hydrotherapist.

(3) One registered masseur.

(4) One registered bath attendant, preferably a head attendant.

(5) One member of the Superintendent's staff, who shall also be the executive secretary of the board.

(b) The board at its first meeting shall elect a president from among its members, excluding the representative of the Superintendent's staff who shall always be ineligible for any other position than executive secretary.

(c) Three members present shall constitute a quorum. Any member undergoing disciplinary action or in suspension from duty shall not remain a member of the board.

(d) The board shall meet on the third Friday in January of each year and from time to time throughout the year, subject to the call of the president, to transact such business as shall be properly presented by the executive secretary.

(e) The board will recommend to the Superintendent any necessary replacements of personnel of the board to fill vacancies.

(f) The board shall prescribe the requirements and will conduct the written examinations for all applicants seeking to be registered physiotherapists, hydrotherapists, masseurs, and bath attendants in the bathhouses.

(g) The board shall have the power to determine the qualifications of individuals seeking to be registered as qualified beauticians and chiropodists in the bathhouses.

(h) The board shall recommend to the Superintendent the granting of certificates to applicants who shall successfully pass the written or practical examinations required of all candidates coming before it.

§ 21.16 Suspension of certificate. The certificate of qualification of a technician discharged for cause shall be suspended by the Superintendent, and the said person shall not be employed in any capacity in any bathhouse without recertification, which may be made only after a period of six months.

§ 21.17 Hours of operation. The hours for operation of all departments of bathhouses receiving hot water from Hot Springs National Park shall be those expressly designated by the Superintendent.

§ 21.18 Requirements for bathing. (a) No bathhouse concessioner shall bathe (1) any applicant for baths who is under medical treatment unless said applicant presents satisfactory evidence that he or she is the patient of a registered physician, or (2) any applicant for baths not under the care of a physician unless said applicant shall make a certificate to be filed with the bathhouse concessioner that he or she is not under the care of any physician. The violation of this paragraph by the concessioner, manager, or any employee of a bathhouse, will result in the cutting off of the water from the bathhouse or the cancelling of the contract, as the Secretary of the Interior may determine.

(b) Should any person not under the care of a physician at the commencement of baths, as permitted under paragraph (a) (2) of this section, subsequently employ, consult, or take treatment from any physician, then in such case, he or she shall immediately file with the bathhouse concessioner evidence thereof as required under paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 21.19 Changes in bathing directions; standard bath directions. Baths shall be administered to patrons who do not have registered physicians' bathing directions in accordance with the standard bath directions prescribed by the Superintendent. Baths shall be administered to persons having registered physicians' bathing directions only in accordance with the instructions given therein.

§ 21.20 Supervision of treatments. Treatments, manipulations, or exercises shall be given only by or under the direct supervision of a technician.

§ 21.21 Use of pools. No person shall use the pools except on presenting a prescription describing the treatment from a registered physician. A period of two weeks must have elapsed since the subsidence of abnormal temperature in persons who have had any acute infectious disease or acute respiratory disease before they may be permitted to enter the pools. A period of one month must have elapsed since the subsidence of acute features in acute anterior poliomyelitis before the patient may be permitted to enter the pools.

§ 21.22 Persons excluded from the pools. The following persons are excluded from and will not be given treatments in the pools:

(a) Persons with acute or infectious lesions on any part of the body, particularly of the skin, throat, or genitalia.

(b) Persons with a discharge from the eyes, nose, mouth, ears, or genitalia.

(c) Persons showing abnormal temperature or marked cough.

(d) Persons without complete control of the bladder or rectum.

§ 21.23 Transfer and redemption of tickets. Tickets for baths and other services are not transferable by the purchaser thereof. Unused tickets may be redeemed by the purchaser within three years from the date of purchase, according to the redemption scale approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

§ 21.24 Lost tickets. A patron who loses his ticket may continue to receive service, without additional charge, for the number of units remaining in the ticket. Records of lost tickets, and of service given thereunder, shall be maintained as required by the Superintendent. Lost tickets shall have no redemption value.

§ 21.25 Physical examinations. No technician or other employee who comes in direct personal contact with bathers will be permitted to enter on duty without first undergoing physical examinations, or remain in such employment without undergoing periodic physical examinations, as required by the Superintendent, and being found free from any infectious or communicable diseases.

CROSS REFERENCE: For list of communicable diseases included in the regulations of the United States Public Health Service, see 42 CFR 72.2.

§ 21.26 Solicitation by employees. Soliciting by employees for any purpose, including soliciting for gratuities, commonly called "tips," is prohibited in all bathhouses.

§ 21.27 Prescriptions and use of medical instruments. No technician may prescribe diets or waters, make diagnoses of ailments, or use in his work a clinical thermometer, stethoscope, or any other medical instrument employed by a physician.

§ 21.28 Fees. Technicians shall charge for their services the rates provided and approved for them by the Secretary, which fees shall be collected and accounted for to them by the bathhouse management.

§ 21.29 Badges for bath attendants. Bath attendants, when granted certificates of qualification, shall obtain a numbered badge, to be furnished at cost by the Superintendent, which shall be worn at all times when such attendants are on duty.

§ 21.30 Accidents. A bathhouse manager shall report, in writing, all accidents which occur in bathhouses to the office of the Superintendent. In case circumstances preclude a written report being submitted immediately, an oral report must be made immediately which must be substantiated by a written report at the earliest possible time.

§ 21.31 Losses. A bathhouse concessioner receiving deposits of jewelry, money, or other valuables from bathers shall provide means for the safekeeping thereof, satisfactory to the Superintendent. It is understood, however, that the Government assumes no responsibility in the premises. All losses must be reported, in writing, to the Superintendent promptly by the bathhouse manager. Any losses or thefts, no matter how small, should be reported immediately in order that proper action can be taken for the benefit of the bathhouse and the public.

Issued this 22d day of September 1954.

CLARENCE A. DAVIS,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix C—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1011]

UTAH

WITHDRAWING PUBLIC LANDS FOR USE OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights the following-described public lands in Utah are hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining laws but not the mineral-leasing laws, and reserved for the use of the United States Atomic Energy Commission:

UTAH

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 28 S., R. 26 E.,
Secs. 28, 29 and 30.
T. 36 S., R. 24 E.,
Secs. 33 and 34;
Sec. 35, W½.
T. 37 S., R. 24 E.,
Secs. 3, 4, 5, 8 and 9;
Sec. 10, N½.

The areas described aggregate approximately 7,040 acres.

The reservation made by this order shall be subject to existing withdrawals affecting any of the lands for National Forest purposes, and shall take precedence over but not otherwise affect the Departmental order of June 22, 1935, establishing Utah Grazing District No. 6.

FRED G. AANDAHL,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 2—SPECIAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

REVISION OF INTERPRETATIVE SPECIAL RULES RELATING TO TEMPORARY OPERATING AUTHORITIES AND APPROVALS

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of September, A. D. 1954.

The revision of interpretative special rules, under authority of section 12 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1011), relating to extension, pursuant to section 9 (b) of that act (5 U. S. C. 1008(b)), beyond the specified expiration date, of temporary operating authorities and approvals granted under sections 210a (a), 210a (b), 311 (a), and 311 (b) of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U. S. C. 310a (a), 310a (b), 911 (a), and 911 (b)), being under consideration:

It is ordered, That Part 2 be, and it is hereby, revised by deleting the entire context and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

TEMPORARY OPERATING AUTHORITIES AND APPROVALS

Sec.

2.1 Extension of temporary operating authority and approval.
2.2 Definitions and interpretations.
2.3 Additional grant for new need.
2.4 Termination of temporary authority or approval.

AUTHORITY: §§ 2.1 to 2.4 issued under sec. 17, 24 Stat. 385, as amended, 49 Stat. 546, as amended, sec. 201, 54 Stat. 933; 49 U. S. C. 17, 304, 904. Interpret or apply sec. 10, 52 Stat. 1238, as amended, sec. 201, 54 Stat. 943, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 310a, 911.

§ 2.1 Extension of temporary operating authority or approval. The Commission will determine upon written request by any interested party, or it may determine upon its own initiative, whether under section 9 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1008 (b)):

(a) Any temporary operating authority granted under 210a (a) or 311 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U. S. C. 310a (a), 911 (a)) is continued in force, beyond the expiration date specified in such temporary operating authority, until the determination of an application filed by the holder of such temporary operating authority for a certificate of public convenience and necessity or a permit to engage in operations authorized by such temporary operating authority.

(b) Any temporary approval granted under section 210a (b) or 311 (b) of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U. S. C. 310a (b), 911 (b)), is continued in force, beyond the expiration date specified in such temporary approval, until the determination of the related application for approval of a consolidation or merger of the properties of two or more motor or water carriers or of a purchase, lease, or contract to operate the properties of one or more such carriers.

In order to afford sufficient time for consideration and action thereon, a written request for such a determination should be filed not later than 30 days prior to expiration of the temporary operating authority or approval.

§ 2.2 Definitions and interpretations. In making the determination provided in § 2.1, the Commission will be guided by the following interpretations of the provisions of the 3d sentence of section 9 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1008 (b)), and of the provisions of section 210a (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U. S. C. 310a (a)):

(a) Timely application. An application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity or a permit filed in accordance with the applicable laws, regulations, and instructions, not later than 60 days after issuance of temporary authority for a period of 180 days or not later than 60 days after issuance of the first of a series of consecutive temporary authorities aggregating 180 days.

(b) Sufficient application. An application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity or a permit, which is in the form, contains the information, and is accompanied by the documents and exhibits required by the applicable laws, regulations, and instructions.

(c) Aggregate of 180 days. As used in section 210a (a) of the act and Commission notices and orders relating thereto, the term "for not more than an aggregate of one hundred and eighty days" means the total number of days of temporary authority which may be granted to a motor carrier under the provisions of that section of the act to meet a continuing need for a particular service.

(d) Series of grants. As relates to extensions of temporary authorities under section 9 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1008 (b)), only those grants of temporary authority for less than 180 days which have been approved to meet a specific continuing need and which follow one after the other without interruption for a total of 180 days will be considered as a "series of consecutive temporary authorities aggregating 180 days".

(e) Need considered not to be of a continuing nature. Any need which is the basis of an operation authorized by a temporary authority or approval to be conducted for a period of less than an aggregate of 180 days is presumed not to be of a "continuing nature" unless the Commission otherwise expressly determines.

(f) Final determination of application. For the purpose of this section—(1) An application for a certificate or permit shall be considered to be "finally determined" (i) with respect to operations for which the certificate or permit is denied, upon the expiration of the period allowed by the rules and regulations of the Commission or by the order (whichever is greater) within which petitions for rehearing, reargument, or reconsideration may be filed, or upon the denial of such petitions if filed, and (ii) with respect to operations for which the certificate or permit is granted, when the certificate or permit becomes effective.

(2) An application for approval of a consolidation or merger of the properties of two or more motor or water carriers, or of a purchase of the properties of one or more such carries shall be considered to be "finally determined" (i) in the case of denial of such an application, upon the expiration of the period allowed by the rules and regulations of the Commission or by the order (whichever is greater) within which petitions for rehearing, reargument, or reconsideration may be filed, or upon the denial of such petitions if filed, and (ii) in the case of approval of such an application, when the certificate or permit to be transferred in connection with such application has been reissued in the name of the transferee and has become effective.

(3) An application for approval of a lease or contract to operate the properties of one or more motor or water carriers shall be considered to be "finally determined," (i) in the case of denial of such an application, upon the expiration of the period allowed by the rules and regulations of the Commission or by the order (whichever is greater) within which petitions for rehearing, reargument, or reconsideration may be filed, or upon the denial of such petitions if filed, and (ii) in the case of approval of such an application, when the order approving such application becomes effective.

§ 2.3 Additional grant for new need. If the need for a particular service ceases and the temporary authority covering such need expires or is revoked and a new or separate need arises subsequent to such expiration or revocation, additional temporary authority for the 180-day aggregate, or for a shorter period, may be granted to the same carrier for the service notwithstanding the prior grant or grants. However, an application filed after the expiration or revocation of temporary authority for an aggregate of 180 days will be denied unless the facts clearly show that the application is in reality based on a new need and not on a continuation of the need on which the prior grant of authority was based.

§ 2.4 Termination of temporary authority or approval. Nothing in this part shall be construed as preventing the Commission from terminating at any time, in accordance with law, any temporary authority or approval, or any extension thereof under section 9 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1008 (b)).

It is further ordered, That the rules in this part shall become effective October 30, 1954, and shall apply to temporary authorities and approvals expiring on or after that date.

And it is further ordered, That this order shall supersede the order entered herein on July 6, 1948, which is hereby vacated as of the effective date of this order.

Notice of this order shall be given to the public by posting a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR (1954) Part 1 [1]]

INCOME TAX: TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953; DEPRECIATION

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 167 and 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (P. L. 591, 83d Congress, approved August 16, 1954; 26 U. S. C. 167, 7805).

Section 167 makes important changes from prior law with respect to the deduction for depreciation. The interpretation and rules for application of the provisions of section 167 are set forth in the attached tentative regulations. In order to assist taxpayers in ascertaining those parts of the tentative regulations which may concern them, a brief summary of the important changes in the law on the deduction for depreciation is set forth below. This summary is not in itself an interpretation of the new law and may not be relied upon in any case in which it differs from the tentative regulations. Important changes made by the new law may be summarized as follows:

It provides for the use of the declining balance method at a rate not in excess of 200 percent of the corresponding straight-line rate, the sum of the years-digits method, or equivalent methods which at the end of each year during the first two-thirds of the life of the property result in accumulated allowances not in excess of those under the declining balance method. It grants taxpayers the option to switch from the declining balance method to straight-line depreciation at any time on the basis of unrecovered cost less estimated salvage and estimated remaining life at the time of the switch. The liberalized depreciation methods apply only to property with a useful life of three years or more which is acquired after December 31, 1953, if the original use of the property commences with the taxpayer and commences after that date or the property is constructed, reconstructed, or erected after December 31, 1953, and then only to the portion of the basis of such property attributable to construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1953. It permits agreements in writing with respect to depreciation rates which will then stand in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in arriving at such agreements with the burden of proof on the party initiating any change to establish the existence of such facts and circumstances. The changes are to be prospective only.

[SEAL] T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

New regulations prescribed under section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, Public Law 591 (83d Congress, 2d Session), approved August 16, 1954, relating to depreciation, makes substantive changes in existing law. In order to provide new regulations under section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the following regulations are hereby prescribed:

§ 1.167 (a) Statutory provisions; depreciation; general rule.

SEC. 167. Depreciation—(a) General rule. There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence—

(1) of property used in the trade or business, or

(2) of property held for the production of income.

§ 1.167 (a)-1 Depreciation in general—(a) General rule. (1) Section 167 (a) provides that a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business or of property held by the taxpayer for the production of income shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction. The allowance is that amount which should be set aside for the taxable year in accordance with a reasonably consistent plan (not necessarily at a uniform rate), so that the aggregate of the amounts set aside, plus the salvage value, will, at the end of the useful life of the depreciable property, equal the cost or other basis of the property as provided in section 167 (f). The allowance will not include amounts representing a mere reduction in market value not resulting from exhaustion, wear and tear, or obsolescence.

(2) The depreciation allowance in the case of tangible property applies only to that part of the property which is subject to wear and tear, to decay or decline from natural causes, to exhaustion and to obsolescence. The allowance does not apply to inventories or stock in trade, nor to land apart from the improvements or physical development added to it. The allowance does not apply to natural resources which are subject to the allowance for depletion provided in subchapter I (section 611 and following). The estimated useful life of property for purposes of depreciation may be lengthened or shortened in accordance with the repair and maintenance policy of the taxpayer. No deduction for depreciation shall be allowed on automobiles or other vehicles used solely for pleasure, on a building used by the taxpayer solely as his residence, or on furniture or furnishings therein, personal effects, or clothing; but properties and costumes used exclusively in a business, such as a theatrical business, may be depreciated.

(3) Intangibles, the useful life of which is definitely limited, may be the subject of a depreciation allowance. Examples are patents and copyrights. Intangibles, the useful life of which is not limited, will not usually be depreciable. If an intangible asset is known from experience or other factors to be of use in the business or in the production of income for only a limited period, the length of which can be estimated with reasonable accuracy, such an intangible asset may be the subject of a depreciation allowance. No allowance will be permitted merely because, in the unsupported opinion of the taxpayer, the intangible asset has a limited useful life. No deduction for depreciation is allowable with respect to good will. For rules with respect to organizational expenditures, see section 248.

(4) The capital sum to be recovered through depreciation allowances is the cost or other basis of the property with respect to which the allowance is made. See § 1.167 (f)-1. In the case of the acquisition on or after March 1, 1913, of a combination of depreciable and nondepreciable property for a lump sum, as, for example, buildings and land, the capital sum to be recovered is limited to an amount which bears the same proportion to the lump sum as the value of the depreciable property at the time of acquisition bears to the value of the entire property at that time. In the case of property which has been the subject of allowances for amortization, depreciation deductions will be computed after the close of the amortization period upon the remaining cost or other basis of the property subject to such amortization after adjustment for the amortization allowances. For adjustment to basis, see section 1016.

(b) Depreciation in special cases—(1) Depreciation of patent or copyright. In computing a depreciation allowance in the case of a patent or copyright, the capital sum to be recovered is the cost or other basis of the patent or copyright. For rules applicable to research and experimental expenditures, see sections 174 and 1016. The allowance should be computed by an apportionment of the cost or other basis of the patent or copyright over its remaining useful life. If the patent or copyright was acquired from the Government, its cost consists of the various Government fees, cost of drawings, experimental models, attorneys' fees, or similar expenditures. Depreciation of a copyright can be taken on the basis of the fair market value as of March 1, 1913, only when affirmative and satisfactory evidence of such value is offered. If in any year before its expiration a patent or copyright becomes valueless, the unrecovered cost or other basis may be deducted in that year.

(2) Depreciation of drawings and models. If a taxpayer has incurred expenditures in his business for designs, drawings, patterns, models, or work of an experimental nature calculated to result in improvement of his facilities or his product, and if the period of usefulness of any such asset may be estimated from experience or other factors with reasonable accuracy, it may be the subject of depreciation allowances spread over such estimated period of usefulness. See also sections 174 and 1016 for rules applicable to research and experimental expenditures.

(3) Depreciation in case of farmers. A reasonable allowance for depreciation may be claimed on farm buildings (except a dwelling occupied by the owner), farm machinery, and other physical property but not including land. A reasonable allowance for depreciation may also be claimed on livestock acquired for work, breeding, or dairy purposes, unless they are included in an inventory used to determine profits in accordance with § 1.61 (a) —. Such depreciation should be based on the cost or other basis and estimated useful life of the livestock. See also § 1.162 (a) —, relating to trade or business expenses, § 1.165 —, relating to losses of farmers, and § 1.175 —, relating to soil or water conservation expenditures.

(c) Accounting for depreciable property. (1) In order that the verification of depreciation allowances claimed by the taxpayer may be facilitated, depreciation shall be recorded on the taxpayer's books, the amount measuring a reasonable allowance for depreciation either being deducted directly from the book value of the assets or preferably being credited to a depreciation reserve account, which should be reflected in the annual balance sheet. For the same reason the allowances shall be computed and recorded with express reference to specific items or groups of property, each item being considered separately or specifically included in a group with other items to which the same factors apply. Also, the taxpayer's books shall show the basis of the depreciable property and any adjustments thereto, and in cases where the basis of the property is other than cost, the books shall show the data used in ascertaining such basis and the adjustments thereto. If a taxpayer does not desire to have his regular books of account show all of the factors entering into the computation of depreciation allowances, such factors shall be recorded in auxiliary records which shall be kept with and reconciled with the regular books of account. Depreciation schedules filed with the return shall show reserves computed in accordance with allowances for income tax purposes.

(2) Depreciable property may be accounted for by items, or by classified, group, or composite accounts. A taxpayer may keep records of depreciable property by annual acquisitions. In item accounting, individual records are maintained indicating the cost or other basis of each item. Depreciation on each item is computed separately. Classified or group accounts are variations of composite accounts. In classified accounting, assets are segregated according to use, for example, machinery and equipment, furniture and fixtures, and transportation equipment. In group accounting, assets similar in kind with approximately the same useful lives are grouped together. In composite accounting, all the assets of a business may be included in a single group, regardless of their character or useful lives.

(d) Losses on retirement. If depreciation is computed on more than one item and the rates are based on the average lives of the assets, losses claimed on the normal retirement of any such assets are not allowable. Since the use of an average rate contemplates that some items will be retired before the average useful life and that others will be retired after the average life has been reached there is, therefore, no actual loss upon the retirement of any individual asset under such circumstances. In order to account properly for such retirement the entire cost or other basis of assets retired, adjusted for salvage, shall be charged to the depreciation reserve account, which will enable the full cost or other basis of the property to be recovered. See § 1.167 (b)–1 (b) (2) (ii) for a special rule in connection with the retirement of the last asset of a given year's acquisitions where depreciation is computed under the declining balance method. Also, see section 165 and the regulations thereunder for rules relating to the deduction of losses resulting from sale or exchange, casualty, or abandonment, other than normal retirements, of property subject to depreciation.

(e) Obsolescence. The depreciation allowance includes an allowance for normal obsolescence, that is, in computing the estimated useful life of the property consideration should be given to the extent to which the expected useful life of an asset will be shortened by reason of technological improvement or reasonably foreseeable economic changes. In any case in which the taxpayer shows that the estimated useful life previously used in connection with any property should actually be shortened by reason of normal obsolescence greater than had been assumed in computing such estimated useful life, a change to a new and shorter estimated life computed in accordance with such showing will be permitted. Abnormal or extraordinary obsolescence, in contrast to normal obsolescence, is generally caused by a rapid advance in technology or by sudden economic changes which could not reasonably have been foreseen by the taxpayer at the time of acquisition of the asset. A reasonable addition to the allowance for depreciation may be allowed for abnormal obsolescence in connection with each item of property with respect to which the facts supporting such an addition are clearly shown. No deduction for abnormal obsolescence will be permitted based merely upon the unsupported opinion of the taxpayer that the property may become obsolete at some later date. If the estimated useful life and the depreciation rate have been the subject of a previous agreement, see section 167 (d).

(f) When depreciation deduction is allowable. A taxpayer is not permitted under the law to take advantage in later years of his prior failure to deduct any depreciation allowance or of his action in deducting an allowance plainly inadequate under the known facts in prior years. This rule is applicable regardless of the method of depreciation used by the taxpayer.

§ 1.167 (b) Statutory provisions; depreciation; use of certain methods and rates.

SEC. 167. Depreciation. • • •

(b) Use of certain methods and rates. For taxable years ending after December 31, 1953, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subsection (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, under any of the following methods:

(1) the straight line method,

(2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1),

(3) the sum of the years-digits method, and

(4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in paragrah (2).

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subsection (a).

§ 1.167 (b)–1 Methods of computing depreciation—(a) In general. Any reasonable and consistent method of computing depreciation may be used or continue to be used in computing depreciation under section 167. Whatever method is adopted, due regard must be given to operating conditions during the taxable period. The reasonableness of any claim for depreciation shall be determined upon the basis of conditions known to exist at the end of the period for which the return is made. If the cost or other basis (less salvage) of the property has been recovered through depreciation or other allowances, no further deduction for depreciation shall be allowed. The deductions for depreciation shall be limited to such amounts as may be necessary to recover during the remaining useful life of the property the unrecovered cost or other basis less salvage. It is the responsibility of the taxpayer to establish the reasonableness of the deduction for depreciation claimed under the provisions of section 167. Generally depreciation deductions so claimed will be changed only where there is a clear and convincing basis for a change.

(b) Certain methods and rates. Methods previously found adequate to produce a reasonable allowance under the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 or prior revenue laws will, if used consistently by the taxpayer, continue to be acceptable under section 167. The following methods shall be deemed to produce a reasonable allowance except as limited under section 167 (c) and the regulations thereunder.

(1) Straight line method. Under this method, the cost or other basis of the property (see § 1.167 (f)–1), less its estimated salvage value, is deductible in equal annual amounts over the period of the estimated useful life of the property. The allowance for depreciation for the taxable year is determined by dividing the adjusted basis of the property at the beginning of the taxable year, less salvage value, by the remaining useful life of the property at such time. For convenience, the allowance so determined may be reduced to a percentage. The estimated remaining useful life of property may be subject to modification by reason of conditions known to exist at the end of each taxable year. This method may be used in determining a reasonable allowance for depreciation with respect to any property which is subject to depreciation under section 167.

(i) Example. Under the straight line method (assuming no salvage value) items may be depreciated separately as follows:

Year	Item	Cost or other basis	Useful life	Depreciation allowable
				1954	1955	1956
			Years
1954	Automobile	$1,600	4	[1] $200	$400	$400
	Building	12,000	40	[1] 150	300	300

[1] One-half of the annual depreciation is taken on new additions, which were made on July 1 of the taxable year.

(ii) Example. In classified, group, or composite accounting, a number of assets with the same or different useful lives may be grouped together into one account, and a single rate of depreciation, i.e., the group, classified, or composite rate is used for the entire account. In the case of group accounts the group rate is ordinarily determined from the average of the physical useful lives of the assets contained in the group. In the case of classified or composite accounts the classified or composite rate is ordinarily computed by determining the amount of one year's depreciation for each item or classification, and then dividing the total depreciation thus obtained by the total cost or other basis of the assets. An example of the computation of a classified or composite rate (assuming no salvage value) follows:

Costs or other basis	Estimated useful life	Annual depreciation
	Years
$10,000	5	$2,000
10,000	15	667
20,000		2,667

Average rate ($2,667 ÷ $20,000) = 13.33 percent.

Assuming the estimated salvage value is 10 percent of the cost or other basis, the rate adjusted for salvage will be 13.33 percent minus 10 percent of 13.33 percent (13.33% minus 1.33%), or 12 percent. The average rate of 13.33 percent (or 12 percent if adjusted for salvage) is to be used as long as subsequent additions, retirements, or replacements do not substantially alter the relative proportions of different groups of assets in the account.

(iii) Example. The use of the straight line method for classified, group, or composite accounts may be illustrated by the following example: A taxpayer maintains an asset account for which a group rate (assuming no salvage value) of 20 percent has been determined. During the years illustrated, the initial investment, additions and retirements which were determined not to change the composition of the group substantially, so as to require a change in rate, were assumed to have been made on July 1 of each year as follows:

1954—Initial investment of $12,000.
1957—Retirement $2,000.
1958—Retirement $2,000.
1959—Retirement $4,000.
1959—Added $10,000.
1960—Retirement $2,000.
1961—Retirement $2,000.

DEPRECIABLE ASSET ACCOUNT AND DEPRECIATION COMPUTATION ON AVERAGE BALANCES

Year	Asset balances Dec. 31	Current additions	Current retirements	Average balances [1]	Rate (percent)	Allowable depreciation
1954	$12,000	$12,000		$6,000	20	$1,200
1955	12,000			12,000	20	2,400
1956	12,000			12,000	20	2,400
1957	10,000		$2,000	11,000	20	2,200
1958	8,000		2,000	9,000	20	1,800
1959	14,000	10,000	4,000	11,000	20	2,200
1960	12,000		2,000	13,000	20	2,600
1961	10,000		2,000	11,000	20	2,200

[1] In the example the average balances were used. Average balances were computed by adding the beginning and ending balances and dividing the total by 2. The use of this method for computing average balances does not imply that no other method may be used.

CORRESPONDING DEPRECIATION RESERVE ACCOUNT

Year	Depreciation reserve Dec. 31	Current retirements	Depreciation allowable
1954	$1,200		$1,200
1955	3,600		2,400
1956	6,000		2,400
1957	6,200	$2,000	2,200
1958	6,000	2,000	1,800
1959	4,200	4,000	2,200
1960	4,800	2,000	2,600
1961	5,000	2,000	2,200

If in the preceding example it had been estimated that salvage would be 10 percent, then the rate would have been 18 percent (20 percent less 10 percent of 20 percent) and the salvage realized would have been credited to the reserve.

(2) Declining balance method. Under this method a uniform rate is applied each year to the unrecovered cost or other basis of the property (without regard to the salvage value) in determining a reasonable allowance for depreciation. The rate is applied to the unrecovered cost or other basis which is reduced by depreciation previously allowed or allowable. For adjustments to basis see § 1.1016——. The rate used under this method shall not exceed twice the normal straight line rate (without adjustment for salvage) applicable to new assets. (See section 167 (c) for limitations.)

(i) Example. Computation of depreciation allowances under the declining balance method for a single asset may be illustrated by the following example: A new asset having an estimated useful life of 20 years is purchased on January 1, 1954, for $1,000. The normal straight line rate (without adjustment for salvage) is 5 percent (1 divided by 20), and the declining balance rate at twice the normal straight line rate is 10 percent. The annual depreciation allowances for 1954, 1955, and 1956 would be as follows:

Year	Remaining basis	Declining balance rate (percent)	Depreciation allowance
1954	$1,000	10	$100
1955	900	10	90
1956	810	10	81

(ii) Example. The declining balance method may be used with classified, group, or composite accounts. The use of the declining balance method for classified, group, or composite accounts may be illustrated by the following example: A taxpayer maintains a group or composite account to which a 40 percent declining balance rate is applicable. Original investment, additions and retirements are considered to be the same as those set forth in the example in subparagraph (1) (iii) above, except that certain net salvage realized has been taken into account as indicated in the depreciation reserve account.

DEPRECIABLE ASSET ACCOUNT AND DEPRECIATION COMPUTATION USING AVERAGE ASSET AND RESERVE BALANCES

Year	Asset balances Dec. 31	Current additions	Current retirements	Average balances	Average reserve before depreciation	Net depreciable balance	Rate (percent)	Allowable depreciation
1954	$12,000	$12,000		$6,000		$6,000	40	$2,400

1961	7,036	2,000		5,036	6,036	1,986	7,022
1962	7,022

Although salvage value is disregarded in computing a declining balance rate, it must be recognized and accounted for when assets are retired, in accordance with the taxpayer's method of accounting for salvage. If in this example the taxpayer had kept his depreciation records by year of acquisition and all the retirements shown in the example were from 1954 acquisitions, depreciation would be computed on the 1954 and 1959 acquisitions as follows:

1954 ACQUISITIONS

Year	Asset balances Dec. 31	Current retirements	Average balances	Average reserve before depreciation	Net depreciable balance	Rate (percent)	Allowable depreciation
1954	$12,000		$6,000		$6,000	40	$2,400
1955	12,000		12,000	$2,400	9,600	40	3,840
1956	12,000		12,000	6,240	5,760	40	2,304
1957	10,000	$2,000	11,000	7,644	3,356	40	1,342

1959	4,000	4,000	6,000	5,212	788	40	315
1960	2,000	2,000	3,000	2,727	273	40	109
1961		2,000	1,000	836			1164

[1] Balance allowable as depreciation in the year of retirement of the last survivor of the 1954 acquisitions.

DEPRECIATION RESERVE ACCOUNT FOR 1954 ACQUISITIONS

Year	Reserve Jan. 1	Current retirements	Net salvage realized	Reserve Dec. 31, before depreciation	Average reserve before depreciation	Allowable depreciation	Reserve Dec. 31, after depreciation
1954						$2,400	$2,400
1955	$2,400			$2,400	$2,400	3,840	6,240
1956	6,240			6,240	6,240	2,304	8,544
1957	8,544	$2,000	$200	6,744	7,644	1,342	8,086
1958	8,086	2,000	200	6,286	7,186	726	7,012
1959	7,012	4,000	400	3,412	5,212	315	3,727
1960	3,727	2,000		1,727	2,727	109	1,836
1961	1,836	2,000		(164)	836	164

1959 ACQUISITIONS

Year	Asset balances Dec. 31	Average balances	Reserve Dec. 31 before depreciation	Net depreciable balance	Rate (percent)	Allowable depreciation	Reserve Dec. 31 after depreciation
1959	$10,000	$5,000	None	$5,000	40	$2,000	$2,000
1960	10,000	10,000	$2,000	8,000	40	3,200	5,200
1961	10,000	10,000	5,200	4,800	40	1,920	7,120

Thus, where depreciation accounts are maintained by year of acquisition, if there is an unrecovered balance at the time of the last retirement such unrecovered balance may be deducted as part of the depreciation allowance for the year of such retirement. In the above example the allowable depreciation with respect to the 1954 acquisitions totals $11,200. This amount when increased by salvage realized in the amount of $800, equals the entire cost or other basis of the 1954 acquisitions ($12,000).

(3) Sum of the years-digits method. (i) Under this method annual allowances for depreciation are computed by applying changing fractions to the taxpayer's cost or other basis of the property (reduced by estimated salvage). The fraction for each year is the number corresponding to the remaining useful life (including the year for which the allowance is being computed) divided by the sum of all the years-digits corresponding to the estimated life of the item. (See section 167 (c) for limitations.)

(ii) Computation of depreciation allowances under the sum of the years-digits method may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A new asset having an estimated useful life of five years, is purchased on January 1, 1954, for $1,750. The estimated salvage is $250. For a taxpayer filing his returns on a calendar year basis, the annual depreciation allowances are as follows:

Year	Cost or other basis less salvage	Fraction [1]	Allowable depreciation	Depreciation reserve
1954	$1,500	5/15	$500	$500
1955	1,500	4/15	400	900
1956	1,500	3/15	300	1,200
1957	1,500	2/15	200	1,400
1958	1,500	1/15	100	1,500
Unrecovered value (salvage)				250

[1] The denominator of the fraction is the sum of the digits representing the years of useful life, i. e., 5, 4, 3, 2, and 1, or 15.

Example (2). The following example illustrates a method of allocating depreciation between taxable years in the case of assets not on hand at the beginning of the taxable year. For the purpose of this example assume that the asset in the preceding example was acquired on April 1, 1954.

	Depreciation for 12 months	Allowable depreciation
		1954	1955	1956
1st year	$500	(9/12) $375	(3/12) $125
2d year	400		(9/12) 300	(3/12) $100
3d year	300			(9/12) 225
		$375	$425	$325

(4) Other methods. Under section 167 (b) (4) a taxpayer may use any consistent method which does not result in accumulated allowances at the end of any year greater than the total of the accumulated allowances which would have resulted from the use of the declining balance method. Such limitation applies only during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property. For example, an asset costing $1,000 having a useful life of six years may be depreciated under the declining balance method in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph at a rate of 33⅓ percent. During the first 4 years or ⅔ of its useful life depreciation allowances under the declining balance method would be as follows:

Cost of asset	Current depreciation	Accumulated depreciation	Balance
			$1,000
First year	$333	$333	667
Second year	222	555	445
Third year	148	703	297
Fourth year	99	802	198

An annual allowance computed by any other method could not exceed $333 for the first year. At the end of the second year, the total allowances for the two years under any other method, could not exceed $555. At the end of the third year the total allowances for the three years under any other method, could not exceed $703. At the end of the fourth year, the total allowances for the four years under any other method, could not exceed $802. This limitation would not apply in the fifth and sixth years. (See section 167 (c) for limitations.)

(c) Application of methods. In the case of item accounts, any method which results in a reasonable allowance for depreciation may be selected for each item of property, but such method must be applied consistently to that particular item. In the case of group, classified, or composite accounts, any such method may be selected for each account and such method must be applied to that particular account consistently thereafter. See, however, §§ 1.167 (e)–1 and 1.446 (e)– —, for rules relating to changes in the method of computing depreciation, and § 1.167 (c)–1 for limitation on the use of certain methods.

§ 1.167 (c) Statutory provision; depreciation; limitations on use of certain methods and rates.

SEC. 167. Depreciation. • • •

(c) Limitations on use of certain methods and rates. Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subsection (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in subsection (a) with a useful life of 3 years or more—

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1953, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1953, or

(2) acquired after December 31, 1953, if the original use of such property commences with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

§ 1.167 (c)–1 Limitation on methods of computing depreciation—(a) In general. Section 167 (c) provides limitations which restrict the use of certain methods for computing the depreciation allowance. It does not limit the use of methods previously found acceptable so long as the depreciation allowance so computed continues to be reasonable in the light of the facts available at the end of the taxable year.

(b) Property acquired at any time. (1) Straight-line method: This method may be used in computing the allowance for depreciation in connection with property of any kind, tangible or intangible, which is subject to the allowance for depreciation regardless of when acquired.

(2) Any other consistent method previously found acceptable may be used so long as the allowance for depreciation so computed is reasonable in the light of the facts available at the end of the taxable year. An example of an acceptable method is the declining balance method with the rate limited to 150 percent of the applicable straight-line rate. For rules relating to change in methods of computing depreciation see § 1.167 (e)–1.

(c) Property acquired after 1953. (1) The methods specified in this paragraph for computing the depreciation allowance are applicable to tangible property with a useful life of three years or more, the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after 1953. These methods apply only to that portion of the basis of the property which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after 1953. These methods also apply to tangible property with a useful life of three years or more acquired after 1953, if the original use of such property commences with the taxpayer and commences after such date. If the other conditions for the application of these methods are satisfied, a lessor may apply such a method to tangible property acquired, constructed, reconstructed, or erected by him for his lessee, and a lessee may apply such a method to tangible property acquired, constructed, reconstructed, or erected by him as a leasehold improvement (but not to property acquired by him as a part of his leasehold interest). These methods are:

(i) The declining balance method: This method may be used in connection with tangible property if the maximum rate does not exceed 200 percent of the applicable straight-line rate.

(ii) Sum of the years-digits method.

(iii) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph. See § 1.167 (b)–1 for application of the various methods.

(2) Subject to the limitations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this section, the methods of computing the allowance for depreciation specified in subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of such subparagraph may be adopted without permission for property first subject to the allowance for depreciation in the hands of the taxpayer after 1953. No formal election need be made to compute the depreciation allowance on such property under such methods. In order for a taxpayer to elect to use these methods for any property described in the first sentence of this subparagraph he need only compute depreciation thereon under any of these methods for the taxable year ending after 1953 in which the property may first be depreciated by him. The election with respect to any property shall not be binding with respect to any property acquired in a subsequent taxable year. If a taxpayer has filed his return for a taxable year ending after 1953 for which the return is required to be filed before January 1, 1956, the election to compute the depreciation allowance under these methods may be made in an amended return filed before January 1, 1956. The depreciation allowance for property with a useful life of less than three years must be computed under one of the methods described in paragraph (b) of this section for property acquired at any time.

(3) The use of methods applicable only to property acquired after 1953, may be illustrated in the following manner: If a building with a total basis of $100,000 is completed after 1953, and the portion of the basis attributable to construction after 1953 is $30,000, the methods described in this paragraph are applicable only to the portion of the total basis attributable to the construction after 1953, $30,000. The depreciation allowance in connection with the remaining $70,000 is to be computed in accordance with one of the methods described in paragraph (b) of this section, which are applicable to property acquired at any time. Similarly, if property is acquired after 1953 by the taxpayer, the methods described in this paragraph are applicable only if the property has not been used prior to its acquisition by the taxpayer. To the extent the taxpayer, after 1953, reconstructs previously used property the reconstruction costs may be depreciated under the methods specified in this paragraph.

§ 1.167 (d) Statutory provision; depreciation; agreement as to useful life on which depreciation rate is based.

SEC. 167. Depreciation. • • •

(d) Agreement as to useful life on which depreciation rate is based. Where, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, the taxpayer and the Secretary or his delegate have, after the date of enactment of this title, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the Secretary in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by registered mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

§ 1.167 (d)–1 Agreement as to useful life and rates of depreciation. After August 16, 1954, a taxpayer may, for taxable years ending after 1953, enter into an agreement with respect to the estimated useful life, method, and rate of depreciation of any property which is subject to the allowance for depreciation. An application for such agreement may be made to the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer's income return is required to be filed or to the assistant regional commissioner (appellate) if related to a case within his jurisdiction. Before entering into an agreement, the taxpayer must furnish such information as may be required by the Internal Revenue Service. Such information will ordinarily include:

(a) The character and location of the property.

(b) The original cost or other basis and date of acquisition.

(c) Adjustments to the basis required by section 1016, including depreciation accumulated to the first taxable year to be covered by the agreement.

(d) Estimated remaining useful life and estimated salvage value.

(e) Method and rate of depreciation.

The agreement must be in writing and must be signed by the taxpayer and by the district director, the assistant regional commissioner (appellate), or such other person as is authorized by the Commissioner. The agreement must be signed in triplicate, and two of the signed copies will be returned to the taxpayer. The agreement shall set forth its effective date, the estimated remaining useful life, the estimated salvage value, and rate and method of depreciation of the property, and shall relate only to depreciation allowances for such property on and after the effective date of the agreement. Such an agreement shall be binding on both parties until such time as facts and circumstances which were not taken into account in making the agreement are shown to exist. The party wishing to modify or change the agreement shall have the responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances. Any change in the useful life or rate specified in such agreement shall be effective only prospectively, that is, it shall be effective beginning with the taxable year in which notice of the intention to change, including facts and circumstances warranting the adjustment of useful life or rate, is sent by registered mail by the party proposing the change to the other party. One of the two copies of the agreement (or any modification thereof) which were returned to the taxpayer shall be filed with the return of the taxpayer for the first taxable year which is affected by the agreement (or any modification thereof). The other copy should be retained with the permanent records of the taxpayer. For rules relating to changes in method of depreciation, see §§ 1.167 (e)–1 and 1.446 (e)– —.

§ 1.167 (e) Statutory provision; depreciation; change in method.

SEC. 167. Depreciation. • • •

(e) Change in method. In the absence of an agreement under subsection (d) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate to change from the method of depreciation described in subsection (b) (2) to the method described in subsection (b) (1).

§ 1.167 (e)–1 Change in method. (a) A taxpayer may change, without the consent of the Commissioner, from the declining balance method of depreciation to the straight-line method at any time during the useful life of property in the absence of an agreement under section 167 (d) which contains a provision prohibiting such a change. At the time the change from the declining balance to the straight-line method is made, the unrecovered cost or other basis (less a reasonable estimate for salvage) shall be recovered through annual allowances over the estimated remaining useful life determined in accordance with the circumstances existing at that time. The taxpayer shall furnish a statement, with respect to the property which is the subject of the change in method of depreciation, showing the date of acquisition, cost or other basis, amounts recovered through depreciation and other allowances, the estimated salvage value, the character of the property, the remaining useful life of the property, and such other information as may be required. The statement shall be attached to the income tax return of the taxpayer for the taxable year in which the change is made. A change to the straight-line method must be adhered to for the taxable year of the change and for all subsequent taxable years unless, with the consent of the Commissioner, a change to another method is permitted. Except for property being depreciated in item accounts the taxpayer must maintain subsidiary depreciation records in order to have sufficient information to make such a change.

(b) Any change in method of depreciation is a change in method of accounting, and such a change will be permitted only with the consent of the Commissioner, except that a change from the declining balance method to the straight-line method as provided in section 167 (e) shall be permitted without such consent. Any request for a change in method of depreciation shall be made in accordance with the regulations under section 446 (e). Such request shall state the method of depreciation being used and the method proposed to be used, the cost or other basis and adjustments thereto, the date of acquisition, estimated salvage value, amounts recovered through depreciation and other allowances, the character and location of the property, the estimated remaining useful life of the property, and such other information as may be required.

§ 1.167 (f) Statutory provision; depreciation; basis for depreciation.

SEC. 167. Depreciation.— • • •

(f) Basis for depreciation. The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in section 1011 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property.

§ 1.167 (f)–1 Basis for depreciation. The basis upon which the allowance for depreciation is to be computed with respect to any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in section 1011 for the purpose of determining gain on the sale or other disposition of such property. In the case of property which has not been used in the trade or business or held for the production of income and which is thereafter converted to such use, the fair market value on the date of such conversion, if less than the adjusted basis of the property at that time, is the basis for computing depreciation.

§ 1.167 (g) Statutory provision; depreciation; life tenants and beneficiaries of trusts and estates.

SEC. 167. Depreciation. • • •

(g) Life tenants and beneficiaries of trusts and estates. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiaries and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of income of the estate allocable to each.

§ 1.167 (g)–1 Life tenants and beneficiaries of trusts and estates. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction for depreciation shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property so that he will be entitled to the deduction during his life, and thereafter the deduction, if any, shall be allowed to the remainderman. In the case of property held in trust, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiaries and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the will, deed, or other instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income which is allocable to the trustee and the beneficiaries, respectively. For example, if the trust instrument provides that the income of the trust computed without regard to depreciation shall be distributed to a named beneficiary, such beneficiary shall be entitled to the depreciation allowance to the exclusion of the trustee, while if the instrument provides that the trustee in determining the distributable income shall first make due allowance for keeping the trust corpus intact by retaining a reasonable amount of the current income for that purpose, the allowable deduction shall be granted in full to the trustee. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of income of the estate which is allocable to each.

§ 1.167 (h) Statutory provision; depreciation; depreciation of improvements in the case of mines, etc.

SEC. 167. Depreciation. • • •

(h) Depreciation of improvements in the case of mines, etc. For additional rule applicable to depreciation of improvements in the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, see section 611.

§ 1.167 (h)–1 Depreciation of improvements in the case of mines, etc. Property used in the trade or business or held for the production of income which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 611 shall be treated for all purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as if it were property subject to the allowance for depreciation under section 167. The preceding sentence shall not limit the allowance for depreciation otherwise allowable under section 611.

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Kansas City, Missouri on July 27-30, 1954.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record, thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on August 20, 1954, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision. Notice of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 25, 1954 (19 F. R. 5403).

Preliminary statement. The material issues considered at the hearing were concerned with the following:

(1) Establishment of a "quota-excess" plan for paying producers in certain months in lieu of the present fall premium incentive plan;

(2) Revisions in the supply-demand adjustor;

(3) Revision of Class I price differentials;

(4) The basis and level of pricing milk for other than Class I use;

(5) Limitations on diversions allowable for continued pooling; and

(6) Conforming language changes in other provisions of the order.

Producers have proposed that the quota-forming period under a quota-excess plan begin on September 1 and that in view of the serious drought situation a special Class I pricing be provided for the period through December 1954. Accordingly, they ask that immediate action be taken with respect to these two issues. Other issues require further consideration and a decision on these matters will be issued separately.

The following findings and conclusions on issue No. 1 and on issue No. 2 for the limited period through December 1954 are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof.

(1) Quota-excess plan. A method of paying producers on the basis of their marketings in a representative period of fall months should be adopted to provide additional incentive for producers to adjust their production more nearly to the needs of the market.

A fall incentive payment plan has been a part of pricing mechanism of the Greater Kansas City order since May 1946. This plan, which has operated in conjunction with seasonal price differentials, was proposed initially by producers in an effort to level production to more nearly meet the needs of the market. Producers now propose that a quota-excess plan be incorporated into the order in lieu of the present fall incentive payment plan. They propose that a 122 day period (September through December) be used for the quota-forming period and that no producer be granted a quota if he delivers less than 90 days during such period. Under their proposal the quota-operating period would extend over the eight-month period January through August.

Milk production in the Greater Kansas City milkshed tends to be highest in the spring months and reaches a low point in the fall months. May and June are the months of greatest production while October and November are the usual months of lowest production. Production during the March-July period on the average exceeds that during September-December by roughly 30 percent, with production during the month of greatest production exceeding that during the month of shortest production by as much as 50 percent. Under usual circumstances Class I sales are relatively stable throughout the year although the record shows a gradual upward trend in such sales.

A closer alignment between the seasonal pattern of production and consumption would effect substantially improved marketing conditions. A considerable seasonal disparity between producer receipts and fluid milk needs results in surplus disposal problems during the flush months and incomplete utilization of plant facilities in other months of the year. Accordingly, the wide seasonal variation in production tends to entail additional costs in the marketing process which must be borne individually or collectively by producers, consumers and handlers. Although producers with relatively even production under the plan heretofore in effect enjoy a somewhat higher annual rate of return than do uneven producers there was testimony nevertheless that "even" producers do not receive sufficient additional income to maintain a significant incentive for their even production pattern. Under the present plan all producers share alike in the total market utilization, and the price received by the "even" producer is reduced in the spring months by reason of the wider seasonal variation in the deliveries of other producers.

While it is probable that the pricing scheme which has been employed in the Kansas City market together with the fall incentive payment plan has been effective in forestalling a more serious seasonal maladjustment between production and fluid demand, an even more marked modification of the seasonal pattern is desirable. The quota-excess plan herein recommended would increase the incentive on a marketwide basis to level out production throughout the year.

The plan herein recommended would establish the period September through December as the quota-forming period. A producer's daily quota would be calculated on the basis of his total milk deliveries to pool plants during such period, divided by the number of days on which deliveries were made, but in no event less than 90. The plan also provides that any producer who fails to establish a quota shall be considered a "new" producer.

Producers would be paid for quota and excess milk during the months of February through July. During all other months producers would be paid on the basis of a uniform price for all milk delivered. The quantity of quota milk for each producer would be computed by multiplying such producer's daily quota by the number of days on which he made deliveries to a pool plant. Any milk so delivered in excess of quota milk would be considered as excess milk and paid for at a lower price to be known as the "excess price." The price for excess milk would be computed by first assigning total receipts of excess milk to Class II to the extent of available Class II utilization and such milk in excess of Class II use would be assigned to the residual Class I use after the prior deduction of quota milk from the total available Class I use. The price for quota milk would be computed by first assigning such milk to Class I to the extent of available Class I utilization and such milk in excess of Class I use would be assigned to Class II.

The September–December period appears to be a suitable period for giving producers incentive for increasing production as part of a program of evening out their annual production. In the computation of daily quotas each producer's total deliveries for the entire four-month period should be divided by the total number of days on which deliveries are made but in no event by less than 90. Proponents proposed that a quota be established only on the basis of at least 90 days of actual deliveries and that the total deliveries be divided by 122 in all cases. No provision was made for the establishment of a quota for a producer entering the market after October 2 in the quota-forming period. The plan set forth herein will permit a producer to enter the market at any time and to establish a quota on the bases of his performance during the entire quota-forming period. Other producers have assurance that new producers will have no undue advantage in the establishment of quotas since maximum quotas can be established only through deliveries over a minimum of 90 days.

In view of the fact that some producers may have been in doubt as to whether September 1954 deliveries would be used in establishing quotas provision is made that the daily quotas calculated from deliveries in the fall months of 1954 should be the higher of that calculated as above or that resulting from a like calculation using deliveries for the months of October through December 1954.

As a result of exceptions received provisions recommended with respect to interim quotas for producers who made no deliveries during the quota-forming period and with respect to relinquishment of established quotas have been reconsidered in the light of the evidence in the record of hearing. Such evidence indicates that such provisions would provide reduced incentive for leveling of production to those producers whose production is most uneven. It does not appear necessary that they be included in the plan at this time.

Producers proposed that the period of payment on quota and excess milk be the eight-month period of January through August. However, a review of the month to month variation in producer receipts indicates that the months of February through July are the months in which corrective action is necessary with respect to variations in deliveries. It is highly desirable that the quota plan have as large a degree of flexibility as is possible without destroying the desired effectiveness of the plan. Confining the quota operating period to the six months when production in relation to fluid sales is most excessive will preserve flexibility while at the same time offer substantial monetary reward to those producers who level their annual production to meet more nearly the needs of the market. During the remaining months of August through January all producers on the market would receive the market "blend" or uniform price.

Operation of a quota-excess plan for paying producers requires certain rules in connection with the establishment and transfer of quotas to provide reasonable administrative workability of the plan. To accomplish this purpose and still preserve the effectiveness of the plan transfers of quotas should be limited to situations in which producers may die or enter into military service and where joint production arrangements are dissolved. Since the quota plan herein proposed is to be effective in determining producer payments in only five of the twelve months of the year, and all producers must establish a new base each year, provisions in addition to those contained herein for the establishment and transfer of quotas to meet unusual situations do not appear necessary.

(2) Class I price through December. No change should be made in the Class I pricing provisions for the period through December 1954. Under the present order provisions the Class I price through December is the basic formula price plus $1.45, plus or minus a "supply-demand adjustment." Producers explained that in view of the serious drought situation throughout the milkshed and the precarious financial status of producers which resulted from severe losses suffered through two consecutive years of drought, they must have price assurance if they are to continue in business during the forthcoming fall and winter months. They ask that the supply-demand adjustment be suspended and the Class I price differential be established at $1.90 for the period through December.

The severity of the drought which the milkshed has experienced this summer is in ample evidence throughout the hearing record. Pasture conditions as officially reported vary from 9 to 70 percent of normal throughout the area with conditions generally being less than 30 percent of normal. The condition of the corn crop follows a generally similar pattern and there appears little likelihood that any significant part of the crop will be harvested for other than silage. In many sections hope for any crop at all has been abandoned and fodder is being ensiled for immediate feeding. Drought conditions have necessitated the feeding of hay, green corn and ensilage which producers normally rely on for winter feed. The greatly extended barn feeding season coupled with small crops of home-grown feeds will substantially increase overall feeding costs for the remainder of this year and the early part of 1955.

A considerable drop in milk production has occurred during the month of July and it appears likely that a substantially higher than normal percentage of utilization in Class I will result at least through the early fall months. The supply-demand adjustment in the current month is based upon the relationship of receipts and sales of milk during the immediately preceding two months. For each month since December 1953 this provision has resulted in a downward adjustment of the Class I price. In July the adjustment was a minus 28 cents, the smallest since December. It seems likely that an upward adjustment may result for August and by September the upward adjustment may be rather substantial. If the production pattern for the forthcoming fall and winter continues below normal in relation to sales, the Class I price will continue to strengthen as a result of the operation of the present order provisions. This is in accordance with the intent of the supply-demand adjustor. Under the present order it is possible to obtain a Class I price of $1.90 over the basic formula, the same price for which producer ask assurance.

A considerable portion of the Greater Kansas City milkshed has been included in the designated drought disaster areas. Dairymen in areas so designated are eligible under specified conditions to secure feed concentrates and grains at reduced prices. While this program is designed to provide a basis for maintaining foundation herds, and not to promote a high level of milk production, it should be of very substantial assistance in minimizing the necessity of disposing of foundation herds which constitute the future milk supply for the Greater Kansas City market. The program should also provide a means whereby a portion of the unusual costs dairymen incur under drought conditions may be avoided.

The number of producers on the Kansas City market has been steadily increasing in recent years in response to ever-increasing requirements for fluid milk. Testimony of both producers and handlers substantiate the existence of adequate prospective milk supplies to meet market needs. It is concluded, therefore, that the present provisions of the order provide a basis for adjusting the Class I price in line with current production and marketing conditions and, accordingly, action should not be taken to substitute a fixed increase in the Class I differentials for these provisions for the period through December 1954.

Rulings on exceptions. Within the period reserved for exceptions, interested parties filed exceptions to certain of the findings, conclusions, and actions recommended by the Deputy Administrator. In arriving at the findings, conclusions and regulatory provisions of this decision, each of such exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings, conclusions, and actions decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are overruled.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to Section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Determination of representative period. The month of July 1954, is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of an order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Kansas City marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached amending order is approved or favored by producers who during such period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order, as amended.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Greater Kansas City, Marketing Area," and "Order Amending the order, As Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Greater Kansas City, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of September 1954.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Order [1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Greater Kansas City Marketing Area

§ 913.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act") (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900) a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Kansas City marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Greater Kansas City marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Add the following as § 913.16:

§ 913.16 Quota milk. "Quota milk" means the amount of milk received by a handler from a producer during each of the delivery periods of February through July which is not in excess of such producer's daily quota computed pursuant to § 913.65 multiplied by the number of days in such delivery period on which such milk was received by the handler: Provided, That with respect to any producer on "every-other-day" delivery to a pool plant the days of non-delivery shall be considered as days of delivery for purposes of this section and of § 913.65.

2 Add the following as § 913.17.

§ 913.17 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means the amount of milk received by a handler from a producer during each of the delivery periods of February through July which is in excess of quota milk received from such producer during such delivery period, and shall include all milk received from a producer for whom no daily base can be computed pursuant to § 913.15.

3a. Delete § 913.22 (j) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) On or before the 10th day of each month the applicable uniform price(s) computed pursuant to §§ 913.71 and 913.72 and the producer butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 913.82, both applicable to milk delivered during the previous delivery period;

3b. Amend § 913.22 by adding the following as paragraph (l):

(l) On or before February 1 of each year in writing notify: (1) Each producer who made deliveries of milk during the previous September through December of his daily quota computed pursuant to § 913.65, (2) each cooperative association of the daily quota of each member of such association, and (3) each handler of the daily quota of each producer from whom such handler received milk.

4. Delete § 913.30 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) The receipts at each plant of milk from each producer, the average butterfat test, the pounds of butterfat contained therein, the number of days on which milk was received from such producer, and for each of the delivery periods of February through July, the total pounds of quota milk and excess milk received from each producer.

5. Delete § 913.31 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) The total pounds of milk, the average butterfat test thereof, and the pounds of butterfat received from each producer and cooperative association, and the number of days on which milk was received from such producer, including, for each of the delivery periods of February through July, such producer's deliveries of quota milk and excess milk.

6. Add the following as §§ 913.65 and 913.66:

DETERMINATION OF QUOTA

§ 913.65 Computation of daily quota for each producer. The daily quota for each producer applicable during each of the delivery periods of February through July, inclusive, shall be determined by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Divide the total pounds of milk received by a handler(s) at a pool plant from such producer during the immediately preceding delivery periods of September through December by the number of days during such period on which milk was received from such producer, or by 90, whichever is greater: Provided, That the daily quota applicable during the delivery periods of February through July 1955 shall be the higher of that resulting from such computation or that resulting from an identical computation with respect to milk received from such producer during the immediately preceding delivery periods of October through December.

§ 913.66 Daily quota rules. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, a daily quota shall apply only to milk produced by the producer in whose name such milk was delivered to the handler(s) during the quota-forming period.

(b) A producer may transfer his daily quota during the period of February through July by notifying the market administrator in writing before the last day of any delivery period that such quota is to be transferred to the person named in such notice but under the following conditions only:

(1) In the event of the death or entry into military service of a producer, the entire daily quota may be transferred to a member of such producer's immediate family who carries on the dairy operation on the same farm;

(2) If a quota is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated on the basis of written notice to the market administrator from the joint holders the entire daily quota may be transferred to one of the joint holders, or divided in accordance with such notice between the former joint holders if they continue dairy operations.

7. Delete § 913.71 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 913.71 Computation of uniform price. For each of the delivery periods of August through January the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 913.70 for all handlers who filed reports prescribed in § 913.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 913.80 and 913.84 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Add the aggregate of the values of all allowable location differential adjustments to producers pursuant to § 913.81;

(c) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(d) Subtract for each one-tenth percent by which the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 3.8 percent, or add for each one-tenth percent that such average butterfat content is less than 3.8 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 913.82 by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(e) Divide by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations; and

(f) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received at pool plants located less than 50 miles from the City Hall in Kansas City, Missouri.

8. Add the following as § 913.72:

§ 913.72 Computation of uniform price for quota milk and excess milk. For each of the delivery periods of February through July the market administrator shall compute uniform prices per hun-dredweight for quota milk and for excess milk as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 913.70 for all handlers who filed reports pursuant to § 913.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 913.80 and 913.84 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Add the aggregate of the values of all allowable location differential adjustments to producers pursuant to § 913.81;

(c) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(d) Subtract for each one-tenth percent by which the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 3.8 percent, or add for each one-tenth percent that such average butterfat content is less than 3.8 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 913.82 by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(e) Compute the total value of excess milk included in these computations by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk not in excess of the total quantity of Class II milk included in these computations by the price for Class II milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content, multiplying the hundredweight of such milk in excess of the total hundredweight of such Class II milk by the price for Class I milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content, and adding together the resulting amounts;

(f) Divide the total value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (e) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk, and adjust to the nearest cent. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for excess milk of 3.8 percent butterfat received from producers at pool plants located less than fifty miles from the City Hall in Kansas City, Missouri;

(g) Subtract the value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (e) of this section from the aggregate value of milk obtained in paragraph (d) of this section and adjust by any amount involved in adjusting the uniform price of excess milk to the nearest cent;

(h) Divide the amount obtained in paragraph (g) of this section by the total hundredweight of quota milk included in these computations; and

(i) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for quota milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received from producers at pool plants located less than fifty miles from the City Hall in Kansas City, Missouri.

10. Delete § 913.80 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period during which the milk was received, to each producer for whom payment is not made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, at not less than the applicable uniform price(s) pursuant to § 913.71 or § 913.72, adjusted by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 913.82, subject to the location adjustment to producers pursuant to § 913.81, and less the following amounts (1) the payments made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, (2) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 913.88, and (3) any deductions authorized by the producer: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such delivery period pursuant to § 913.85 he may reduce his total payment to all producers uniformly by not less than the amount of reduction in payment from the market administrator; the handler shall, however, complete such payments not later than the date for making such payments pursuant to this paragraph next following receipt of the balance from the market administrator.

11. Delete § 913.80 (d) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) The pounds per shipment, the total pounds of milk (quota milk and excess milk separately for March through July), and the average butterfat test of milk delivered by the producer.

12. Delete § 913.86.

[Docket No. AO-182-A4]

HANDLING OF MILK IN TOPEKA, KANSAS MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Topeka, Kansas on July 23, 1954.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record, thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on August 20, 1954, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision on certain of the issues considered at such hearing. Notice of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 25, 1954 (19 F. R. 5406).

Preliminary statement. The material issues considered at the hearing were concerned with the following:

1. Establishment of a "base-excess" plan for paying producers in certain months in lieu of the present fall premium incentive plan.

2. A change in the named plants the pay price of which are used as a basis for pricing Class III milk;

3. A revision in the pool plant requirements;

4. A change from a milk equivalent to a butterfat-skim accounting;

5. A revision in the classification and pricing provisions to establish two utilization classes in lieu of the present three classes;

6. Authorization for the market administrator to provide the producer association with the utilization percentage of milk in each class at each handler's plant;

7. A revision in the amount of the marketing service deduction; and

8. Conforming language changes in other provisions of the order.

Producers proposed that the base setting period under a base-excess plan begin on September 1. Because of the urgency of a decision with respect to this issue and also with respect to the Class III price proposal and the revision of the marketing service deduction this decision is confined to a consideration of these issues. Other issues require further consideration and a decision on these matters will be issued promptly.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on issues No. 1, 2 and 7 are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Base-excess plan. A method of paying producers on the basis of their marketings in a representative period of fall months should be adopted to provide additional incentive for producers to adjust their production more nearly to the needs of the market.

A fall incentive payment plan has long been a part of the pricing mechanism of the Topeka order. This plan, which has operated in conjunction with seasonal price differentials was proposed initially by producers in an effort to level production to more nearly meet the needs of the market. Producers now propose that a base-excess plan be incorporated into the order in lieu of the present fall incentive payment plan. Under their proposal the 122 day period of September through December would be used as the base-forming period and no producer would be granted a base if he delivered less than 90 days during such period. The base-operating period would extend over the eight-month period of January through August.

Milk production in the Topeka market tends to be highest in the spring months and reaches a low point in the fall months. Under usual circumstances, May and June are the months of greatest production while September through November are the months of lowest production. The average monthly production during the March–July period exceeds that during the preceding September–December period by from 20 to 30 percent with production during the peak month exceeding the shortest month by as much as 50 percent. Class I sales are relatively stable throughout the year, although the record shows a continuing upward trend in such sales.

A closer alignment between the seasonal pattern of production and consumption would effect substantially improved marketing conditions. A considerable seasonal disparity between producer receipts and fluid milk needs results in surplus disposal problems during the flush months and incomplete utilization of plant facilities in other months of the year. Accordingly, a wide seasonal variation in production tends to entail additional costs in the marketing process which must be borne individually or collectively by producers, consumers, and handlers. Although producers with relatively even production under the plan heretofore in effect enjoy a somewhat higher annual rate of returns, than do uneven producers, there was testimony nevertheless that "even" producers do not receive sufficient additional income to maintain a significant incentive for their even production pattern. Under the present plan, all producers share alike in the total market utilization and the price received by the "even" producer is reduced in the spring months by reason of the wider seasonal variation in the deliveries of other producers.

While it is probable that the pricing plan which has been employed in the Topeka market has been effective in forestalling a more serious seasonal maladjustment between production and fluid demand, an even more marked modification of the seasonal pattern is desirable. The base-excess plan herein recommended would increase incentive on a market-wide basis to level out production throughout the year.

The plan herein recommended would establish the period September through December as the base-forming period. A producer's daily base would be calculated on the basis of his total milk delivered to pool plants during such period, divided by the number of days on which deliveries were made, but in no event less than 90. The plan also provides that any producer who fails to establish a base shall be considered a "new" producer.

Producers would be paid for base and excess milk only during the months of February through July. During all other months, producers would be paid on the basis of a uniform price for all milk delivered. The quantity of base milk for each producer would be computed by multiplying such producers daily base by the number of days on which he made deliveries to a pool plant. Any milk so delivered in excess of base milk would be considered as excess milk and paid for at a lower price to be known as the "excess price." The price paid for excess milk would be computed by assigning total receipts of excess milk to the respective classes of use in sequence starting with the lowest available class utilization in such plant. The price for base milk would be computed by first assigning such milk to Class I to the extent of available Class I utilization and such milk in excess of Class I use would be assigned to lower classes in sequence starting with the highest available usage.

The September-December period appears to be a suitable period for giving producers incentive for increasing production as part of a program of evening out their annual production. In the computation of daily bases each producer's total deliveries for the entire four month period should be divided by the total number of days on which deliveries are made but in no event by less than 90. For purposes of computing bases in the case of producers on every-other-day delivery to a pool plant, the days of non-delivery should be considered as days of delivery. Proponents proposed that a base be established only in the event of at least 90 days of actual delivery and that the total deliveries be divided by 122 in all cases. They would provide no means for a producer entering the market after October 2 to establish a base. The plan set forth herein will permit a producer to enter the market at any time and to establish a base on the basis of his performance during the entire base-forming period. Other producers have assurance that a producer entering the market after September 1, will have no undue advantage in the establishment of a base since maximum bases can be established only through deliveries over a minimum of 90 days. In view of the fact that some producers may have been in doubt as to whether September 1954 deliveries would be used in establishing bases, provision is made that the daily base calculated from deliveries in the fall months of 1954 should be the higher of that calculated as above or that resulting from a like calculation using deliveries for the months of October through December 1954.

As a result of exceptions received provisions that were recommended with respect to interim bases for producers who made no deliveries during the base-forming period and with respect to relinquishment of established bases have been reconsidered in the light of the evidence in the record of hearing. Such evidence indicates that these provisions would provide reduced incentive for leveling of production to those producers whose deliveries are most uneven. It does not appear necessary that they be included in the plan at this time.

Producers proposed that the period of payment on base and excess milk be the eight-month period of January through August. However, a review of the month to month variation in producer receipts indicates that the months of February through July are the months in which corrective action is necessary with respect to variation in deliveries. It is highly desirable that the base plan have as large a degree of flexibility as is possible without destroying the desired effectiveness of the plan. Confining the base operating period to the six months when production in relation to fluid sales is most excessive will preserve flexibility while at the same time offer substantial monetary reward to those producers who level their annual production to meet more nearly the needs of the market. During the remaining months of August through January all producers on the market would receive the market "blend" or uniform price.

Operation of a base-excess plan for paying producers requires certain rules in connection with the establishment and transfer of bases to provide reasonable administrative workability of the plan. To accomplish this purpose transfers of bases should be limited to situation in which producers may die or enter into military service and where joint production arrangements are dissolved. Since the base plan herein proposed is to be effective in determining producer payments in only five of the twelve months of the year, and all producers must establish a new base each year, provisions in addition to those contained herein for the establishment and transfer of bases to meet unusual situations do not appear necessary.

2. Class III price. The present order provisions dealing with the determination of the Class III price should be revised by substituting the Bennett Creamery Co., of Ottawa, Kansas for the Meyer Sanitary Milk Company of Valley Falls, Kansas and by providing that in no event shall the Class III price be less than the price paid by the Beatrice Foods Company at Topeka.

At the time the Meyer Sanitary Milk Company was included in the order as one of the plants the producer pay prices of which were used to determine the Class III price, that company was a very substantial buyer of local milk for manufacturing purposes. The record shows that operations of this plant have subsequently been discontinued and accordingly, it no longer represents an appropriate medium for determining competitive pay prices in the Topeka area. The Bennett Creamery Company of Ottawa is a substantial buyer of milk for manufacturing milk and as such represents an appropriate addition to the plants use in determining the Topeka Class III price. The primary outlet for milk of Topeka producers which is in excess of fluid needs is the Beatrice Foods Company plant at Topeka. Producer milk priced under this order is all of Grade A quality and there appears no reason why it should not command a price in this market at least equal to the local pay price for ungraded milk. Therefore, it appears appropriate that the price paid by the Beatrice Foods Company for ungraded milk be established as a minimum price for Class III milk.

7. Marketing service deduction. The provisions of § 980.88 of the order should be revised to provide a maximum marketing service deduction of 5 cents per hundredweight in lieu of the present 3 cents. The three cent deduction was established in 1934 and the expenses and salaries of the market administrator and his staff have substantially increased since that time. The monies collected under the 3 cent rate are now insufficient to cover the costs incurred in checking weights and tests of producer milk and the marketing service account has been running in the red. It is estimated that an additional 2 cents per hundredweight is necessary to cover the cost of necessary marketing services performed by the market administrator for producers for whom such services are not being rendered by a cooperative association qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act." The proposed 5 cent rate is a maximum rate and it is provided that if the Secretary finds that necessary services can be performed for a lesser rate he may reduce the deduction accordingly.

Ruling on exceptions. Within the period reserved for exceptions, interested parties filed exceptions to certain of the findings, conclusions, and actions, recommended by the Deputy Administrator. In arriving at the findings, conclusions and regulatory provisions of this decision, each of such exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings, conclusions, and actions decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are overruled.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Determination of representative period. The month of July 1954, is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of an order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Topeka, Kansas, marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached amending order is approved or favored by producers who during such period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order as amended.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Topeka, Kansas, Marketing Area," and "Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Topeka, Kansas, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of September 1954.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Topeka, Kansas, Marketing Area.

§ 980.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act") (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900) a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Topeka, Kansas, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Topeka, Kansas, marketing area shall be conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Add the following as § 980.16:

§ 980.16 Base milk. "Base milk" means the amount of milk received by a handler from a producer during each of the delivery periods of February through July which was not in excess of such producer's daily base computed pursuant to § 980.66 multiplied by the number of days in such delivery period on which such milk was received by the handler: Provided, That with respect to any producer on "every-other-day" delivery to a pool plant the days of nondelivery shall be considered as days of delivery for purposes of this section and of § 980.66.

2. Add the following as § 980.17:

§ 980.17 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means the amount of milk received by a handler from a producer during any of the delivery periods of March through July which is in excess of base milk received from such producer during such delivery period and shall include all milk received from a producer for whom no daily base can be computed pursuant to § 980.66.

3. Amend § 980.22 by adding the following as paragraphs (f) and (g):

(f) On or before February 11 of each year in writing notify (1) each producer who made deliveries of milk during the previous September through December of his daily base computed pursuant to § 980.66, (2) each cooperative association of the daily base of each member of such association, and (3) each handler of the daily base of each producer from whom such handler receives milk;

(g) On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period mail to all handlers: (1) Such of the computations of the uniform price(s) made pursuant to §§ 980.71 and 980.72 as do not disclose information confidential pursuant to the act; (2) the applicable uniform price(s) per hundredweight computed pursuant to §§ 980.71 and 980.72; (3) the prices for Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk; and (4) the butterfat differentials computed pursuant to §§ 980.51 and 980.82.

4. Delete § 980.30 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) The receipts at each plant of milk from each producer, the average butterfat test, the pounds of butterfat contained therein, the number of days on which milk was received from such producer, and for each of the delivery periods of February through July, the total pounds of base milk and excess milk received from each producer.

5. Delete § 980.31 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) The total pounds of milk, the average butterfat test thereof, and the pounds of butterfat received from each producer and cooperative association, and the number of days on which milk was received from such producer, including for each of the delivery periods of February through July such producers' deliveries of base milk and excess milk.

6. Amend § 980.50 (c) by deleting the words "Meyer Sanitary Milk Company at its plant at Valley Falls, Kansas" and substitute therefor the words "Bennett Creamery Company at Ottawa, Kansas: Provided, That in no event shall the price be less than that paid at the Beatrice Foods Company plant included in this section."

7. In § 980.64 delete the words "Excess milk," as they appear in the heading and substitute therefor the word "Overage."

8. Add the following as § 980.66:

§ 980.66 Computation of daily base for each producer. The daily base for each producer applicable during each of the delivery periods of February through July, inclusive, shall be determined by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Divide the total pounds of milk received by a handler(s) at a pool plant from such producer during the immediately preceding delivery periods of September through December by the number of days during such period on which milk was received from such producer, or by 90, whichever is greater: Provided, That the daily base applicable during the delivery periods of February through July 1955 shall be the higher of that resulting from such computation or that resulting from an identical computation with respect to milk received from such producer during the immediately preceding delivery periods of October through December.

9. Add the following as § 980.67:

§ 980.67 Daily base rules. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, a daily base shall apply only to milk produced by the producers in whose name such milk was delivered to the handler(s) during the base-forming period.

(b) A producer may transfer his daily base during the period of February through July by notifying the market administrator in writing before the last day of any delivery period that such base is to be transferred to the person named in such notice but under the following conditions only:

(1) In the event of the death or entry into military service of a producer, the entire daily base may be transferred to a member of such producer's immediate family who carries on the dairy operation on the same farm.

(2) If a base is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated on the basis of written notice to the market administrator from the joint holders the entire daily base may be transferred to one of the joint holders, or divided in accordance with such notice between the former joint holders if they continue dairy operations.

10. Delete § 980.71 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 980.71 Computation of uniform price. For each of the delivery periods of August through January the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 980.70 for all handlers who filed reports prescribed in § 980.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 980.80 and 980.84 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(c) Subtract for each one-tenth percent by which the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 3.8 percent, or add for each one-tenth percent that such average butterfat content is less than 3.8 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.82 by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Divide by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations; and

(e) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for such delivery period for milk of producers containing 3.8 percent butterfat.

11. Add the following as § 980.72:

§ 980.72 Computation of uniform price for base milk and excess milk. For each of the delivery periods of February through July the market administrator shall compute uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and for excess milk as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 980.70 for all handlers who filed reports pursuant to § 980.30 and who made the payments pursuant to §§ 980.80 and 980.84 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(c) Subtract for each one-tenth percent by which the average butterfat content of the milk included in these computations is greater than 3.8 percent, or add for each one-tenth percent that such average butterfat content is less than 3.8 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.82 by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(d) Compute the total value of excess milk included in these computations by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk not in excess of the total quantity of Class III milk included in these computations by the price for Class III milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content, multiplying the remaining hundredweight of such milk not in excess the total quantity of Class II milk by the price for Class II milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content, multiplying any remaining hundredweight of such milk by the price for Class I milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content, and adding together the resulting amounts.

(e) Divide the total value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (d) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk, and adjust to the nearest cent. The resulting figures shall be the uniform price for such delivery period for excess milk of 3.8 percent butterfat received from producers;

(f) Subtract the value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (d) of this section from the aggregate value of milk obtained in paragraph (c) of this section and adjust by any amount involved in adjusting the uniform price of excess milk to the nearest cent;

(g) Divide the amount obtained in paragraph (f) of this section by the total hundredweight of base milk included in these computations; and

(h) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (g) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for such delivery period for base milk of 3.8 percent butterfat received from producers.

12. Amend § 980.80 by deleting the words "at not less than the uniform price for all milk received from such producer" as they appear immediately preceding the proviso and substitute therefor the following: "at not less than the applicable uniform price(s) computed pursuant to §§ 980.71 and 980.72 for milk received from such producers."

13. Delete § 980.85 (c).

14. Delete § 980.87 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) The total pounds of milk (base milk and excess milk separately for February through July) delivered by the producer and the average butterfat test thereof, and the pounds per shipment if such information is not furnished to the producer each day;

15. Delete § 980.88 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Deductions for marketing service. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to § 980.80 shall deduct 5 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all milk of each producer purchased or received by such handler during the delivery period and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for market information to, and for the verification of weights, sampling and testing of milk received from said producers.

SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION ORDER 88

SEPTEMBER 21, 1954.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me under section 2.21 of Order No. 1, Bureau of Land Management, Region VII, approved by the Acting Secretary of the Interior August 20, 1951 (16 F. R. 8625), I hereby classify as hereinafter indicated under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. Sec. 682a), as amended, the following described public lands in the Anchorage, Alaska, Land District:

FLAT LAKE AREA

FOR LEASE AND SALE

For Recreation Sites

All unsurveyed lands lying within 660 feet of the shore of Flat Lake, and all islands lying within Flat Lake, containing approximately 209 acres.

The lands described above will become available for disposition upon issuance of new regulations pursuant to the recently amended Small Tract Act.

Lessees under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, will be required, within a reasonable time after execution of the lease, to construct upon the leased land, to the satisfaction of the appropriate officer of the Bureau of Land Management authorized to sign the lease, improvements which, under the circumstances, are substantial and are appropriate for the use for which the lease is issued.

FRED J. WEILER,
Area Lands and Minerals Officer.

ALASKA

SHORESPACE RESTORATION ORDER 517 AND SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION ORDER 87

SEPTEMBER 21, 1954.

By virtue of the authority contained in the act of June 5, 1929 (41 Stat. 1059; 48 U. S. C. 372), and pursuant to Delegation of Authority contained in sections 2.21 and 2.22 (a) (3) of Order No. 1, Bureau of Land Management, Area 4, approved by the Acting Secretary of the Interior on August 20, 1951 (16 F. R. 8625), it is ordered as follows:

1. Subject to valid existing rights, the 80-rod shorespace reserve created under the act of May 14, 1898 (30 Stat. 409; 48 U. S. C. 371), as amended, is hereby revoked as to the public lands hereinafter described, which are situated in the Anchorage, Alaska, Land District and which are hereby classified as chiefly valuable for lease and sale under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended:

JUNEAU SMALL TRACT AREA

FOR LEASE AND SALE

For Residence Sites

U. S. Survey 3258:
Lots 2-14, inclusive;
Lots 16-32, inclusive.
U. S. Survey 3259:
Lots 33-41, inclusive;
Lots 43-48, inclusive;
Lots 51, 52, and 53.
U. S. Survey 3260:
Lots 12-21, inclusive;
Lots 23-38, inclusive.
U. S. Survey 3261:
Lot 39A; Lots 40-44, inclusive;
Lots 46-53, inclusive.
U. S. Survey 3262:
Lots 54-63, inclusive.
Comprising 98 tracts, aggregating approximately 131.60 acres.

2. Subject to valid existing rights, the following described lands, which are located in the Anchorage, Alaska, Land District, are hereby classified as chiefly valuable for lease and sale under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended:

U. S. Survey 3274: Lots 55, 56, and 57.
Comprising 3 tracts aggregating approximately 0.67 acre.

The lands described above appear from the Land Office records to be subject to valid existing rights based upon prior occupancy pursuant to permits issued heretofore by the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture. As to these lands, a preference right will be accorded to the respective occupants thereof who are, or prior to elimination of these lands from the Tongass National Forest were, holders of permits issued by the Forest Service. Such persons may file their preference right application for these lands in accordance with the procedure set forth in paragraph 4 (a) (2), below.

3. The following described lands, which were classified for lease and sale under Alaska Small Tract Classification Order No. 71 of April 3, 1953, shall become subject to disposition as provided in paragraph 4 of this order:

U. S. Survey 3260: Lots 1-8, inclusive;
U. S. Survey 3263, Tract A: Lots 5-12, inclusive.
Comprising 16 tracts aggregating 32.72 acres.

All of the lands described in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 are located in the general vicinity of the Mendenhall River, northwest of Juneau, Alaska. All of the lots contain good road frontage. None of the tracts have shoreline but many command a fine view. Most of the area is heavily forested and small streams traverse some of the tracts. Soils are generally thin and rocky and slopes vary from flat to very steep. Climatically the area is similar to most of Southeast Alaska, featuring cool, moist summers, moderate winters, and a heavy annual precipitation. Sewage disposal can be accomplished through septic tanks or cesspools, and drinking water can be obtained from wells, streams, or by the use of some rainwater storage device. Schools, churches, stores, and other community facilities are available in Juneau.

4. This classification order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of any lands described herein or to permit the leasing of any such lands under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, cited above, until 10:00 a. m. on October 14, 1954. At that time the lands described above shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location and selection, as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference right filings. For a period of 91 days from 10:00 a. m. on October 14, 1954, to close of business on January 12, 1954, inclusive, preference will be given as set forth above to:

(1) Applications under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a) as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the Act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and

(2) Applications under any applicable public land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Application by veterans and other qualified persons under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in this subdivision.

(b) Advance period for simultaneous preference right filings. All applications filed by such veterans and other qualified persons, or by persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans filed under the preceding paragraph (a) on September 23, 1954, or thereafter, up to and including 10:00 a. m. on October 14, 1954, shall be treated as simultaneously filed. All applications filed under the preceding paragraph (a) after 10:00 a. m. on October 14, 1954, shall be considered in the order of filing.

(c) Date for non-preference right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on January 13, 1954, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally.

(d) Advance period for simultaneous non-preference right filings. Applications under the Small Tract Act by the general public filed on December 23, 1954, or thereafter, up to and including 10:00 a. m. on January 13, 1954, shall be treated as simultaneously filed. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

5. A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic or other copy (both sides) of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or which constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

6. All applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office at Anchorage, Alaska, shall be made on Form 4-776 and shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Part 257 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

7. Lessees under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, will be required, within a reasonable time after execution of the lease, to construct upon the leased land, to the satisfaction of the appropriate officer of the Bureau of Land Management authorized to sign the lease, improvements which, under the circumstances, are substantial, and are appropriate for the use for which the lease is issued. Leases will be issued for a period of two years, at an annual rental of $5 for residence sites, payable in advance for the entire lease period. Applications for extension for an additional period of one year shall be considered in appropriate cases. Every lease for land classified for lease and sale will contain an option to purchase clause and every such lessee may file an application to purchase at the sale price as provided in the lease.

8. All of the land will be leased in tracts varying in size from approximately 0.21 acre to approximately 3.31 acres, in accordance with the classification maps on file in the Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska. These tracts are appraised at prices ranging from $50 to $375.

9. Lessees must locate any wells or sewage disposal facilities in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Territory of Alaska.

10. The leases will be made subject to rights-of-way for road purposes and public utilities, as specified in the Classification and Appraisal Report on file in the Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, State, Territory, County, or Municipality, or by any agency thereof. In the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, these rights-of-way may be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS AND ECONOMIC EMERGENCY LOANS

DESIGNATION OF AREAS

For the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a–2 (a)), it is found that in the following counties in the following States a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

CONNECTICUT

New London. Windham.

MASSACHUSETTS

Barnstable. Nantucket.
Bristol. Norfolk.
Dukes. Plymouth.
Essex. Worcester.
Middlesex.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Hillsboro. Stafford.
Rockingham.

RHODE ISLAND

All counties (entire State).

Pursuant to the delegation of authority from the Administrator, Federal Civil Defense Administration (18 F. R. 4609; 19 F. R. 2148) as further amended on July 30, 1954, and for the purpose of making loans pursuant to section 2 (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a–2 (b)), as amended by Public Law 115, 83d Congress, and section 301 of Public Law 480, 83d Congress, it is determined that all counties in the State of Rhode Island and the above designated counties in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts are within the area affected by major disaster, occasioned by two recent hurricanes, determined by the President on September 2, 1954, also that the above designated counties in the State of Connecticut are within the area affected by the major disaster, occasioned by two recent hurricanes, determined by the President on September 17, 1954, pursuant to Public Law 875, 81st Congress. It is also determined that an economic disaster exists in the areas designated above in the State of Rhode Island, Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the State of Connecticut, that has caused a need for agricultural credit that cannot be met for a temporary period from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, the Farmers Home Administration under its regular loan programs, or other responsible sources.

After December 31, 1955 loans under section 2 (a) or 2 (b) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress, as amended, will not be made in the States aforesaid except to borrowers who previously received such assistance.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of September 1954.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

[File No. 470]

GUMMED PAPER AND SEALING TAPE INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF TRADE PRACTICE CONFERENCE

Notice is hereby given that a trade practice conference for the Gummed Paper and Sealing Tape Industry will be held by the Federal Trade Commission in the Greenbrier Hotel, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, on October 21, 1954, commencing at 10 a. m., e. s. t.

Products of the industry include water-activated gummed paper sealing tapes, gummed stay papers, gummed cloth tapes used for closure purposes, gummed reinforced tapes (plain or printed), gummed flat papers, gummed hollands, gummed veneer tapes and other gummed paper specialties, and such gummed reinforced paper and or cloth specialties as are natural affiliates. All persons, firms, corporations and organizations engaged in the business of manufacturing or marketing in commerce such products are considered members of the industry and are cordially invited to attend and participate in this meeting.

The purpose of the conference, authorized at the industry's request, is to afford industry members an opportunity to consider and propose for establishment, subject to the Commission's approval, rules designed to eliminate and prevent unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, and other trade abuses which violate laws administered by the Commission.

After the conference on October 21st, and before rules are finally approved by the Commission, a draft of proposed rules will be made available to all interested and affected parties, including consumers, upon public notice affording them opportunity to present their views, criticisms, and suggestions respecting the rules, and to be heard at a public hearing the time and place of which will be announced by the Commission.

Issued: September 23, 1954.

By direction of the Commission.

[SEAL] ROBERT M. PARRISH,
Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Federal Maritime Board

HAMBURG-AMERIKA LINIE ET AL.

NOTICE OF AGREEMENTS FILED FOR APPROVAL

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreements have been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended; 39 Stat. 733, 46 U. S. C. section 814.

(1) Agreement No. 7968–1, between Hamburg-Amerika Linie, Nord-Deutscher Lloyd, and Ahrenkiel & Bene, modifies joint service agreement No. 7968 by deleting the joint service trade name "Great Lakes Service" wherever it appears in the agreement. Agreement 7968 covers the trade between Great Lakes ports of the United States and Canada on one hand and ports in Continental Europe and the United Kingdom on the other hand.

(2) Agreement No. 7993 between American Union Transport, Inc., and Trailer Marine Transportation, Inc., is an arrangement under which American Union will transport express shipments for Trailer Marine in the trade between New York and Puerto Rico at agreed compensation, such shipments to consist of uncrated automobiles and trucks and commodities in trailers, vans, and containers.

(3) Agreement No. 5660–2, between the Member Lines of the Marseilles North Atlantic U. S. A. Freight Conference, modifies the basic agreement of that conference (No. 5660) to provide that conference members will automatically become a party to, and members withdrawing from the conference will automatically cease to be a party to any agreements between the member lines of the Conference (jointly entered into by said member lines in their capacity as Conference members); and any other carrier or other person subject to the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended.

Interested parties may inspect these agreements and obtain copies thereof at the Regulation Office, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D. C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, written statements with reference to any of the agreements and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification, together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

Dated: September 23, 1954.

[Gen. Admin. Order X–1]

ESTABLISHMENT OF POSITION OF ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR PLANS AND READINESS

1. There is established in the Office of Defense Mobilization the position of Assistant Director for Plans and Readiness.

2. The Assistant Director for Plans and Readiness is responsible for coordinating in a staff capacity the development of integrated mobilization plans and preparedness measures to meet various degrees of mobilization. More specifically, he will:

a. Coordinate the preparation of mobilization plans by all major program areas in order to assure consistency in integrated plans.

b. Coordinate the preparation of defense mobilization orders, policy statements, and other documents necessary for the implementation of approved mobilization plans.

c. Coordinate the development of an organizational structure appropriately phased to carry out the alternative mobilization plans.

d. Coordinate the preparation and maintain a catalog of the major Emergency Action Steps which must be taken in event of emergency.

3. The Assistant Director for Plans and Readiness is responsible for the testing through mobilization exercises of the adequacy and operational readiness of mobilization plans in relation to national security requirements. More specifically, he will:

a. Establish and maintain a reporting system to determine progress in attaining operational readiness of approved mobilization plans.

b. Provide for periodic reviews of readiness plans and programs in support thereof.

c. Develop a system for the assessment and reporting of attack damage and the impact of various patterns of attack on the mobilization base.

d. Develop a system for testing the adequacy and operational readiness of mobilization plans and supervise the conduct of such test.

4. The Assistant Director for Plans and Readiness is responsible for the coordination of those continental defense programs which are the primary responsibility of the Office of Defense Mobilization. More specifically, he will:

a. Develop policies and standards for the reduction of vulnerability of urban target areas.

b. Develop policies and standards for the continuity of essential wartime functions of Government in the event of attack.

c. Prepare periodic reports as required on continental defense programs and represent the Director on interagency continental defense committees and working groups.

5. The Assistant Director for Plans and Readiness is responsible for development of policies and readiness measures for wartime censorship and such other essential civilian wartime functions as the Director may assign from time to time.

6. This order does not alter any authority or responsibilities delegated or assigned to the other Assistant Directors or the National Security Council Staff of ODM.

7. This order shall take effect on September 20, 1954.

ARTHUR S. FLEMMING,
Director.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70–3298]

CONSOLIDATED NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENT AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

SEPTEMBER 22, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Consolidated Natural Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") designating sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 (e) of the act and Rule U–62 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

The Board of Directors of Consolidated has adopted a resolution proposing an amendment to Consolidated's Certificate of Incorporation regarding a reclassification and increase of Consolidated's outstanding shares of capital stock and has called a special meeting of stockholders to be held on December 2, 1954, to consider and vote on such amendment.

The adoption of the amendment requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the capital stock and the holders of such stock of record at the close of business on October 15, 1954, will be entitled to one vote for each share registered in their names.

Under the proposed amendment the total number of shares of capital stock which Consolidated would have authority to issue would be 8,500,000 shares of a par value of $10 per share in lieu of the presently authorized and outstanding 3,683,285 shares of a par value of $15 per share and each share of the presently outstanding stock of $15 par value would be changed into two shares of capital shares of the par value of $10 per share. This change would occur upon the filing and recording of the amendment in the State of Delaware after which the outstanding stock certificates evidencing shares of the $15 par value stock will evidence a like number of shares of the $10 par value stock. Additional certificates will be issued to evidence the additional number of shares of the $10 par value stock.

Pursuant to such change the holders of Consolidated's presently outstanding 3,683,285 shares of $15 par value capital stock, aggregating $55,249,275, would become the holders of 7,366,570 shares of the $10 par value capital stock, aggregating $73,665,700. The increase in the outstanding capital stock will be reflected by a transfer of $18,416,425 from the company's capital surplus account to the capital stock account.

On the basis of the consolidated capital stock and surplus accounts of Consolidated and its subsidiaries as at December 31, 1953, the pro forma effect of the change in the capital stock is as follows:

	Before stock split-up	After stock split-up
Outstanding capital stock	$55,249,275	$73,665,700
Capital surplus	$75,670,432	$56,654,007
Earned surplus	$113,420,657	$113,420,657
Total, stockholders' equity	$243,740,364	$243,740,364
Number of shares outstanding	3,683,285	7,366,570
Equity per share	$66.17	$33.09

In the opinion of counsel for Consolidated, the proposed amendment and the change of each outstanding share of $15 par value into two shares of $10 par value each will not result in any gain or loss to stockholders for Federal income tax purposes.

In addition to the 7,366,570 shares of $10 par value capital stock which will be outstanding after the change the proposed amendment would also authorize 1,133,430 shares of unissued stock aggregating $11,334,300 in par value.

As to the latter shares, it is represented that it will be necessary for Consolidated to seek additional capital during 1955 to pay off $20,000,000 of outstanding construction loans and that for this and other purposes it is tentatively planned to offer 920,822 shares of this capital stock to stockholders for subscription on the basis of one new share for each eight outstanding at the time of the offer. In the event any shares so offered are not subscribed for, it is planned that such shares will be promptly sold, at the subscription price, for ultimate transfer to The Alternate Thrift Trust under The Employee Thrift Plan.

Under the proposed charter amendment, 212,608 shares of the authorized but unissued stock may be issued and sold from time to time, upon order of the Board of Directors, to finance the purchase of operating properties or an interest therein, or of securities of a public utility or natural gas company, and no stockholder of Consolidated will have any preemptive or preferential right to subscribe for any such shares.

In connection with the special meeting of stockholders, the company intends to solicit proxies to be voted in favor of the proposed amendment.

It is represented that no State commission and no Federal commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation or the solicitation of proxies.

The fees, commissions, and expenses to be paid by Consolidated in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated as follows:

Proxy solicitation	$18,400
Advertising	300
Printing	19,200
Special meeting of stockholders	$2,500
New York Stock Exchange listing fee	9,300
State and Federal taxes	26,900
Transfer agent's fees and expenses	60,400
Registrar's fees and expenses	10,000
Legal fees	5,000
Miscellaneous	3,000
Total	155,000

It is requested that the Commission permit the declaration to become effective regarding the solicitation of proxies by order issued on October 5, 1954, and in respect of the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation, by order issued on or before October 17, 1954.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than October 4, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his request, the reasons for such request and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by the said declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after that date, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

[4th Sec. Application 29715]

ALCOHOL AND RELATED ARTICLES FROM LOUISIANA TO VEE, OHIO

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

SEPTEMBER 23, 1954.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: F. C. Kratzmeir, Agent, for carriers parties to Agent W. P. Emerson, Jr.'s tariff I. C. C. 400, pursuant to fourth-section order No. 16101.

Commodities involved: Alcohol and related articles, carloads and tankcar loads.

From: Baton Rouge, North Baton Rouge, Chalmette and New Orleans, La., and points grouped therewith.

To: Vee, Ohio.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers, circuitous routes and operation through higher-rated territory.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission.

AUTHORITY: §§ 923.0 to 923.111 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 923.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Appalachian marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in this order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk including such handler's own production, (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is classified as Class I milk and, (c) Class I disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plant) located in the marketing area from a nonfluid milk plant.

(b) Additional findings. In view of the widely scattered location of the plants of handlers, the provision in the order for a base forming period which includes the month of October; and the fact that this order will constitute the original imposition of a regulatory program of this nature for the market, the provisions other than those relating to prices and payments to producers, should be put into effect prior to the effective date of the entire order to afford handlers an opportunity to make any necessary changes in their accounting procedure or other adjustments as required to conform with all provisions of the order. Reasonable time will have been afforded interested parties to prepare to comply with the aforesaid provisions. It is hereby found and determined in view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, that good cause exists for making §§ 923.1 through 923.18; 923.20 through 923.22 (i); 923.30 through 923.33; 923.40 through 923.46; 923.60, 923.61, 923.80 through 923.83, 923.95, 923.96, 923.100 through 923.103, 923.110, and 923.111 effective on October 1, 1954, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay such effective date beyond that specified. (See sec. 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by this order) of more than 50 percent of the milk covered by this order which is marketed within the Appalachian marketing area refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who, participated in a referendum thereon and who, during the determined representative period (August 1954), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

It is hereby ordered that the full text of the order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Sections 923.1 through 923.18; 923.20 through 923.22 (i); 923.30 through 923.33; 923.40 through 923.46; 923.60, 923.61, 923.80 through 923.83, 923.95, 923.96, 923.100 through 923.103, 923.110 and 923.111 shall be effective on and after the first day of October 1954 and the entire order (§ 923.1 through 923.111) shall be effective on and after the first day of November 1954.

DEFINITIONS

§ 923.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 923.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 923.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or any other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 923.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business unit.

§ 923.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 923.6 Appalachian Marketing Area. "Appalachian Marketing Area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all the territory within the counties of Sullivan, Washington, and Greene in Tennessee; Washington and Wise in Virginia; and Harlan in Kentucky.

§ 923.7 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means (a) any plant from which a volume of Class I milk equal to an average of more than 1,000 pounds per day, or not less than 2.0 percent of the approved milk of such plant is disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets (except other fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area, (b) any plant which during the months of February through July ships grade A milk or skim milk to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section or (c) any plant which during the months of August through January receives milk from farmers holding dairy farm permits or ratings issued by a health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area, and from which milk, skim milk or cream is moved during the month to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if a portion of a plant is operated separately and no approved milk is received in such portion of the plant, it shall not be considered as part of a fluid milk plant pursuant to this section.

§ 923.8 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means a fluid milk plant or any plant from which Class I milk is delivered (including delivery by a vendor or sale from a plant store) during the month to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area.

§ 923.9 Nonfluid milk plant. "Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing or bottling plant other than a fluid milk plant.

§ 923.10 Handler. "Handler" means any person in his capacity as the operator of an approved plant.

§ 923.11 Producer. "Producer" means any person except a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority, which milk is (a) received at a fluid milk plant, or (b) diverted by the operator of a fluid milk plant for his account to a nonfluid milk plant (1) any day during the months of March through July, and (2) on not more than 15 days during any of the months of August through February: Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the location of the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 923.12 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means only that skim milk or butterfat contained in milk (a) received at the fluid milk plant directly from producers, or (b) diverted from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant in accordance with the conditions set forth in § 923.11.

§ 923.13 Approved milk. "Approved milk" means any skim milk or butterfat contained in producer milk or in milk, skim milk or cream which is received from a fluid milk plant, except the plant of a producer-handler, and which is approved for distribution as Class I milk by the agency issuing the health permit to such plant.

§ 923.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 923.41 (a), except (1) such products approved by the appropriate health authority for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area which are received from fluid milk plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 923.41 (b) (1) from any source (including those from a plant's own production), which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 923.15 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates a dairy farm and an approved plant from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area but who receives no milk from other dairy farmers.

§ 923.16 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported during the month by the Department of Agriculture.

§ 923.17 Base milk. "Base milk" means milk received at a fluid milk plant from a producer during any of the months of April through August which is not in excess of such producer's base for such month computed pursuant to § 923.81.

§ 923.18 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means either (a) milk received at a fluid milk plant from a producer during any of the months of April through August, which is in excess of base milk received from such producer during such month, or (b) milk received during such month from a producer for whom no base can be computed pursuant to § 923.80.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 923.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 923.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 923.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon his duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount, and with reasonable surety thereon, covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by § 923.95 (1) the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, (2) his own compensation, and (3) all other expenses, except those incurred under § 923.94, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to §§ 923.30 and 923.31, or payments pursuant to §§ 923.90 through 923.95;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be required by the Secretary;

(h) Prepare and make available for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers such general statistics and information concerning the operation hereof as are necessary and essential to the proper functioning of this part;

(i) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit, if necessary, of such handler's records and the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends; and

(j) On or before the date specified, publicly announce and notify each handler in writing of the following: (1) The 6th day of each month, the Class I price, and the Class I butterfat differential, both for the current month; (2) the 6th day of each month, the Class II price and the Class II butterfat differential, both for the preceding month; and (3) the 10th day after the end of each month, the uniform price(s), and the producer butterfat differential.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 923.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 6th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator for each of his approved plants for such month as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 923.41 (a) (1) received from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in other source milk;

(d) Inventories of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 923.41 (a) (1) on hand at the beginning and end of the month; and

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section, including a separate statement of the disposition of Class I milk outside the marketing area.

§ 923.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(1) On or before the 20th day after the end of the month for each of his fluid milk plants his producer payroll for such month which shall show for each producer: (i) His name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received from such producer, including, for the months of April through August, the total pounds of base and excess milk, (iii) the days on which milk was received from such producer if less than a full month, (iv) the average butterfat content of such milk, and (v) the net amount of such handler's payment, together with the price paid and the amount and nature of any deductions;

(2) On or before the first day other source milk is received in the form of milk, fluid skim milk or cream at his fluid milk plant(s), his intention to receive such product, and on or before the last day such product is received, his intention to discontinue receipt of such product; and

(3) Such other information with respect to his utilization of butterfat and skim milk as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 923.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat handled in any form;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream, and other milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and other milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers, including any deductions authorized by producers, and disbursement of money so deducted.

§ 923.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this order to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 923.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. The skim milk and butterfat at fluid milk plants, which is required to be reported pursuant to § 923.30 shall be classified each month by the market administrator, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 932.41 through 923.46.

§ 923.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 923.43 and 923.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including concentrated and reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, milk drinks (plain or flavored), cream (except frozen cream) and any mixture in fluid form of skim milk and cream (except sterilized products in hermetically sealed containers, ice cream mix, and eggnog); and (2) not accounted for as Class II milk;

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce any product other than those designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; (2) contained in inventory of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section on hand at the end of the month; and (3) in shrinkage assigned to Class II pursuant to § 923.42.

§ 923.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall determine the assignment of shrinkage to Class II milk as follows:

(a) Determine the total shrinkage of butterfat and skim milk in the fluid milk plant(s) of the handler;

(b) Multiply the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in producer milk (except milk diverted pursuant to § 923.11) and other source milk by 0.02;

(c) Multiply the pounds of butterfat and skim milk, respectively, determined pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, whichever is less, by the percentage of butterfat and skim milk classified pursuant to § 923.41 (a) and (b) (1) (except shrinkage determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of the section) which is in Class II milk. The resulting amounts of skim milk and butterfat shall be classified as Class II milk; and

(d) Assign the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat classified as Class II milk pro rata to producer milk and other source milk.

§ 923.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise;

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 923.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 923.41 (a) (1) to a fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in the reports submitted by them to the market administrator pursuant to § 923.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 918.46, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have received other source milk, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I milk utilization to the producer milk of both handlers.

(b) As Class I milk if transfered to a producer-handler in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 923.41 (a) (1);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in bulk form as milk or skim milk to a nonfluid plant located in the marketing area or not more than 50 miles by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator from the nearest point in the marketing area unless:

(1) The handler claims Class II on the basis of utilization mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both buyer and seller on or before the 6th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred;

(2) The buyer maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available, if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(3) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II milk in such buyer's plant.

(d) As Class I milk is transferred in bulk form as cream to a nonfluid plant unless:

(1) Such cream is transferred without Grade A certification of any health authority;

(2) The handler claims Class II in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 923.30 on or before the 6th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred;

(3) The buyer maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available, if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(4) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II milk in such buyer's plant.

§ 923.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors, the reports of receipts and utilization for the fluid milk plants of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 923.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 923.45, the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk for each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 923.42 (d);

(2) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class I milk the pounds of skim milk in products defined as Class I milk pursuant to § 923.41 (a) received in consumer packages from a nonfluid milk plant or the pounds of skim milk classified as Class I milk and transferred or diverted during the month to such nonfluid milk plant whichever is less.

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the remaining pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That if the receipts of skim milk in other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 923.41 (a) (1) on hand at the beginning of the month: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in such inventory are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(5) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk received from the fluid milk plants of other handlers in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 923.41 (a) (1), according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 923.44 (a);

(6) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section;

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk allocated to producer milk.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 923.50 Basic formula price. The highest of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section and § 923.51 (b), rounded to the nearest whole cent, shall be known as the basic formula price.

(a) To the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture:

Present Operator and Location
Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Carnation Co., Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Co., Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

add an amount computed by multiplying the Chicago butter price for the month by 0.6.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed as follows: Multiply the Chicago butter price by 4.0, add 20 percent thereof, and add to such sum 3¾ cents for each full ½ cent that the average of carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, for human consumption, f. o. b. Chicago area manufacturing plants, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, is above 5 cents.

§ 923.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 923.52 and 923.53, the class prices per hundredweight for the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. The Class I milk price shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month, plus $2.10 during the months of August through February and plus $1.70 during all other months.

(b) Class II milk price. For the months of March through August, the Class II milk price shall be the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and for all other months the higher of the prices computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) The average of the basic or field prices reported to have been paid or to be paid per hundredweight for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture on or before the 6th day after the end of the month:

Company and Location
Pet Milk Co., Mayfield, Ky.
Pet Milk Co., Bowling Green, Ky.
Pet Milk Co., Greenville, Tenn.
Pet Milk Co., Abingdon, Va.
Carnation Co., Murfreesboro, Tenn.
Carnation Co., Statesville, N. C.
Borden Co., Lewisburg, Tenn.
Borden Co., Chester, S. C.
Carnation Co., Galax, Va.

(2) Add the amounts obtained pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph, and subtract 75 cents therefrom.

(i) Multiply by 4.80 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at New York as reported during the month by the Department of Agriculture;

(ii) Multiply by 8.2 the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for spray process nonfat dry milk solids, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month, by the Department of Agriculture.

§ 923.52 Butterfat differential to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 4.0 percent butterfat, the class prices for the month calculated pursuant to § 923.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth percent butterfat at the appropriate rate determined as follows:

(a) Class I price. Multiply by 0.12 the average of the daily wholesale prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of 92-score bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the previous month, and round to the nearest one-tenth cent.

(b) Class II price. Multiply by 0.11 the average of the daily wholesale prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of 92-score bulk creamery butter per pound at New York, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the month, and round to the nearest one-tenth cent.

§ 923.53 Location differentials to handlers. For that milk which is received from producers at a fluid milk plant located outside the marketing area and 50 miles or more from the city limits of Kingsport, Tennessee, by shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, and which is transferred in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 923.41 (a) (1) and assigned to Class I pursuant to the proviso of this section, or otherwise classified as Class I milk, the price specified in § 923.51 (a) shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule according to the location of the fluid milk plant where such milk is received from producers:

Distance from the city limits of Kingsport (miles):	Rate per hundredweight (cents)
50 but less than 60	10
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof an additional	1.5

Provided, That for purpose of calculating such location differential, products so designated as Class I milk which are transferred between fluid milk plants shall be assigned to any remainder of Class II milk in the transferee-plant after making the calculations prescribed in § 923.46 (a) (1), (2), and (3), and the comparable steps in (b) for such plant, and after deducting from such remainder an amount equal to 0.05 times the skim milk and butterfat contained in the producer milk received at the transferee-plant, such assignment to transferor plants to be made in sequence according to the location differential applicable at each plant, beginning with the plant having the largest differential.

§ 923.54 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price quotation required by this part for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 923.60 Producer-handlers. Sections 923.40 through 923.46, 923.50 through 923.53, 923.70 through 923.72, 923.80 through 923.83, and 923.90 through 923.96 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 923.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. A plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall be considered as a nonfluid milk plant except that the operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require (in lieu of the reports required pursuant to § 923.30), and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 923.7 (a) which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless the Secretary determines that a greater volume of Class I milk is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) in the Appalachian marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order.

(b) Any plant qualified pursuant to § 923.7 (b) or (c) which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant has qualified as a fluid milk plant pursuant to § 923.7 (c) for each month during the preceding August through January period.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 923.70 Net obligation of handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows: (a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price; (b) add together the resulting amounts; (c) add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class by the applicable class price; (d) add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months; and (e) add the amount obtained in multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of producer milk classified in Class II during the preceding month, or the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 923.46 (a) (4) and (b), whichever is less.

§ 923.71 Computation of uniform prices for handlers. For each of the months of September through March, the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for the producer milk received by each handled as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 923.70 the total of the location differential deductions to be made pursuant to § 923.92;

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk;

(c) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating fractions of a cent in computing the uniform price(s) for such handler for the preceding month;

(d) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler. The result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. market.

§ 923.72 Computation of the uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk for handlers. For each of the months of April through August, the market administrator shall compute uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk received by each handler as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 923.70 the total of the location differential deductions made pursuant to § 923.92;

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk;

(c) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating fractions of a cent in computing the uniform price(s) for such handler for the preceding month;

(d) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (e) of this section, compute the value of excess milk received by such handler from producers by multiplying the quantity of such milk by the Class II price;

(e) Compute the value of base milk received by such handler from producers by subtracting the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section from the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section: Provided, That if such resulting value is greater than an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of such base milk by the Class I price, such value in excess thereof shall be added to the value computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section;

(f) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section by the hundredweight of base milk. This result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. market; and

(g) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section by the hundredweight of excess milk in producer milk. This result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content.

BASE RATING

§ 923.80 Determination of daily base. The daily base of each producer shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: Divide the total pounds of milk received by all handlers from such producer during the months of September through February by the number of days from the first day milk is received from such producer during said months to the last day of February, inclusive, but not less than 120 days.

§ 923.81 Computation of base. The base of each producer to be applied during the months of April through August shall be a quantity of milk calculated by the market administrator in the following manner: Multiply the daily base of such producer by the number of days such producer's milk was received by such handler during the month: Provided, That if the producer's milk was not received on a daily basis, the daily base shall be multiplied by the number of days during the month for which the milk production of such producer was received by such handler.

§ 923.82 Base rules. The following rules shall apply in conection with the establishment of bases:

(a) A base shall be assigned to the producer for whose account milk is received at a fluid milk plant during the months of September through February.

(b) Bases may be transferred by notifying the market administrator in writing before the last day of any month for which such base is to be transferred to the person named in such notice only as follows:

(1) In the event of the death, retirement, or entry into military service of a producer, the entire base may be transferred to a member of such producer's immediate family who carries on the dairy operations.

(2) If a base is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated, the entire base may be transferred to one of the joint holders.

(3) The entire daily base of a producer may be removed from one handler to another handler.

§ 923.83 Announcement of established bases. On or before April 1 of each year, the market administrator shall notify each producer and the handler receiving milk from such producer of the daily base established by such producer.

PAYMENTS

§ 923.90 Payments to producers. Each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer as follows:

(a) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month, each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk which was received from him during the month at not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to § 923.71 for the months of September through March, and at not less than the uniform price for base milk computed pursuant to § 923.72 with respect to base milk received from such producer and at not less than the uniform price for excess milk computed pursuant to

§ 923.72 with respect to excess milk received from such producer for the months of April through August, subject to the following adjustments: (1) The butterfat differential pursuant to § 923.91, (2) the location differential pursuant to § 923.92, (3) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 923.95, (4) proper deductions authorized in writing by the producer, and (5) adjustments for errors in calculating payment to such individual producer for past months: Provided, That with respect to producers whose milk was caused to be delivered to such handler by a cooperative association which is authorized to collect payment for such milk, the handler shall, if requested by the cooperative association, pay such cooperative association on or before the 13th day after the end of each month, an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers in accordance with this paragraph;

(b) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The daily and total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to the order;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment, if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

§ 923.91 Butterfat differential to producers. The applicable uniform prices to be paid each producer pursuant to § 923.90 shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 4.0 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in the producer milk of such handler allocated to Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 923.46 (b) by the respective butterfat differential for each class, dividing the sum of such values by the total pounds of such butterfat, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

§ 923.92 Location differential to producers. In making payment to producers pursuant to § 923.90, the applicable uniform prices to be paid for producer milk received at a fluid milk plant located outside the marketing area and 50 miles or more from the city limits of Kingsport, Tennessee, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be reduced according to the location of the fluid milk plant where such milk was received at the following rate:

Distance from the city limits of Kingsport (miles):	Rate per hundredweight (cents)
50 but less than 60	10
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof an additional	1.5

§ 923.93 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products disclose errors, resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler, or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 923.94 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers for milk (other than milk of his own production) pursuant to § 923.90, shall deduct 6 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 6 cents per hundredweight, as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association.

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers on or before the 15th day after the end of each month, and pay such deductions to the cooperative association of which such producers are members, furnishing a statement showing the amount of any such deductions and the amount and average butterfat test of milk for which such deduction was computed for each producer. In lieu of this statement, a handler may authorize the market administrator to furnish such cooperative association the information reported for such producers pursuant to § 923.90 (b).

§ 923.95 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month for such month 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk including such handler's own production, (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is classified as Class I milk and, (c) Class I disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area from a nonfluid milk plant.

§ 923.96 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator received the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or wilful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 923.100 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 923.101.

§ 923.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provisions of this part whenever he finds this part or any provisions of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 923.102 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 923.103 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignment or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 923.110 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his Agent or Representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 923.111 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of September 1954.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

987.111 Separability of provisions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 987.0 to 987.111 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 987.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in this order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk, including such handler's own production, (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is classified as Class I milk, and (c) Class I milk disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area from a nonfluid milk plant.

(b) Additional findings. In view of the widely scattered location of the plants of handlers, the provision in the order for a base forming period which includes the month of October; and the fact that this order will constitute the original imposition of a regulatory program of this nature for the market, the provisions other than those relating to prices and payments to producers, should be put into effect prior to the effective date of the entire order to afford handlers an opportunity to make any necessary changes in their accounting procedure or other adjustments as required to conform with all provisions of the order. Reasonable time will have been afforded interested parties to prepare to comply with the aforesaid provisions. It is hereby found and determined in view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, that good cause exists for making §§ 987.1 through 987.17; 987.20 through 987.22 (h); 987.30 through 987.33; 987.40 through 987.46; 987.60, 987.61, 987.80 through 987.83, 987.95, 987.96, 987.100 through 987.103, 987.110 and 987.111 effective on October 1, 1954, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay such effective date beyond that specified. (See sec. 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by this order) of more than 50 percent of the milk covered by this order which is marketed within the Central Mississippi marketing area refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who, participated in a referendum thereon and who, during the determined representative period (August 1954), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

It is hereby ordered that the full text of the order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Sections 987.1 through 987.17; 987.20 through 987.22 (h); 987.30 through 987.33; 987.40 through 987.46; 987.60, 987.61, 987.80 through 987.83, 987.95, 987.96, 987.100 through 987.103, 987.110 and 987.111 shall be effective on and after the first day of October 1954 and the entire order (§ 987.1 through 987.111) shall be effective on and after the first day of November 1954.

DEFINITIONS

§ 987.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 987.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 987.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or any other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 987.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business unit.

§ 987.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 987.6 Central Mississippi marketing area. "Central Mississippi marketing area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all the territory within the following counties: Claiborne, Copiah, Covington, Forrest, Hinds, Jasper, Jefferson Davis, Jones, Madison, Marion, Perry, Rankin, Scott, Simpson, Smith, Walthall, Warren, Wayne, Lamar (except beat 2 thereof), and Lawrence (except beats 1, 2 and 3 thereof).

§ 987.7 Distributing plant. "Distributing plant" means any plant from which a volume of Class I milk equal to more than an average of 1,000 pounds per day or 5.0 percent of the Grade A milk and skim milk received from producers and other plants, whichever is less, is disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets (except other fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area.

§ 987.8 Supply plant. "Supply plant" means (a) any plant from which Grade A milk, skim milk or cream is shipped during the month to a distributing plant in any of the months of January through July, or (b) any plant from which not less than 50 percent of the Grade A milk received from dairy farmers during the month is shipped in such month as milk, skim milk or cream to distributing plants during the months of August through December.

§ 987.9 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means a distributing plant or a supply plant.

§ 987.10 Nonfluid milk plant. "Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing, or bottling plant other than a fluid milk plant.

§ 987.11 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means: (a) A fluid milk plant, (b) any milk plant from which Class I milk is disposed of (including delivery by a vendor or sale from a plant store) during the month to retail or wholesale outlets located in the marketing area, or (c) any plant from which milk or skim milk approved by the appropriate health department for distribution as Class I milk in the marketing area is shipped to a distributing plant during the month.

§ 987.12 Handler. "Handler" means any person in his capacity as the operator of one or more approved plants.

§ 987.13 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority, which milk is (a) received at a fluid milk plant or (b) diverted for his account by the operator of a fluid milk plant from such plant to a nonfluid milk plant during the months of March through July: Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 987.14 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in milk produced by a producer and received at the fluid milk plant directly from producers, or diverted from the plant pursuant to § 987.13.

§ 987.15 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 987.41 (a) (1), except (1) such products received from other fluid milk plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 987.41 (b) (1) from any source (including those from a plant's own production) which are reprocessed or converted to another product during the month.

§ 987.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates an approved plant but who receives no milk from other dairy farmers.

§ 987.17 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported during the month by the Department of Agriculture.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 987.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 987.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 987.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by § 987.95 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses, except those incurred under § 987.94, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Audit all reports and payments by each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends;

(h) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to §§ 987.30 and 987.31 or payments pursuant to § 987.90;

(i) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, and notify each handler in writing:

(1) On or before the 6th day of each month, the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to § 987.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.52 (a), both for the current month, and the minimum price for Class II milk computed pursuant to § 987.51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.52 (b), both for the previous month;

(2) On or before the 10th day after the end of each of the months of August through February, the uniform price for each handler computed pursuant to § 987.71 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91; and

(3) On or before the 10th day after the end of each of the months of March through July, the uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk for each handler computed pursuant to § 987.72, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.92;

(j) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month, mail to each handler at his last known address a statement showing for such handler:

(1) The amount and value of producer milk in each class and the totals thereof;

(2) For the months of March through July, the amounts and value of his base and excess milk, respectively; and

(k) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and such information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 987.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 6th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator for each of his approved plants for such month as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk; and for the months of March through July, the total quantity of base milk received;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 987.41 (a) (1) received from fluid milk plants of other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in other source milk;

(d) Inventories of Class I milk on hand at the beginning and end of the month; and

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section, including a separate statement of the disposition of Class I milk outside the marketing area.

§ 987.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(1) On or before the 20th day after the end of the month for each of his fluid milk plants his producer payroll for such month which shall show for each producer: (i) His name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received from such producer, including for the months of March through July the total pounds of base and excess milk, (iii) the number of days on which milk was received from such producer if less than a full calendar month, (iv) the average butterfat content of such milk, and (v) the net amount of such handler's payment, together with the price paid and the amount and nature of any deductions;

(2) On or before the first day other source milk is received in the form of milk, fluid skim milk, or cream at his fluid milk plant(s), his intention to receive such product, and on or before the last day such product is received, his intention to discontinue receipt of such milk;

(3) Such other information with respect to the utilization of butterfat and skim milk as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 987.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations, together with such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data for each month with respect to:

(a) The receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat handled in any form;

(b) The weights and butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream, and other milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers, including any deductions authorized by producers, and disbursement of money so deducted.

§ 987.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 987.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat received within the month at fluid milk plants and which is required to be reported pursuant to § 987.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 987.41 through 987.46.

§ 987.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 987.43 and 987.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including concentrated and reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks (including eggnog), yogurt, cream (other than frozen storage cream), cultured sour cream, and any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk (other than ice cream, ice cream mixes, and sterilized products contained in hermetically sealed containers); (2) contained in inventory of milk and milk products designated as Class I milk pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, on hand at the end of the month; and (3) not accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce any product other than those designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; (2) disposed of and used for livestock feed; (3) contained in skim milk dumped, provided the market administrator is notified in advance and given opportunity to verify such dumping; and (4) in shrinkage not to exceed 2 percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and other source milk.

§ 987.42 Assignment of shrinkage. The market administrator shall assign shrinkage at the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Compute the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat classified as Class II milk; and

(b) Assign the resulting amounts pro rata to the handler's receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 987.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise;

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 987.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of each month from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of products designated as Class I milk in §987.41 (a) (1) to a fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 987.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to §987.46, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have other source milk during the month, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I milk utilization to the producer milk of both handlers;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 987.41 (a) (1);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of bulk milk, skim milk, or cream to a nonfluid milk plant, unless the following conditions are met:

(1) The transferring handler claims utilization in a product specified in § 987.41 (b);

(2) The operator of the nonfluid milk plant keeps adequate books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat received at such plant, and the market administrator is permitted to audit such books and records for the purpose of verification; and

(3) The Class I milk in the nonfluid milk plant does not exceed the receipts of butterfat and skim milk in milk received during the month from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines are the regular source of supply for such plant: Provided, That any Class I milk in excess of receipts from such dairy farmers shall be assigned to milk, cream, or skim milk so transferred or diverted.

§ 987.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 987.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 987.45, the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk received at the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler each month as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 987.42 (b);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in other source milk exceed the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class I milk the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of Class I products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk contained in products designated as Class I milk in § 987.41 (a) (1) received from the fluid milk plants of other handlers, according to the classification of such skim milk as determined pursuant to § 987.44 (a);

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(6) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section;

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk allocated to producer milk.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 987.50 Basic formula price. The highest of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section, rounded to the nearest whole cent, shall be known as the basic formula price.

(a) Divide the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture by 3.5 and multiply by 4.0:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Carnation Co., Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Co., Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price computed by adding together any plus values computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) Multiply the Chicago butter price by 4.8;

(2) Deduct five cents from the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department of Agriculture, and multiply by 7.5;

(c) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture:

Present Operator and Location

Kraft Cheese Co., Newton, Miss.
Borden Co., Starkville, Miss.
Carnation Co., Tupelo, Miss.
Brookhaven Creamery, Brookhaven, Miss.
Pet Milk Co., Kosciusko, Miss.

§ 987.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 987.52 and 987.53, the minimum prices per hundredweight for the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. The price per hundredweight for Class I milk for the month shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month, plus $1.85 during the months of March, April, May and June, and plus $2.25 during all other months.

(b) Class II milk price. The price per hundredweight for Class II milk shall be the price determined pursuant to § 987.50 (c).

§ 987.52 Butterfat differential to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 4.0 percent butterfat, the class prices calculated pursuant to § 987.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth percent butterfat at the appropriate rate determined as follows:

(a) Class I price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the preceding month by 0.12;

(b) Class II price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the month by 0.11.

§ 987.53 Location differentials to handlers. For that milk which is received from producers at a fluid milk plant located outside the marketing area and 50 miles or more from the State Capitol Building, Jackson, Mississippi, by shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, and which is transferred in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 987.41 (a) (1) to another fluid milk plant and assigned to Class I pursuant to the proviso of this section, or otherwise classified as Class I milk, the price specified in § 987.51 (a) shall be reduced by 10 cents: Provided, That for purposes of calculating such location differential, products so designated as Class I milk which are transferred between fluid milk plants shall be assigned to any remainder of Class II milk in the transferee-plant after making the calculations prescribed in § 987.46 (a) (1) and (2) and the comparable steps in § 987.46 (b) for such plant, and after deducting from such remainder an amount equal to 0.05 times the skim milk and butterfat contained in the producer milk received at the transferee-plant, such assignment to transferor plants to be made first to plants to which the location differential is applicable.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 987.60 Producer - handlers. Sections 987.40 through 987.46, 987.50 through 987.53, 987.70 through 987.72, 987.80 through 987.83, and 987.90 through 987.96 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 987.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. The provisions of this order shall not apply to a plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section except as follows: The operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require, and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any distributing plant which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless the Secretary determines that more Class I milk is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets (except pool plants) in the Central Mississippi marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order.

(b) Any supply plant which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant qualified as a pool plant pursuant to the provisions of § 987.8 (b) during each of the preceding months of August through December.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 987.70 Net obligation of handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows: (a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price; (b) add together the resulting amounts; (c) add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class by the applicable class price; (d) add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months; (e) in the case of a handler operating a fluid milk plant which was not a fluid milk plant under this order during each of the preceding 5 months, add an amount calculated by multiplying the difference between the Class I and the Class II prices adjusted by the appropriate butterfat differentials by any figure determined as follows: Any amount by which the hundredweight of skim milk or butterfat in inventory classified for such month, pursuant to § 987.41 (a) (2), is less than the least hundredweight of skim milk or butterfat, respectively, deducted pursuant to § 987.46 (a) (3) and (b) for such handler for any month since such plant was not a fluid milk plant; (f) add for each month of July an amount calculated by multiplying by 40 cents the hundredweight by which the inventory classified pursuant to § 987.41 (a) (2) for the preceding month exceeds any inventory so classified for the preceding February.

§ 987.71 Computation of uniform prices for handlers. For each of the months of August through February, the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for the producer milk received by each handler as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 987.70 the total of the location differential deductions to be made pursuant to § 987.90 (b) or (c);

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk;

(c) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating fractions of a cent in computing the uniform price(s) for such handler for the preceding month; and

(d) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler. The result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. market.

§ 987.72 Computation of the uniform price for base milk and for excess milk for handlers. For each of the months of March through July, the market administrator shall compute for each handler with respect to his producer milk a uniform price for base milk and for excess milk as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 987.70 the total of the location differential deductions made pursuant to § 987.90 (b) or (c);

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk;

(c) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating fractions of a cent in computing the uniform price(s) for such handler for the preceding month;

(d) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (e) of this section, compute the value of excess milk received by such handler from producers by multiplying the quantity of such milk by the Class II price;

(e) Compute the value of base milk received by such handler from producers by subtracting the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section from the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section: Provided, That if such resulting value is greater than an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of such base milk by the Class I price, such value in excess thereof shall be added to the value computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section;

(f) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section by the hundredweight of base milk in producer milk. This result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. market; and

(g) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section by the hundredweight of excess milk in producer milk. This result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content.

BASE RATING

§ 987.80 Determination of daily base. The daily base of each producer shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: Divide the total pounds of milk received by all handlers from such producer during the months of September through January by the number of days from the first day milk is received from such producer during said months to the last day of January, inclusive, but not less than 120 days.

§ 987.81 Computation of base. The base of each producer to be applied during the months of March through July shall be a quantity of milk calculated by the market administrator in the following manner: Multiply the daily base of such producer by the number of days such producer's milk was received by such handler during the month.

§ 987.82 Base rules. The following rules shall apply in connection with the establishment of bases:

(a) A base shall be assigned to the producer for whose account milk is received at a fluid milk plant during the months of September through January;

(b) Bases may be transferred by notifying the market administrator in writing before the last day of any month for which such base is to be transferred to the person named in such notice only as follows:

(1) In the event of the death, retirement, or entry into military service of a producer, the entire base may be transferred to a member of such producer's immediate family who carries on the dairy operations.

(2) If a base is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated, the entire base may be transferred to one of the joint holders.

(3) The entire daily base of a producer may be moved from one handler to another handler.

§ 987.83 Announcement of established bases. On or before March 1 of each year, the market administrator shall notify each producer and the handler receiving milk from such producer of the daily base established by such producer.

PAYMENTS

§ 987.90 Payments to producers. Each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer as follows:

(a) On or before the last day of each month for milk received during the first 15 days of the month at not less than the price per hundredweight for Class II milk for the preceding month;

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each of the months of August through February for milk received during such month at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight, computed for such handler pursuant to § 987.71, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 987.92, less proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer and less payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and deductions made pursuant to § 987.94;

(c) On or before the 15th day after the end of each of the months of March through July, after allowance for the amount of payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for deductions made pursuant to § 987.94, and for other proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer, as follows:

(1) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for base milk computed pursuant to § 987.72 for the quantity of base milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 987.92;

(2) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for excess milk computed pursuant to § 987.72 for the quantity of excess milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 987.92;

(d) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The daily and total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to this part;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment, if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

§ 987.91 Butterfat differential to producers. The applicable uniform prices to be paid pursuant to § 987.90 to producers delivering milk to each handler shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 4.0 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in the producer milk of such handler allocated to Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 987.46 (b) by the respective butterfat differential for each class, dividing the sum of such values by the total pounds of such butterfat and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest half cent.

§ 987.92 Location differentials to producers. In making payment to producers pursuant to § 987.90, the applicable uniform prices to be paid for producer milk received at a fluid milk plant located outside the marketing area and more than 50 miles from the State Capitol Building in Jackson, Mississippi, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be reduced 10 cents per hundredweight.

§ 987.93 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products discloses errors resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler, or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 987.94 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers for milk (other than milk of his own production) pursuant to § 987.90, shall deduct 7 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 7 cents per hundredweight, as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association;

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers on or before the 15th day after the end of each month, and pay such deductions to the cooperative association of which such producers are members, furnishing a statement showing the amount of any such deductions and the amount and average butterfat test of milk received from each such producer. In lieu of such statement, a handler may authorize the market administrator to furnish such cooperative association the information reported for such producers pursuant to § 987.90 (d).

§ 987.95 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month for such month 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk, including such handler's own production; (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is classified as Class I milk; and (c) Class I milk disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area from a nonfluid milk plant.

§ 987.96 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or wilful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 987.100 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 987.101.

§ 987.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provision of this part whenever he finds this part or any provision of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 987.102 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 987.103 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignment or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 987.110 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his Agent or Representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 987.111 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of September 1954.

[SEAL] EARL L. BUTZ,
Assistant Secretary.

Chapter XI—Agricultural Conservation Program Service, Department of Agriculture

[NSCP-1901, Supp. 1]

PART 1106—NAVAL STORES CONSERVATION PROGRAM

SUBPART—1955

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7–17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the Agricultural Act of 1954, and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1955, the 1955 Naval Stores Conservation Program, approved August 17, 1954 (19 F. R. 5303), is amended as follows:

1. Section 1106.633 is deleted and the following substituted therefor:

§ 1106.633 Excess acreage of basic agricultural commodities. (a) Any person who knowingly harvests any basic agricultural commodity or causes any basic agricultural commodity to be harvested on any farm in which he has an interest, in excess of the 1955 acreage allotment for the farm for such basic agricultural commodity under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, shall not be eligible for any payment of cost-shares whatsoever on that farm or on any other farm under 1955 programs authorized by sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended. A basic agricultural commodity shall not be deemed to have been knowingly harvested on any farm in excess of the farm acreage allotment for such basic agricultural commodity if it is determined under applicable price support regulations that the acreage allotment for the commodity has not been knowingly exceeded.

(b) Any person who makes application for payment for cost-shares with respect to any farm shall file with such application a statement that he has not knowingly harvested any basic agricultural commodity or caused any basic agricultural commodity to be harvested on any farm in which he has an interest, in excess of the 1955 acreage allotment established for the farm for such basic agricultural commodity under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

2. In § 1106.602 Inspection assistance, paragraph (b) is amended as follows:

(b) Counting all faces and keeping written records thereof separately by tracts and drifts;

3. In § 1106.621 Initial use of spiral gutters or yarn aprons and double-headed nails to minimize damage to the trees in installing faces for the virgin year or in the first elevation; 1½ cents per face, the undesignated paragraph following paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

This payment is in addition to that authorized for meeting the requirements of §§ 1106.611, 1106.612, 1106.613, 1106.614, 1106.615, 1106.616, 1106.617, 1106.618, 1106.619, 1106.620, 1106.623, or 1106.624.

4. In § 1106.622 Initial use of double-headed nails to conserve worked portion of the tree; ½ cent per face, the undesignated paragraph following paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

This payment is in addition to that authorized for meeting the requirements of §§ 1106.612, 1106.614, 1106.616, 1106.618, or 1106.620.

(Sec. 4, 49 Stat. 164; 16 U. S. C. 590d. Interpret or apply secs. 7–17, 49 Stat. 1148, as amended, 68 Stat. 304, 897; 16 U. S. C. 590g–590q)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of September 1954.

PART 2—FREQUENCY ALLOCATIONS AND RADIO TREATY MATTERS; GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART 11—INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

RENEWAL OF VHF SHORAN AUTHORIZATIONS

SEPTEMBER 22, 1954.

The Commission has reviewed the matter of certain authorizations which have been issued in the past to licensees of the Commission for use of frequencies in the band 225–328.6 Mc in connection with the operation of Shoran equipments. The Commission's rules do not provide for authorizations of this type. Accordingly, the Commission has this date advised the existing licensees now authorized to use such frequencies in connection with the operation of Shoran equipments that it does not presently contemplate that new authorizations or renewals of existing authorizations will be made after December 31, 1954, unless by such time provision has been made in the Commission's rules permitting such use of those frequencies by non-Government stations. The Commission has advised the same licensees that they may petition the Commission to amend its Rules so as to permit such authorizations, noting, however, that the frequency band 225–328.6 Mc is allocated in the United States for use only by United States Government radio stations.

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS FOR TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, rules governing Television Broadcast Stations, Docket No. 11117.

1. The Commission has under consideration its notice of proposed rule making issued on July 28, 1954 (FCC 54-963) and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 4, 1954 (19 F. R. 4880) proposing to assign Channel 38 to Sunbury, Pennsylvania, in lieu of Channel 65, and to make other changes in the table. The Notice was issued in response to a petition filed by Sunbury Broadcasting Corporation, Sunbury, Pennsylvania.

2. The time for filing comments in this proceeding expired August 30, 1954. No comments were filed opposing the proposed amendment. In support of its request petitioner urged that the proposed amendments are technically feasible; that they will provide a more efficient utilization of available UHF channels in that an assignment is made to Shamokin, a community of 16,000 persons now without an assignment; that the assignment of a lower channel in this rugged area would insure a higher quality service and a more successful operation; and that petitioner will file an application for the use of Channel 38.

3. As we pointed out in the notice of proposed rule making, the Commission has not recognized distinctions among the various UHF channels for assignment purposes. However, in light of the more effective use of the available assignments that would be made under the proposal in this proceeding, we are of the view that a finalization of the proposed changes would serve the public interest.

4. Authority for the adoption of the amendments is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

5. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That, effective October 25, 1954, the table of assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Add	Delete
Sunbury, Pa	38	65
Lewistown, Pa	71–	38
Shamokin, Pa	65

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 301, 303, 307, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, 1084; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303, 307)

Adopted: September 22, 1954.

Released: September 23, 1954.

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS FOR TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

1. The Commission has before it for consideration its notice of proposed rule making issued in this proceeding on February 25, 1954 (FCC 54-260) advising that a petition had been filed by John H. Phipps requesting the assignment of television Channel 2 to Havana, Florida.

2. John H. Phipps filed comments supporting the assignment of Channel 2 to Havana, urging that such assignment would meet all requirements of the Commission's rules; would represent a fair and equitable distribution of VHF television facilities; and would bring television service to a large and important area, which would include Tallahassee, the capital city of Florida. Havana, with a population of 1,634 persons is located 16 miles from Tallahassee. Tallahassee has a population of 27,237 persons and has 3 channels assigned, Channels 11, 24, and 51, with Channel 11 reserved for educational use. No applications have been filed to date for any of the Tallahassee assignments.

3. The Alabama Educational Television Commission filed a comment in opposition to the Havana assignment and a counterproposal urging that Channel 2 be assigned instead to Andalusia, Alabama to be reserved in that community for noncommercial educational use. Since Andalusia is only about 130 miles from Havana, the two proposals are conflicting. In support of its counterproposal, the Alabama Commission submits that the assignment of Channel 2 as an educational channel in Andalusia would meet all requirements of the Commission's rules and would permit the establishment of an educational station to serve the needs of the south central portion of Alabama. It is urged that an educational station operating in Andalusia would provide a necessary link in Alabama's statewide educational television service and that the Alabama Commission will file an application for an educational station in the event Channel 2 is reserved in Andalusia. Andalusia has a population of 9,162 persons. One channel, Channel 29, is presently assigned, but no applications have been filed for this frequency.

4. In reply to the Alabama Commission's counterproposal, Mr. Phipps argues that since only one channel has been assigned to Andalusia, an educational assignment in that community would violate the allocation principles employed by the Commission in its Sixth Report and Order. It is contended that in that proceeding the Commission reserved an assignment for noncommercial educational use only in communities which had three or more assignments or where the community had been designated as a primarily educational center; and it is contended that Andalusia does not fit either of these categories. It is also submitted, in opposition to the Alabama Commission's request, that the State of Alabama already has its fair share of television channels, both VHF and UHF, for educational use and that it is not possible for every State to achieve complete coverage in the VHF band.

5. The Commission has before it two conflicting proposals for the assignment of Channel 2: One seeks this assignment for Havana, Florida; the other for Andalusia, Alabama to be reserved for education. The assignment could be employed in either community in accordance with the Commission's technical requirements; however, since the two communities are only 130 miles apart, the channel can be used in only one of them. Channel 2 in Havana would represent a first assignment for a community of 1,634 persons. Havana, however, is only 16 miles from Tallahassee which presently has 3 assignments, one of which is reserved for education. In Andalusia, Channel 2 would represent a second assignment and a first educational reservation in a community of 9,162 persons.

6. Upon our careful review of the comments filed in this proceeding, we have determined that Channel 2 should be assigned to Andalusia and reserved for education in that community. On the basis of the record made in this proceeding, we believe that the need for an educational reservation in Andalusia as contemplated by the Alabama Commission outweighs the need for the assignment of this frequency in Havana. The Alabama Educational Television Commission, created by legislative act for the purpose of bringing educational television to the people of Alabama and empowered to own and operate television stations for this purpose, has already been granted a permit to construct an educational station at Munford and has an application for such a station pending for Birmingham. The Alabama Commission submits that the assignment of Channel 2 in Andalusia is both necessary and desirable in order to achieve wide-area coverage of the southern section of the State and to aid in the effectuation of its statewide educational television service. The Alabama Commission points out in this connection, that Channel 2 in Andalusia would provide educational television service not only to that community but would also bring educational television to the large rural area surrounding it.

7. Mr. Phipps contends that since only one channel has been assigned to Andalusia, an educational reservation in that community would not be warranted and would not be in accord with the Commission's assignment principles as employed in the Sixth Report and Order. While it is correct that in the above proceeding the Commission, as a general rule, reserved a channel for educational purposes only if a community had as many as three television channels assigned to it, or if the community could be classified as a "primarily educational center," these principles were only general guideposts and not hard and fast rules. The Commission in a number of instances, upon a proper showing of need, has since reserved channels in communities without regard to the number of assignments in the communities. For example, in order to provide for a state-wide educational network in Tennessee, the Commission has assigned and reserved Channel 2 in Sneedville and Channel 11 in Lexington, Tennessee, communities with very small populations. (See our Report and Order (FCC 54-364) issued March 19, 1954.) We believe, on the basis of the entire record in this proceeding, that the assignment of Channel 2 in Andalusia for educational use is to be preferred to the assignment of Channel 2 to Havana, Florida. Accordingly, we are adopting the counterproposal of the Alabama Educational Television Commission and are rejecting the conflicting proposal of John H. Phipps.[1]

[1] In the notice of proposed rule making it was proposed to assign Channel 2+ to Havana. While this offset carrier assignment was technically feasible in Havana it cannot be employed in Andalusia. Accordingly, we are assigning Channel *2—, which is technically feasible in Andalusia.

8. Authority for the adoption of the amendments herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

9. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That effective October 25, 1954, the Table of Assignment contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules governing Television Broadcast Stations is amended as follows:

City:	Channel No.
Andalusia, Ala	*2—, 29

[Rules Amdt. 8-10]

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

REQUIRED ANTENNA-GROUND SYSTEMS AND AUTHORIZED TRANSMITTER-POWER

In the matter of amendment of Part 8 of the Commission's Rules to require antenna-ground systems and to specify minimum transmitter power or minimum field strength for ship stations operating on frequencies below 25 Mc for telephone communication with public coast stations exclusively; Docket No. 11011.

1. The Commission instituted the above-captioned proceeding by the adoption of a notice of proposed rule making on April 21, 1954. In accordance with the requirements of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, the notice in this proceeding was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 28, 1954 (19 F. R. 2472). The period provided for the submission of written comments and replies thereto by interested parties has expired.

2. Comments were submitted by three parties, the American Merchant Marine Institute, Inc., the Southern California Marine Radio Council, and the American Telephone & Telegraph Company. Comments were submitted by the General Development Corporation subsequent to the closing date for comment in the Docket. Inasmuch as the comments were similar to comments filed by other parties, they are, in effect, covered in the proceedings.

3. The American Merchant Marine Institute, Inc., supported the proposed rule making stating, in part, that "If the operational requirements of a particular user are such that his needs can be satisfied by only the short distance transmissions which can be obtained from equipment below the standards proposed, then the user should be operating on frequencies in the VHF bands (which have been established for short distance communication purposes), and not on the longer distance frequencies below 25 Mc". The American Telephone & Telegraph Company indicated that amendments of the nature of those proposed would be desirable but recommended that the requirements be extended to cover ship-to-ship communication frequencies and that the minimum power values be reduced to one-half of those proposed. The Southern California Marine Radio Council objected to the antenna-ground system requirement on the basis that it would be impractical or even impossible in the case of certain non-metallic hulled vessels to attach metal plates to the hull. The Council pointed out the economic burden involved in installing metal plates, although recognizing the benefit of good antenna-ground systems, and expressed the belief that they should be made the subject of education rather than rule. With respect to the minimum power requirement, the Council stated that the lower limit should be 10 watts because "reasonably satisfactory" communication is being obtained with transmitters rated at 12 watts and because "an optimum balance" would be achieved "between power output, size and cost of transmitter, and battery capacity". The Council further pointed out, as had the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, that although the proposed rules were expressly directed to ship-to-shore public correspondence only, as a practical matter they would apply to intership communication as well, since in most instances a single set of equipment was used for both types of communication.

4. In view of the comments regarding the infeasibility under various circumstances of installing ground plates on non-metallic hulls, the rule, as finalized, has been revised so as to eliminate the absolute requirement that such a plate be installed on vessels having non-metallic hulls. In lieu thereof, with respect to such ships, the rule calls for the installation of the best possible antenna-ground system under the circumstances on the particular ship.

5. The minimum power values have been finalized as proposed. The comments submitted did not object to the specification in the rules of minimum power values but suggested different and less minimum values than those proposed. There was not any unanimity as to what the minimum values should be, and apparently the primary basis for the suggested values was what each party's experience indicated would furnish "satisfactory" communication. However, as suggested by the American Merchant Marine Institute in its comment, the public interest in use of radio frequencies is not directed solely to furnishing "satisfactory" communication without regard to the efficiency of use of the frequencies involved. Frequencies are now available in the VHF band to handle essentially short distance communication. Effective frequency utilization requires that such communications be removed from the extremely congested longer distance frequencies in the 2 to 4 Mc band, and placed in the VHF band. Reduction of the minimum power values from those proposed to any of the values suggested would tend to lessen the effectiveness of the requirement for this purpose.

6. The rules, as finalized, herein, do not distinguish between frequencies for public correspondence ship-shore use and frequencies for intership use. As indicated by the comments, the distinction is more apparent than real in view of the equipment installed aboard most vessels. Therefore, the distinction has been eliminated.

7. In view of the foregoing and pursuant to sections 4 (i), 303 (f), (h) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, it is ordered that effective November 1, 1954, Part 8 of the Commission's rules and regulations are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066 as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 301, 303, 307, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, 1084; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303, 307)

Adopted: September 22, 1954.

Released: September 24, 1954.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Section 8.107 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) as follows:

(c) When a ship station is operating on any carrier frequency below 25 Mc authorized for radiotelephony and the effective operation of the antenna employed is not independent of a ground connection on the frequency in use, the radio station ground system of each such ship station for operation on such frequency shall consist of:

(1) An effective radio ground to the hull for a vessel having a metallic-hull, or

(2) In the case of a vessel not having a metallic hull, the most effective radio ground practicable under the circumstances. Preferably the ground shall be to a bare plate or strips, or a combination thereof, of corrosion-resistant metal of at least 12 square feet in aggregate area affixed to the hull below the waterline.

2. Section 8.134 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Stations on board ship subject to this part may use such antenna power as is necessary to carry on the service for which the station is licensed, on condition that the maximum authorized transmitter-power shall, subject to the provisions of § 8.110 (a), not be exceeded; and on condition that the minimum authorized transmitter-power shall not be less than that designated in paragraph (c) of this section. Unless the station authorization specifically provides otherwise, the maximum authorized transmitter-power (as defined in § 8.7 (ii)) shall not exceed the particular power set forth in paragraphs (b) through (h) of this section which is applicable under the controlling factors designated therein in direct relation to that power. Unless the station license specifically provides otherwise, the minimum authorized transmitter-power shall not be less than the particular power set forth in paragraph (c) of this section.

3. Section 8.134 (c) is amended by designating the present contents of paragraph (c) to be paragraph (c) (1) and adding a new subparagraph (2) to read as follows:

(2) For ship stations on board any category of vessel, the authorized transmitter power on and after July 1, 1959, on frequencies between 2000 and 25,000 kc assigned for communication by telephony shall not be less than the power designated in the following table:

Class of radio-frequency amplifier used in last radio stage of transmitter	Minimum authorized transmitter power in watts (when no modulation is present)
Class C—Plate, or plate and screen-grid modulated	15.
Class C—Control, screen, or suppressor-grid modulated.	30.
Class C—Cathode modulated	24.
Other classes	Equivalent values as specified in the station authorization.

Provided, however, That the Commission may specifically license the use of authorized transmitter-power less than that specified in the foregoing table, for telephone communication on frequencies within the band 2000 to 4000 kc on condition that the applicant or station licensee shall make a satisfactory showing to the Commission that, with the plate (anode) input power to be used, (see § 8.7 (ff)) a minimum radio frequency field intensity of 7.4 millivolts per meter will be obtained on each such frequency at a distance over sea-water of one statute mile (over fresh water, the minimum radio frequency field intensity is reduced to 4.8 millivolts per meter at one statute mile) from the ship station independent of the direction in which the ship is headed.

PART 41—TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE FRANKS

RECORDS TO BE MAINTAINED AND REPORTS TO BE FILED

In the matter of amendment of Part 41, Telegraph and Telephone Franks, of the Commission's rules and regulations; Docket No. 11107.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of September 1954;

On July 14, 1954, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making proposing to amend Part 41 (Telegraph and Telephone Franks) of the Commission's rules and regulations. This notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER July 20, 1954 (19 F. R. 4482) in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act. The proposed amendment of § 41.31 of Part 41 of the rules eliminates the requirement of maintaining records of personal telephone calls of officers, agents, or employees of common carriers subject to the act made from company official stations. The proposed amendment provides economic relief in that it eliminates the requirement for preparing toll tickets or the recording of all such calls on AMA (automatic message accounting) tape. It requires that the carrier be prepared, upon request, to make studies which would show data regarding such calls.

No comments have been received regarding the above-mentioned proposed rule making.

It is ordered, That under authority contained in sections 4 (i) and 220 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the amendment contained in the notice of proposed rule making and set forth below is hereby adopted.

It is further ordered, That said amendment shall become effective November 1, 1954.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066 as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies Sec. 220, 48 Stat. 1078; 47 U. S. C. 220)

Released: September 23, 1954.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

Delete paragraph (b) of § 41.31 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

§ 41.31 Records to be maintained and reports to be filed. • • •

(b) With respect to the communications referred to in § 41.13 every carrier subject to the act shall maintain its records in such a manner as to show the number of each class of such communications handled free of charge: Provided, That with respect to personal telephone calls of officers, agents, or employees of common carriers subject to the act made free of charge or at reduced rates from telephone company official stations it shall be sufficient, in lieu of such record maintenance, if the carrier be at all times prepared, upon appropriate request, to make studies which will show the number of each class of such communications handled free of charge or at reduced rates.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Docket No. 3666; Order 16]

PARTS 71-78—EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of September 1954.

It appearing, that pursuant to the Transportation of Explosives Act of March 4, 1921 (41 Stat. 1444), sections 831-835 of Title 18 of the United States Code approved June 25, 1948, and Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, the Commission has heretofore formulated and published certain regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles.

It further appearing, that in application received we are asked to amend the aforesaid regulations as set forth in provisions made a part thereof.

It is ordered, That the aforesaid regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles be, and they are hereby, amended as follows:

PART 72—COMMODITY LIST OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES CONTAINING THE SHIPPING NAME OR DESCRIPTION OF ALL ARTICLES SUBJECT TO PARTS 71-78 OF THIS CHAPTER

Amend § 72.5 commodity list (15 F. R. 8264, 8366, 8267, 8271, Dec. 2, 1950) (17 F. R. 7279, Aug. 9, 1952) (49 CFR 72.5, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) as follows:

SUBPART B—EXPLOSIVES; DEFINITIONS AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.53 (g) (2) (15 F. R. 8285, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.53, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.53 Definition of class A explosives. • • •

(g) Type 7. • • •

(2) Detonating fuzes are used in the military service to detonate the high explosive bursting charges of projectiles, mines, bombs, torpedoes, and grenades. In addition to a powerful detonator, they may contain several ounces of a high explosive, such as tetryl or dry nitrocellulose, all assembled in a heavy steel envelope. They may also contain a small amount of radioactive component.

• • • • • •

2. Amend § 73.69 (a) and (c) (17 F. R. 9836, Nov. 1, 1952) (49 CFR 73.69, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.69 Detonating fuzes with or without radioactive components, detonating fuze parts containing an explosive, boosters, bursters, or supplementary charges. (a) Detonating fuzes with or without radioactive components, detonating fuze parts containing an explosive, boosters, bursters, or supplementary charges, when shipped not assembled in projectiles, bombs, etc., must be packed and well secured in strong, tight wooden boxes.

NOTE 1: Radiation on the surface of any detonating fuze having a radioactive component shall not exceed 100 milliroentgens per hour and the radiation at the surface of the outside shipping cantainer shall not exceed 200 milliroentgens per hour.

• • • • • •

(c) Each outside package must be plainly marked "Detonating Fuzes—Handle Carefully—Do not Store or Load With Any High Explosives," or "Detonating Fuzes, Radioactive—Handle Carefully—Do Not Store or Load With Any High Explosives," or "Boosters (Explosive)—Handle Carefully," or "Bursters (Explosive)—Handle Carefully," or "Supplementary Charges (Explosive)—Handle Carefully," as the case may be.

SUBPART C—FLAMMABLE LIQUIDS; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.116 (d), (e), and introductory text of paragraph (f) (15 F. R. 8297, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.116, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.116 Outage. • • •

(d) Flammable liquids must not be loaded into domes of tank cars. If the dome of the tank car does not provide sufficient outage, then vacant space must be left in the shell to make up the required outage.

(e) Flammable liquids having vapor pressure of 16 pounds per square inch absolute at 100° F. or less must be so loaded in tank cars that the outage shall be not less than 2 percent.

(f) Flammable liquids having a vapor pressure exceeding 16 pounds per square inch absolute at 100° F. for which minimum outage is not otherwise specifically provided herein, when loaded in uninsulated tank cars, must be so loaded that the minimum outage will be the greatest of the following values:

• • • • • •

2. Amend § 73.120 (a) (15 F. R. 8300, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.120 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.120 Automobiles, motorcycles, tractors, or other self-propelled vehicles. (a) Automobiles, motorcycles, tractors, or other self-propelled vehicles, equipped with gasoline or other fuel tanks are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements, provided such tanks are securely closed, for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway. When for transportation by carrier by water they are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements. When offered for transportation by carriers by rail freight or highway, drainage of fuel tanks is not required. When offered for transportation by rail express, fuel tanks must have been drained and securely closed.

2. Add paragraph (a) (4) to § 73.206 (15 F. R. 8310, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.206 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.206 Sodium or potassium, metallic, sodium amide, sodium potassium alloys, lithium metal, lithium silicon, lithium hydride, and lithium aluminum hydride.

(a) • • •

(4) Spec. 37D (§ 78.125 of this chapter). Metal drums (single-trip) not exceeding 6 gallons capacity each, with welded side seams and hermetically sealed closure or closure made fast by positive pressure of the lid against a rubber gasket with edge of the lid crimped over the lip of the drum and a protective metal ring fastened around the crimped edge, cushioned on all sides with incombustible packing material, packed in strong outside wooden boxes (see § 73.25). Not more than 4 inside metal drums shall be packed in one outside wooden box.

• • • • • •

3. Amend entire § 73.220 (19 F. R. 3260, June 3, 1954) (49 CFR 73.220, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.220 Magnesium scrap (borings, clippings, shavings, sheets, or turnings). (a) Magnesium scrap consisting of borings, shavings, or turnings, when shipped in carloads or truckloads, must be packed in closed metal barrels, wooden barrels, metal pails, or four-ply paper bags. In less-than-carload or less-than-truckload quantities it must be packed in closed metal drums, metal pails, or wooden barrels.

(b) Magnesium scrap consisting of clippings or sheets may be shipped in bulk in carload or truckload quantities. Cars must be tight box cars or tightly closed steel covered gondola cars and trucks or trailers must have closed or completely covered bodies.

(c) Magnesium scrap consisting of clippings or sheets in closed metal drums, wooden barrels, or wooden boxes is exempt from specification packaging, marking, or labeling requirements.

4. In § 73.224 amend introductory text of paragraph (a) (15 F. R. 8312, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.224, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.224 Cumene hydroperoxide, dicumyl peroxide, and tertiary butylisopropyl benzene hydroperoxide. (a) Cumene hydroperoxide of strength not exceeding 75 percent in a non-volatile solvent, dicumyl peroxide of strength not exceeding 50 percent in a non-volatile solvent, and tertiary butylisopropyl benzene hydroperoxide not exceeding 60 percent strength must be packed in specification containers as follows:

SUBPART E—ACIDS AND OTHER CORROSIVE LIQUIDS; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.245 (a) (7) (15 F. R. 8313, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.245 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.245 Acids or other corrosive liquids not specifically provided for. (a) • • •

(7) Spec. 15A, 15B, 15C, 16A, or 19A (§§ 78.168, 78.169, 78.170, 78.185, or 78.190 of this chapter). Wooden boxes with inside containers which must be glass, earthenware, polyethylene or other nonfragile plastic material (bags are not authorized), not over 1 gallon each, except that inside containers up to 3 gallons are authorized when only one is packed in each outside container.

• • • • • •

2. Amend § 73.256 (a) (3) (18 F. R. 5272, Sept. 1, 1953) (49 CFR 73.256, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.256 Compounds, cleaning, liquid. (a) • • •

(3) Spec. 22B (§ 78.197 of this chapter). Plywood drums equipped with molded liner of type and material approved by the Bureau of Explosives.

3. Amend § 73.257 (a) (6) (16 F. R. 11778, Nov. 21, 1951) (49 CFR 73.257, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.257 Electrolyte (acid) or corrosive battery fluid. (a) • • •

(6) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with inside containers of polyethylene or other electrolyte acid resistant plastic (bags are not authorized), not over one quart capacity each. Individual containers must be packed to prevent movement within the box by use of partitions or other suitable cushioning. Dry storage batteries or battery charger devices may be packed in the same outside box when adequately separated from inside containers of electrolyte acid, but not more than 4 inside containers of electrolyte acid may be so packed under this provision; gross weight of completed package shall not exceed 65 pounds.

4. Amend § 73.260 (a) (3) (19 F. R. 3260, June 3, 1954) (49 CFR 73.260, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.260 Electric storage batteries. (a) • • •

(3) Electric storage batteries with case of asphaltum composition, impregnated rubber, steel case type, synthetic resin (plastic), or wooden battery box type, protected against short circuits and firmly secured to skids or pallets capable of withstanding the shocks normally incident to transportation, are exempt from specification packaging requirements for transportation by rail freight, highway, or water. The height of the completed unit must not exceed 1½ times the width of the skid or pallet. The unit must weigh not less than 300 pounds gross and must not fail under a superimposed weight equal to two times the weight of the unit or a superimposed weight of 4,000 pounds if the weight of the unit exceeds 2,000 pounds. Battery terminals must not be relied upon to support any part of the superimposed weight.

• • • • • •

5. In § 73.263 amend paragraph (a) (1) and add paragraph (a) (15) (15 F. R. 8316, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.263, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.263 Hydrochloric (muriatic) acid, hydrochloric (muriatic) acid mixtures, hydrochloric (muriatic) acid solution, inhibited, and sodium chlorite solution. (a) • • •

(1) Spec. 15A, 15B, 15C, 16A, or 19A (§§ 78.168, 78.169, 78.170, 78.185, or 78.190 of this chapter). Wooden boxes with inside containers which must be glass, earthenware, polyethylene or other nonfragile plastic material resistant to the lading (bags are not authorized), not over 1 gallon each, except that inside containers up to 3 gallons each are authorized when only one is packed in each outside container.

• • • • • •

(15) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with inside containers of polyethylene, or other nonfragile plastic material resistant to the lading (bags are not authorized), not over 1 quart capacity each, suitably cushioned to prevent movement within the box. Gross weight of complete package must not exceed 65 pounds.

• • • • • •

6. Amend § 73.287 (a) (2) (15 F. R. 8323, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.287, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.287 Chromic acid solution. (a) • • •

(2) Spec. 17H (§ 78.118 of this chapter). Metal drums (single-trip), not over 5 gallons capacity.

• • • • • •

SUBPART F—COMPRESSED GASES; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend entire § 73.303 (18 F. R. 3136, June 2, 1953) (49 CFR 73.303, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.303 Truck bodies or trailers on flat cars; automobiles, motorcycles, tractors, or other self-propelled vehicles. (a) Truck bodies or trailers with automatic heating or refrigerating equipment of the gas burning type may be shipped with fuel tanks filled and equipment operating or inoperative, when used for the transportation of other freight and loaded on flat cars as part of a joint rail-highway movement, provided the equipment and fuel supply are of a type approved by the Bureau of Explosives. The heating or refrigerating units are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements.

(b) Automobiles, motorcycles, tractors, or other self-propelled vehicles, equipped with liquefied petroleum gas or other fuel tanks are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements, provided such tanks are securely closed, for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway. When for transportation by carrier by water they are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements. When offered for transportation by carriers by rail freight or highway, drainage of fuel tanks is not required. When offered for transportation by rail express, fuel tanks must have been emptied and securely closed.

2. In § 73.308 (a), table, cancel the entry Propylene and amend the entry Vinyl methyl ether, inhibited (17 F. R. 9837, Nov. 1, 1952) (49 CFR 73.308, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.308 Compressed gases in cylinders. (a) • • •

3. Amend § 73.312 (a) (1) (18 F. R. 3136, June 2, 1953) (49 CFR 73.312, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.312 Liquefied petroleum gas. (a) • • •

(1) Spec. 3[1], 3A, 3AA, 3B, 3E, 4, 4A, 4B, 4BA, 4B240X[1] (see appendix A to Subpart C of Part 78), 4B240FLW, 4B240ET or 9, 25[1], 26[1], 38[1], or 41 (§§ 78.36, 78.37, 78.38, 78.42, 78.48, 78.49, 78.50, 78.51, 78.54, 78.55, 78.63, or 78.67 of this chapter). Cylinders authorized under § 73.34 (a) to (e) may be used.

(No change in Note 1.)

SUBPART G—POISONOUS ARTICLES; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.332 (a) (2) (17 F. R. 9944, Nov. 4, 1952) (49 CFR 73.332, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.332 Hydrocyanic acid, liquid (prussic acid) and hydrocyanic acid, liquefied. (a) • • •

(2) Spec. 3A480, 3AA480, or 3A480X (§§ 78.36, 78.37, or 78.43 of this chapter). Metal cylinders of not over 278 pounds water capacity (nominal); valve protection cap must be used and be at least 3/16 inch thick, gas-tight, with 3/16 inch faced seat for gasket and with United States standard form thread; the cap must be capable of preventing injury or distortion of the valve when it is subjected to an impact caused by allowing cylinder, prepared as for shipment, to fall from an upright position with side of cap striking a solid steel object projecting not more than 6 inches above floor level.

2. Amend the heading of § 73.391 (15 F. R. 8339, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.391, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.391 Radioactive materials class D Poison; definition. • • •

3. In § 73.392 amend paragraph (c) and add paragraph (d) (16 F. R. 5326, June 6, 1951) (15 F. R. 8339, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.392, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 73.392 Exemptions for radioactive materials. • • •

(c) Radioactive materials such as ores, residues, etc., of low activity packed in strong tight containers are exempt from specification packaging and labeling requirements for shipment in carload lots by rail freight only provided the gamma radiation or equivalent will not exceed 10 milliroentgens per hour at a distance of 12 feet from any surface of the car and that the gamma radiation or equivalent will not exceed 10 milliroentgens per hour at a distance of 5 feet from either end surface of the car. There must be no loose radioactive material in the car and the shipment must be braced so as to prevent leakage or shift of lading under conditions normally incident to transportation. The car must be placarded by the shipper as provided in §§ 74.541 (b) and 74.553 of this chapter. Except when handling is supervised by the Atomic Energy Commission, shipments must be loaded by consignor and unloaded by consignee.

(d) Detonating fuzes with radioactive components as described in § 73.53 (g) (2) are exempt from labeling requirements.

PART 74—CARRIERS BY RAIL FREIGHT

SUBPART A—LOADING, UNLOADING, PLACARDING AND HANDLING CARS; LOADING PACKAGES INTO CARS

1. Amend § 74.529 (c) (18 F. R. 3137, June 2, 1953) (49 CFR 74.529, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 74.529 Cars for class B, explosives. • • •

(c) Explosives, class B, may be carried in tight, closed truck bodies or trailers on flat cars provided such truck bodies or trailers are not equipped with fuel tanks, lighted heaters, or any automatic heating or refrigerating apparatus. Packages of explosives shall be so braced and stayed as to prevent their movement and so as to prevent injury to them due to movement of other freight during transit. Ends, side walls, or doors of truck bodies or trailers shall not be relied upon to prevent the shifting of heavy loads unless adequately designed. "Dangerous" placards prescribed by § 74.552 must be securely attached to the car or truck body or trailer so as to be visible from both sides and ends of the car.

2. Amend § 74.530 (b) (18 F. R. 3137, 3138, June 2, 1953) (49 CFR 74.530, 1950 Rev. 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 74.530 Cars for class C, explosives. • • •

(b) Explosives, class C, may be carried in tight, closed truck bodies or trailers on flat cars provided such truck bodies or trailers are not equipped with fuel tanks, lighted heaters, or any automatic heating or refrigerating apparatus. Ends, side walls, or doors of truck bodies or trailers shall not be relied upon to prevent the shifting of heavy loads unless adequately designed.

3. In § 74.532 amend the introductory text of paragraph (a) (18 F. R. 3138, June 2, 1953) (49 CFR 74.532, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 74.532 Loading other dangerous articles. (a) Shipments must be properly loaded in closed cars, container cars, or in tight closed truck bodies or trailers on flat cars, except as otherwise provided in Parts 71–78 of this chapter and cars placarded as prescribed, when accepted by carriers. Ends, side walls, or doors of truck bodies or trailers shall not be relied upon to prevent the shifting of heavy loads unless adequately designed.

• • • • • •

SUBPART B—LOADING AND STORAGE CHART OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

In § 74.538 (a), chart, amend item g vertical and horizontal columns (17 F. R. 9839, Nov. 1, 1952) (49 CFR 74.538, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 74.538 Loading and storage chart of explosives and other dangerous articles. (a) • • •

"g" Detonating fuzes, with or without radioactive components.

• • • • • •

PART 77—SHIPMENTS MADE BY WAY OF COMMON, CONTRACT, OR PRIVATE CARRIERS BY PUBLIC HIGHWAY

SUBPART B—LOADING AND UNLOADING

Amend § 77.835 (j) (15 F. R. 8365, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 77.835, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 77.835 Explosives. • • •

(j) Transfer of explosives en route. No class A or class B explosive shall be transferred from one container to another, or from one motor vehicle to another vehicle, or from another vehicle to a motor vehicle, on any public highway, street, or road, except in case of emergency. In such cases red electric lanterns, red emergency reflectors or red flags shall be set out in the manner prescribed for disabled or stopped motor vehicles. (See Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, Part 192 of this chapter.) In any event, all practicable means, in addition to these hereinbefore prescribed, shall be taken to protect and warn other users of the highway against the hazard involved in any such transfer or against the hazard occasioned by the emergency making such transfer necessary.

• • • • • •

SUBPART C—LOADING AND STORAGE CHART OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

In § 77.848 (a), chart, amend item g vertical and horizontal columns (17 F. R. 9840, Nov. 1, 1952) (49 CFR 77.848, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 77.848 Loading and storage chart of explosives and other dangerous articles. (a) • • •

"g" Detonating fuzes, with or without radioactive components.

• • • • • •

SUBPART D—VEHICLES AND SHIPMENTS IN TRANSIT; ACCIDENTS

Amend § 77.854 (a) and (f) (15 F. R. 8369, 8370, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 77.854, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 77.854 Disabled vehicles and broken or leaking packages; repairs. (See also Forbidden articles, § 77.821.)

(a) Care of lading, explosives or other dangerous articles. Whenever for any cause other than necessary traffic stops any motor vehicle transporting any explosive or other dangerous article is stopped upon the traveled portion of any highway or shoulder thereof, special care shall be taken to guard the vehicle and its load or to take such steps as may be necessary to provide against hazard. Special effort shall be made to remove the motor vehicle to a place where the hazards of the materials being transported may be provided against. See §§ 192.22 to 192.26 inclusive, of this chapter, for signals required to be displayed on the highway.

• • • • • •

(f) Stopped vehicles; other dangerous articles. Whenever any motor vehicle transporting flammable liquids, flammable solids, oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids, compressed gases, or poisons, is stopped for any cause other than necessary traffic stops upon the traveled portion of any highway, or a shoulder next thereto, the following requirements shall be complied with during the period of such stop:

(1) For motor vehicles other than cargo tank motor vehicles used for the transportation of flammable liquids or flammable compressed gases and not transporting explosives, class A or class B, flares (pot torches), fusees, red electric lanterns, red emergency reflectors, and red flags shall be displayed as required under §§ 192.22, 192.23, 192.24, and 192.26 of this chapter.

(2) For cargo tank motor vehicles used for the transportation of flammable liquids or flammable compressed gases, whether loaded or empty, and vehicles transporting explosives class A or class B, red electric lanterns, red emergency reflectors and red flags shall be displayed as required in §§ 192.25 and 192.26 of this chapter.

• • • • • •

PART 78—SHIPPING CONTAINER SPECIFICATIONS

SUBPART D—SPECIFICATIONS FOR METAL BARRELS, DRUMS, KEGS, CASES, TRUNKS AND BOXES

1. Amend entire § 78.81–9 (15 F. R. 8433, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.81–9, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

FLANGE AND PLUG

§ 78.81 Specification 5A; steel barrels or drums.

• • • • • •

§ 78.81–9 Closures. (a) Adequate to prevent leakage; gasket required. Closure must be of screw-thread type or fastened by screw-thread device. Unthreaded cap is authorized for containers of 12 gallons or less if cap is provided with outside sealing devices which cannot be removed without destroying the cap or sealing device.

(b) Closing part (plug, cap, plate, etc., see Note 1) must be of metal as thick as prescribed for head of container; this not required for containers of 12 gallons or less when the opening to be closed is not over 2.3 inches in diameter.

NOTE 1: This does not apply to cap seal over a closure which complies with all requirements.

(c) For closure with threaded plug or cap, the seat (flange, etc.) for plug or cap must have 5 or more complete threads; 2 drainage holes of not over 5/16" diameter are allowed in that section of flange which extends inside the drum. Plug or cap must have sufficient length of thread to engage 5 threads when securely tightened with gasket in place.

(d) Openings over 2.3" diameter not permitted. Threads for plug or cap must be 8 or less per inch when over 3/4" standard pipe size. Flanges with inside threads and plugs must conform with the thread diameter and thread form shown in the following drawing; other details shown on the drawing are recommended.

(e) Other threaded closures may be authorized by the Bureau of Explosives upon demonstration of equal efficiency.

2. Amend § 78.82–2 (a) (17 F. R. 7284, Aug. 9, 1952) (49 CFR 78.82–2, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 78.82 Specification 5B; steel barrels or drums.

• • • • • • •

§ 78.82–2 Rated capacity. (a) Rated capacity as marked, see § 78.82–11 (a) (3). Minimum actual capacity of containers shall be not less than rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent. Maximum actual capacity shall not be greater than rated (marked) capacity plus 5 percent or rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent plus 1 quart whichever is the greater. Actual capacity of bilge type containers must be not less than rated (marked) capacity, nor greater than rated (marked) capacity plus 2 percent plus 2 quarts.

3. Amend § 78.83–9 (d) (1) (19 F. R. 1285, Mar. 6, 1954) (49 CFR 78.83–9, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.83 Specification 5C; steel barrels or drums.

• • • • • • •

§ 78.83–9 Closures. • • •

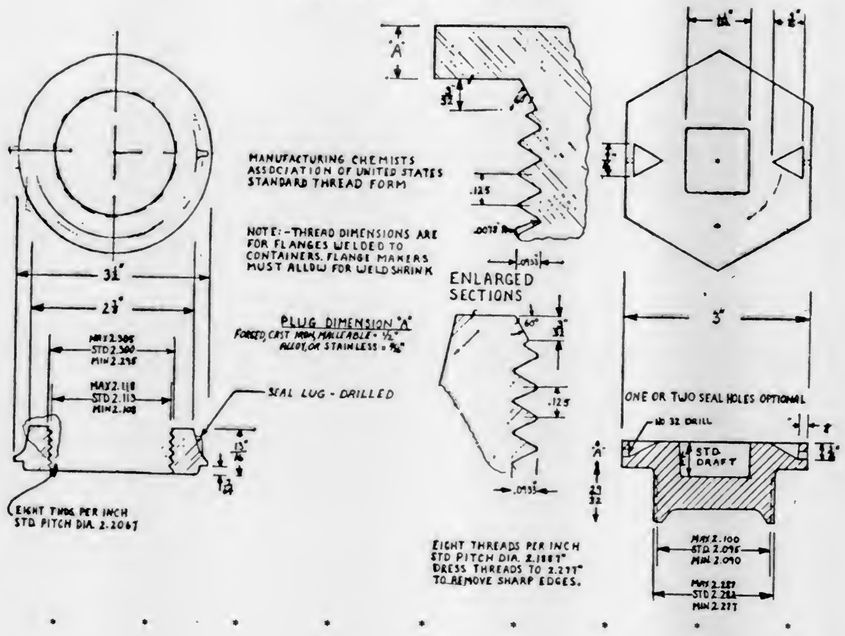
(d) • • •

(1) Eight (8) threads or less per inch, thread diameters and thread form must comply with the following drawing (other details on drawing are recommended) or

FLANGE AND PLUG



• • • • • • • • • •

(2) Eight (8) threads or less per inch, thread diameters and thread form must comply with the following drawing (other details on drawing are recommended) or

FLANGE AND PLUG

(3) Eight (8) threads or less per inch, thread diameters and thread form must comply with the following drawing (other details on drawing are recommended) or

FLANGE AND PLUG

4. Amend § 78.88–8 (d) (15 F. R. 8439, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.88–8, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.88 Specification 5K; nickel barrels or drums.

* * * * * * * * * * *

§ 78.88–8 Closures. * * *

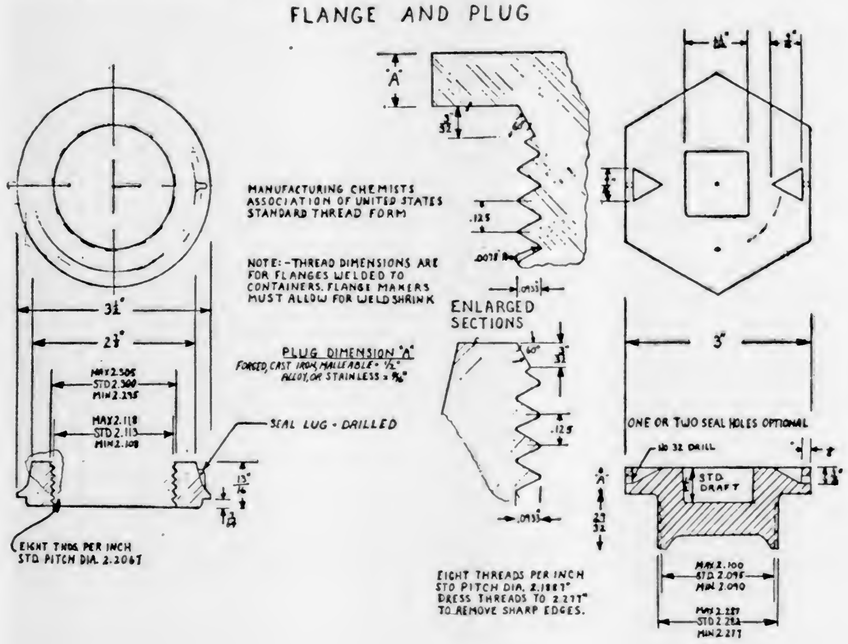
(d) Openings over 2.3" diameter not permitted. Threads for plug or cap must be 8 or less per inch when over ¾" standard pipe size. Flanges with inside threads and plugs must conform with the thread diameter and thread form shown in the following drawing; other details shown on the drawing are recommended.

FLANGE AND PLUG



5. Amend § 78.90–8 (e) (15 F. R. 8440, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.90–8, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.90 Specification 5M; monel drums.

* * * * * * * * * * *

§ 78.90–8 Closures. * * *

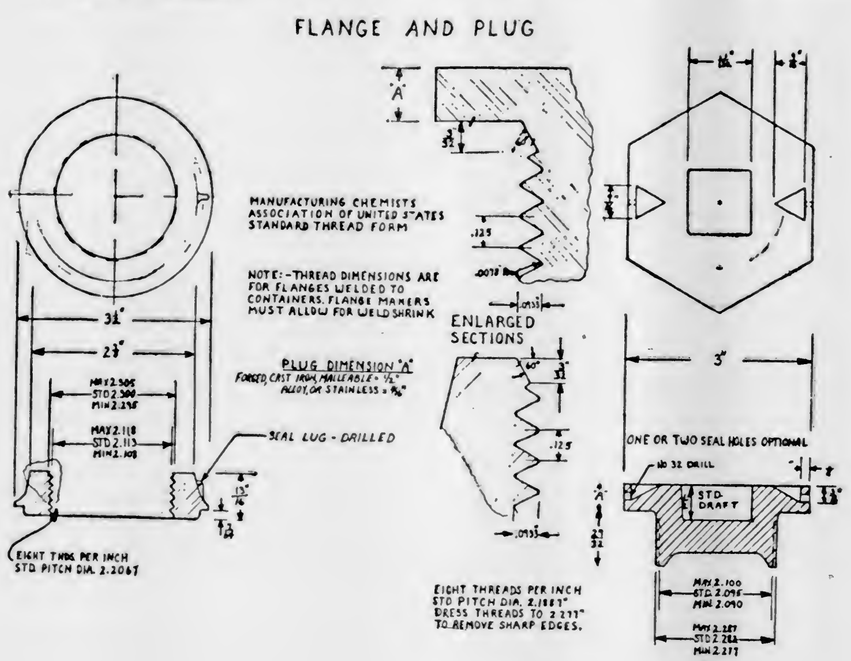
(e) Openings over 2.3" diameter not permitted. Threads for plug or cap must be 8 or less per inch when over ¾" standard pipe size. Flanges with inside threads and plugs must conform with the thread diameter and thread form shown in the following drawing; other details shown on the drawing are recommended.

FLANGE AND PLUG



6. Amend § 78.115–2 (a); amend § 78.115–6 (a), table (17 F. R. 7286, Aug. 9, 1952) (15 F. R. 8448, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.115–2, 78.115–6, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 78.115 Specification 17C; steel drums.

• • • • • • •

§ 78.115–2 Rated capacity. (a) Rated capacity as marked, see § 78.115–10 (a) (3). Minimum actual capacity of containers shall be not less than rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent. Maximum actual capacity shall not be greater than rated (marked) capacity plus 5 percent or rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent plus 1 quart whichever is the greater.

§ 78.115–6 Parts and dimensions. (a) • • •

Marked capacity not over (gallons)	Type of container	Minimum thickness in the black (gauge, United States standard)		Rolling hoops

7. Amend § 78.116–2 (a) (17 F. R. 7286, Aug. 9, 1952) (49 CFR 78.116–2, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 78.116 Specification 17E; steel drums.

• • • • • • •

§ 78.116–2 Rated capacity. (a) Rated capacity as marked, see § 78.116–10 (a) (3). Minimum actual capacity of containers shall be not less than rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent. Maximum actual capacity shall not be greater than rated (marked) capacity plus 5 percent or rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent plus 1 quart whichever is the greater.

8. Amend § 78.118–2 (a) (17 F. R. 7287, Aug. 9, 1952) (49 CFR 78.118–2, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:

§ 78.118 Specification 17H; steel drums.

• • • • • • •

§ 78.118–2 Rated capacity. (a) Rated capacity as marked, see § 78.118–10 (a) (3). Minimum actual capacity of containers shall be not less than rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent. Maximum actual capacity shall not be greater than rated (marked) capacity plus 5 percent or rated (marked) capacity plus 4 percent plus 1 quart whichever is the greater.

9. Amend § 78.119–2 (a) (17 F. R. 7287, Aug. 9, 1952) (49 CFR 78.119–2, 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp.) to read as follows:
